difficult life." "What did he do with the Dinaars?" Hadhrat Umar (enquired. "I d not know." submitted Hadhrat Haarith. Hadhrat Umar (1986) then wrote to Hadhrat Umayr with instructions to come to him without even putting the letter down. When Hadhrat Umayr William arrived and went to see Hadhrat Umar the Ameerul Mu'mineen asked, "What did you do with the Dinaars?" Hadhrat Umayr wife replied, "I did what I had to do with it. Why should you ask about it?" Hadhrat Umar Sussi demanded, "I command you in the name of Allaah to tell me what you did with it!" Hadhrat Umayr was then responded by saying, "I sent it ahead (to the Aakhirah) for myself." "May Allaah shower his mercy on you!" exclaimed Hadhrat Umar (Silvie). Hadhrat Umar (Silvie) then issued instructions for Hadhrat Umayr ($1000) to be given two Wasags of grain and two sets of clothing. Hadhrat Umayr & said, "I have no need for the food because I have at home two Saa of barley and Allaah will provide more when I have eaten that." He therefore did not take the food. With regard to the clothing he said, "A certain person's mother has no clohes (I shall give it to her)." He then took it and returned home. It was not long afterwards that he passed away. May Allaah shower His mercies on him.

When Hadhrat Umar received the news, he was extremely distressed and prayed to Allaah to shower His mercy on Hadhrat Umary. Hadhrat Umar then walked to Baqee Gharqad (the graveyard of Madinah) and was accompanied by many others walking with him. Hadhrat Umar said said to those with him, "Express your wishes." Someone said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I wish that I had plenty of wealth so that I could buy and set free so many slaves." Another person said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I wish that I had a lot of wealth to spend in the path of Allaah." Someone else said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I wish that I had a lot of strength so that I may draw buckets of water to give the people performing Hajji." Hadhrat Umar then expressed his wish when he said, "I wish that I had a person like Umayr bin Sa'd to assist me in administering the affairs of the Muslims." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Hudhaym Jumhi

His Behaviour as the Governor of Hims

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Ma'daan narrates that Hadhrat Umar special appointed Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Judhaym special as their governor in Hims. When Hadhrat Umar special visited Hims, he asked, "O people of Hims! How have you found your governor?" The people then started complaining about him. Hims was termed 'small Kufa' because of the complaints they always had against their governors (the people of Kufa are noted for this). The people said, "We have four complaints against him. He does not come out to us until nearly half the day has passed." "That is a serious complaint," remarked Hadhrat Umar "What else?" They continued, "He does not see anyone at night." "Another serious complaint," Hadhrat Umar ("What else?" They said, "There is a day in every month when he does not come out at all." Hadhrat Umar ("Said, "That is also serious. What else?" They concluded by saying, "At times he suffers bouts of unconsciousness and appears to be dead."

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.247). Tabraani has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Umayr bin Sa'd Sand Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.384) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Asaakir has reported a similar narration in detail, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.79).

Hadhrat Umar then brought the people of Hims and Hadhrat Sa'eed together and prayed, "O Allaah! Do not allow my opinion of him to fail." He then asked the people to lodge their complaints. They said, "He does not come out to us until nearly half the day has passed." Hadhrat Sa'eed exclaimed, "By Allaah! I do not want to speak about this but the fact of the matter is that I do not have a servant. I therefore knead the dough myself, wait for it to rise and then bake my bread. Thereafter, I perform wudhu and go out." Hadhrat Umar again asked, "What is your complaint?" The people said, "He does not see anyone at night." "What have you to say about this?" Hadhrat Umar asked. Hadhrat Sa'eed Fepiled, "I would also not like to mention this but I reserve the day for the people and the night for Allaah."

"What is your next complaint?" Hadhrat Umar was asked them. They said, "There is a day in every month when he does not come out at all." "What have you to say about this?" Hadhrat Umar was asked. Hadhrat Sa'eed was replied, "Because I have no servant, I have to wash my clothes myself and have nothing else to change into. I therefore wash my clothes and then wait for them to dry. Because they are thick, they become firm and I have to rub them before they soften up. This takes the entire day and I am then only able to see the people by the evening."

Hadhrat Umar again asked, "What is your complaint?" The people said, "At times he suffers bouts of unconsciousness and appears to be dead." "What have you to say about this?" Hadhrat Umar asked him. Hadhrat Sa'eed replied, "I was present in Makkah when Khubayb Ansaari was martyred. The Quraysh had cut his flesh in pieces and when they crucified him, they asked, 'Do you wish that Muhammad was here with us in your place?' He replied. I swear by Allaah that I would not even like a thorn to prick Muhammad where he is while I am sitting with my family.' He then called out, 'O Muhammad will Whenever I recall that day and the fact that I did nothing to help him and that I was a Mushrik who did not believe in Allaah, I think that Allaah will never forgive me for that sin. It is then that I fall unconscious." Hadhrat Umar then exclaimed, "All praise is due to Allaah Who has not made my intuition fail."

Hadhrat Umar Sites then sent a thousand Dinaars for Hadhrat Sa'eed Saying, "Use it for yourself." His wife exclaimed, "All praise is due to Allaah Who has made us independent of your work!" He said, "Do you not want something better than this? That we give this to whoever will bring it back to us at a time that we will need it even more desperately (on the Day of Oiyaamah)." When she happily agreed, Hadhrat Sa'eed (alled someone from his family whom he trusted and placed the Dinaars into several bags. He then instructed the man to take one bag to a certain widow, another to a certain orphan, another to a certain poor person and another to a certain distressed person. This was done until there remained only a few Dinaars. He then (gave this to his wife and) said, "Spend this." Thereafter, he continued the activities of the governorship. She said, "Will you not get us a servant then? What has happened to the wealth?" Hadhrat Sa'eed (in the Aakhirah)." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah

Hadhrat Tha'laba bin Abu Maalik Qurazi says, "It was during the period that Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah was the governor (of Madinah) for Marwaan that he came to the marketplace carrying a bundle of wood. He joked, 'Widen the road for the Ameer, O Ibn Abu Maalik!' 'But the road is wide enough for you,' I quipped. He the said, 'Widen the road for the Ameer with the bundle on his head.'"(2)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.245).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.385).

Chapter Eight

The Chapter About How the Sahabah Spent in the Path of Allaah

This chapter highlights how Rasulullaah as and the Sahabah some spent their wealth and everything that Aliaah granted them in the path of Aliaah and in avenues where Aliaah's pleasure is found. The chapter also highlights how they loved this more than spending on themselves and how they preferred others above themselves even though they suffered poverty

The Encouragement Rasulullaah gave and the Fervour the Sahabah had for Spending in the Path of Allaah The Encouragement that Rasulullaah Gave to Spend in the path of Allaah

The Narration of Hadhrat Jareer in this Regard Hadhrat Jareer reports that they were once with Rasulullaah one morning when some people belonging to the Mudar tribe arrived. They were barefoot and practically naked. All they had were striped shawls or cloaks and their swords hanging from their necks. The expression on Rasulullaah face face actually changed when he saw their poverty. He then went into his room and when he emerged, he gave instructions to Hadhrat Bilaal face, who duly called out the Adhaan and then the Iqaamah. After Rasulullaah led the salaah, he addressed the people with the following verses of the Qur'aan:

O mankind! Fear your Rabb who created you from a single soul (from Aadam (Mark)), created its spouse (Hawwa) from it, and spread great numbers of men and women from the two (from Aadam and Hawwa). Fear that Allaah in Whom (in Whose name) you ask (things and take promises) from each other and (fear breaking) family ties. Verily Allaah is Watchful over you. (Surah Nisaa, verse!)

Fear Allaah and let every soul see (consider) what (good deeds) it has sent ahead for tomorrow (to be rewarded on the Day of Qiyaamah). (Surah Hashar, verse 18)

Rasulullaah then continued to say, "A man should therefore contribute something from his Dinaars, from his Dirhams, from his clothing, from his Saa of barley, from his Saa of dates. Rasulullaah continued until he said, "Even if it be a piece of a date (Everyone ought to give something regardless of how little it is)."

An Ansaari Sahabi (then brought a bag (of food, that was so full) that he could not even carry it. Hadhrat Jaabir (says, "The others soon followed suit until I saw two heaps of food and clothing and I saw the face of Rasulullaah (which is gleam as if it were a piece of gold. Rasulullaah (which is then said, "Whoever starts a good practice in Islaam will receive the reward for it in addition to the rewards of all those who do the same after him without any of their rewards being diminished in the least. On the contrary, whoever starts an evil practice in Islaam will be burdened with the sin of it in addition to the sins of all those who do the same after him without the burden of any of their sins being lightened in the least." (1)

Ahadeeth discussing the encouragement that Rasulullaah (2006) gave to the Sahabah (2006) to spend in the path of Allaah have already passed. (2)

A Narration from Hadhrat Jaabir (1996) in this Regard

Hadhrat Jaabir in arrates that it was a Wednesday when Rasulullaah visited the Banu Amr bin Auf tribe. The Hadith continues to the point where Rasulullaah said, "O assembly of Ansaar!" The Ansaar responded by saying, "We are at your service, O Rasulullaah reprint a Rasulullaah reprint then addressed them saying, "During the Period of Ignorance when you were not worshipping Allaah, you used to bear the burdens of others, engage your wealth in good deeds and care for travellers. However, now that Allaah has blessed you with Islaam and His Nabi, you are suddenly locking away your wealth (whereas you should be spending even more now). There are rewards for whatever man eats (from your property) and there are also rewards for whatever birds eat." The Ansaar then went to their orchards and each one of them made thirty doors leading into their orchards. (3)

⁽¹⁾ Muslim, Nasa'ee and others, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.53)

⁽²⁾ In the "Chapter concerning Jihaad" under the first heading entitled "Rasulullaan "Encourages Striving in the path of Allaah and Spending One's Wealth for this Cause".

⁽³⁾ Haakim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 4 Pg. 156).

The Sermon of Rasulullaah es concerning the Virtues of Generosity and the Abomination of Miserliness

Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat

The fervour that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah had to Spend in the Path of Allaah

The Hadith of Hadhrat Umar wife in this Regard

Hadhrat Umar see narrates that a man came to ask Rasulullaah to give him something. Rasulullaah said, "I have nothing to give you, but you may give something on my name and I shall settle the payment as soon as something comes my way." Hadhrat Umar see then said, "O Rasulullaah see You had already given him something, (so why incur a debt when) Allaah has not charged you with what you cannot bear." Rasulullaah see disliked the statement of Hadhrat Umar see, but then an Ansaari said, "O Rasulullaah see! Continue spending without fearing any decrease from the Rabb of the Throne." The statement of the Ansaari made Rasulullaah smile and he said, "That is exactly what I have been commanded to do." (2)

A Narration from Hadhrat Jaabir (1966) in this Regard

Hadhrat Jaabir Tooks reports that someone came to ask Rasulullaah for something and he gave it to him. Thereafter, another person came to ask for something and (because Rasulullaah in had nothing to give him) Rasulullaah for promised to give him something. Hadhrat Umar then stood up and (out of pity for Rasulullaah for he) said, "O Rasulullaah for When someone asked you for something, you gave it to him. Then someone else asked you for something and you gave him as well. Thereafter, another person came to ask from you and you promised to give him something. Then when another person came to ask from you, you again made a promise to give (why do you burden yourself when you do not have anything to give?)."

⁽I) the Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.310).

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.56). The narration has also been reported by Bazzaar, ibn Jareer, Kharaa'iti in Makaarimul Akhlaaq and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.42). Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.242) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Rasulullaah seemed to dislike this statement of Hadhrat Umar Sue, but just then Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa Sahmi seemed up and said, "O Rasulullaah see Continue spending without fearing any decrease from the Rabb of the Throne." Rasulullaah see said, "That is exactly what I have been commanded to do." (1)

The narration of Hadhrat Ibn Mas'ood was about Rasulullaah session to Hadhrat Bilaal session to Spend

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood sizes reports that Rasulullaah sizes once went to Hadhrat Bilaal sizes at a time when he had a few heaps of dates before him. "What is this, Bilaal?" asked Rasulullaah sizes replied, "I have kept this in preparation for the guests you receive." Rasulullaah sizes said, "O Bilaal! Do you not fear that the smoke of Jahannam may reach you? (That you will have to account for this if you die without spending it on others?), O Bilaal! Continue spending without fearing any decrease from the Rabb of the Throne."(2)

The narration of Hadhrat Anas Concerning What transpired Between Rasulullaah and his Servant

Hadhrat Anas reports that when Rasulullaah was once given three birds as a gift, he gave one to his servant to eat. The following day, she came with the same bird to him. Rasulullaah said, "Did I not tell you not to leave anything for the next day because Allaah provides sustenance for each coming day(3) (4)

A narration of Hadhrat Ali About what Transpired Between Hadhrat Umar About and the People with regards to Excess Wealth

Hadhrat Ali Weep reports that Hadhrat Umar Weep once said to the people, "We have some excess funds (what should we do with it?)." The people replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Since we have kept you too busy to attend to your family and your business, you may have it for yourself." Hadhrat Umar Weep then asked Hadhrat Ali Weep "What do you have to say?" Hadhrat Ali The people have already given you their opinion." However, when Hadhrat Umar Weep insisted, Hadhrat Ali Weep said, "Why should you change your

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.311).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani, Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg. 149) from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (2006) while Abu Ya'la and Tabraani have reported it from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (2006), as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 2 Pg. 174).

⁽³⁾ Although it is permissible to keep food for the next day, the highest level of reliance in Allaah requires that everything a person has during any day should all be spent on the same day.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Ya'la, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.241).

conviction into assumption (when you are certain that the wealth cannot be yours, why change this on the assumption that the people are right?)." Hadhrat Umar said, "You will have to prove what you are saying." "Certainly," responded Hadhrat Ali said, "By Allaah, I can certainly prove myself. Do you recall the time when Rasuluilaah se sent you to collect Zakaah? Remember when you approached Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib said and he refused to pay his Zakaah to you because there had been a problem between you and him? You then told me to accompany you to Rasuluilaah se but returned because we discovered that he was feeling very cheerless. We then went back to him the following morning and when we found him in a cheerful mood, I informed him about what Abbaas had done. He then said to you, 'Do you not realise that a person's paternal uncle is like his father?"

We then mentioned to Rasulullaah III that we had found him to be cheerless on the first day but again happy on the second. He said to us, "When you came on the first day, I still had with me two Dinaars of Sadaqah funds left over and it was this that caused me to in that mood (because I was worried that I should not die with it in my possession). However, when you came on the second day, I had already spent it and that had put me in the good mood that you saw."

Hadhrat Umar (Sissess) then said, "You are right. I am grateful to you for the first thing you told me (about changing conviction to assumption) and for the second thing (reminding me of the incident)." (1)

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Ali Concerning the Distribution of some wealth

Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah  reports that some wealth once came to Hadhrat Umar  and he duly distributed it amongst the people. When some of it was left over, he consulted with the people about what to do with it. They said, "You should keep it for any needs that may arise." Hadhrat Ali  who was also present there, remained silent without expressing any opinion. Hadhrat Umar  asked him, "What is the matter, O Abul Hasan? Why are you not saying anything?" "The people have already spoken," replied Hadhrat Ali  without Umar  with insisted that Hadhrat Ali  woice his opinion, Hadhrat Umar  said, "Allaah has already distributed this wealth (by detailing the recipients in the Qur'aan. The remaining amount should also be distributed likewise)." Hadhrat Ali  then proceeded to mention the incident when wealth arrived from Bahrain and Rasuiullaah  had not yet distributed all of it when nightfall prevented him from completing. Rasulullaah  then performed all his salaahs as he stayed in the Masjid (without returning home) and the concern (to complete the task) was clearly noticeable on his face until everything had been distributed. Hadhrat Umar Sees then instructed Hadhrat Ali Sees to complete the distribution, which he did. Hadhrat Talha Sees says that his share from this amounted to eight hundred Dirhams. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Abu Ya'la, Dowraqi, Bayhaqi and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.39). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.382). Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.237) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Narration of Hadhrat Ummu Salama About the spending of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ummu Salama salama narrates, "Rasulullaah sa once came to me with great concern on his face. Fearing that he was in pain, I asked, 'O Rasulullaah sa What is the matter that I see you so concerned?' he replied, 'It is on account of seven Dinaars that were brought to us yesterday. It is already evening and it is still lying on the edge of our bedding." Another narration states that Rasulullaah sa said, "It was brought to us and we have not yet spent it (not yet given it to the needy)," (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd (in this Regard Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd (Sie reports that Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) had seven Dinaars with him, which he left in the custody of Hadhrat Aa'isha (When Rasulullaah) fell ill, he said, "O Aa'isha! Send the gold (the Dinaars) to Ali." He then fell unconscious and Hadhrat Aa'isha (Sie became preoccupied with tending to him. Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) then repeated the instruction several times but each time he fell unconscious and Hadhrat Aa'isha (Was was again preoccupied with nursing him. Rasulullaah) (Rasulullaah) eventually sent for Hadhrat Ali (Sie), who then gave the Dinaars to the poor as Sadaqah.

On Tuesday evening when Rasulullaah see started suffering the pangs of death, Hadhrat Aa'isha sees sent her lantern to a lady who was her neighbour with the message, "Please fill some oil in our lantern for us because Rasulullaah sees is already suffering the pangs of death." (3)

Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "During his illness, Rasulullaah instructed me give in Sadaqah some gold that we had. When he regained consciousness, Rasulullaah is asked, 'What did you do?' I replied, 'Seeing the seriousness of your condition, I became preoccupied with nursing you (and was therefore unable to fulfil your request)."

Rasulullaah then asked her to bring it to him and she did so. A narrator named Abu Haazim was uncertain whether there were seven or nine Dinaars, When Hadhrat Aa'isha brought it, Rasulullaah fa said, "What would Muhammad think if he had to meet Allaah while this is with him? These Dinaars would have left nothing of Muhammad's trust in Allaah should it remain with him when he meets his Rabb." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg. 239) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Abu Ya'la, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.238).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer, narrating from reliable sources. Ibn Hibbaan has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg. 178).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad has reported the narration from several chains of narrators, one of which is reliable, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.240), Bayhagi (Vol.6 Pg.356) has reported a similar narration.

The narration of Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Abbaas Concerning Spending wealth

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Abbaas reports that Hadhrat Abu Dharr said to him, "Dear nephew! Rasulullaah was once holding me by the hand when he said, 'O Abu Dharr! If I possessed gold and silver equal to Mount Uhud to spend in the path of Allaah, I would not like to die with even a Qiraat (one-twentieth of a Dinaar) still in my possession.' I said, 'O Rasulullaah was you mean a Qintaar (a large amount equal to four thousand Dinaars)?' Rasulullaah said, 'O Abu Dharr! You are referring to a large sum while I am referring to a small amount. I desire the Aakhirah while you desire this world. It is a Qiraat that I mean.' He then repeated this to me three times." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Simos) and Hadhrat Ka'b (Simos) in the Presence of Hadhrat Uthmaan (Simos)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr William narrates that he once went to Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan When Hadhrat Uthmaan William allowed him in, he entered with a staff in his hand. Addressing Hadhrat Ka'b Ahbaar, Hadhrat Uthmaan William asked, "O Ka'b! What is your opinion of Abdur Rahmaan (bin Auf William) who had left behind plenty of wealth when passed away?" Hadhrat Ka'b replied, "There shall be no reckoning in that as long as he had fulfilled the rights owed to Allaah." Hadhrat Abu Dharr William struck Hadhrat Ka'b with his staff and said, "Even if I possessed gold equal to this mountain (Mount Uhud) to spend (in Sadaqah) and it is all accepted by Allaah, I would still not like to die with even six Awqiya still in my possession." Hadhrat Abu Dharr William then thrice asked, "O Uthmaan! I ask you to say in the name of Allaah whether you had heard this from Rasulullaah Will." Hadhrat Uthmaan William confirmed that he had heard it. (2)

A detailed narration of Ghazwaan bin Abu Haatim states that Hadhrat Uthmaan saked Hadhrat Ka'b, "O Abu Is'haaq! Do you think that a person will be required to account for his wealth when he has paid the Zakaah due on it?" "No," replied Hadhrat Ka'b. Hadhrat Abu Dharr then stood up and struck Hadhrat Ka'b on the head saying, "O son of a Jewess! Do you think that after paying the Zakaah there are no other rights due from a person's wealth when Allaah has stated:

They prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need. (3)

Allaah has also mentioned:

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.239). Tabraani has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.239) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Ya'la has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Surah Hashar, verse 9.

﴿ وَيُطْعِمُونَ الطَّعَامَ عَلَى حُبِّهِ مِسْكِينًا وَّيَتِيمًا وَّ أَسِيْرًا ١٠٠٠ (سورة دهر آيت: ٨)

Out of love for Allaah, they feed the poor, the orphan and the captive. (1)

Allaah also says:

﴿ وَالَّذِينَ فِي أَمُوالِهِمْ حَقٌّ مَّعُلُومٌ ۞ لِّلسَّآئِلِ وَالْمَحْرُومِ ۞﴾ (سورة معارج آيت ٢٤، ٢٥)

And (they are those) who have a stipulated right (have fixed a share) in their wealth for the beggar and the destitute. (2) "

Hadhrat Abu Dharr the continued quoting several similar verses from the Qur'aan. (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar See Concerning how Hadhrat Abu Bakr See was Always in the lead when it Came to Spending in Charity

Hadhrat Umar says, "Rasulullaah once instructed us to spend in charity at a time when I happened to have a considerable sum of wealth with me. I therefore said to myself, 'If there be any day when I shall beat Abu Bakr says (at spending in the path of Allaah), it shall be this day.' I then brought half of all my wealth. Rasulullaah saked, "What have you left for your family?" I have left something for them, 'I responded. Rasulullaah se repeated, "What have you left for them?" I said, 'I have left with them as much as I have brought.' Abu Bakr saked him what he had left for his family, he replied, 'I have left (the pleasure of) Allaah and His Rasool for them.' It was then that I declared that I will never be able to beat him at anything afterwards." (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Uthmaan and another Man in this Regard

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that a man once said to Hadhrat Uthmaan "You wealthy people have far superseded us (poor people) on doing good because you are able to give Sadaqah, free slaves, perform Hajj and spend in the path of Allaah." Hadhrat Uthmaan "Sassa asked, "Do you envy us?" "We certainly do," the man responded. Hadhrat Uthmaan Sassa then said, "I swear by Allaah that a single Dirham that a person donates while he is in financial difficulty is better than ten thousand Dirhams given when there is still so much more left." (5)

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali William and a Beggar

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Muhammad bin Aa'isha narrates that when a beggar came to the Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali 劉德島, he said to (his son) Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Surah Insaan, verse 8,

⁽²⁾ Surah Ma'aarij, verses 24, 25.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.310).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Daarmi, Haakim, Bayhaqi, Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya and others, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.347).

⁽⁵⁾ Bayhaqi in his Shu'abul Imaan (Vol.3 Pg.320).

Hasan (Fig. 6) or Hadhrat Husayn (Fig. 6), "Go to your mother and tell her to give one of the six Dirhams that I had left with her." His son went and later returned with the message that she said, "You had left the six Dirhams to purchase flour." Hadhrat Ali (Fig. 6) said, "The Imaan of a person cannot be true until he has more trust in that which is in Allaah's hands than that which is in his hands." He then sent a message to her to send all six Dirhams. When she did so, he gave it all to the beggar.

Hadhrat Ali which had not yet even changed his posture when a man arrived selling a camel. "How much for the camel?" Hadhrat Ali which saked. "A hundred and forty Dirhams," the man replied. Hadhrat Ali which told the man to tie the camel by him with the understanding that he would pay for it after a while. The man tied the camel there and then left. Another man then passed by and asked who the camel belonged to. When Hadhrat Ali which informed him that the camel was his, the man asked him whether he would sell it, "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Ali which "How much?" he asked. "For two hundred Dirhams," was the reply. The man agreed to buy it, handed over the two hundred Dirhams and then took the camel.

Hadhrat Ali when had a hundred and forty Dirhams to the man whom he Hadnrat All the bad then paid a nundred and forty Dirhams to the man whom he had promised to pay and then returned with the sixty Dirhams to (his wife) Hadhrat Faatima (Seeing the money) She asked, "What is this?" Hadhrat All the replied, "This is what Allaah has promised us on the lips of His Nabi

﴿ مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ عَشْرُ أَمْثَالِهَا ؟ (سوره انعام آب ١٦٠)

Whoever brings (carries out) a good act will receive ten times as much. (1) = (2)

A Sahabi Gives a Larger Camel as Zakaah

Hadhrat Ubay The narrates, "Rasulullaah once sent me to collect Zakaah. I passed by a man and when he gathered all his wealth together, I calculated that all that was due from him was a one-year old male camel. I therefore said to him, 'Give me a one-year old male camel because that is all that is due from you.' He said, 'But such a camel neither gives milk nor can it be used for transport or loading. Why don't you rather take this young, large and fat she-camel.' I said to him, 'I cannot accept anything that I was not instructed to take. However, Rasulullaah is is not far from you, so if you wish you may make the same offer to him. If he accepts the offer, I shall accept and if he rejects, I shall do the same.' The man agreed to do so and left with me, taking along the camel that he had offered to give. When we came to Rasulullaah is, the man said, 'O Nabi of Allaah is Your messenger came to me to take the Zakaah due on my wealth. By Allaah! Never before has the Rasool of Allaah or any messenger ever come to collect my Zakaah. When I gathered together all my wealth for him, he calculated that all that was due from me was a one-year old male camel, whereas such an animal neither gives milk nor can it be used for transport or loading. However, when I offered him to rather take this large and young she-camel, he refused to take it. Here is she now. I have brought her to you, O Rasulullaah 機響.' Rasulullaah 機響 said to him, 'Although all that was due from you was the one-year old camel, if you wish to give something extra. Allaah will reward you for it and we shall accept it from you. 'Here is she now, O Rasulullaan , 'the man said, 'I have brought her to you, so do take her.' Rasulullaah WE then instructed someone to take the camel and prayed for the man's wealth to be blessed (1)

⁽¹⁾ Surah An'aam, verse 160.

⁽²⁾ Askari, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.311).

The Generosity of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha المحالية and her Sister Hadhrat Asmaa المحالية ا

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Suss says, "I have never seen women as generous as Aa'isha (her sister) Asmaa (her sister) generosity were however different. As for Aa'isha would collect things and then distribute them when she had collected a considerable amount. As for Asmaa 2000, she would never keep with her anything for the next day."(2)

An Incident Concerning the Generosity of Hadhrat Mu'aadh

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Ka'b bin Maalik narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal was an extremely generous, youthful and handsome man who was amongst the most righteous persons of his tribe. He never kept anything back and would continue taking loans (to assist others) until all his wealth was tied up in debt. He then approached Rasulullaah & to request his creditors to write off the debts, but (when Rasulullaah & did so) they all refused. If there was anyone through whose intercession they would have written off any other person's debt, it would have been through the intercession of Rasulullaah Rasulullaah & then sold all of Hadhrat Mu'aadh & possessions to repay his debts until he was left with absolutely nothing.

During the year that Makkah was conquered, Rasulullaah Will dispatched Hadhrat Mu'aadh was as governor of a region of Yemen so that he may have the opportunity of recovering his losses. Hadhrat Mu'aadh was then stayed in Yemen as the governor and was the first person to ever use Allaah's wealth (Zakaah funds) to trade with. There he earned a considerable amount of wealth and it was during this period that Rasulullaah and passed away.

When Hadhrat Mu'aadh will returned to Madinah, Hadhrat Umar will said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减弱。"Send for that man (Hadhrat Mu'aadh 经运动) and take away the wealth he has except for that amount which he requires to survive." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Unless he gives it of his own accord, I cannot take anything away from him because Rasulullaah had sent him to recover his losses." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr said refused to submit to his request, Hadhrat Umar said himself went to Hadhrat Mu'aadh said and informed him of his intentions. Hadhrat Mu'aadh said responded by saying, "Since Rasulullaah had sent me so that I may recover my losses, I do not have to do this." (Since Hadhrat Mu'aadh said had paid back the capital he took from the Zakaah funds, he felt entitled to the profits he earned. Hadhrat Umar said was of the opinion that although Hadhrat Mu'aadh said could use what he needed, the excess was to be returned to the public whose money was a means to the profits).

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Abu Dawood, Abu Ya'la, Ibn Khuzaymah and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3) Pg.309)

⁽²⁾ Bukhari in his Adabul Mufrid (Pg.43).

When Hadhrat Mu'aadh was met Hadhrat Umar some time later, he said, "I have obeyed you and have done as you instructed me, I saw in a dream that I was surrounded by water and was in danger of drowning when you rescued me, O Umar." Hadhrat Mu'aadh was then went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and related the incident to him. He (disclosed all his assets and) swore that he would not hide anything, even disclosing the whip that he owned. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was said, "By Allaah! I shall take none of this from you. You may have it all as a gift." Hadhrat Umar was said, "Now this is good for you and permissible." Hadhrat Mu'aadh was thereafter left for Shaam. (1)

Another narration from the son of Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik (Silve) states that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Silve) was an extremely youthful, handsome and generous man who was amongst the most righteous persons of his tribe. He gave away everything that he was asked for until all his wealth was tied up in debt. The rest of the narration is as guoted above. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir Concerning the Generosity of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal

Hadhrat Jabbir was reports that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal was amongst the most handsome of people, amongst those with the best character and the most open-handed. However, (to assist others) he accumulated a large debt and when his creditors started pushing him to pay, he hid away from them in his house for several days. The creditors eventually sought Rasulullaah sis assistance. When Rasulullaah se sent for Hadhrat Mu'aadh sis, he came with the creditors in trail. They pleaded, "O Rasulullaah shower His mercy on the person who is charitable towards him (who writes off the debt)." Consequently, some of them wrote off their debts while others refused. They still insisted, "O Rasulullaah so to reclaim our rights from him." Rasulullaah said, "O Mu'aadh! Be patient with them (settle their debts even though you have to lose all your wealth)." Rasulullaah the then took away everything that Hadhrat Mu'aadh was possessed and handed it over to the creditors. When they distributed it amongst themselves, only five sevenths of the dues were settled. They then said, "O Rasulullaah will sell him (as a slave) to settle the debts." Rasulullaah refused saying, "Leave him alone. You cannot lodge any claims against him now."

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Ibn Rahway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.126):

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.231), narrating from Abdur Razzaaq. Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.273) has reported a similar narration in brief from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

Hadhrat Mu'aadh then went to live with the Banu Salama tribe where someone said to him, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Why do you not ask Rasulullaah for something now that you have become a pauper." Hadhrat Mu'aadh however refused to ask from Rasulullaah and stayed there a few days more until Rasulullaah set sent for him, Rasulullaah dispatched him to Yemen to act as governor and said to him, "Perhaps Allaah shall redeem your losses and pay off your debt for you." Hadhrat Mu'aadh then proceeded to Yemen where he stayed until the demise of Rasulullaah .

It was in the year that Hadhrat Abu Bakr appointed Hadhrat Umar as the Ameer of Hajj that Hadhrat Mu'aadh as also happened to be in Makkah (for Hajj). Hadhrat Mu'aadh and Hadhrat Umar therefore met on the 8th of Dhul Hijjah and they both embraced each other and consoled each other about the loss of Rasulullaah . As they then sat down on the ground and started talking, Hadhrat Umar and started talking, Hadhrat Umar and started talking, Hadhrat Umar as noticed that Hadhrat Mu'aadh had several slaves. (1) The rest of the narration is the same as the one reported by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (which will be quoted hereunder).

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Concerning the Generosity of Hadhrat Mu'aadh

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Feports that after the demise of Rasulullaah Fe, the people appointed Hadhrat Abu Bakr Fe as his successor. Rasulullaah Fe had appointed Hadhrat Mu'aadh Fe had appointed Hadhrat Abu Bakr Fe had appointed Hadhrat Umar Fe had appointed Hadhrat Umar Fe had appointed Hadhrat Umar Fe had as the Ameer of Hajj that Hadhrat Umar Fe met Hadhrat Mu'aadh Fe hadhrat Umar Fe hadhrat Mu'aadh Fe replied, "The people of Yemen gave these as a gift to me while the others are for Abu Bakr Fe hadhrat Umar Fe ha

When the two men met again the following day, Hadhrat Mu'aadh said, "O Ibn Khattaab! When you saw me last night I was heading for the fire of Jahannam, but you grabbed hold of my waist (to save me by advising me to give all the slaves to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (to save me by advising me to give all the slaves to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (to Hadhrat Mu'aadh said then brought all the slaves to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (to Haakim and Ibn Sa'd (vol.3 Pg.123).

Saying, "These have been given as gifts to me, while the others are yours." Hadhrat Abu Bakr Said, "We have authorised your gifts for you (you may have them for yourself)." Hadhrat Mu'aadh Said, then proceeded to perform his salaah and the slaves all performed salaah behind him. He then asked them, "For whom are you performing salaah?" "For Allaah," they replied. Hadhrat Mu'aadh Said, "Then you are all for Allaah." Saying this, he set them all free. (1)

Spending That Which One Loves

Hadhrat Umar Donates his Land in Khaybar Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Hadhrat Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat

a piece of land in Khaybar. He then approached Rasulullaah sees saying, "I have received a piece of land in Khaybar. Never before have I received any property more excellent than this. What do you advise me to do with it?" Rasulullaah replied, "If you wish, you could make the property an endowment and donate the proceeds in charity." Hadhrat Umar therefore made the land an endowment on the condition that it should never be sold, never be given away as a gift, never be inherited and that its proceeds be given to the poor, to his relatives, to free slaves, in the path of Allaah and to guests. He also stipulated that the caretaker of the land may take from the proceeds what is normally paid and what is required to feed his guests. He however had no permission to amass wealth from it. (2)

Hadhrat Umar Frees a Slave Woman whom he had obtained from Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Umar Siess once wrote to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Siess to buy for him a slave woman from Jaloolaa (a place en route to Khurasan that the Muslims had conquered. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Siess did as requested and sent the woman to Hadhrat Umar Siess). Hadhrat Umar Siess then called for her one day and said, "Allaah says (in the Qur'aan):

You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love." (3)

Hadhrat Umar (4) then set her free. (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) owned a slave woman. When his love for her became intense, he freed her and married her to

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.272), narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽²⁾ Sihaah Sitta, as quoted in Nasbur Rayah (Vol.3 Pg.476).

⁽³⁾ Surah Aal Imraan, verse 92.

⁽⁴⁾ Abd bin Humayd, ibn Jareer and ibn Mundhir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 3 Pg. 314).

one of his freed slaves. She later bore a son. Hadhrat Naafi reports further that he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) pick up the little boy and kiss him Referring to the slave woman he freed, he then said, "What a beautiful fragrance coming from her!". (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he heard a Verse of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sisses says, "I brought to mind everything that Allaah had given me when I heard the verse;

You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love. (2)

However, I could think of no possession more beloved to me than Marjaana, my Roman slave woman. I then said, 'She is free for the pleasure of Allaah.' If I were to ever go back on something that I had allocated to Allaah. I would have certainly married her." (3)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986) got her married to Hadhrat Naafi and she thus gave birth to his child. (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Naafi Concerning the Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Naafi narrates, "Whenever the love of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar for any of his possessions became intense, he offered it to his Rabb (gave it away as Sadaqah). His slaves knew this well and they would sometimes exert themselves in good deeds and attach themselves to the Masjid. When he saw this excellent behaviour, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would then set them free. His companions said to him, 'O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! By Allaah! They are only deceiving you.' He would reply to this by saying, 'We fall for the deceit of anyone who deceives us with acts pleasing to Allaah."

Hadhrat Naafi continues, "I can recall one evening when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was riding an excellent camel for which he had paid a large sum. When he became extremely impressed with the way it carried itself, he made it sit down and then dismounted. He then said, 'O Naafi! First remove its reins and saddle and then put a blanket on it, mark it and include it amongst the sacrificial animals." (5)

Another narration also from Hadhrat Naafi states that once while Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was riding a camel, he was very impressed by its ride. He then said, "Ikh! Ikh! (words said to get a camel to sit down)" When the

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg. 123).

⁽²⁾ Surah Aal Imraan, verse 92.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.236) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.56)), Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.295) from Hadhrat Mulaahid and others.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.294).

camel sat down, he said, "O Naafi! Remove its saddle." Hadhrat Naafi says, "I thought that this was because he needed to use the saddle for something or because he had some doubts about the camel. When I removed the saddle, he said to me, 'Look and see whether another camel can be bought with the goods this camel carries?' (Because he intended slaughtering the camel for the pleasure of Allaah because he liked it, he needed another for his journey). I said, 'I can tell you in the name of Allaah that if you so wish, you can easily purchase another with the price of this if you sell it.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when then put a blanket on the camel's back, put a garland around its neck (to mark it) and then included it amongst the sacrificial animals. Whenever any of his possessions caught his fancy, he always sent it ahead (to the Aakhirah).

Another narration quoted Hadhrat Naafi as saying, "Whenever any of his possessions caught his fancy, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would remove it from his possessions and give it away for the pleasure of Allaah. He would sometimes give in Sadaqah as much as thirty thousand Dirhams in a single sitting. Ibn Aamir twice gave him thirty thousand Dirhams and he said to me, 'O Naafi! I fear that the Dirhams of Ibn Aamir should not put me to trial. Go! You are free.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would sometimes not eat meat for an entire month unless he was on a journey or it was the month of Ramadhaan.' Hadhrat Naafi also said. "He would sometimes not even taste meat for an entire month."

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he Stayed Over in Juhfa

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Abu Hilaal reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was once ill when he stayed over at Juhfa. When he expressed the desire to eat fish, the people searched for fish but could find only one fish. His wife Hadhrat Safiyya bint Abu Ubayd prepared it for him and then gave it to him. A poor person then arrived and stood there. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with told him to have the fish. "Subhaanallaah!" exclaimed his family, "We have tired ourselves (to prepare this fish) and we have our provisions (to give the poor man)." He replied, "Abdullaah likes the fish (and it should therefore be given to the poor person)."

Another narration states that his wife said, "We shall give him a Dirham which will be more useful for him then the fish, while you will be able to fulfil your desire to eat it." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "My desire is what I want you to do." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Talha Donates the Orchard of Bir Haa

Hadhrat Anas 密崎崎 narrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha 密崎崎 was the wealthiest

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.294). Tabraani has also reported the narration in brief, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.347). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.122) has also reported it briefly.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.297).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.297) as well as Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.122) with some additions.

of all the Ansaar in terms of the date plantations he owned. However, what he loved most of all his possessions was the orchard of Bir Haa. It was situated opposite the Masjid and even Rasulullaah see used to go there to drink from its pure and excellent water. However, Hadhrat Abu Talha see went to Rasulullaah see as soon as the verse was revealed in which Allaah states:

You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love. (1)

He said to Rasulullaah [27]. "O Rasulullaah [27]! Indeed, Allaah has stated: 'You shall never reach righteousness until you spend of that which you love.' Bir Haa is certainly the possession that I love most, so it is now Sadaqah for the pleasure of Allaah. I aspire for the good of this and that Allaah will keep it as a treasure for me (in the Aakhirah). O Rasulullaah [27]! Utilise it as Allaah shows you." Rasulullaah [27] said, "Wow! This is an excellent investment!" (2)

Another narration of Bukhari adds that Rasulullaah (## said, "I have heard what you have to say, but think that you should rather divide it amongst your relatives." Hadhrat Abu Talha (## then said, "I shall definitely do so, O Rasulullaah (### He then divided it amongst his relatives and his nephews.

Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha (Gives his Horse away as Sadaqah

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Munkadir narrates that Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha Spee brought along his horse called "Shibla" when the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love. (3)

This horse was the most prized of all his possessions. He said (to Rasulullaah), "This is Sadaqah." Rasulullaah () took it from him and handed it over to Hadhrat Zaid () soon Usaama () Noticing the expression (of unhappiness) on Hadhrat Zaid () face, Rasulullaah () said, "Allaah has certainly accepted it from you." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dharr there are Three Partners in one's Wealth

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Sies stated, "There are three partners in one's wealth. (The

⁽¹⁾ Surah Aal Imraan, verse 92.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari and Muslim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.140).

⁽³⁾ Surah Aal Imraan, verse 92.

⁽⁴⁾ Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Abd bin Humayd, Ibn Mundhir and Ibn Abi Hastim. Ibn Jareer has reported a similar narration from Amr bin Dinaar, while Abdur Razzaaq and Ibn Jareer have also reported another similar narration from Ayyoob, as quoted in Durrul Manthoor (Vol.2 Pg.50).

first is) Predestination that will not consult with you as it takes your valuable and useless wealth either by destruction or by death (of animals). (The second is) The heir who is waiting for you to put your head down (in the grave) so that he my drag everything away while looking down on you. (You are the third partner) So do your best never to be the most helpless of the three partners. Verily Allaah says:

You shall never reach (true, perfect) righteousness until you spend of that which you love. (1)

Take note that this camel is the most beloved of my possessions, so I wish to send it ahead for myself (to the Aakhirah)." (2)

Spending in Charity while in Need

The Incident of Rasulullaah in this Regard

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd see narrates that a woman once brought a shawl to Rasulullaah see. It was woven with a wovenedge as well. She said, "O Rasulullaah less I have come to give you this to wear." Rasulullaah really needed a shawl and he took it from her and wore it immediately. When one of the Sahabah saw him wearing it, he commented, "What a beautiful shawl is this, O Rasulullaah will you not give it to me to wear?" "Certainly," said Rasulullaah After Rasulullaah had left, the other Sahabah reprimanded the man saying, "You had done a terrible thing by asking for the shawl when you saw that Rasulullaah accepted it because he really needed it. You know well that Rasulullaah reprimanded me to ask for it was that I hoped for its blessings after Rasulullaah had worn it. I hope to be buried with it as my shroud " (3)

Another narration from Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd states that a striped set of clothing with white edging was knitted for Rasulullaah out of black wool. Rasulullaah was wearing it when he went to meet the Sahabah striking his hand on his thigh, he said, "Do you not think that these clothes look good?" A Bedouin said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah will will you not give it to me?" Because it was the habit of Rasulullaah rever to refuse anything he was asked for, he agreed and gave the clothes to the man. He then sent for his old set of clothes and wore it. Rasulullaah alter had another set of similar clothes knitted for him but it was still being made when he passed away. (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ageel

Hadhrat Abu Aqeel Sissis narrates that to earn two Saa of dates he spent an entire night drawing water from a well with a rope tied to his back, He took one

⁽¹⁾ Surah Aal Imraan, verse 92

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 163).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jareer

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 42).

Saa to his family for their use and the other he reserved to attain proximity to Allaah. When he brought it to Rasulullaah so and informed him how he had earned it. Rasulullaah so instructed him to add it to the Sadaqah that had been collected. Mocking Hadhrat Abu Aqeel so, the Munaafiqeen commented, "Of what use is it to this man to contribute a mere Saa of dates (when he needs it more)?" It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

Allaah shall mock (punish the mockery of) those (Munaafiqeen) who mock the Mu'mineen about their charity when they spend of their own will and (who mock) those who find only their efforts (to spend, referring to those who offer their labour in the path of Allaah). For them will be a painful punishment. (Surah Taubah, verse 79)⁽¹⁾

Hadhrat Abu Salama and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah narrate that Rasulullaah once called on the Sahabah for contributions because he intended dispatching a military expedition. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said, "O Rasulullaah is I have four thousand Dirhams. I shall lend two thousand to my Rabb and leave two thousand for my family." Rasulullaah said, "May Allaah bless what you give and may Allaah also bless what you keep behind," A Sahabi from the Ansaar spent the entire night labouring to earn two Saa of dates. He then said, "O Rasulullaah is! I have earned two Saa of dates. One of for my Rabb and the other for my family." The Munaafiqoon then started to mock as they said, "Those who contribute like Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf do so to boast while Allaah and His Rasool is have no need for the meager Saa of the other." It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

Allaah shall mock (punish the mockery of) those (Munaafiqeen) who mock the Mu'mineen about their charity when they spend of their own will and (who mock) those who find only their efforts (to spend, referring to those who offer their labour in the path of Allaah). For them will be a painful punishment. (Surah Taubah, verse 79) [2].

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid 劉國國

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid bin Abdi Rabbihi was the Sahabi who was shown the Adhaan in his dream. He once approached Rasulullaah said saying, "O Rasulullaah fis This orchard of mine is for Sadaqah. I am handing it over to Allaah and His Rasool fis (to spend it as they please)." His parents then came to Rasulullaah fis and said, "Our livelihood depended on that orchard."

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.33) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar: Bazzaar and Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.32) have commented on the chain of narrators.

Rasulullaah (### handed it over to them and (after a while) they passed away Thereafter, their son inherited it. (1)

The Incident of a man from the Ansaar

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Rasulullaah) with then sent a message to one of his wives (to send some food) but received the reply, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I have nothing but water with me." He then sent the same message to another wife and received the same reply. When the message was sent to each of his wives, each one of them replied saying, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I have nothing but water with me." Rasulullaah is then announced, "Who will host this man tonight and Allaah will shower His mercy on him." A man from the Ansaar volunteered and took the man home, where he said to his wife, "Do you have any food?" She replied, "There is nothing besides the children's food." He said, "Pacify them with something and then put them to sleep when they want their supper. When our guest arrives, put out the lantern and pretend that we are eating." Another narration states that he said, "When he starts to eat, stand up to set the lantern right and (while doing so) put it off."

They all then sat down and the guest ate while the couple went to sleep hungry. When he went to Rasulullaah street the next morning, Rasulullaah said, "Allaah was impressed by what you two did last night." Another narration adds that it was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

They prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need. (Surah Hashar, verse 9)⁽²⁾

The Incident of the Seven houses

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) reports that a goat's head was passed between seven houses because the people of each home preferred others above themselves. Although each household needed it, it eventually returned to the house from which it originally left. (3)

Giving a Loan to Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa Sells His Orchard for a Date Palm in Jannah

Hadhrat Anas 達麗德 reports that a man came to Rasulullaah 總器 saying, "O Rasulullaah 鍵盤! A particular man has a date palm with which I need to set right a wall of mine. Please tell him to give it to me so that I may fix my wall."

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.336). Dhahabi has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Muslim and others, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.147). Bukhari and Nasa'ee has also reported the narration while another narration of Muslim names the Ansaari as Hadhrat Abu Talha 显现 as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer. A narration of Tabraani names the guest as Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 图1898, as quoted in Fathul Baari (Vol.8 Pg.446).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.176).

Rasulullaah (WE said to the man, "Give it to him in exchange for a date palm in Jannah." The man however refused to do so. Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa (WE) then arrived and said to the man, "Sell me your date palm in exchange for my orchard." The man readily agreed.

Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa the then came to Rasulullaah and said, "I have bought the date palm in exchange for my orchard. You may give it to the man because I am handing it over to you." Rasulullaah said, "There shall be so many laden and large date palms for Abu Dahdaa in Jannah!" Rasulullaah repeated this statement several times. Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa then went to his wife and said, "O Ummu Dahdaa! You will have to leave this orchard because I have sold it in exchange for a date palm in Jannah." "An excellent transaction!" she exclaimed. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa when he said, "I have lent my Orchard to my Rabb"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (1986) narrates that Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa (1986) approached Rasulullaah (1986) when Allaah revealed the verse:

Who is it that will lend to Allaah a good loan, (Surah Bagara, verse 245)

He said, "O Rasulullaah [35]! Does Allaah require a loan from us?" "Yes, O Abu Dahdaa," replied Rasulullaah [35]. "Show me your hand," said Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa [35]. When Rasulullaah [35] gave him his hand, Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa [35] said, "I have lent my orchard to my Rabb." His orchard contained six hundred date palms. He then walked back to the orchard where (his wife) Hadhrat Ummu Dahdaa [35] and his family were. He then shouted, "O Ummu Dahdaat" "At your service!" she responded. He shouted back, "Leave the orchard because I have lent it to my Rabb." (2)

The statement of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf See has just passed in the previous fewpages, wherehesaid, "ORasulullaah See I have four thousand Dirhams. I shall lend two thousand to my Rabb and leave two thousand for my family."

Spending to Encourage people Towards Islaam An Incident of a Person in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas some reports that whenever Rasulullaah some was asked for anything to draw a person to Islaam or to make him steadfast in it, he readily gave it. Therefore, when a person once came to him, Rasulullaah some gave instructions that the goats of Sadaqah that filled an entire valley should be given to him. The man returned to his tribe and said, "O my people! Accept Islaam because Muhammad & gives without fearing poverty."

(1) Ahmad, Baghawi and Haakim, as quoted in Isaaha (Vol.4 Pg.59). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.324) states that Ahmad and Tabraani have also reported the narration with a reliable chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la and Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.324). Bazzaar has reported a similar narration from a weak chain of narrators, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.3 Pg.113). Ibn Mandah has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.59) as has Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in the Taliseer of Ibn Kaibeer (Vol.1 Pg.299). Tabraani has also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Ilmar Similar with a weak chain of narrators, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.3 Pg.113).

Another narration states that even when a person came to Rasululiaah (2) to acquire worldly possessions, the evening would not come without the Deen being more beloved and more honoured in his sight than the world and all that it contains. (1)

A narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit (1996) in this Regard

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit reports that an Arab once came to Rasulullaah to ask for a piece of land between two mountains. Rasulullaah had it given to him in writing, after which he accepted Islaam. The man returned to his tribe and said, "O my people! Accept Islaam because I have come to you from a man who gives without fearing poverty." (2)

The Cause of Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah Accepting Islaam and his Statement About Rasulullaah

In the story of how Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah saccepted Islaam, it has already passed that as Rasulullaah safwaan was walking amongst the booty to have a look at it, Hadhrat Safwaan safwaan was with him. Hadhrat Safwaan safwaan

Spending in Jihaad in the path of Allaah The Spending of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

His Spending on the Occasion of the Hijrah and the Incident between Hadhrat Abu Quhaafa and Hadhrat Asmaa Hadhrat Asmaa @ says, "When (my father) Abu Bakr (left with

- (1) Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.42). Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.253) has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Anas (1998).
- (2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.13) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (3) This has passed in the chapter entitled "Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah 對為語 Accepts Islaam", under the subheading "Hadhrat Safwaan 對為語 Marches with Rasulullaah 器語 Against the Hawaazin Tribe and Accepts Islaam".
- (4) Waaqidi and Ibn Asaakir narrate from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (4) as quoted in Kanztil Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.294).

Rasulullaah (for Hijrah), Abu Bakr took along all the money he had, which amounted to five or six thousand Dirhams. My grandfather Abu Quhaafa who had lost his sight then came home. He said, 'By Allaah! I expect that together with alarming you by his leaving, Abu Bakr has also alarmed you with his money (by taking it all along with him).' I said, 'Not at all, dear grandfather. He has left plenty of money with us.' I then gathered some stones and placed them in the dish in which my father usually put his money. Thereafter, I covered it with a cloth and took his hand saying, 'Here, grandfather. Put your hand on this money.' He put his hand on it and (thinking that it was Dirhams) said, 'Then there is no problem. If he has left this money for you, he has done very well. There should be sufficient money here to see to your needs.' By Allaah! My father had not left a thing for us but all that I wished to do by this was to put the old man's heart at rest." (1)

The narration has already passed in which it is stated that Hadhrat Abu Bakr spent all of his four thousand Dirhams for the Tabook expedition.

The Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan

His Spending on the 'expedition of Difficulty' and the Statement of Rasulullaah About Him

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Khabbaab Sulami sulawi reports that Rasulullaah once delivered a sermon in which he encouraged the Sahabah spend on the 'expedition of difficulty' (the expedition to Tabook). Hadhrat Uthmaan Sie then said, "I shall provide a hundred camels together with their saddle blankets and saddles." Rasulullaah then stepped down a step of the pulpit and again encouraged the Sahabah ($100). This time again Hadhrat Uthmaan stood up and said, "I shall provide another hundred camels together with their saddle blankets and saddles." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan says that he then saw Rasulullaah sign shaking his hand as a person does when expressing wonder. A narrators by the name of Abdus Samad demonstrated this action by taking out his hand and shaking it. Rasulullaah then said, "After this, Uthmaan need not carry out any other (optional) deed."(2) Another narration states that Rasulullaah are gave encouragement three times and that Hadhrat Uthmaan took it upon himself to provide three hundred camels together with their saddle blankets and saddles. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan says, "I was present there as Rasulullaah 22 stood on the pulpit saying, 'No sin can harm Uthmaan after this' or he said, 'No sin can harm Uthmaan after this day."(3) ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.179). Ahmad and Tabraani have reported a similar narration but Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.59) has commented on the chain of narrators.

 Ahmad.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.4). Abu Nil'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.59).

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Samura About the Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan On the 'expedition of Difficulty'

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Samura harrates that on the occasion when Rasulullaah was preparing the 'Expedition of Difficulty'. Hadhrat Uthmaan came with a thousand Dinaars and emptied them into Rasulullaah should be so bag. As Rasulullaah turned the coins over in his hands, he said, "No act that Uthmaan does after this day will cause him any harm." Rasulullaah repeated this several times. (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sisses states that Rasululiaah (25) prayed, "O Allaah! Do not forget this deed of Uthmaan." Rasulullaah (25) also added, "After this, Uthmaan need not carry out any other (optional) deed." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Yamaan About the Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan on the 'expedition of Difficulty'

Hadhrat Hudhayla bin Yamaan was narrates that Rasulullaah sent someone to Hadhrat Uthmaan was to request his assistance for the Expedition of Difficulty. Hadhrat Uthmaan sent ten thousand Dinaars, which were poured out in front of Rasulullaah set turned the coins over in his hands, turning them from top to bottom, he said, "O Uthmaan, may Allaah forgive you every sin that you committed secretly, every sin that you committed openly, every sin that you may commit until the Day of Qiyaamah. Uthmaan need not worry to carry out any (non-obligatory) good deed after this." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (1986), Hadhrat Qataadah and Hadhrat Hasan in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Spee narrates that he was present when Hadhrat Uthmaan Spee handed over to Rasulullaah see what he needed to dispatch the 'Expedition of Difficulty'. On that day, he brought seven hundred Awqiya of gold. (4)

Hadhrat Qataadah reports that Hadhrat Uthmaan (See Gonated a thousand animals for the expedition to Tabook. Amongst these were fifty horses as well. (5) Hadhrat Hasan narrates that for the expedition to Tabook. Hadhrat Uthmaan

⁽¹⁾ Haakim, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.59).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Adi, Daar Qutni, Abu Nu'aym and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.12).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Ya'la and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.85) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.59).

simes donated nine hundred and fifty camels and fifty horses or nine hundred and seventy camels and thirty horses. (1)

The narration has already passed in which it was mentioned that Hadhrat Uthmaan (Sings) provided a third of the army's needs during the expedition to Tabook to the extent that it was said that he saw to each and every need they expressed.

The Spending of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

He Donates Seven Hundred Camels together with their Carriages and Supplies

Hadhrat Anas was in her room, she heard a lot of noise in Madinah. "What is that?" she enquired. The people informed her, "That is the caravan of Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf sweet that had arrived from Shaam carrying everything with it." Hadhrat Anas says that there were seven hundred camels in the caravan and that all of Madinah was resounding with the noise. Hadhrat Aa'isha was then said, "I have heard Rasulullaah says that he saw Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf sweetening Jannah on his knees (exhausted after accounting for all his wealth)." When these words reached Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf sweeten, "I shall do my best to enter Jannah standing upright." He then donated all the camels in the path of Allaah together with their carriages and the supplies they carried. (2)

His Spending in the path of Allaah during the Lifetime of Rasulullaah

A Narration of Zuhri about the Spending of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Imaam Zuhri reports that during the lifetime of Rasulullaah 2015, Hadhrat Abdur

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhah Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.5 Pg. 13).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.1 Pg.164) contains commentary on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.98) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.93) have also reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.99).

⁽⁴⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.163).

Rahmaan bin Auf Subsides donated half his wealth in the path of Allaah. Thereafter, he donated forty thousand Dinaars and also five hundred horses in the path of Allaah and again another five hundred camels. Most of his fortune was earned through trade. (1)

The narration has also passed in which it is stated that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (1986) donated two hundred Awgiya of silver for the expedition to Tabook. (2)

The Spending of Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam

He Spends on those Proceeding in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Hizaam says that they had never heard of anyone in Madinah who provided more transport for people proceeding in the path of Allaah than Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam Two Bedouins once came to Madinah to ask for someone to provide them with transport to proceed in the path of Allaah. When they were directed to Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam Two, they approached him while he was with his family. When he asked them what they required and they duly informed him, he told them not to be hasty and to wait until he comes out to see them. (When he came out) He was wearing clothing that was brought from Egypt. It resembled a spider's web and cost four Dirhams. He took his staff with him and his slaves also accompanied him. Each time he passed by a rubbish dump, he used the end of his staff to pick up any piece of cloth that could be used to patch up the satchels of the camels going out in the path of Allaah. He would then dust off the cloth and hand it over to his slave saying, "Keep this piece of cloth to mend the satchels."

One of the Bedouins said to the other, "Oh dear! Save us from him! By Allaah! All this man has with him are pieces of cloth from rubbish dumps." The other said, "Shame on you! Do not be hasty. Let us first wait and see," Hadhrat Hakeem the saw two large, fat and pregnant camels. He purchased them along with their supplies and said to his slave, "Use the pieces of cloth to mend any of the satchels that need mending." Thereafter, he loaded on the camels some food, wheat and fat. Furthermore, he gave the two men money for their expenses and made over the camels to them. The one Bedouin then said to his companion, "By Allaah! I have never seen a better collector of cloth pieces than this man!" (3)

He Donates his House in the path of Allaah for the Poor and for Slaves

Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam (1) once sold a house to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (1) thn Mubaarak, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg. 416).

⁽²⁾ In the chapter entitled "Rasultillaah (22%) Encourages Striving in the path of Allaah and Spending One's Wealth for this Cause" and under the subheading "The Expedition to Tabook and the wealth that the Sahabah (22%) Spent on this Occasion".

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majina'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.384)

Mu'aawiya has hoodwinked you (by paying so little)." Hadhrat Hakeem said, "By Allaah! During the Period of Ignorance, I bought it for a mere bag of wine. I now make you all witness that I am giving the price away in the path of Allaah for the benefit of the poor and for setting slaves free. Now which one of us two has been hoodwinked?" Another narration states that he sold the house for a hundred thousand Dirhams. (1)

The Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar www and other Sahabah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Donates a Hundred Camels in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Naafi reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sizes once sold a property of his for two hundred camels. He then donated a hundred camels in the path of Allaah and made a condition with the riders that they were not to sell them before reaching Waadi Qura. [2]

Hadhrat Umar (1966), Hadhrat Aasim bin Adi (1966) and others Spend in the path of Allaah

It has already passed in a chapter (3) describing the encouragement Rasulullaah gave to the Sahabah (3) to spend in the path of Allaah that Hadhrat Umar (3) gave a hundred Awqiya of silver (equal to four thousand Dirhams) while Hadhrat Aasim Ansaari (3) gave ninety Wasaq of dates for the expedition to Tabook. On the same occasion, Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib (3) Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah (3) Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (3) and Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (3) all donated large sums of money. A narration has also passed about a man bringing along a camel in the path of Allaah and how Hadhrat Qais bin Sala Ansaari (3) spent in Jihaad. (4)

The Spending of Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash (2006) and Other Women

Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash Spends in the path of Allaah and What Other Women Contributed Towards the Expedition to Tabook

Hadhrat Aa'isha @ narrates that Rasulullaah & once said (to his wives),

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.384) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.296).

⁽³⁾ In the chapter entitled "Rasulullaah EE Encourages Striving in the path of Allaah and Spending One's Wealth for this Cause" and under the subheading "The Expedition to Tabook and the wealth that the Sahabah EE Spent on this Occasion".

⁽⁴⁾ Refer to the chapter entitled "Spending While in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah", where the narration appears under the subheading "The Spending of Some Sahabah (S) in the Path of Allaah".

"The one to meet me first (after death) from all of you is the one with the longest arms." The wives then started measuring whose arms were the longest and then (when they realised that the statement was metaphorical) it was Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash whose arms turned out to be the longest because she made things by hand and gave the proceeds in Sadaqah.

The narration has already passed in which it is stated to assist the Muslim army in its preparations for Tabook, the women had sent their bangles, bracelets, anklets, earrings, rings and other jewellery that filled a cloth spread out in front of Rasulullaah 經濟. (3)

Spending on the Poor and Those in Need

The Incident of a Bedouin Lady and Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat U

Hadhrat Umar wise shouted for (his servant) Yarfa to summon Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama wise. The lady said, "It may have been more helpful to me if you had taken me to him." Hadhrat Umar wise put her heart at rest by saying, "Inshaa Allaah, he will soon fulfil your need." Hadhrat Yarfa went to Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama wise and told him to respond to the call of Hadhrat Umar wise. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama was came to Hadhrat Umar wise and said, "As Salaamu Alayka, O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" The lady felt embarrassed (when she realised that it was the Ameerul Mu'mineen himself whom she was talking to).

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari and Muslim, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol. 4 Pg.314).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 289) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Refer to the chapter entitled "Spending While in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah", where the narration appears under the subheading "The Spending of Some Sahabah 25066 in the Path of Allaah".

Hadhrat Umar then said, "By Allaah! I spare no pains to ensure that I select the best man (for any task). What answer will you give when Allaah asks you about this lady?" When he heard this, the eyes of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama is filled with tears. Hadhrat Umar is then continued, "Allaah had sent His Nabi is to us and we believed in him and followed him. He did as Allaah commanded him and gave the Zakaah funds to those poor people who deserved it. This he continued doing until Allaah took him away. Thereafter, Allaah appointed Abu Bakr is a his successor and he followed the Sunnah of Rasulullaah is until Allaah took him away as well. Allaah then made me his successor and I have allways done my best to select the very best of you (to collect and distribute the Zakaah funds). When I send you again, ensure that you give this lady her share for the year as well as her share for the previous year. In fact, I do not even know whether I would be sending you at all."

Hadhrat Umar then sent for a camel for the lady and also gave her some flour and oil. He said to her, "Take this until you meet us at Khaybar because we intend coming there." When she came to Hadhrat Umar that Khaybar, he called her forward and gave her two more camels saying, "Take this, for it will suffice for your needs until Muhammad comes to you again. I have already instructed him to give you your dues for the year as well as for the previous year."(1)

The Incident of the Daughter of Hadhrat Khufaaf bin Eema Ghifaari with Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Aslam says that he once left with Hadhrat Umar to the marketplace where he met a young lady who said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! My husband has passed away and has left behind small children. By Allaah! They do not even have hooves to cook (which the Arabs usually gave away free of charge) nor any plantation or any milk-giving animal. I fear that the drought may destroy them, I am the daughter of Khufaaf bin Eema Ghifaari was and my father was with Rasulullaah 您認 at Hudaybiyyah." Hadhrat Umar 图题 stood motionless awhile and then said, "Welcome to a close relative." He then went home where a fine pack camel was tied. He loaded the animal with two sacks filled with food and placed between the two some money and clothing. Thereafter, he handed the reins of the camel to the lady saying, "Take this away. Allaah shall provide for you before this is finished." When someone commented that Hadhrat Umar 经递减 had given her too much, Hadhrat Umar said, "May your mother lose you! Her father was at Hudaybiyyah with Rasulullaah 經經. By Allaah! I saw her father and her brother lay siege to a fortress for a long time and then conquer it. We then received large shares from the booty carned from it. (She therefore deserves the large amount that I gave her)." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ubayd in his Amwaal, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.319).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ubayd in his Amwaal, Bukhari and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.147)

The Spending of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Judhaym Jumhi

His Spending as the Governor of Shaam

Hadhrat Hassaan bin Atiyya reports that when Hadhrat Umar Graes relieved Hadhrat Mu'aawiya of his post as governor of Shaam, he sent Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Judhaym Jumhi (to replace him). He left with his young and beautiful wife from the Quraysh but it was not long before they began suffering extreme poverty. When Hadhrat Umar wise heard about this, he sent a thousand Dinaars for them. Hadhrat Sa'eed will took the money to his wife saying, "Umar was has sent for us all that you see," She said, "Why do you not buy us something with which to prepare some gravy and some flour. We can then store the rest." He then told her, "Should I rather not tell you of something better than that? Should we rather not give the money to someone who will invest it in business so that we may use the profits. He will then also be responsible for the money. When she agreed, he bought something with which to prepare gravy and some flour as well as two camels and two slaves. The slaves loaded on the camels all sorts of necessities and then distributed it all to the poor and needy. After a short while, his wife informed him that the food they had bought was finished. She said further, "Why do you not approach the man (trading on our behalf) and take some of the profits to buy some food," Hadhrat Sa'eed 多域域 remained silent. When she repeated herself, he again remained silent until she started admonishing him. He then stopped coming home during the day and would return only at nights. There was a person from her family who used to frequent the house with Hadhrat Sa'eed 556. He said to Hadhrat Sa'eed

When she started weeping bitterly in remorse about the money, Hadhrat Sa'eed came to her one day and said, "Take it easy. I had some companions who have recently left me. Even in exchange for the world and all its contents, I would not like to leave the path they tread. If a single damsel of Jannah has to even peep into this world from the sky, everything on earth would be illuminated and the radiance of her face would outshine the sun and the moon. The scarf that she is given to wear is more precious than the world and all that it contains. It is therefore more appropriate that I leave you for them rather than leaving them for you." His wife then accepted what had happened and was satisfied. (1)

Specifically straightful wife, "What are you doing? You are now really hurting him whereas he

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit Concerning this

The narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit Jumhi states that whenever Hadhrat Sa'eed (See received his salary, he bought what was necessary for his family and then gave the rest out in Sadaqah. When she asked him about the remainder of his salary, he told her that he had lent it out. Some people once approached him and said, "Verily your family has rights over you and your in-laws also have a right over you." He replied, "I have never given others preference in the rights I owe to my family and in-laws. However, I shall also not seek the pleasure of people when I am searching for the large-eyed damsels of Jannah. If a single damsel of Jannah has to even peep into this world, everything on earth would be illuminated just as the sun illuminates the earth. I am also not prepared to be left behind the first group to enter Jannah after I had heard Rasulullaah say, 'Allaah will gather the people for reckoning when the poor Mu'mineen will race towards Jannah as doves race. When they will be told to wait for the reckoning, they will say, 'We have nothing to account for because we had been given nothing.' Their Rabb will say, 'My servants are right.' A gate of Jannah will then be opened for them and they will enter Jannah seventy years before anyone else."

(1) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1, Pg.244).

has given all the money away as Sadaqah."

The narration has already passed previously [2] in which Hadhrat Sa'eed said to his wife, ""Do you not want something better than this? That we give this to whoever will bring it back to us at a time that we will need it even more desperately (on the Day of Qiyaamah)." When she happily agreed, Hadhrat Sa'eed saids called someone from his family whom he trusted and placed the Dinaars into several bags. He then instructed the man to take one bag to a certain widow, another to a certain orphan, another to a certain poor person and another to a certain distressed person. This was done until there remained only a few Dinaars. He then (gave this to his wife and) said, "Spend this." Thereafter, he continued the activities of the governorship. She said, "Will you not get us a servant then? What has happened to the wealth?" Hadhrat Sa'eed saids replied, "It will come to you at a time when you need it most (in the Aakhirah)." (3)

The Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

A Narration of Hadhrat Naafi About the Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Naafi reports, "When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar woo once fell ill, a bunch of grapes was bought for him for one Dirham. When a poor person arrived there, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar woo instructed that it be given to the person. Someone (from the household) then went to buy the bunch from the poor person for a Dirham (because grapes were no longer available elsewhere) and brought it back to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar woo. However, the poor person returned to beg and again Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar woo instructed that it be given to the person. Yet again someone went to buy the bunch back from the poor person for a Dirham. When he brought it back to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with the poor person returned again to beg and once again Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with instructed that it be given to him. This time also someone went to buy the bunch from the poor person for a Dirham and brought it back to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with When the poor person intended to return yet again, he was prevented from doing so. Had Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar who known about this, he would not have even tasted the grapes." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hllya (Vol.1 Pg.244).

⁽²⁾ The incident has passed in the chapter entitled "The Lives of the Khulafaa and Leaders" and then under the subheadings "The incident of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Hudhaym Jumhi 医神经 and "His Behaviour as the Governor of Hims".

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.245).

Another Narration from Hadhrat Naafi in this Regard

Hadhrat Naafi says, "When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar once fell ii), he desired to eat grapes. I bought a bunch of grapes for him for a Dirham and then placed it in his hand." The rest of the narration is the same as the one reported above. However, this narration concludes with the words, "The beggar continued returning and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar kept instructing that the grapes be given to him until it was the third or fourth occasion when I eventually said to the beggar, 'Shame on you! Are you not embarrassed?!' I then bought the grapes back from him for a Dirham and brought it to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar of the back of the back of the back. This time, he managed to eat it." (2)

The Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Nadhra

Hadhrat Abu Nadhra reports, "It was during the first ten days of Dhul Hijjah that I visited Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas in a room that he reserved for conversing (with visitors). When someone passed by with a sheep. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas saked the man what he paid for the sheep. The man replied that he had paid twelve Dirhams for it. I then said (to myself), 'If only I had twelve Dirhams, I could have also bought a sheep, slaughtered it and fed it to my family (for the occasion of Eid that was forthcoming).' When I returned home, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas sakes had sent someone behind me with a bag containing fifty Dirhams. I had never before seen money that had as much blessings as those Dirhams. He gave them to me with the intention of being rewarded and at a time when I most needed it." (3)

The Spending of Hadhrat Aa'isha The Incident of a Poor Person with Her

Imaam Maalik reports that the report reached him that a poor person once came

(1) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.297).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.297). Ibn Mubaarak has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.248). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.117) has reported the narration, as has Tabraani, as quoted in Malma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.347), where Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.371).

to beg from Hadhrat Aa'isha (Common the wife of Rasulullaah) (Common that day and had no food at home besides a piece of unleavened bread. When she instructed her servant to give it to the beggar, the servant entreated, "You will then have nothing to terminate your fast with." However, Hadhrat Aa'isha (Common that she give it to the beggar. The servant continues the story and says, "I then gave it to the beggar. That evening some family or some person who usually did not give us gifts, sent for us some cooked goat meat with many pieces of bread. Hadhrat Aa'isha (Common that piece of bread (that we gave away)."

Imaam Maalik reports that another narration also reached him about a poor person who asked Hadhrat Aa'isha (For some food at a time when she had a grape in front of her. She then said to someone (present there), "Take a grape and give it to him." Looking at the single grape, the person expressed surprise. Hadhrat Aa'isha (For said to him, "You seem surprised. How many atoms' weights do you see in that grape?" (Here she was referring to the verse of the Qur'aan that states: "Whoever (sincerely) does an atom's weight of good will see it (its consequences when he is rewarded for it)...") (1)

Giving the Poor with One's own Hand

The Incident of Hadhrat Haaritha bin Nu'maan in this Regard and the Statement of Rasulullaah Concerning Giving the Poor with One's own Hand

Hadhrat Uthmaan narrates that when Hadhrat Haaritha bin Nu'maan lost his eyesight, he tied a string from the place where he performed salaah to the door of his room. Whenever a beggar came, he would take something from his basket, hold on to the string (to lead him to the door) and then give the thing to the beggar. Although his family offered to do it for him, he said, "I heard Rasulullaah say that personally giving something to the poor saves one from a gruesome death." (2)

The Virtue of Personally Giving a Beggar Something

Hadhrat Amr Laythi narrates that they were with Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa when a beggar came. Hadhrat Waathila took a piece of bread, put a coin on it and then stood up to personally place it in the beggar's hand. Hadhrat Amr asked, "O Abu Asqa! Is there none from your family who can do this for you?" "Of course there is," he replied, "but the person who stands up to give something as Sadaqah to a poor person, a sin of his will be forgiven for every step he takes. When he then places the thing in the person's hand, ten sins are

⁽I) Mu'atta (Pg.390).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Hasan bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.299). (bn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.52) and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.365) have also reported a similar narration.

forgiven for ever step." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar in this regard

Hadhrat Naafi says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was used to gather all of his family to eat from one platter every night. It often happened that when he heard the plea of a poor person, he would take his share of meat and bread to the poor person. However, by the time he gave the food away and returned, the others would have finished everything in the platter. If I found anything in the platter, he would also find it, otherwise he would fast in the morning." (2)

Spending on Beggars

The Incident of a Bedouin with Rasulullaah 🕮

Hadhrat Anas Treports that Rasulullaah Fementered the Masjid one day wearing a shawl from Najraan that had thick edging. A Bedouin came from behind and pulled at a corner of the shawl so hard that the edging left marks on Rasulullaah Fes neck. Te Bedouin said, "O Muhammad! Give some of Allaah's money that you have with you!" Rasulullaah Fes turned around and smiled. He then said to the Sahabah Fesse, "Give him something." (3)

Another Incident in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says, "We used to sit with Rasulullaah in the Masjid in the mornings and when he stood up to leave, we would also stand and remain standing until he entered his room. On one occasion, Rasulullaah stood up to leave and had reached the centre of the Masjid when a Bedouin met him and said, "O Muhammad! Give me two camels to ride because you are neither giving them from your own wealth nor from the wealth of your father!" As he met Rasulullaah he he pulled so hard on Rasulullaah shah shah that it left a red streak across his neck. Rasulullaah he then thrice repeated, "No. I seek Allaah's forgiveness. Not until you allow me to take retribution (for the injury you have caused me)." Rasulullaah he then (forgave the man and) and called someone saying, "Give him two camels, one loaded with barley and the other loaded with dates." (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin in this Regard

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin (Size) narrates that they were four hundred people from the Muzaynah tribe who came to Rasulullaah (Size). After Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.315).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.122).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.43), Bukhari and Muslim have also reported the narration from Hadhrat Anas (2006), as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.36).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Jarcer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.47). Ahmad, Bukhari, Muslim and Abu Dawood have all reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 學經過過, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Kihayay (Vol.6 Pg.38).

had taught them aspects of the Deen (and they were departing), some of them asked, "O Rasulullaah We! We have no food for the journey." Rasulullaah instructed Hadhrat Umar to supply them with some provisions, but he submitted, "O Rasulullaah !! I have nothing but some left-over dates which I do not think will be of any benefit to them." Rasulullaah said to him, "Go and give them some provisions." Hadhrat Umar then took the people to an upstairs room where there were dates that resembled a little brown calf (in colour and height). Hadhrat Umar told the people to help themselves and each of them took as much as they needed. Hadhrat Nu'maan says, "I was the last of the lot and when I looked (at the dates), I could not see a single date missing (from the original heap) although four hundred people had already taken from it." (The dates did not diminish because of the blessings of complying with the order of Rasulullaah (1).

The Incident of Hadhrat Dhukayn bin Sa'eed Khath'ami (1986) in this Regard

Hadhrat Dhukayn bin Sa'eed Khath'ami reports that they were four hundred and forty people who approached Rasulullaah for for food. Rasulullaah instructed Hadhrat Umar to give them some food, but he submitted, "O Rasulullaah is I have only that much which would suffice for my children and I during the four months of summer (it would not be enough for these people)." Rasulullaah is repeated the instruction and Hadhrat Umar said, "I hear and obey you, O Rasulullaah is "Hadhrat Umar said, her with the people and took them to an upstairs room where he took out the key from his waist string and opened the door. In the room there was a heap of dates that resembled a baby camel that was sitting down. Hadhrat Umar said told the people to help themselves and each of them took as much as they needed. Hadhrat Dhukayn says, "I was the last of the lot and when I looked (at the dates), it appeared as if we had not reduced the number of dates at all." (2)

Another narration of Hadhrat Dhukaym

Hadhrat Dhukayn says, "We were four hundred people when we asked Rasulullaah sa for food." The narration is then that same as the above narration but with the difference that Hadhrat Umar said (to Rasulullaah sa), "I have nothing besides a few Saa of dates that would suffice only for my children and I during the four months of summer." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to him, "Listen and obey," Hadhrat Umar said to him, "Listen and obey," Hadhrat Umar said to him, "Called and obey," I hear and I obey," (3)

Ahmad, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.304), Tabraani has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Fg.304). Abu Dawood has reported a part of this narration.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Filiya (Vol. 1 Pg.365). Abu Nu'aym says that the narration is authentic and proves that Rasufullash (25) was truly a prophet of Allash.

The Behaviour of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with Beggars

Hadhrat Aflah bin Katheer says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sizes never refused any beggar and even a leper with fingers dripping with blood could be seen eating with him from the same plate."

Spending in Sadaqah

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Hasan Basri reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once brought his Sadaqah to Rasulullaah . He secretly gave it to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Umar! You have strung your bow without a string. The difference in the Sadaqah of you two is just like the difference in your words." (Although the Sadaqah of both men were accepted, the intention of Hadhrat Abu Bakr saying was also to attain reward. Hadhrat Abu Bakr saying intention was therefore superior.) (1)

Hadhrat Uthmaan Purchases the Well of Roomah and Donates it to the Muslim Public

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar () narrates that Rasulullaah () once announced, "Who will purchase the well of Roomah for us and donate it as Sadaqah for the Muslim public? Allaah will quench his thirst on the Day of Qiyaamah." Hadhrat Uthmaan () then bought it and donated it to the Muslim public. (2)

The Narration of Ibn Asaakir About the Incident

Hadhrat Basheer Aslami in Jannah. There was a well called Roomah which was owned by a man from the Ghifaar tribe but he sold a waterbag full of the water for a Mudd. Rasulullaah once said to him, "Sell me the well in exchange for a fountain in Jannah." However, he submitted, "O Rasulullaah of I have no source of income for my family and myself besides this well. I am therefore unable to sell it." When this news reached Hadhrat Uthmaan of the bought the well from the man for thirty five thousand Dirhams. He then approached Rasulullaah of I have no source of income for my family and myself besides this well. I am therefore unable to sell it." When this news reached Hadhrat Uthmaan he then approached Rasulullaah of I have in Jannah that you had promised him?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah Hadhrat Uthmaan then said, "I have "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah Hadhrat Uthmaan then said, "I have already purchased it and I am donating it as Sadagah for the Muslim public," (1)

⁽I) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.32), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. Pg.).
(2) Ibn Adi and Ibn Asaakir.

Hadhrat Talha Som Donates a Hundred Thousand Dirhams in a Single Day

Hadhrat Su'daa the wife of Hadhrat Talha reports that Hadhrat Talha gave away a hundred thousand Dirhams as Sadaqah on a single day and that he was delayed from going to the Masjid that day because she had to stitch two parts of his garment together. (Although he gave so much in Sadaqah, he did not even possess an extra garment to wear.) (2)

The Sadaqah of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf during the Lifetime of Rasulullaah

The narration has already passed⁽³⁾ in which it is mentioned that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Street donated half his wealth in the path of Allaah, which amounted to four thousand Dirhams. Thereafter, he also donated forty thousand Dirhams and then forty thousand Dinaars.

The Sadaqah of Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (1996) when Allaah Accepted his Taubah

Hadhrat Saa'lb the son of Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah reports from his father that when Allaah forgave him, he approached Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah is i wish to leave the home amongst my people in which I committed the wrong and desire to give away all of my wealth as Sadaqah to Allaah and His Rasool is "Rasulullaah is said," O Abu Lubaabah It will suffice for you to give only a third," Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah t then gave away a third of his wealth in Sadaqah. (4)

Hadhrat Salmaan 望崎崎

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Humayd says, "I went with my uncle to visit Hadhrat Salmaan says in Madaa'in (where he served as governor) as he was making something with the leaves of a date palm. I heard him say "I buy the leaves for one Dirham and then sell them for three Dirhams after making something out of them. One dirham I then use to buy more leaves, one Dirham I spend on my family and the other I give in Sadaqah. I shall not stop doing this even if (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Umar says stops me," (5)

Giving Gifts

The Gift Hadhrat Uthmaan significant gave to Rasulullaah Buring one of the Military Expeditions

Hadhrat Abu Mas'ood inarrates, "We were with Rasulullaah is on an

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani and Ibn Asaakit, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 11).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.88).

⁽³⁾ In the chapter entitled "The Spending of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sisses" and the subheading "His Spending in the path of Allaah during the Lifetime of Rasulullaah (2006)".

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.632) (5) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.64).

expedition when we started experiencing extreme hardship. I could see the strains of hardship on the faces of the Muslims and I could also notice the happiness on the faces of the Munaafigeen (who were happy to see the Muslims suffer). When Rasulullaah an noticed this, he said, 'Allaah shall provide sustenance before the sun sets.' Hadhrat Uthmaan William knew that the words of Allaah and His Rasool Wis were always true, so he bought fourteen camels together with the loads of food they carried. He then sent nine to Rasulullaah When Rasulullaah was saw them, he asked, 'What are these?' 'They are a gift to you from Uthmaan,' came the reply. The happiness on the face of Rasulullaah 認識 was then clearly noticeable, while the faces of the Munaafigeen displayed only unhappiness. I then saw Rasulullaah Will raise his hands so high to pray for Hadhrat Uthmaan which that I could even the see the whiteness of his armoits. He made such du'aa for Hadhrat Uthmaan white I had never before or ever after heard him make for anyone else. He prayed for Allaah to reward Hadhrat Uthmaan was abundantly and to treat him every so graciously." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Concerning the Virtues of Giving Gifts

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sizes once stated, "For me to fulfil the necessities of a Muslim family for a month or for a week or for whatever period of time Allaah pleases is more beloved to me than performing Hajj after Hajj. Buying a utensil for even a Daaniq (one-sixth of a Dirham) and giving it to my brother as a gift for the pleasure of Allaah is more beloved to me than spending a Dinaar in the path of Allaah." (2)

FEEDING People

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali About the Virtue of Feeding Others

Hadhrat Ali sees once mentioned, "To gather a few of my friends to share a Saa of food is more beloved to me than proceeding to the marketplace to purchase a slave and set him free." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir (in this Regard Hadhrai Abdul Waahid bin Ayman reports from his father that when some guests came to Hadhrat Jaabir (he brought some bread and vinegar for them and said, "Eat this because I have heard Rasulullaah (he say that vinegar is an excellent gravy. Destroyed are those people who look down on what is offered to them and destroyed is the person who feels ashamed to offer his companions

Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.85) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaál (Vol.6 Pg.12).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.328).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari in his Adabul Mulrid and Ibnul Zanjway as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.65).

whatever is in his house." (1) Another narration states that Hadhrat Jaabir stated, "To look down on what is being served to him is sufficient to render a man sinful," (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas in this Regard

Hadhrat Humayd Taweel reports that when some people came to visit Hadhrat Anas when he fell ill, he said to his slave, "Bring something for our guests even though it be a piece of bread because I have heard Rasulullaah see say that good character is amongst the deeds that lead to Jannah." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Shaqeeq bin Salama in this Regard

Hadhrat Shaqeeq bin Salama reports that he once visited Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi with a friend. Hadhrat Salmaan said to them, "Had Rasulullaah with not forbidden us from imposing on ourselves, I would have certainly imposed on myself to entertain you." He then brought for them some bread and salt (because he had nothing else). Hadhrat Shaqeeq friend said, "(It would have been nice) If there was some mint with the salt." Hadhrat Salmaan with the pawned his jug to buy some mint and brought it. After the men had eaten, Hadhrat Shaqeeq with sfriend made a du'aa which meant, "All praise is for Allaah Who has granted us contentment with the sustenance He has provided." Hadhrat Salmaan then remarked, "Had you been content with what Allaah had provided for you, my jug would not have been pawned." Another narration states that Hadhrat Salmaan said, "Rasulullaah with and Hadhrat Ali with had forbidden us from imposing on ourselves by providing for our guests what we do not have." (4)

The Incident between Hadhrat Suhayb and Hadhrat Umar in this Regard Hadhrat Hamza bin Suhayb reports that Hadhrat Suhayb (was in the habit of feeding a lot of people. Hadhrat Umar (some said to him, "O Suhayb! You feed too many people, which is extravagant behaviour." To this, Hadhrat Suhayb (replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah (some say that the best of people are those who feed others and who reply to greetings. It is this that prompts me to feed people." (5)

Rasulullaah 🕮 Feeds People

The Story of Hadhrat Jaabir 劉德德

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "I was once sitting at home when Rasulullaah (2)

Bayhaqi in Shu'abul Imaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.64). Ahmad and Tabraani in his Alwsat have also reported the narration according to Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.180).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg. 180) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.152). Tabraani narrates from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.177). ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.438) has also reported the narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg. 179).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.153).

passed by and motioned to me. I therefore stood up and went to him. Taking me by the hand, Rasulullaah less led me to the homes of one of his wives and he entered. He then allowed me to enter and I entered the secluded area of the room where Rasulullaah less asked, 'Is there anything for lunch?' 'Yes,' came the reply and we were served three pieces of bread that were placed on fronds of a date palm. Rasulullaah less then placed a piece of bread before me, another before himself and broke the third into two. Half he placed before himself and the other before me. He then asked, 'Is there any gravy?' When he was informed that there was nothing besides some vinegar, he said, 'Bring it because it is an excellent gravy."(1)

The Story of Hadhrat Uthmaan wis in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam reports that Rasulullaah once saw Hadhrat Uthmaan leading a camel laden with flour, butter and honey. Rasulullaah instructed Hadhrat Uthmaan make the camel sit down and when he did so, Rasulullaah asked for a stone pot. He put some flour, butter and honey in the pot and then had a fire made beneath it. When the food was cooked, Rasulullaah told the Sahabah to eat it and he also had some. He then said to them. This is what the Persians call 'Khabees'." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr four men. It was called "Gharraa" and was brought out at midmorning after the Sahabah had performed their Duhaa (Chaast) salaah. Thareed (3) would be prepared init and the Sahabah would gather around to eat from it. When there were too many people, Rasulullaah would sit in a squatting position. A Bedouin once asked, "What type of sitting position is this?" Rasulullaah replied, "Allaah has made me a generous slave and not an arrogant tyrant (this posture is therefore one of humility)." Rasulullaah is then said to the Sahabah sisse, "Eat from the sides and leave the centre (for last) because it is where blessings descend." (4)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Feeds People

An Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and his Guests

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (The son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (The son of Hadhrat Abu

Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.182). Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Nasa'ee and Ibn Maajah have also reported the narration, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.295).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Janual Fawaa'id (Vol. i Pg.297). Imaam Haythami (Vol. Pg.) states that Tabraani had reported the narration in all three books but that only the chains of narrators of the Sagheer and Awsat are reliable.

⁽³⁾ A dish of gravy and meat mixed with pieces of bread.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Mishkaatul Masaabeeh (Pg.361).

see Rasulullaah (a) (as usual) when he said to me, 'O Abdur Rahmaan! Take care of the visitors (feed them without waiting for me).' When evening arrived, I took their food to them but they refused to eat saying, 'We shall not eat until the man of the house eats with us.' I said to them, 'My father is a stern man and I fear that he may beat me (if I have not fed you).' However, they still refused to eat. When my father arrived, the guests were his first concern and he asked (the members of the household). 'Have you taken care of the guests?' 'We have not yet seen to them,' came the reply. 'Had I not instructed Abdur Rahmaan (to see to them)?' he asked. I had made myself scarce by then as he shouted, 'Abdur Rahmaan!' I remained in hiding and he again shouted, 'You scamp! In the name of Allaah am I commanding you to come here if you can hear my voice!'

Then went to him and said, 'By Allaah! It was no fault of mine. You can even ask your guests that I had brought them their food but they refused to eat until you arrived.' My father then said to them, 'Why will you people not accept the food we give you? I swear by Allaah that I shall not eat anything tonight.' The guests responded by also swearing, 'By Allaah! We shall also have none of it until you do.' Hadhrat Abu Bakr sizes then said, 'I have never known a night worse than this! Why will you not accept the food we give you? Nevertheless, the first oath (I took not to eat) was from Shaytaan. Bring the food.' When the food was brought, he recited Bismillaah and ate. The guests then followed suit."

The following morning, Hadhrat Abu Bakr went to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah will while my guests fulfilled their oath, I breached mine." He then proceeded to inform Rasulullaah will about the incident. Rasulullaah said, "In fact, you are better at fulfilling oaths than them and a better person than they are." The narrator of the Hadith says, "No news has reached me about whether Hadhrat Abu Bakr said gave Kaffaara for his oath or not." (Hadhrat Abu Bakr said obviously did give Kaffaara because according to the consensus of the Ulema, Kaffaara is binding in such a situation.)

Hadhrat Umar 🖽 Feeds People

The Practice of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Aslam reports, "I once informed Hadhrat Umar which that there was a blind camel amongst the pack animals. He said, 'Give it to some family who can derive some benefit from it.' 'But it is blind,' I submitted. He said, 'They can tie it to the others in the caravan (and it will follow the rest).' I again asked, 'But how will it graze?' Hadhrat Umar which then asked, 'Is it from amongst the animals collected as Jizya or from the animals collected as Zakaah?' When I informed him that it was from amongst those collected as Jizya, he said, 'By Allaah! You people intend eating it (because anyone may eat from such an animal, unlike the animals of Zakaah).' I then said to him, '(I am not just saying this) But it really has the markings of the Jizya animals on it.' Hadhrat Umar when then issued the order that the camel should be slaughtered. He kept with him nine plates and whenever some fruit or delicacy came to him, he would always place some of it on each plate and send then to the (nine) wives of Rasulullaah . He would also ensure that he sent the plate of (his daughter) Hadhrat Hafsah is last so that if there are any defects, it would be in her share (and none could accuse him of nepotism). He then put some of the camel's meat into these plates and sent them to the wives of Rasulullaah . Thereafter, he gave instructions for the remaining meat to be cooked. When it was cooked, he invited the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar to partake of it."

Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah 🕮 🍪 Feeds People

The Practice of Hadhrat Talha (1996) and the Statement of Rasulullaah (1996) in this Regard

Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa sees reports that when Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah sees purchased a well at the foot of a mountain, he invited people for a meal. It was then that Rasulullaah sees said, "You, O Talha, are 'Fayyaadh' (an extremely generous person)." (2)

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abu Taalib Feeds People

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1986) in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says, "The person who most benefited the poor was Ja'far bin Abu Taalib says. He would take us home and feed us with whatever he had in his house. In fact, (when there was nothing) he would break open the butter container so that we could lick whatever butter remained." (3)

Hadhrat Suhayb Roomi Feeds People

The Incident of Hadhrat Suhayb with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Suhayb says, "I prepared some food for Rasulullaah and went to (invite) him whilst he sat amongst a group of Sahabah said. I stood in front of him and gestured to him (to come to eat). He gestured back to ask whether the others could also join us. When I indicated that they could not, he remained silent. I remained standing where I was. When Rasulullaah again looked my way, I gestured yet again (for him to come eat). For the second time, Rasulullaah asked whether the others could join us and again I repeated that they could not. This happened two or three times until I agreed that they should also join us. Rasulullaah see brought the others along and they all ate. Although it was only a little food that I had prepared for Rasulullaah see, there was still food left over (after all had eaten to their fill)." (1)

⁽I) Maalik, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol. 1 Pg. 296).

⁽²⁾ Hasan bin Sulyaan and Abu Nu'aym in his Ma'rilah, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.67).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa;d (Vol.4 Pg.28).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Feeds People

The Narration of Muhammad bin Oais

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Qais reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar some never ate without a poor person to join him. This eventually injured his health (because the poor people often finished the food, leaving him hungry). His wife then made for him a drink from dates, which she would give him whenever he ate (to replenish his strength).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Hais has reported that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would eat only when an orphan was present at his tablecloth. (2)

An Incident with an Orphan

Hadhrat Hasan reports that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was ate lunch or dinner (the Arabs never ate breakfast), he would invite an orphan from the vicinity. When he sat down to lunch one day, he sent for an orphan, but none could be found. After his lunch, he would drink some barley porridge. The orphan then arrived after the family had eaten the lunch and the porridge was still in Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was hand. He then gave the cup to the orphan saying, "Take this, I do not think that you have lost out completely."

The Narration of Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan about this Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports that some people reproached the wife of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar concerning him. They said to her, "Have you no mercy for the old man? (He is growing weaker by the day, why don't you feed him properly?)" She responded by saying, "What am I to do? Whenever we prepare some food for him, he invites someone to eat it up." His wife then sent some food to the poor people who usually sat on the path that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar took from the Masjid. She then gave them instructions not to sit by the roadside as he passed. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar teturned home, he asked for certain poor people to be brought to eat with him (because he did not find them by the roadside that day). However, when his wife had sent food to them, she had also given them instructions not to come when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar called for them. (When they failed to turn up,) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar called for them. (When they failed to turn up,) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said said (to his family). "Do you wish that I should not eat tonight?!" That night he did not have anything for dinner (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.154).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.298).

A Similar Incident when he was at Juhfa

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far Qaari says, "My master (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ayaash bin Abu Rabee'ah Makhzoomi) instructed me to proceed with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar camped at an oasis, he would invite the local people to share his meals. His eldest sons would also share the meals. (Because of the large number of people) Each person would have only two or three morsels to eat. When he arrived in Juhfa and the locals arrived to eat, a black boy who was scarcely dressed also came along. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar called him to eat, he said, 'I cannot find any place to sit.' The people were already sitting close together so I saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar move a bit from his place so that the boy sat against his chest." (2)

The Practice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar on his Journeys

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far Qaari says, "I accompanied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, on a journey from Makkah to Madinah. Around his large dish containing Thareed(3), his sons, his companions and everyone else who presented themselves there would eat. In fact, (because of the large crowd) some would have to eat standing. He also had a camel that carried two filled containers, one with Nabeedh(4) and the other with plain water. Every person then received a cup of barley porridge together with the Nabeedh, which would satiate him completely." (5)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ma'n about this

Hadhrat Ma'n reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Siese's meals were prepared and a well-off man passed by, he would not invite him. However, his sons and nephews would invite such a person. On the other hand, if a poor person passed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Siese), he would invite the person while his sons and nephews would not. Concerning this, he would say, "They invite those who do not want the food and leave out those who want it."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas Feeds People

He Hosts His Brothers, His Guests and the People of Various Towns

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Rabee'ah reports that he once performed Hajj during the

- (1) Abu Nu'aym in his Filiya (Vol.1 Pg.298) as well as Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.122).
- (2) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.302).
- (3) A dish of gravy and meat mixed with pieces of bread.
- (4) Water in which dates have been left overnight to lend it sweetness.
- (5) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.109).
- (6) 1bn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.109).

Khilaafah of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Was. With him was Hadhrat Muntasir bin Haarith and a group of Qurraa from Basrah. They were determined not to return home until they had the opportunity to meet a distinguished companion of Rasulullaah who would relate some Ahadeeth to them. They kept enquiring until they were informed that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas was staying over in the lower part of Makkah. When they went to see him, they found a large array of three hundred camels. One hundred camels were riding camels, while the other two hundred were laden with goods. Upon enquiry, they were informed that the contingent belonged to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr was. In surprise, they asked, "Does all of this belong to him?! We were told that he is an extremely modest person (so why does he need all of this?)."

They were then informed that (everything was not for his personal use, but that) the hundred riding camels were to transport his brothers while the goods on the two hundred camels were for his guests and the people of the various towns (he passed by on his travels). When the group expressed surprise, they were told, "Do not be so surprised! Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (1966) is a wealthy man who sees it as a right to others that he should have ample provisions to cater for the people who come to meet him." The group then asked where he could be found and they were told that he is in the Masjidul Haraam. When they searched for him, they found him sitting behind the Kabah. He was a short man with watery eyes whose shoes hung at his left side. He wore two sheets of cloth and a turban without a sewn upper garment. (1)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah Feeds People

An Incident of him with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (Fig. 6) narrates that he once went to Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) with a large utensil full of camel's brains. Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) Rasul

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas was about the Du'aa that Rasulullaah was made for Hadhrat Sa'd was

Hadhrat Anas (for a meal). When Rasulullaah (for a meal). When drank. Rasulullaah then prayed, "May the righteous always eat your food, may fasting people end their fasts with you and may the angels always pray for your forgiveness. O Allaah! Shower Your choicest mercies on the family of Sa'd bin Ubaadah." (1) Another narration also from Hadhrat Anas that Hadhrat Sa'd served some sesame seeds and dates to Rasulullaah (2).

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.291). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.12) has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.40).

Another Incident of his Hospitability

Hadhrat Urwa William reports that he once saw Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah William announce from his house, "Whoever wishes to eat fat or meat should go to Sa'd bin Ubaadah!" I then also saw his son doing the same (after his father's death). He narrates further that (after the death of the son) he was once walking in the streets of Madinah when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William passed by him and as he was proceeding to his property in the upper part of Madinah. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William said, "Dear youngster! Go an see whether there is anyone announcing from the house of Sa'd bin Ubaadah." When Hadhrat Urwa saw that there was no one announcing and reported back, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Said, "You are right (none could be as generous as that father and son)," (3)

Hadhrat Abu Shu'ayb Ansaari Feeds people

The Incident of him with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Mas'ood Ansaari (1) reports that there was a Sahabi from amongst the Ansaar who was called Abu Shu'ayb (1). He had a slave who was an expert in cooking meat. He once instructed his slave to prepare a meal so that he could invite Rasulullaah (1) and four other people. He then invited Rasulullaah (1) and four other person came along with them. (When they arrived at the house) Rasulullaah (2) said to Hadhrat Abu Shu'ayb (1) and permit him to join or leave him out." Hadhrat Abu Shu'ayb (2) said, "He is most welcome."

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Abu Shu'ayb some saw Rasulullaah see, he noticed the sign of hunger on Rasulullaah sees face. He then said to his slave, "How terrible! Cook some food for five people," (5)

A Tailor Feeds people

A Tailor Invites Rasulullaah (for a Meal that he Prepared Hadhrat Anas since narrates, "A tailor once invited Rasulullaah are to share a

^{(1) 1}bn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.66).

⁽²⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.66).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.142).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhari.

⁽⁵⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.176)

meal that he had prepared. I accompanied Rasulullaah & for the meal. He served barley bread to Rasulullaah & sand a gravy made of pumpkin and strips of meat. I then saw Rasulullaah & search for the pieces of pumpkin on the sides of the plate. Since that day, I had always loved pumpkin."

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah Feeds People

His Story During the Battle of Khandaq

Hadhrat Jaabir (As we were busy digging (the trench) for the Battle of Khandaq, an extremely hard boulder became an obstacle. When the Sahabah (Case reported to Rasulullaah (Case that the boulder posed an obstacle in the digging, he said, 'I am coming down there.' Rasulullaah (Case then stood up with a stone tied to his belly (to suppress the hunger) because we had already gone three days without even tasting any food. Rasulullaah (Case then took up a pickaxe and with one strike, reduced it to a heap of dust. I then asked permission from Rasulullaah (Case to go home and (when I reached home) I said to my wife, 'I have seen such hunger on Rasulullaah (Case that I am unable to bear. Do you have anything (to eat)?' She replied, 'I have some barley and a kid goat.'

I then slaughtered the kid as she ground the barley. We placed the meat in a pot (to cook) and when I went to call Rasulullaah . the dough had already risen and the pot was on the fire with the food almost cooked. I said, 'O Rasulullaah I i have a little food, so why don't you and one or two persons come?' When Rasulullaah is asked me how much food there was, I informed him accordingly. He said, 'That is plenty and most excellent. Tell your wife not to take the pot off the fire and not to take the bread out of the oven until I arrive.' He then told the Sahabah is to stand up (to join in the meal) and the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar and all with them stood up."

When Hadhrat Jaabir are came to his wife, he said, "Oh dear! Rasulullaah has come with the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar and everyone else!" She asked, "Did Rasulullaah ask you about this?" Hadhrat Jaabir see confirmed that Rasulullaah had asked him (she was therefore content that Rasulullaah would make the further arrangements). (When the Sahabah reached the house,) Rasulullaah see said to them, "Enter the house, but do not crowd it." Rasulullaah then started breaking the bread into pieces, placed meat on them and served them tothe Sahabah see. Whenever Rasulullaah took anything from the pot or the oven, he covered them again. Rasulullaah continued breaking the bread and dishing out the food until everyone was satiated and there was still plenty leftovers. He then said (to the lady), "Eat from this and give some to others because hunger had afflicted everyone." (2)

A more detailed narration states that when Rasulullaah 22 found out about the amount of food, he addressed all the Muslims saying, "Come to Jaabir's place." Hadhrat Jaabir (Such extreme embarrassment overcame me that Allaah Alone knows. I said to myself, 'Rasulullaah (Sie is coming with such a large group whereas I have prepared only one Saa of barley and a kid goat!' When I came to my wife, I said, 'You are soon to be embarrassed! Rasulullaah (Sie is coming with everyone digging the trench! 'Has Rasulullaah (Sie asked you how much food you have?' she asked. When I confirmed that he did, she assured me, 'Then Allaah and His Rasool (Sie know best (what they intend).' A tremendous worry then disappeared from my mind."

⁽¹⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.180) and Bukhari.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari.

Rasulullah the then arrived and said (to Hadhrat Jaabir "S's wife), "Continue what you are doing but hand the meat over to me." Rasulullah then broke the bread into the food and served the meat. As he did this, he kept covering the bread and the meat. In this manner, he continued serving food to the Sahabah with until they were all satiated and both the pot and the oven were as full as they had ever been. Thereafter, Rasulullah with said (to the lady), "Eat and give others." She continued eating and giving others from there the entire day. (1) Another narration (2) states that the Sahabah with numbered three hundred and another narration states eight hundred on that occasion.

In another narration, Hadhrat Jaabir Says, "Rasulullaah anounced, 'O people digging the trench! Jaabir has prepared a meal, so all of you should come! Rasulullaah then said (to me), 'Do not take the pot off the fire and do not bake the bread until 1 arrive.' I arrived home as Rasulullaah led the others. When I got to my wife, I said, 'Oh dear! I did exactly as you said (but things seem to have gone wrong).' (When Rasulullaah arrived) She gave him the dough and he mixed some of his blessed saliva in it and made du'aa for blessings. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said (to me), 'Call another lady to bake with you and dish out from the pot without taking it off the fire.' Although the Sahabah present there numbered a thousand, I swear by Allaah that they are so much that they eventually had to leave the food and go away. Even then the pot was still cooking with food as it had been and the oven was baking bread as it had been." (3)

The Narration of Tabraani about such an Incident

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "My mother cooked some food and asked me to invite Rasulullaah see for a meal. I went to Rasulullaah see and whispered to him, 'My mother has cooked something.' Rasulullaah see then told the Sahabah see to stand up and fifty of them came along. Sitting at the door, Rasulullaah see told them to enter ten at a time. They all ate to their fill and the food still remained as it had been." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi in his Dalaa'ilun Nubuwwah (Vol.3 Pg.422).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg. 97).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari. Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.178) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.308).

Hadhrat Abu Talha Ansaari Feeds People

An Incident Between him and Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas says, "Abu Talha says once said to his wife (my mother) Ummu Sulaym says, "Abu Talha says once said to his wife (my mother) Ummu Sulaym says, "I have heard Rasulullaah says voice go very weak and I know that it is because of extreme hunger." Do you have any food with you?' Yes,' she replied and then took out a few loafs of barley bread. She wrapped the bread with a part of her scarf, put it beneath my clothes and then wrapped the rest of the scarf around me. Thereafter she sent me off to Rasulullaah says. I went with the bread and found Rasulullaah says sitting in the Masjid with some people. When I stood by them, Rasulullaah says asked, 'Has Abu Talha sent you?' Yes,' I replied. 'Is it for food?' Rasulullaah says enquired further, When I again replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah says sald to those with him, 'Stand up.' (They then all accompanied Rasulullaah says to the house.)

Rasulullaah walked to the house and I walked in front of them. When I reached Abu Talha walked, I informed him about the situation and he said, 'O Ummu Sulaym! Rasulullaah is is coming with many people and we have nothing to feed them.' She replied, 'Allaah and His Rasool know best (we have no cause of concern)."

Hadhrat Abu Talha walked with him until they both entered the house. Rasulullaah then said, "Bring whatever you have, O Ummu Sulaym." When she brought the bread, Rasulullaah instructed that it be broken into small pieces and that Ummu Sulaym squeeze out from her container whatever butter was left to make some gravy. Rasulullaah then recited something on the food and said, "Allow ten people in." When they were allowed in, they ate to their fill and then left. Thereafter, Rasulullaah asked for another ten to be allowed in, who also ate to their fill before leaving. Rasulullaah again asked another ten persons to come in and in this manner, everyone ate to their fill. In total, they numbered seventy or eighty men. (1) Another narration states that there were approximately one hundred men. (2)

Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais Kindi (1996) Feeds People

His Waleema Celebration

Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim reports that (after re-entering the fold of Islaam after leaving it) Hadhrat Ash'ath was brought as a prisoner to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (who was then the Khalifah). (Because he had accepted Islaam Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.178). Bukhari, Amad, Abu Ya'la and Baghawi have also reported the narration, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.9 Pg.105).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Abu Ya'la, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg.306)

again) Hadhrat Abu Bakr sies opened his shackles and married him to his sister. Hadhrat Ash'ath sies then drew his sword and entered the camel market where he hamstrung every camel he saw. The people started shouting, "Ash'ath has become a Kaafir!" When he completed what he was doing, he threw his sword aside and said, "By Allaah! I have not become a Kaafir. What happened was that a great man (Hadhrat Abu Bakr sies) married his sister to me and had I been in my area, we would have celebrated a Waleema unlike this. O people of Madinah! Slaughter and eat these camels. O owners of these camels! Come and collect the price of these camels from me." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Barzah 墨圖圖 Feeds People

Hadhrat Hasan bin Hakeem reports from his mother that Hadhrat Abu Barzah subside kept a large dish of Thareed ready every morning and evening for the widows, orphans and the poor. (2)

Entertaining People who visited Madinah Tayyibah

The Narration of Hadhrat Talha bin Amr in this Regard

Hadhrat Talha bin Amr saiss says, "Whenever a person came to meet Rasulullaah in Madinah, he stayed with someone he knew. If he did not know anyone, he stayed with the men of Suffa 2006. I was amongst those who stayed on the Suffa. I was coupled with another person and each day there came from Rasulullaah as a Mudd of dates for every two persons. One day after Rasulullaah : had completed the salaah, one of us called out to him saying, O Rasulullaah 25 The dates have burnt our stomachs and our shawls are in tatters. Rasulullaah & turned towards the pulpit, mounted it and then praised Allaah before recounting the difficulties that his people had given him. He said, 'There was a time when my companion and I passed more than ten nights without anything to eat besides the fruit of acacia trees. We then came to our Ansaar brothers (after Hijrah) and because dates was their staple diet, they saw to our needs by giving us dates to eat. By Allaah! If I could feed you bread and meat, I would have definitely done so. However, you would probably see a time soon when your clothes will be made of a fabric similar to that used to drape the Kabah and you will be served large dishes of food every morning and evening. "(3)

Tabraani, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.51) and Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.415). Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.35).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.374). Tabraani and Bazzaar have reported a similar narration but Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.323) has commented on Bazzaar's chain of narrators. Ibn Jareer has reported the narration as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.41) as have Ahmad, Haakim and Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.231).

The Narration of Hadhrat Fudaalah Laythi (1996) in this Regard

Hadhrat Fudaalah Laythi says, "Whenever a person came to meet Rasulullaah in Madinah, he stayed with someone he knew. If he did not know anyone, he stayed on the Suffa. Because I knew no one, I was amongst those who stayed on the Suffa. One Friday, someone called out saying, 'O Rasulullaah is The dates are burning our stomachs,' Rasulullaah is said, 'A time will soon come when those of you living then will be served large platters of food every morning and evening and you will be clothed as the Kabah is draped (with expensive fabric)." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa in this Regard

Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa (Sies) narrates that after leading the salaah, Rasulullaah (Sies) would turn to the Sahabah (Sies) and say to them, "Each of you should take as many guests as he can host. Consequently, some would take home one person, others two and others three. Rasulullaah (Sies) would then take those who remained. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen in this Regard

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen reports that in the evenings Rasulullaah was used to distribute the men of Suffa was amongst the rest of the Sahabah was. Some would take one person, others would take two, others three and in a like manner, some would even take ten persons. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah would return to his family every night with eighty men of Suffa for supper. (3)

Rasulullaah E Invites all the Men of Suffa

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah harrates, "Rasulullaah harrates, once called out, 'O Abu Hirr!' 'I am at your service, O Rasulullaah harrates, 'I responded. He said, 'Go to the men of Sulla and invite them ail.' The men of Sulla were the guests of Islaam who had neither any wealth nor family. Whenever Rasulullaah received any Sadaqah, he would send it all to them without taking any of it. However, when given a gift, Rasulullaah would send for them. He would then partake of it and share it with them." (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Concerning the Manner in Which the Men of Suffa Were Entertained

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Sisses says, "I was amongst the men of Sulla. Every evening

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.323) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.65).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.341). Ibn Abi Dunya and Ibn Asaakir have also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 190).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.238). Bukhari and Muslim have both reported this narration.

we would go to Rasulullaah se's door and he would instruct someone who would take one of us (as his guest). There would always be ten persons left over, sometimes more and sometimes less. They would then join Rasulullaah when his supper was brought. When we finished eating, Rasulullaah would say, 'You may sleep in the Masjid.' Rasulullaah once passed by me as I was asleep on my face (lying on my belly). Rasulullaah would me with his foot and said, 'O Jundub! What is this manner of lying down?! This is the manner in which Shaytaan lies down."

The Narration of Hadhrat Ibn Qais in this Regard

Hadhrat Tughfah bin Qais harrates, "In compliance with the instruction of Rasulullaah some Sahabah took one person (from the men of the Sulfa as his guest) while others took two and I was eventually left as one of four other men. Rasulullaah told us to proceed with him and we accompanied him to Aa'isha with When Rasulullaah asked her to give us something to eat and drink, she served some coarsely ground wheat cooked with meat. After we had eaten it, she served us a sweet dish made of dates, which was the (brownish) colour of a sand grouse. After we had eaten it, Rasulullaah asked Aa'isha for something to drink and she brought a small cup of milk from which we all drank. Rasulullaah then said, 'If you please, you may either spend the night here or proceed to the Masjid.' We told him that we would rather go to the Masjid. As I was lying in the Masjid on my stomach, someone started nudging me with his foot saying, 'This is a manner of lying down that Allaah abhors.' When I looked up (to see who it was), I saw that it was Rasulullaah

Entertaining those Who Intended Accepting Islaam

Hadhrat Jahjaa Ghifaari says, "I arrived (in Madinah) with a group from my tribe with the intention of accepting Islaam. When we presented ourselves before Rasulullaah and greeted him, he said (to the Sahabah (Says), 'Each person should take the hand of the person sitting next to him (and take the person home for meals).' (When the Sahabah and myself. No one approached me (to take me for a meal) because I was large in size and very tall. Rasulullaah took me home where he milked a goat for me. When he brought the milk to me, I drank it all up. Rasulullaah eventually milked seven goats and I drank up all the milk. He then served a pot of food and I ate this as well. Ummu Ayman commented, 'May Allaah starve the person who has starved Rasulullaah see!' 'Be quiet, O Ummu Ayman!' said Rasulullaah (See, 'He has only eaten the sustenance destined for him. Allaah shall provide our sustenance."

Early next morning, Hadhrat Jahjaa Chifaari (1986) and his companions gathered and started discussing what food they had been served the previous night. He said, "Seven goats were milked for me and I drank all the milk. A pot of gravy was then served and I ate it all as well." After they had all performed the Maghrib salaah, Rasulullaah as again announced, "Each person should take the hand of the person sitting next to him (and take the person home for meals)." Hadhrat Jahjaa as narrates further, "(When the Sahabah as did as told) There was none left in the Masjid besides Rasulullaah as and myself. No one approached me (to take me for a meal) because I was large in size and very tall. Rasulullaah as took me home where he milked a goat for me. When he brought the milk to me, I drank it and was full. Ummu Ayman asked, 'O Rasulullaah Is this not the same guest we had (last night)?' Rasulullaah replied. 'He is the same man. However, tonight he has eaten with the intestine of a Mu'min whereas before this he had been eating with the intestine of a Kaafir. While a Kaafir eats to fill seven intestines, a Mu'min eats to fill only one."(1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.352).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.374).

Feeding the Men of Suffa During Ramadhaan

Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa Sales says, "We were amongst the men of Suffa when Ramadhaan arrived and we all fasted. Whenever the time came to end the fast, one of the Sahabah who had pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah we would approach one of us and take him for meals. However, there arrived an evening when no one came to us. We then spent the morning (hungry). Again the following evening, no one arrived (to take us for meals) so we approached Rasulullaah and informed him of the situation. Rasulullaah the then sent a message to each of his wives to ask if they had any food with them. Every wife swore on oath that there was not even enough food in her home that evening to feed a single person. Rasulullaah (then asked us to gather around and when we did so, he prayed to Allaah saying, 'O Allaah! I beseech You for Your grace and mercy, for it is only in Your power and none other has control over it. - Rasulullaah & had hardly completed when someone asked permission to enter. He brought a roasted goat and many loaves of bread. By the instruction of Rasulullaah (in the food was placed before us and we all ate until we were full. Rasulullaah then said to us, 'We had asked Allaah for His grace and His mercy. This (food) was from His grace and He has kept His mercy in store for us with Him (for the Aakhirah). (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Bakr (Singles) reports, "Because the men of Suffa were poor people, Rasulullaah (Singles) once said to the Sahabah (Singles), "Whoever has food for two persons should take three persons (for meals) and whoever has food for four should take five or six people. While Rasulullaah took ten person home, (my father) Abu Bakr took ten person home, (my father) Abu Bakr took ten person home, (my father and I were there." One of the narrators said, "I cannot remember whether he also said, "(my mother, my father and I were there) together with my wife and a servant who worked at both my father's house and mine." (The food therefore had to suffice for five people at home in addition to the three guests).

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.93). Ibn Abi Shaybah has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.253), Bazzaar and Abu Ya'la have also reported the narration, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'ld (Vol.5 Pg.31). Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.120).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr wise ate with Rasulullaah and stayed with him until the Isha salaah. He then returned to Rasulullaah (after the Isha salaah) and waited until Rasulullaah after a considerable portion of the night had already passed (thinking that his family would have already led the guests). His wife said to him, "What has kept you from (seeing to) your guests?" "Have you not given them their supper yet?" he said in surprise. His wife replied, "They refuse to eat until you arrive. Despite our insistence, they refused to eat and had their way." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmann which himself away (for fear of his father) and Hadhrat Abu Bakr shouted (at him), "You scamp!" After much scolding, Hadhrat Abu Bakr told the guests to eat but (in anger) swore that he would not touch the food. (The guests then swore that they would not eat until he did. When his anger cooled, Hadhrat Abu Bakr street eating with them).

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan with reports further. He says, "By Allaah! Each time we took a morsel, more food appeared beneath it, making it more than it was. When everyone had eaten to their fill, there was more food than there had been initially. When Abu Bakr with saw that there was still food remaining and even more than there had been, he exclaimed (addressing his wife), 'O daughter of the Banu Firaas tribe! (What is happening?!)' She said, 'By the coolness of my eyes! It is three times more than it had been!"

"Abu Bakr Sizes" then ate some more saying, 'That (my oath) had been from Shaytaan.' After eating another morsel, he took the rest to Rasulullaah (is and the food stayed there until the morning. There had been a treaty between us Muslims and a tribe (of Kuffaar) which had expired. Twelve of us had been appointed as commanders (of an army marching against the tribe) and each one commanded a large group of men. Only Allaah knows how many men were under each person's command. Nevertheless, every person ate from the food." Another narration states that the Muslims were divided into twelve groups. (1)

The Story of Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd William

Hadhrat Yahya bin Abdul Azeez narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah would proceed in Jihaad one year and his son Hadhrat Qais would proceed the following year. It was while Hadhrat Sa'd was once out on a military expedition that Rasulullaah researched a large group of guests. When Hadhrat Sa'd week heard about this, he said, "If Qais is truly my son, he would say (to my slave), 'O Nistaas! Give me the keys (to my father's storehouse) so that (I) Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.112).

I may take for Rasulullaah what he needs (to feed his guests).' Nistaas will then say, 'First produce a letter from your father (to authorise it).' Qais will then punch Nistaas on the nose and take the keys from him to provide Rasulullaah with whatever he needs." Matters transpired exactly as Hadhrat Sa'd had mentioned and Hadhrat Qais took for Rasulullaah a hundred Wasaq of provisions. (1)

Feeding Bedouins During a Drought

Hadhrat Maymoona bint Haarith (one of Rasulullaah would instruct someone to take a Bedouin by the hand as his guest and serve him a meal. It was during a year of drought when a Bedouin came to Rasulullaah one night. All Rasulullaah had was a little food and some milk. The Bedouin ate everything without leaving anything for Rasulullaah are brought the Bedouin for a night or two and he always ate everything. I therefore said, 'May Allaah not bless this Bedouin who eats the food of Rasulullaah leaving him without any.' Rasulullaah then brought the Bedouin another night after the man had accepted Islaam and he ate only a little. When I mentioned this to Rasulullaah he he said, 'While a Kaafir eats to fill seven intestines, a Mu'min eats to fill only one."

The practice of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar Substitute During the Year of Drought

Hadhrat Aslam reports that during the 'Year of Ashes (destruction)', Arabs from all over collected in Madinah. Hadhrat Umar special appointed certain persons to go to these people and distribute food and gravy amongst them. These persons were Hadhrat Yazeed bin Ukht Namir, Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abdul Qaari and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Utba bin Mas'ood special action of them was appointed to a particular sector of Madinah and they reported back to Hadhrat Umar special every evening.

The Bedouins were stationed from the beginning of Thaniyyatul Wadaa up to the Raa'ij mountain and the areas of the Banu Haaritha, the Banu Abdil Ash'hal, the Banu Quraizah tribes. They even extended to the Baque cemetery and some of them reached up close to the area of the Banu Salama tribe. They had virtually surrounded Madinah. One night after the people had had their supper with Hadhrat Umar Williams, he gave instructions that the people who eat with him should be counted. When they were counted the following night, they numbered seven thousand. Hadhrat Umar Williams then instructed that the families, the ill and the children who were unable to attend should also be counted. When they were counted, they were found to number forty thousand. After a few nights, the numbers increased. When Hadhrat Umar Williams had them counted, those eating with him numbered ten thousand and the rest numbered fifty thousand. This continued until Allaah sent the rains.

⁽¹⁾ Daar Qutni in his Kitaabul Askhiyaa, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.553).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.33). Ahmad has also reported the ending portion of the narration.

Hadhrat Aslam narrates further, "After the rains had fallen, I saw Umar States appoint a man from every area to send the (Bedouin) people back to their rural areas and to also provide them with transport and provisions to get back. In fact, I saw Umar straigs personally engage in this exercise. Many deaths occurred amongst the people stricken by the drought and I estimate that two thirds of them perished while only a third remained alive. The people tending the large pots of Hadhrat Umar wise used to start preparing the Kurkoor(1) before dawn and continued well into the morning. They then served it to ill after which they added butter and prepared another dish. According to the instructions of Hadhrat Umar 經濟學 olive oil used to be boiled in large cauldrons to eliminate its inherent sharpness and heat. Bread was then broken into the oil to make a type of Thareed. By eating too much of oil, the Arabs generally suffered from fever (because they were used to using butter instead of oil). During the Year of Ashes, Hadhrat Umar William ate nothing from the homes of his children or his wives. He ate only what was prepared for the suffering people until Allaah gave life back to the people (by sending the rains)." (2)

The Narration of Firaas Daylami in this Regard

Hadhrat Firaas Daylami reports that from the camels that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas sent from Egypt, Hadhrat Umar sees would have twenty slaughtered every day for his table (to feed those who were stricken by the drought). (3)

The Story of Hadhrat Umar with a Poor Family

Hadhrat Aslam reports that Hadhrat Umar was going on his usual rounds one night when he came across a woman in a house surrounded by crying children. The woman had a pot of water boiling over the fire. Hadhrat Umar went to the door asked, "O servant of Allaah! Why are these children crying?" The woman replied, "Because they are hungry." Hadhrat Umar asked further, "What is in the pot?" "Only water to soothe the children, so that they may go to sleep in the belief that food is being prepared for them." Hadhrat Umar wept and went straight to the public treasury where he took a sack and put in it some flour, fat, butter, dates, clothing and some money. When the sack was full, he said to Aslam, "Put this sack on my back, Aslam." "Please, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Let me carry the sack," pleaded Aslam. Hadhrat Umar remarked, "Never! I shall carry the sack because I will be questioned about these people in the Aakhirah."

Aslam most reluctantly placed the bag on Hadhrat Umar Sies's back, who carried it to the woman's home. Hadhrat Umar Sies put a little flour and some dates and fat in the pan and began to stir it. He also blew into the fire to kindle it.

⁽¹⁾ A dish prepared with coarsely ground grain.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.228).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.387).

Aslam says, "I saw the smoke passing through his thick beard. When the food was ready, he himself served it to the family and they ate to their fill. He then left and knelt near the house in a humble position. I was too overawed to say anything. He remained watching in this manner until the children were playing and laughing. He then stood up and said, 'Do you know why I sat there, Aslam?' When I admitted that I did not, he said, 'I had seen them weeping in distress and disliked to leave until I saw them laughing. I was satisfied when they started to laugh."(1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Aslam said, "I accompanied Umar Susses one night to Harrah and Aqim. When we came to Saraar, we noticed a fire burning. He said, 'O Aslam! There seems to be a caravan here that had to camp over because of nightfall. Let us go there.' When we arrived there, we found a woman with her children..." The rest of the narration is similar to the one above. (2)

Sharing Food

A Narration of Hadhrat Anas (in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas reports that Ukaydir (the ruler of Dowmatul Jandal) once sent a bag full of sweetmeats as a gift to Rasulullaah . When Rasulullaah had performed the salaah, he passed by some people and started giving pieces of it to each one of them. Rasulullaah geg gave Hadhrat Jaabir said, "But you have already given me a piece." Rasulullaah told him, "This is for the daughters of Abdullaah (for your sisters)." (3)

A Narration of Hadhrat Hasan William in this Regard

Hadhrat Hasan ("I kaydir who was the ruler of Dowmatul Jandal once sent a bag full of sweetmeats as you may have already seen as a gift to Rasulullaah ("E"). By Allaah! Rasulullaah ("E") and his family were truly in need of it in those days (because they had no food to eat). However, when Rasulullaah had performed the salaah, he instructed someone to take the bag around to the Sahabah ("E"). Each of them would then put his hand in the bag and eat whatever he took out. When the bag came around to Khaalid bin Waleed and he placed his hand in the bag, he said, 'O Rasulullaah ("E") While the others have taken only once, I have had twice.' Rasulullaah ("E") said to him, 'Eat and give your family to eat some as well." "(4)

Deenowri, Ibn Shaadhaan and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.415).

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.136). Imaam Tabari has reported a similar narration with some addition.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'ld (Vol.1 Pg.297). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.44) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.47).

Rasulullaah 經過 Shares some Dates with The Sahabah 經過過

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Sies) narrates, "Rasulullaah (Sies) once distributed some dates amongst the Sahabah (Sies). He gave each person seven dates, I also received seven dates, one of them being without a seed. This was the best of the lot because it was firm and took long to chew." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas sites states that when some dates were once brought to Rasulullaah site, he shared it with the Sahabah sites. Rasulullaah site was sitting in a squatting position and eating quickly (because he was probably leaving to go somewhere).

The Letter Hadhrat Umar sent to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas see During the Year of Ashes and His Reply

Hadhrat Layth bin Sa'd reports that a severe drought afflicted the people of Madinah during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar (in what was called the Year of Ashes, Hadhrat Umar (wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (in Egypt.)

From the servant of Allaah the Ameerul Mu'mineen

To the sinful son of Aas

Salaams to you. O Amr! I swear by my life that while you and those with you are eating to your fill you seem to have no concern for my companions and I who are on the verge of destruction. Do assist! Do assist!

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas seems sent the following reply:

To the servant of Allaah Ameerul Mu'mineen

From Amr bin Al Aas

I am at your service! I am at your service! I have dispatched (a train of) camels, the first of which will be by you when the last will still be here with me. Peace be on you as well as Allaah's mercy and blessings.

Hadhrat Umar See Distributes the Food that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas See sent Amongst the Residents of Madinah

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas the then sent a train of camels so large that when the first camel reached Madinah, the last camel was still leaving Egypt. When the camels arrived, Hadhrat Umar the generously distributed it amongst the people. He gave every household in Madinah a camel with all the food it carried. He appointed Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf to distribute amongst the people. They then gave every household a camel with all the food it carried so that they may eat the food and slaughter the camel to eat the meat, use the fat for cooking, make shoes from the hide and use the satchels for purpose they desired, such as making quilts, etc. As a result of this generosity, Allaah extended further generosity to the people (and sent abundant rains). The narration still continues, in which it is stated that to get the provisions to Makkah and Madinah, a canal was dug from the Nile to the Red Sea. (1)

A narration from Hadhrat Aslam also mentions the letter that Hadhrat Umar wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aaş will. The narration also states that when the first camel reached Madinah, Hadhrat Umar will called for Hadhrat Zubayr will and said to him, "Take the first camel to Najd and bring back to me as many families as you can. As for those whom you are unable to bring, you should issue instructions for each household to receive a camel together with all the provisions it carries. Then instruct them to wear two sheets, to slaughter the camel, to melt the fat (for cooking), to dry the meat and to make shoes from the hide. Thereafter, they should take a part of the meat, a part of the fat and a handful of flour to cook a meal to eat. In this manner, they should keep eating until Allaah makes further provisions available."

When Hadhrat Zubayr (Fig. 4) excused himself from the task, Hadhrat Umar Said to him, "By Allaah! You will never have another chance (of gaining such immense rewards) until you leave this world!" Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 4) then called for another person who the narrator assumes was Hadhrat Talha (Fig. 4). However, when he also excused himself, Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 4) sent for Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (Fig. 4), who left to fulfil the task. The narration continues further and states that Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 4) gave Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (Fig. 4) a thousand Dinaars, which the latter refused to accept. However, when Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 4) insisted that he accept, he eventually did. (2)

The narration has already passed in the chapter discussing the service that the Ansaar rendered to others, specifically the food that Rasulullaah (25% distributed amongst the Ansaar and the Banu Zafar tribe. (3)

Giving Clothing to People

Rasulullaah We Gives Away his Two shawls

Hadhrat Jaz Sulami (Fig. 1) reports that he brought to Rasulullaah (Fig. 2) a prisoner (of war that his people had captured). When Hadhrat Jaz (Fig. 3) accepted Islaam and Rasulullaah (Fig. 3) intended giving him two shawls, Rasulullaah (Fig. 3) said to him, "Go to Aa'isha and she will give you two of the shawls she has with her." He then went to Hadhrat Aa'isha (Fig. 3) and said, "May Allaah always keep you hail and healthy! Choose for me any two shawls from the ones you have with you because Rasulullaah (Fig. 3) has instructed that I have two of them." Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abdil Hakam, as quoted in

⁽²⁾ Ibn Khuzaymah, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.396). The complete narration will soon be quoted Inshaa Allaah.

⁽³⁾ In the chapter entitled "The Hospitality and service that the Ansaar Rendered" and the subheading "The Hospitality of the Ansaar and the Story of Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr 20136".

Aa'isha (2006) placed each shawl on the end of a long Miswaak taken from an acacia tree and handed them over saying, "Take this. Take this." The narrator says that Arab women did not expose themselves (because of the laws of Hijaab). (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and the Grandsons of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Muhammad reports from his father that when some clothing came to Hadhrat Umar was from Yemen, he distributed it amongst the people. As Hadhrat Umar was was sitting between the grave of Rasulullaah and the pulpit that evening, the people came wearing their new garments. They greeted Hadhrat Umar was and made du'aa for him. Hadhrat hasan was and Hadhrat Husayn was (the grandsons of Rasulullaah without wearing any of the house of (their mother) Hadhrat Faatima without wearing any of the new garments. As they approached stepping over the shoulders of people, the face of Hadhrat Umar was dropped and he became very depressed. He said (to the people around him), "By Allaah! I am not at all pleased by the clothing I have given you to wear." "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" they consoled him, "You have done an excellent thing by providing clothing for your subjects." Hadhrat Umar was explained, "I am depressed about those two youngsters stepping over the shoulders of the people. They have none of these garments on them because the garments were too large for them and they too small to fit into them."

Hadhrat Umar when the move to the governor of Yemen to speedily send two sets of clothing for Hadhrat Hasan when the governor sent it, Hadhrat Umar was gave it to the two to wear. (2) In the chapter concerning honouring the Ansaar, the incident has already passed about Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr when he distributed clothing amongst the people. Also in this regard, the incident has passed about the new shawl that Hadhrat Umar was gave to Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara when because she had been amongst the women who fought in the Battle of Uhud. (3)

Hadhrat Shafaa bint Abdullaah Adawiyyah reports that Hadhrat Umar once sent a message that she should come to see him the following morning. She says, "When I got there in the morning, I found Aatika bint Usayd bin Abil Ees this door. We entered together and spoke for while when Umar sent for a shawl and gave it to her. He then sent for a shawl of inferior quality and gave that to me. I said, 'O Umar! I accepted Islaam before her and I am also your cousin while she is not. Furthermore, you had sent for me while she came of her own accord (why did she then receive a better shawl?). He replied, 'I had originally kept that shawl for you but when the two of you came together, it occurred to me that she was more closely related to Rasulullaah than you are (I therefore gave preference to the relatives of Rasulullaah over my own). "(1)

⁽¹⁾ Muntakhab Ranzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.153).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 106).

⁽³⁾ In the chapter entitled "Women Fighting in Jihaad in the path of Allaah" and the subheading "Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara See Fights in the Battle of Uhud".

The Practice of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Asbagh bin Nubaatareports that a man came to Hadhrat Ali saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I have a need that I have already placed before Allaah before coming to you. If you are able to fulfil it, I shall praise Allaah and be thankful to you. If you are unable to fulfil it, I shall praise Allaah and excuse you." Hadhrat Ali said said, "Write down your request on the ground because I do not like to see the humiliation of begging on your face." The man then wrote that he was a destitute. Hadhrat Ali said instructed that a set of clothing be brought to him and when it came, he gave it to the man. The man wore the clothes and the recited the following couplets (in praise of Hadhrat Ali said, which mean):

"You have given me clothing, the beauty of which will soon fade.
While I shall give you the most excellent clothing of praise.
Should you receive my good praise, you have received great honour.
And you will want nothing else in return for what I have to say.
Praise revives the mention of a person.
Just as the waters of the rain revive the plains and mountains.
Never give up the good that Allah inspires you to do.
Because every servant shall be rewarded for the deeds they do".
Hadhrat All when then sent for some gold coins and when a hundred coins were brought to him, he gave it all to the man. To this, Hadhrat Asbagh remarked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! A set of clothing and a hundred gold coins?!"
Hadhrat Ali when replied, "Certainly! I have heard Rasulullah say, "Treat people according to their status' and this is the status of this man in my regard." (2)

The Reward of giving a Muslim Clothing to wear

When a beggar once came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (he asked the man, "Do you testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad (is is Allaah's Rasul?" When the man replied in the affirmative, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (asked him further, "And do you fast during Ramadhaan?" "Yes," was the reply. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (he reply) then said, "You have asked for something and it is our duty to assist you," He then gave the beggar a garment and said, "I have heard Rasululiaah (2888 say, 'When a Muslim gives a garment to another Muslim, he remains in Allaah's protection as long as even a rag of the garment remains on the person." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Zubayr bin Bakkaar, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.356).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Abu Moosa Madeeni in his Kitaabu Istidaail Libaas, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.324).

Feeding the Mujaahideen

The Practice of Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah (Feports that Rasulullaah (Feports that Rasulullaah) once dispatched an army under the command of Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd bin Ubaadah (Feports). When the army suffered hunger, he slaughtered nine riding animals (for them to eat). After the expedition returned and the incident was mentioned to Rasulullaah (Feports), he said, "Verily generosity is the hallmark of that family." (2) Another narration from Hadhrat Raafi bin Khuday) (2) States that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (Feports) and Hadhrat Umar (Feports) both approached Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd (Feports) and implored him not to slaughter any more camels (because it would deprive the army of their transport). However, he still went ahead to do so. When the news reached Rasulullaah (Feports), he said, "He is after all from the house of generosity." This occurred during the "Expedition of Leaves" (When the Sahabah (Feports) were forced to eat leaves because they had no food). (3)

A Giant Fish comes to the Shore for the Mujaahideen

Hadhrat Jaabir (Paisson narrates, "Qais bin Sa'd bin Ubaadah (Paisson once passed by us during the time of Rasulullaah (Paisson once passed by us during the time of Rasulullaah (Paisson on our expedition). When we set up camp along the shore, we found a giant fish lying there. We lived off it for three days and took along with us as much of its fat we could store in our water bags and satchels. We then travelled back until we came to Rasulullaah (Paisson of What had transpired." The Sahabah (Paisson of Who were part of the expedition) said, "If we had assurance that the fish would not rot before we reached Rasulullaah (Paisson on the Paisson o

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Bilaal About Feeding the Mujaahideen

Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim reports that when Hadhrat Umar specific arrived in Shaam and was with the commanders of the various armies, Hadhrat Bilaal came calling, "Umar! Umar!" "Here 1 am!" responded Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Bilaal said, "You are between these people and Allaah

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.147).

⁽²⁾ Abu Bakr in his Ghaylaaniyaat and Ibn Asaakir.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.260).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.37) has commented on the chain of narrators.

whereas there is none between yourself and Allaah. Look carefully at those before you, those on your right and those on your left. By Allaah! These who have come to you eat only the meat of birds (they eat well whereas those under their command are ill fed)."

Hadhrat Umar responded by saying, "You are right. I shall not stand up from here until each one of them guarantees me that he would provide every Muslim (under his command) two Mudd of barley and an appropriate measure of vinegar and olive oil." The commanders assured Hadhrat Umar saying. "We give you our guarantee that we will take this responsibility upon us, for Allaah has granted us an abundance of wealth." "That is then fine," Hadhrat Umar saying expressed in satisfaction. (1)

How was the Spending of Rasulullaah

The Incident of Hadhrat Bilaal was and a Mushrik

Hadhrat Abdullaah Howzini reports that he once met Hadhrat Bilaal with Mu'adhin of Rasulullaah 優麗 in Aleppo. When he asked Hadhrat Bilaal 劉國語 to explain to him how Rasulullaah & managed his finances, Hadhrat Bilaal replied, "From the time Rasulullaah ar announced his Nabuwaat until the time of his demise, I had been the one to take charge of anything that he possessed. Whenever any Muslim came to him whom he regarded to be destitute, he gave me instructions to borrow some money to purchase some clothing or some food to give the person to wear or to eat. This continued until one of the Mushrikeen once came to me and said, 'O Bilaal! I have plenty of wealth. You therefore need to borrow money from none besides me.' I then did as he said. One day after performing wudhu and standing up to call out the Adhaan, the man arrived with a group of traders. When he saw me, he said, 'Hey Abyssinian!' When I replied, he treated me most insolently and spoke very harshly. He then asked, 'What remains of the month?' 'Not much,' I replied. He continued. 'There are only four nights of the month left, after which I shall take you as a slave if you do not settle the debt. I have not given you the loans out of any regard for you or for your chief (Rasulullaah (28)). I gave you the loans so that you should become my slave and I could have you grazing goats as you had been doing previously.1

My heart was left filled with every thought a person could possibly have. I then proceeded to call out the Adhaan. After we had performed the Isha salaah and Rasuluilaah After we had performed the Isha salaah and Rasuluilaah After we had performed the Isha salaah and Rasuluilaah After we had performed the Isha salaah and Rasuluilaah After had returned to his home, I sought permission to see him. When he permitted me in, I said to him, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasuluilaah After has he much (and demands repayment) whereas neither you not I have the means to settle the debt. He will certainly humiliate me (if I am unable to pay). Do permit me to go (into hiding) to some tribe that has accepted Islaam until Abu Ubayd, as quoted in Kanzul Unimaal (Vol.2 Pg.318). Tabraani has also reported the narration and Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.213) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Allaah gives His Rasool something to pay off my debt.

I then left for home where I placed my sword, my bag, my spear and my shoes by my headside and faced towards the horizon from where the sun rises. Each time I fell asleep, I awoke (out of worry) but when I realised that there was still night left, I slept again. Eventually the first pillar of dawn broke through the sky and I decided to leave. However, I suddenly heard someone calling, 'Bilaal! Hurry, Rasulullaah is calling you.' I walked to Rasulullaah and found four loaded camels there. When I came to Rasulullaah and sought permission to enter, he said to me, 'Rejoice, for Allaah has sent the means to settle your debt.' I praised Allaah and Rasulullaah as aked, 'Did you not pass by the four camels sitting there?' When I informed him that I did, Rasulullaah said, 'I hand them over to you together with their loads. Take them and settle your debts.' The camels were loaded with clothing and food that the chief of Fidak had given as a gift to Rasulullaah

I did as Rasulullaah bade me and offloaded the camels, I then fed them and proceeded to call out the Adhaan for the Fajr salaah. After Rasulullaah had led the salaah, I went to Baqee where I placed my fingers in my ears and called out, 'Whoever has a debt due from Rasulullaah should present themselvest' I then offered the goods to people, sold them and paid of the debts until there was no debt on earth due from Rasulullaah should present two or one and a half Awqiya. When I later left for the Masjid, most of the day had already passed and Rasulullaah was sitting there all by himself.

When I greeted him with Salaam, he asked, 'Have you fulfilled what you had to do?' I replied, 'Allaah has settled every debt that was due form His Rasool (2004) and nothing is left outstanding'. He then asked me if anything was left over and I informed him that two Dinaars were left (this was all that was left from the two or one and a half Awgiya since the balance was also used to pay creditors on the way back to the Masjid). Rasulullaah then said, 'Do try to give me peace from that as well (by giving it away) because I cannot return to any of my wives until 1 have peace from it.' However, since no one deserving came to us, Rasulullaah see spent the entire night in the Masjid. He then spent the second day in the Masjid as well. It was at the end of the day when two riders eventually came. I approached them and gave them food and clothing. After Rasululiaah & had led the Isha salaah, he summoned me and asked, 'Have you fulfilled what you had to do?' I replied by saying, 'Allaah has given you peace from it.' Rasulullaah es then exclaimed 'Allaahu Akbar' and praised Allaah because he feared that death should overcome him while he had wealth in his possession. I then walked behind him as he greeted each one of his wives in turn and finally reached his place for the night. This is the reply to the question you have posed." (1)

Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.55). Tabraani has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.39).

Distribution of Wealth

The Manner in which Rasulullaah

The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ummu Salama

Hadhrat Ummu Salama during his entire lifetime. It was during the early hours of the night when a bag came to Rasulullaah containing eight hundred Dirhams and a letter. Rasulullaah see sent the bag to me because it was my turn to spend the night with him. He then returned after performing the Isha salaah and started performing salaah in the place he reserved for salaah. I had already made the bed for us and was waiting for him. He however took very long and left the room only to return again after a while. This continued until the Adhaan was called out for the Fajr salaah. He led the salaah and then returned saying, 'Where is that bag? It troubled me the entire night.' He took the bag and then distributed everything it had. I then asked him, 'O Rasulullaah 'E' You had behaved in a manner that is not your usual behaviour (Why is this?).' He replied by saying, 'Whenever I started my salaah, I started thinking of the bag. I then had to leave to see it and then return to my salaah."

Rasulullaah W Distributes the Eighty Thousand that Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami had Sent

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari an arrates that Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami once sent eighty thousand to Rasulullaah form Bahrain. Never before or afterwards had so much money been sent to Rasulullaah According to the instruction of Rasulullaah for the money was spread out on a mat and the Adhaan was called out. Bending over the money (after the salaah was over), Rasulullaah the then started giving to the people as they came. That day there was no counting and no weighing. All Rasulullaah the did was to give out handfuls.

He Abbaas then arrived saying, "O Rasulullaah !! I had to pay the ransom for myself and for (my nephew) Aqeel after the Battle of Badr because he did no have any money then. Do give me some of that money." "Take some," Rasulullaah !! Said to him. Hadhrat Abbaas then spread out the embroidered black shawl he was wearing (and filled it). When he wanted to get up to leave, he was unable to carry it. He then looked up to Rasulullaah !! Please lift this onto me." Rasulullaah !! Please lift this onto me." Rasulullaah !! Smiled so widely that his teeth showed. He said, "Rather put some of it back and take only what you can carry." Hadhrat Abbaas !! Was did as told and then left with the money he took. As he left, he said, "As for one of the things Allaah has promised, (I) Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.325).

He has certainly fulfilled. I do not know about the second promise." He then recited the verse:

O Nabi : Tell the prisoners in your hands (in your custody), "If Allaah is aware of any good (Imaan) in your hearts (because of which you would soon become Muslims), He shall grant you better than that (ransom) which was taken from you, and will forgive you: (1)

He said further, "This money is better than that which was taken from me (as ransom) but I have no idea about the promise of forgiveness." (2)

The Manner in which Hadhrat Abu Bakr Distributed Wealth

The Practice of Hadhrat Abu Bakr in this Regard and the Public Treasury during his Period as Khalifah

Hadhrat Sahl bin Abi Hathma and others reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr with had the Baytul Maal (public treasury) in Sunh. It was known to all and no one guarded it. When people voiced the concern that it should be guarded, he said, "None should fear about it." "Why not?" they asked. "Because it has a lock on it," was the simple reply.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr wise used to distribute everything the Baytul Maal contained so that nothing remained. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr wise moved (from Sunh) to Madinah, he kept the Baytul Maal in the house he lived. Proceeds from the mines of the Qabillyya and Juhayna tribes came to him. The mine of the Banu Sulaym was also opened during his Khilaafah, so the Zakaah came from there as well. Everything was kept in the Baytul Maal. Hadhrat Abu Bakr wise used to convert this into gold and silver nuggets and give every hundred people a specified amount (which they shared between themselves). He was fair in his distribution and all received justly whether they were slaves or free people, men or women, young or old. He also used the money to purchase camels, horses and weapons for people proceeding in Jihaad. During one of the years, he bought warm woollen shawis from the rural areas and distributed them amongst the widows of Madinah during winter.

When Hadhrat Abu Bakr Diese passed away, Hadhrat Umar Diese called a few trustworthy persons and they went into the Baytul Maal of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Diese. Amongst others, they included Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Diese and Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan Diese. When they opened the Baytul Maal, they neither found a Dinaar nor a Dirham. All they found was a coarse cloth for storing money and when they shook it, all that emerged was a single Dirham. They all then prayed for Hadhrat Abu Bakr (There was a man in Madinah who weighed Dinaars and Dirhams even during the time of Rasulullaah (There was a well.) It was he who used to do the weighing for Hadhrat Abu Bakr (There was as well.) When he was asked what the value of the wealth was that came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (There was a man in Madinah who weighed that it amounted to two hundred thousand.)

⁽¹⁾ Surah Anfaal, verse 70.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.329), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.9) has also reported a similar narration.

The Narration of Hadhrat Ismaa'eel bin Muhammad and others about the Fairness in the Manner that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Distributed Wealth

Hadhrat Ismaa'eel bin Muhammad reports that whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr distributed wealth amongst the people he always gave equally. Hadhrat Umar dies once objected saying, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah How can you give the same to the veterans of Badr as you give to other people?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "The things of this world are merely a means of existence and the best of such means are those that are moderate (and this applies equally to all people). The superiority of the veterans of Badr shall be seen in their rewards (in the Aakhirah). (2)

Another narration states that when it was mentioned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr that he ought to give preference to some people in the distribution of wealth, he said, "Their virtues shall be rewarded by Allaah (in the Aakhirah). With regard to their worldly existence, equality is best." (3)

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Aslam states that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr became the Khalifah and distributed equally amongst the people, someone said to him, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah Will Why do you not give preference to the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar (by giving them a larger share)?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr Willer replied, "Should I buy their virtues from them? With regard to people's existence in this world, equality is better than showing preference." A narration from Amr bin Abdullaah states that after Hadhrat Abu Bakr Willer distributed wealth for the first time, Hadhrat Umar Willer said to him, "Why do you not show preference to the earliest Muhaajireen and the earliest Muslims?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr Responded by saying, "Should I buy from them the lead they have?" He then continued to exercise equality whenever he distributed. (4)

The Incident of the Wealth that Arrived from Bahrain

About Hadhrat Umar ﷺ, the freed slave of Ghafra reports that when Rasulullaah ﷺ passedaway, plenty of wealth arrived from Bahrain. Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ made an announcement saying, "Whoever Rasulullaah ﷺ owed

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.131),

⁽²⁾ Ahmad in his Kitaabuz Zuhd.

⁽³⁾ Abu Ubayd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.306).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.347).

money to or whom Rasulullaah had promised some money should come and collect his dues." Hadhrat Jaabir stood up and said, "Rasulullaah told me that when the wealth came from Bahrain, he would give me so much (he then indicated three handfuls)." Hadhrat Abu Bakr told him to take from the money and when he did so (took one handful), he had five hundred Dirhams. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then gave instructions that he be given another thousand Dirhams (to complete three handfuls). Thereafter, he distributed all the wealth by giving each person ten Dirhams as he said, "This is the fulfilment of the promise that Rasulullaah had made to the people."

The following year even more money arrived and Hadhrat Abu Bakr was gave the people twenty Dirhams each. When there was still some money remaining, he gave the slaves five Dirhams each. He addressed the people saying. "We have given something to these slaves of yours because they serve you and do your work for you." The people then requested, "Why do you not give more to the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar because they were the earliest Muslims and because Rasulullaah was held them in high esteem." However, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was aid, "Their rewards are reserved with Allaah (in the Aakhirah). In this world, equality is better than giving preference." This was his practice throughout the period of his Khilaafah. (1) The rest of the narration will soon be quoted (in the first narration of the next chapter).

The narration has already passed about the equality that Hadhrat Ali sees exercised when he said to the Arab woman to whom he had given as much as he gave a slave woman. "I have studied the Book of Allaah and have not found in it anything denoting that the progeny of Ismaa'eel (Arabs) should be given preference over the progeny of Ishaaq (C)."

The Manner in which Hadhrat Umar Faarooq Sim Distributed Wealth and the Preference he Gave to People According to their Precedence in Islaam and their Ties with Rasulullaah

His Practice in this Regard and the Allowances he Stipulated for People According to their Status

Hadhrat Umar with the freed slave of Ghafra reports the narration appearing above. The narration continues to state that after Hadhrat Abu Bakr with passed away, Hadhrat Umar with succeeded him. During the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar wealth (poured into Madinah). Hadhrat Umar wealth (poured into Madinah). Hadhrat Umar wealth, while Abu Bakr had his opinion about the distribution of this wealth, I have another opinion. I do not hold those who fought against Rasulullaah in the same esteem as those who fought alongside him." He therefore gave preference to the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. He stipulated an allowance of five thousand for the veterans of Badr and four thousand for those who had accepted Islaam before the veterans of Badr (but had not participated in the Battle of Badr). He stipulated an allowance of twelve thousand for all the wives of Rasulullaah besides Hadhrat Safiyya and Hadhrat Juwayriyya for whom he had stipulated six thousand. However, the two ladles refused to accept the amount. Hadhrat Umar separated that he was giving more to the others because they had made Hijrah whereas the two of them had not. They argued, "You have not stipulated their share because of their Hijrah. You have stipulated a share for them because of their relationship with Rasulullaah and we all share the same relationship." Hadhrat Umar thousand) for them all.

⁽I) Bayhaqi, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Bazzaar and Hasan bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Fg.127).

⁽²⁾ See the chapter entitled "The Justice of Hadhrat Ali "Simps" under the subheading. "The Incident of an Arab Woman and Her Freed Slave".

Hadhrat Umar size also stipulated an allowance of twelve thousand for Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib size because of his relationship with Rasulullaah size. Furthermore, he stipulated four thousand for Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid size and five thousand each for Hadhrat Hasan size and Hadhrat Husayn size, an amount equal to that which their father (Hadhrat Ali Size) received because of their relationship (as grandsons) to Rasulullaah size. When he stipulated for his son Abdullaah size three thousand, his son said, "Dear father! You have stipulated (four thousand) for Usaama size and only three thousand for me whereas his father had no more status than my father and he has no more status than I?" Hadhrat Umar size replied, "His father was more beloved to Rasulullaah size than your father and he was more beloved to Rasulullaah size than you."

Hadhrat Umar size also stipulated two thousand for the sons of every veteran of Badr. When Umar the son of Hadhrat Abu Salamah size passed by, Hadhrat Umar size instructed his servants to give him an additional thousand. To this, Hadhrat Muhammad the son of Hadhrat Abdullaah (bin Jahash) size enquired, "Why are you giving him more than us when his father had no more status than our fathers?" Hadhrat Umar size replied, "I stipulated two thousand for him because of (his father) Abu Salamah size and then increased a further thousand because of (his mother) Ummu Salamah size (the wife of Rasulullaah size). If you had a mother like Ummu Salamah, I would have also given you another thousand."

While Hadhrat Umar stipulated eight hundred for Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Ubaydullaah stipulated two thousand for Hadhrat Nadhar bin Anas stipulated two thousand for Hadhrat Nadhar bin Anas stipulated two thousand for Hadhrat Nadhar bin Anas stipulated two thousand for Hadhrat Nadhar bin Anas stipulated two thousand (bin Ubaydullaah) comes to you, you stipulate eight hundred for him but when a youngster from the Ansaar comes to you, you include him amongst those who receive two thousand?" Hadhrat Umar stips replied, "I met the father of that youngster on the battlefield of Uhud and he asked me about Rasulullaah stip. When I told him that I assumed that Rasulullaah stip had been martyred, he drew his sword, extended his wrist and said, 'If Rasulullaah sis is dead, then Allaah is still alive and can never die (it is after all for Allaah that we are fighting).' He then fought until he was martyred. On the other hand, this person (Ubaydullaah the father of Uthmaan) was grazing goals at the time. Do you expect me to have the same regard for both persons?" Hadhrat Umar maintained this practice throughout his period of Khilaafah. (1) The remainder of the narration will follow soon. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas in this Regard Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik and Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib both report that Hadhrat Umar & stipulated five thousand for the Muhaajireen, four thousand for the Ansaar and also four thousand for the sons of the Muhaajireen who could not fight in the Battle of Badr. Amongst these were Hadhrat Umar 细胞瘤 the son of Abu Salamah bin Abdul Asad Makhzoomi 经基础。Hadhrat Usaama 吳麗麗 the son of Hadhrat Zaid 吳麗麗 Hadhrat Muhammad 吳麗麗 the son of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash Asadi 🖫 and Hadhrat Abdullaah 知識的 the son of Hadhrat Umar 图像的, To this, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 劉德德 said that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 劉德德 (the sen of Hadhrat Umar (mass) did not belong to this group because of his virtues. He then enumerated the virtues (meaning that he should receive more than the others). Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 经减多 said, "Give it to me if I have a right 'o it, otherwise do not." Hadhrat Umar & then said to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Excess, "Include him amongst those who are to receive five thousand and record me amongst those who are to receive four thousand." "This is not at all what I meant," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sie clarified. Hadhrat Umar said, "By Allaah! You and I cannot both be amongst those receiving five thousand "(3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam in this Regard

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam narrates that when Hadhrat Umar (was stipulating allowances, he stipulated two thousand Dirhams for Hadhrat Abdullaah, the son of Hadhrat Handhala (when Hadhrat Talha (was brought his cousin along and Hadhrat Umar (was stipulated a lesser amount for him, Hadhrat Talha (was asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You have given more to that Ansaari than to my cousin (who is a Muhaajir)." "Yes," replied Hadhrat Umar (because I saw his father (Hadhrat Handhala (was)) during the Battle of Uhud shielding himself with only his sword (he had no shield) and moving it like a camel (moves its tail in all directions. He did this to deflect enemy swords and Bazzaar, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.4 Pg.6). Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ In the chapter entitled "Hadhrat Umar Sings Files a Register for the Allowances Issued" and the subheading entitled "Hadhrat Umar Sings Reverts to the Opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sings and Hadhrat All Sings Concerning the Distribution of Wealth".

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.350). Ibn Abi Shaybah has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.315).

arrows)."(1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Naashira bin Sumay Yazani in this Regard

Hadhrat Naashira bin Sumay Yazani reports that on the day Hadhrat Umar was in Jaabiya, he heard Hadhrat Umar delivering a lecture in which he said, "Allaah has made me the administrator and distributor of this wealth. It is in fact Allaah who distributes it (by setting the guidelines). I begin distributing by giving to the wives of Rasulullaah and then those who hold high status."

Hadhrat Umar had stipulated ten thousand for each of the wives of Rasulullaah besides Hadhrat Juwayriyya 1966, Hadhrat Safiyya and Hadhrat Maymoona 1966. However, when Hadhrat Aa'isha 1966 remarked that Rasulullaah 1966 used to treat them all with equality, Hadhrat Umar 1966 also did likewise (and gave them all an equal amount).

Hadhrat Umar with also said in his lecture, "I then start with my companions who are the very first Muhaajireen because we were oppressively and forcefully banished from our homes. Thereafter, I give to the most noble amongst them." Hadhrat Umar with therefore stipulated five thousand for those Muhaajireen who were veterans of Badr and four thousand for the Ansaar who were veterans of Badr. Those who fought at Uhud were given three thousand.

Hadhrat Umar said said further, "I readily give to those who readily made Hijrah and delay giving those who delayed in making Hijrah. Therefore, you should blame nothing else but the sitting down of your riding animals. Do excuse me from dismissing Khaalid bin Waleed from his post. I had dismissed him because instead of reserving some money for the poor Muslims as I had instructed, he rather gave it to people who were powerful, noble and eloquent. I then handed over command to Abu Ubaydah." At this point, Abu Amr bin Hafs commented saying, "By Allaah! You shall never be excused, O Umar bin Khattaab! You have dismissed a commander that Rasulullaah had appointed! You have sheathed a sword that Rasulullaah had drawn and lowered a flag that Rasulullaah had hoisted! You were only jealous of my cousin!" Hadhrat Umar sesponded by saying, "You are obviously a close relative (of Khaalid). You are still young and are angry for the sake of your cousin." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Files a Register for the Allowances Issued

The Condition of Hadhrat Umar when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari was Brought a great deal of Wealth

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Swee says that he brought to Umar bin Khattaab

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg.319).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.3). Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.349) has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Naashira but without the part where Hadhrat Umar $10006 excused himself for dismissing Hadhrat Khaalid $10006.

eight hundred thousand Dirhams from Abu Moosa Ash'ari asked, 'What have you come with?' 'I have come with eight hundred thousand Dirhams,' replied Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Abu Hadhrat Umar Abu Hurayrah stayed awake the entire night until the Adhaan was called out for Fair. His wife then asked, "Have you not slept last night?" He replied, "How could Umar bin Khattaab sleep when so much wealth has come that has never come since the beginning of Islaam? Umar has no assurance that he may die when all this wealth is still with him and he has not spent it where it ought to be spent."

After leading the Fajr salaah, a group of Sahabah again gathered around Hadhrat Umar and he said, "Last night the people received so much money that they have never received since the beginning of Islaam. I have an opinion but require your guidance. I feel that I should give it to the people by weight." The others disagreed saying. "Do not do that, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! People are continuously entering the fold of Islaam and the wealth coming in is also increasing (it would therefore be difficult to keep track of who received what). Rather keep their records in a register and give them accordingly." Hadhrat Umar agreed and said, "Then advise me about whom to start with." They said, "With yourself, O Ameerul Mu'mineen because you are the ruler." There were others who said, "Because the Ameerul Mu'mineen is most knowledgeable." Hadhrat Umar remarked, "No. I shall rather start with Rasulullaah and then those who are closest to him."

Hadhrat Umar Sizes then had the register drawn up in this manner, starting with the Banu Haashim and the family of Abdul Muttalib. After giving them all, he gave the Banu Abd Shams and the Banu Naufal bin Abd Manaaf. He gave the Banu Abd Shams only because they were related to the mother of Haashim. (1)

The Register of Hadhrat Umar and His Giving First to the Relatives of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Huwayrith reports that Hadhrat Umar consulted with the people concerning the filing of a register. Hadhrat Ali reports advised him to annually distribute all the money collected without keeping back anything. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan said said, "I feel that plenty of wealth will be coming in, which will be enough to give everyone. If record is not kept of the people to know who had taken and who had not, the matter will get out of control." Thereafter, Hadhrat Waleed bin Hishaam bin Mughiera said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I have been to Shaam where I saw the rulers keep registers and records of the soldiers in their armies. You should therefore also keep registers and records of the soldiers in the army." Hadhrat Umar cacepted this proposal and called for Hadhrat Aqeel bin Abi Taalib said, Aldhrat Makhrama bin Naufal said and Hadhrat Jubayr bin Mut'im said, all of whom very well knew the lineage of the Quraysh.

Hadhrat Umar gase gave the three men instructions to make a record of all the people according to their status. When they started writing the record, they commenced with the Banu Haashim (the family of Rasulullaah (26)). Thereafter, they recorded Hadhrat Abu Bakr (25) and his tribe, followed by Hadhrat Umar (25) and his tribe. They did this to correspond with the sequence of the Khilaafah. When Hadhrat Umar (25) looked at the register, he said "By Allaah! This is how I would have liked it to be. However, I want you to start with Rasulullaah (26) followed by all his relatives according to their closeness in relationship to him. You should then eventually place Umar wherever Allaah has had him placed." (1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and the Banu Adi Tribe Concerning the Distribution of Wealth

Hadhrat Aslam reports that (after Hadhrat Umar William) opposed the view to place him and his tribe after Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and his tribe) the Banu Adi (the tribe of Hadhrat Umar (1996)) came to him and said. "You are the successor of Rasulullaah 经等." Hadhrat Umar 包证 corrected them saying, "Rather the successor of Abu Bakr ($1506), because Abu Bakr ($1506) was the successor of Rasulullaah (###." They continued, "Whatever it may be. However, why do you rather not leave yourself where the three men have written it." Hadhrat Umar exclaimed, "Oh! Oh! Dear Banu Adi! Do you wish to get on my back and eat before other people, thereby destroying all my good deeds? I swear by Allaah that I shall never do so, (I shall start with relatives of Rasulullaah (1996) even though your names are written last. I have two companions who have walked a path and if I tread a different path, I shall not reach the destination, By Allaah! We have no honour in this world and cannot expect any of Allaah's rewards in the Aakhirah for our deeds without Muhammad W. He is the source of our honour and his tribe is the most honourable of all Arabs. The next in kin to him are then most honourable and then those closest in kinship after them. The Arabs have honour only because of Rasulullaah & Perhaps the lineage of some of us meets us with his after many generations. Once the generations meet up, our lineage does not part from his until it reaches Aadam after a few more generations. Despite all of this (closeness to Rasulullaah (26), if the non-Arabs arrive on the Day of Qiyaamah with plenty of good deeds and we arrive with none, they will be closer to Rasulullaah (than us. A person should therefore never look at his kinship and should carry out deeds for the rewards that Allaah holds. Verily, the one whose actions keep him lagging behind cannot be hurried along by his lineage." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.212) and Tabari (Vol.5 Pg.22), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.316).

⁽²⁾ ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.212) and Tabari (Vol.3 Pg.278).

Hadhrat Umar Reverts to the Opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Rows and Hadhrat Ali Concerning the Distribution of Wealth

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdullaah said the freed slave of Ghafra reports that when Rasulullaah said passed away, plenty of wealth arrived from Bahrain. He then narrated the entire narration as has appeared earlier (1). The narration also mentions that Hadhrat Umar said once came out for the Jumu'ah salaah and after praising Allaah, he addressed the people saying, "The news has reached me that some of you have said that when Umar dies (or they said when the Ameerul Mu'mineen dies), we will instantly pledge allegiance to a certain person just as people instantly pledged allegiance to Abu Bakr said. There is no doubt that the pledge of allegiance to Abu Bakr said took place very suddenly, but where will we find another person like Abu Bakr said took may we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves as we did for Abu Bakr said to whom we would be prepared to fully submit ourselves

The Monetary Gifts that Hadhrat Umar Gave

Hadhrat Umar Gives Hadhrat Abbaas What Remained in the Baytul Maal

Hadhrat Hasan reports that once after Hadhrat Umar had distributed money amongst the people, there was still some left over in the Baytul Maal. Hadhrat Abbaas then said to Hadhrat Umar had and the people there, "Tell me if the uncle of Moosa was living amongst you, would you honour him?" "Certainly," they all replied. He then said, "Then I am more deserving of the honour for I am the uncle of your Nabi ..." After discussing with the others, Hadhrat Umar had then gave the remaining amount to Hadhrat Abbaas (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha (2015) in this Regard

Hadhrat Aa'isha was narrates that when a perfume holder once came to Hadhrat Umar wise, those around him looked at him to see whom he would give it to. He said, "Would you permit me to send this to Aa'isha was because of the love that Rasulullaah was had for her?" When they agreed, it was brought to Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966). As she opened it, she was told that Hadhrat Umar (1966) had sent it for her. She remarked, "How many conquests have taken place at the hands of Umar after Rasulullaah (1966)." She then prayed, "O Allaah! Let me not live until the next gift of Umar comes in the coming year." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Under the heading "The Manner in which Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) Distributed Wealth" and the subheading "The Incident of the Wealth that Arrived from Bahrain".

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.6) has commented on the chain of narrators.

^{(3) 1}bn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.20).

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik was says that Hadhrat Abu Bakr says had appointed him to collect the Zakaah. However, by the time he returned, Hadhrat Abu Bakr says had already passed away. Hadhrat Umar says then asked him, "O Anas! Have you brought us some animals?" When Hadhrat Anas says replied that he had, Hadhrat Umar says told him to hand over the animals and to keep the money for himself. "But the money is a large amount," said Hadhrat Anas says. "Hadhrat Umar says insisted, "Take it even though it is so much." Hadhrat Anas says, "The money amounted to four thousand and I therefore became the richest person in Madinah." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Gives a Gift to a Person Injured in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ubayd bin Umayr reports that while people were busy taking their gifts before Hadhrat Umar (b), he looked up and was surprised to see a man with a scar on his face. Upon enquiry, the man informed Hadhrat Umar (b) that he had sustained the wound in a battle. Hadhrat Umar (b) that he had sustained the wound in a battle. Hadhrat Umar (b) that he money was given, Hadhrat Umar (c) turned the money over in his hands for a while and then said, "Give him another thousand." Another thousand Dirhams were handed over. This occurred four times (so that the amount totalled four thousand). Feeling embarrassed that he was being given so much, the man left. When Hadhrat Umar (c) asked about him, the people informed him that they felt he had left out of the embarrassment of being given so much. Hadhrat Umar (c) then said, "By Allaah! Had he stayed, I would have continued giving him until there was not a single Dirham left. This is because the sword-wound he sustained in the path of Allaah had left a black scar on his face." (3)

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib Wes Distributes Wealth

Hadhrat Ali state distributed things amongst the people thrice in a year. When some wealth arrived from Isfahaan, he announced, "Come early in the morning for the fourth round of gifts, for I am not your treasurer (I do not amass wealth for you)." He then distributed everything, even the ropes (that held the animals). While some people took them, others returned them. (4)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.6) has commented on the chain of narrators.

^{(2) 1}bn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (vol.3 Pg. 148).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.3 Pg.355).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Ubayd in his Amwaal, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.320).

Hadhrat Umar (See and Hadhrat Ali (See and Distribute Everything in the Baytul Maal

Hadhrat Umar Distributes all the wealth and Rejects the Proposal of a person who Advocated Keeping Reserves

Hadhrat Sa'eed narrates that Hadhrat Umar instructed (the public treasurer) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam to distribute everything in the Baytul Maal every month. Thereafter, he issued instructions for everything to be distributed once a week. He eventually gave the instruction for the distribution to be on a dally basis. Someone then said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why do you not keep something in reserve for an emergency or when other areas call for assistance?" Addressing the person, Hadhrat Umar is said, "It is Shaytaan speaking on your lips. Allaah has inspired me with the answer and protected me from the evil of the act. What I have prepared for such situations is exactly what Rasulullaah the had prepared, and that is obedience to Allaah and His Rasool

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that some wealth once came to Hadhrat Umar from Iraq. He was about to distribute it when someone stood up to say, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why do you rather not reserve this wealth to fend off an enemy that may suddenly attack or for another unforeseen emergency that may strike?" Hadhrat Umar for admonished the person saying, "What is the mater with you?! May you be destroyed! It is Shaytaan speaking with your tongue. Allaah has inspired me with the response and I swear by Allaah that I shall not edisobey Him today for the emergencies of tomorrow. I shall not (do as you say) but shall rather prepare for the Muslims that which Rasulullaah had prepared for them (obedience to Allaah and Rasulullaah

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar And Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Salamah bin Sa'eed reports that when some wealth once came to Hadhrat Umar $3000, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf $3000 approached him saying, "Why do you rather not keep this money in reserve in the Baytul Maal for any emergency that may arise or for anything else that may occur?" Hadhrat Umar $3000 responded by saying, "These are words that only Shaytaan could mention. Allaah has already inspired me with the response and saved me from its tribulation. Should I disobey Allaah in a year for fear of something that may come during the next year? I have prepared Taqwa as a defence for the Muslims. Allaah mentions:

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.357).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg.245).

Allaah shall create an escape (from difficulties) for the one who fears (disobeying) Allaah (one who has Tagwa) and shall provide for him (what he requires) from sources that he never expected (to receive provisions from). (Surah Talaag, verses 2.3)

However, the words of Shaytaan will soon become a test for those coming after me." (1)

The Letter Hadhrat Umar Wo Wrote to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar (1986) wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (1986):

I wish that there comes a day in the year when here remains not a single Dirham in the Baytul Maal and it is empty of everything so that Allaah may know that I have given every person his right. (2)

The Letter of Hadhrat Umar (1966) to Hadhrat Hudhayfah (1966)

Hadhrat Hasan also reports that Hadhrat Umar wrote to Hadhrat Hudhaylah wrote that he must give every person his dues and specified allowances. Hadhrat Hudhaylah wrote back saying that a large sum of money still remained after he had done so. Hadhrat Umar replied with a letter stating, "These are the spoils of the people that neither belongs to Umar nor to his family. Distribute it amongst the people." (3)

Hadbrat Ali 劉節節 Distributes all the Wealth

Hadhrat Ali bin Rabee'ah Waalibi reports that Ibn Nabbaaj once came to Hadhrat Ali was and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! The Baytul Maal of the Muslims is full of gold and silver." Hadhrat Ali was exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbart" and then stood up with the support of Ibn Nabbaaj. Standing by the Baytul Mall, Hadhrat Ali was recited the following couplet (which means):

"These are the fruits ready for picking and the best of it is still here (I have taken none of it)

Whereas the picker usually has his hand to his mouth (ready to consume the fruit)"

He then continued, "O Ibn Nabbaaj! Bring the people of Kufa here." When an announcement was made (and the people arrived), Hadhrat Ali with distributed everything that lay in the Baytul Maal. As he distributed, he said, "O gold and O (1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Munkanzul Umtakhab maal (Vol.4 Pg. 391).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.218) and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.217).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.215).

sliver! Deceive someone else besides me." Addressing the people, he said. "Take! Take!" Eventually there was not a single Dinaar or Dirham left. Hadhrat Ali the instructed Ibn Nabbaaj to wash out the Baytul Maal and (after it was washed out) he performed two Rakaahs salaah in it. (1)

Hadhrat Mujamma Taymi reports that Hadhrat Ali was used to sweep the Baytul Maal and perform salaah in it. He made it a place for his salaah in the hope that it would testify on his behalf on the Day of Oiyaamah. (2)

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Alaa reports from his grandfather that he heard Hadhrat Ali say, "I have received nothing from your spoils of war besides this date container that a chief of one of the rural towns gave me as a gift." He then went down to the Baytul Maal where he distributed everything it contained. He then recited the following couplet (which means):

"Successful is the one who has a little basket

From which he eats once a day"

Hadhrat Antara Shaybaani says that Hadhrat Ali (Similar used to collect Jizya and Kharaaj from every artisan. For this, he took something of their crafts. In fact, he even took from cloth makers some of their needles, knitting needles, cottons and thread. He then distributed this amongst the people. He would never leave anything for a night in the Baytul Maal without distributing it. The only time he would leave it for the morning was when he was too preoccupied with something else. He would always say, "O world! Go and deceive someone other than myself." He often recited the following couplet (which means):

"These are the fruits ready for picking and the best of it is still here (I have taken none of it)

Whereas the picker usually has his hand to his mouth (ready to consume the fruit)"

Abu Ubayd reports a narration from Hadhrat Antara which states that he once went to Hadhrat Ali Sies when (his slave) Qambar arrived and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You have left nothing (after distribution) whereas your family are also entitled to a share of the wealth. However, I have kept something aside." "What have you kept aside?" enquired Hadhrat Ali Sies. "Come and see for yourself," Qambar replied. He then took Hadhrat Ali Sies to the house where there was a large gold plated dish filled with dishes of gold and silver. When he saw this, Hadhrat Ali Sies exclaimed, "Shame on you! Do you wish to fill my house with a raging fire?!" He then started weighing the dishes and giving a portion to the chiefs of every tribe. Thereafter, he said:

"These are the fruits ready for picking and the best of it is still here (I have taken none of it)

Whereas the picker usually has his hand to his mouth (ready to consume the fruit)"

Addressing the wealth, he added further, "Do not deceive me. Go an deceive

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.) Pg.61).

⁽²⁾ Isti'aab (Vol.3 Pg.49).

someone else." (1)

The Opinion of Hadhrat Umar About the Rights of the Muslims in Wealth

The Narration of Hadhrat Aslam in this Regard

Hadhrat Aslam reports that he heard Hadhrat Umar (Gather around to consult and ponder about who should be the recipients of this wealth. (When the people forming the consultative assembly had gathered) Hadhrat Umar (Gather about them, "I have instructed you to gather here to ponder about who should receive this wealth. I have studied a few verses of the Qur'aan in which Allaah says:

﴿ مَا آَفَاءَ اللّٰهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْ آهَلِ الْقُرَى فَلِلّٰه وَ لِلرَّسُولِ وَلِذِى الْقُرْبَى وَالْيَعْلَى الْاَقْدِيْوَ وَاللّٰهِ مِنْ لَكُمُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ وَمَا نَهْ لِيَكُمُ عَنْهُ فَالْتَهُوا * وَاتَقُوا اللّٰه * إِنَّ اللّٰه شَدِيْدُ الْعِقَالِ ۞ لِللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهِ وَمَا نَهْ لِيُكُمُ عَنْهُ وَالْتَهْوَا مِنْ وَيَاوِهِمْ وَآهُوالِهِمْ يَبْتَعُونَ فَضَادٌ مِن اللّٰهِ لِللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهِ وَرَسُولَةً * أَوْلَيْكَ هُمُ الصَّدقُونَ ﴾ (الورة حدرالي ١٠٠٠)

The booty that Allaah granted His Rasool (without a battle being fought) from the people of the villages is for Allaah (to be distributed as Allaah pleases), for the (needs of the) Rasool (so for the relatives (of Rasulullaah (so)), for the orphans, for the poor and for the travellers so that this wealth may not remain as amassed riches with the wealthy among you (by distributing it in this manner, the wealth is circulated among people so that all may benefit). Hold fast to what (commands) the Rasool (so gives you and refrain from what (actions) He prevents you (because whatever he instructs you is from Allaah). Fear (disobeying) Allaah, for Allaah punishes very severely. (A share of the booty received without a fight is also reserved) For the poor Muhaajireen who were removed from their homes and their possessions. They seek Allaah's grace and pleasure and assist Allaah and His Rasool (so for the laman). (2)

﴿ وَالَّذِيْنَ تَبَوَّوُ الدَّارَ وَالْإِيْمَانَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ يُحِبُّونَ مَنْ هَاجَرَ اِلَيْهِمْ وَلَايَجِدُونَ فِي صُدُورِهِمْ حَاجَةً مِّمَّا أَوْنُوا وَيُؤْثِرُونَ عَلَى آنْفُسِهِمْ وَلَوْ كَانَ بِهِمْ خَصَاصَةً * وَمَنْ يُوقَ شُحَّ نَفْسِهِ فَأُولَلِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلَحُونَ ﴾ (سورة حضر آبت ٤)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.81), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.57). Ahmad in his Zuhd and Musaddad has also reported the narration, as also quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.57).

⁽²⁾ Surah Hashar, verses 7,8,

(Part of this booty is also for) Those (the Ansaar) who adopted the place (Madinah) as their home before them (before the Muhaajireen) and (had adopted) Imaan. They (the Ansaar) love those who migrate to them (the Muhaaiireen) and find no want (jealousy or envy) in their hearts for what they (the Muhaajireen) are given. They (the Ansaar) prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need (of the things they give). (Like the Ansaar,) Those who are saved from the miserliness (and greed) of the soul are really the successful ones (whom will attain salvation). (1)

Hadhrat Umar said, "By Allaah! This wealth is not only for these people (there are others also as mentioned in the forthcoming verse).

(It should also be given to) Those who come after them (after the Muhaajjreen and Ansaar who) say, 'O our Rabb! Forgive us and our brothers (the Sahabah (Chiefe) who passed before us with Imaan. And do not place any impurity (ill-feelings) in our hearts against those who have Imaan. O our Rabb! Indeed You are the Most Forgiving, Most Merciful " (2)

Hadhrat Umar then said, "By Allaah! There is not a single Muslim who does not have a right to this wealth, whether it is given to him or not, even though he may be a shepherd in Adan." (3)

The Narration of Hadbrat Maalik bin Hadathaan

Narrating the same incident, Hadhrat Maalik bin Aws bin Hadathaan reports that Hadhrat Umar states also recited the following verses:

(سدرة توبه آيت ٢٠)

Alms (zakaah) are only for the poor, the destitute (people whose total wealth is less than the value of Nisaab), the orphans, those appointed to collect them (zakaah), those whose hearts have to be reconciled (a group that existed only during the time of Rasulullaah (%), for (the freedom of) slaves, for those in debt (who are not merely stalling payment), for (those striving in) the path of Allaah (and have no means) and for the traveller (who has no means). This is ordered (as obligatory) by Allaah. Allaah is All Knowing, The Wise (Allaah knows best who should receive zakaah and it is therefore not permissible for man to decide that any other group of persons besides the above groups should receive zakaah). $^{\{1\}}$

⁽¹⁾ Surah Hashar, verse 9.

⁽²⁾ Surah Hashar, verse 10.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.351).

He then added, "Zakaah is reserved for these people." Thereafter, he recited:

﴿ وَاعْلَمُوْا اَنَّمَا غَنِمْتُمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ فَانَّ لِلَّهِ خُمُسَهُ وَلِلرَّسُولِ وَلِذِى الْقُرْلِي وَالْيَتَلَى وَالْمَسْكِيْنِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيْلِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ امْنَتُمْ بِاللَّهِ وَمَا الْوَلْنَا عَلَى عَبْدِنَا يَوُمَ الْفُرْقَانِ يَوْمُ الْتَفَى الْجَمْعُنِ لَوَاللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدَيْرٌ ﴾ (مودة انفال آب ١٠)

Know that from whatever spoils of war you acquire tafter fighting a battle with the enemy), a fifth of it shall be for Allaah (to be spent on the recipients that He stipulates ahead), His Rasool, the relatives (of Rasulullaah 樂麗), the poor, the orphans and the travellers (who have been stranded without any means with them. The remaining four fifths will be distributed among the Muslims soldiers who participated in the battle); (distributing the spoils of war in this manner should not be at all difficult for you) if you believe in Allaah and in what We had sent down (angels and signs of Allaah's power) to Our slave (Muhammad on the day of the distinction (between truth and falsehood), (which was) the day when the two parties (Mu'mineen and Mushrikeen armies) clashed (at Badr) (Parting with one-fifth of the spoils to please Allaah would not be difficult for the Muslim soldiers when they understand that they would have never been able to win the battle without Allaah's help). Allaah has power over everything (He can make a small and ill-equipped army defeat a larger, heavily-armed army). (2)

Hadhrat Umar sections: then said, "The spoils of war are for these people." He then continued reciting:

﴿ مَا آَفَاءَ اللّٰهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْ آهَلِ الْقُرَى قَلِلْهِ وَ لِلرَّسُولِ وَلِذِى الْقُرْلَى وَالْيَتْمَٰى وَالْيَتَمَٰى وَالْمَتَمَٰى وَالْمَتَمَٰى وَالْمَتَمَٰى وَالْمَتَمَٰى وَالْمَتَمِنِ وَالْمَ اللّٰهُ مَلِكُمْ وَمَا اللّٰكُمُ اللَّهُ مَا اللّٰهُ مَلِكُمْ وَمَا اللّٰمَ اللّٰهِ مَلْكُمُ وَمَا نَهْ اللّٰمَ مَا يَعْلَى اللّٰهِ مَلْ اللّٰهُ مُلْ إِنَّ اللّٰهُ مَلْ اللّهُ مَلْ اللّٰهِ مَلْ اللّٰهُ مَلْ اللّٰهُ مَلْ اللّٰهُ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ مِنْ وَاللّٰهِ مِنْ مَنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ مَنْ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اللّٰهُ مِنْ اللّٰهُ مَنْ اللّٰهُ مَا اللّٰهُ وَرَسُولُهُ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مُنْ وَلَا اللّٰهُ وَرَسُولُولَ مَنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اللّهُ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مَنْ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اللّٰهُ مِنْ اللّٰهُ مِنْ اللّهُ مِنْ اللّٰهُ مَنْ اللّٰهُ مِنْ اللّٰهُ مِنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مِنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّهُ مِنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّهُ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ مُنْ اللّٰهُ الللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ الللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ اللللّٰهُ الللللّٰهُ الللللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ ال

The booty that Allaah granted His Rasool (without a battle being fought) from the people of the villages is for Allaah (to be distributed as Allaah pleases), for the (needs of the) Rasool (%), for the relatives (of Rasulullaah (%)), for the orphans, for the poor and for the travellers so that this wealth may not remain as amassed riches with the wealthy among you (by distributing it in this manner, the wealth is circulated among people so that all may benefit). Hold fast to what (commands)

⁽¹⁾ Surah Taubah, verse 60.

⁽²⁾ Surah Anfaal, verse 41.

the Rasool see gives you and refrain from what (actions) He prevents you (because whatever he instructs you is from Allaah). Fear (disobeying) Allaah, for Allaah punishes very severely. (A share of the booty received without a fight is also reserved) For the poor Muhaajireen who were removed from their homes and their possessions. They seek Allaah's grace and pleasure and assist Allaah and His Rasool see. These are the ones who are true (In their claim to Imaan). (1)

He added, "That refers to the Muhaajireen." He then continued:

(Part of this booty is also for) Those (the Ansaar) who adopted the place (Madinah) as their home before them (before the Muhaajireen) and (had adopted) Imaan. They (the Ansaar) love those who migrate to them (the Muhaajireen) and find no want (jealousy or envy) in their hearts for what they (the Muhaajireen) are given. They (the Ansaar) prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need (of the things they give). (Like the Ansaar,) Those who are saved from the miserliness (and greed) of the soul are really the successful ones (whom will attain salvation). (2)

To this, Hadhrat Umar said, "That refers to the Ansaar." Finally, he recited:

(It should also be given to) Those who come after them (after the Muhaajireen and Ansaar who) say, "O our Rabb! Forgive us and our brothers (the Sahabah (color)) who passed before us with Imaan. And do not place any impurity (ill-feelings) in our hearts against those who have Imaan. O our Rabb! Indeed You are the Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." (3)

He then said, "This verse encompasses all people. There is therefore no Muslim apart from your slaves who do not have a right to this wealth. If I live Inshaa Allaah, there shall not be a single Muslim who will not receive his right even though he be a shepherd in the upper reaches of Himyar (in Yemen). His right will reach him without a drop of perspiration on his forehead (without any effort on his part)." (4)

⁽I) Surah Hashar, verses 7.8.

⁽²⁾ Surah Hashar, verse 9.

⁽³⁾ Surah Hashar, verse 10.

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Voj.6 Pg.352), Ibn Jareer has reported a similar narration, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer

Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah William Distributes Wealth

The Incident of Hadhrat Talha was and a Woman

Hadhrat Su'da (Mission narrates, "I once went to (my husband) Talha bin Ubaydullaah (Mission and noticed that he was carrying a burden of grief. What is the matter?' I asked, 'Did we perhaps cause this grief to overcome you?' 'Not at all,' he replied, 'you are an excellent wife to any Muslim man. The problem is that some wealth has accumulated by me and I do not know what to do with it.' I then said, 'Why should this perturb you? Call up your family people and distribute it amongst them.' He then told his slave to summon all of his family (and he gave it all to them). I (later) asked his treasurer how much was distributed and he informed me that it was four hundred thousand." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan (in this Regard

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Talha word once sold a piece of land he owned for seven hundred thousand. Because the money stayed the night with him, he stayed awake the entire night out of fear (that he should die without giving it away). He then distributed it all as soon as morning arrived. (2)

Talha 'Fayyaadh' (The Very Generous)

Hadhrat Su'da the wife of Hadhrat Talha reports that she once came to Hadhrat Talha and found him to be extremely distressed. She asked, "Why are you so distressed? Have we caused this grief to overcome you?" He replied, "By Allaah! You have caused me no distress at all. You are a most excellent wife. It is some money that has been collected with me (that I am concerned about)." Hadhrat Su'da reports further. She says, "I advised him to send for his family and his tribe and to distribute it amongst them. After he had done so, I asked the treasurer how much money there was. He informed me that it amounted to four hundred thousand. His daily earnings amounted to a thousand Waafi (approximately 1666 Dirhams) and he was given the title of Talha Fayyaadh (The Very Generous)." (3)

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam Distributes Wealth

The Incident of Hadhrat Zubayr with and his Slaves

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Abdul Azeez (reports that Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam had a thousand slaves who worked and gave their earnings to him. He Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.176), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.148). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.157) and Abu Nu'aym (Vol.1 Pg.88) have also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.89), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.157) has also reported the narration, but in greater detail.

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.378).

then distributed the money every night and had nothing left by the time he returned home. (1)

Hadhrat Mugheeth bin Sumay reports that although Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam was had a thousand slaves who worked and gave their earnings to him, not a single Dirham of these earnings entered his house (he gave everything away to the needy). (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Zubayr was and his Son Abdullaah Concerning his Debts

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr says, "When (my father) Zubayr stood for the Battle of Jamal, he called for me. As I stood by his side, he said, 'Dear son! None but an oppressor or an oppressed person shall be killed today and I strongly feel that I shall be killed today as one oppressed. However, my greatest worry is my debts. Do you think that our debts will leave any of our money behind? Nevertheless, dear son, I want you to sell our properties to settle my debts.' He also made a bequest for a third to be given away and a third of that third was to be given to the (grand) children. In this regard, he said, 'A third of the third. (He explained) If anything remains after settling the debts, a third (of the third) should go to your children." One of narrators by the name of Hishaam says that some of the children of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr such as Khubayb and Abbaad were the same age as some of Hadhrat Zubayr sons. At that time, Hadhrat Zubayr had nine sons and nine daughters.

Hadhrat Abdullaah ("Dear son! If you are unable to settle something, seek help from my friend." Who is your friend, O father? I asked. 'Allaah,' he replied. By Allaah! Each time I encountered any difficulty concerning the debt, I said, 'O friend of Zubayr! Settle his debt for him.' Allaah would then settle the debt."

"Zubayr was martyred that day without leaving behind a single Dinaar or Dirham. All that he left were a few properties, one of which was in Ghaabah. He also left eleven houses in Madinah, two in Basrah, one in Kufa and another in Egypt. The only reason that he had debts was because when people would bring their money to him for safekeeping, he would say to them, "I cannot accept it as a trust but shall treat it as a loan because I fear that it should not be destroyed (if it is destroyed as a loan, I am liable to pay you back whereas I am not liable to do so if it is only a trust)." My father never was a governor nor did he ever accept appointment as a collector of zakaah. All he did was to accompany Rasulullaah was, Hadhrat Abu Bakr hadhrat Umar hadhrat Umar on the battlefields. When I calculated his debts, they totalled two million, two hundred thousand."

Hadhrat Abdullaah (Fisco) narrates further, he says, "Hakeem bin Hizaam (Fisco) once met him and asked, 'Dear nephew! How much was the debt of my brother (Hadhrat Zubayr (Fisco))?' I did not disclose the entire figure to him and replied,

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.90).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.9) and Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.546).

'A hundred thousand.' He then said, 'By Allaah! I do not think that you have enough money for that.' I said, 'What would you say if it was two million, two hundred thousand?" He replied, 'I do not think that you would ever be able to settle it. Nevertheless, if you need any assistance, do not hesitate to ask me." Hadhrat Zubayr (1986) had purchased the piece of land in Ghaabah for one hundred and seventy thousand. Hadhrat Abdullaah (1996) evaluated its value to be one million, six hundred thousand (he then divided it into sixteen parts, each worth a hundred thousand). He then made the announcement, "Whoever has a debt due from Zubayr should meet us at Ghaabah." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far came up. He was owed a sum of a hundred thousand. He said to Hadhrat Abdullaah ("No." replied Hadhrat Abdullaah 吳暗德。 "Otherwise," said Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far 吳時德。 "if you so wish, you could include me amonest those who are the last to be paid." When Hadhrat Abdullaah Good did not agree to this either, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far was asked to be given a piece of the land in settlement. Hadhrat Abdullaah while then gave him a piece of the land saving. "You may have the land from this point to this point." Hadhrat Abdullaah (then sold the other pieces of land and settled all the debts in full. At the end, there were only four and a half properties left (from the sixteen). Hadhrat Abdullaah with then approached Hadhrat Mu'aawiya who was then in the company of Hadhrat Amr bin Uthmaan (Hadhrat Mundhir bin Zubayr (Hossia and Hadhrat Ibn Zam'ah ("How much did you evaluate the property at Ghaabah to be?" When Hadhrat Abdullaah informed him that each portion was valued at a hundred thousand, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya were asked how many portions were still available. "Four and a half," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah (1) "I shall take one portion for a hundred thousand," said Hadhrat Mundhir bin Zubayr "And I shall take another for a hundred thousand," said Hadhrat Amr bin Uthmaan 500. "I too shall take one for a hundred thousand," said Hadhrat Ibn Zam'ah 🖘 6. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya then asked, "How many does that leave?" "One and a half portions," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah (1986). "I shall take them for a hundred and fifty thousand," said Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 300. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far was also sold his portion of the land to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 经减少 for six hundred thousand.

When Hadhrat Abdullaah was had settled all the debts, the children of Hadhrat Zubayr was asked for their inheritance to be distributed. However, Hadhrat Abdullaah was refused and said, "By Allaah! I shall not distribute anything amongst you until I make an announcement during four Hajj seasons calling all people who were owed any money by (our father) Zubayr was." He then made the announcement during four consecutive years during the Hajj season. It was only after the fourth year that he finally distributed the inheritance (amongst his brothers and sisters). Hadhrat Zubayr was had four wives and he had also bequeathed a third of the estate. Despite this, each wife received an amount of one million, two hundred thousand. His entire estate amounted to fifty million, two hundred thousand. (1)

Allaama ibn Katheer has mentioned, "The total amount distributed between the heirs was thirty eight million, four hundred thousand. The total amount bequeathed to others totalled nineteen million, two hundred thousand. The sum of the two was therefore fifty seven million, six hundred thousand. The debts paid before this amounted to two million, two hundred thousand, making the sum total of the entire estate fifty nine million, eight hundred thousand. We have mentioned this only because of the objections that arise about the narration of Bukhaari. It is therefore necessary that this matter be clarified." (2)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

The Incident with the Banu Zuhrah Tribe, the Poor Muslims and the Wives of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ummu Bakr bint Miswar reports that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Aul once sold a property of his for forty thousand Dinaars. He then distributed it amongst the Banu Zuhrah tribe, the poor Muslims, the Muhaajireen and the wives of Rasulullaah. When he sent some of the money to Hadhrat Aa'isha will, she asked who it was that sent it. When she was informed that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf will had sent it and the entire incident was reported to her, she said, "Rasulullaah will once said (to us his wives), 'After my demise, none but the truly steadfast ones will show compassion towards you.' May Allaah allow (Abdur Rahmaan) bin Auf will to drink from the fountain of Salsabeel in Jannah." (3) Another narration (4) states that Rasulullaah will said, "After my demise, none but the truly righteous ones will show compassion towards you."

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Burqaan says, "The report had reached me that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (30%) had set free thirty families of slaves. (5)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Wealth

The Incident of these Three Sahabah with Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Maalik Daar 劉國國 reports that Hadhrat Umar 劉國國 once placed four

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari.

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.349).

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.310). Dhahabi has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.94) has also reported the narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilva (Vol. 1 Pg.98).

⁽⁵⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.308) and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.99).

hundred Dinaars in a bag and said to his slave, "Take this to Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and then busy yourself with something in the house for a while to see what he does with it." The slave took the bag and said to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah Wallam, "Ameerul Mu'mineen says that you should use this for your needs." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah Wallam prayed, "May Allaah reward him and shower His mercy on him." He then called for his slave girl and instructed her to give seven coins to a certain person, another five to another and another five to someone else, in this manner, he gave everything away. The slave then returned to Hadhrat Umar wall and informed him about what had transpired.

Hadhrat Umar which had the same amount of money placed in a bag for Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal which. Addressing his slave once more, Hadhrat Umar was said, "Take this to Mu'aadh bin Jabal which and then busy yourself with something in the house for a while to see what he does with it." The slave took the bag and said to Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal which, "Ameerul Mu'mineen says that you should use this for your needs." Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal prayed, "May Allaah shower His mercy on him and reward him." He then called for his slave girl and instructed her to give an amount to a certain family, another amount to another and so forth until all the money was finished. When Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal we's wife came to know about this, she came to him and said, "What about us? By Allaah! We are also poor. Do give us some of it." By then all that was left in the bag was two Dinaars, which he handed over to her. When the slave reported back to Hadhrat Umar which he handed over to her. When the slave reported back to Hadhrat Umar which he handed over to her. When the slave reported back to Hadhrat Umar which he handed over to her. When the yare all brothers of each other (and therefore act alike)." (1)

Hadhrat Aslam reports that Hadhrat Umar speed once asked those around him to express their wishes. Someone said, "I wish that this room was filled with Dirhams that I could spend in the path of Allaah," When Hadhrat Umar 空域域 asked another person to express his wish, he said, ""I wish that this room was filled with gold that I could spend in the path of Allaah." When Hadhrat Umar repeated the request, another person said, "I wish that this room was filled with gems (or something as valuable) that I could spend in the path of Allaah." When Hadhrat Umar street once again asked them to express their wishes, they submitted, "What more can we wish for?" Hadhrat Umar (Signature) then said, "Unlike you, I wish that this room was filled with men like Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 墨陽陽。Mu'aadh bin Jabal 墨陽陽 and Hudhayfah bin Yamaan 墨陽陽 so that I could employ them in the service of Allaah. Hadhrat Umar with then sent some money to Hadhrat Hudhayfah was and instructed the person taking it to see what he does with it. When the money came to him, Hadhrat Hudhayfah 曼斯德 distributed it all (to the poor). Hadhrat Umar 基礎總 then sent some money to Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal was and he also distributed it all. Thereafter, he sent some money to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and again gave instructions to the person taking it that he should see what Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.177). Haythami (Vol.3 Pg.125) and Haafidh in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.484) have commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.237) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.300) have also reported the narration.

Abu Ubaydah ﷺ does with the money. (When he also gave all the money to the needy) Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said to the people, "Did I not tell you (that these are men of worth)?"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William Distributes Wealth

He Distributes a Large Amount of Money all at Once and Spends in the path of Allaah Everything that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Sent to him

Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sussionce received twenty thousand Dinaars as he was sitting in a gathering. He then distributed all of it before standing up from the gathering. Hadhrat Naafi narrates that when Hadhrat Mu'aawiya sussionce sent a hundred thousand to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sussion, there was nothing left of it by the time the year came to an end (he had spent it all in the path of Allaah). (1)

He Spends Thousands in Cash in a Single day

Hadhrat Ayyoob bin Waa'il Raasibi reports that when he went to Madinah, a neighbour of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wood told him, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wow once received a sum of four thousand from Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 细胞, four thousand from another person, a further two thousand from someone else as well as a shawl. He then came to the marketplace to buy some fodder for his animal for a Dirham. When he made the purchase on credit, I recalled the large amount of money that came to him and approached one of his slaves, I said to her, 'I wish to ask you something and want you to tell me the truth. Did Abu Abdur Rahmaan (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1998) not receive four thousand from Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 2006, four thousand from another person, a further two thousand from someone else as well as a shawl?" 'Yes, he did,' she replied. "Then why did he just buy some fodder on credit for a Dirham?" I asked. She said, 'He had spent all of it (in the path of Allaah) before sleeping. He the put the shawl on his back and also gave that away before returning home.' I then made an announcement saving, 'O assembly of traders! Why are you toiling for this world when Abdullaah bin Umar (received ten thousand proper Dirhams last night and in the morning he is buying a Dirham's worth of fodder on credit?!"(2)

Another Similar Incident About him

Hadhrat Naass reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) once received twenty odd thousand as he sat in a gathering. Before getting up from the gathering, he had already given it all away together with some more that he added. He continued giving until everything he had was sinished. A person then came to him whom he usually gave (but the money was already finished by then).

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.296).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.296)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar took a loan from someone whom he had already given money to and gave it to the person (who had come late). Hadhrat Maymoon says, "I swear by Allaah that the person who called Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar took a miser is definitely wrong. He was never miserly in worthy causes." (He of course never spent in unworthy causes and on himself.) (1)

Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais المنابقة Distributes Wealth

Hadhrat Abu Is'haaq reports, "A man from the Kindah tribe owed me some money and left to see him before dawn (to collect the money). However, I happened to be at the Masjid of Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais will at the time of Fajr and performed the Fajr salaah there. After the Imaam had made the Salaam, Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais placed before every person a set of clothing, a pair of shoes and five hundred Dirhams. I told the people that I was not from the locality (but they still let me have it). When I asked what the gifts were for, the people informed me that Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais had just returned from Makkah (and was therefore giving gifts to the people). (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha المناقبة Distributes Wealth

Hadhrat Ummu Durra says, "A hundred thousand was once brought to Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) and she distributed it all even though she was fasting that day, I said to her, 'Could you not use a Dirham from the money to buy some meat with which to terminate your fast?' She replied, 'Had you reminded me about it, I would have done so.'"(3)

Hadhrat Sauda bint Zam'ah Distributes Wealth

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen reports that Hadhrat Umar some once sent a bag full of Dirhams to Hadhrat Sauda (one of the wives of Rasulullaah (Was). "What is this?" she asked. When she was told that it was Dirhams, she remarked, "In a bag like dates?" She then distributed all the money (amongst the poor). (4)

Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash Elisabi Distributes Wealth

The Incident of her and Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Barra bint Raafi narrates, "When some surplus wealth was being distributed, Hadhrat Umar Subsides sent to Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash her share. When it was brought to her, she said, 'May Allaah forgive Umar Subsides My sisters besides me are better at distributing this than I am (take it to them rather).' When she was told that it was all hers, she exclaimed, 'Subhaanallaah!'

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.109).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.415) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.461).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaabul; (Vol.4 Pg.339).

She then veiled herself and told the people bringing it to put it down and cover it with a cloth. Thereafter, she instructed me to put my hand beneath the cloth, to take a handful of coins and give it to the people of certain tribes, all of whom were her relatives and orphans. Eventually when there was only a little left beneath the cloth, I said to her, 'May Allaah forgive you, O Ummul Mu'mineen! By Allaah! We also have a right to this.' 'You may have whatever is left beneath the cloth,' she said. We found eighty five Dirhams there. She then raised her hands towards the sky and prayed, 'O Allaah! Let not the surplus of Umar reach me after this year.' She then passed away (not long afterwards)." (1)

Another Similar Incident About her

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b narrates that the share of Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash from the surplus wealth amounted to twelve thousand. She however, only took it once. (After receiving it) She prayed, "O Allaaht Do not let me have this wealth next year because it is a great tribulation." She then gave it all out to her family and to needy people. When this news reached Hadhrat Umar to her family and to needy people. When this news reached Hadhrat Umar to her door and sent her Salaams saying, "The news has reached me about how you gave away all the money (without keeping anything for yourself). I am therefore sending you another thousand to keep for yourself." However, Hadhrat Zaynab that are thing (and gave all of it to others). (2)

Allowances for Babies

An Incident of a Woman and Hadhrat Umar (1996) when he Stipulates an Allowance for every Muslim baby

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (In Madinah), they set up camp at the place where the Muslims performed the Eid salaah. Hadhrat Umar (In Madinah), they set up camp at the place where the Muslims performed the Eid salaah. Hadhrat Umar (In Madinah) asked Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (In Madinah) asked Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (In Madinah) against theft that night. (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (In Madinah) against theft that night guarding the camp and performing salaah (in turn). Hearing the cry of a child, Hadhrat Umar (In Madinah) went in the direction and said to the mother, "Fear Allaah and treat your child well." He then returned to where he was. When he again heard the child cry, he went back to the mother and repeated what he had said earlier. He then returned to his place. When he again heard the child cry towards the end of the right, he returned to the mother and said, "Shame on you! You seem to be a terrible mother! It seems like your child will not be calmed the entire night."

The mother responded by saying, "O servant of Allaah! You have pestered me all night. I have been trying to pacify my child to wean him but he refuses to do so."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.216).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.314).

"Why are you doing this?" enquired Hadhrat Umar ("Because," the lady explained, "Umar only gives allowances to children who have been weaned." "How old is the child?" asked Hadhrat Umar (When the woman informed him that the child was only a few months old, Hadhrat Umar (Please do not rush him."

When Hadhrat Umar Wees led the Fajr salaah, the people could barely understand his recitation of the Qur'aan because of his excessive weeping. After saying the Salaam, he exclaimed, "Woe to Umar! How many Muslim children has he killed?!" He then instructed someone to announce, "Take note! Do not rush your children into weaning because we have now fixed an allowance for every Muslim child born." He then wrote to all the Muslim territories, notifying them that an allowance has been stipulated for every new born Muslim child. (1)

Abstention from using Public Funds for Personal use and for Close Relatives

Hadhrat Umar Signs's Handling of Public Funds and his Abstention from it

Hadhrat Umar (public funds) as if it is the wealth of orphans, I stay away from it as long as I am able to do without it and use it within reason only if I really have to. Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar (public funds) are said, "I treat Allaah's money like the wealth of orphans." He then recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

Whoever (whichever guardian) is wealthy should refrain (from taking anything from the orphan's wealth for caring for him) and whoever is poor may take from it (a wage for his services) within reason. (2)

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Urwa states that Hadhrat Umar Sizes once said, "It is permissible for me to take from this (public) money only as much as I spend from my earnings." (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and the public Treasurer

Hadhrat Imraan narrates that whenever Hadhrat Umar in eeded money, he would approach the public treasurer and take a loan from him. There were times when Hadhrat Umar is was unable to pay back (on time) and the treasurer would come to him to demand payment. He would also pressurise Hadhrat Umar is would make the necessary arrangements for repayment. At times, Hadhrat Umar is would pay him back from his share of the surplus wealth that he received. (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.217), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.317).

⁽²⁾ Surah Nisaa, verse 6.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.198), as quoted in Muniakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.418).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.198).

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar sims and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf sims

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that Hadhrat Umar Sussess used to engage in trade when he was Khalifah. When he once prepared a caravan to send to Shaam, he sent someone to arrange a loan of four thousand Dirhams for him from Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sussess, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sussess sent a message back with the messenger that Hadhrat Umar Sussess should take the loan from the public treasury and pay it back later. When the message reached him, Hadhrat Umar Sussess felt it most difficult to do so.

When Hadhrat Umar (Specific met Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Specific he asked him, "Are you the one who said that I should take the money from the public treasury? Had I died before the caravan returns, you would say, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen had taken the money. Let us waive it.' I shall then be taken to task for it on the Day of Qiyaamah. I shall never do such a thing. I prefer to rather take the money from a man who is as greedy and stingy as you are so that he would ensure that he takes it from my estate if I die." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and the Honey from the public treasury

One of the sons of Hadhrat Baraa bin Ma'roor reports that Hadhrat Umar sonce fell ill and honey was prescribed to treat him. At that time there was a vial of honey in the public treasury. Hadhrat Umar some therefore came out and mounted the pulpit saying (to the people). "I shall use the honey in the public treasury only if you people permit. Otherwise it will be Haraam for me." The people gladly gave their permission. (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and his Daughter Hadhrat Hafsah Concerning Public Funds

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that some money once came to Hadhrat Umar When his daughter Hadhrat Hafsah heard about it, she approached him saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Relatives also have a right to that money because Allaah has advised kind treatment of relatives." He responded by saying, "Dear daughter! My relatives have a right only in my personal wealth. As for this, it is the spoils of the Muslims. Do you wish to deceive your father? Please leave." She then left, dragging her dress along. (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (See and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Argam (See and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah bin Abdullaah

Hadhrat Aslam reports that he once saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam www go

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.199), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.418).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 418).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.412).

to Hadhrat Umar was and say, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We have some jewels and silver utensils from Jaloola. See if you have some free time some day to (have a look and) tell us what to do." Hadhrat Umar was said to him, "Remind me one day if you see that I have some time." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam was therefore came to Hadhrat Umar was one day and said, "I see that you have some time today." "I do," said Hadhrat Umar was. "Spread out the leather tablectoth and place the jewels and utensils on it." After Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam was did as told, Hadhrat Umar was came to tablectoth and as he stood there, he said, "O Allaah! You have mentioned this when You say:

Beautified for mankind has been made the love of pleasures (that come) from women (there is no sin if this love is directed to one's lawful wife), children, large heaps of gold and silver, branded (pedigreed) horses, livestock and plantations. These are the luxuries of the worldly life (everlasting success is not acquired through luxuries) and with Allaah (in securing His pleasure) is a most excellent (place of) return (Jannah). (1)

He said further, "O Allaah! You have also mentioned:

(You are informed of predestination) So that you do not grieve about what you lose (because you know that this is Allaah's will) and you do not become overjoyed about what you receive (because you know that it is from Allaah). (2)

We seem unable to avoid getting overjoyed by those things that have been beautified for us. O Allaah! Grant us the ability to spend in the right avenues and protect us from its evil." Just then one of Hadhrat Umar (") so sons called Abdur Rahmaan bin Bahiyya (3) was brought to him. The child said, "Dear father! Do give me a ring." Hadhrat Umar ("Go to your mother. She will give you some barley porridge to drink." The narrator says, "By Allaah! Hadhrat Umar (4) did not give his son anything (from the wealth)."

The Incident of the Musk and Ambergris from Bahrain

Hadhrat Ismaa'eel bin Muhammad bin Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas reports that when some musk and ambergris perfume came to Hadhrat Umar ﷺ from Bahrain,

⁽¹⁾ Surah Aal Imraan, verse 14.

⁽²⁾ Surah Hadeed, verse 23.

⁽³⁾ Born to Hadhrat Umar (3) s slave girl Bahiyya.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad, Ibn Abi Dunya, Ibn Abi Haatim and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhah Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.412).

he said, "I wish that I cold find a woman who is good at weighing, to weigh this perfume for me so that I may distribute it amongst the people." His wife Hadhrat Aatika bint Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl Good offered, "I am good at weighing. Bring it here and I will weigh it for you." However, Hadhrat Umar Good of refused to give it to her. "Why not?" she enquired, Hadhrat Umar Good replied, "I fear that (while weighing) you may take some of it and do this (he then put his finger on his temples) and apply some on your neck. In this manner, you will be receiving a greater share than other Muslims." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with his father Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar "Woo once saw a little girl dragging her feet as she walked because of weakness. "Who is this child?" he asked. "She is one of your daughters," replied (his son) Hadhrat Abdullaah "Woo." "Which daughter of mine is she?" Hadhrat Umar "Woo enquires further. Hadhrat Abdullaah "She explained, "She is my daughter." "What has made her reach the condition I see?" Hadhrat Umar "Woo asked. "Your practice," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah "Woo, "because you do not spend on her." Hadhrat Umar Woo exclaimed, "By Allaah! My dear man, I do not intend fooling you about your children. You need to earn for your children (do not expect me to provide for them from the Baytul Maal)." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Aasim the Son of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Aasim bin Umar got me married, he provided for me from the Baytul Maal for a month. He then sent (his slave) Yarfa to call me. When I went to him, he said, 'By Allaah! Even before becoming the Khalifah I never regarded the money of the Baytul Maal to be permissible for me to use unless the cause was right. Now that I am the Khalifah, it is even more prohibited for me because it is now a trust in my care. I have used Allaah's money (money from the Baytul Maal) to support you for a month and cannot do so any longer. I shall however, assist you with the produce from my orchard at Ghaabah. Pick the fruit and sell it. Then (take the money and) go to a trader from your tribe and stand by his side. When he makes purchases, become his partner and use the proceeds (of your business partnership) to spend on your family. "(3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar Wile's Wife

Hadhrat Maalik bin Aws bin Hadathaan reports that when the envoy of the Roman Emperor came to Hadhrat Umar (Sees), Hadhrat Umar (Sees) wife borrowed a Dinaar and bought some perfume. She put the perfume in a glass bottle and sent it with the envoy to the Emperor's wife. When the perfume reached the Roman Empress, she emptied out the perfume (in another container) and filled the glass bottle with gems. She then gave instructions (to the envoy) to take the bottle to the wife of Hadhrat Umar Williams. When the bottle reached Hadhrat Umar Williams's wife, she emptied the gems on her bed (to have a look at them). Hadhrat Umar Williams then walked in and asked, "What is this?" When she related the incident to him, he took the gems and sold them. He then gave his wife a Dinaar from the money and deposited the rest in to the Baytul Maal. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.413).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.418)

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Abu Ubayd in his Answaal, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.418).

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (and his Son's Camel

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Spess says that he once purchased a camel and kept it in the grazing fields of the Baytul Maal. Once it grew fat, he brought it (to the marketplace to sell). Hadhrat Umar states came to the marketplace where he saw the fat camel. "Whose camel is this?" he asked. When he was informed that the camel belonged to his son Hadhrat Abdullaah (he called out, "O Abdullaah bin Umar! How excellent! The son of the Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar & came running and said, "What is the matter, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" Hadhrat Umar was asked, "What have you to say about this camel?" Hadhrat Abdullaah (See explained, "I bought this camel and sent it to the grazing fields of the Baytul Maal seeking that (profits from it) which other Muslims also seek." Hadhrat Umar William remarked. "(When you sent it there, the shepherds must have said) 'Ensure that the camel of Ameerul Mu'mineen's son feeds well. Ensure that the camel of the Ameerul Mu'mineen's son has plenty to drink.' (In this manner, your camel received special attention and became so fat). O Abdullaah bin Umar! You may have your capital back (from the sale) but return to the Baytul Maal whatever profits are earned." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Rebukes his In-Laws for asking from the Baytul Maal

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen narrates that one of Hadhrat Umar in-laws once approached him and suggested that something be given to him from the Baytul Maal. Hadhrat Umar if rebuked him saying, "Do you want me to meet Allaah as a dishonest despot?" some time afterwards, Hadhrat Umar gave the man ten thousand Dirhams from his own money. (3)

The Incident of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali in this Regard

Hadhrat Antarah reports that he went to Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (in (a suburb of Kufa called) Khowrnaq. Hadhrat Ali (in was wearing a shawl and shivering from the cold. Hadhrat Antarah said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You are shivering from cold when Allaah has allotted a share for you and your family from the wealth (of the state)?" Hadhrat Ali Sizes replied, "I swear by Allaah that I do not wish to take anything from the wealth of the people. I have even brought this shawl from my house in Madinah." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Deenowri in his Mujaalasah, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.422).

⁽²⁾ Sa'eed bin Manstro, ibn Abi Shaybah and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.419).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.219), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.317).

Giving Back Wealth

Rasulullaah Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident of Rasulullaah We With Hadhrat Jibra'eel We and another Angel

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Allaah once sent to Rasulullaah and angel with Hadhrat Jibra'eel the angel said to Rasulullaah and angel with Hadhrat Jibra'eel to ea Nabi who is a slave (of Allaah) or a Nabi who is a king. Rasulullaah turned to Hadhrat Jibra'eel to get his opinion. Hadhrat Jibra'eel the indicated to Rasulullaah that he should adopt humility. Rasulullaah that he replied, "I would tather be a Nabi who is a slave." After that day (like a true slave) Rasulullaah are never ate anything while reclining until the day he met Allaah. (2)

Another Incident with Hadhrat Jibra'eel in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉節節 narrates that Rasulullaah 經濟 and Hadhrat Jibra'eel 總學 were once together on Mount Safa when Rasulullaah 總等 said, "O Jibra'eel! I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that the family of Muhammad have neither had a mouthful of flour nor a handful of porridge this evening." Rasulullaah is had barely completed his sentence when he was startled by a loud clamour from the sky. Rasulullaah & asked, "Has Allaah given the command for Qiyaamah to take place?" "No," replied Hadhrat libra'eel & "Allaah has commanded Israafeel & to come to you when he heard what you said." Hadhrat Israafeel then came to Rasulullaah & and said, "Allaah had heard what you said and has sent me with the keys to the treasures of the earth. Allaah has instructed me to make you the offer that if you wanted, I could transform the mountains of Tihaamah into emeralds, pearl, gold and silver and make them travel with you wherever you go. If you so wish, you could either be a Nabi who is a king or a Nabi who is a slave." Hadhrat Jibra'eel indicated to Rasulullaah that he should adopt humility, because of which Rasulullaah thrice repeated, "I would rather be a Nabi who is a slave."(1)

Abu Ubayd, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.8 Pg.3). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.82).

Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan and Bukhaari in his Taareekh, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.48).

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah About this

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah ("February Proposition of Makkah into gold for me. However, I submitted, 'No, my Rabb. I would rather like to eat one day and be hungry the next day.' This Rasulullaah ("February Proposition") repeated three or more times. He then continued, 'So that I can be humble before You and remember You when I am hungry and thank and praise You when I have eaten." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ali About this

Hadhrat Ali was narrates that Rasulullaah so once informed them that an angel came to him and said, "O Muhammad so! Your Rabb sends Salaams to you and offers to turn the rocky plains of Makkah into gold for you if you would have it." However, Rasulullaah so looked towards the sky and said, "No, O my Rabb! I prefer to rather have something to eat one day so that I may thank you and stay hungry the next day so that I may beg from You." (3)

The Incident of the Money for a Dead Mushrik

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that when a Mushrik was killed during the Battle of Ahzaab, the Mushrikeen sent a message to Rasulullaah that they would give him twelve thousand if he sent them the body. Rasulullaah remarked, "There is neither any good in his body nor in the money." A narration of Ahmad states that Rasulullaah said to the Sahabah remarked. "Hand the corpse over to them because both the corpse and the money are terrible." Rasulullaah the refused to accept any payment. (4)

Yet another narration states that a person named Naufal or Ibn Naufal died when he fell from his horse during the Battle of Ahzaab. Abu Sufyaan (who was not a Muslim then) sent a hundred camels to Rasululiaah (as payment to have the body). Rasululiaah (as refused the money saying, "Take the body because both the money and the corpse are despicable."

The Clothing of Dhu Yazan

Hadhrat Urwa harrates that Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam once went to Yemen where he bought a suit of clothing that belonged to (the Yemeni ruler) Dhu Yazan. When he brought it to Madinah, he presented it as a gift to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah however refused to accept it saying, "We do not accept gifts from Mushrikeen." (Hadhrat Hakeem was not yet a

⁽i) Tabraani and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.157). Tabraani has reported a similar narration in his Awsat but Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.315) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.150).

⁽³⁾ Askari, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.39).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhadi and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Al Bidaavah wan Nihaavah (Vol.4 Po.107).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Abi Shabah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.281)

Muslim then). When Hadhrat Hakeem went to sell it, Rasulullaah we instructed someone to purchase it for him. After buying it, Rasulullaah put it on and entered the Masjid. Hadhrat Hakeem saws, "I have never seen anyone look more outstanding in that clothing than Rasulullaah we. He was as striking as the full moon and when I saw him, I could not restrain myself from saying (these couplets which mean):

"How can rulers even think to issue commands after the emergence of the clear, bright and gleaming one (Rasulullaah (See because they are now all constrained to follow him)

When honour is matched to his, he surpasses them

Because honour has been poured over him like water poured over a person from a large bucket"

When he heard these couplets, Rasulullaah & smiled. (1)

Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam was says that even during the Period of Ignorance. Rasululiaah was the person he liked most: After Rasululiaah announced his Nabuwaat and went to Madinah, Hadhrat Hakeem left (for Yemen) during the Hajj season. There he found a set of clothing that belonged to Dhu Yazan on sale for fifty Dirhams. He purchased it to give it as a gift to Rasulullaah when he brought it back (to Madinah), he did his best to make Rasulullaah accept it, but Rasulullaah refused. One of the narrators by the name of Ubaydullaah says that he thinks that Rasulullaah said, "We do not accept anything from the Mushrikeen. However, if you please, we could pay you for it." Hadhrat Hakeem sold it to Rasulullaah

Narrating further, Hadhrat Hakeem Says, "I saw Rasulullaah we wearing the clothes when he was on the pulpit, I have never seen anything as impressive as Rasulullaah we wearing those clothing that day." Rasulullaah we then gave the clothing to Usaama bin Zaid Says and when I once saw Usaama wearing it, I said, 'O Usaama! Are you wearing the clothes of Dhu Yazan?' Usaama replied, 'Yes! I am better than Dhu Yazan. My father is better than his father and my mother is better than his mother.' I then left for Makkah where the people were shocked to hear the statement of Usaama Says."

The Gift of a Horse and a Camel

Hadhrat Aamir bin Tufayl Aamiri Sies reports that Aamir bin Maalik once gave Rasulullaah sies a horse as a gift with a letter stating, "A sore has emerged on my stomach, so please send me the cure you have." Rasulullaah sies refuse to accept the gift but sent to him a container of honey, telling him to use it as medication.

Another narration from Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik (Sie and narrates that 'The Spear Juggler' (Aamir bin Maalik) once brought a gift for Rasulullaah (Sie Rasulullaah)

 ^{(1) 1}bn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 3 Pg. 177). Tabraani has also reported the narration, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol. 8 Pg. 278). Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.484), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

invited him to accept Islaam but he refused. Rasulullaah (2) therefore said, "I do not accept the gift of a Mushrik." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Ayaadh bin Himaar Mujaashi'ee states that when he once presented to Rasulullaah as a camel or something else as a gift, Rasulullaah as asked him whether he was a Muslim. When he replied in the negative, Rasulullaah si said, "I have been prohibited from accepting gifts from Musbrikeen." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

He Refuses to Accept his Allowance from the Baytul Maal

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once addressed the people. After praising Allaah, he said, "Verily the best of all intelligence is Taqwa." The narration continues to the point where it states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was proceeding to the marketplace early next morning when Hadhrat Umar was (met him and) asked. "Where are you off to?" When Hadhrat Abu Bakr informed him that he was on his way to the marketplace, Hadhrat Umar was remarked, "You have been appointed to a post that will preoccupy you from any engagements at the marketplace." "Subhaanallaah!" exclaimed Hadhrat Abu Bakr will it preoccupy me from (providing for) my family?" Hadhrat Umar well in the processing the shall fix a reasonable allowance for you." Hadhrat Abu Bakr remarked, "Woe to you, O Umar! I fear that it may not be permissible for me to take anything from that wealth." (By consultation with the other Sahabah was, an allowance was fixed for Hadhrat Abu Bakr

During his period of just over two years, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was used eight thousand Dirhams (from the Baytul Maal). On his deathbed, he said, "I had mentioned to Umar that I fear that it may not be permissible for me to take anything from that wealth but he overpowered me. Now that I am dying, I want you to take eight thousand Dirhams from my estate and deposit it in the Baytul Maal." When this money was brought to Hadhrat Umar was, he said. "May Allaah shower His mercy on Abu Bakr was. He has certainly exhausted those to come after him." (3)

The Incident Between him and Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Hafs bin Umar narrates that Hadhrat Aa'isha (came to (her father) Hadhrat Abu Bakr (which means) when he was ill and about to breathe his last. She recited a couplet (which means)

"By your life! Prosperity is of no benefit to the youth

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg:177).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Ibn Jareer and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 177).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.535).

when the pangs of death arrive and the chest has tightened" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Space) looked at her angrily and said, "O Ummul Mu'mineen!
Matters are not like that, but (Allaah states):

﴿ وَجَاءَ تُ سَكُرَةُ المَّوْتِ بِالْحَقِّ ذَلِكَ مَا كُنْتَ مِنْهُ تَحِيدُ ﴾ (سورة ق، آيت ١٩)

The pangs (agony) of death will bring the truth (of Imaan to every person). (It will then be said to the dying person.) "This (death) is what you used to avoid (However, now you have no option)."(1)
He addressed her further saying, "I had given you an orchard as a gift, but am not satisfied with it. You should therefore return it to my estate." Hadhrat Aa'isha readily agreed and made it over. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "Since my appointment as Khalifah. I have neither taken a Dinaar or a Dirham of the Muslims. We have of course eaten from their coarse food to fill our bellies and worn their coarse cloth on our backs. Besides that we have none of their spoils apart from this Abyssinian slave, this camel for drawing water and this worn woollen shawl. When I die, I want you to send these items to Hadhrat Umar & thereby alleviating me from being responsible for them." (After Hadhrat Abu Bakr Bussed away) Hadhrat Aa'isha Bussed did as her father had requested. When the messenger came to Hadhrat Umar (to bring him the items), he wept so profusely that his tears fell on the ground. He said, "May Allaah shower His mercy on Abu Bakr 些障害. He has certainly exhausted those to come after him. May Allaah shower His mercy on Abu Bakr He has certainly exhausted those to come after him." He then commanded his slave to receive all the items. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf then remarked, "Subhaanallaah! Are you snatching away from Abu Bakr was samily their Abyssinian slave, their watering camel and their worn woollen shawl worth only five Dirhams?" "What do you advise?" Hadhrat Umar asked. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf signs advised Hadhrat Umar 劉輝縣 to give the items back to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉璋等's family. Hadhrat Umar the however disagreed and said, "No! I swear by the Being Who has sent Muhammad wife with the truth that this shall never happen during my term of Khilaafah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr would not have escaped from his responsibility for them if I return them to his family and death is ever close by (what will I tell him when I meet him after death?)." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ataa bin Yasaar reports that when Rasulullaah 鑑賞 once sent a gift to Hadhrat Umar 宏观感, he returned it. "Why have you returned it?" Rasulullaah asked. Hadhrat Umar specified, "O Rasulullaah as Poid you not tell us that it is best not to take anything from anyone?" Rasulullaah as replied, "That applies to asking. When you are given something without asking for it, it is a provision that Allaah has sent for you." Hadhrat Umar specifies then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I shall never ask anyone for anything and I shall accept anything that comes to me without asking." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Surah Qaaf, verse 19.

⁽²⁾ Ibn 5a'd (Vol.3 Pg.139).

An Incident with Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Freports that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Freports who was the wife of Hadhrat Umar Freports. The narrator estimates that the mat was an arm's length long and a handspan wide. When Hadhrat Umar Freports came to her and saw the mat, he asked, "Where did you get this from?" When she told him that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Freports had sent it as a gift for her, Hadhrat Umar Freports grabbed the mat and struck her so hard over the head that her braids opened up. He then gave instructions that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Freports be brought to him in a hurry even it he got tired (by running). Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Freports was then brought very quickly and was made very tired in the rush. As he came, he said, "Please do not be hasty with me, O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Umar Frebuked him saying, "What makes you send gifts to my wives?" He then took hold of the mat and struck it across the Hadhrat Abu Moosa Frebuked saying, "Take this because we have no need for it." (2)

The Sale of the Foot of the Muqattam Hill

Hadhrat Layth bin Sa'd narrates that Maqoqis (the once king of Egypt) asked Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (the governor of Egypt) to sell to him the foot of the Muqattam hill for seventy thousand Dinaars. Surprised at the high offer, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (informed him that he will first have to write to (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Umar (informed him that he will first have to write to (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Umar (informed him that he will first have to write to (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Umar (informed him that he will first have to write to (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Umar (informed him that he will first have to write to (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Al Aas (informed him that a tree of Jannah grows at that place. Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (informed him that a tree of Jannah grows at that place. Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (informed him that a tree of Jannah grows at that place and should not sell it to him." (informed him that but a that place and should not sell it to him." (informed him that be sell to him." (informed him that be will first have to write to (Ameerul Mu'mineen) as a should bury the Muslims with you at that place and should not sell it to him." (informed him that be will first have to write to (Ameerul Mu'mineen) as a should bury the Muslims with you at that place and should not sell it to him."

Maalik. Bayhaqi has reported the narration from Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam from his father who actually heard the narration from Hadhrat Umar $256, as quoted in Targheeb was Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.118).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sald and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg,383).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abdul Hakam, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.152)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident with Hadhrat Umar (During the "Year of Ashes"

Hadhrat Aslam reports that during the "Year of Ashes" when the lands of the Arabs were stricken by drought, Hadhrat Umar wrote a letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas were. The narration then continues to a point where Hadhrat Umar were sent for Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (to appoint him to fulfil a certain task). Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah were left for the appointment and after returning, Hadhrat Umar were sent him a thousand Dinaars. Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah were said, "I did not do the work for your sake, O son of Khattaab. I have done it for Allaah and will therefore not take any remuneration." Hadhrat Umar were responded by saying, "Rasulullaah we also gave us something for work that he appointed us to do and when we disliked accepting it, he told us not to refuse it. Therefore, my dear man, you should accept this and use it to assist you in the affairs of this world and for the Deen." Only then did Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah were accept the money. (1)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

Hadhrat Umar gives him a Thousand Dinaars

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ziyaad narrates that Hadhrat Umar so once gave Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir so a thousand Dinaars. Hadhrat Sa'eed so refused the money saying, "I have no need for it. Rather give it to someone else." Hadhrat Umar so said, "Take it easy! Let me first tell you what Rasulullaah said. Thereafter you are at liberty to decide whether you want it or not. When Rasulullaah so once gave me something and I said to him what you just said to me, he remarked, "When someone is given something without him asking for it and without raving for it, then it is a provision from Allaah that he should not refuse." "Did you hear this from Rasulullaah so confirmed that he did, Hadhrat Sa'eed so accepted the money. (2)

The Narration of Haakim and Bayhaqi

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that Hadhrat Umar Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Hudhaym (who was a governor in Shaam). "Why is it that the people of Shaam love you so much?" Hadhrat Sa'eed ("It is because I am always concerned about their rights and sympathise with them." Hadhrat Umar ("It is because I am always concerned about their rights and sympathise with them."

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.354), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.396).

⁽²⁾ Shaashi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.325).

refused it saying, "I have several slaves and horses and have sufficient wealth. I want my services to be a charity towards the Muslims." "Do not refuse this money," said Hadhrat Umar (because Rasulullaah (for each once gave me some money less than this amount (of ten thousand) and I also replied as you did. He then said to me, "When Allaah gives you some wealth without you asking for it and without you having a craving for it, then accept it because it is a provision that Allaah is giving to you."(1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Aslam states that Hadhrat Umar wiss once said to a man whom the people Shaam dearly loved, "Why do the people of Shaam like you so much?" He replied, "Because I lead them in Jihaad and sympathise with them." Hadhrat Umar wiss then offered him ten thousand Dirhams saying, "Use this to assist you in your affairs of this world and in your religious matters." However, he refused saying, "But I have sufficient wealth." The rest of the narration is like the one above. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sa'di (Sa) Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident with Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sa'di (Sa's) narrates that he once approached Hadhrat Umar (Sa's) during the period of his Khilaafah. Hadhrat Umar (Sa's) said to him, "I have been told that you have done many things for public welfare but whenever you are given some remuneration, you do not like to accept it. Is this true?" When Hadhrat Abdullaah (Sa's) confirmed that it was, Hadhrat Umar (Sa's) enquired further, "Why do you do this?" He replied, "I have several horses and slaves and sufficient wealth. I want my services to be a charity for the Muslims."

Hadhrat Umar Wess advised him saying, "Do not do this. I also had the same intentions. Whenever Rasulullaah Wess gave me anything, I would tell him to give it to someone more deserving. When he again gave me something on one occasion, I again told him to give it to someone more deserving. He then said, Take it and then either keep it for yourself or give it away as Sadaqah. Whenever any wealth comes to you without you asking for it or without you craving for it, then make sure that you accept it. However, if you had been craving for it, then do not follow your desire (by accepting it)." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sa'di (1966) says, "Hadhrat Umar (1966) once employed my services and after I had completed the task, he gave me the remuneration. I refused to accept it saying, 'I had done it for the pleasure of Allaah and Allaah will reward me for it.' However, Hadhrat Umar (1966) insisted, 'Please take it because I had also completed some work during the time of

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.286).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.325).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Humaydi, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Daarmi, Muslim and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.325).

Rasulullaah and gave Rasulullaah the same reply that you did when he offered me remuneration. Rasulullaah then said to me, "Whenever I give you something without you asking me, then either keep it for yourself or give it away as Sadaqah."(1)

Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam Refuses to Accept wealth given to him

The Incident with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib reports that Rasulullaah gave Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam something after the Battle of Hunayn but because he regarded it to be to little. Rasulullaah gave him some more. Hadhrat Hakeem then asked, "O Rasulullaah Which of the two amounts is better?" Rasulullaah gave replied, "The first (that you received without asking). Dear Hakeem bin Hizaam! This wealth is green and sweet. Whoever takes it with a generous heart (to give others) and to use it in good avenues, he will receive blessings in it. On the other hand, whoever takes it with greed and to use it in evil avenues, he will receive no blessings and will be like a person who keeps eating without being satisfied. The upper (giving) hand is better than the lower (receiving) hand." Hadhrat Hakeem saked, "even though one asks from yourself, O Rasulullaah "" "Even from me," replied Rasulullaah Hakeem swore, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I shall never accept anything from anyone after you."

He then never accepted even his allowance (from the Baytul Maal) and anything else he was given until he passed away. Hadhrat Umar was used to pray, "O Allaah! I call You to witness that I have called him to accept his share of this wealth but he refuses." Hadhrat Hakeem was said to him, "By Allaah! I shall never accept anything from you or from anyone else." (2)

The Incident with Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam save narrates that he once asked Rasulullaah for something and Rasulullaah gave it to him. When he again asked, Rasulullaah gave him once more. When he asked for a third time, Rasulullaah gave him once more. When he asked for a third time, Rasulullaah gave him once more. When he asked for a third time, Rasulullaah gave him once more. When he asked for a third time, Rasulullaah gave him gave he hakeem! The narration then reads like the previous narration. The narration later states that even when Hadhrat Abu Bakr lased used to call Hadhrat Hakeem save to accept his money, he would refuse to accept any part of it. Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar save used to call him to take his dues and he would refuse Hadhrat Umar save then addressed the people saying, "O assembly of Muslims! I call you to be witness to the fact that I have offered Hakeem his dues from the spoils that Allaah has distributed but he refuses to accept it." After Rasulullaah passed away, Hadhrat Hakeem (1966) did not accept anything from anyone until the day he passed away. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.325).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.322).

Another narration from Hadhrat Urwa sizes states that Hadhrat Hakeem sizes did not accept anything from Hadhrat Abu Bakr sizes until the Khalifah's death. Thereafter, he also refused to accept anything from Hadhrat Umar sizes until the demise of the Ameerul Mu'mineen and also from Hadhrat Uthmaan sizes and from Hadhrat Mu'aawiya sizes until the day he passed away. (2)

Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah Refuses Land

The Incident with another Arab

Hadhrat Aslam reports that when an Arab man came to stay with Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah (acceptable), he entertained his guest well and spoke to Rasulullaah (about (addressing the need of) the man. The man later came to Hadhrat Aamir (after meeting Rasulullaah (acceptable)) and said, "I have asked (and received) from Rasulullaah (acceptable) a valley in Arabia that is the best of all valleys. I now wish to allocate a portion of it for you and for your progeny after you." Hadhrat Aamir (acceptable) replied, "I have no need for your land because today a Surah has been revealed that makes us oblivious of this world:

Peoples' reckoning (the Day of Qiyaamah) has drawn near, yet (failing to take heed) they are turning away in negligence. (Surah Ambiyaa, verse 1) (3)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Refuses to accept Wealth Given to him

The Incident with Hadhrat Uthmaan was and Hadhrat Ka'b

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Saamit the nephew of Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Saamit the once accompanied his uncle (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat (Hadhr Bukhaari and Musilm, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.101). Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee have also reported the narration in brief.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.483).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.179).

devoted to this world, do leave us to our Rabb and our Deen."

The estate of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was being distributed at that time when Hadhrat Ka'b (a Jewish Rabbi who accepted Islaam) was with Hadhrat Uthmaan was asked Hadhrat Ka'b, "What is your opinion of a man who had collected all this wealth and used to contribute in Sadaqah, in good causes and did various good works with it?" Hadhrat Ka'b replied, "I anticipate good for him." Hadhrat Abu Dharr was became angry at this and raised his staff over Hadhrat Ka'b saying, "What do you know, O son of a Jewess? On the Day of Qiyaamah the owner of this wealth will wish that scorpions should sting the most delicate part of his heart (rather than having to account for all that wealth." (1)

Another narration that when a man approached Hadhrat Abu Dharr with to offer him some money for his expenses, Hadhrat Abu Dharr with said to him, "I already have some goats that I milk, some donkeys for transport, a freed slave to serve me and a shawl that is more than the clothing I require. I fear that I shall be required to account for anything over and above my needs." (2)

The Incident with Hadhrat Habeeb bin Maslamah

Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Munkadir narrates that Hadhrat Habeeb bin Maslamah who was the Ameer of Shaam once sent three hundred Dinaars for Hadhrat Abu Dharr with said (to the messenger). "Take this for your needs." Hadhrat Abu Dharr who is more deceived about Allaah than we are? All we have (and need) is shade (of a house) in which we can take shelter, a small flock of goats who come to us in the evenings (after grazing for our milk and meat) and a freed slave who serves us for free. Despite this, I still fear owning anything extra." (3)

The Incident with Hadhrat Haarith Qurashi

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Secreen narrates that Hadhrat Haarith belonged to the Quraysh tribe and lived in Shaam. When the news reached him that Hadhrat Abu Dharr was living a life of poverty, he sent three hundred Dinaars to him. (When the money reached him) Hadhrat Abu Dharr was remarked, "Could he not find any servant of Allaah lower in his eyes than myself? I have heard Rasulullaah was say, "Whoever has forty Dirhams and still asks from the people has begged with importunity (an act which is disliked by Allaah).' Abu Dharr has forty Dirhams, forty goats and two servants." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.160).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.163)

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg. 161).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.331) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration.

Hadhrat Abu Raafi the Freed Slave of Rasulullaah Refuses to Accept Wealth Given to him

The Incident with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Raafi the freed slave of Rasulullaah in narrates that Rasulullaah once said to him, "O Abu Raafi! What will be your condition when you become a poor man?" He replied, "Should I then not send some money forward (to the Aakhirah by giving Sadaqah since I will have nothing to give when I become poor)?" "Of course," replied Rasulullaah ..." but how much do you have?" Hadhrat Abu Raafi replied, "I have forty thousand Dirhams and I wish to give them all for the pleasure of Allaah." Rasulullaah advised, "No (do not give it all away). Rather give only some away and keep some for yourself so that you may treat your son well."

Hadhrat Abu Raafi will enquired, "Do they (our children) have rights due from us as we have rights due from them?" Rasulullaah replied, "Certainly! The right that a father owes his child is to teach him the Book of Allaah, archery and swimming." A narration of Hadhrat Yazeed adds, "and to leave lawful wealth for him as inheritance." "When will I become a poor man?" asked Hadhrat Abu Raafi will. "After my demise," came the reply.

Hadhrat Abu Sulaym says, "I saw Hadhrat Abu Raafi "Base" as a poor man sitting and saying, 'Who will be charitable towards an old and blind man? Who will be charitable towards a man whom Rasulullaah 'Base' had informed that he would become poor after Rasulullaah 'Base's demise? Who will be charitable because the highest hand is Allaah's, the middle hand is that of the giver and the lowest hand is that of the beggar? Whoever begs unnecessarily will have an unsightly scar that will be seen on the Day of Qiyaamah. It is not permissible for a person to accept charity when he is wealthy or when he is in perfect health. I then saw a man give him four Dirhams. When he returned one Dirham, the man said, 'O servant of Allaah! Please do not refuse my charity.' Hadhrat Abu Raafi 'Base' explained, 'Rasulullaah 'Base' had forbidden me from hoarding extra wealth.' I then saw the time afterwards when he became so wealthy that I even saw the collectors of Ushr⁽¹⁾ come to him. He then used to say, 'If only Abu Raafi had died when he was a poor man!' In exchange for their freedom, he would take from his slaves only that amount that he paid for them." (2)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan William the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr William Refuses to Accept Wealth Given to him

The Incident with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya

Hadhrat Abdul Azeez bin Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (1) A tenth of a crop given as zakaalt.

(2) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.184).

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya some sent a hundred thousand Dirhams to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Bakr some after he refused to pledge allegiance to Yazeed who was the son of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya some. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan some refused to accept the money saying, "Should I sell my Deen for my worldly gain?" He then proceeded to Makkah where he passed away. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah the Son of Hadhrat Umar Refuses to Accept Wealth Given to him

An Incident with Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas

Hadhrat Maymoon reports that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Sings thrust onto Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Sings the responsibility of determining what the intentions of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sings were, whether he would resort to a fight or not (if Yazeed were made the Khalifah)? Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Sings said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sings, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! What prevents you from proclaiming yourself Khalifah so that we may pledge our allegiance to you? You are after all a companion of Rasulullaah Sings, the son of an Ameerul Mu'mineen and most deserving of the post of Khilaafah."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar saked, "Does everyone agree to what you are saying?" "O yes," replied Hadhrat Amr saked, "all except a small band of people." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sake then said, "if everyone save three individuals from Hajar supported the idea, I still have no need for the post." Hadhrat Amr sake then concluded that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sake would not resort to fighting (for the Khilaafah). Hadhrat Amr sake further enquired, "Would you be interested in pledging allegiance to a person whom almost everyone is willing to accept (as Khalifah) in exchange for so much of land and wealth that neither you nor your progeny will ever be in need of anything afterwards."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar saids said, "Shame on you! Leave me and never set foot here again! Woe to you! My Deen is not based on your Dinaars and Dirhams. I wish to leave this world with my hands clean (from the wealth of this world)." (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with once entered into a contract of Kitaabah (3) with his slave and fixed the instalments of his payment. When the time arrive for the first instalment, the slave came with the payment. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar worked for it and also begged from the people." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar worked for it and also begged from the people." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar worked for it and also begged from the people."

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.476), Zubayr bin Bakkaar has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.408).

⁽²⁾ tbn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.121).

⁽³⁾ A contract whereby a slave may purchase his freedom in exchange for an agreed sum of money.

pleasure of Allaah and you may have all the money you have brought." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far Refuses to Accept Money Given to him

The Incident with a Chief

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Secreen narrates that a chief of a rural area of Iraq once requested Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Ali (Ameeru Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam (Refuses to Accept Money Given to him

The Incident with Hadhrat Uthmaan (1966)

Hadhrat Amr bin Dinaar narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan appointed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam as treasurer of the Baytul Maal. When Hadhrat Uthmaan are gave him three hundred thousand as remuneration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam are refused to accept the money. The rest of the narration is the same as the narration of Imaam Maalik, which states that when Hadhrat Uthmaan are gave Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam are thirty thousand as remuneration, he refused to take the money saying, "I did it for the pleasure of Allaah." (3)

Hadhrat Amr bin Nu'maan bin Muqarrin Refuses to Accept Money Given to him

The Incident with Mus'Ab bin Zubayr

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra reports that he was once staying with Hadhrat Amr bin Nu'maan bin Muqarrin . When Ramadhaan arrived, someone came with a bag of Dirhams saying, "The Ameer Mus'ab bin Zubayr conveys his Salaams and says that his gifts shall reach every Qaari (and you are one of them). Please use this money." Hadhrat Amr bin Nu'maan said (to the messenger), "Tell him that we swear by Allaah that we do not recite the Qur'aan with the intention of earning worldly profits." He then sent the money back. (4)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.301).

^{(2) (}bn Abi Dunya and Kharaa'iti, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.290).

⁽³⁾ Baghawi, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.274).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.21).

Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Asmaa The Two daughters of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Refuse to Accept Money Given to Them

The Incident of Hadhrat Asmaa Asmaa and her Mother Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr reports that Qutaylah bint Abdul Uzza bin Abd Sa'd from the Banu Maalik bin Hisl tribe was still a Mushrik when she brought some gifts to her daughter Hadhrat Asmaa the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Said. The gifts included a type of badger (which the Arabs ate), some bread and some butter. However, (because her mother was not a Muslim) Hadhrat Asmaa Asmaa Asma Cept the gifts and even refused to allow her mother into her house. When (her sister) Hadhrat Aa'isha Aswad Assulullaah Asma about this, Allaah revealed the verse:

Allaah does not forbid you from behaving cordially and justly towards those (Kullaar) who do not fight you for (reason of your) religion and who do not drive you out from your homes. Verily Allaah loves those who are just. (Surah Mumtahina, verse 8)

Rasulullaah (Si) then instructed Hadhrat Asmaa (Si) to accept her mother's gift and to allow her into her home. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha @ and a Poor Lady

Hadhrat Aa'isha Releas, "A poor lady once came to me with a gift. I however refused to accept it out of pity for her (because she needed it more than I did). Rasulullaah then told me, "Why did you rather not accept her gift and give her something else in return? I think that you may have been looking down on her. Humble yourself, O Aa'isha because Allaah loves the humble ones and detests the proud ones." (2)

Abstention from Asking from People

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri sees reports, "My family was suffering from extreme poverty when my wife told me to approach Rasulullaah sees to ask for something. However, as I came to Rasulullaah sees, the first thing I heard him say was, 'Allaah will make that person independent who asks Him for independence and will grant chastity to the one who asks Him for it. We shall however not keep back something that a person asks from us.' I then returned home without asking him. (We then lived with the situation and continued making aneffort for the Deen, as a result of which) The world later fell at our feet." (1) Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (1986) once spent the morning with a stone tied to his belly to suppress his extreme hunger. It was then either his wife or his slave who told him to approach Rasulullaah and ask him for something because someone else had done so and Rasululiaah complied. Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed 经减少 says, "When I came there, Rasulullaah 微定 was addressing the people and I heard him say, 'Allaah will grant chastity to the one who asks Him for it and will make that person independent who asks Him for independence. As for the one who asks from us, we shall either give him something or (if we have nothing) we shall sympathise with him. Nevertheless, we prefer those who do not depend on us over those who ask from us,' I then returned without asking for anything. Allaah then continued providing for us until a time came when the Ansaar knew none more wealthy than us." (2)

Ahmad and Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.123) has commented on the chain of narrators.
 Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.204).

The incident of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sissays, "Rasulullaah sissay once promised me (some money). When the Banu Qurayzah were conquered, i approached him to fulfil the promise. However, i then overheard him say, "Allaah will make that person independent who asks Him for independence and will grant contentment to the one who is content.' I then said to myself, 'In that case, I shall not ask from Rasulullaah size." ((3))

The incident of Hadhrat Thowbaan

Hadhrat Thowbaan reports that Rasulullaah once said, "Whoever guarantees me that he will not ask people for anything, I shall guarantee Jannah for him." Hadhrat Thowbaan responded by saying that he would be the person. Thereafter, (true to his word) he did not ask anyone for anything. (4) The narration of Ibn Maajah states that Rasulullaah instructed Hadhrat Thowbaan with not to ask from anyone. Consequently, even when Hadhrat Thowbaan when it to him. He would rather dismount and pick it up himself. In the chapter concerning how the Sahabah repedied their allegiance to the injunctions of Islaam (5), a narration of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah was appears about how Hadhrat Thowbaan pledged that he would not ask anyone for (1) the Jareer.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.322).

⁽³⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg. 104). Ibn Ma'een has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, Nasa'ee, Ibn Maajah and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.101).

⁽⁵⁾ See the heading "Pledging Allegiance to the Injunctions of Islaam" and the subheading "Hadhrat Thowbaan \(\frac{3}{2}\)

anything. Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Sues says that he saw Hadhrat Thowbaan Sues riding amongst a large crowd in Makkah and even when his whip sometimes fell on someone's shoulders and the person would attempt to give it back to him, he would not allowit and would dismount the animal to pick it up himself. (1)

The incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Ibn Abi Mulaykah reports that when the rein of his camel would sometimes fall from the hands of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1998), he would hit the front legs of the camel to make it sit down and then pick up the rein. People would say, "Why do you rather not tell us to get it for you?" He would then tell them, "Verily my beloved friend (1998) instructed me never to ask people for anything." (2)

Fear for Worldly Prosperity The Fear of Rasulullaah

The Narration of Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir

Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir again performed the Janaazah salaah for the martyrs of Uhud. Rasulullaah again performed the Janaazah salaah for the martyrs of Uhud. Rasulullaah again performed the pulpit and salah for the martyrs of Uhud. Rasulullaah again performed the pulpit and salah those alive and all those deceased. Thereafter, he mounted the pulpit and said, "I shall be going ahead before you (to the Aakhirah) and shall be your witness. Our promised rendezvous shall be the fountain of Kowthar and I can actually see it as I stand here (because Allaah has allowed me to see it from here). I have no fear that you would revert to Shirk but I fear that you would vie with each other in acquiring the things of this world." Hadhrat Uqba says that this was the last time that he ever saw Rasulullaah

Another narration from Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir Sissistates that Rasulullaah once came out of his home and performed the Janaazah salaah for the martyrs of Uhud. The rest of the narration continues until the point where Rasulullaah sissistates and I have been handed the keys to the treasures of the earth (because of which the Muslims later conquered lands far and wide). I swear by Allaah that it is not your reverting to Shirk after my demise that worries me but I fear that you would start vying with each other in acquiring the things of this world." (4)

The Statement of Rasulullaah www when Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah brought the Wealth from Bahrain

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Auf Ansaari 劉德國 narrates that Rasulullaah 隐語 sent

⁽i) Tabraani in his Kabeer as quoted in Targheen wat Tarheen (Vol.2 Pg.100). Ahmad, Nasa'ee and others have narrated the incident from Hadhral Thowbaan (1998) in brief.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.321).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari (Pg.578).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari in his Riqaaq.

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (To collect the Jizya from Bahrain. When he returned and the Ansaar heard about his arrival, they all presented themselves to perform the Fair salaah behind Rasulullaah (Fasulullaah). After performing the salaah, Rasulullaah (Fasulullaah) amay when they all came before him. When he saw them, Rasulullaah (Fasulullaah) amay them that you all heard about Abu Ubaydah returning from Bahrain with something?" "We certainly did, O Rasulullaah (Fasulullaah) amay then said to them. "I have good news for you and you may also hope for some joy (because you will all receive a portion of the wealth and much more in future). By Allaah! It is not poverty that I fear for you. On the contrary, I fear that the world would be spread out before you as it was spread out to the people before you, after which you would compete with each other in acquiring it just as they competed. It would then eventually destroy you as it destroyed them." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Dharr in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Dharr was narrates that while Rasulullaah was sitting, an uncultured Bedouin stood up and said, "O Rasulullaah wil! The drought has consumed us!" Rasulullaah will responded by saying, "It is not that which I fear for you. I fear the time when worldly wealth will be poured on to you. Alas! If only my Ummah would not wear gold!" (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (1916) reports that they were sitting around Rasulullaah (1916) when he was on the pulpit. He said to them, "Amongst the things that I fear for you is the splendour and wealth of the world that Allaah will open up to you." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas in this Regard

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (I) narrates that Rasulullaah (I) said, "More than you being tested with difficulties, I fear more that you will be tested with prosperity. When you were tested with difficulties, you have exercised patience but the world is extremely sweet and full of flourish (it cannot be said whether you would be able to resist its temptation)." (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik (in this Regard

Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik with reports that Rasulullaah we once stood up

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.141).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Bazzaar, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.144).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 144).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Ya'la and Bazzaar, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Fg. 145).

amongst the Sahabah (2006) and said, "It is poverty and hard-living that you fear or are you concerned about the world? Allaah shall certainly grant you conquests over Rome and Persia and worldly wealth will be rained down on you. It will then be nothing but this which will divert you from the straight path." (1)

The Fear of Hadhrat Umar and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

The Narration of Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama about the Booty Won at Qaadisiyyah

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama (Inc.) narrates that when some of the booty won at the Battle of Qaadisiyyah was brought to Hadhrat Umar (Inc.), he was inspecting it when he began to weep. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Inc.) who was with him at the time said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is a day of joy and happiness (because we won the battle. Why are you weeping?)." Hadhrat Umar (Inc.) replied, "It certainly is but whenever a nation is given such wealth, they get enmity and hatred along with it." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Alfa

Hadhrat ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Dees narrates that when the treasures of the Kisra (Persian Emperor) were brought to Hadhrat Umar (Dees), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam Zuhri (Dees), "Shall we deposit this in the Baytul Maal?" "No," replied Hadhrat Umar (Dees), "we shall not deposit it in the Baytul Maal until we have distributed it." Hadhrat Umar (Dees) then started to weep. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Dees) asked, "What makes you weep, O Ameerul Mu'mineen? Today is a day of gratitude and joy." Hadhrat Umar (Dees) replied, "Whenever Allaah gives this to a nation, he casts enmity and hatred between them."

The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan Basri About the Crown of the Kisra

Hadhrat Hasan reports that when the crown of the Kisra was brought before Hadhrat Umar (together with other crown jewels). Amongst the people was Hadhrat Suraaqa bin Maalik bin Ju'shum (together with other crown jewels). Hadhrat Umar (threw to him the two bracelets of Kisra bin Hurmuz and when he put them on, they reached up to his shoulders. Seeing the bracelets on Hadhrat Suraaqa (the bracelets on Hadhrat Sur Tabraani. There is some commentary on the chain of narrators, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.142).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.358). Kharaa'iti has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.321).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.358). Ibn Mubaarak, Abdur Razzaaq and Ibn Abi Shaybah have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.321). Ahmad in his Zuhd and Ibn Asaakir have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.146).

"All praise is for Allaah! The bracelets of Kisra bin Hurmuz on the arms of Suraaqa bin Maalik bin Ju'shum a Bedouin from the Banu Mudlaj tribe! O Allaah! I know that Your Rascol liked getting wealth only to spend it in Your path and on Your servants. However, You chose a better way and kept it away from him. O Allaah! I know that Abu Bakr liked getting wealth only to spend it in Your path and on Your servants. However, You chose a better way and kept it away from him as well. (Now this wealth has come during my term as Khalifah) O Allaah! I seek Your protection that this should be a trap from You for Umar." He then recited the following yerse:

(When they see their prosperity in this world,) Do they think that by Us granting them an increase in wealth and sons we wish to hasten in granting them good? No (it is rather worse for them)! They fail to perceive (Surah Mu'minoon, verses 55, 56)(1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Sinaan Duwali

Hadhrat Abu Sinaan Duwali reports that he once went to see Hadhrat Umar at a time when a group of the earliest Muhaajireen were with him. Hadhrat Umar sent for a basket resembling a sack or a bag which was brought to him from a fortress in Iraq. The basket contained a ring which one of Hadhrat Umar sent sook is sons snatched up and put in his mouth. Hadhrat Umar took it out of the child's mouth and began to weep. One of the persons with him asked, "Why do you weep when Allaah has granted you so many conquests, given you victory over your enemies and satisfied you?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "I heard Rasulullaah se say, "Whenever worldly wealth is opened up to a nation, Allaah casts enmity and hatred amongst them until the Day of Qiyaamah. This is what frightens me." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Bib About the Crying of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would remain seated for awhile so that a person with any need may speak to him. He would stand up when there was none with any need. However, it once occurred that he led several salaahs without sitting afterwards. I said (to his slave), 'O Yarfa! Is the Ameerul Mu'mineen not well?' When he informed me that the Ameerul Mu'mineen was in good health, I sat down and Uthmaan bin Affaan was joined me. (After a while) Yarfa came out and said, 'Come, O son of Affaan! Come, O son of Abbaas!' When we entered the room, we found before Umar was several heaps of money with a shoulder blade on each heap

Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.358). Abd bin Humayd, Ibn Mundhir and Ibn Asaakir have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.412).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Bazaar and Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 144).

(shoulder blades were used as paper in those days). He said, 'Looking through all the people of Madinah, I found that the two of you had the biggest families. Therefore, take this money and distribute it. You should then bring back what is left over. While Uthmaan took as much as he could, I knelt down and said, 'Will you give us more if it is less?' He replied, 'You are a chip off the old block (just like your father)! Was all of this not with Allaah when Muhammad and his companions were eating scraps of leather?' I replied, 'Most certainly! It was all with Allaah while Muhammad was alive. However, if these conquests took place at his hands, he would not have done as you are doing.' Umar would have eaten from it and fed us as well,' I replied. Umar then started weeping loudly until his ribs heaved. He said, 'I wish that I could escape from this Khilaafah with a clean sheet, nothing in my favour and nothing against."

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sizes states, "Umar sonce called for me and when I went to him, I found a leather tablecloth in front of him on which there was gold spread out. He said, 'Come and distribute this amongst your people, Allaah knows best why he kept this away from His Nabi and from Abu Bakr sizes and it has come to me. Is it good that I have been given or evil?' He then burst out crying as he said, 'Not at all! I swear by the Being Who controls my life! It was not for any evil reason that Allaah kept it away from His Nabi Rassol sizes and from Abu Bakr sizes and then gave it to me for some good reason (it is evident that it is a test for me)." (2)

The Incident with Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Simm narrates that Hadhrat Umar Simm once sent for him. However, when he reached the door, he heard Hadhrat Umar Simm crying loudly. He said, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! A calamity must have struck Ameerul Mu'mineen!" He then entered the room and held Hadhrat Umar Simm saying, "No need to grieve. No need to grieve." Hadhrat Umar Simm remarked, "There is every need to grieve." He then took Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Simm by the hand and led him through the door. There lay several bags stacked one upon the other. Hadhrat Umar Simm said, "The family of Khattaab now has no value in the sight of Allaah. If Allaah willed, He could have given this to my two predecessors (Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Simm on solved the practice they would have set in this regard." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Simm consoled Hadhrat Umar Simm by saying, "Sit down with us (the senior Sahabah Simm) and we shall discuss the matter. They then determined that Rasulullaah Humaydi, Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.207), Bazzaar, Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.358) and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.320). Bazzaar's chain of narrators is reliable according to Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.242).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ubayd, Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.218), Ibn Rahway, Shaashi and Hasan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.2 Pg.317).

wives should receive four thousand each while everyone else received two thousand each. Eventually, all the money was distributed. (1)

The Fear of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (See and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

He Weeps While Eating

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that some food was once served to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (See after he had fasted. He said, "Mus'ab bin Umayr (See who was a better person than I was martyred and shrouded in a sheet (so small) that would leave his legs exposed when his head was covered, and his head exposed when his feet were covered. Hamza (See who was also a better person than I, was also martyred. Thereafter, worldly wealth was spread out before us and we fear that our good deeds may have been rewarded in advance (in this world rather than in the Aakhirah)." He then started weeping so much that he even left his food. (2)

Another Incident About him

Hadhrat Naufal bin Ayaadh Hudhali says, "Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was our companion and an excellent one indeed. He took us home one day and when he entered he first took a bath before sitting down with us. A platter with bread and meat was then served to us. When the platter was put down, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was started to weep. "What makes you weep, O Abu Muhammad?" we asked. He replied, 'Rasulullaah passed away without him or his family filling their bellies with even barley bread. I do not think that what we have been kept back to enjoy is better than what they had." (3)

He Asks Hadhrat Ummu Salamah Worldly Prosperity and her Reply

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf See once went to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah and asked, "Dear mother! I fear that my wealth will destroy me because I am the wealthiest of the Quraysh." She advised him saying, "Dear son! Then spend (in charity) because I have heard Rasulullaah see say, Verily there are some of my companions who will never see me after I part from them." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf see then left and happened to meet Hadhrat Umar sees. When he informed Hadhrat Umar sees about what Hadhrat Ummu Salamah sees had told him, Hadhrat Umar sees went to her and asked, "I ask you in the name of Allaah to tell me whether I am amongst them." She replied, "You are not. I shall henceforth not fulfil the request of anyone else (who takes Allaah's name and asks me to inform them if they are amongst those companions or not)."(1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ubayd and Adani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.218).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari (Pg.579). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.100)

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.99). Tirmidhi and Siraaj have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.417).

The Fear of Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

The Incident when some Sahabah Wisited him

Hadhrat Yahya bin Ja'dah reports that some Sahabah once visited Hadhrat Khabbaab during his illness. They said, "Good news for you, O Abu Abdullaah! You shall meet Muhammad at the pond." He then pointed to the top and bottom storeys of his house and said, "How is that possible with all this when Rasulullaah said, 'All that one of you requires are the provisions of a traveller'?" (2)

The Incident when he Passed Away

Hadhrat Taariq bin Shihaab reports that a group of Sahabah wow once visited Hadhrat Khabbaab during his illness and said, "Good news for you, O Abu Abdullaah! You shall be meeting your brothers tomorrow." Hadhrat Khabbaab then started weeping saying, "Remember that I am not afraid (of death). However, (I am crying because) you have reminded me of a group of people and called them my brothers whereas they have passed on with all their rewards intact (all reserved for the Aakhirah without receiving any part of it in this world). What I fear is that we may have already been given the rewards for the deeds you have mentioned (in this world) since we have lived on after them (and received much wealth)."

Hadhrat Haaritha bin Mudarrib reports that when they visited Hadhrat Khabbaab (as treatment for his illness). He said, "Had Rasulullaah in not stated that no person should ever wish for death, I would have certainly wished for it now." Someone said to him, "(Why worry about your future?) Rather call to mind your companionship with Rasulullaah (as and that you will soon be going to him." Hadhrat Khabbaab (responded by saying, "I fear that what I have with me, may prevent me from meeting with him. I have forty thousand Dirhams here in my house." (4)

Another similar narration adds that Hadhrat Khabbaab said, "I saw a time when I was with Rasulullaah we without a single Dirham to my name. I now have beside my room forty thousand Dirhams." When his burial shroud was brought and he saw it, he wept as he said, "On the other hand, no shroud could be found for Hamza was besides a striped sheet (so small) that when his head was covered, his feet would be uncovered and when his feet were covered, his

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.72).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la and Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.184).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.146) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.118).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.144).

head would be uncovered. Eventually, his head was covered and his feet covered with $Idhkhir\ grass.$ * $^{(1)}$

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il Shaqeeq bin Salamah says that when they visited Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat during his final illness, he said, "There is eighty thousand Dirhams in that box. By Allaah! Neither have I ever tied it up or refused it to any beggar (I never intended hoarding it, but it was too much to spend)." He then started weeping. When the others asked him what made him weep, he replied, "I am crying because my companions have passed on without the world decreasing any of their rewards (because they passed away as poor people). On the other hand, we have lived on after them (and received plenty wealth) to the extent that we found no place for the wealth except in sand (in buildings)." (2) A narration of Hadhrat Abu Usaama states that Hadhrat Khabbaab (2) expressed the wish that the world should have been something like dung. Yet another the wish that the world should have been something like dung. Yet another narration from Hadhrat Qais reports that Hadhrat Khabbaab Said, "A group of people have passed on before us who did not receive any worldly wealth. However, we lived on after them and received so much wealth that we could find nothing to spent it on besides on sand (buildings). A Muslim can be rewarded for everything he spends on except for that which he spends on sand (unnecessary building)." (3)

The Narration of Bukhaari about the Fear of Hadhrat Khabbaab

Bukhaari reports that Hadhrat Khabbaab said, "We migrated with Rasulullaah with no motives besides attaining the pleasure of Allaah. Our rewards are therefore forthcoming from Allaah. From us there were those who passed on without enjoying any part of their rewards (in this world). Amongst them was Mus'ab bin Umayr who was martyred during the Battle of Uhud. All that he left behind was a sheet (so small) that would leave his legs exposed when we covered his head, and his head exposed when we covered his feet. Rasulullaah then instructed us to cover his head to cover his feet with the thin in the them is the cover his head to cover his feet with the thin in the cover his feet with the thin in the cover his feet with t

The Fear of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

An Incident with a Man from the Banu Abs Tribe

A man from the Banu Abs tribe says, "I was once in the company of Hadhrat

⁽I) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.145). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.117) has also reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 145).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.146).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari, Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.85) and Ibn Abi Shaybah have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Unimaal (Vol.7 Pg.86).

Salmaan Faarsi William when he spoke about the treasures of Kisra (the Persian Emperor) that Allaah caused to fall to the hands of the Muslims. He then said, 'That Allaah Who gave all of this to you, Who gave you these victories and blessed you with what you have has kept it all away when Muhammad was alive. (In those times) The Sahabah would start the mornings without a single Dinaar, Dirham or even a Mudd of grain, Thereafter, O brother of the Banu Abs, we have this situation (we have now in which we have plenty of wealth). We were later passing by some silos where grain was being separated from the chaff. Hadhrat Salmaan the then repeated, That Allaah Who gave all of this to you, Who gave you these victories and blessed you with what you have has kept it all away when Muhammad was alive. (In those times) The Sahabah would start the mornings without a single Dinaar, Dirham or even a Mudd of grain. Thereafter, O brother of the Banu Abs, we have this situation'." (1) A man from the Banu Abs tribe says, "I was once travelling with Hadhrat Salmaan along the banks of the Tigris River when he said to me, 'O brother from the Banu Abs tribe! Dismount and drink,' After I had drunk, he asked, 'How much of the river has your drinking decreased from the Tigris?' 'It decreased practically nothing,' I responded. He then commented, 'That is knowledge. People take from it and decrease none of it.' He then told me to mount the animal again and as we passed by some wheat and barley silos, he said, 'All of this has been opened up to us and kept back from Rasulullaah as and his companions. Do. you think that this is for our benefit or not?' 'I do not know?' I replied. 'Well I know the answer,' he continued, 'it is bad for us and good for them. Until the day he met Allaah, Rasulullaah De never filled his belly for three consecutive days."(2)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Sissis visits Hadhrat Salmaan Sissis

Abu Sufyaan reports from his teachers that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas visited Hadhrat Salmaan during his final illness. When Hadhrat Salmaan started to weep, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas saked, "What makes you cry? You are off to meet your companions and shall join Rasulullaah was at the pond. Rasulullaah was pleased with you when he passed away." Hadhrat Salmaan replied, "I am neither crying for fear of death nor for greed of this world. However, Rasulullaah was once emphatically told us, 'Your means of living in this world should be only as much as the provisions a traveller takes on a journey.' Yet look at all these black snakes around me (these worldly possessions)." The narrator says that all that he possessed were a jug for water, a utensil for washing clothes and similar such household necessities. Hadhrat Sa'd was then said to him, "Give us some advices that we could hold on to after your demise." Hadhrat Salmaan was said, "Remember your Rabb

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg. 199).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.324) has commented on the chain of narrators.

whenever you intend doing something, at the time of passing judgement and whenever you are distributing. $^{\rm o}$ (1)

A narration of Haakim states that all Hadhrat Salmaan space possessed at the time was a dish for washing clothes, a plate and a jug.

Hadhrat Anas 等版表 narrates that when Hadhrat Salmaan 等版表 fell ill. Hadhrat Sa'd wisited him. When he saw Hadhrat Salmaan weeping. Hadhrat Sa'd (Signature) asked, "What makes you cry, dear brother? Did you not spend time in the company of Rasulullaah 優麗?" Hadhrat Sa'd 對應 then continues to enumerate various accomplishments of Hadhrat Salmaan (to give him encouragement). Hadhrat Salmaan (to give him encouragement). Hadhrat Salmaan (to give him encouragement). for any one of two things. I am not crying for greed of this world nor for dislike of the Aakhirah. I am crying because Rasulullaah as gave me explicit instructions that I have transgressed." "What did he instruct you with?" asked Hadhrat Sa'd 塑膜瓣。Hadhrat Salmaan 瓷雕瓣 said. "The instructions of Rasulullaah we were that only the provisions of a traveller is sufficient for us I think that I have certainly transgressed the instruction. As for you, O Sa'd, My advice is that you fear Allaah when you pass judgement, when you distribute and when you make any intentions." A narrator called Thaabit says that he received the news that the estate that Hadhrat Salmaan significant left amounted to only twenty odd Dirhams and a little money for expenses. (2)

Why Hadhrat Salmaan (www.was Concerned at the Time of Death

Hadhrat Aamir bin Abdullaah narrates that when Hadhrat Salmaan "al Khayr" (3) was on his deathbed, the people noticed that he was somewhat uneasy. They asked "O Abu Abdullaah! What makes you so restless when you were amongst the earliest Muslims and when you accompanied Rasulullaah in great battles and coveted conquests?" Hadhrat Salmaan replied, "What concerns me is that when he was parting from us, my beloved friend explicitly instructed that the mere provisions of a traveller should suffice for us. This is what makes me so uneasy." When all the possessions were evaluated, it amounted to only fifteen Dirhams. (4) Although other narrations (5) state that Hadhrat Salmaan sees estate amounted to fifteen Dinaars, others are unanimous that they totalled less than twenty Dirhams (not Dinaars). In fact, a narration from Hadhrat Ali bin Badheemah (6) states that after all his assets were

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.195), as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.127), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.65). Ibnul A'raabi has reported a similar narration in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.147).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 128).

⁽³⁾ His title that Rasulullaah as gave to him.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 184).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Hibbaan as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.45). Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.197) has also reported the narration.

⁽⁶⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 186).

sold, they fetched a price of only fourteen Dirhams.

The Fear of Hadhrat Abu Haashim bin Utba bin Rabee'Ah Qurashi

The Incident with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (1986) at the time of death

Hadhrat Abu Haashim bin Utba when he fell ill. Finding him in tears, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya when he fell ill. Finding him in tears, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya was asked, "What makes you weep dear uncle? Are you suffering with pain or are you grieving over leaving this world?" "Not at all," he replied, "I am crying because Rasulullaah had given us explicit advice that we failed to adhere to." "What was that advice?" enquired Hadhrat Mu'aawiya hadhrat Abu Haashim was replied, "I heard Rasulullaah say, 'It is sufficient only to possess a servant and a conveyance to use in the path of Allaah.' Today I find that I have accumulated plenty of wealth." A narration of Razeen states that after the demise of Hadhrat Abu Haashim bin Utba was, all his assets were evaluated thirty Dirhams. This even included a dish that he used for kneading dough and for eating. (1)

Fear of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jaraah and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity

Hadhrat Abu Hasanah Muslim bin Akyas the freed slave of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir reports that when someone once went to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jaraah he found him weeping. "What makes you weep, O Abu Ubaydah?" he asked. Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah See replied, "I am weeping because Rasulullaah once made mention of the conquests and spoils of war that Allaah would grant the Muslims. He also made mention of (conquering) Shaam and then said, O Abu Ubaydah! If your life is prolonged (to see the times of these conquests), three servants will be enough for you; one servant to serve you, one to travel with you and another for your family to serve them. At that time, three animals will be enough for you; one to ride, one to transport your goods and another for your servant.' Now I see that my house is full of servants and that my stables are full of animals and horses. How will I meet Rasulullaah after this? Rasulullaah also said to us, "The most beloved and closest of you to me is the one who meets me in the condition that he left me."

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi, Nasa'ee, Ibn Maajah and Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (vol.5 Pg.184). Baghawi and Ibnus Sakan have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (vol.4 Pg.201). Haakim has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (vol.2 Pg.149).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.253) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Asaakir has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.73).

The Abstinence of Rasulullaah and the Sahabah and How they Left the World Without Bothering About it The Abstinence of Rasulullaah

The Narration of Hadhrat Umar About the Imprint of a Mat on Rasulullaah Es Side

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sillies reports that Hadhrat Umar Sillies once told him about the time when he visited Rasulullaah & Rasulullaah was lying on a straw mat and when Hadhrat Umar was sat down he noticed that Rasulullaah & because was not wearing an upper garment, the mat had made imprints on his side. Hadhrat Umar was also startled to see that all the room contained was a handful of barley close to a Saa in weight, some acacia leaves in one corner (used for dying cloth) and a piece of leather hanging. When tears started flowing from Hadhrat Umar (1988)'s eyes, Rasulullaah (1988) asked, "What makes you weep, O son of Khattaab?" Hadhrat Umar wie replied. "O Nabi of Aliaah (2014)! Why should I not weep when the mat has left an imprint on your side and what I see here is the sum total of all your belongings? You are the Nabi of Allaah and His chosen servant and this is all you have whereas the Emperors of Rome and Persia have all types of fruits and rivers (and other luxuries)!" Rasulullaah & consoled him saying, "O son of Khattaab! Are you not satisfied that they should have the world while we have the Aakhirah?" (1) Another narration from Hadhrat Umar states, "I once sought permission to see Rasulullaah & When I entered an upper storey room he was occupying. Rasulullaah www was lying on a coarse cloth with part of his body in the sand. His pillow was filled with the bark of a date palm, hanging over his head was a piece of leather and in a corner of the room lay some acacia leaves. After greeting Rasululiaah and sitting down, I asked, "You are the Nabi of Aliaah and His chosen servant (lying on a little coarse cloth) while the Emperors of Persia and Rome are sleeping on golden beds with bedding made of velvet and silk." Rasulullaah replied, "Their luxuries have been brought to them in this world and will soon come to an end whereas our luxuries are postponed for the Aakhirah (and will never finish)." (2)

According to yet another narration states that Hadhrat Umar sees once went to see Rasulullaah . Rasu interest have 1 in this world? My relationship with this world is merely like a traveller on a journey during summer. He stops to take shade beneath a tree for a short while and then proceeds on his journey, leaving the tree behind."(1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Maajah

⁽²⁾ Haakim. Ibn Hibbaan has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Anas (2006) who reports from Hadhrat Umar (2006), as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.161). Ahmad and Abu Ya'la have also reported the narration of Haunrat Anas (2006) but Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.326) has commented on the chain of narrators in Imaam Ahmad's narration.

The Bedding of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "A woman from the Ansaar once visited me and noticed that the bedding of Rasulullaah saw was merely a double-folded sheet. She then sent me a bedding that was filled with wool. When Rasulullaah saw came to me, he asked, "What is this, O Aa'isha?" I then informed him that the Ansaari lady had come and when she saw the bedding, she left and sent this bedding. Rasulullaah said, "Return it, O Aa'isha, By Allaah! if I wanted, Allaah would make mountains of gold and silver travel with me," (2)

The Food and Clothing of Rasulullaah

Hadnrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah we wore woollen clothing and patched shoes. He also said that Rasulullaah at Bashi and his clothing was made of coarse cloth. When someone asked Hadhrat Hasan what Bashi was, he replied that it was coarsely ground barley which Rasulullaah only managed to swallow with a sip of water. (3)

The Incident of Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Ummu Ayman

Hadhrat Ummu Ayman (with the refined flour rather than with the coarse flour Rasulullaah (with the refined flour rather than with the coarse flour Rasulullaah (with the refined flour rather than with the coarse flour Rasulullaah (with the refined flour rather than with the coarse flour Rasulullaah (with the refined flour rather than with the coarse flour rather than with the coarse flour rather than with the refined flour rather than with the coarse flour rather than with th

A narration of Hadhrat Salma

Hadhrat Salma (See the wife of Hadhrat Abu Raafi (See reports that Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali (See), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far (See) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (See) once came to her and said, "Make for us some food that Rasulullaah (See) liked to eat." She said to them, "But you may not like it nowadays (because you are used to better foods)." However, she stood up and ground some barley. She then blew off the very rough chaff and made some bread. The gravy (for the bread) was plive oil and she also sprinkled some ⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Ibn Hibaan and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.160). Ibn Maajah and Tirmidhi have reported a similar narration from Hadhrar Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 到海海, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.159). Ibn Hibbaan and Tabrani have also reported the narration from Hadhrar Aa'isha (金海海, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.162) and Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.10 Pg.327).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.163).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Maajah and Haakim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 163).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Maajah and Ibn Abi Dunya, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 5 Pg. 154).

chillies on it. She then served it to them saying, "This is what Rasulullaah (### liked,"(1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar About the Abstinence of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that they once accompanied Rasuluilaah into an Ansaari's orchard. Rasuluilaah picked up some dates from the ground and ate them. "What is the matter, O son of Umar? Why are you not eating?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "I do not feel like eating." "Well, I certainly do." said Rasuluilaah ." because it is now four day since I have had anything to eat. If I wished, I could have prayed to my Rabh to give what the Emperors of Rome and Persia have. O son of Umar! What will be your condition when you live on to be with people who will store a year's provisions and (people's) trust in Allaah will be weak." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "By Allaah! We were still standing there when Allaah revealed the verse:

How many are the animals who do not (even) carry their own provision (as you do? (Despite this.) Allaah (still) sustains them and you (people) as well. He is the All Hearing (hears all your du'aas), the All Knowing (knows your needs and will fulfil them). (Surah Ankaboot, verse 60)

Rasulullaah (2) then said, "Allaah has neither commanded me to amass worldly possessions nor to follow my desires, Whoever amasses worldly wealth with the intention of using it in the remaining portion of his life should remember that life is in Allaah's hands. Take note that I do not amass Dinaars or Dirhams and I do not store provisions for tomorrow." (2)

The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha (2005) narrates that when a cup containing milk and honey was given to Rasulullaah (2006), he commented, "A combination of two drinks as well two meals in one cup. I have no need for such a thing. Take note that I do not say that this is Haraam but on the Day of Qiyaamah I do not like my Rabb to question me about the extravagance of this world, I humble myself before Allaah. Whoever humbles himself for Allaah, Allaah will clevate him and whoever behaves arrogantly, Allaah will lower him. Allaah will grant independence to the one who spends thriftily and Allaah will love the one who remembers death." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani: Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg 325) has commented on the chain of narrators. However, Targheeb wal Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 159) states that Tabraani's chain of narrators is sound.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wal Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.149). Ibn Abu Haatim, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.420).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 158), Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.325) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Bakr The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam in this Regard

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam in arrates, "We were once with Hadhrat Abu Bakr when he asked for something to drink. When some water mixed with honey was brought and put in his hand, he started to cry and sobbed a lot. He wept so much that we thought that something was seriously wrong with him. However, we did not ask him anything. When he stopped crying, we asked, 'O Khalifah of Rasulullaah when I saw him repel something from himself which I could not see. I asked, 'O Rasulullaah whim repel something from himself which I could not see. I asked, 'O Rasulullaah whim repel something from himself which I could see nothing?' He replied, 'The world leapt towards me and I (repelled it as I) said, 'Get away from me!' It then said, 'I know that you will never take me.' It was this that made it difficult for me (to drink the honey water). I feared that I may oppose the way of Rasulullaah and that the world would get hold of me." (1)

In another narration, Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr reports once asked for a drink, he was given a cup with honey mixed in water. As he took it to his mouth, he started weeping and this made everyone around him cry as well. When he stopped crying, the people around him were still in tears. The same thing happened a second time and this time he cried so much that the people could not even ask him anything. When he eventually wiped his face and stopped crying, the people asked him the reason for his crying. The rest of the narration is similar to the one above except that he also said, "It (the world) then said (to Rasulullaah report). Remember! I swear by Allaah that although you have slipped through my grasp, those after you will be unable to do so." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha Stating that Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Abu Bakr says passed away without leaving behind a Dinaar or a Dirham. Just before his demise, he took all his money and deposited it in the Baytul Maal."

Another narration from Hadhrat Urwa states that when he was made Khalifah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr deposited every Dinaar and Dirham he possessed into the Baytul Maal. He said, "I used to trade and seek my livelihood with this money. Now that I am the Khalifah, public affairs have preoccupied me from trade and earning a livelihood." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.254) has commented on the chain of narrators but Ibnul Mundhir (Targheeb wat Tarheeb Vol.5 Pg.168) says that the chain is sound and that Ibn Abi Dunya has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Na'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.30). Haakim and Bayhaqi have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.37).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 132).

The Incident Between him and Hadhrat Umar William

Hadhrat Ataa bin Saa'ib narrates that the morning after Hadhrat Abu Bakr was appointed Khalifah, he had some shawls over his arm and was proceeding to the marketplace (to do business as usual). "Where are you off to?" asked Hadhrat Umar was enquired further, "What will you be doing there now that you have been put in charge of the Muslims?" "How will I then feed my family?" asked Hadhrat Abu Bakr was hadhrat Umar was replied, "Let us go to Abu Ubaydah was and he will fix an allowance for you (from the Baytul Maal)." The two men then proceeded to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah who said, "I shall fix for you the average allowance of a Muhaajír which is neither too much nor too little. You will also receive a set of clothing for summer and one for winter but when you have worn out a set of clothing, you will return it before taking another." They then determined that he would receive half a goat every day without the head and innards. (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Humayd bin Hilaal

Hadhrat Humayd bin Hilaal reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr was appointed as Khalifah, some of the Sahabah suggested that he should receive an allowance from the Baytul Maal. It was eventually agreed that he should receive two shawls and when he wore them out, he could receive another two after returning the old ones. He would also receive an animal for travelling and as much for household expenses as he normally spent before becoming the Khalifah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was happy with this, (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Umar

Some Sahabah Feel that Hadhrat Umar should Receive a Larger Allowance but he Rejects the Idea

Hadhrat Saalim bin Abdullaah reports that when Hadhrat Umar became the Khalifah, he took the same allowance that was fixed for Hadhrat Abu Bakr Although he continued with it, it became difficult for him to fulfil his needs with it. When a group of the Muhaajireen that included Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Talha who suggested Hadhrat Umar was once convened, it was Hadhrat Zubayr who suggested Hadhrat Umar was agreed saying, "That is exactly what I had wanted some time ago. Let us go." However, Hadhrat Uthmaan was cautioned, "This is Umar we are talking about! Let us first ascertain what his reaction would be. Let us rather approach (his daughter) Hafsah was and ask her. We will also ask her to keep the matter a secret."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.129).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.130).

They then went to Hadhrat Hafsah (1976) and told her that she should inform Hadhrat Umar (1976) about the suggestion coming from a group of people. They stressed that she should not mention their names unless Hadhrat Umar (1976) accepted the proposal. They then left.

When Hadhral Hafsah with met Hadhral Umar with to discuss the matter, she noticed the anger on his face. "Who are these people?" Hadhrat Umar (#1866) demanded to know. "I cannot tell you until I know your opinion," she replied. Hadhrat Umar then said, "If I knew who they were, I would scar their faces. You are my only medium with them. I ask you to tell me in the name of Allaah what was the best clothing that Rasulullaah were in your house?" She replied, "Two reddish brown garments which he wore when receiving delegations and delivering sermons on Fridays." "And what was the best food Rasulullaah as ate at your house?" Hadhrat Umar sie asked further. Hadhrat Hafsah (replied, "I once made bread from barley flour and when it was still hot, I poured over it some oil left at the bottom of our oil can. This made it moist and soft and Rasulullaah & ate it with great relish." Hadhrat Umar 生物的 then asked. "And what bedding did Rasulullaah 经路 use with you that was most comfortable?" She replied, "It was made from a thick material which we four-folded in summer beneath us. During winter we double-folded it beneath us and used the other portion to cover ourselves."

Hadhrat Umar then said, "Dear Hafsah! Take this message from me (to the group of Muhaajireen) that Rasulullaah what had set a precedent in all matters. He had kept extravagance in its place (without indulging in it) and sufficed only with what was necessary. By Allaah! I shall also keep extravagance in its place and suffice with bare necessities. The example of myself and my two companions (Rasulullaah was and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Rasulullaah had also reached his destination. The second followed suit and also reached the destination. Now the third is on the road. If he sticks to their way and is content with the provisions they took, he will meet them and be with them. However, if he takes a road other than the one they took, he will not be able to meet up with them."

The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan Basri

Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.164). Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.408).

cloth, which we took with us and started to wear. When we came to Hadhrat Umar (in Madinah), he turned his face away from us and did not speak to us. This was a hard blow to the Sahabah (with the mapproached his son Abdullaah bin Umar (with who was sitting in the Masjid. When we complained to him about the cold treatment we received from the Ameerul Mu'mineen, he said, 'The Ameerul Mu'mineen (ignored you because he) saw you wearing clothing that he neither saw Rasulullaah (with nor his successor Abu Bakr (wearing."

Hadhrat Ahnal continues, "We then returned to our homes, removed the clothing and wore the clothing that Umar was used to seeing us wear. (When we again went to meet him) Hadhrat Umar stood up and greeted each one of us individually. He even embraced each of us as if he had never seen us before. When we brought the booty before him, he distributed it equally between us. Amongst the booty presented to him was a container with yellow and red sweetmeats. When he tasted it, he found it to be extremely delicious. He then turned to us and said, 'O assembly of Muhaajireen and Ansaar! I swear by Allaah that it will be for food like this that a son will kill his father and a brother will kill his brother.' According to his instructions, the sweetmeats were then distributed amongst the children of those Sahabah who were martyred during the time of Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Umar then got up and left, with the Sahabah walking behind him."

Some of the Sahabah walking behind him."

Some of the Sahabah walking behind him."

look at the abstinence of this man and his attire. We have had to endure plenty of embarrassment on account of him because since Allaah has granted him victory over the domains of Rome and Persia and the far reaches of the East and West, many Arab and non-Arab delegations come to him and see him wearing the same robe with twelve patches. You people are the senior companions of Rasulullaah who are veterans of many great battles. You are also the early vanguards from the Muhaajireen and Ansaar. Therefore, O companions of Rasulullaah why do you not ask him to change his robe for something softer that would instill awe into someone looking on. He should also have (an elaborate) meal platter served to him every morning and another every evening from which he could eat and also feed the Muhaajireen and Ansaar with him."

All of them unanimously agreed that only two persons could suggest this to Hadhrat Umar when the boldest before Hadhrat Umar was and also his father-in-law. The other was Hadhrat Umar was daughter Hadhrat Hafsah when because she was the wife of Rasulullaah when they approached Hadhrat Ali when they approached Hadhrat Ali when they approached Hadhrat Ali when they approached Hadhrat Ali when they approached Hadhrat Ali when they approached Hadhrat Ali when they approached Hadhrat Ali when they approached Hadhrat Ali when they were after all the mothers of all Mu'mineen and could therefore address Hadhrat Umar without fear.

They then asked Hadhrat Aa'isha was and Hadhrat Hafsah was at a time when the two happened to be together. When Hadhrat Aa'isha agreed to ask Hadhrat Umar $3000. Hadhrat Hafsah $3000 said. "I don't think that he will oblige. However, you will soon find out." When the two ladies went to Hadhrat Umar Sissee, he welcomed them in, Hadhrat Aa'isha Sissee said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Will you permit us to say something?" "Go ahead and speak, O Ummul Mu'mincen," replied Hadhrat Umar 556. She said, "Rasulullaah 555 has passed on to his way to Jannah and to Allaah's pleasure without taking any portion of this world and without the world coming to him. Hadhrat Abu Bakr passed on in a like manner in the footsteps of Rasulullaah after reviving his Sunnah, finishing off those who rejected Islaam and giving thorough replies to those who trod the path of falsehood. He exercised justice amongst the people, distributed wealth amongst them with equity and pleased the Rabb of creation. Allaah then took him into His mercy and joined him with His Nabi and those most high (the Ambiyaa in the high ranks of Jannah). Neither did he desire this world not did it come to him. Allaah has now conquered the treasures of Roman and Persian Emperors at your hands and gave you their lands. Their wealth has been carried to you and the ends of the East and West have fallen to your feet. We now anticipate even more from Allaah to bolster Islaam. Envoys from the various non-Arab tribes come to you and many Arab delegations also meet with you while you are wearing that robe that has twelve patches. Why do you not change your robe for something softer that would instil awe into someone looking on and have a meal platter served to you every morning and another every evening from which you could eat and also feed the Muhaajireen and Ansaar with you?"

When he heard this, Hadhrat Umar started weeping profusely. He then asked, "I ask you to tell me in the name of Allaah whether Rasulullaah ever filled himself with even barley bread for ten nights or even five or three nights? Or did he ever eat both a morning and evening meal in a day until he met Allaah?" Addressing Hadhrat Aa'isha even, Hadhrat Umar vocationed, "Do you ever know of a time when food was served to Rasulullaah even on a table that was even a handspan higher than the ground? Or was it that when he wanted food, it was placed on the ground and (after eating) it was then taken away?" Both ladies replied, "We swear by Allaah that this was the case." He then said, "The two of you are the wives of Rasulullaah even and the mothers of the Mu'mineen. You have rights over all the Mu'mineen and especially over me. However, you have come to encourage me towards things of this world when I know that Rasulullaah even world when I know that Rasulullaah even world when I know that Rasulullaah even world when I know that Rasulullaah even world when I know that Rasulullaah even a woollen robe so rough in texture that it actually scratched his skin. Do you know about this?" "We swear by Allaah that we do!" they both admitted.

Hadhrat Umar sizes continued, "Do you not know that Rasulullaah size used to sleep on a single folded robe? And, O Aa'isha, did you not have a coarse sheet made of animal hairs that Rasulullaah size used as a rug during the day and bedding during the nights? When we used to come to see him, we could always notice the imprints of the straw mat on his sides. O Hafsah! Remember that you told me that one night you double folded the bedding and finding it soft, Rasulullaah & slept through the night and woke up only with Bilaal's Adhaan. He then said to you, 'O Hafsah! What have you done? You had double folded the bedding last night, causing sleep to carry me through to the morning. What need have I for this world? Why do you preoccupy me with soft beds?' O Hafsah! Don't you know that all Rasulullaah sees earlier and later error had been forgiven? Yet he went hungry in the evenings, spent his sleeping hours in Sajdah and remained in Ruku, Sajdah, weeping and humbling himself before Allaah throughout the hours of the day and night. This he did until the day Allaah took him into the fold of His mercy and pleasure. Umar shall never eat good foods, and shall never wear fine clothing because he has a perfect example in his two companions (Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ). He shall also never eat two meals at the same time except for having salt and olive oil together. He shall eat meat only once a month just so that his month passes like the masses."

The two ladies then left and informed the Sahabah (1996) about what had transpired. Hadhrat Umar (1996) remained like this until he eventually left to meet Allaah. (1)

His Abstinence in Eating

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah bin Sahl bin Hunay! Says that for a long period of time, Hadhrat Umar took nothing from the Baytul Maal. He eventually reached a stage where he started suffering poverty (because involvement in public matters gave him no time to engage in trade). He then sent for some of the Sahabah to consult with them. He addressed them saying, "My task has preoccupied me (from earning), so what (allowance) do you see appropriate for me?" Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan to replied, "(So much) That you are able to eat and feed others as well." Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid bin Amr bin Nufay) then echoed the opinion. Hadhrat Umar then asked Hadhrat Ali then sufficient for your) Morning and evening meals." Hadhrat Umar abided by this opinion. (3)

Hadhrat Qataadah 经减少 reports that Hadhrat Umar 当场 used to say, "Had I

⁽I) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.408).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.411).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 411).

so wished, I could be eating the best of foods and wearing the finest of clothing. However, I prefer to rather perpetuate my luxuries (by reserving them for the Aakhirah)." It has also been narrated that when Hadhrat Umar (once arrived in Shaam, food that he had never before set eyes upon was prepared for him. He asked, "While we eat this, what will the poor Muslims have who die without filling themselves with even barley bread?" Hadhrat Umar bin Waleed replied, "They shall have Jannah." Tears then started to flow from the eyes of Hadhrat Umar (of the they have made off with Jannah, then they have certainly excelled us with a tremendous virtue."

The Incident with his Son Hadhrat Abdullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (the son of Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadhrat Abdullaah)) and then put his hand to the food. He ate a morsel and then another. Thereafter, he commented, "I can taste the presence of something that is not the natural fat of meat (this meat has not been cooked in its own fat)." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadhrat (Hadhra

Hadhrat Umar Williams then said, "Whenever these two things (meat and butter) came to Rasulullaah Williams, he only ate one of them and gave the other away as Sadaqah (I shall therefore not eat)." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Williams said, "Please eat, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Whenever the two again come in my possession at the same time, I shall also do the same." "I cannot," replied Hadhrat Umar Williams (2)

Abu Haazim reports that Hadhrat Umar wow once went to see his daughter Hadhrat Hafsah who served him some cold gravy and bread. She then poured some olive oil into it. "Two gravies in one!" remarked Hadhrat Umar who will not eat this until the day I meet Allaah." (3)

The Narrations of Hadhrat Anas and Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed Concerning the Food of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Anas Sass, "When he was Khalifah, I saw that when a Saa of dates was given to Hadhrat Umar Sass, he would even eat the dates that were of an inferior quality."

⁽¹⁾ Abd bin Humayd and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 402).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.146).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.230).

Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed (dry) meat. He would then wipe his hands on his feel saying, 'This is the serviette of Umar and his family." A narration of Deenowri from Hadhrat Thaabit states that when Hadhrat Jaarood once ate with Hadhrat Umar (dry) and had finished the meal, he asked one of the servants to get him a serviette to wipe his hands. Hadhrat Umar (Wipe your hands off on your sleeve (because the meal was dry and your hands have hardly been soiled)."

Hadhrat Umar Reminds People of a Verse of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla reports that when some people from Iraq once came to Hadhrat Umar (he noticed that they are very little (because they were used to good food and did not like his simple food). He then said to them, "O Iraqis! If I wanted, I could also have sumptuous meals prepared for me as you have. However, we wish to rather perpetuate our luxuries of this world (by forsaking them here) to find them in the Aakhirah. Have you not heard that (in the Aakhirah) Allaah will say to some people:

﴿ أَذُهُ بِنُكُمْ طَيِّبِيِّكُمْ فِي حَيَاتِكُمُ الدُّنْيَا ﴾ (سورة احقاف آيت ٢٠)

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)", {Surah Ahgaaf, yerse 20}(2)

A companion of Hadhrat Habeeb bin Abi Thaabit narrates that Hadhrat Umar some once met a group of Iraqis with whom was Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah when a platter of food prepared from bread and olive oil was served to them, they ate only very little (because they did not like it). Hadhrat Umar then said to them, "I have seen what you have done. What do you want? Do you want various types of sweets and savouries served hot and cold (according to your desire) and then have to cram it all into your bellies?" (3)

Hadhrat Humayd bin Hilaal reports that Hadhrat Hafs bin Abul Aas often joined Hadhrat Umar for meals but ate nothing. Hadhrat Umar saked, "What prevents you from eating our food?" Hadhrat Hafs replied, "Your food is very coarse and thick. I prefer to eat the smooth variety of food that is prepared for me," Hadhrat Umar so told him, "Do you think that I cannot give instructions for all the hairs of a goat to be removed and then the meat roasted for me? Do you think that I cannot give instructions for flour to be sifted through a cloth and then prepared as refined bread? Do you think that I cannot give instructions for raisins to be put into a container and then soaked in water to produce a (delicious) drink that resemble the blood of a deer (in colour)?" Hadhrat Hafs commented, "You seem to know all about living a good life." "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Umar sow, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! Had I not disliked that it should reduce my good deeds on the Day of Oiyaamah, I would have joined you in your lives of luxury." (1) Hadhrat Saalim bin Abdullaah narrates that Hadhrat Umar week used to say, "By Allaah! We have no concern for the luxuries of this world. We could easily give instructions for the hairs of a kid goat to be removed and then roasted. We could likewise give instructions for the best of wheat to be used for our bread and for raisins to be soaked overnight in a container (to produce a sweet drink) until it resembles the eyes of a partridge. We could then have all these things to eat and drink. However, we prefer to perpetuate our luxuries because we have heard Allaah say (to some people on the Day of Qiyaamah):

⁽¹⁾ fon Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.230).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.49).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 49), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 405).

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)". {Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20} (2)

The Incident with Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari was narrates, "I came to Hadhrat Umar with a delegation from Basrah. Whenever we met him (and ate with him), we noticed that every day he was served pieces of the same bread. At times, we would have something like butter, olive oil or milk with it. There were times when we would have boiled strips of dried meat as well. Although we sometimes ate fresh meat, those occasions were very rare. One day Hadhrat Umar said to us, 'By Allaah! I have noticed how little you eat and that you seem to dislike my food. By Allaah! Had I so wished, I could be eating the best of foods and leading the most opulent life. Take note that I am not unaware of delicacies like roasted breast and hump meats (of a came), refined bread and spicy relishes. However, (I do not have them because) I have heard Allaah reprimanding a nation for something they had done when he says:

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)"." {Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20}

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari suggested to his companions that they speak to Ameerul Mu'mineen about allotting to them some food from the Baytul Maai. When they addressed him, Hadhrat Umar said, "O assembly of governors! Are you not satisfied with that with which I satisfy myself?" They submitted, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Madinah is located in an area where living is hard. We do not think that your food is eaten when it is served (to others). However, we live in a fertile land and when the food of our leaders is served, it is always well eaten (we therefore have many people to feed)."

Hadhrat Umar Sizes lowered his head for awhile and then raised it saying, "I shall allow you two goats and two bags (of flour) from the Baytul Maal every day. In the mornings, a goat and bag should be prepared. You should eat from it (1) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 403).

(2) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 49).

and feed those with you. You may also have a Balaal drink prepared, from which you drink first and then give to those on your right and then those after them. Thereafter, you should proceed for your necessities. Later in the evenings, the other goat and bag should be prepared for you and your companions to eat from. Remember that you should also provide for the people at their homes and ensure that their families are well fed. If you do not provide enough for the people, their character will never improve and their hungry ones will not be satiated. I swear by Allaah that despite this (allowance I have allotted), I still believe that ruination will come quickly to a town from which two goats and two bags are taken every day." (1)

The Incident with Hadhrat Utba bin Farqad

Hadhrat Utba bin Pargad reports, "I once brought to Hadhrat Umar (1986) a few baskets full of sweetmeats. 'What is this?' he asked. I replied, 'Because you spend. the beginning of the day fulfilling the needs of the people, I wanted you to have some food to return to so that you may replenish your strength.' Hadhrat Umar opened one of the baskets and asked, 'O Utba! Tell me in the name of Allaah whether vou have given every Muslim a basket like this.' 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen!' I replied, 'You would be unable to do that even if you spent all the money of the Oais tribe. 'Then I have no need for this,' he said. Hadhrat Umar then called for a plate of Thareed made from coarse bread and tough meat. He relished the meal as we are together. I stretched my hand towards a piece of food that I thought was from the hump of the camel, only to discover that it was muscle tendons, I kept chewing on a piece of meat that I could not get down my throat and when I noticed that Hadhrat Umar was was not looking at me, I put it between the plate and the tablecloth. Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar called for a large container of Nabeedh(2) that (was so old that) it had almost become vinegar. He told me to drink it but I could not get it down my throat. He then took it and drank. After drinking he said, 'Listen O Utba! We slaughter a camel every day and give all the fat and the best meat to Muslims visitors from other places. As for the neck, it is reserved for the family of Umar so that they may have the toughest meat. They then drink this strong Nabeedh to break up the tough meat (aid in digestion) so that it causes us no harm."(3)

His Fear when Served Water Mixed with Honey

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar (was thirsty when he once visited someone. When he asked the man for something to drink, some honey (mixed in water) was brought to him. "What is this?" asked Hadhrat Umar ("Honey," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar (Washer) then said, "This should not be amongst the things about which I will be questioned on the Day of Qiyaamah (I shall therefore not be having any)," (1)

⁽I) Ibn Mubaarak and Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.402).

⁽²⁾ Raisins (or dates) left overnight in water so that the water becomes sweet. The fruit is then removed before the drink can become intoxicating.

⁽³⁾ Hannaad, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.404).

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Umar (Sizes) once asked for a drink, he was served some water mixed with honey. He said, "This is most excellent, but I have heard Allaah rebuke a nation for (following the dictates of) their desires. Allaah says:

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)". {Surah Ahqaaf, verse 20} (2)

His Clothes, his Spending and Other Facets of his Biography

Hadhrat Urwa saws that Hadhrat Umar saws arrived in Eela with a group of Muhaajireen and Ansaar. Because the journey was long and arduous, the seat of his upper garment had torn even though it was made from a thick material. He therefore gave it to a priest to have it washed and patched. The priest took the garment and had it patched. He also sewed another identical garment for Hadhrat Umar & When he brought the garments back to Hadhrat Umar that evening, Hadhrat Umar states asked, "What is this?" The priest replied, "This is your garment that I washed and patched. This, however, is a garment I wish to give you." Hadhrat Umar states looked at the new garment and felt it. He then wore his old garment and, returning the other one to the priest, he said, "This (old garment) better absorbs perspiration." (3) Hadhrat Qataadah (Spiese) reports that when he was Khalifah, Hadhrat Umar wore a patched woollen robe that had some patches of leather. He used to walk through the marketplace with a whip on his shoulder to reprimand (errant) people. Whenever he passed by any thread or date stones (lying around), he picked them up and threw them in people's yards so that they may find use for them. (4)

Hadhrat Hasan reports that when Hadhrat Umar See was Khalifah, he was once delivering a lecture wearing a lower garment that had twelve patches. (5) Hadhrat Anas See says, "When Hadhrat Umar See was the Ameerul Mu'mineen, I once saw that his garment had three patches between the shoulders, one overlapping on to the other." (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Wiss reports, "The food that Hadhrat Umar took (from the Baytul Maal) was only what was absolutely necessary for his family and for himself. He also received a set of clothing for the summer.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.320). Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhah Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.404).

⁽²⁾ Razeen, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.168).

⁽³⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.203). Ibn Mubaarak has also reported the narration from one of Hadhrat Umar Spaces a governors, as quoted in Muntakhah Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.402).

⁽⁴⁾ Deenowri and Ibn Asaakir.

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, Hannaad, Ibn Jareer and Abu Nu'aym, as guoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.405).

⁽⁶⁾ Maalik, as quoted in Targheeh wat Tarheeh (Vol.3 Pg.396).

There were times when his lower garment would tear but he would keep patching it up without taking another until the time came for him to receive another. Whenever the Baytul Maal received more funds, I noticed that (rather than having something better) his clothing appeared worse than those he wore the previous year. When (his daughter) Hafsah where spoke to him about this, he replied, 'I receive my clothing from the money of the Muslims and this suffices for me.m(1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem reports that the daily allowance Hadhrat Umar Greenward from the Baytul Maal for his and his family's needs was only two Dirhams. (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan

His Clothing and Food and Sleeping on a Straw Mat in the Masjid

Hadhrat Abdul Malik bin Shaddaad says that he once saw Hadhrat Uthmaan on the pulpit on a Friday wearing a thick lower garment sewn in Aden that was worth no more than four or five Dirhams. His upper garment was made of a reddish brown Kufi material. (3)

When Hadhrat Hasan was asked about the people who slept in the Masjid in the afternoons, he replied, "During his period as Khalifah, I saw Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Siese) sleep in the Masjid in the afternoon. When he then got up, the imprint of the straw mat was visible on his side. The people then used to say (out of astonishment), 'That is the Ameerul Mu'mineen!' [4]

Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Muslim says that although Hadhrat Uthmaan wie used to feed people the sumptuous meals of a ruler, he would eat (simple) vinegar and olive oil at home.

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib

His Food

A man from the Thaqeef tribe says, "Hadhrat Ali says appointed me as governor of a place called Ukbara. It was a place in rural Iraq where no Muslims lived. Hadhrat Ali says told me to meet him the following day at the time of Zuhr. When I went to him, I found no doorman to prevent me from entering and saw him sitting down with a jug and a glass of water. When he asked for a bag to be brought to him, I thought, 'Perhaps he trusts me so much that he is going to

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.+11).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa', as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.411).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.60).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.60). Ahmad has also reported the narration, as quoted in Sifatus Safwa (Vol.1 Pg.116).

give me a precious jewel'. I had no idea what was in the bag. It was sealed and when he broke the seal, I was surprised to find that there was barley flour inside. He took some out of the bag, put it in a cup and then poured water into it. He drank the mixture and also gave me drink. Unable to contain myself, I said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You are having this in Iraq, when Iraq has foods much better than this?' He replied, 'By Allaah! I do not have these bags sealed because of stinginess. The reason (for sealing them) is that I buy exactly how much I need (from Madinah) and fear that it should not deplete (by spilling) because I would then have to cook something else (from Iraq). This is my way of looking after it because I do like anything but pure foods to enter my belly."

Hadhrat A'mash reports that although Hadhrat Ali wie used to feed people well at lunches and dinners, he only are food brought for him from Madinah. (1)

His statement when he was Served some Faalooda

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Shareek reports form his grandfather that some Faalooda⁽²⁾ was once served to Hadhrat Ali (Addressing the Faalooda, Hadhra

His clothing

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that Hadhrat Ali (##### once came before them wearing a shawl and lower garment tied (to his waist) with a strip of cloth. When someone commented on this, Hadhrat Ali (###### said, "I am wearing this because it keeps pride away, it is convenient for performing salaah and so that it may become a common practice amongst the Mu'mineen." (4)

It is reported that Hadhrat Ali (1996) wore a lower garment made of coarse cloth. He once said, "I bought this garment for five Dirhams and will sell it to anyone who gives me a profit of one Dirham." (5)

He Sells his Sword to Buy a Garment

Hadhrat Mujammi bin Sam'aan Taymi narrates that Hadhrat Ali word once took his sword to the marketplace and announced, "Who will buy this sword from me? I would never have sold it if I had four Dirhams to buy myself a lower garment." (6) Hadhrat Saalih bin Abil Aswad reports from someone else that he once saw Hadhrat Ali world in donkey with both his legs hanging on one side as he said, "It is I who holds the world in contempt." (7)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.82).

⁽²⁾ A sweet drink used as a dessert,

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.81), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Imaam Ahmad has reported a similar narration in his Zawaa'id, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.58).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.S Pg.58).

⁽⁵⁾ Bayhaqi, Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.58).

⁽⁶⁾ Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.8 Pg.3)

⁽⁷⁾ Baghawi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.8 Pg.5).

His Statement about How Much of Public Funds are Permissible for the Khalifah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Razeen reports that they once went to meet Hadhrat Ali on the occasion of Eidul Adha. Hadhrat Ali served them a dish prepared with cubes of meat and bran. We remarked, "May Allaah always keep you well! It would have been better if you had fed us duck because Allaah has given plenty." Hadhrat Ali servelied, "O Ibn Razeen! I heard Rasulullaah say, 'It is not permissible for a Khalifah to take anything from Allaah's money (public funds) besides two dishes. One for himself and his family and the other to place before people."

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah

The Narration of Hadhrat Urwa

Hadhrat Urwa see reports that when Hadhrat Umar see once went to see Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah see, he found him lying down on a saddle blanket, using the animal's satchel as a pillow. Hadhrat Umar said, "Why have you not adopted that (luxuries) which your companions have adopted?" Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah see replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is sufficient to take me to the grave." In his narration, Hadhrat Ma'mar narrates that when Hadhrat Umar see arrived in Shaam, the common people as well as the leaders came to meet him. "Where is my brother?" Hadhrat Umar see asked. "Who is he?" the people enquired. "Abu Ubaydah," Hadhrat Umar see came, Hadhrat Umar see descended from his animal and embraced him. Hadhrat Umar then went to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah see saw nothing there but his sword, his shield and his conveyance. The rest of the narration is similar to the one above. (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr (1986)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ali and the Statement of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ali Sass, "One winter morning I left home extremely hungry with the cold almost killing me. There was a piece of undyed leather at home which was still smelly. I cut it to put my head through and tied it to my chest to ward off the cold. By Allaah, there was nothing at home that I could eat and had there been any food in Rasulullaah Sassas house, some of if it would have definitely (I) Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nilhaayah (Vol.8 Pg.3).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.101). Ahmad has reported the narration, as quoted in Sifatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.143). Ibn Mubaarak has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.253).

reached me. As I was walking in one end of Madinah, I peeped through a hole in the wall of an orchard where I saw a Jew standing in his orchard. He said, 'What is the problem, O Bedouin? Are you prepared to earn a date for every bucket of water you draw from the well?' 'Certainly,' I replied, 'open the gate.' I entered the orchard after he opened the gate and started drawing water. He gave me a date for every bucket I drew until my hand was full of dates. I then said, 'That is enough for now.' I ate the dates and then put my mouth to a stream of water to drink.

Thereafter, I arrived before Rasulullaah who was sitting in the Masjid with a group of Sahabah was. It was then that Mus'ab bin Umayr appeared wearing a patched shawl. Rasulullaah mentioned the opulence that Mus'ab was used to (before becoming a Muslim) and seeing his condition (at the time), Rasulullaah we's eyes filled with tears and he started weeping. Rasulullaah then said, what will be your condition when that time comes when one of you would be wearing an outfit in the mornings and then another in the evenings, and your homes will be adorned like the covering of the Kabah?' We replied, 'In that time, we shall be in a better position because we will have others to do the hard work for us while we free ourselves for Ibaadah.' 'No,' said Rasulullaah we's, 'You are better off today than you would be during those days."

The Hardships Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr Endured after Becoming a Muslim

Hadhrat Umar speed narrates that Rasulullaah for once saw Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr speed approach wrapped in a sheepskin. Rasulullaah for remarked, "Look at that man whose heart Allaah has illuminated. I saw him at a time when in the care of his parents they would give him the best of foods and drinks. I also saw him wearing an outfit that was bought for two hundred Dirhams. It was then the love for Allaah and the love for Allaah's Rasool that called him to the situation that you now see." (2)

Hadhrat Zubayr reports that Rasulullaah was oncesitting with a group of Sahabah reports in Quba when Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr reports arrived wearing a shawl that could hardly cover his body. The Sahabah reports lowered their heads and when he reached them and greeted with Salaam, they replied to his greeting. Rasulullaah had only good words to say about him and praised him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "I had seen this man with his parents in Makkah when they showered their love and favours on him. There was not a youngster from all of the Quraysh as fortunate as he was. He then left all of that (opulence) in search of Allaah's pleasure and to assist the Deen of Allaah and

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi, Abu Ya'la and Ibn Rahway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.321). Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.314) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.395). Hasan bin Sufyaan Abu. Abdur Rahmaan Sulami and Haakim have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.86), as had Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.108).

Allaah's Rasool . Behold! In a short period of time, Allaah shall grant you conquests over Persia and Rome. (You will then have so much wealth that) There will be those amongst you who will wear an outfit in the mornings and another in the evenings and a platter of food will be served to you in the mornings and again in the evenings." The Sahabah . asked, "O Rasulullaah . Are we in a better position today or in those days?" Rasulullaah . Feplied, "You are certainly better off today as you will be during those days. Take note! If you knew about this world what I know, you would never be at ease with it." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Khabdab states that all that Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr field left behind (after his death) was a sheet (so small) that (when it was used as a burial shroud, it) would leave his feet exposed, when his head was covered and his head exposed when his feet were covered. Rasuluilaah then instructed the Sahabah states to cover his head with the sheet and his feet with idhkhir grass. (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon

His Clothing

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon once entered the Masjid wearing a striped shawl that he patched with a piece of leather because it tore. Seeing his pitiable condition Rasulullaah started weeping and the Sahaban started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying of Rasulullaah started weeping upon the crying and another in the evening. As one platter of food would be placed before him, another will be taken away and you will be decorating your homes as the Kabah is adorned." The Sahabah started weeping of the weeping

His Demise

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Feports that after Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Feboral had passed away, Rasulullaah Feorem to him and bent over him as if advising htm. Rasulullaah Feorem then raised his head and signs of crying could be noticed from his eyes. Rasulullaah Feorem then bent over (the corpse) again and when he raised his head, he was weeping. Thereafter, Rasulullaah Feorem to over him for the third time and when he raised his head this time, he was sobbing profusely. The Sahabah Feorem then understood that Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Feorem had certainly passed away and they all started to weep.

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.628).

⁽²⁾ Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.421).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 105).

"Stop," said Rasulullaah ("This is from Shaytaan, so repent to Allaah." Addressing Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon (Rasulullaah (then said, "O Abu Saa'ib! do not grieve, for you have left this world without taking anything of it with you." (1)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah (2) said, "May Allaah shower His mercy on you, O Uthmaan! Neither have you taken from this world nor has it taken from you." (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi

His Statement when he was Forced to eat More

Hadhrat Atiyya bin Aamir says that he once saw Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi being forced to eat more. He said, "That is enough for me, That is enough for me because I heard Rasulullaah sas say, 'Those who are most full in this world shall be most hungry in the Aakhirah. O Salmaan! This world is but a prison for the Mu'min and paradise for the Kaafir." (3)

His Abstinence as Governor

Hadhrat Hasan reports that the allowance Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi with received was five thousand Dirhams and he was governor of approximately thirty thousand Muslims. However, he still delivered lectures to the people wrapping a part of his robe over himself while spreading the other part on the ground to sit upon. He always spent the allowance (on others) whenever he received it and would subsist on the income he received from the baskets he weaved from the fibres of palm leaves. (4)

The Incident between him and Hadhrat Hudhayfah Concerning Building a Room

Hadhrat A'mash reports that he heard the incident from people that Hadhrat Hudhayfah sonce said to Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi so, "O Abu Abdullaah! Should I not build a room for you?" Hadhrat Salmaan so did not like this. Hadhrat Hudhayfah so then added, "Hang on until I explain. I intend building you a room that when you lie down, your head touches one end and your feet the other. Furthermore, when you stand up, your head hits the roof." Hadhrat Salmaan commented, "It appears as if you live in my heart (you know exactly what I want)." (5)

Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.303) has commented on the chain of narrators, Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.105) and Ibn Abdul Birr in his Isti'aab (Vol.3 Pg.87) have also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 106).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.198). Askari has reported a similar narration in his-Amthaal, as quoted in Kanzul Ummiaal (Vol.7 Pg.45).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 197). 1bn Sa'd (Vol. 4 Pg. 62) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.202).

Another Incident in this Regard

Hadhrat Maalik bin Anas narrates that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi what had no room (from which to administer public affairs). He would sit in the shade (of a tree) and move wherever the shadow moved. Someone one day offered, "Should I not build a room for you which you may have shade from the heat and have shelter from the cold?" When Hadhrat Salmaan was agreed and the man was leaving, Hadhrat Salmaan was called to him saying, "How will you build this room?" The man replied, "I shall build it so that your head touches the roof when you stand and your feet touch the wall when you lie down." "Exactly," replied Hadhrat Salmaan with the color of the wall when you lie down."

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ghifaari

While Living in Rabdha

Hadhrat Abu Asmaa reports that he once visited Hadhrat Abu Dharr who was then staying in Rabdha. With Hadhrat Abu Dharr at the time was an unattractive black woman with disheveled hair, who wore no perfume at all. Hadhrat Abu Dharr said said, "Will you not look at this little woman?! She is telling me to go to (live in) Iraq. However, I know well that when I go there, the people will bring to me all their worldly possessions whereas my good friend Rasulullaah said had informed me that before the bridge of Siraat is an extremely slippery path. We would be able to pass it more easily when our loads are light and compact than when we are burdened with heavy loads." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Khiraash reports that he once saw Hadhrat Abu Dharr sitting in the shade in Rabdha. He was sitting on a piece of coarse sack cloth with his wife who was a black woman. (In pity) Someone said to him, "You have no surviving children." Hadhrat Abu Dharr sizes replied, "All praises are for Allaah Who has taken them from this temporary world and kept them as a treasure for us in the everlasting world." When someone then suggested that he get himself another wife, he said, "I prefer marrying a wife who is a cause for humility developing in me rather than one who is a cause of pride developing." "Why do you rather not use a mat that is softer than this one?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr sizes responded by praying, "O Allaah! Forgive me. Take from me as many bounties as You please." (3)

His Food

Hadhrat Ibraheem Taymi reports from his father that someone once suggested to Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Sizes) that he should become a land owner like some other person was doing. Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Sizes) replied, "Why should I become a rich man? Sufficient for me every day is my drink of water or milk and the Qaleez 1) of wheat in Fridays."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.63)

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.93). Abu Nu'aym in his Hillya (Vol.1 Pg.161) has also reported the narration, as has Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.174)

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.160). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.331) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Dharr (See Said, "During the time of Rasulullaah (See, I subsisted on a Saa and I shall never increase this until I meet Allaah." (2)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ஆக்கு

He Forsakes Trade to Engage in Ibaadah

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sass says, "I had been a trader before Rasulullaah sannounced his Nabuwaat. After Rasulullaah sannounced that he was a Rasul, I tried combining my trade with Ibaadah but was unable to do so. I therefore gave up trade and devoted my attention to Ibaadah." (3)

The Reason for his Abstinence

A narration similar to the one above adds that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Abu Dardaa! Even today I would not like to have a shop at the door of the Masjid that without missing a single salaah with Jamaa'ah, gives me a profit of forty Dinaars all of which I spend in the path of Allaah." "Why would you not like that, O Abu Dardaa?" someone asked. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa sies replied, "Because of the intensity of reckoning." (4)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Missi said, "It gives me no pleasure to stand on the step of the Masjid, buying and selling to earn a profit of three hundred Dinaars without missing a single salaah in the Masjid. I am not saying that Allaah has made trade impermissible and has not made interest Haraam, but I wish to be amongst those people whom neither trade nor commerce distracts from the Dhikr of Allaah (5). (6)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Hudayr Aslami narrates, "I once met Hadhrat Abu Dardaa woollen lying on a bedding made of leather or wool. He was covered with a woollen blanket and his shoes were even woollen. He happened to be ill that day and was perspiring profusely. I said, 'If you wished, you could cover your bedding with the thin cloth and yourself with the Saffron coloured shawl that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had sent to you.' He replied, 'We have a permanent abode (the Aakhirah) towards which we are heading and for which we carry out our deeds (it is therefore best to give our wealth to the poor so that it may benefit us in the Aakhirah) "

Another narration from Hadhrat Hasaan bin Atiyya states that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Single had a few friends whom he would entertain as his guests and

⁽¹⁾ A unit of weight that has varying specifications in the various Arab countries.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg. 162).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.367) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hiljø (Vol. 1 Pg.209). Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg.149).

⁽⁵⁾ Here he is referring to verse 37 of Surah Noor.

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.209).

who entertained him. (Because of a shortage of bedding) Some of them (when they spent the night at his home) slept on saddle blankets while others had to sleep on the garments they were wearing. When Hadhrat Abu Dardaa went to them early the next morning, he sensed their feelings (disappointment with his inadequate arrangements). He then said to them, "We have another abode (the Aakhirah) for which we carry out our deeds (and for which we are making preparations)." (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b reports that when some people stayed as guests with Hadhrat Abu Dardaa www on a very cold night, he sent hot food for them but did not send any blankets. One of them remarked, "He has sent food for us but it gives us no joy with this cold (for we have nothing to keep us warm). I shall have to go to tell him about this." Although the others tried to dissuade him, he insisted on going. When he arrived at Hadhrat Abu Dardaa & door, he saw Hadhrat Abu Dardaa sitting down with his wife whose clothing was not even worth mentioning (because they were so inadequate for the cold). As he was returning, the man said, "I suppose that you will also be spending the night just as we will (without anything to cover ourselves)." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa will be going to. We have an abode that we will be going to. We have therefore sent our bedding and our blankets there (by giving them away as Sadagah). If I had anything with me, I would have definitely sent it for you. We have a steep valley ahead of us that is extremely difficult to climb. The one who travels light there shall be better off than the one who is heavily laden. Do you understand what I am telling you?" "I certainly do," the man replied. (2)

The Incident between him and Hadhrat Umar

The narration has already passed in the chapter entitled "Condemning Rulers who Live Lives Above the Standards of the Common People" (3) that when Hadhrat Umar Sizes pushed open the door (of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sizes home), he found that it had no lock. The two men entered the dark room and Hadhrat Umar Sizes had to feel his way around until he found Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sizes, when Hadhrat Umar Sizes felt the pillow of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sizes, he found that it was made from the blanket used on animals. When he felt the ground, there was only sand and when he felt the clothing of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sizes, he discovered that it was a flimsy shawl.

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ("Who is this? Is it the Ameerul Mu'mineen?" When Hadhrat Umar ("Good confirmed that he was the Ameerul Mu'mineen, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ("You are late. We had been waiting for you all year." Hadhrat Umar ("May Allaah have mercy on you. Have I not granted you sufficient wealth? Have I not given you plenty?" Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ("O Umar! Doyounotremembera Hadiththat Rasulullaah ("E" mentioned

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.222).

⁽²⁾ Sifatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.263).

⁽³⁾ Under the subheading "The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar (1986) and a group of Sahabah to us?" "Which Hadith?" asked Hadhrat Umar (Fig.). Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Fig.) (The Hadith in which Rasulullaah (Fig.) (The limit of a person's possessions in this world should be like the provisions of a traveller." "Oh yes (I have heard the Hadith)" confirmed Hadhrat Umar (Fig.). Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Fig.) (The two Sahabah (Fig.) (The two

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa 🏭 🌃

The Incident with Hadhrat Umar Concerning his Attire

Hadhrat Aflah the freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob marrates that Hadhrat Umar was used to have a set of exclusive clothing made for the veterans of Badr. When he sent such a set to Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa mass, Hadhrat Mu'aadh was told Hadhrat Aflah to sell it. When Hadhrat Aflah sold it for one thousand five hundred Dirhams, Hadhrat Mu'aadh missi instructed him to purchase some slaves with the money. Hadhrat Afla managed to buy five slaves. Hadhrat Mu'aadh was then said, "By Aflaah! Any man who prefers wearing two sheets of cloth to setting five slaves free is certainly most foolish." He then set all the slaves free.

When Hadhrat Umar when heard that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa who did not wear the clothing he sent to him, he had a crude set of clothing made for him that cost a hundred Dirhams. When the messenger brought the clothing to him, Hadhrat Mu'aadh was said, "I do not think that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had sent you to give that to me." When the messenger swore that he had been sent to him, Hadhrat Mu'aadh was took the outfit and went to Hadhrat Umar was. He then asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Have you sent this outfit for me?" Hadhrat Umar word replied, "Yes. We had sent to you an outfit that we had made for you and your brethren but subsequently heard that you did not wear it (and therefore sent you this simple clothing)." Hadhrat Mu'aadh was said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Even though I do not wear such clothing, I would still like to receive the best of that which you receive." Hadhrat Umar then gave him the same type of (good) clothing (as he had been giving before). (1)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Jalaaj Ghitfaani

His Abstinence from Eating to his Fill after Accepting Islaam

Hadhrat Jalaaj Sasses says, "Since the time I accepted Islaam at the hands of Rasulullaah Sass, I have never filled my belly. I eat only what is sufficient to (1) Umar bin Shabba, as quoted in Sifatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.188).

sustain me." A narration of Bayhaqi states that he lived to a ripe old age of one hundred and twenty years, fifty years during the Period of Ignorance and seventy years as a Muslim. $^{(1)}$

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

His Life

Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdullaah bin Umar says that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar had plenty of food, he would never eat to his fill after he had found someone to share it with him. Hadhrat ibn Mutee once came to visit him. Seeing that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says body had become very frail, he said to (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says wife) Hadhrat Safiyya says, "Do you not look after him? Why do you not prepare good food for him so that his body could return to him?" She replied, "That is exactly what we do. However, he leaves out no family person and no other person who comes to him without inviting them to eat with him (they then eat and he does not). You speak to him about it."

Hadhrat Ibn Mutee then said (to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar $300), "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Why do not eat so that your body could return to you?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar $3000 replied, "For the past eighty years I have never once eaten to my fill (or he said, "I have only once eaten to my fill"). Now you want me to fill my belly when all that remains of my life is like the thirst of a donkey (only a few moments)?" (2)

Hadhrat Umar bin Hamza bin Abdullaah bin Umar reports that he was once sitting with his father when a man passed by. He (Hadhrat Hamza) asked, "Tell me what you were saying to (my father) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar that day when I saw you speaking to him at Jurf." The man replied, "I said, 'O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Your body has become frail, your age has advanced and those attending your gatherings neither acknowledge your rights nor your position (because of which they tire you by keeping you engaged for extended periods of time). Why do you not instruct your wife to prepare some especially good food for you when you return home. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar angrily replied, "Shame on you! By Allaah! I have never eaten to my fill for not only eleven years, twelve years, thirteen years or fourteen years (but for eighty years). I have not done so even once. Why should I do so now when all that remains of my life is like the thirst of a donkey (only a few moments)?" (3)

His Statement when he was Presented with 'Jawaarish'

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Adi who was a freed slave of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tatheeb (Vol.3 Pg.423), Abul Abbaas Sarraaj in his Taareekh and Khateeb in his Muttafaq have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.328), 1bn Asaakir has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaäl (Vol.7 Pg.86).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.298).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.298).

Umar Sizes reports that he once returned from Iraq and went to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sizes. After greeting him, he said, "I have brought you a gift." "What is it?" asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sizes. "Jawaarish," was the reply. "What is Jawaarish?" enquired Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sizes. He Ubaydullaah explained, "It aids the digestion of food." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sizes remarked, "What will I do with it when I have never filled my belly for the past forty years?" (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen narrates that someone once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Though the Sanata Should prepare some Jawaarish for you?" "What is this Jawaarish?" enquired Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Though the man replied, "It is a preparation that aids digestion when you have eaten too much and feel bloated." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("I have never eaten to my fill for the past four months. This is not because I cannot find any food to eat. However, I have lived with people (Rasulullaah ("I have never eaten to my fill for the past four months.") and the Sahabah ("I have lived with people (Rasulullaah ("I have never eaten to my fill for the past four months.") and the Sahabah ("I have lived with people (Rasulullaah ("I have never eaten to my fill for the past four months.")

His Abstinence After the Demise of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1966) once said, "Since the time Rasulullaah (1966) was taken away, I have never laid a brick upon a brick (never built anything) and never planted a single date palm." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir will and Suddi

Hadhrat Jaabir Saws, "Besides Abdullaah bin Umar Saws, there was none amongst us who received worldly wealth without the world turning towards him and he being inclined towards it." (4)

Hadhrat Suddi says, "I have seen a large group of Sahabah (1966) who felt that besides Abdullaah bin Umar (1966), none of them remained in the same condition in which Rasulullaah (1966) left them." (5)

The Abstinence of Hadhrat Hudayfah bin Yamaan ﷺ

Hadhrat Saa'idah bin Sa'd bin Hudayfah narrates that Hadhrat Hudayfah sused to say, "No day is more comforting and more pleasing to me than the day I return to my family to find that they have no food and are saying, 'We have been unable to get anything to eat.' This is because I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'More than the family of a sick person prevents him from (harmful) food, Allaah prevents a Mu'min from the wealth of this world. This is because Allaah cares more to safeguard the Mu'min from hardship than a father cares to safeguard his own son."(6)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.300).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.300) ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.110) has also reported the narration in brief.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.303). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.125) has also reported the narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Sa'eed A'raabi, reporting from reliable sources.

⁽⁵⁾ Abul Abbaas Sarraaj in his Taareekh, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. Z Pg. 347).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.277). Tabraani has reported a similar narration but Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.275) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Rebuking and Advising Caution to those who Do Not Abstain from Worldly Luxuries and Who Indulge themselves

Rebuking Hadhrat Aa'isha (1996) for eating Twice in a Day

Hadhrat Aa'isha (1936) says, "Rasulullaah (1936) once saw that I had eaten (full meals) twice during a single day and said, 'O Aa'isha! Are you not interested in any activity besides your stomach? Eating twice during one day is extravagance and Allaah does not like the extravagant ones."(1)

The Parting Advice Rasulullaah gave to Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "I was sitting and weeping by the side of Rasulullaah si (at his deathbed) when he said, 'What makes you weep? If you wish to meet with me (in the Aakhirah), you should suffice in this world with the mere provisions of a traveller and should never mix with the affluent."(2)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah added, "Never replace your clothing until you have patched them (and can wear them no more)." (3) A narration from Hadhrat Urwa states that Hadhrat Aa'isha least never got new clothing until she had patched her (old) clothing (to the extent) that some patches overlapped others. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya states once sent her eighty thousand Dirhams but by the evening there was not a single Dirham left with her (she spent it all on the poor). Her servant asked, "Why did you not use a Dirham from it to buy us some meat?" Hadhrat Aa'isha state, "I would have done so had you reminded me about it." (4)

The Advice Rasulullaah gave to Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah

Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah says that he once ate Thareed prepared with fatty meat because of which he was belching as he went to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah said, "Please do not belch in front of us, O Abu Juhayfah. Remember that those who fill themselves most in this world shall suffer the most hunger on the Day of Qiyaamah." Thereafter, Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah said in never ate to his fill until the day he left this world. Whenever he ate during the mornings, he would not eat in the evenings and whenever he ate in the evenings, he would not eat in the mornings. (5)

- (1) Bayhadi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.423).
- (2) Ibnul A'raabi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.150).
- (3) Tirmidhi, Haakim and Bayhaqi.
- (4) Razeen, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.126).
- (5) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.31) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Abdul Birr has reported a similar narration in his Istl'aab (Vol.4 Pg.37). Bazzaar has also reported the narration but Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.323) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has also

The Incident Between Rasulullaah : and a man with a Large Stomach

Hadhrat Ja'da (Street) narrates that Rasulullaah (Street) once saw a man with a large stomach. Sticking his finger into the man's stomach, Rasulullaah (Steet) would have been best for you if this (food) was in another (poor person's) stomach."

Hadhrat Umar Rebukes Hadhrat Jaabir for Buying Meat for his Family

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed reports that Hadhrat Umar wow once saw Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah with a man who was carrying some meat for him. Hadhrat Umar with Said, "Does none of you ever desire to keep himself hungry for the sake of his neighbour or cousin? Where has the verse of the Qur'aan left you in which Allaah says:

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore have nothing for yourselves here)". {Surah Ahqaaf, yerse 20}^{2}

In another narration, Hadhrat Jaabir ("I'mar bin Khattaab ("I'mar bin Khattaab ("I'mar bin Khattaab ("I'mar bin kh Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar size narrates that Hadhrat Umar size once saw a Dirham in the hand of Hadhrat Jaabir size. "What is that Dirham for?" asked Hadhrat Umar size. Hadhrat Jaabir size replied, "I intend to use it to purchase some meat for my family since they were craving for some." Hadhrat Umar size remarked, "Will you always buy something merely because you crave for it? Where has the verse of the Qur'aan left you in which Allaah says:

"You have used up your good things in your worldly life (and therefore reported a similar narration in his Hilya (Vol.7 Pg.256) without the addition of the concluding words "Thereafter, Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah $2500 never ate...".

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani: Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.13) says that according to a narration of Ahmad, it was Rasulullaah 震響 who saw the man in a dream. Haythami has also commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Maalik, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.424).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.424). (bn jareer has also reported a longer narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.407).

have nothing for yourselves here) ". (Surah Angaaf, verse 20)(1)

Hadhrat Umar Rebuked his Son Abdullaah when he sees Meat with him

Hadhrat Hasan we're reports that Hadhrat Umar we're once went to his son Abdullaah we're house at a time when he was eating some meat. "Why are you eating this meat?" Hadhrat Abdullaah we're replied, "I was craving for some." Hadhrat Umar we're rebuked him saying, "Will you always buy something merely because you crave for it? It is enough to classify a person as extravagant for him to eat whatever he craves for." (2)

The Advice Hadhrat Umar gave to Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jubayr reports that the news reached Hadhrat Omar that Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan at evarious types of meats. Hadhrat Umar then said to his slave Yarfa, "Let me know when his evening meal is served to him." When the meal was served to Hadhrat Yazeed to Hadhrat Yazeed Hadhrat Umar to Hadhrat Umar to Hadhrat Umar to Hadhrat Yazeed to Grered with Salaam and sought permission to enter. He entered when permission was granted and Hadhrat Yazeed figure offered Hadhrat Umar to his dinner. When Thareed and meat were served, Hadhrat Umar to his dinner. When Thareed and meat were served, Hadhrat Umar took some while Hadhrat Umar took some while Hadhrat Umar took some while Hadhrat Umar took some while Hadhrat Umar took then exclaimed, "Allaah! Are you eating a meal after a meal, O Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan? I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Umar! If you oppose the lifestyle of Rasulullaah to highest echelons of Jannah)." (3)

Hadhrat Umar Criticises the world Before the Sahabah

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Umar (which once passed by a rubbish dump and stopped there. When his companions felt disgusted (at the sight and stench), Hadhrat Umar (which is said, "This is your world that you aspire for (or he said, "This is your world that you rely upon")."(4)

The Letter Hadhrat Uman Wood Wrote to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Wood when he Built a Tall Building

Hadhrat Salma bin Kulthoom reports that when Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (1996) built a tall building in Damascus, the news reached Hadhrat Umar (1996) in Madinah, Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Abd bin Humayd, Ibnui Mundhir, Haakim Abu Dawood Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 406).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, Ahmad in his Zuhd, Askari in his Mawaa'idh and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 401).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.401).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg.47).

Hadhrat Umar William wrote to him saying:

"O little builder, the son of the little builder's mother! Are the buildings of the Persians and Romans not sufficient for you that you had to go and build so many new buildings? O companions of Muhammad  You are an example to others (others will emulate your examples)." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Raashid bin Sa'd states that when the news reached Hadhrat Umar states that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa states had built porches (at house entrances) in Hims, he wrote to him saying:

"O little builder! Were the worldly decorations built by the Romans and Perslans not sufficient for you? (How can you be doing this) When Allaah has commanded that these things be destroyed (that you should be simple)?" (2)

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Umar

"Were the worldly decorations and renovations built by the Romans and Persians not sufficient for you? (How can you be doing this) When Allaah has announced that these things should be destroyed? As soon as this letter reaches you, you should move from Hims to Damascus."

Hadhrat Sufyaan says that this instruction was a form of punishment. (3)

The Letter Hadhrat Umar Wow Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Woo to Demolish the Double Storey Building of Hadhrat Khaarijah bin Hudhaafah

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Habeeb reports that Hadhrat Khaarija bin Hudhaafah was the first person to build a double storey building in Egypt. When he received news of this, Hadhrat Umar words the following letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas words (the governor of Egypt):

"Peace be on you.

The news has reached me that Khaarijah bin Hudhaafah has built a double storey building. (By doing this) Khaarijah will be spying on his neighbours. You should therefore demolish the house as soon as this letter reaches you, Inshaa Allaah.

Peace be on you." (4)

Hadhrat Ummu Talq American and the Instruction of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah Roomi narrates that he once entered the house of Hadhrat Ummu Talq (2006). Noticing that the roof of her house was extremely low, he asked, "O Ummu Talq! Why is your roof so low?" "Dear son," she replied, "Umar

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, Hannaad and Baybaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 62).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.7 Pg.305).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abdul Hakam, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg. 63).

bin Khattaab $\mbox{$\stackrel{\smile}{=}$}\mbox{$\stackrel{\smile}{=}$$

The Letter Hadhrat Umar Will Wrote to Hadhrat Sa'd Will when he Sought Permission to Build a House

Hadhrat Sufyaan bin Uyayna reports that when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas was governor of Kufa, he wrote to Hadhrat Umar word, seeking permission to build himself a house. Hadhrat Umar wrote in reply, "Build only what is necessary to shield you from the sun and give you shelter from the rain because this world is only a place to make do with."

Hadhrat Umar sizes also wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas sizes the governor of Egypt saying, "Treat your subjects as you would like a governor to treat you." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Rebukes a Man who Built with Baked Bricks

Hadhrat Sufyan reports that the news reached Hadhrat Umar (with a man used baked bricks to build. Hadhrat Umar (with Said, "I had no idea that there will be people like Fir'oun in this Ummah because it was Fir'oun who said:

O Haamaan! Kindle for me a fire on sand (bake bricks for me), then construct a (high) tower for me. (Surah Qasas, verse 38) (3)

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari Rebukes Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar For Decorations on the Walls when his Son got Married

Hadhrat Saalim the son of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "I got married during the lifetime of my father. Amongst the people that my father invited was Abu Ayyoob says. The walls of my room were covered with green curtains (as decorations). When Abu Ayyoob says entered, he lowered his head (to scrutinise the wall) and discovered that they were indeed covered. He said, 'O Abdullaah! You people cover your walls?' my father was embarrassed and said, 'Our women have overpowered us, O Abu Ayyoob.' Abu Ayyoob says remarked, 'I feared that others may be overpowered by their women, but I never had the fear of you being overpowered by them, I shall neither enter your house nor eat your food." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Bukhaari in his Adab, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.63).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya and Deenowri, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.406)

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.7 Pg.304).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Voi. 8 Pg.63).

The Parting Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Salmaan

Hadhrat Salmaan Feports that he once went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr See and asked for some advice. Hadhrat Abu Bakr See said, "Fear Allaah, O Salmaan! You should know that there will be many conquests. Your share from it should be only that (food) which you need for your stomach and that (clothing) which you need to cover yourself. You should also know that whoever performs his five salaahs is in the protection of Allaah in the mornings and in the evenings. You should also never kill anyone in Allaah's protection because you will then be breaching the security of Allaah because of which Allaah will throw you headlong into Jahannam." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Hasan states that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi specifies visited Hadhrat Abu Bakr specifies on his deathbed and asked, "Do give me some advice, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah specifies". Hadhrat Abu Bakr specifies said, "Allaah shall open up the world to you so none of you should ever take more than what he needs just to get along," (2)

The Parting Words Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨寧 spoke to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 墨寧

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was once visited Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, on his deathbed and greeted him with Salaam. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Although it has not yet arrived, I can see worldly wealth approaching. It will however arrive and you people will then have curtains of silk and cushions of velvet. You will then (be so used to luxury that you will) experience difficulty using the woollen beddings of Azerbaijan, feeling as if you are lying on the thorns of the Su'daan tree, By Allaah! For one of you to be brought forward and executed is better for him than swimming in the intoxication of this world. (3)

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Rebukes his Companions about their Lack of Abstinence and his Narration Concerning the Abstinence of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ali bin Rabaah narrates that he once heard Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas say, "You people spend the morning and the evenings hankering after that which Rasulullaah abstained from. You have started hankering after the world when Rasulullaah stayed away from it. By Allaah! Not a night passed Rasulullaah in his entire life without his debts exceeding his dues." Some of the Sahabah stayed in his entire life without his debts exceeding his dues." Some of the Sahabah

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.137), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.233).

⁽²⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.146).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.34). Tabraani has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 劉國德, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.362).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 166).

Another narration states that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas said, "Never did three days pass Rasulullaah is in his entire life without his debts exceeding his dues." (1)

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ("How far are your lifestyles to that of your Nabi ("How far was most abstinent from the world, you people are most desirous of it." (2)

What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sissis said to his Son who asked him for a New Garment

Hadhrat Maymoon reports that when one of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sims's sons asked him for new lower garment, claiming that his was torn, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sims said, "Cut your garment (off from where it is torn) and then wear the rest." When (he noticed that) the youngster did not like the response, he said, "Shame on you! Do not be one of those people who spend everything that Allaah provides for them on their bellies (on food) and backs (on clothing)." (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Dharr (1986) and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (1986)

Hadhrat Thaabit reports that Hadhrat Abu Dharr (See once passed by Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (See who was busy building a house for himself. Hadhrat Abu Dharr (See remarked, "You are loading large boulders on people's necks." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (See explained, "Lam having a house built." When Hadhrat Abu Dharr (See repeated his remark, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Dear brother! It appears as if you are upset with me for this." Hadhrat Abu Dharr (See replied, "Had I passed you when you were lending to the faeces of your family, it would have been more pleasing to me than what I am now seeing." (4)

What Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to his Daughter Hadhrat Aa'isha when he saw her Wearing New Clothes

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Siess' says, "I once wore a new upper garment of mine and was very taken aback by it as I looked at it. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (What are you looking at? Allaah is not looking at you (with affection).' Why not?' I asked. He replied, 'Don't you know that when self-adoration enters a servant because of worldly beauty, Allaah detests the person until the beauty is lost (and the self-adoration with it).' I then took off the garment and gave it away as Sadaqah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (When said, 'That shall perhaps atone for you.'"(5)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim and Ibn Hibboan.

⁽²⁾ Ah, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.315). Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Najjaar have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzui Uminaal (Vol.2 Pg.148).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.301).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg 163).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.37):

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and a son of his who was About to Pass Away

Hadhrat Habeeb bin Hamzah says that when death came to one of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sissis sons, the youngster kept looking at the pillow. After he has passed away, the people informed Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sissis that they noticed his son looking towards the pillow. When the people lifted the corpse off the pillow, they noticed five or six Dinaars beneath it. Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sissis hit one hand on to the other saying, "innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! I do not think that your skin will be able to withstand (the punishment for not spending in Sadaqah) those Dinaars." (1)

What Hadhrat Ammaar sizes said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood sizes when he called him to See the House he Had Built

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hudhay' reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was built his house, he said to Hadhrat Ammaar ween. "Come and have a look at what I have built." Hadhrat Ammaar ween went with him but when he saw the house, he said, "You have built a sturdy structure and have long hopes (of living there for a long time) yet your death is very near." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri when Invited for a Waleema

Hadhrat Ataa narrates that he was once with Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri stress when he was invited for a Waleema. When Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri stress saw a variety of dishes, he remarked, "Do you not know that if Rasulullaah stress in the mornings, he would not have dinner and if he ate dinner, he would not have meals in the mornings?" (3)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym în his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.37).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.142)

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.3 Pg.323). Abu Nu'aym has commented on the chain of narrators.

Chapter Nine

The Chapter About How the Sahabah Relinquished their Carnal Desires

This chapter highlights how the Sahabah some relinquished the instinctive feelings they had for their parents, their children, their brothers, their spouses, their families, their wealth, their businesses and their homes so that they could cling to the love of Allaah, the love of Rasulullaah some and the love of every Muslim attached to Allaah and Rasulullaah some The chapter also highlights how honoured every person who had been attached to Rasulullaah some in any way

Severing Ties with the Period of Ignorance to Strengthen Ties with Islaam

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Kills his Father During the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Ibn Showdhab reports that the father of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 氢磷酸 kept confronting him during the Battle of Badr as Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 氢磷酸 continued avoiding him. However, when his father 's confrontations became too persistent, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 氢磷酸 killed him. It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse:

﴿ لَا تَجِدُ قَوْمًا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْأَحِرِ يُوَآدُونَ مَنْ حَآدَّ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولَهُ وَلَوْ كَانُواْ الْآءَ هُمْ أَوْ اَبْنَاءَ هُمْ اَوْ إِخْوَانَهُمْ اَوْ عَشِيْرَتَهُمْ " أُولَلِكَ كَتَبَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الْإِيْمَانَ وَآبَدَهُمْ بِرُوحٍ مِنْهُ " وَيُدْخِلُهُمْ جَنْبٍ تَجْرِيْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهُو خَلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا " رَضِيَ اللّهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ " أُولَيْكَ حِزْبُ اللّهِ " آلَا آنَّ حِزْبَ اللّهِ هُمُ الْمُقْلِحُونَ ۞ ﴾

(سورة مجادله آیت ۲۲)

You will not find people who believe in Allaah and the Last Day befriending those who oppose Allaah and His Rasool (### even though they (those who oppose Allaah and Rasulullaah (####) are their fathers, their sons, their brothers or their families. These (Mu'mineen who disassociate from their relatives who oppose Allaah and Rasulullaah (25) are the people in whose hearts Allaah has written (entrenched) Imaan and whom Allaah assists with His mercy. Allaah shall enter them into gardens beneath which rivers flow where they shall live forever. Allaah is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. They are the group of Allaah. Behold! The group of Allaah shall be the only successful ones. (Surah Mujaadalah, verse 22) (1)

The Incident of Two Sahabah (with their fathers

Hadhrat Maalik bin Umayr who had seen the Period of Ignorance reports that a man came to Rasulullaah and said, "Amongst the enemy I encountered my lather. When he uttered ugly words of blasphemy against you, I was unable to control myself and killed him with a thrust of my spear." Rasulullaah remained silent. Thereafter, another man arrived and said, "When I confronted my father in battle, I left him, hoping that someone else should rather kill him." This time Rasulullaah again remained silent. (2)

The Son of Abdullaah bin Ubay Seeks Permission to Execute his Father

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah sizes narrates that Rasulullaah see once passed by Abdullaah bin Ubay who was sitting on the shade of a fortress. Abdullaah bin Ubay passed a remark saying, "The son of Ibn Kabshah⁽³⁾ has thrown dirt on our faces." Abdullaah bin Ubay's son Hadhrat Abdullaah see then said, "O Rasulullaah see I swear by the Being Who has given you honour that if you wish, I shall bring my father's head to you (after executing him)." Rasulullaah replied, "No. You should rather continue treating your father well and being good to him." (4)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah (1996) the son of Abdullaah bin Ubay says that when he requested permission from Rasulullaah (1996) to execute his father, Rasulullaah (1996) told him not to. (15)

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Aasim bin Umar bin Qataadah states that Hadhrat Abdullaah (Sies) the son of Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool once came to Rasulullaah (Sies) and said, "O Rasulullaah (Sies) The news has reached me that you intend having Abdullaah bin Ubay executed because of what you have heard about him. If you are really going to do so, give me the instruction and I

Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.101). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.27) and Haakim have reported a similar narration but Bayhaqi has commented on the chain of narrators. Tabraani has reported a similar narration from reliable sources, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.253).

⁽²⁾ Bayhagi (Vol.9 Pg.27). Bayhagi has also commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Kabshah was the name of either Rasululiaah (2005) maternal grandfather or the title of his. wet-nurse Hadhrat Haleema (2006) family. Rasulullaah (2006) was therefore sometimes called (1bn Ab) Kabshah' (the son of Ab) Kabshah'.

⁽⁴⁾ Bazaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.318).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani.

shall bring his head to you. By Allaah! All of the Khazraj tribe know well that there is none amongst them who honours their father more than I do. I fear that if you give the instruction to another person and he kills my father, my carnal self will not allow me to see my father's executioner walk freely amongst the people. I may then kill him, as a result of which I shall enter Jahannam for killing a Mu'min for the life of a Kaafir." Rasulullaah  replied, "(Instead of executing him) We shall rather be lenient with him and continue treating him well as long as he remains with us." (1)

Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid Sissi narrates that when Rasulullaah returned from the military offensive against the Banu Mustaliq tribe, Hadhrat Abdullaah Sissi the son of Abdullaah bin Ubay stood up and drew his sword before his father saying, "I swear by Allaah. That I shall not sheath my sword until you say, "Muhammad Sissi is honourable while we are low." (2) Abdullaah bin Ubay then said, "Shame on you! Muhammad Sissi is honourable while we are low." When Rasulullaah Sissi was informed of this, he was pleased and approved of the act. (3) Hadhrat Urwa Sissi reports that Hadhrat Handhala Sissi the son of Abu Aamir and Hadhrat Abdullaah Sissi the son of Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool both sought permission from Rasulullaah Sissi to execute their fathers but Rasulullaah

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and his Son Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan during the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (The Son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (The Son once said to his father, "When I saw you during the Battle of Uhud, I avoided you." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (The Son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Al Aas (Concerning the Death of his Father

It is reported by Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah and other scholars proficient in the knowledge of the various battles Rasufullaah (2006) fought, state that Hadhrat

- (1) Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg. 158).
- (2) This was after Abdullaah bin Ubay made the statement that Rasulullaah www was low and they were honourable. See the commentary of Surah Munaafigoon (Surah 63) for details.
- (3) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.318) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (4) Ibn Shaaheen, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. I Pg. 361).
- (5) Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.274). Haakim has reported a similar narration.
- (6) Haakim. Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.186) has reported a similar natration.

Umar saked, "It seems to me that you are upset with me because you think that I had killed your father. Had I killed him, I would not have made any excuses for it because I killed my own maternal uncle Aas bin Hishaam bin Mughiera. Nevertheless, the truth is that when I passed by your father (on the battlefield) he was (lying down wounded and) hitting his head on the ground as a bull hits its horns on the ground. I then steered away from him and it was his cousin Ali who headed for him and killed him. (1) Another narration adds that Hadhrat Sa'eed said, "Even if you killed him, it was you who was on the truth while he was on falsehood." This statement greatly pleased Hadhrat Umar said. (2)

Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah (See Saw his Father's Body being Dragged to the Well After the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Aa'isha sisha narrates that according to the instructions of Rasulullaah had the bodies of the Mushrikeen killed during the Battle of Badr were dragged to a (unused) well and thrown into it. Rasulullaah sish then stood beside the well and said, "O people of this well! Have you found the promise of your Rabb (punishment) to be true? I have indeed found the promise of my Rabb (victory) to be true." The Sahabah sish asked, "O Rasulullaah sish Are you addressing dead people?" Rasulullaah sish replied, "They now know well that the promise of their Rabb is true."

Rasulullaah for noticed an expression of gloom on the face of Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah for as he saw the body of his father Utba being dragged to the well. "O Abu Hudhayfah!" Rasulullaah for called out, "It seems that you dislike what you are seeing?" Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah for replied, "O Rasulullaah for Because my father was a leader of his people, I hoped that his Rabb would guide him to Islaam. However, it depressed me to see how he has fallen (without becoming a Muslim)." Rasulullaah for Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah for Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Zinaad states that when Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah (Fig. 6) fought in the Battle of Badr, he called his father Utba to challenge him to a duel. This narration also quotes the couplets that his sister Hind bin Utba (Fig. 6) recited about the incident.

The Incident of Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr and his Brother who was Taken Captive during the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Nubay bin Wahab Subs from the Banu Abdud Daar tribe reports that

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Hishaam, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg 290).

⁽²⁾ Isti'aab and Isaabah.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.296). Haakim has reported a similar narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi. Ibn Is'haaq has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.294).

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.223). Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.186) has reported a similar narration.

when Rasulullaah arrived with the captives from the Battle of Badr, they distributed them amongst the Sahabah saying, "I emphatically command you to treat them well." Amongst the prisoners was Abu Azeez bin Umayr bin Hishaam, the real brother of Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr Says, "When I was captured by one of the Ansaar, my brother Mus'ab bin Umayr says passed by. He said to the Ansaar, "Tie both his hands well because his mother is very wealthy and she will pay a large ransom for him.' I was with a group of Ansaar when we returned from the battle. Whenever the morning and afternoon meals were served, they gave me the bread and ate dates only because of the instruction of Rasulullaah says to treat us (prisoners) well. Whenever any of them happened to receive any bread, he would ensure that he gave it to me. When I returned it to him out of embarrassment, he would give it back without even touching it."

Hadhrat Abu Yasar Wasar Wasar who captured Hadhrat Abu Azeez Wasar After Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Dmayr Wasar had told Hadhrat Abu Yasar what he did (about tying both hands well), Hadhrat Abu Azeez Wasar said, "Dear brother! Is this the advice you give him about me (your own brother)?" Hadhrat Mus'ab Wasar replied, "He (Hadhrat Abu Yasar Wasar) is my brother and not you." When Hadhrat Abu Azeez Wasar's mother enquired what the highest ransom was that anyone from the Quraysh had paid, she was informed that it was four thousand Dirhams. She then sent four thousand Dirhams and ransomed her son. (1)

Hadhrat Ayyoob bin Nu'maan narrates that during the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Abu Azeez bin Umayr, the real brother of Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr was also captured (by the Muslims). He was placed in the custody of Hadhrat Muhriz bin Nadhla was. Hadhrat Mus'ab was said to Hadhrat Muhriz hin Nadhla was the hadhrat Mus'ab was said to Hadhrat Muhriz was, "Tie both his hands well because he has a very wealthy mother in Makkah (who will pay a large ransom for him)." Hadhrat Abu Azeez was said, "Is that your advice concerning me, dear brother?" Hadhrat Mus'ab was replied, "Muhriz is my brother and not you." Hadhrat Abu Azeez was mother then sent four thousand Dirhams (as ransom for her son). [2]

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan and his Daughter Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah

Hadhrat Zuhri reports that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan some came to Madinah (before accepting Islaam) to meet Rasulullaah some at a time when Rasulullaah had intended to go to war with the people of Makkah. Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan spoke to Rasulullaah some about extending the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah (which the people of Makkah had already breached) but Rasulullaah some refused to do so. He then left Rasulullaah some and went to see his daughter Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.307).

⁽²⁾ Waaqidi, as quoted in Nasbur Ra'ya (Vol.3 Pg.403).

Ummu Habeebah (the wife of Rasulullaah). As he was gong to sit on Rasulullaah (Fis bedding, Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah (The quickly rolled it up. "Dear daughter!" Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (Fis exclaimed, "Am I not worthy of this bedding or is it not worthy of the likes of me?" Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah (Fis explied, "This is Rasulullaah (Fis bedding and (you are unfit to sit on it because) you are an impure Mushrik." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (Fis eresponded by saying, "Dear daughter! You have really changed for the worse since leaving us." (1) Another narration states that

Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah (2006) added, "I would not like you to sit on his bedding." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Concerning a Sparrow and its Fledglings

Hadhrat Abul Ahwas narrates, "We once visited Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood as he was with his three sons, who appeared (radiant) like three gold coins. As we looked at the three boys, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood understood our feelings and said, 'It seems like you envy me because of these boys?' We replied, 'It is because of such things that a person is truly the envy of all.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood then looked up to the low ceiling of his house where a sparrow had built a nest. He said, 'I prefer dusting off from my hands the sand from the graves of these boys rather than a single egg falling and breaking from that sparrow's nest."

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan states that he used to sit in the company of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was in Kufa. He further says that at that time, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was married to two beautiful women of high birth and had the most beautiful children from them. As he was sitting on a raised place, a sparrow started chirping from above and then emptied its belly on Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was. As he wiped the mess off, he said, "I prefer that the family of Abdullaah die and I follow them in death rather than this sparrow dving." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar About the Prisoners from Badr

The narration has already passed (4) concerning the statement that Hadhrat Umar made about what should be done with the prisoners from the Battle of Badr. He said, "I swear by Aliaah that I do not share the opinion of Abu Bakr. I strongly feel that you should hand so-and-so (a relative of Hadhrat Umar sweet) over to me for execution, that you hand Ageel over to Ali for execution and that

^{(1) 1}bn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.70).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg. 280).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 133).

⁽⁴⁾ In the chapter entitled "Consulting with knowledgeable People", under the heading "Rasulullaah 經濟 Consults with the Sahabah 經濟 and the subheading "Rasulullaah 經濟 Consults with the Sahabah 經濟 Concerning the Caravan of Abu Sulyaan and Concerning the Prisoners Taken at Badr".

you hand over to Hamza his brother (Abbaas (Abbaas) so that he could execute him. In this manner, Allaah would know that we have no inclination towards the Mushrikeen in our hearts because these men are their leaders and the most influential people they have."

Many incidents have also passed about how the Ansaar severed the ties they had with people during the Period of Ignorance⁽¹⁾

The Love that the Sahabah 經驗 had for Rasulullaah 經緣

The Love that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh had for Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr said. "O Nabi of Allaah self Should we not build you a structure for shade so that you could stay there and your conveyance could stay in readiness with you. We shall then fight the enemy and if Allaah grants us honour and victory over them, it would be what we want. However, if the contrary occurs, you could mount your conveyance and join up with those who have remained behind (in Madinah). Many people have remained behind who love you no less than we do and who would have never stayed behind had they known that we were going to fight a battle. Allaah shall then use them to protect you because they are your well wishers and will fight by your side." Rasulullaah spraised this gesture of Hadhrat Sa'd said and prayed for him. The structure was then erected for Rasulullaah (2)

The Incident of the Love a Sahabi Expressed for Rasulullaah E and the verse Revealed in this Regard

Hadhrat Aa'isha see narrates that a man came to Rasulullaah see and said, "O Rasulullaah see! I love you more than my own self and more than my children. When I am in my house and think of you, I have no peace until I come to see you. Now that I think of my death and yours, I realise that you will be elevated amongst those occupying the highest positions in Jannah and I fear that I will never get to see you when I get to Jannah. Rasulullaah see gave no reply until Hadhrat Jibra'eel

Those who obey Allaah and the Rasool (will be (in the Aakhirah) with those Ambiyaa (those who received divine revelation), ⁽¹⁾ In the Chapter about the Ansaar and under the heading "flow the Ansaar Severed the Ties they had During the Period of ignorance to Strengthen the "fles of Islaam".

(2) Ibn Is haaq, as quoted in Al Bidasyah wan Nihasyah (Vol.3 Pg. 268).

"Siddeeqeen" (1), martyrs (those prepared to die for Allaah and for Rasulullaah (1) and righteous ones (those who purify their bodies and souls) on whom Allaah has bestowed His bounties. These are indeed the best of companions. (Although all these people may not necessarily share the same stages of Jannah, they will be able to meet each other frequently.) (Surah Nisaa, verse 69)⁽²⁾

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas states that a man once approached Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying! I love you so much that whenever I think of you, I feel that I would die if I do not come to see you. It now occurs to me that I would be on a level lower than yours when I enter Jannah (and will be unable to see you). This grieves me terribly and I therefore wish to be on the same level as you." Rasulullaah say gave no reply until Allaah revealed the verse:

﴿ وَمَن يُطِعِ اللَّهَ وَالرَّسُولَ فَاوُلَهِكَ مَعَ الَّذِيْنَ الْغَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنَ النَّبِيِّنَ وَالصِّدِيْفِيْنَ وَالشَّهَذَاءِ وَالصَّلِحِيْنَ ۗ وَحَسُنَ أُولَهِكَ رَفِيْقًا ۞ (سورة نساء آيت ٦٩)

Those who obey Allaah and the Rasool will be (in the Aakhirah) with those Ambiyaa, "Siddeeqeen", martyrs and righteous ones on whom Allaah has bestowed His bounties. These are indeed the best of companions. {Surah Nisaa, verse 69}

Rasulullaah (### then called for the Sahabi (#### and recited the verse to him. (3)

The Incident of the Sahabi whose Preparation for the Day of Qiyaamah was His Love for Allaah and Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas Sie narrates that a man once asked Rasulullaah when Qiyaamah will take place. "What have you prepared for the Day of Qiyaamah?" asked Rasulullaah sie. The Sahabi Sie replied, "Nothing besides the love for Allaah and His Rasool sie "Rasulullaah sie told him, "(On the Day of Qiyaamah) You shall be with those whom you love." Hadhrat Anas sie says, "Nothing made us as happy as the statement of Rasulullaah sie: You shall be with those whom you love'. I love Rasulullaah sie, Abu Bakr sie and Umar Sie Because of this love I bear for them, I hope to be with them." (4)

Another narration of Bukhaari states that a man from the desert once came to Rasulullaah 繼續 and asked, "When will Qiyaamah take place?" "What!" exclaimed Rasulullaah 繼續, "What preparations have you made for it?" The man replied, "I

⁽¹⁾ This title is reserved for people who are extremely true in their beliefs. It is therefore used for people who were closest to the Ambiyaa and who accepted the message of the Ambiyaa without hesitation.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.7) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.240) with commentary on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.7) has commented on the chain of narrators.
(4) Bukhaari and Muslim.

have made no preparations for it apart from the fact that I love Allaah and His Rasool ... Rasulullaah ... said, "You shall be with those whom you love." Hadhrat Anas ... asked, "Does this apply to us as well?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah ... Hadhrat Anas ... says, "That day we were extremely overjoyed."

A narration of Tirmidhi quotes that Hadhrat Anas said. "While I have seen the companions of Rasulullaah for rejoice about many things, I have never seen them rejoice more than the time when a man came and asked, "O Rasulullaah for loves another for doing a good deed that he is unable do (will this benefit him)?" Rasulullaah for replied, "A man shall be (in the Aakhirah) with those whom he loves."

The Statement of Rasulullaah : "You, O Abu Dharr, shall be with Those whom you love"

Hadhral Abu Dharr (What will be the outcome of) A man who loves a group of people but is unable to carry out the deeds they carry out?" Rasulullaah replied, "You, O Abu Dharr, shall be with those whom you love." Hadhral Abu Dharr (I love Allaah and His Rasool (F.") "You shall therefore be with those whom you love." Rasulullaah (F. assured him. When Hadhral Abu Dharr (F. assured him when Hadhral Abu Dharr (F. assured him when Hadhral Abu Dharr (F. assured him when Hadhral Abu Dharr (F. assured him when Hadhral Abu Dharr (F. assured him when Hadhral Abu Dharr (F. assured him words, Rasulullaah (F. assured him when Hadhral Abu Dharr (F. assured him words, Rasulullaah (F. assured him when Hadhral Abu Dharr (F. assured him words, Rasulullaah (F. assured him when had said.)

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali with Rasulullaah www.when he was Experiencing Extreme Hunger

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas sign reports that the news once reached Hadhrat Ali 墨寧寧 that Rasulullaah 澤寧 was experiencing severe hunger. Hadhrat Ali therefore left home to look for some work by which he could earn something to alleviate the plight of Rasulullaah 22. When he entered the orchard of a Jewish man, the man asked him to draw seventeen buckets of water from the well for a price of one date for every bucket drawn. The Jew then allowed Hadhrat Ali (to choose what type of dates he wanted and Hadhrat Ali 墨岡區 chose seventeen Ajwah dates. When Hadhrat Ali 墨岡區 brought the dates, Rasulullaah @ asked, "Where did you get this from, Abu Hasan?" Hadhrat Ali 国际的 replied, "O Nabi of Allaah 是是! When I heard about your hunger, I went out to look for a job to get you this food." "Was it the love of Allaah and for His Rasool & that motivated you to do this?" Rasulullaah & asked, "It certainly was," came the reply, Rasulullaah & then said, "Whenever a servant of Allaah loves Allaah and His Rasool Wie, poverty comes to him faster than water flowing downstream. The person who loves Allaah and His Rasool should prepare a shield (of patience and abstinence) against tribulations." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 4 Pg. 429, 431, 433).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 3 Pg.321).

The Incident of Hadhrat Ka'b bin Ujrah

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Ujrah 劉陽陽 narrates that he once went to Rasulullaah 經濟 and found that his face had become extremely pale. "May my parents be sacrificed for you! What is that matter that I see your face so pale?" he asked. Rasulullaah & replied. "Nothing that can enter the belly of any living creature has entered my belly for three days." Hadhral Ka'b with then left and found a Jewish man watering his camel. He watered the camel for the man with the understanding that he would earn a date for every bucket drawn. When he had collected several dates, he took them to Rasulullaah 經濟 who asked where he got them. After Hadhrat Ka'b (1986) explained the incident, Rasulullaah (1986) asked, "Do you have love for me, Ka'b?" "May my father be sacrificed for you!" Hadhrat Ka'b 到底 responded, "Of course I do." Rasulullaah 認識 then told him, "Poverty runs to a person who loves me faster than water returning to its source. In addition to this, tribulations will certainly come your way, so prepare a shield (of patience and abstinence) for it." Rasulullaah 經歷 later did not see Hadhrat Ka'b 過過過 and asked the Sahabah where he was. When they informed Rasulullaah was that he was ill. Rasulullaah walked to his house. When Rasulullaah we entered the house, he said, "Good news for you, O Ka'b!" Hadhrat Ka'b (1986)'s mother then said, "Glad tidings of Jannah for you, Ka'b!" "Who is this lady who swears in Allaah's name?" asked Rasulullaah (25%). "She is my mother, O Rasulullaah (25%)." replied Hadhrat Ka'b (1986). Rasulullaah (1986) then said, "How can you be sure, O Ummu Ka'b? Perhaps Ka'b spoke something useless and refused to give (to a needy person) something that he did not need?" (1)

The Love that Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa had for Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Husayn bin Wahwah Ansaari Freports that when Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa Freports met Rasulullaah Freports that when Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa Freports met Rasulullaah Freports that when Hadhrat Talha Freports that when Hadhrat Talha Freports that when Hadhrat Talha Freports met Gasulullaah Freports that when Hadhrat Talha Freports that when Hadhrat Talha Freports was still a young boy. "Then go and kill your father," Rasulullaah Freports that when Hadhrat Talha Freports that when Hadhrat Talha Freports that when Hadhrat Talha

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.314) and Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.153). Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.320). This narration quotes that Rasululiaah 經濟 Said, "Perhaps Ka'b spoke something useless or refused to give (to a needy person) something that he did not need?"

Rasulullaah And not yet reached the area of the Banu Saalim bin Auf tribe when Hadhrat Talha Spassed away. However, by then the night had already enveloped him. Amongst other things that Hadhrat Talha spassed told his family was, "Bury me and allow me to meet my Rabb but do not call Rasulullaah because I fear that the Jews may cause him some harm as he comes here." Rasulullaah was therefore informed about his death only in the morning. Rasulullaah came to his grave and stood there as the people stood on rows with him. He then raised his hands and prayed, "O Allaah! You be smilling when you meet Talha and let him be smilling as well." (1)

Hadhrat Talha bin Miskeen narrates that Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa sing came to Rasulullaah and said, "Stretch out your hand so that I may pledge my allegiance to you." "Even if I command you to sever ties with your parents?" Rasulullaah asked. "No," replied Hadhrat Talha sing again came to Rasulullaah asking him to stretch out his hand. "To what do you want to pledge allegiance?" asked Rasulullaah ."To Islaam," replied Hadhrat Talha sing. "Even if I command you to sever ties with your parents?" Rasulullaah saked. "No," replied Hadhrat Talha sing.

Hadhrat Talha size then approached Rasulullaah for the third time with the same request. He had only a mother and was most dutiful towards her. This time Rasulullaah size said to him, "O Talha! Severing of family ties has no place in our religion. All I wished to do (by asking you if you would severe ties with your parents) was to ensure that there were no doubts in your Deen." Hadhrat Talha size then accepted Islaam and was an excellent Muslim.

When he fell ill one day, Rasulullaah will visited him and found him unconscious. Rasulullaah will said, "I do not think that Talha will survive the night. Do send for me as soon as he regains consciousness." When Hadhrat Talha will survive the night. Do send for me as soon as he regains consciousness." When Hadhrat Talha will did regain consciousness late at night, he asked, "Has Rasulullaah will did come and told about what Rasulullaah will said, Hadhrat Talha will said, "Do not send for him at this hour for he must not be stung (by a reptile) or suffer some other harm. However, after I die, do pass my Salaams to him and request him to seek forgiveness on my behalf." After Rasulullaah had led the Fajr salaah, he enquired about Hadhrat Talha will and was informed that he had passed away. Rasulullaah kit then raised his hands and prayed, "O Allaah! You be smilling when you meet Talha and let him be smilling as well." (2)

The Love that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa Had for Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Zuhri reports that someone once complained to Rasulullaah was that

- (1) Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.50). Baghawi, the Abi Khaythama, Ibn Abi Aasim, Ibn Shaaheen and Ibn Sakan have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaahah (Vol.2 Pg.227). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.365) states that Abu Dawood has reported a part of the narration without commenting on the chain of narrators. He says that the chain should therefore be sound. Inshaa Aliaah.
- (2) Yabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.365) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibnus Sakan has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.227).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa signing joked a lot and spoke many useless things. Rasulullaah signing said, "Leave him alone because he has a heart that loves Allaah and His Rasool signing."(1)

The Statement of Rasulullaah when the Corpse of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Dhul Bijaadayn was Carried

Hadhrat Adra Sies narrates that he was guarding Rasulullaah one night when he heard someone reciting Qur'aan in a loud voice. When Rasulullaah came out, he said "O Rasulullaah sie! That person is showing off." "That man," Rasulullaah bin Dhul Bijaadayn sies abdullaah bin Dhul Bijaadayn passed away in Madinah and after burial preparations were made and the body was carried, Rasulullaah se said, "Be gentle with him as Allaah is gentle with him because he had great love for Allaah and His Rasool se" when Rasulullaah se came to the grave (which was being dug), he said, "Widen it for him as Allaah's mercy has been widened for him." One of the Sahabah saked, "O Rasulullaah se you seem very depressed about his death?" Rasulullaah se replied, "Because he loved Allaah and his Rasool se "(2)

The Incidents of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sies, Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana Sies and Hadhrat Khubayb bin Adi

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Sa'd reports, "I was once with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when his leg cramped. What is wrong with your leg?' I asked. 'The muscles have cramped from here to here,' he replied. I said, 'Then take the name of the person most beloved to you (so that Allaah should cure it thereby).' He then took the name of Muhammad and was able to stretch his leg." (3)

The incident has already passed reporting the time when Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana was brought for execution and Abu Sufyaan said to him, "O Zaid! I ask you to swear by Allaah whether you wish that Muhammad was here with us in your place to have his head severed while you could be with your family." Hadhrat Zaid was replied, "I swear by Allaah that I would not even like a thorn to prick Muhammad where he is while I am sitting with my family." Abu Sufyaan said, "I have never seen people love anyone as much as the companions of Muhammad we loved Muhammad ."

The story of Hadhrat Khubayb (Singles) has also passed narrating the incident about the time when the Mushrikeen asked him to swear by Allaah whether he preferred to have Rasulullaah is in his place (in exchange for his own freedom). Hadhrat Khubayb is replied, "Never! I swear by the Exalted Allaah that I would not even accept a thorn pricking the foot of Rasulullaah is as ransom for my life." Both these incidents have been quoted in the chapter entitled "The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah is to Die and Give their Lives in the path of Allaah"(1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.223).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Maajah, Baghawi, Ibn Mandah and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.224) With commentary on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.154).

The Sahabah Prefer the Pleasure of Rasulullaah F to their Own Pleasure

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Suiss) Weeps when his Father Embraces Islaam because of his Keenness for Abu Taalib to Accept Islaam.

In the narration discussing how Hadhrat Abu Quhaafah (the father of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (the father of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (the father of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (the father of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (the father of Hadhrat Abu Quhaafah (the father) stretched out his hands to piedge allegiance to Rasulullaah (the father hadhrat Abu Bakr (the father of Father) what makes you cry?" Rasulullaah (the father hadhrat Abu Bakr (the father of Father) would have been more pleasing for me to see the hand of your uncle (Abu Taalib) in the place of my father's hand and him accepting Islaam instead so that Allaah could please you in that manner." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar led had had on the day that Makkah was conquered, Hadhrat Abu Bakr led his aged and blind father Hadhrat Abu Quhaafah led to Rasulullaah (to accept Islaam). Rasulullaah led said, "Why did you not leave the old man in his house and let me go to him?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr led replied, "I wanted him to be rewarded for it. O Rasulullaah led! Had your uncle Abu Taalib accepted Islaam, it would have made me happier then my father's embracing Islaam because your happiness is all I wish to see." Rasulullaah led replied, "You are true (in your words because this is really what you feel)." (3)

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Abbaas (1996)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar The narrates that amongst the captives of the Battle of Badr was Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib The Ansaar captured him and the other Ansaar threatened to kill him. Because this news reached Rasulullaah He hasaar threatened to sleep last night because the Ansaar have said that they would kill my uncle Abbaas." "Should I go to the Ansaar (and fetch Hadhrat Abbaas ""Hadhrat Umar "Should I go to the Rasulullaah Hadhrat Abbaas" "Never," responded the Ansaar, "we swear by Allaah that we shall never release him." "Even if it pleases Rasulullaah He hadhrat Umar The

⁽¹⁾ Under the subheading "During the Battle of Rajee".

⁽²⁾ Umar bin Shabba, Abu Ya'la and Abu Bishr Simway in his Fawaa'id. Haakim has reported a similar narration from reliable sources as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg. 116).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani and Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg. 174) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1966) narrates that Hadhrat Umar (1966) once said to Hadhrat Abbaas (1966), "Accept Islaam, O Abbaas. I swear by Allaah that your accepting Islaam would please me more than (my father) Khattaab accepting Islaam. I am saying this only because I know that Rasulullaah (1966) would like you to be amongst the early ones to accept Islaam."

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that when Hadhrat Abbaas was pressurising Hadhrat Umar to for something, he said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Tell me. How would you treat the uncle of Moosa Will if he came to you as a Muslim?" "By Allaah!" exclaimed Hadhrat Umar (30%), "I would certainly treat him well." "Well," remarked Hadhrat Abbaas ($1566), "I am the uncle of Muhammad the Nabi 經濟." Hadhrat Umar 空间的 then said, "What do you think, O Abu Fadhl (do you think that I have no regard for you)? I swear by Allaah that your father is more beloved to me than my own father." "Really, do you swear by Allaah?" Hadhrat Abbaas staggered. "Really," replied Hadhrat Umar sines, "and that is because I know that Rasulullaah liked your father more than my father, I shall give preference to what Rasulullaah we liked over that which I like." (3) Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ali narrates that Hadhrat Abbaas will once approached Hadhrat Umar Stages saying, "Rasulullaah & had apportioned the land of Bahrain for me." "Who else knows about this?" asked Hadhrat Umar 当场。"Mughiera bin Shu'ba does," replied Hadhrat Abbaas 出版的. Hadhrat Abbaas then brought Hadhrat Mughiera who testified on his behalf. However, Hadhrat Umar & did not pass judgement in Hadhrat Abbaas Subsis favour, apparently not accepting his evidence. Hadhrat Abbaas then said some harsh words to Hadhrat Umar (1966), upon which Hadhrat Umar 经通常 said (to Hadhrat Abbaas 经通常 son), "O Abdullaah! Take your father's hand. O Abul Fadhl (Hadhrat Abbaas 劉德語's title) I swear by Allaah. that I was happier by your accepting Islaam than if (my father) Khattaab had accepted Islaam because this pleased Rasulullaah (28."(4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Soos About those Who Passed Away in Madinah

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Sass says, "When Rasulullaah sass just arrived in Madinah, it was our practice to inform him whenever a person was about to pass away. Rasulullaah sass would then present himself and seek forgiveness on

⁽I) Ibn Mardway and Haakim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.298).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg.69).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.20).

^{(4) (}bn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg. 14).

behalf of the person. He and those with him would leave only after the person passed away and would sometimes also remain until after the burial. This would often delay Rasulullaah because it kept him back. When we sensed this inconvenience to Rasulullaah only after a person passes away so that it would not be inconvenient for him nor keep him back. This was then what we did. We informed Rasulullaah after the person's death and he would lead the (Janaazah) salaah and seek forgiveness for the person. There were times when he would leave after this (the salaah) while at other times, he would remain behind until after the burial. This practice continued for awhile, after which the people said, 'By Allaah! We ought not to bother Rasulullaah and should rather carry the deceased to Rasulullaah so house and then call for him to lead the salaah near his house. This would be more convenient and easier for Rasulullaah salaah near his house. This would be more convenient and easier for Rasulullaah this people sala. This was then what we used to do."

Hadhrat Umar bin Muhammad says that it was from that time that the place was called "Mowda'ul Janaa'iz" (the place for biers), because it was to this place that the biers were carried. It was from those times to this day that the practice continued of people carrying the funeral biers to this place and performing the salaah there. (1)

The Affection Hadhrat Umar had for Rasulullaah Faatima because Rasulullaah Loved her

Hadhrat Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar (1986) once went to Hadhrat Faatima (1986) the daughter of Rasulullaah (1986) and said, (1986) Faatima (1986) have never seen anyone that Rasulullaah (1986) loved more than you. By Allaah! After your father, there is none dearer to me than yourself, (1986)

Honouring and Respecting Rasulullaah

The Respect the Sahabah Showed by Not Raising their Gazes in Front of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas were reports that when Rasulullaah were went to the Sahabah as they were sitting with Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and Hadhrat Umar would lift his gaze. It was only the two of them who would look at him and he would look at them. They would smile with him and he would smile at them. (This was because Hadhrat Abu Bakr with him and Hadhrat Umar were close enough to act informally with Rasulullaah (25).

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.) Pg.257)

⁽²⁾ Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ommaal (Vol.7 Pg.111).

⁽³⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Shifaa by Qaadhi Ayaadh (Vol.2 Pg.23).

The Manner in Which the Sahabah sat Around Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Usaama bin Shareek says, "We were sitting around Rasulullaah as if there were birds perched on our backs with no one uttering a word. Some people then arrived and asked, 'Which of Allaah bondsmen are most beloved to Him?' Rasulullaah see replied, 'Those whose character is the best." (1) Another narration states (hat Hadhrat Usaama bin Shareek said, "I once came to Rasulullaah see while his companions sat around him (so still) as if there were birds perched on their backs." (2)

The Awe that Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib Felt for Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib Susses says, "I once wanted to ask Rasulullaah Sussessabout something but delayed asking for two years because of the awe I felt for him." (3)

The Sahabah Seek Blessings from the Water left over from Rasulullaah Sy Wudhu and from his Saliva

Hadhrat Zuhri reports, "Someone whose dependability is unquestionable mentioned to me that whenever Rasulullaah and wudhu or spat, the Sahabah would race to get his saliva (and leftover wudhu water) to rub it on their faces and bodies. "Why do you do this?" asked Rasulullaah ."Because we seek blessings from it," came the reply. Rasulullaah then, "Whoever Ioves to be loved by Allaah and by His Rasool should always speak the truth, return trusts and should never harm his neighbour." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood Concerning the Respect the Sahabah had for Rasulullaah

The narration of Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah (See and Marwaan concerning the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah as reported in Bukhaari and other books has already passed (5). This narration states that (as he was negotiating with Rasulullaah (See) Hadhrat Urwa (See) Started observing the Sahabah (See) very closely. He says, "By Allaah! Even when Rasulullaah (See) would spit, someone would catch it and rub it on his face and body. Whenever he issued any

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani and Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 4 Pg. 187).

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Tarjumaanus Sunnah (Vol. 1 Pg.367).

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Tarjumaanus Sunnah (Vol.1 Pg.370).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.228).

⁽⁵⁾ In the chapter entitled "Incidents about the Character and Actions of Rasulullaah Wife that Inspired People to Accept Islaam" and the subheadings "The Incident of the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah" and "Unva bin Mas'ood's Meeting with Rasulullaah Wife".

command the Sahabah (Sie would immediately carry it out and when he made wudhu, they get close to fighting with each other to get the water falling off his limbs. They always lower their voices when speaking to him and do not look him in the eye out of respect for him."

Urwa then returned to his people and said to them, "O people! I have been to the royal courts of Caesars, Kisras and Najaashi. I have never seen the followers of any ruler so devoted to him as the followers of Muhammad (25% are to him.

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Haarith Concerning the Sahabah Seeking Blessings from the Leftover Wudhu Water and Saliva of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Quraad Sulami says, "We were with Rasulullaah when he asked for some water. (When it was brought) Rasulullaah dipped his hand in the water and started performing wudhu. As the water dripped off (his limbs), we drank it up. 'What makes you do this?' Rasulullaah was asked. We replied, 'It is the love for Allaah and His Rasool (that makes us do this).' Rasulullaah then said, 'If you want Allaah and His Rasool to love you, you should return something placed in your trust, always speak the truth and behave politely towards the neighbours in your vicinity."(1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Drinks the Blood of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aamír the son of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr reports from his father that he once approached Rasulullaah as as Rasulullaah was having his blood cupped. When the cupping was complete, Rasulullaah said, "O Abdullaah! Take this blood and throw it where no one sees you." However, when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr said, left Rasulullaah his, he took the blood and drank it up. After returning, Rasulullaah asked him what he had done with the blood and he replied, "I have placed it in a most hidden place where I am sure that no one would know about it." "Did you perhaps drink it?" Rasulullaah enquired. When he admitted that he did, Rasulullaah said, "Why did you drink the blood? Destruction shall come to people from you and destruction shall come to you from people (here Rasulullaah was referring to the strife that took place during the time of Marwaan and Abdul Malik)." Hadhrat Abu Moosa reports from Hadhrat Abu Aasim that according to popular opinion, the phenomenal strength that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr shad came from this blood. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.271) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la and Bayhaqi in his Dalaa'il, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.310). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.554) and Tabraani have reported a similar narration. Tabraani and Bazzaar have also reported a similar narration but Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.270) has commented on Bazaar's chain of natrators, ibn Asaakir has reported the narration with the closing comment about the strength of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 學經濟, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.57).

Hadhrat Kaysaan who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr reports that when Hadhrat Salmaan some once came to Rasulullaah 響影, he noticed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 多碳酸 drinking something from a plate he had with him. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was came before Rasulullaah & Rasulullaah & asked, "Are you finished?" When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr William replied that he had, Hadhrat Salmaan 图题 asked, "What was that, O Rasulullaah 图题?" Rasulullaah 图题 replied, "I gave him to throw away what was cleaned out from my cupping." Hadhrat Salmaan & exclaimed, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth! He just drank it." "Did you drink it?" enquired Rasulullaah 🕮 "Yes, I did," came the reply. "Why did you do it?" Rasulullaah 🕮 asked. "Because," explained Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr & "I wished to have the blood of Allaah's Rasool & in my belly." Rasulullaah & then pointed to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (shead and said, "Destruction shall come to people from you and destruction shall come to you from people. The Fire (of Jahannam) shall not touch you except to fulfil the promise (of passing over the Bridge of Straat that spans Jahannam)." (1)

Hadhrat Safeenah Filosof Drinks Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Safeenah (Fig. 6) says, "Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) once had himself cupped and said (to me). Take this blood and bury it out of the reach of animals, birds and people." As I disappeared out of sight, I drank it up. When I later mentioned it to Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) he merely laughed." (2)

The Incident of Rasulullaah A and Hadhrat Maalik bin Sinaan O During the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Freports that his father Hadhrat Maalik Bin Sinaan Fick licked the blood off Rasulullaah Fis face and then swallowed it. This happened after Rasulullaah Fis face was injured during the Battle of Uhud. Someone asked, "Are you drinking blood?" "Yes." he confirmed, "but this is the blood of Rasulullaah Fis that I am drinking." Rasulullaah Fis then said, "Once my blood has mixed with his, the Fire (of Jahannam) shall never touch him."

The Narration of Hadhrat Hakeemah bint Umaymah Concerning the Drinking of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Hakeemah bint Umaymah narrates from her mother that Rasulullaah

Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.330). Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.56).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 270).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.270) has commented on the chain of narrators

had a wooden cup in which he used to urinate. He kept this cup beneath his bed. When he looked for it one day and could not find it, he asked where it was. He was then informed that Surrah the maidservant of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah who had come with her from Abyssinia had drunk it. Rasulullaah said, "She has erected a solid barrier against the Fire (of Jahannam)."

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (Concerning the Respect he Showed to Rasulullaah)

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Feports that Rasulullaah Fe stayed at his house when Rasulullaah Fe arrived in Madinah. While Rasulullaah Fe stayed in the lower storey of the house, Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Fe (and his family) stayed on the upper storey. That morning and evening, the thought plagued Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Fe that he was on the top of the house while Rasulullaah Fe was beneath him, and he was therefore an impediment between Rasulullaah Fe and revelation (from the heavens). Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Fe also did not sleep that night fearing that he may cause some dust to fall on Rasulullaah Fe or that his movements may disturb Rasulullaah

Early next morning, he went to Rasulullaah see and said, "O Rasulullaah see! My eyes and those of (my wife) Ummu Ayyoob were unable to close all night." "Why was that, O Abu Ayyoob?" enquired Rasulullaah see. Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob replied, "The thought occurred to me that since I am above and you below me, dust would fall on you if I moved and my movements would disturb you. I also feared that I was an impediment between you and revelation." Rasulullaah see put him at ease saying, "Do not worry like that in future, O Abu Ayyoob. Should I not teach you some words that if you recite them ten times in the mornings and ten times in the evenings, you will be granted the reward of ten good deeds, ten sins will be erased from your record, you will be elevated ten stages (in Jannah) and on the Day of Qiyaamah you will have the reward of setting ten slaves free? You should recite:

"لَا ٓ إِلَّهُ إِلَّا اللَّهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهُ" (2)

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob says, "When Rasulullaah came to stay with me, I said, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you! I do not like it that I be above you while you are below me.' Rasulullaah said, 'It is more convenient for us to be below because we would be swamped with visitors.' One of our jugs happened to break and the water started to spill. Ummu Ayyoob and I stood with our blanket and used it to dry up the water, fearing that the water should not drop on Rasulullaah said, thereby inconveniencing him. We had nothing else to cover ourselves (and therefore spent the night without anything to cover ourselves). We used to prepare meals (and send to Rasulullaah said) and when he sent back (what was extra), we specifically sought out the parts where his fingers touched and ate from there with the intention of attaining blessings. One night when Rasulullaah sent back his dinner in which we had put garlic or onions, we did not see any traces of his fingers touching the food. When I mentioned our practice to Rasulullaah se, adding that he sent back the food without eating it, he said, I could get the smell of that tree (garlic or onion) and because I am a person who engages in close conversation (with Allaah and the angels), I did not like the smell to stay with me. However, you people are at liberty to eat it."(1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.271) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.294).

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob said, "O Rasulullaah see"! It is not proper for me to be above you. You should therefore move to the upper storey," Rasulullaah see then had his luggage moved, which was very little. (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar with and Hadhrat Abbaas Concerning a Gutter

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas harrates that there was a gutter belonging to Hadhrat Abbaas that was on the road Hadhrat Umar used (to the Masjid). Hadhrat Umar left his house one Friday after dressing (for the jumu'ah salaah). Because Hadhrat Abbaas had two birds slaughtered, the blood of the birds were thrown into his gutter and when Hadhrat Umar passed by, the blood spilt on his clothing. Hadhrat Umar gave instructions that the gutter should be removed and then returned home where he removed the clothes and changed into something else. He then went back and led the salaah. Hadhrat Abbaas had it had the went up to Hadhrat Umar and said, "By Allaah! The gutter was on the place where Rasulullaah had it placed." Hadhrat Umar responded by saying, "I command you in the name of Allaah that even if you have to climb on my back, you should replace it in the place where Rasulullaah had it laid." Hadhrat Abbaas then did just that. (3)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar (Subsection and Subsection) and the Hadhrat Abbaas (Subsection) on his neck, with his legs over his shoulders. He then replaced the gutter where Rasulullaah (Subsection) had laid it. (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) and the Other Sahabah (1996) Honour the Pulpit of Rasulullaah (1996)

Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Abdul Qaari says that he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sies place his hand on the place where Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 50). Haakim (Vol. 3 Pg. 461) has reported a similar narration without the part concerning the food that was sent to Rasujullaah Haakim has reported from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.50). Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Abi Assim have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.405).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.12), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.66).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.13). Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.206) has reported a similar narration and has also commented on the chain of narrators.

sat on his pulpit and then put the hand on his face.

Another narration from Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abdullaah bin Qusayt states that when the Masjid (Nabawi) was empty he saw several Sahabah which use their right hands to pick up some of the shiny and smooth sand from that side of the pulpit which adjoined Rasulullaah was grave. They then made du'aa facing the Oibla.

Kissing the Body of Rasulullaah

The Incident of Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr

Hadhrat Abu Layla says says that Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr says was a good man who was always smiling and jovial. One day as he was busy speaking to some people in the presence of Rasulullaah as and making them laugh, Rasulullaah spoked his side. "You've hurt me," he complained. "Then take your revenge," replied Rasulullaah sa. Hadhrat Usayd remarked, "But you have a garment on while I do not." Rasulullaah spraised his upper garment and Hadhrat Usayd spraised his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garment and his upper garme

Hadhrat Sawaad bin Ghuzayyah Kisses Rasulullaah Kisses Belly

Hadhrat Habbaan bin Waasi reports from senior scholars from his tribe that Rasulullaah had the shaft of an arrow in his hand during the Battle of Badr as he was straightening the rows of the Sahabah Hadhrat Sawaad bin Ghuzayyah who was an ally of the Banu Adi bin Najjaar tribe was standing ahead of the row. As Rasulullaah passed by him, Rasulullaah rudged the shaft in his belly saying, "Get in line, O Sawaad." Hadhrat Sawaad wis said, "You have hurt me, O Rasulullaah self. Allaah has sent you with the truth and with justice, so allow me to have retribution." Rasulullaah uncovered his belly and said, "You may have your retribution." Hadhrat Sawaad who then embraced and started kissing Rasulullaah self. You can see what developments are (that a battle is looming), so I wish that my last meeting with you (if I am killed) should be with my skin touching yours." Rasulullaah then made du'aa for him. (2)

The Incident of Another Sahabi who Kissed Rasulullaah Bely

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Rasulullaah was once carrying the branch of a date palm in his hand when he met a man who had dyed his clothing yellow, Nudging the man's belly with the branch, Rasulullaah said, "Remove that (1) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.288), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi, Ibn Asaakir has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.301), as has Tabraani according to Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.43).

(2) Ibn ts haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.37).

Waras(I). Did i not forbid you (men) from wearing that?" Although the jab made a mark on his belly, no blood emerged. The Sahabi said, "O Rasulullaah se! Retribution will have to be taken." The other Sahabah se exclaimed, "You wish to take retribution from Rasulullaah se!" He replied, "None has a skin better than mine." Rasulullaah se then exposed his abdomen saying, "You may have your retribution." The Sahabi se then started kissing the belly of Rasulullaah se saying, "I forsake the retribution on condition that you intercede for me on the Day of Qiyaamah." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Sawaad bin Amr

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Rasulullaah we once saw that Hadhrat Sawaad bin Amr was wearing Khalood perfume. "Remove the Warast Remove the Waras!" Rasulullaah exclaimed. Rasulullaah then prodded Hadhrat Sawaad in the belly with a twig or a Miswaak. The prod shook his belly and left a mark. The rest of the narration is like the one quoted above. (4) Another narration from Hadhrat Hasan states that a man called Sawaadah bin Amr used to apply so much of Khaloog fragrance that he actually resembled the branch of a date palm (because of the vellow colour). Whenever Rasulullaah saw him. Rasulullaah www would shake the fragrance off his clothes. One day when he again appeared before Rasulullaah & wearing the Khaloog, Rasulullaah lightly struck him with a twig that was in his hand. However, because the twig hurt him, Hadhrat Sawaadah & said, "There will have to be retribution, O Rasulullaah : Rasulullaah : handed the twig over to him and started lifting the two upper garments he was wearing. The people reprimanded him and he also retrained himself until the garment was lifted to the area where he was injured. He then threw down the twig, held on to Rasulullaah : and started kissing him, saying, " Rasulullaah : I forsake the retribution on condition that you intercede for me on the Day of Qiyaamah."(5)

Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa Kisses Rasulullaah Kisses

The narration of Hadhrat Husayn bin Wahwah has already passed (6) describing how Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa (5) embraced Rasulullaah (5) and kissed his feet when he met Rasulullaah (5). The incident will also be quoted ahead about how Hadhrat Abu Bakr (5) kissed Rasulullaah (5) forehead when Rasulullaah (5) passed away.

⁽¹⁾ A yellow herb that grows in Yemen.

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.302).

⁽³⁾ A perfume made up largely of saffron, giving it a yellowish colour,

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.72).

⁽⁵⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.302). Baghawi has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.96).

⁽⁶⁾ In the chapter entitled "The Love that the Sahabah (50%) had for Rasulullaah (5%), under the subheading "The Love that Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa (50%) had for Rasulullaah (56%).

The Crying of the Sahabah when they Heard that Rasulullaah had been Martyred and What Happened to them when he Passed Away

The Incident of a Lady from the Ansaar When she Heard that Rasulullaah : had Been Martyred in the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik reports that when the people of Madinah were being defeated during the Battle of Uhud, the people started saying that Rasulullaah had been martyred. (The people of Madinah started weeping so much that) The cries of women could be heard in the furthest reaches of Madinah, One of the women from the Ansaar left Madinah wearing her veil (and headed for the battlefield). (The corpses of) Her father, her son, her husband and her brother were all brought to her. The narrator says that he is not certain which of them was brought first. When she passed by any one of them and asked who he was, she was informed that he was her father, her brother, her husband or her son. (Undaunted from her intent to find out about Rasulullaah) She asked (each time), "How is Rasulullaah ?" "There he is in front of you," the people told her. When she eventually reached Rasulullaah ; she held on to the edge of his garment and said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah !" When you are safe, I have no concern for all those who have passed on," (1)

Hadhrat Zubayr says that on the day the Battle of Uhud was fought, none but he was with Rasulullaah fremained behind in Madinah (because all of them were on the battlefield). So many Muslims were martyred that someone even announced that Rasulullaah had been martyred. All the women started weeping. However, one of them said, "Do not be so hasty to cry until 1 go and see for myself." She then left Madinah on foot without any purpose besides her concern for Rasulullaah sand to find out about his welfare. (2)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas reports that Rasulullaah passed by a lady from the Banu Dinaar tribe whose husband, brother and father had been martyred while fighting by the side of Rasulullaah in the Battle of Uhud. Whenever she was informed about one of their deaths, she kept asking, "How is Rasulullaah Res"? Addressing her by her family name, the Sahabah said, "He is well. By the grace of Allaah, he is exactly as you would like him to be," "Show me where he is so that I may see him," she asked. She was then shown where Rasulullaah was and when she saw him, she said, "After seeing you (O Rasulullaah was), every calamity seems trivial." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.115) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazaar. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg. 115) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Behaviour of Hadhrat Abu Talha During the Battle of Uhud Because of his Love for Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas was firing arrows in front of Rasulullaah was during the Battle of Uhud. He was a proficient archer and was shielding Rasulullaah was Each time, he fired an arrow, Rasulullaah was looked up to see where the arrow landed. At the same time, Hadhrat Abu Talha would raise his chest (to shield Rasulullaah was saying, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah was Do not get up for an arrow should strike you. My neck is there to be sacrificed rather than yours." Hadhrat Abu Talha was ready to have himself killed in the defence of Rasulullaah was. He therefore kept saying, "O Rasulullaah was I am a strong man, so send me to fulfil any of your needs and give me any command you wish." (2)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Qataadah for the Love of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan same narrates, "Rasulullaah same was given a bow as a gift, which he gave to me during the Battle of Uhud. I used it to fire arrows in front of Rasulullaah same until the string broke. I then remained standing where I was, shielding the face of Rasulullaah same with my own. Whenever an arrow headed for the face of Rasulullaah same. I turned my head to protect the face of Rasulullaah same is for I had no bow to use..." The rest of the narration is the same as appears in the chapter entitled "The Bravery of Hadhrat

The Sahabah 經過 Weep at the Mention of Rasulullaah 經過 Separating from them

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed (Rasulullaah) and once came out to us from his room during the illness in which he passed away. He had a bandage wrapped around his head and he went towards the pulpit until he sat upright on it. We followed Rasulullaah (towards the pulpit), where he said, 'I swear by the Being Who controls my life that at this moment I am standing upon my fountain (Kowthar). When a servant of Allaah was given the choice between this world with its splendour (and the Aakhirah), he chose the Aakhirah.' No one

Qataadah bin Nu'maan (3)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.47).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.27). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.65) has reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Under the subheading "Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan William Uses his Face to Shield Rasulullaah William From Arrows During the Battle of Uhud" understood the message of this statement besides Abu Bakr (I). His eyes therefore filled with tears and he started weeping. He then exclaimed, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah (I) in fact, may all our fathers, our mothers, ourselves and our wealth be sacrificed for you!' Rasulullaah (I) then descended from the pulpit and has not stood there again to this day."

The Weeping of Hadhrat Faatima

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ($100) reports that Rasulullaah ($100) sent for Hadhrat Faatima ($100) after Allaah revealed the Surah:

He said to her, "This tells me of my pending death." When she started to weep, Rasulullaah consoled her by saying, "Do not weep because you shall be the first of my family to meet me." She then started to laugh. Seeing her do this, one of Rasulullaah sis swives asked, "I saw you cry and then laugh?" Hadhrat Faatima consoled, "Rasulullaah sis said to me, 'This tells me of my pending death.' When I started to weep, Rasulullaah sis then consoled me by saying, "Do not weep because you shall be the first of my family to meet me." It was then that I started to laugh." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Faatima "During his final illness, Rasulullaah ("Fonce called for his daughter Faatima ("When he whispered something to her, she wept. He then called her again and when he whispered something to her this time, she started laughing. When I asked her about this, she replied, 'When Rasulullaah ("Final") informed me that his life would be taken during this illness, I started to weep but when he told me that I would be the first of his family to meet him, I started to laugh. ("A)

In another narration, Hadhrat Ummu Salamah states, "When I asked Faatima shout her laughing and crying, she replied, 'Rasulullaah states first informed me that he was going to pass away and then informed me that I would be the leader of the women of Jannah after Maryam the daughter of Imraan states I t was this that made me laugh." (4)

Hadhrat Alaa Fliss reports that when Rasulullaah was about to leave this world, Hadhrat Faatima started weeping. Rasulullaah said to her, "Do not weep, dear daughter. When I pass on, you should say, Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon' because by reciting these words a person receives something in return for every calamity." "Even in return for losing you, O Rasulullaah said asked Hadhrat Faatima said." "Even in return for losing me," replied Rasulullaah

⁽I) Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (vol. 4 Pg.58), Ibn Sa'd (vol. 2 Pg.230) has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri $2506.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.23) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.247). Ibn Sa'd has also reported the narration in greater detail:

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd.

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.312).

The Weeping of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal Mas narrates that when Rasulullaah see sent him (as governor) to Yemen, Rasulullaah waked with him as he gave him advice. Hadhrat Mu'aadh was riding his animal while Rasulullaah waked beside the animal. After giving him the necessary advice, Rasulullaah said, "O Mu'aadh! You shall probably not meet me after this year. You shall perhaps be passing by only this Masjid of mine and my grave." Hadhrat Mu'aadh then started weeping profusely because of this separation from Rasulullaah said. Rasulullaah said then turned around and faced towards Madinah as he said, "The people closest to me are those with Taqwa regardless of who they are and where they may be."

Another narration states that Rasulullaah see said, "Do not weep, O Mu'aadh because this weeping is from Shaytaan." (2)

The Sahabah Weep out of Fear of Rasulullaah Weep Passing Away

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas freports that Rasulullaah fis was once informed that the Ansaar men and women were crying in the Masjid. "What makes them cry?" Rasulullaah fis enquired. When he was informed that they were crying because they feared he was going to pass away, Rasulullaah fis left his room and went to sit on his pulpit. He was wrapped in a shawl with the ends thrown over his shoulders. He also wore a stained bandage on his head. After duly praising Allaah, he said, "O people! People will multiply as the Ansaar dwindle in numbers until they are only as much as salt in food. Whoever is given charge over their affairs should accept the good from their good people and excuse their evil ones." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ummul Fadhl At the Demise of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ummul Fadhl bint Haarith says that when she came to Rasulullaah during his final illness, she started weeping. Rasulullaah lifted his head and asked, "What makes you weep?" She replied, "We fear for you (that you will pass away) and do not know how people will treat us after your demise." Rasulullaah replied, "You will be the ones in a weaker position after I leave." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 22) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.37) has commented on the chain of narrators, Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.252) has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 2025.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.34) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Rasulullaah Bids Farewell (to the Ummah)

The Direction Rasulullaah Gave Prior to his Demise Concerning his Burial, Bathing, Janaazah salaah and other Matters

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was says, "May my father and I be sacrificed for our beloved Nabi was who gave us the news of his demise six days in advance. When his end drew near, he gathered us in the room of our mother Aa'isha was. His eyes welled with tears as he looked at us and said, "Welcome to you all. May Allaah give you long lives, May Allaah protect you, May Allaah safeguard you, May Allaah assist you, May Allaah elevate you. May Allaah guide you. May Allaah provide for you, May Allaah steer you to what is right. May Allaah keep you safe. May Allaah accept you. I advise you to adopt Taqwa. I plead to Allaah to care for you and make Him my successor over you. I am a clear warner to you not to exert your authority over Allaah with regard to His servants and lands, for Allaah has mentioned to me and to you:

This (Jannah) is the Home of the Aakhirah, which We shall assign to those who do not desire pomp (glory) on earth nor corruption. The (best) outcome shall be for those with Taqwa, {Surah Qasas, verse 83}

Allaah also says:

﴿ ٱلْيُسَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوِي لِلْمُتَكَبِّرِيْنَ ١٠٠) (سورة زمر آيت ٦٠)

Is there not an abode (a place to live) in Jahannam for the arrogant?' (Surah Zumar, verse 60)

Rasulullaah the continued, 'The term is coming to an end. The time has come to return to Aliaah, to the Sidratul Muntahaa (1), to Jannatul Ma'waa (2), to glasses filled to the brim and to the Highest Companion (Allaah)."

"Who shall bathe you then, O Rasulullaah [25]" the Sahabah [25] enquired. Rasulullaah [25] replied, "The men of my family who are closest in relation, together with those who are closest after them." "In what shall we shroud you?" they enquired further. Rasulullaah [25] replied, "In the clothing I am wearing. Otherwise, if you wish, you may shroud me in a Yemeni shawl or in white Egyptian sheets." "Which of us should then lead the Janaazah salaah," was the next question. The Sahabah (1966) and Rasulullaah (1966) then burst out crying. Rasulullaah & said. "Take it easy. May Allaah forgive you all and grant you the best of rewards on behalf of His Nabi. After you have bathed me and placed me on my bed in a corner of my room that will be my grave, then leave me alone for a while because the first to perform the (Janaazah) salaah for me shall be my friend (the archangel) Jibra'eel & After him shall be Mika'eel & followed by Israafeel then the angel of death with his army and then all the angels. May Allaah shower His blessings on all of them. You should then enter in groups to perform the salaah and to greet me. You should however not allow any wailing woman to come to me nor any woman who is screaming and raising her voice. The first to perform the salaah should be the men of my family and then the rest of you afterwards. Accept my reply to your greetings of Salaam and convey my greeting of Salaam to all my brothers who are not present and to every person who enters the fold of your Deen after my demise. I make you witness to the fact that I am conveying my Salaams to him and to every other person following me in my Deen from this day until the Day of Qiyaamah."

⁽¹⁾ The Arabic word "Sidrah" means a lotus or a jujube tree, "Muntahaa" means the 'limit' or 'apex' i.e. a point beyond which there is nothing more. The "Sidratul Muntahaa" is therefore a tree at which everything stops. Whatever deeds ascend to the heavens first stop at the "Sidratul Muntahaa" before proceeding further and all commands descending to earth also stop there before descending further.

⁽²⁾ The level of Jannah where the pious abide.

The Sahabah ("Which of us should place you in your grave, O Rasulullaah ("F" Rasulullaah ("The men of my family together with a large host of angels who will be able to see you without you being able to see them." (1)

The Demise of Rasulullaah

The Incident of his Demise and the Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Baabnoos says, "A friend and I once went to Hadhrat Aa'isha and sought permission to enter. She threw us some cushions and then concealed herself behind a screen (before allowing us in). 'What do you have to say about Araak, O Ummul Mu'mineen?' my friend asked. 'What is Araak?' she asked. When I struck my friend on the shoulder (to bid him not to ask about it), Hadhrat Aa'isha said, 'Do not do that for you have hurt your brother.' She then proceeded to ask, 'What is Araak? Is it about menstruation (that you wish to know about, whether a man can touch his wife when she is menstruating?). You should practise what Allaah has mentioned in the Qur'aan about menstruating women. Rasulullaah said used to embrace me and kiss my head with only a sheet between us when I was menstruating."

Hadhrat Aa'isha which then went on to say. "It was the practice of Rasulullaah to tell me something of benefit every time he passed by my door. However, one day he passed my door two or three times without saying anything. I then told my maidservant to place a pillow at the door and I tied a bandage around now head (pretending to be ill to get Rasulullaah sees attention). When Rasulullaah passed by (and saw me lying there), he asked, 'Dear Aa'isha! What is the matter?' 'My head is paining,' I responded. 'I too have severe pain in my head,' he replied. He then left and it was not long when he came to me carrying a blanket with him. He entered my room and then sent a message to his other wives saying, 'I am ill and am unable to come to all of you. Do permit me to stay with Aa'isha,' (With the permission of the others) I then started to nurse Rasulullaah whereas I had never nursed anyone else before him.

⁽i) Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.52) has commented on the chain of narrators. Tabraani has reported a similar narration but stating that this occurred a month before the demise of Rasulullanh 經濟. Haythami has also commented on this chain of parrators. Abb Ni'dym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.168) from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 如 with slight differences but has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.256) has also reported a similar narration in detail.

Rasulullaah se's head was on my shoulder one day when it turned towards me. I thought that Rasulullaah was wanted to kiss me when a drop of cold saliva dropped from his mouth. When it fell on the back of my neck, my entire body started to shiver. Thinking that he had fallen unconscious, I covered him with a sheet. Umar see and Mughiera bin Shu'ba see then arrived and sought permission to enter. I gave them permission and then pulled over my veil. Umar looked at Rasulullaah see and said, 'O dear! Rasulullaah see is unconscious! What a deep coma he seems to be in.' The two men then stood up. When they were near the door, Mughiera said, 'O Umar! Rasulullaah has passed away.' 'Never!' exclaimed Umar said, 'You are always making statements that cause trouble! Rasulullaah will never pass away until Allaah has obliterated the Munaafigeen."

Hadhrat Aa'isha continues, "(My father) Abu Bakr then arrived and I lifted my veil. He looked at Rasulullaah and exclaimed, 'Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! Rasulullaah and exclaimed, 'Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! Rasulullaah and exclaimed, 'Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! Rasulullaah and passed away.' He went to Rasulullaah and issed Rasulullaah and issed Rasulullaah and again lowered his mouth to kiss Rasulullaah and again lowered his head and again lowered his head and again lowered his head and again lowered his head and again lowered his head and again lowered his head and again lowered his head and again low

Hadhrat Abu Bakr with then went to the Masjid where Hadhrat Umar was busy lecturing the people saying, "Indeed Rasulullaah se shall never pass away until Allaah destroys the Munaafiqeen.' Hadhrat Abu Bakr with then addressed the people. After duly praising Allaah, he said, "Allaah says:

'Indeed, you (O Rasulullaah (SE) shall certainly die, and they shall all die as well.' (Surah Zumar, verse 30)

(Thereafter, he recited the verse:)

﴿ وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ اِلَّا رَسُولٌ * فَدُخَلَتْ، مِنْ قَبْلِهِ الرَّسُلُ * أَفَائِنْ مَّاتَ أَوْقُبِلَ الْقَلَبْنُمُ عَلَى أَعْقَابِكُمْ * وَمَنْ يَنْفُا * وَسَيَجْزِى اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ أَعْقَابِكُمْ * وَمَنْ يَنْفَا * وَسَيَجْزِى اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ
اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ اللَّهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ اللَّهُ السَّكِرِيْنَ اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِ الْمُؤْمِنِ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ الْ

Muhammad is is but a Rasool (of Allaah). Indeed many Rusul have passed before him. If he passes away or is martyred, would you (Muslims) then turn back on your heels (and lorsake Islaam)? He who turns back on his heels can never harm Allaah in the least (because he will be harming only himself). Allaah shall soon reward the grateful ones (so be firm and strive for His Deen). (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 144)

He then proceeded to say, "Whoever worships Allaah should know that Allaah is Alive and shall never die, Whoever worshipped Muhammad see should know that Muhammad see has passed away." Astonished, Hadhrat Umar saked, "Are those verses really in the Qur'aan? O people! This is Abu Bakr and he is the highestachiever amongst the Muslims. Pledge your allegiance to him,"(1)

The Burial of Rasulullaah

The Narration of Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (Taalib (Taalib)) narrates that when they (the family of Rasulullaah (Taalib)) started the burial preparations for Rasulullaah (Taalib), they locked the door and did not allow anyone in. While the Ansaar shouted, "We are the maternal relatives of Rasulullaah (Taalib) and have a high standing in Islaam!" the Quraysh shouted, "We are his paternal relatives!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Taalib) then shouted saying, "O assembly of Muslims! Every family has a greater right to the burial of their family members than others do. We therefore plead to you in the name of Allaah (not to enter) because if you enter, you will be pushing back others (those who are entitled to enter). By Allaah! None should enter besides those who are called."

A narration of Hadhrat Ali bin Husayn states that the Ansaar shouted, "We have a right (to arrange the burial) because Rasulullaah ﷺ is the son of our sister and because we have a high standing in Islaam." When they lodged their request with Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ, he said, "A family has the greatest right to members of their family, You may put the request to Ali ﷺ and Abbaas ﷺ because none may enter the room besides those whom they permit." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas were with Rasulullaah we when his illness grew severe. When Rasulullaah we saw Hadhrat Ali we enter the room, he lifted his head and said, "Come closer. Come closer." Hadhrat Ali we let Rasulullaah we lean against him and remained with Rasulullaah we until he passed away. When Rasulullaah we passed away, Hadhrat Ali we stood up and locked the Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.241), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.33). Abu Ya'ia has also reported the narration but Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.33) has commented on the chain of narrators, Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.267) has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.61).

door. Hadhrat Abbaas Sisses and the members of the Banu Abdul Muttalib family came and stood (guard) at the door.

(Addressing Rasulullaah) Hadhrat Ali Sie said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! You were so pure in life and now so pure in death." There wafted from the body of Rasulullaah is an extremely wonderful fragrance that people had never smelt before. Hadhrat Abbaas it then said to Hadhrat Ali sie women do. Pay attention to your leader (Rasulullaah)." Hadhrat Ali sie then asked for Hadhrat Fadhl bin Abbaas it to be brought to him (to assist him). At this stage the Ansaar requested, "We plead to you in the name of Allaah and by the affinity we have with Rasulullaah (that you allow one of us to be part of the burial preparations)." Hadhrat Ali sie and those with him allowed in an Ansaari called Hadhrat Awsbin Khowlay who carried a bucket of water in one hand. (Before starting the bathing) They heard a voice in the house saying, "Do not remove Rasulullaah (is clothing."

Hadhrat Ali with then washed Rasulullaah with by placing his hand beneath the clothing as Hadhrat Fadhl with held the clothing up and the Ansaari brought the water. Hadhrat Ali with wore a cloth over his hand (as a glove) as he placed his hand beneath the clothing.

The Janaazah salaah for Rasulullaah

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Hadhrat Abdullaa

salaah individually without anyone being the Imaam. When all the men were finished, the women were let in to perform the Janaazah salaah, followed by the children and then the slaves. None of the groups were led by an Imaam. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd

Hadhrat Sahl in Sa'd Sizes says that after Rasulullaah Rie was shrouded in the burial shroud, he was placed on a bed, which was then placed in the corner of the room. The people then entered the room in groups (to perform the Janaazah salaah) without anyone leading them in the salaah. (3)

Hadhrat Moosa bin Muhammad bin Ibraheem says that he found a book in which his father had written that after Rasulullaah was shrouded in the burial shroud, he was placed on a bed. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and Hadhrat Umar then entered the room together with as many Muhaajireen and Ansaar as could fit in the room. The two men said:

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.36) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Maajah has reported a part of the narration while Ibn Sa;d (Vol.2 Pg.63) has also reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq

⁽³⁾ Waaqidi.

"Peace be on you, O Nabi (together with the mercy of Allaah and His blessings."

The other Muhaajireen and Ansaar also greeted Rasulullaah as as Hadhrat Abu Bakr said and Hadhrat Umar did. They then formed rows without any of them being the Imaam. Standing in the first row in front of Rasulullaah as, Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar said, "O Allaah! We testify that Rasulullaah as conveyed whatever was revealed to him. He was a well-wisher of the Ummah who strove in the path of Allaah until Allaah gave honour to His Deen, His Words (Deen) was completed and belief was established in the One Allaah Who has no partner. O Allaah! Make us people who follow the guidance revealed to him and allow us to meet him again with him recognising us and us recognising him. He was indeed most forgiving and most merciful unto the Mu'mineen. We seek no worldly recompense for believing in him and shall never sell our Imaan in him for any price." The other Sahabah said, "Aameen! Aameen!" They then left and another group entered. After all the men had completed, the women entered, followed by the children. (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Ali sass narrates that when Rasulullaah was placed on a bed, he said to the people, "None shall be the Imaam (to lead the Janaazah salaah) because Rasulullaah was is the Imaam while alive and after his demise. The people then started entering (the room) in groups and performed the salaah in rows without any of them being the Imaam. They all said "Allaahu Akbar" as Hadhrat Ali saids stood directly in front of Rasulullaah was and said:

"Peace be on you, O Nabi see together with the mercy of Allaah and His blessings."

He then continued, "O Allaah! We testify that Rasulullaah (Conveyed whatever was revealed to him. He was a well-wisher of the Ummah who strove in the path of Allaah until Allaah gave honour to His Deen and His Words (Deen) was completed. O Allaah! Make us people who follow the guidance revealed to him, keep us steadfast and allow us to meet him again." The other Sahabah (Case) said, "Aameen! " After all the men had completed, the women did the same, followed by the children. (2)

The Condition of the Sahabah when Rasulullaah Passed away and Their Weeping at their Separation from Him

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Weeps and the Lecture he gave to the People

Hadhrat Anas Fig. reports that when Rasulullaah Fig. passed away, the (1) Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.265). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.69) has reported a similar narration. (2) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.70), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.55).

Sahabah were all whispering to each other. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sinstructed his slave to listen to what they were saying and report back to him. The slave reported that he overheard the Sahabah saying that Rasulullaah had passed away. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sins then hurried as he said, "O dear! My back has been broken!" (He was so overcome with grief that) The Sahabah sins thought that he would not even make it to the Masjid, but he did. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Sies) narrates that on the day Rasulullaah (Sies) passed away, Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq (Sies) emerged (from Rasulullaah (Sies) room) as Hadhrat Umar (Sies) was busy addressing the Sahabah (Sies). He told Hadhrat Umar (Sies) to be seated and after duly praising Allaah, he said, "Whoever worshipped Muhammad (Sies) should know that Muhammad (Sies) has passed away. On the other hand, whoever worships Allaah should know that Allaah is Alive and shall never die. Verily Allaah states:

Muhammad is is but a Rasool (of Allaah). Indeed many Rusul have passed before him. If he passes away or is martyred, would you (Muslims) then turn back on your heels (and forsake Islaam)? He who turns back on his heels can never harm Allaah in the least (because he will be harming only himself). Allaah shall soon reward the grateful ones (so be firm and strive for His Deen). (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 144)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, "By Allaah! (Because they were so overcome with grief) It was as if the people never knew that such a verse was ever revealed until Hadhrat Abu Bakr seeited it. They all took it from Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "By Allaah! No sooner did I hear Abu Bakr secite the verse when my legs collapsed beneath me and were unable to carry me. I then fell to the ground when I heard it for I was then convinced that Rasulullaah had definitely passed away." (2)

The Grief of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Sies) says, "When Rasulullaah (Sies) passed away, the Sahabah (Sies) were so grieved that some of them even started having false thoughts (that Islaam had come to an end). I was also amongst those who were deeply grieved and was once sitting on one of the hills of Madinah when Umar (Sies) passed by me without me even noticing that he had passed. By then, people had already pledged their allegiance to Abu Bakr (Sies). Umar (Sies) proceeded immediately to Abu Bakr (Sies) and said, 'O Khalifah of Rasulullaah (Sies) I have some shocking news for you! When I passed by Uthmaan (Sies) and greeted him, he did not even reply." The rest of the narration shall soon be quoted in the chapter concerning greeting. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Khusru, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 48).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad, Bukhaari, Ibn Hibbaan and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.48).

The Grief of Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Sa'eed bin Yarboo (Sales) narrates that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (Sales) one day had his face covered and was extremely grieved." I notice that you are deeply grieved," enquired Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sales). Hadhrat Ali (Sales) replied, "Such grief has overcome me that has not befallen you," To this Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sales) said, "Look at what he is saying! I ask you in the name of Allaah to tell me whether any other person is more grieved about the demise of Rasulullaah (Sales) than I am?" (2)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (See Says, "When we (the wives of Rasulullaah (See)) gathered together and were weeping (over the demise of Rasulullaah (See)), we did not have a wink of sleep. (The blessed body of) Rasulullaah (See was still in our rooms and we consoled each other every time we saw him lying on the bed. When we suddenly heard the sounds of shovels (digging Rasulullaah (See grave) just before dawn, we started crying (out of grief) and the people in the Masjid also started crying. This caused all of Madinah to shudder. When Bilaal (See Called out the Fajr Adhaan and took the name of Rasulullaah (See (as he said), he burst out crying. This added to our grief and the people started going towards the grave. The door was however locked to them. O what a calamity it was! Every calamity that befell us afterwards paled into insignificance when we thought about the calamity of Rasulullaah (See (3)).

The Wailing of the people of Madinah

Hadhrat Abu Dhu'ayb Hudhali says, "When I arrived in Madinah, the wailing of the people of Madinah pulsated like the calls of 'Labbaik' from people performing Hajj pulsates. 'What is the matter?'" I enquired. They then informed me that Rasulullaah & had passed away." (4)

The Condition of the Saliabah (in Makkah when they Heard about Rasulullaah (is Demise

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Umayr (1986) reports that when Rasulullaah (1986) passed away, the governor of Makkah was Hadhrat Attaab bin Usayd (1986). When the news of Rasulullaah (1986)'s demise reached the people of Makkah, the people in

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.84).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 2 Pg.84).

⁽³⁾ Waaqidi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.271). (bn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.121) has also reported the narration in brief.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Mandah and ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.58). Ibn Is'haaq has also reported the narration in detail as will soon be quoted in the chapter dealing with the sayings of the Sahabah 經過速率 when Rasulullash 經過度 passed away.

the Masjid burst out crying. Hadhrat Altaab left Makkah and went to one of the valleys of Makkah. Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr approached him and told him to address the people. "I cannot speak after the demise of Rasulullaah left," replied Hadhrat Attaab Hadhrat Suhayl left said, "Then come with me and I shall do it for you." They left and when they came to the Masjidul Haraam, Hadhrat Suhayl left stood up to address the people. After duly praising Allaah, he delivered a lecture that was identical to the one that Hadhrat Abu Bakr left say gave the people (in Madinah). In fact, when Hadhrat Suhayl left was a captive of the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah left said to Hadhrat Umar left, "What makes you want to extract his front teeth? Leave him alone because Allaah shall perhaps place him on a platform that would bring you great pleasure." The platform Rasulullaah left referred to was this one by which the authority of Hadhrat Attaab was consolidated over Makkah and neighbouring areas. (1)

The Condition of Hadhrat Faatima

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far says, "After the demise of Rasulullaah (36), I never saw Faatima (36) laugh. All I saw was her mouth extend on one side (as she smiled)." (2)

What the Sahabah Said When Rasulullaah Passed Away

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("Today we have Lost Revelation"

Hadhrat Is'haaq reports that when Rasulullaah ﷺ passed away, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "Today we have lost revelation and speech from Allaah." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ummu Ayman Concerning the Loss of Revelation

Hadhrat Anas Sies reports that when Rasulullaah passed away, Hadhrat Ummu Ayman wept bitterly. When asked what made her weep so bitterly about the demise of Rasulullaah sies, she replied, "I always knew that Rasulullaah would soon pass away, but what makes me weep is that revelation has now been lifted from us." (4)

Hadhrat Anas was also reports that after the demise of Rasulullaah was. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was once said to Hadhrat Umar was, "Come with me to visit Ummu Ayman " When they came to her, she started weeping. They consoled her saying, "What makes you weep? What is with Allaah is better for Rasulullaah was " She replied, "By Allaah! I am not weeping because I do not know that what

⁽¹⁾ Sayf and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.46),

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.84).

⁽³⁾ Dalaa'ilut Towheed, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.50).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad.

Another narration states that when Rasulullaah (2) passed away, Hadhrat Ummu Ayman (2) wept bitterly. When asked what made her weep, she replied, "What makes me weep is that news form the heavens has now been terminated." (2)

A narration of Hadhrat Moosa bin Uqba quotes Hadhrat Ummu Ayman (A) as saying, "I am weeping because the news from the heavens used to come to us in large quantities and fresh from the heavens every day and night. This has now been terminated and lifted, it is only this that makes me weep." This statement greatly surprised the people. (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that when Rasulullaah passed away, the people wept bitterly and said, "We wished that we would pass away before Rasulullaah for we fear that we will be facing great tribulations after him." To this, Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi see said, "on the contrary, I swear by Allaah that rather than wishing to die before Rasulullaah see, I wish to believe in him after his demise just as I did during his lifetime." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Faatima (2006) the Daughter of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas with reports that when Rasulullaah is fell seriously ill, Hadhrat Faatima seriously ill, Hadhrat Faatima seriously bemoaned, "O! The pain my father is suffering!" Rasulullaah is then said to her, "Your father will suffer no pain after this day." After Rasulullaah is passed away, she said, "O my dear father! His Rabb really accepted his supplication. O my dear father! Jannatul Firdous (5) has become his abode! O my dear father! Jibra'eel is has informed us of his demise," After Rasulullaah is was buried, Hadhrat Faatima is said, "O Anas! How did your hearts allow you to throw sand over Rasulullaah is "?" (6)

Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Faatima said, "O Anas! How did your hearts allow you to return after burying Rasulullaah said in the sand?" Hadhrat Hammaad says that whenever Hadhrat Thaabit related this narration, he sobbed so much that his ribs heaved. (7)

- (1) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.274), Ibn Abi Shaybah, Muslim, Abu Ya'la and Abu Awaanah have also reported the narration from Hadhrat Anas (Vol.4 Pg.48), as has Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.164).
- (2) Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.60). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.164) has also reported the narration.
- (3) Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.274).
- (4) Maalik, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.339). Ibn Abdil Birr has also reported the narration in his Istilaab (Vol.3 Pg.446). Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.450) contains commentary on the chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.465) bas also reported the narration.
- (5) The highest level of Jannah
- (6) Bukhaari
- (7) Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.273). Ibn Asaakir and Abu Ya'la have

The Couplets of Hadhrat Safiyya the Aunt of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Urwa stress reports that Hadhrat Safiyya bint Abdul Muttalib stress recited a few couplets in memory of Rasulullaah stress. (The meaning of these couplets are):

"My heart grieves and I have spent the night like he who has lost everything I have stayed awake all night like the one whose every possession has been looted

It is all because of my grief and remorse that I cannot sleep If only I were also given the cup of death to sip from When they said that there came to Rasulullaah William The destined moment of death When we came to the family of Muhammad The hairs on our neck turned white (with griet) When we saw his rooms had become deserted After him there was none there to live the life of a stranger Because of this, a deep grief has come to me Mixing in my heart, filling it with fear" Hadhrat Safiyya also recited the following couplets (which means): "Do listen, O Rasulullaah 251 You had been the one to give us ease You had been good to us and never harsh Our Nabi WE had always been good and forgiving towards us Today everyone who wishes to weep should respond By my life! It is not because of his death that I weep for my Nabi It is rather because of the hardships that are to come after him Because of the loss of Muhammad And because of the love for him, my heart has been branded by a hot iron O Faatima! May the Rabb of Muhammad & shower His special mercies On the body that had taken up residence in Yathrib (1) I am looking at Hasan whom you have left as an orphan Making him cry and call out for his grandfather who has gone so far I am ready to sacrifice for Rasulullaah & my mother, my aunt my uncle, myself and all of my near and dear families You had endured much and conveyed the message with truth You had left the world with the Deen firm, apparent and clear Had the Rabb of the Throne kept you alive with us we would have been most fortunate, but His decision is final May peace and greetings from Allaah be showered on you As you are entered happily into the everlasting gardens" (2) reported a narration similar to Bukhaari's, as quoted in Kanzuli Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.57). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.83) has also reported the narration.

⁽¹⁾ Yathrib had been the name of Madinah before the arrival of Rasulullaah (25).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.39).

Another narration from Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ali bin Husayn states that when Rasulullaah passed away, Hadhrat Safiyya came out of her house with her shawl as she said (couplets which meant):

"After you there shall be many distressing and difficult times the dangers of which would not be so much had you been there"

Hadhrat Ghunaym bin Qais reports that he heard his father say some couplets after the demise of Rasulullaah 20%. They were:

"Behold! I have been destroyed by the departure of Muhammad In his life did I find my rest and peace in which my nights were calm until the mornings" (2)

The Sahabah Weep as they Think of Rasulullaah

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and an Old Lady

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar Said left the house one night to keep watch. When he saw a lantern burning, he went closer and found an old woman carding wool to be spun. She was reciting some couplets (which meant): "May the salutations of all righteous people be showered on Muhammad Said. May the chosen best peoble send their salutation to you (O Rasulullaah Said). Yuo had been regularly crying (in Ibaadah) before dawn but death has many ways and if only I knew.

Whether the Aakhirah will join me with my beloved (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) (Rasulull

The Condition of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar www.and Hadhrat Anas when Mentioning Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aasim bin Muhammad reports that his father said, "I have never seen

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.39) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari and Baghawi, as quoted in Issaabah (Vol.3 Pg. 264). Bazzaar has also reported the narration but Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 39) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg. 89) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Mubaarak and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.381).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) mention Rasulullaah (1996) without his eyes quickly filling with tears and crying." (1) Hadhrat Muthanna bin Sa'eed Daari reports that he heard Hadhrat Anas Saiss say, "I see my beloved (Rasulullaah (Sais) every night (in a dream)." He then started weeping. (2)

How the Sahabah Anyone who Reviled Rasulullaah

The Incident Between Hadhrat Gharfa Kindi and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Alqama narrates that a Sahabi by the name of Hadhrat Gharfa bin Haarith Kindi so once heard a Christian reviling Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Gharfa hit the Christian and broke his nose. When the case was brought before Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas so, he said (to Hadhrat Gharfa so). "We have entered into a treaty with them." Hadhrat Gharfa so, respond by saying. "Allaah forbid that we ever enter into a treaty with them permitting them to revile Nabi solution of the control of the churches and will allow them to say there what they wish. It also says that we will not charge them to do more than they can manage and that we will fight in their defence if an enemy attacks them. It says further that we will permit them to enforce their own laws unless they opt to abide by ours, in which case we will pass judgement between them based on the laws of Allaah and Rasulullaah. We will also not prevent them if they wish to remain aloof from us." Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas solve then said, "You are absolutely right." (3)

Hadhrat Gharfa bin Haarith was a Sahabi who fought with Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal was against the apostates in Yemen. He narrates that he once passed by a Christian in Egypt called Mundaqoon. When Hadhrat Gharfa was invited the man to accept Islaam, the Christian started reviling Rasulullaah was. When Hadhrat Gharfa was hit the Christian, the case was brought before Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was Hadhrat Amr was sent for Hadhrat Gharfa was and said to him, "We have entered into a treaty with them." The rest of the narration is the same as the one quoted above. (4)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Gharfa bin Haarith Kindi was a Sahabi who once passed by a man with whom the Muslims had entered into a peace treaty. When Hadhrat Gharfa will invited the man to accept Islaam, the man swore Rasulullaah we because of which Hadhrat Gharfa will killed him. Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas will said to him (when the case was brought up),

^{(1) 1}bn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.168)

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.20).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Isti'aab (Vol.3 Pg.193). Bukhaari has also reported the narration in his Taareekh, as quoted in Isaahah (Vol.3 Pg.195).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.13) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.200) has also reported the narration.

"These people were safe from us because of the treaty (how could you then kill him?)." Hadhrat Gharfa ("We did not enter into any treaty with them that permits them to injure us with regard to Allaah and His Rasool ("I"). The rest of the narration is similar to the ones already quoted. (1)

Obeying the Instructions of Rasulullaah Rasulullaah Instructions are Obeyed during the Expedition to Nakhla

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr in arrates that Rasulullaah once dispatched Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash on a expedition to a place called Nakhla, Rasulullaah is instructions were, "Stay there until you are able to bring us intelligence about the Quraysh." Rasulullaah did not instruct him to engage the enemy. This occurred during one of the sacred months. Before informing him where he was to go, Rasulullaah had a letter written for him, and briefed him saying, "Proceed with your companions and open the letter only after you have travelled for two days. Read the letter and then proceed whence I have instructed you in the letter. You should also not force any of your companions to travel with you."

After travelling for two days, Hadhrat Abdullaah (Proceed until you set up camp in Nakhla from where you should gather any intelligence that comes to you about the Quraysh." After reading the letter, Hadhrat Abdullaah (Saisse said to his companions, "I hear and I obey. Whoever desired martyrdom should proceed with me because I intend fulfilling the instructions of Rasulullaah (Saisse who do not wish to do this may return because Rasulullaah (Saisse has forbidden me from forcing any of you." They all marched with him. When they reached a placed called Buhraan, Hadhrat Said bin Abi Waqqaas (Saisse and Hadhrat Utba bin Ghazwaan (Saisse lost the camel they had been sharing and had to fall behind to look for it. The rest of the group forged ahead until they set up camp in Nakhla.

It was then that Amr bin Hadhrami, Hakam bin Kaysaan, Uthmaan bin Abdullaah and Mughiera bin Abdullaah passed by them with merchandise of leather and raisins that they were bringing back from Taa'if. When this group (of traders) saw the Sahabah (Sayama), it was Hadhrat Waaqid bin Abdullaah whom they saw staring at them. Because Hadhrat Waaqid (Sayama) happened to have his hair shaved off, the traders reasoned, "They have come to perform Umrah and we therefore have nothing to fear from them." It happened to be the last day of Rajab so the Sahabah (Sayama) urgently convened, saying to each other, "If we fight them today, we will be fighting them in a sacred month (during which the Arabs regarded fighting as forbidden) and if we leave them, they will be entering the precincts of the Haram by nightfall, because of which they will be protected from us (because no person can be attacked within the boundaries of the Haram)." They therefore decided to attack.

(1) Ibn Asaakir

Hadhrat Waaqid bin Abdullaah Tameemi Sisses shot an arrow at Amr bin Hadhrami and killed him. Uthmaan bin Abdullaah and Hakam bin Kaysaan were taken captive while Mughiera bin Abdullaah ran away and escaped. The Sahabah led the caravan away and brought it to Rasulullaah Resident Rasulullaah Resident Rasulullaah Resident Rasulullaah Rasulull

After Rasulullaah After had told them what he did, these Sahabah After he became demoralised and thought that they were destroyed. Their Muslim brothers rebuked them and when the news reached the Quraysh, they began saying, "Muhammad has spilt blood during a sacred month. He has also usurped property during a sacred month, captured people and violated the sanctity of the month." It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

They question you (O Muhammad (3)) about warfare in the sacred months (Dhul Qa'dah, Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and Rajab). Say, "Warfare in these months is a grave matter, but to prevent (others) from Allaah's way (from Islaam), to disbelieve in Him, (to prevent people from) the Masjidul Haraam and to expel (drive out) its people from it (as the Mushrikeen did to Rasulullaah (3) and the Sahabah (3) is a far greater sin in the sight of Allaah. Corruption (especially kufr, Shirk and causing mischief in religion) isworsethankilling." (surah Bagara, verse 217)

This verse made it clear that committing kufr is a greater sin than killing. When the verse was revealesd, Rasulullaah took the caravan and ransomed the two captives. The Sahabah (who had marched to Nakhla) asked, "(O Rasulullaah (%)) Do you think that we will be rewarded for the expedition?" Allaah then revealed the following verse with special reference to them:

Verily those who have Imaan, who migrate and who strive (exert themselves) in the way of Allaah (for Islaam), these have hope of Allaah's mercy (His rewards). Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful (Allaah will not deprive such people of the rewards they deserve). (Surah Bagara, verse 218)

The Sahabah 過過過 who were part of the expedition numbered eight with their commander Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash 多面影 being the ninth. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.58). Abu Nu'aym and Tabari have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.228).

Hadhrat Jundub bin Abdullaah spen narrates that Rasulullaah as once dispatched an expedition with Hadhrat Ubaydah bin Haarith sas as the commander. However, when they were leaving, he was overcome by his love for Rasulullaah as and started weeping. Rasulullaah in then dispatched a Sahabi called Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash sas in his place. Rasulullaah had a letter written for him and instructed him to read the letter only when he reached a certain place. He also received instructions not to force anyone to march with him. When he reached the specified destination, he read the letter and recited, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon"(I). He then said, "I hear and obey the orders of Allaah and His Rasool sas "While two of the Sahabah selection, the others proceeded with him."

When they met with Ibn Hadhrami, they killed him, not knowing whether it was still the month of Rajab or whether it was Jumaadal Aakhirah (that had already started). When the Mushrikeen claimed that the Sahabah when had killed him during a sacred month, Allaah revealed the verse:

They question you (O Muhammad (A) about warfare in the sacred months (Dhul Qa'dah, Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and Rajab). Say, "Warfare in these months is a grave matter, but to prevent (others) from Allaah's way (from Islaam), to disbelieve in Him, (to prevent people from) the Masjidul Haraam and to expel (drive out) its people from it (as the Mushrikeen did to Rasulullaah (A) and the Sahabah (C) is a far greater sin in the sight of Allaah. Corruption (especially kufr, Shirk and causing mischief in religion) is worse than killing." (Surah Baqara, verse

Some Muslims then enquired, "Although what they did may have been alright, they will receive no reward for it." It was then that Allaah revealed the yerse:

Verily those who have Imaan, who migrate and who strive (exert themselves) in the way of Allaah (for Islaam), these have hope of Allaah's mercy (His rewards). Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful (Allaah will not deprive such people of the rewards they deserve). (Surah Baqara, verse 218) (2)

He said this because he misinterpreted the instruction to mean that he was to attack the enemy during a sacred month.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.11). Ibn Abi Haatim has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.251).

Obeying the Instructions of Rasulullaah W When Marching Against the Banu Qurayzah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that after the Battle of Ahzaab, Rasulullaah is issued instructions (to the Sahabah issued) saying, "None of you should perform Asr salaah until he reaches the Banu Qurayzah." When the time for Asr arrived while some Sahabah issued were still on the way, some of them said, "We should not perform Asr until we reach the Banu Qurayzah." Others said, "We should perform our salaah (here on the road). Rasulullaah issuever meant this (that we should not perform the salaah on the road. He meant that we should hurry)." When this (difference of opinion) was reported to Rasulullaah iss, he did not rebuke either party. (1)

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik sees narrates that after the Battle of Ahzaab, Rasulullaah sees returned home and wore his armour (for a second time after taking it off) and cleansed himself. A narration of Hadhrat Duhaym adds that Rasulullaah sees said, "Jibra'eel sees descended from the heavens and said, "Prepare your fighters for battle (against the Banu Qurayzah). Why do I see you removing your armour when we have not yet removed ours?" Rasulullaah sees jumped up with a fright and emphatically instructed the Sahabah sees not to perform their Asr salaah until they reach the Banu Qurayzah.

The Sahabah with then wore their armour and left. They had not yet reached the Banu Qurayzah when the sun started to set. The Sahabah with then started arguing. Some of them said, "Perform your salaah because Rasulullaah never intended that you miss your salaah." There were others who argued, "Rasulullaah issued emphatic orders that we should not perform our salaah until we reach the Banu Qurayzah. We shall therefore not be sinful for fulfilling the implicit instruction of Rasulullaah is "A group of Sahabah is therefore performed their salaah (en-route) with perfect belief (that they are doing what is right) and with the hope of being rewarded. The other group performed their salaah after sunset with perfect belief (that they are doing what is right) and with the hope of being rewarded. Rasulullaah did not rebuke either party. (2)

Obeying the Instructions of Rasulullaah During the Battle of Hunayn

Hadhrat Jaabir (Saw narrates that during the Battle of Hunayn when Rasulullaah (Saw the Sahabah (Saw) dispersing (when caught by surprise), he instructed Hadhrat Abbaas (Saw) to call for the Ansaar and those who pledged allegiance beneath the tree (at Hudaybiyyah). They all responded saying,

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.6 Pg. 140) has commented on the chain of narrators, Bayhaqi has reported a similar but longer narration form Hadhrat Aa'isha 20026, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.117).

"At your service! At your service!" In fact, even those who were unable to get their camels to turn (towards the call because the camels were too frightened), threw on their armours, grabbed their swords and shields and hurried (on foot) towards the call. Soon a hundred Sahabah (50%) had gathered around Rasulullaah (50%). The enemy attacked them and the fight started.

While the first call had been for all the Ansaar, a second was made for the Khazraj tribe in particular because they were unwavering in battle. Rasulullaah peered out to see his cavalry and when he saw that they were fighting in earnest, he said, "Now is the time to heat the pebbles."

Hadhrat Jaabir continues. He says, "By Allaah! The Sahabah had hardly returned to the battle when (the Kuffaar were already defeated and) prisoners were being marched to Rasulullaah . Allaah killed those Kuffaar who were to die and those destined to be defeated were defeated. Allaah then gave all the wealth and children of the enemy to Rasulullaah as as booty." (1) Another narration from Hadhrat Abbaas states that Rasulullaah significant instructed Hadhrat Abbaas states to call for the men of the acacia tree (those who pledged allegiance beneath the tree at Hudaybiyyah). Hadhrat Abbaas says, "By Allaah! When they heard my voice, they returned to Rasulullaah significant cow returned to her calves (when she senses that they are in danger). They were all calling out, 'Yaa Labbaikaa! Yaa Labbaikaa! (At your service! At your service!)"(2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan was and the Sahabah Concerning the Breach of the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah

Hadhrat Ikrama reports that after Rasulullaah had entered into the treaty with the people of Makkah, the Banu Khuzaa'ah tribe who had been Rasulullaah ses allies during the Period of Ignorance, opted to align with the Muslims in the treaty. On the other hand, the Banu Bakr tribe aligned themselves with the Quraysh. When hostilities erupted between the Banu Khuzaa'ah and the Banu Bakr tribes, the Quraysh assisted the Banu Bakr with arms and food. The Banu Bakr then launched an offensive against the Banu Khuzaa'ah, overpowered them and killed many of them. The Quraysh feared that they had breached the treaty and immediately said to Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (who was then their leader), "Go to Muhammad and do your best to ensure that the treaty remains in place and that reconciliation takes place."

Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (therefore left and arrived in Madinah. Rasulullaah (signatur), "Abu Sufyaan has come to you. He shall soon return happy but without achieving his objective." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (signatur) went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (signatur) and said, "O Abu Bakr! Let the treaty remain in place and reconcile between the people." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (signatur) replied, "The (1) Bayhagi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pc.329).

⁽²⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.331), ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.11) has reported a similar narration in more detail.

matter does not rest with me. It rests with Allaah and His Rasool ... "Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan then approached Hadhrat Umar with the same request he had placed before Hadhrat Abu Bakr ... Hadhrat Umar said, "You have yourselves breached the treaty. May Allaah now make any new treaty old and sever any treaty that is firm." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan some remarked, "To this day I have never seen anyone so antagonistic against his own people as you are."

Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan then approached Hadhrat Faatima and said, "O Faatima! Do you wish to do something by which you will become the leader of the women of your tribe?" He then placed to her the same request he placed before Hadhrat Abu Bakr Said. She however made herself clear when she said, "The matter does not rest with me. It rests with Allaah and His Rasool Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan then approached Hadhrat Ali Said with the same request that he took to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Said. "To this day! have never seen anyone as lost as you are. You are the leader of your people. You should go and keep the treaty intact (by not allowing the people to breach it) and reconcile between the people."

Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan this one hand on the other and said, "I have already given some of the people protection from others." He then left and when he came to the people of Makkah, he informed them of what he had done. They said, "By Allaah! To this day we have never seen an ambassador like you! By Allaah! Neither have you come to us with news of a war so that we could take precautions nor have you brought news of a treaty so that we could feel safe." The rest of the narration has already been quoted in the chapter discussing the conquest of Makkah. (1)

How the Sahabah (Same treated the Captives of Badr Hadhrat Abu Azeez bin Umayr who was the real brother of Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr was says, "I was amongst the prisoners captured (by the Muslims) during the Battle of Badr. Rasulullaah said (to the Sahabah group of Ansaar and whenever the morning and afternoon meals were served, they ate dates only and gave me the wheat (bread) because of the instruction of Rasulullaah said (to treat us prisoners well)." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha When he Hastened to Fulfil the Command of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla 登場等 reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha 登場等 once came to Rasulullaah 袋等 at a time when Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Muntakhah Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 162).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer and Sagheer, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.86).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Google Obeys the Command of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ataa reports that Rasulullaah was once delivering a sermon when he told the people to be seated. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood heard this instruction at the door and immediately sat down. Rasulullaah then said. "O Abdullaah! You may come inside." (3)

Hadhrat Jaabir reports that Rasulullaah Ah had just stood up on the pulpit when he told the people to be seated. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood heard this instruction and immediately sat down at the door of the Masjid. When Rasulullaah Ah saw him, he said, "Come in, O Abdullaah bin Mas'ood." (4)

A Dome is Demolished because Rasulullaah Disliked it

Hadhral Anas harrates that they were once with Rasulullaah when he stepped out. Seeing a large dome, Rasulullaah asked, "What is this?" When the Sahabah informed him that it belonged to one of the Ansaar, Rasulullaah remained silent but kept it in mind. When the owner of the dome one day came to greet Rasulullaah amongst other people, Rasulullaah tumed away from him. When this occurred several times, the man realised that Rasulullaah was angry and ignoring him. The man brought up the matter with his friends saying, "By Allaah! Rasulullaah has behaved strangely today." The others then told him that Rasulullaah was angry with him because he) had seen his dome. The Sahabi hen went out and demolished the dome to the ground.

Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.52), Bayhaqi has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.306).

⁽²⁾ thn Assakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg.51). Tabraani in his Awsat and Haythami (Vol. 9 Pg.316) have reported a similar narration. Commentary on the chain of narrators has been mentioned by Haythami and also appears in Isaabah (Vol. 2 Pg.306).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 56).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.55).

On another day, Rasulullaah again went out but did not see the dome. When he asked the Sahabah what what had happened to it, they replied, "When the owner informed us that you had ignored him and we told him what the reason was, he demolished it." Rasulullaah as then remarked, "Take note! Every building is a curse for its owner except what is absolutely necessary." (1) A brief narration of Ibn Maajah states that when Rasulullaah as did not see the dome and asked about it, he was informed that the owner had demolished it because he had heard (that Rasulullaah as was displeased). Rasulullaah then prayed, "May Allaah shower His mercies on him."

Burning A Red Shawl because Rasulullaah Disliked it

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas an arrates that he was once wearing a red shawl when he was walking with Rasulullaah in Aqaba Adhaakhir (a valley between Makkah and Madinah). Turning to him, Rasulullaah asked, "What is this garment?" Realising that Rasulullaah is disliked it, Hadhrat Abdullaah went to his camp where the oven was being lit and threw the shawl into the oven. When he returned, Rasulullaah is asked him what had happened to the shawl. "I threw it in the oven," Hadhrat Abdullaah is replied. Rasulullaah is said, "You could have given it to one of the ladies of your household." (2)

Hadhrat Khuraym Cuts his Long Hair and Lifts his Lower Garment

Hadhrat Sahl bin Hadhaliyyah Abshami sam narrates that Rasulullaah sam once said to him, "Khuraym Asadi is an excellent man if it were not for his long hair and his garment hanging below his ankles." When this statement reached Hadhrat Khuraym sams, he immediately cut his hair up to the middle of his ears and raised his lower garment up to the middle of his calves. (3)

Hadhrat Kanani Ges Gets off a Golden Throne in Obedience to the Command of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Juthaama bin Musaahiq bin Rabee bin Qais Kanani was Hadhrat Umar was envoy to Heraclius (the emperor of Rome). He says, "I once sat on a throne (when visiting Heraclius) not knowing what it was. When I discovered that is was made of gold, I immediately got off. Heraclius laughed and said to me, "Why did you get off that throne that we have honoured you with?" I replied, 'Because I heard Rasulullaah forbid (us) from using such things." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood.

⁽²⁾ Dowiaabi in his Kuna (Vol.2 Pg.44).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Bukhaari in his Taareekh and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.59).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Uminaal (vol. 7 Pg.15). Ibn Mandali has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (vol. 1 Pg.227).

The Narration of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej

Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej saws, "My uncle came home one day and said to me, 'Today Rasulullaah & had forbidden us from something that has been very beneficial for you. However, obedience to Allaah and His Rasulullaah & seen more beneficial for you..." The rest of the narration concerns hiring out property. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Aslam

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Aslam bin Bujra belonged to the Banu Haarith bin Khazraj tribe and was a very old man. He reports about himself that he would often come to Madinah (from his village nearby) and then return home after doing what he needed to do at the marketplace. It was only after taking off his shawl (after returning home) that he would remember that he had not performed two Rakaahs salaah in the Masjid of Rasulullaah . He would say, "By Allaah! I have not performed two Rakaahs salaah in the Masjid of Rasulullaah whereas Rasulullaah told us (the inhabitants of the nearby villages), 'Whichever of you comes to this town (Madinah) should never return home until he has performed two Rakaahs salaah in this Masjid (of mine).' He would then put on his shawl again and return to Madinah to perform the two Rakaahs salaah in the Masjid of Rasulullaah

The Incident of Hadhrat Fataa 🐯 a Lady from the Ansaar

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba reports, "I once proposed for the hand of a lady from the Ansaar. When I mentioned this to Rasulullaah fie, he asked, 'Did you see her?' When I informed him that I did not, he said, 'See her because it contributes towards love developing between the two of you.' I then went to her home and when I mentioned this to her parents, they just stared at each other. I then got up and left. The lady tinen sent for me and stood in the corner of her veiled room as she said, 'If Rasulullaah had commanded you to see me, then you may look, otherwise you have no permission to do so.' I then looked at her and we were later married. I have never married a woman whom I loved as much as her and whom I respected as much as her, although I have married seventy women." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Fulfils the Command of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ma'roor bin Suwayd reports that he once saw Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Rabdha, Hadhrat Abu Dharr (was wearing a thick shawl and his slave was wearing exactly the same thing. Some people suggested to him, "O Abu Dharr! Why don't you take your slave's shawl and make up for yourself a complete set of clothing. You may then always give your slave something else to wear." Hadhrat Abu Dharr! (I once used bad language for a man (Hadhrat Bilaal (I)) and because his mother was not an Arab, I also teased him for it." When he complained about me to Rasulullaah (I). Rasulullaah (I) Araby (I) are a man who still has ignorance left in you. They (slaves) are your brothers over whom Allaah has given you some superiority. You should sell those of them who do not suit you and never punish the creation of Allaah."

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaag, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.73).

⁽²⁾ Nasan bin Sufyaan and Abu Nu'aym in his Ma'rifah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.346), Tabraani and Ibn Mandah has reported a similar narration and Ibn Mandah has commented on the chain of narrators, as quoted in Isaahah (Vol.3 Pg.414).

⁽³⁾ Sa'eed bin Mansoor and Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.288)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah & said to Hadhrat Abu Dharr Shee, "They are your brothers whom Allaah has placed in your custody. When Allaah has placed someone's brother in his custody, he should feed him what he eats, clothe him with what he wears and should not give him more work than he can bear. If he has to give him more work than he can manage, he (the master) should assist him." (2)

Being Stern with those who Oppose the Commands of Rasulullaah

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Abu Salamah bin Abdur Rahmaan narrates that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Because Abu Salamah was wearing a silk garment, Hadhrat Umar Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Auf Salamah bin Because Abu Salamah bin Because Abu Salamah bin Because Abu Salamah was wearing a silk garment, Hadhrat Umar Salamah bin Auf Salamah bi Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Salamah states that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Salamah states) with his son Muhammad who was wearing a silk garment. Hadhrat Umar (Salamah states) stood up, caught hold of the collar of the garment and tore it. "May Allaah forgive you!" protested Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Salamah states), "You have frightened the boy and set his heart racing." Hadhrat Umar (Salamah states) asked, "Do you allow them to wear clothes of silk?" "But I wear silk," explained Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Siles. "Are they at all like you (do they have the same complaint)?" Hadhrat Umar Siles challenged. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood.

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim and Tirmidhi as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.495). Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.7) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.237) have also reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.92).

Tearing the Garments of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen reports that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (See once went to Hadhrat Umar (See wearing a silk garment. "What is this, O Khaalid?" enquired Hadhrat Umar (See of See once went it, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" Hadhrat Khaalid (See of See of See of See once of See

The narration has already passed in the chapter entitled "The Sahabah Place Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sales Ahead for Khilaafah" (3) that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Saleed bin Aas Sales was in Yemen when Rasulullaah Fee passed away. He arrived in Madinah a month after Rasulullaah Fee demise wearing a silken cloak. When he met Hadhrat Umar Fee and Hadhrat Ali Fee, Hadhrat Umar Called out to the people, "Tear up his cloak! How can he wear silk when he is a Muslim man in times of peace?" The people then tore his cloak up. (4)

Hadhrat Umar Cuts Off Silk Buttons from a Garment

Hadhrat Abdah bin Abu Lubaabah reports that he was informed that Hadhrat Umar the once passed a person in the Masjid. The man was performing salaah and wearing a green garment that had buttons of silk. Standing by his side, Hadhrat Umar salas said, "Lengthen your salaah as much as you please but I shall remain here until you complete." When he saw that the man had turned towards him (after completing the salaah), Hadhrat Umar said, "Show me your garment." Hadhrat Umar salaah) then took the garment and cut off all the silk buttons before giving it back to the man. (5)

Hadhrat Ali Pulls off the Cloak of Hadhrat Sa'eed Qaari to tear it up

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Sufyaan Qaari says, "When my brother passed away, he made a bequest that a hundred Dinaars should be donated in the path of Allaah. I

⁽I) Ibn Uyaynah in his Jaami, Musaddad and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.57).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Unmaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 57).

⁽³⁾ The narration appears under the heading entitled "The Sahabah (1996) Place Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) Ahead for Khilaafah. Are Pleased to Select him and Condemn Anyone who desires to Divide their Unity" and under the subheading "The Differences between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed (1996) Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabari, Sayl and Ibn Asaakir.

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.57).

therefore went to Hadhrat Uthmaan (to find out what to do), wearing a cloak, the collar and hem of which was decorated with silk. When I got there, Hadhrat Uthmaan (had a man sitting with him. When the man saw me, he came up to me and started pulling at my cloak so that he could tear it up. Seeing this, Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (to start wearing silk).' I then proceeded to ask Hadhrat Uthmaan (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (You people have been too quick (

'Have you asked anyone else before coming to me?' enquired Hadhrat Uthmaan When I replied that I did not, he said, 'Had you been to seek a ruling from anyone else before coming to me and if he had passed a ruling other than what I shall pass, I would have had you executed (for asking an ignorant person). When Allaah commanded us to accept Islaam, we all did so and (by Allaah's grace) are all Muslims. Allaah then commanded us to make Hijrah so we made Hijrah and are all Muhaajireen and residents of Madinah. Allaah then commanded Jihaad and when you people waged Jihaad, you became Mujaahideen and residents of Shaam. Spend the money on yourself, on your family and on the needy ones around you (relatives and neighbours). If you take a Dirham and buy some meat for yourself and your family to eat (when necessary), you will have the reward of seven hundred Dirhams recorded to your name.' I then left him.

When I made enquiries about the man who was wrestling my cloak from me, I was informed that he was Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (1). I then visited him at his home and asked him what he saw me do wrong. He replied, 'I heard Rasulullaah (2) say, 'It will not be long before my Ummah legalises for themselves fornication and silk.' This is the first time that I have seen silk being worn by any Muslim.' I then left him and proceeded to sell the cloak." (1)

Hadhrat Umar Lashes his Governor Hadhrat Qudaamah Wow who was the Maternal Uncle of Hadhrat Hafsah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir bin Rabee'ah narrates that Hadhrat Umar suppointed Hadhrat Qudaamah bin Madh'oon suppointed Hadhrat Qudaamah bin Madh'oon suppointed Hadhrat Qudaamah suppointed to be the maternal uncle of Hadhrat Umar supposes two children Hadhrat Hafsah supposes and Hadhrat Abdullaah supposes two children Hadhrat Hafsah supposes who was the leader of the Abd Qais tribe one day arrived from Bahrain and went to Hadhrat Umar supposes. He said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Qudaamah drank something and was intoxicated, Because I have seen something that deserves the penalty of Allaah, It is my duty to report it to you." "Who is there to testify with you?" enquired Hadhrat Umar supposes when Hadhrat Jaarood supposes replied that Hadhrat Abu (I) Ibn Asaakit, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 57).

Hurayrah (was also a witness, Hadhrat Umar (was sent for him. "What have you seen?" Hadhrat Umar (was asked Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (was replied, "Although I did not actually see him drink anything, I did see him in a state of intoxication and vomiting." Hadhrat Umar (was remarked, "You are very precise in your testimony."

Hadhrat Umar Sizes then wrote to Hadhrat Qudaamah Sizes to come to him from Bahrain. When Hadhrat Qudaamah Sizes arrived, Hadhrat Jaarood Sizes said, "Enforce Allaah's penalty on him." "Are you a plaintiff or a witness?" Hadhrat Umar Sizes asked. "I am a witness," Hadhrat Jaarood Sizes replied. "Then you have already rendered your affidavit." Hadhrat Umar Sizes reminded him. Hadhrat Jaarood Sizes kept quiet but returned to Hadhrat Umar Sizes the next morning to demand that the penalty be enforced. Hadhrat Umar Sizes said to him, "To me you seem to be a plaintiff and have but only one witness." "I am then telling you (to enforce the penalty) in the name of Allaah!" Hadhrat Umar Sizes cautioned him saying, "Do control your tongue before I have to punish you!" Hadhrat Jaarood Sizes commented, "O Umar! It is wrong for you to punish me when it is your cousin who has drunk wine." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah then spoke saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! If you doubt our testimony, send for the daughter of Waleed and ask her. She is Oudaamah's wife."

Hadhrat Umar Sie then sent for Hind bint Waleed and asked her to testify in the name of Allaah. When she testified against her husband, Hadhrat Umar Sie said to Hadhrat Qudaamah Sie, "I will be having you lashed." "If I did drink as you claim," Hadhrat Qudaamah Sie argued, "you have no right to have me lashed." "Why is that?" asked Hadhrat Umar Sie Hadhrat Qudaamah Sie replied, "Because Allaah states:

(سورة مائده آيت ۹۲)

There is no sin on those who have Imaan and who do righteous acts for what they have eaten when they have adopted Taqwa (abstained from Haraam acts), had Imaan and performed good actions, then again adopted Taqwa and had Imaan; and again adopted Taqwa and performed good actions. Allaah loves those who do good." (Surah Maa'idah, verse 93)

Hadhrat Umar sixes said to him, "You have misinterpreted the verse. Had you adopted Taqwa, you would have refrained from that which Allaah has forbidden." Hadhrat Umar sixes then turned to the people and asked, "What do you say about having Qudaamah lashed?" The people replied, "We think that he should not be lashed as long as he is ill." Hadhrat Umar sixes then let the matter rest until after a few days when he renewed his resolve to have Hadhrat Qudaamah sixes lashed. Again he asked the people, "What do you say about having Qudaamah lashed?" The people replied, "We think that he should not be lashed as long as he is ill." This time, Hadhrat Umar sizes said, "I prefer that he meets Allaah beneath the lash rather than me meeting Allaah with the responsibility of lashing him still on my shoulders. Bring me a strong whip." (When the whip was brought) Hadhrat Umar sizes gave the instruction and Hadhrat Qudaamah was lashed.

Hadhrat Umar was then angry with Hadhrat Qudaamah and broke off ties with him. Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Qudaamah all later both performed Hajj while Hadhrat Umar was still angry with Hadhrat Qudaamah when they were both returning from the Hajj, Hadhrat Umar camped at a place called Suqya, where he fell asleep. When he awoke, from his sleep, he said, "Bring Qudaamah to me quickly. By Allaah! Someone came to me in my dream saying, 'Reconcile with Qudaamah because he is your brother.' Bring him to me quickly." When the people went to Hadhrat Qudaamah he refused to go. Hadhrat Umar was then instructed them to bring him by force. (When he arrived) Hadhrat Umar when spoke to him and sought Allaah's forgiveness for him. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Rebukes Someone Laughing during a Funeral

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Ubaydullaah reports from some of his companions that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (once saw a man laughing at a funeral. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (said to him, "Are you laughing while you are at a funeral? By Allaah! I shall never speak to you again." (2)

The Fear of the Sahabah William when An Instruction of Rasulullaah William was Opposed

Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah (Fears Something he said during the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas aid narrates that on the day the Battle of Badr of was fought, Rasulullaah said to the Sahabah said, "I know well that the men from the Banu Haashim were forced to march and have no desire to fight against us. Therefore, whoever confronts anyone from the Banu Haashim should not kill him. Whoever confronts Abul Bakhtari bin Hishaam bin Haarith bin Asad should not kill him and whoever of you confronts Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib the uncle of Rasulullaah said should also not kill him because he had been forced (to fight)." At this, Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah bin Utba bin Rabee'ah said, "Should we kill our fathers, our sons and our brothers and leave Abbaas? By Allaah! If I happen to confront Abbaas, I shall cut him to pieces with my sword."

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Abu Ali bin Sakan, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.229).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.116).

When this reached Rasulullaah , he asked Hadhrat Umar , "O Abu Hafs! (Hadhrat Umar says, "By Allaah! This was the first time that Rasulullaah as ever called me by the title of Abu Hafs") Will the face of Rasulullaah's uncle be smitten with a sword?" Hadhrat Umar burst out, "O Rasulullaah se! Permit me to behead Abu Hudhayfah! By Allaah! He has certainly turned hypocrite!" Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah says, "I have never felt safe from those words! uttered that day. I am always fearful of their repercussions unless martyrdom washes its effects off." Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah was finally martyred during the Battle of Yamaamah. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (Fears that he Betrayed Rasulullaah) and Repents

Hadhrat Ma'bad bin Ka'b reports that the Muslims laid siege to the (Jewish) Banu Qurayzah tribe for fifteen days until the siege became too much for them to bear and Allaah cast fear into their hearts. Eventually their chief Ka'b bin Asad proposed to them that they either accept Imaan, launch a surprise attack that Saturday or kill their women and children and then go out to fight (so that they would have nothing to lose). However, they said, "We shall never accept Imaan, never violate the sanctity of the Saturday and what life will there be for us without our women and children?" They then called for Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah bin Mundhir who had been one of their allies (during the Period of Ignorance). When they conferred with him about surrendering to the command of Rasulullaah he passed his finger across his throat to indicate that they would all be killed. Thereafter, Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah who had beaded for the Masjid of Rasulullaah where he tied himself to a pillar until Allaah accepted his repentance. (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Moosa bin Uqba states that the Banu Qurayzah asked, "O Abu Lubaabah! What is your opinion? What would you instruct us to do because we have no strength to fight?" Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat to indicate to them that they were to be executed. However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat they were to be executed.) However, when Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah (higher across his throat higher across his higher across his throat higher across his throat higher across his higher across his higher across his higher across his higher across his higher across his higher across his higher across his higher across his higher across his higher across his higher

He then returned to Madinah where he bound his hands to a pillar of the Masjid. It is believed that he kept himself bound for close to twenty days. When Rasulullaah did not see Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah did (after the Jews had called or him), he asked, "Has Abu Lubaabah not finished with his allies?" When the incident was related to Raculullaah did, he said, "A great trial has certainly afflicted him after he left me. Had he come to me (after making the mistake), I would have sought Allaah's forgiveness for him. However, since he has already done what he did (by tying himself to the pillar), I shall not move him from there until Allaah decides the matter as He pleases." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.248), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.5) and Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.223) have also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol. 7 Pg. 291).

The Fear of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais and the Glad Tidings Rasulullaah Gave him

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik for narrates that when Rasulullaah did not see Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais for awhile, a Sahabi volunteered to make enquiries about him. When the Sahabi for came to Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais for awhile, he found him sitting in his house with head bent down. "What's the matter?" he asked. "Bad," replied Hadhrat Thaabit for cause I raise my voice above that of Rasulullaah for all my deeds are destroyed and I am amongst the inmates of Jahannam." (This he felt because of a verse of the Qur'aan referring to people who deliberately raise their voices above that of Rasulullaah for the sahabi for returned a second time to Hadhrat Moosa bin Anas reports that the Sahabi for returned a second time to Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais for with glad tidings from Rasulullaah for Rasulullaah for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for inform Hadhrat Thaabit for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instructed the Sahabi for instruc

The daughter of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas (Signess) narrates from her father that he became extremely worried when he heard the verse:

Verily Allaah detests every arrogant boaster. {Surah Luqmaan, verse 18}

He then locked himself in his house and started to weep. When Rasulullaah was informed about this. Rasulullaah are called for him and he explained to Rasulullaah what it was that worried him. He said, "I am a man who loves beauty and to be the leader of my people." Rasulullaah are reassured him saying, "You are not amongst those (arrogant and boastful) people. Your life shall be good, your death shall be good and Allaah shall enter you into Jannah."

Hadhrat Thaabit when did the same thing when Allaah revealed the verse:

O you who have Imaan! Never raise your voices above the voice of the Rasool (literally and figuratively) and do not speak to him loudly as you speak loudly with each other, lest your deeds be laid to waste without your realising it. (Surah Hujuraat, verse 2)

When Rasulullaah was informed about this, Rasulullaah again called for him and he explained to Rasulullaah what it was that worried him. He explained that he naturally had a loud voice and feared that his deeds should not be laid to waste. Rasulullaah again consoled him by saying, "In fact, you shall live a praiseworthy life, be killed as a martyr and Allaah shall enter you into Jannah." $^{(1)}$

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 4 Pg. 119).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari.

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Thaabit Ansaari Preports that Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais once said to Rasulullaah Preports. "O Rasulullaah Preports that I have been destroyed." When Rasulullaah Preports asked him why he felt that way, he explained, "Whereas Allaah has prohibited us from liking to be praised for what we do not do, I seem to enjoy praise. Furthermore, whereas Allaah has prohibited us from pride. I find myself liking beauty and whereas Allaah has prohibited us from raising our voices above yours, I am a person with a loud voice." Rasulullaah Praiseworthy life, to be killed as a martyr and to enter Jannah?" "Certainly, O Rasulullaah Prime Hadhrat Thaabit Preports I then happened that Hadhrat Thaabit Preports I bived a praiseworthy life and was killed as a martyr the day the Muslims fought Musaylama Kadhaab. (2)

Emulating Rasulullaah

The Sahabah Follow Rasulullaah Fi in Salaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha was narrates that Rasulullaah she had a mat that he made into a room at nights to perform salaah (during Ramadhaan) and which he spread out during the day to sit on. The Sahabah she then started flocking to Rasulullaah and performing salaah with him. When there were too many people, Rasulullaah turned to them and said, "O people! Adopt those actions that you are capable of carrying out (with consistency) because Allaah never tires (of giving rewards) until you tire yourselves. Indeed the most beloved deeds to Allaah are those that are consistent even though they may be little." Another narration adds that whenever the family (and close ones) of Muhammad started anything, they did it with consistency. (3)

The Sahabah Remove their Rings Because Rasulullaah Did

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik (reports that it was for only a single day that he saw Rasulullaah (we wearing a silver ring when the Sahabah (started having rings made for themselves and wearing it. When Rasulullaah (discarded his ring, the Sahabah (did the same, (4))

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sisses states that Rasulullaah sisses wore a gold ring but then discarded it saying, "I shall never wear it again!" The Sahabah sisses then discarded their rings. (5)

Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.322) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.235) has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Haakim, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.89).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood and Bukhaari.

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.3).

Hadhrat Uthmaan Emulates Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Salamah Arates that when the Quraysh sent Hadhrat Khaarijah bin Kurz to spy for them, he returned full of praise (for the Muslims). The Quraysh said to him, "You are a Bedouin. All they had to do to make your heart flutter (with awe) was to shake their weapons. You have no idea about what they said nor about what you are saying." They then sent Urwa bin Mas'ood When Hadhrat Urwa Came (to the Muslim camp), he said "O Muhammad! What is this new development? You invite towards the Being of Allaah and then with the riff-raff of various tribes some of whom you know and others you do not know, you come to your own people to severe family ties and to plunder their honour, their blood and their wealth?" Rasulullaah Ferplied, "I have come to my people only to foster family ties and to give them a Deen and life better than their religion and their lives." Hadhrat Urwa then also returned full of praise.

However, the suffering of the Muslims living under the Mushrikeen (in Makkah) grew more intense. Rasulullaah the therefore called for Hadhrat Umar than and said, "O Umar! Will you (go to Makkah to) convey my message to your Muslim brothers who are prisoners?" "I am unable to do so, O Rasulullaah than I have." Hadhrat Umar than a said, "for I have no family in Makkah (to offer me protection). There are others who have more family (in Makkah) than I have." Rasulullaah then summoned Hadhrat Uthmaan than and sent him.

Hadhrat Uthmaan proceeded on his conveyance and was intercepted by some Mushrikeen soldiers who mocked him and addressed him with insulting words. It was then Hadhrat Uthmaan processes sousin Abaan bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas who took Hadhrat Uthmaan processes in his custody and made him ride behind him on his saddle. Hadhrat Uthmaan went with him, wearing his lower garment halfway up his calves. Abaan asked, "Dear cousin! Why do I see you humble yourself so? Lower your garment." Hadhrat Uthmaan were replied, "Such is the garment of our leader." Hadhrat Uthmaan then proceeded to convey Rasulullaah were message to every Muslim prisoner in Makkah.

It was while the Muslims were asleep during the afternoon (in Hudaybiyyah) that they heard Rasulullaah se's announcer call out, "O people! Come pledge your allegiance! Come pledge your allegiance! The Ruhul Qudus (Hadhrat Jibra'eel se's) has descended!" The Sahabah se's hastened to Rasulullaah se's who was beneath an acacia tree, where they pledged their allegiance (to fight to the death). It is with reference to this that Allaah says:

Allaah was well pleased with the Mu'mineen (the Sahabah (2006)) when they pledged their allegiance to you (O Rasulullaah (2006)) beneath the tree..." (Surah Fatah, verse 18)

Rasulullaah We pledged allegiance on behalf of Hadhrat Uthmaan Susses by placing his one hand over the other. The Sahabah Wasse said, "How fortunate for Abu Abdullaah (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan)) that he is able to perform Tawaaf of the Kabah while we are here." Rasulullaah (Fernarked, "Even if he had to remain there for years on end, he would not perform Tawaaf until I have performed Tawaaf." (1)

Another narration states that Abaan said, "Dear cousin! I see that you are humbling yourself. Why do you not let your garment fall below your ankles as your tribe does?" Hadhrat Uthmaan  replied, "This is how our leader wear his lower garment, halfway up his calves." Abaan then said, "Dear cousin! Perform Tawaaf of the Kabah." Hadhrat Uthmaan  replied, "We do nothing until our guide does it and then we follow in his footsteps." (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996), Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Zaid (1996) Concerning the Compilation of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once sent for him after the Battle of Yamaamah. With Hadhrat Abu Bakr at the time was Hadhrat Umar of Hadhrat Abu Bakr of Said to Hadhrat Zaid of Hadhrat Umar of Hadhrat Abu Bakr of Hadhrat Zaid of Hadhrat Umar of Hadhrat Abu Bakr of Hadhrat Zaid of Hadhrat Umar of Hadhrat Abu Bakr of Hadhrat Zaid of Hadhrat Umar of Hadhrat Abu Bakr of Hadhrat Zaid of Hadhrat Umar of Hadhrat Zaid of Hadhrat Umar of Hadhrat I have the Hadhrat Umar of Hadhrat I had I fear that if all the other battles also take a heavy toll on the Huffaadh, the Qur'aan should not leave us. I have therefore decided that you should compile the Qur'aan (into a single manuscript). How can we attempt to do something that Rasulullaah of never did? I asked him. But it is an excellent thing, he replied. Umar of then continued convincing me until Allaah put my heart at ease about the matter just as his heart was at ease. I now share Umar's opinion on the matter."

Hadhrat Zaid (narrates further, "Umar (was sitting there without saying a word. Abu Bakr (then continued, 'You are young and intelligent and we have no accusations to level against you. Furthermore, you used to write down the Qur'aan during the time of Rasulullaah (You should therefore do the compilation."

Hadhrat Zaid says, "By Allaah had they charged me with moving a mountain, it would not have been more difficult than the instruction to collect the Qur'aan (into one manuscript). I said, 'How can you do something that Rasulullaah say never did?' 'By Allaah!' said Abu Bakr say, 'the act is an excellent one.' Abu Bakr say then continued convincing me until Allaah put my heart at ease about the matter just as the hearts of Abu Bakr say and Umar says were at ease. I then shared their opinion on the matter. I then launched an intensive search for parts of the Qur'aan that had been preserved on paper, white stones, collar bones, palm leaves and the hearts of men. It was only with Khuzaymah bin Thaabit Ansaari that I could find (in writing) the closing verses of Surah Baraa'ah:

Ibn Abi Shaybali, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.84). Rooyaani, Abu Ya'la and ibn Asaakir have also reported a similar narration in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.56).
 Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.461).

⁽³⁾ According to one narration, from the fourteen hundred Muslims martyred during this battle, seven hundred were Huffaadh.

﴿ لَقَدْ جَآءٌ كُمْ رَسُولٌ مِّنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ عَزِيْزٌ عَلَيْهِ مَا عَنِتُّمْ حَرِيْصٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ رَءُ وُ كُ رَّحِبُمُ ﷺ فَإِنْ تَوَلَّواْ فَقُلْ حَسْمِيَ اللَّهُ لَا اللهَ اللَّه هُوَ * عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَهُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْضِ الْعَظِيْمِ ﴾ (سورة نوبه: آين،١٩٠١)

Undoubtedly a Rasool from yourselves has come to you (someone whose lineage, morals, manners and integrity you know well). The difficulties that afflict you are very distressing to him. He is anxious for (good to come to) you and extremely forgiving and merciful (gentle and kind) towards the Mu'mineen. If they turn away, then say, "Allaah is sufficient for me (even if the whole world turns against me). There is none worthy of worship besides Him. On Him only do I rely and He is the Rabb of the glorious Throne.". (Surah Taubah, 128-129)

The manuscript of the complete collected Qur'aan remained with Hadhrat Abu Bakr with throughout his life until he passed away. It then remained with Hadhrat Umar with throughout his life until he passed away. Thereafter, it remained with Hadhrat Hafsah with the daughter of Hadhrat Umar with the same of the daughter of Hadhrat Umar with the same of the daughter of Hadhrat Umar with the same of the daughter of Hadhrat Umar with the same of the daughter of Hadhrat Umar with the same of the same o

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Dispatches the Army of Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid

The statement of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Single) has already passed in which he said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I prefer falling from the sky rather than neglecting to fight for something for which Rasululiaah (Single) fought." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Single) then waged Jihaad against the Arabs (who had renounced Islaam and those who refused to pay zakaah). (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Bigs) said, "By Allaah! I shall certainly fight those who differentiate between salaah and zakaah (by performing Salaat while omitting zakaah) because zakaah is a right due from wealth. By Allaah! Should they refuse to give me (as part of the zakaah dues) even a rope that they used to give to Rasulullaah (Bigs). I shall fight them for it." (3)

Another narration has also passed (4) in which Hadhrat Abu Bakr (5) said, "I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship! Even though wild dogs should drag the legs of the wives of Rasulullaah (2) (because there is

(3) Bukhaari, Muslim and Ahmad, narrating from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (3).

Tayaalisi, Ibn Sa'd, Ahmad, Bukhaari, Tirmidhi, NAsa'ee, Ibn Hibbaari and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 9g. 279).

⁽²⁾ Adani from Hadhrat Umar 556.

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "Rasulullash (25% is Particular about Dispatching the Army of Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid (25%) even on his Deathbed, after which Hadhrat Abu Bakr (25%) also Gives the Same Importance to the Matter When he Becomes the Khalifah" and the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Bakr (25%) Rejects the Request of the Muhaajireen and Ansaar to hold back the Army of Hadhrat Usaama (25%).

none in Madinah to defend them), I shall never recall an army that Rasulullaah what had dispatched nor untie a flag that Rasulullaah had tied." He then dispatched the army of Hadhrat Usaama

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Abu Bakr! Even if I knew that wild animals would tear at my body (as a result), I would still dispatch the army of Usaama according to the commands of Rasulullaah sign. I would do so even if I were to be the only person left behind in Madinah." (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Urwa Quotes that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Said, "I have dared to do something extremely perilous! I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I prefer having all the Arabs turn against me rather than holding back an army that Rasulullaah Had dispatched. O Usaama! Proceed whence you have been commanded to march and then fight in the parts of Palestine and against the people at Mu'ta as Rasulullaah Had commanded you. Remember that Allaah is enough for those you are leaving behind." (3)

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr sees caught hold of the beard of Hadhrat Umar sees as he said, "May your mother lose you, O son of Khaltaab! You are asking me to relieve him (Hadhrat Usaama sees) of a post to which Rasulullaah sees appointed him?!" This narration has already been quoted in detail. (4)

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and his Daughter Hadhrat Hafsah (1996) Concerning Clothing and Food

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas reports that Hadhrat Hafsah once said to her father Hadhrat Umar ("O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why don't you wear clothing of a better quality than those you wear and eat food that is better than the food you eat? Allaah has now made food abundant and increased our wealth." Hadhrat Umar feelied, "I shall have you prove the point against yourself. Do you recall the hard life that Rasulullaah if lived?" He then continued reminding her of this (Rasulullaah if hard life) until he made her weep. He then said, "By Allaah! Now that you have admitted to that (the hard lives that Rasulullaah if hard lives with them as far as I am able to. In this way I shall perchance be able to join them in their lives of ease and comfort (in the Aakhirah)." (5)

Many similar narrations have passed in detail in the chapter dealing with the

⁽¹⁾ Bayhagi from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 300005.

⁽²⁾ Sayf, from Hadhrat Urwa 当场场

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir.

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "Rasulullaah (256) is Particular about Dispatching the Army of Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid (250) even on his Deathbed, after which Hadhrat Abu Bakr (250) also Gives the Same Importance to the Matter When he Becomes the Khalifah" and the subheading "Hadhrat Usaama (250) eeks Permission".

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. i Pg. 47). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg. 199) has also reported the narration.

abstinence of Hadhrat Umar 墨瑙海

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar when he was Presented with a New Garment

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (Fig. 1) reports that Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 2) was once sitting amongst some friends when a cotton garment was brought. He started wearing it and had hardly pulled it over his collarbones when he recited:

"All praise is for Allaah Who has given me clothing to wear to cover my private areas and with which I can beautify myself during my lifetime."

He then turned to the people and said, "Do you know why I said these words?"
They replied, "We will not know until you inform us." He explained, "I was once with Rasulullaah when he was brought a set of new clothing. He put it on and then said:

Thereafter, he added, 'I swear by the Being Who has sent me with the truth! When Allaah gives a Muslim new clothing to wear and only for the pleasure of Allaah he gives his old clothes to a poor Muslim to wear, he will be in the safety, protection and guardianship of Allaah as long as the (poor) person has even a thread of it on his body either while alive of dead."

Hadhrat Umar then stretched out his arms to see how much the garment overlapped his fingers. He then said to (his son) Hadhrat Abdullaah ("Dear son! Do bring the knife." Hadhrat Abdullaah See stood up and brought the knife. Hadhrat Umar then stretched out the sleeves over his arms and cut off what he saw to overlap. Those around him asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Should we not bring a tailor to stitch the ends?" "No," replied Hadhrat Umar See. Hadhrat Abu Umaamah See says that afterwards he saw the threads of the sleeves dangling haphazardly over Hadhrat Umar Sies singers where he did not have it stitched. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports, "(My father) Umar once wore a new upper garment and then asked me to bring a knife. He then said, 'Dear son! Stretch the sleeves of my garment and hold firmly onto where my fingers are. Then cut off whatever overlaps my fingers.' I then cut off the ends of both sleeves and (because I could not cut straight with the knife), the openings of the sleeves were unequal in length. I therefore said to him, 'Dear father! Why don't I cut them equally with a scissor?' Leave it, son,' he replied, 'because I have seen Rasulullaah wife do exactly the same.' The garment then remained on him in this manner until it eventually wore out. I would often see the threads falling over his foot." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Hannaad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.55).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.45).

Statements of the Sahabah Concerning Kissing the Black Stone and Touching the Two Western Pillars of the Kabah

Hadhrat Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar some once addressed the Hajar Aswad (Black Stone) saying, "Behold! I swear by Allaah that I know well that you can neither cause benefit nor harm. Had I not seen Rasulullaah sik kiss you, I would never have kissed you." After kissing it, he said, "Why should we perform Ramal? It was something that we did to show the Mushrikeen (that we have strength). Allaah has subsequently destroyed them (and we therefore have no need to continue it)! However, because it was something that Rasulullaah sidd, we do not like to forsake it." (1)

A Sahabi see reports that he saw Rasulullaah se standing by the Hajar Aswad and saying, "I know well that you are a stone that can neither cause benefit nor do harm." Rasulullaah se then kissed it. Thereafter, when Hadhrat Abu Bakr see performed Hajj, he also stood by the Hajar Aswad and said, "I know well that you are a stone that can neither cause benefit nor do harm. Had I not seen Rasulullaah se kiss you, I would have not done so." (2)

Hadhrat Ya'la bin Umayyah says, "I was performing Tawaaf with Hadhrat Uthmaan says. After kissing the Hajar Aswad, I was walking next to the Kabah, When we passed by the western pillar (called Rukn Iraqi) that comes after the Hajar Aswad, I pulled at Hadhrat Uthmaan says shand to touch it, 'What is the matter?' he asked. 'Are you not going to touch the pillar?' I asked. 'Did you not perform Tawaaf with Rasulullaah says he enquired. When I replied that I did, he asked, 'Did you see Rasulullaah says touch any of the two western pillars of the Kabah (Rukn Iraqi and Rukn Shaami)?' 'No,' I replied. He then said, 'Do you then not have a perfect example in Rasulullaah says 'Most certainly,' I replied. He then bade me, 'Then leave it out and proceed."(3)

The Incident between Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and a Bedouin

Hadhrat Bakr bin Abdullaah narrates that a Bedouin once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ("Why is it that (on the occasion of Hajj) the family of Mu'aawiya gives people water and honey to drink, the family of another give milk while you people give only Nabeedh (4)? Is it because you people are stingy or because you are poor?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ("Feplied by saying," It is neither because we are stingy nor because we are poor. However, Rasulullaah ("Feplied by once came to us with Usaama bin Zaid sitting behind him on the animal. When he asked for something to drink and we gave him this (Nabeedh) to drink, he drank it an said, 'You have prepared it well. This is what

⁽¹⁾ Bukhasri, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.153).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Daar Qutni in his Ital, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 34).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad (Vol.1 Pg.70).

⁽⁴⁾ Water in which dates or raisins are left for a while to give it taste.

you should continue doing."(1)

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Tammaam reports that a man once approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and asked, "Tell me about this Nabeedh from raisins that you give people to drink. Is it because of a Sunnah that you are following or do you find this more convenient for yourselves than giving milk and honey?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas replied, "Indeed Rasulullaah once came to Abbaas who was busy giving the people Nabeedh to drink. When Rasulullaah asked for something to drink, Abbaas called for a few cups of Nabeedh and handed one over to Rasulullaah for a few cups of Nabeedh and handed one over to Rasulullaah for a few cups of Nabeedh and handed one over to Rasulullaah for a few cups of Nabeedh and handed one over to Rasulullaah for a few cups of Nabeedh and handed one over to Rasulullaah for memarked, 'You have it prepared well. This is what you should continue doing.' It therefore gives me no pleasure to be a means of giving people milk and honey in place of the statement Rasulullaah for made when he said, 'You have prepared it well. This is what you should continue doing." (2)

Incidents About How Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Followed in the Footsteps of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates, "I was once with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar in Arafaat. When the people left, I left with him until we reached the Imaam and performed the Zuhr and Asr salaah behind him. My companions and I then stayed there with him until the Imaam left (for Muzdalifah after sunset). We left with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was and when we eventually reached a narrow place just before Ma'zamain, he made his animal sit. We also made our animals sit, thinking that he intended performing salaah. He however told us that it was at this place that Rasulullaah sit stopped to relieve himself and that he also wished to relieve himself there." (3)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (wie used to go to a certain tree between Makkah and Madinah beneath which he would have his afternoon nap. He mentioned that (he did so because) Rasulullaah (wie used to do that. (4)

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was was extremely particular about following in the footsteps of Rasulullaah . He would therefore note every spot where Rasulullaah performed salaah (during journeys) and (was so particular about this that) even if Rasulullaah we ever dismounted beneath any tree, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would care for the tree and pour water on its roots so that it should not dry up. (5)

Hadhrat Mujaahid says, "Weonceaccompanied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sussion a journey. When he passed by a certain place, he turned to the side of the road. When we asked him why he had done this, he replied, 'I saw Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Fg.16).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.47).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.175), as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.46).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.59).

經經 do that.""(1)

Hadhrat Naafi reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was used to turn his animal's head while travelling the road to Makkah (to turn the animal in different directions). Turning the animal, he would say, "(I am doing this) So that the footstep (of my animal) falls on the footstep (of Rasulullaah says, "Ifyou had to see Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, following in the footsteps of Rasulullaah says, "un would say that he is mad." (3) Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "There was none who followed so meticulously the footsteps of Rasulullaah in all his stops (during his travels) as Abdullaah bin Umar says did." (4)

Another narration states that if anyone had to see Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar follow in the footsteps of Rasulullaah (they would think that his mind was affected. Hadhrat Naafi says, "No camel that has lost her little one in a desert searches as thoroughly as Abdullaah bin Umar does when searching for the footsteps of Rasulullaah ().

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Umayyah bin Abdullaah reports that he once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Wefind the salaah of fear and the salaah of a resident in the Qur'aan, but do not find the salaah of a traveller?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Rahman Felied," Allaahsen his Nabi ("E") (to guide us) when we were the most unrefined people. We therefore do as Rasulullaah ("E") did."

Hadhrat Umayyah bin Abdullaah bin Khaalid bin Usayd reports that he once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("In the Qur'aan we find mention of shortening the salaah of fear but do not find the shortening of the traveller's salaah?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("In the shortening of the traveller's salaah?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("In the shortening of the traveller's salaah?" and we did the same."

Hadhrat Waarid bin Abu Aasim reports that he once met Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wie in Mina and asked him about the salaali performed on a journey. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wie replied that it was only two Rakaahs, Hadhrat Waarid asked, "What is your opinion now that we are here in Mina?" This infuriated Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wie and he said, "Shame on you! Have you heard about Rasulullaah wie?" Hadhrat Waarid replied, "Certainly, and I believe in him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wie then said, "Whenever Rasulullaah went on a journey, he would perform two Rakaahs salaah. You may therefore perform two Rakaahs or leave it out," (8)

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Abu Muneed Jurashi states that someone once enquired from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986) about the verse:

⁽I) Ahmad and Bazzaar reporting from reliable sources, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.46)

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Yilya (Vol.1 Pg.310).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya. Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.561) has also reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 1 Pg.107).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.310).

⁽⁶⁾ Abdur Razzaag

⁽⁷⁾ Ibn Jareer.

⁽⁸⁾ Ibn Jareer.

﴿ وَاذَا ضَرَبُتُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَقْصُرُواْ مِنَ الصَّلَاةِ انْ حَفْتُمْ أَنْ يَفْتنَكُمُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوا انَّ الْكَافِرِيْنَ كَانُوا لَكُمْ عَدُوًّا مُّبِينًا ﴾ (سورة نساء: آيت ١٠١) When you travel on earth, there is no sin on you should you shorten your salaah if you fear an attack from the Kuffaar. Indeed the Kuffaar are your open enemies. (Surah Nisaa, verse 101)

The person then asked, "Should we also shorten the salaah when we are in safety and not in fear (while travelling)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (while travelling)?" "There was certainly an excellent example for you in Rasulullaah ("(1) Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that he once saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar perform salaah with his buttons open. When he asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was about it, he replied, "I have seen Rasulullaah doing this." (2)

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra Goo opens his buttons to Emulate Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ourra was says. "I went to Rasulullaah was in the company of a group from the Banu Muzayna tribe and we pledged our allegiance to him. Rasulullaah ses buttons were open and I put my hand into the collar of his upper garment and felt the seal of prophethood." Hadhrat Urwa bin Abdullaah bin Oushayr says, "Whether summer or winter, I always saw Mu'aawiya (the son of Hadhrat Qurra (emulating) and his son with their buttons open (emulating Rasulullaah (185). (3)

Giving Due Regard to all Those Who have Some Relationship with Rasulullaah 题题, Whether they are His Companions, His Family, His Tribe or his Ummah

A Group of Sahabah Argue About their Relationship with Rasulullaah and He Confirms What they Say

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Ujrah Sissis says, "We were all sitting before (the room of) Rasulullaah is in the Masjid. We were a group from the Ansaar and there was also a group from the Muhaajireen and another from the Banu Haashim. We then started disputing about which of us were closer and more beloved to Rasulullaah We said, 'It is us, the group of the Ansaar. We believed in Rasulullaah followed him, fought by his side and our army was always at the throats of the enemy. We are therefore closer and more beloved to Rasulullaah 25%. Our Muhaajireen brothers then said, 'It is us who migrated with Allaah and Rasulullaah (25), separating from our tribes, families and wealth. In addition to this, we were also present where you were present and fought the battles you fought. We are therefore closer and more beloved to Rasulullaah (Our brothers from the Banu Haashim then spoke, 'We are the family of Rasulullaah (We were also present where you were present and fought the battles you fought, We are therefore closer and more beloved to Rasulullaah ().

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.240). (2) Ibn Khuzaymah and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg. 46).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Maajah, Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.45). Baghawi and Ibn Sakan have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.233), as has Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.460).

Rasulullaah stit then came out to us and facing towards us, he enquired, 'Were you discussing something?' When we repeated what we (the Ansaar) had said, Rasulullaah stit remarked, 'You are right. Who candeny you this?' When we informed him about what our Muhaajireen brothers had said, Rasulullaah stif remarked, 'They are right. Who can deny them this?' When we then informed him about what our brothers from the Banu Haashim had said, Rasulullaah stif remarked, 'They are also right. Who can deny them this?'

Rasulullaah then said, 'Should I not pass a decision between you?' We all exclaimed, 'Please do! May all our fathers and mothers be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah Rasulullaah said, 'As for you, O assembly of Ansaar, I am your brother.' The Ansaar rejoiced, 'Allaahu Akbar! By the Rabb of the Kabah, we are pleased with this!' Rasulullaah said, 'As for you, O assembly of Muhaajireen, I am one of you.' The Muhaajireen rejoiced, 'Allaahu Akbar! By the Rabb of the Kabah, we are pleased with this!' Rasulullaah said.' As for you, O Banu Haashim, you are from me and I am from you.' The Banu Haashim rejoiced, 'Allaahu Akbar! By the Rabb of the Kabah, we are pleased with this!' We all then stood up and were all pleased and coveting our relationship with Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah Forbids Hadhrat Khaalid Forbids the From Hurting the Veterans of Badr and Forbids the People from Hurting Hadhrat Khaalid

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa see narrates that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf see once complained to Rasulullaah about Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed sees. Rasulullaah see said, "O Khaalid! Never hurt the veterans of Badr because you will never be able to match the deeds they carried out even though you spend as much as Mount Uhud in gold." Hadhrat Khaalid sees responded by saying, "When people insult me, I respond to them in the same way." Rasulullaah see then said (to the Sahabah sees), "Never hurt Khaalid because he is a sword from amongst the swords of Allaah that Allaah rains down upon the Kuffaar." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan reports that there once arose a dispute between Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sties and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Sties. Hadhrat Khaalid Sties said to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Sties, "Do not assert your superiority over me just because you accepted Islaam a day or two before me!"

⁽i) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg. 14) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Sagheer and Kaheer, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.349). Bazzaar has also reported a stimilar narration. Ibn Asaakir and Abu Ya'la have also, reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.138), as has Ibn Abdul Birr in his Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.409).

When the news of this reached Rasulullaah (Will he said, "Will you people not leave my companions alone for my sake! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if any of you (non-veterans of Badr) have to spend the equivalent of Mount Uhud in gold, he will not even attain their reward of spending half a Mudd." Some time afterwards an argument sparked between Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 學障礙 and Hadhrat Zubavr 墨酸硷. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 题题 then approached Rasulullaah 機能 and said, "O Nabl 概能! You forbade me from hurting Abdur Rahmaan but now Zubayr is disputing with him." Rasulullaah the replied. "They are all veterans of Badr and (because they are equal in rank) they have a right to (dispute amongst) each other." (1) Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah marrates that there once arose between Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 劉陽德 and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 劉陽德 a dispute of that nature that usually occurs between people. Rasulullaah & commented, "Will you people not leave my companions alone for my sake! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if any of you (non-veterans of Badr) have to spend the equivalent of Mount Uhud in gold, he will not even attain their reward for spending a Mudd or half of it." (2)

Rasulullaah & Says, "Allaah has Selected my Companions from All in the Universe"

Hadhrat Jaabir seports that Rasulullaah said, "Allaah has selected my companions from all in the universe apart from the prophets and messengers. He has then selected four of them for me viz. Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthmaan and Ali and made them my special companions. Of course, there is great good in every one of my companions. Allaah has also selected my Ummah over all other nations and then selected four generations from amongst my Ummah viz. the first (the period in which Rasulullaah see lived), the second, the third and the fourth generations." (3)

The Advice Rasulullaah es gave Concerning the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf harrates that when Rasulullaah was on his deathbed, the Sahabah asked, "O Rasulullaah fie Give us some advice." Rasulullaah said, "I advise you to be good towards those Muhaajireen who were the earliest adherents to Islaam and towards their children after them. If you fail to do this, neither your obligatory nor your optional deeds will be accepted." (4)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah see advised, "I advise you to be good towards those Muhaajireen who were the earliest adherents to Islaam, towards

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 138). Ahmad has also reported the narration in brief from Hadhrat Anas $30000.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.15) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.16) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, as quoted by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.17).

their children after them and towards their children after them." (1)
Hadhrat Zaid bin Sa'd reports from his father that when Rasulullaah was informed that he was soon to leave this world, he came out of his room wrapped in old clothing and sat on the pulpit. When the people and the business people heard about this, they all presented themselves in the Masjid. After praising Allaah, Rasulullaah said, "O people! Keep me in mind when dealing with the Ansaar because they are my belly in which I deposit my food and they are my treasure box (I place my total trust in them). You should therefore accept from those of them who do good and overlook those of them who do evil." (2)

Rasulullaah Forbids People from Reviling the Hadhrat Anas Free reports that when mention was made of Hadhrat Maalik bin Dukhshun Free before Rasulullaah Free and some people started accusing him of being the head of the Munaafiqeen, Rasulullaah Free said, "Do leave my companions alone for my sake and never revile them."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (narrates that Rasulullaah (said, "Allaah, the angels and all of mankind curse the person who reviles my Sahabah ("4") Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Never revile my Sahabah ("Never revile my Sahabah ("Never revile my Sahabah ("Sahabah ("

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Warns Those who Speak ill of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jubayr reports that a man once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas for some advice. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said, "I advise you to adopt Taqwa and to refrain from speaking ill of the Sahabah because you have no idea about what has been destined for them." (7)

Rasulullaah 's Advice Concerning the Members of his Household

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was narrates that the final words that Rasulullaah was spoke were. "Be my successors over the members of my household (treat them well and care for them as I have been doing)." (8)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.17).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.36) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.21).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.21) has commented on the chain of narrators.
(5) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.21) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.21).

⁽⁷⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.22) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁸⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 163) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah once came to Rasulullaah for carrying (her sons) Hadhrat Hasan once came to Rasulullaah for carrying (her sons) Hadhrat Hasan on her hips. In her hand she was carrying a pot belonging to Hadhrat Hasan in which there was some hot food. When she put the pot down before Rasulullaah for he asked, "Where is Abul Hasan (Hadhrat Ali one)?" When Hadhrat Faatima formed him that Hadhrat Ali one was at home, Rasulullaah for called him. Rasulullaah for then sat down to eat with Hadhrat Ali one, Hadhrat Faatima for Hadhrat Hasan on Hadhrat Husayn for them whereas whenever he ate food, he would always call for me if I was there. After eating, Rasulullaah for covered them all in his shawl and said. "O Allaah! You be the enemy of those who are their enemies and You be the friend of those who are their friends." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas marrates that Rasulullaah we once said, "O progeny of Abdul Muttalib! I have asked Allaah for three things for you. That He keeps steadfast those of you who are established (on Deen), that He educates those of you who are ignorant and that He guides those of you who are misguided. I have also asked Allah to make you extremely generous and merciful. Even though a person may be engaged in Ibaadah standing between the Hajar Aswad and Maqaam (Ibraheem) and even though he performs salaah and fasts, he will still enter Jahannam if he bears enmity for the members of Muhammad's household." (2)

Hadhrat Uthmaan (French that Rasulullaah) (French towards any member of Abdul Muttalib's progeny and is not recompensed in this world, it shall be my duty to repay him for it tomorrow (on the Day of Qiyaamah) when he meets me." (3) Hadhrat Umar (is Overjoyed to be Related to Rasulullaah (is)

Hadhrat Jaabir sims narrates that on the occasion of Hadhrat Umar sims marriage to the daughter of Hadhrat Ali sims, he heard Hadhrat Umar say to the people, "Will you not congratulate me? I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'On the Day of Qiyaamah, all relations and family ties will be severed besides my relations and family ties." (By marrying Hadhrat Ali sims saughter, Hadhrat Umar sims therefore established a tie of kinship with Rasulullaah sims.) (4)

The Status of the Quraysh

Hadhral Muhammad bin Ibraheem Taymi reports that Hadhral Qataadah bin

- (1) Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.167).
- (2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.171) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (3) Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.173) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (4) Tabraani in his Awsat and Kabeer, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 173) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Nu'maan Dhafari (Sing) once insulted the Quraysh and appeared to used improper language. Rasulullaah (Sing) said, "O Qataadah! Never speak ill of the Quraysh because you will find amongst them such men whose actions and deeds make you pale into insignificance and whom you will truly envy. Had I no fear of the Quraysh becoming rebellious, I would have informed them of their (high) status in Allaah's sight." (1)

Hadhrat Ali reports that to the best of his knowledge, Rasulullaah stated, "Always put the Quraysh forwards and never step ahead of them, Had I no fear of the Quraysh becoming boastful, I would have informed them of their status in the sight of Allaah." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Sees) reports that Rasulullaah (Sees) once came to her and said, "Had I no fear of the Quraysh becoming boastful, I would have informed them of their status in the sight of Allaah." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah sees narrates that Rasulullaah sees mentioned, "Look for trustworthiness amongst the Quraysh because a trustworthy person from the Quraysh is superior to a trustworthy person from another tribe and a powerful person from the Quraysh (in Deen and in leadership) is twice as superior as a strong person from another tribe." (4)

Hadhrat Rifaa'ah bin Raafi 🚟 reports that Rasulullaah 🕮 one instructed Hadhrat Umar 劉璋等, "Gather my people." Hadhrat Umar 劉璋等 gathered them at Rasulullaah "s room and then went in and asked, "O Rasulullaah "s! Should I get them to enter or shall you be going out to them?" Rasulullaah (286's reply was: "I shall rather go to them." When Rasulullaah went to them, he asked, "Is there anyone here who does not belong to you?" "Yes," they replied, "Amongst us are also our allies, the children of our sisters and our slaves." Rasulullaah said to them, "Our allies are part of us, the children of our sisters are part of us and our slaves are all part of us. Have you not heard that it is only those with Tagwa who are Allaah's friends? If you are His friends, then it is excellent. Otherwise, you should give the matter deep thought. It should not be that other people arrive on the Day of Qiyaamah with plenty of good deeds while you arrive there with sins, because of which I will have to turn away from you." Rasulullaah then raised his hands and said, "O people! The Quraysh are trustworthy people. Allaah will therefore grab by the nostrils the person who searches for their faults and throw him into the Fire of Jahannam." Rasulullaah es repeated this thrice. (5)

Harbouring Enmity for the Banu Haashim, the Ansaar and for Arabs

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 🐯 reports that Rasulullaah 🕮 said,

- (1) Ahmad, Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.23) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (2) Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.25) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (3) Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.25).
- (4) Tabraani and Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.26).
- (5) Bazzaar, Ahmad and Tabraani, all reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg 26).

"Harbouring enmity for the Banu Haashim and for the Ansaar lead to Kufr and harbouring enmity for Arabs is a sign of hypocrisy." (1)

The Quraysh shall be First to Meet Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Rasulullaah so once entered my room and said, 'O Aa'isha! Your people shall be first of my Ummah to meet me.' After Rasulullaah sat down, I asked, 'O Rasulullaah say! May Allaah sacrifice my life for you! You had entered saying something that gave me a fright.' 'What was that?' he asked. I explained, 'You said that my people shall be the first of the Ummah to meet with you.' 'That is what I said,' Rasulullaah so confirmed. 'What will be the reason for that?' I enquired. Rasulullaah replied, 'Death shall harvest them and people will be jealous of them.' I then asked, 'What will be the condition of people afterwards?' 'They will be like young locusts, the strong of which will devour the weak. This will continue until Qiyaamah eventually takes place over them."

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "O Aa'isha! The first of people to be destroyed shall be your people." Hadhrat Aa'isha saked, "May Allaah sacrifice my life for you! Will it be due to poisoning?" "No," replied Rasulullaah said, "It will be their deaths that will come to this tribe of Quraysh and people will be jealous of them. They will then be the first of people to be destroyed," Hadhrat Aa'isha said enquired further, "How long will life be after them?" Rasulullaah replied, "They are the backbone of people and people will be destroyed as soon as they are destroyed." (2)

Rasulullaah Gives Glad Tidings to those to Hadhrat Umar saked (the Sahabah saked), "Tell me whose Imaan is best from all those with Imaan." The Sahabah replied, "It is the angels, O Rasulullaah saked (the Sahabah replied, "They are on their place and it is expected of them (to have strong Imaan). What prevents them from this when Allaah has accorded them the elevated status that He has? It is someone else." The Sahabah saked submitted, "O Rasulullaah sake! It must then be the Ambiyaa whom Allaah has honoured with His message and Nabuwaat." Rasulullaah saked again said, "They are on their place and it is expected of them. What prevents them from this when Allaah has accorded them the elevated status that He has? It is someone else."

Thereafter, the Sahabah Ambiyaa?" Yet again, Rasulullaah Ambiyaa?" Yet again, Rasulullaah Ambiyaa?" Yet again, Rasulullaah Ambiyaa?" Yet again, Rasulullaah Ambiyaa aid, "They are on their place and it is expected of them. What prevents them from this when Allaah has accorded them the elevated status that He has? It is someone else." "Then who?" the Sahabah who begged to know. Rasulullaah who explained, "People who are still in the backs of their forefathers. They will come after me and will believe in me without ever seeing me. They will believe what I say without seeing me and will practice on (the teachings recorded on) hanging pages (of the Qur'aan) that they will find. These are the people whose Imaan is best from all those who have Imaan." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.27).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.28). Tabraani in his Awsat and Bazzaar have also reported the narration but there is commentary on their chains of narrators.

Hadhrat Amr Freports that Rasulullaah Freports once asked, "Tell me which creation will hold the highest status in Allaah's sight on the Day of Qiyaamah." When the Sahabah Free submitted that it will be the angels, Rasulullaah Free commented, "What prevents them from this when they are so close to their Rabb? It is someone else." "Then it must be the Ambiyaa," the Sahabah Free said. Rasulullaah Free corrected them saying, "What prevents them from this when revelation descends on them? It is someone else." When the Sahabah Free begged to be informed, Rasulullaah Free said, "They are reople who will come after you. They will believe in me without seeing me. All they will find will be hanging pages (of the Qur'aan), in which they will believe. These are the people who will hold the highest status in Allaah's sight on the Day of Qiyaamah and whose Imaan will be best in Allaah's sight on the Day of Qiyaamah." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Jumu'ah (Personal Personal
Hadhrat Abu Umaamah states that he heard Rasulullaah ss say, "Glad tiding for those who believe in me after having seen me and seven times glad tidings for those who believe in me without having seen me." (4)

Rasulullaah W Wishes to see his Brothers

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (There will be people coming after me who will wish that they could sacrifice their families and wealth just to see me." (5)

Hadhrat Anas was narrates that Rasulullaah for once said, "I wish that I could see my brothers who will believe in me without seeing me." (6) Another narration states that Rasulullaah see said, "When will I meet my brothers?" "Are we not your brothers, O Rasulullaah see," asked the Sahabah see, "You are my companions," replied Rasulullaah see, "My brothers are those people who will believe in me even though they will not see me." (7)

- (1) Abu Ya'la, as quoted by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.65).
- (2) Bazzaar
- (3) Ahmad, Abu Ya'la and Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.10 Pg.66).
- (4) Ahmad and Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.10 Pg.67).
- (5) Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.66) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (6) Ahmad
- (7) Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.66) has commented on the chain of narrators. Tabraani has reported a similar narration in his Awsat but Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Virtues of the Ummah of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (Times) reports that Rasulullaah (Fig. 3aid, "The example of my Ummah is like the rain. It cannot be specified whether it is the first part that is better or the last part." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood marrates that Rasulullaah said, "Verily Allaah has angels who travel extensively. They convey to me the greetings that my Ummah give me." Rasulullaah the said further, "My life is best for you because you talk to me (enquire about the injunctions of Deen) and (when revelation answers your questions) you are spoken to. My death shall also be best for you because your actions will be presented to me. When I see good deeds, I shall praise Allaah for it and when I see evil, I shall beg Allaah to forgive you." (2)

Killing is the punishment of this Ummah in this World

Hadhrat Abu Burdah Sissis says, "I was sitting with Ibn Ziyaad and Abdullaah bin Yazeed Sissis as the heads of the Khawaarij were brought. Whenever a head was passed, I said, 'He is headed towards Jahannam.' Abdullaah Sissis said, 'Do not say that, dear nephew because I heard Rasulullaah Sissis say that the punishment of this Ummah shall be in this world (thus cleansing them for the Aakhirah)."(3)

Another narration quotes that Rasulullaah (Rasool (Rasool) Allaah has made killing the punishment of this Ummah in this world." (4)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Burdah saws, "I left Ubaydullaah bin Ziyaad when I saw him meting extremely harsh punishment (to the Khawaarij). I then sat with one of the Sahabah who said, 'Rasulullaah was had mentioned that the punishment of this Ummah shall be administered by the sword." (5)

The Sanctity of the Blood and Wealth of the Muslims

Ahadeeth Warning Against Killing a Muslim

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Fig. 6) narrates that a person was mysteriously killed during the time of Rasulullaah (Fig. 6). Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) mounted the pulpit and said, "O people! How can a person be killed under mysterious circumstances when I am still in your midst? If all the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth

(2) Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haytharm (Vol.9 Pg.24).

(3) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.85).

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.68) has commented on the Bazzaar's chain of narrators, Bazzaar and Tabraani have also reported the narration from other sources, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'd (Vol.10 Pg.68), quoting from Munaawi (Vol.5 Pg.517), Ibn Hajar has sanctioned the authenticity of the narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.8 Pg.308). Tabraani has also reported the narration in his Kabeer, Sagheer and Awsat, reporting from reliable sources in his Kabeer as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.225).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg. 225).

connive to kill a single Muslim, Allaah shall punish them all without restraint." (1) Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed narrates that when a person was killed during the time of Rasulullaah , he mounted the pulpit to address the people. Rasulullaah thrice asked, "Does anyone know who killed the person in your midst?" When the Sahabah was swore that they did not know, Rasulullaah said, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad! If all the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth connive to kill a single Mu'min, Allaah shall put them all in Jahannam. Furthermore, whoever bears enmity for us, the members of my household, Allaah shall fling him headlong into Jahannam." (2)

Rasulullaah Rebukes Hadhrat Usaama and other Sahabah For Killing People who Recited the Shahaadah

Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid (Files) narrates, "Rasulullaah (Files) sent us on a military expedition against a branch of the Juhayna tribe called the Banu Hurqah. We launched a surprise attack at dawn. Amongst them was a man who was the fiercest fighter when attacked and who would defend them as they retreated. One of the Ansaar and myself managed to corner him and when we overpowered him, he recited, "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah". While the Ansaari backed off him, I proceeded to kill him.

When the news reached Rasulullaah (%), he said, 'O Usaama! Did you kill a man after he had recited 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'?' 'O Rasulullaah (%)! I argued, 'He said it only to save himself from being killed.' Rasulullaah (%) however continued repeating the statement until I wished that I had become a Muslim just that day (so that I could be forgiven of the sin)." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Usaama says, "When we returned to Rasulullaah and informed him of the event, he said, 'O Usaama! Who will defend you against 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'?' 'O Rasulullaah repeated, 'He said it only to protect himself from being killed.' Rasulullaah repeated, 'O Usaama! Who will defend you against 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'?' I swear by the Being Who has sent him with the truth that Rasulullaah kept repeating himself until I wished that my life as a Muslim before this had never been. I wished that I had accepted Islaam only that day and that I had never killed him. I then said, 'I undertake a pledge with Allaah that I shall never kill any person who professes 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'.' 'Even after me, O Usaama?' Rasulullaah geried. 'Even after you,' I affirmed." (4)

Yet another narration quoted that Hadhrat Usaama www said, "Myself and one of the Ansaar finally cornered Mirdaas bin Nuhayk and when we drew our swords for him, he exclaimed:

"أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ لَّا إِلَّهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ"

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.297) has commented on the chain of narrators

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.296) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 4 Pg.222).

'I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah'

However, we did not withdraw from him until we killed him. When we returned to Rasulullaah & ... "The rest of the narration is just like the one quoted above from Ibn Is'haaq. (1)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah size said, "He professed 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' and you still killed him?" Hadhrat Usaama size replied, "O Rasulullaah size it he said it only for fear of our weapons." Rasulullaah size asked, "Did you tear open his heart to know whether he said it for that reason or not? Who will defend you against 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' on the Day of Qiyaamah?" Hadhrat Usaama size says, "Rasulullaah size continued repeating the statement until i wished that I had become a Muslim just that day." (2)

Rasulullaah Rebukes Hadhrat Bakr bin Haaritha Rebukes Hadhrat Bakr bin

Hadhrat Bakr bin Haaritha in arrates, "I was once part of an expedition that Rasulullaah is dispatched. When we clashed with the Mushrikeen, I attacked a man who sought protection from me by accepting Islaam. I however killed him. When this was reported to Rasuiullaah is, he became very angry and distanced himself from me until Allaah revealed the verse:

It is not for (not becoming of) a Mu'min to kill another Mu'min except (unless) by mistake... {Surah Nisaa, verse 92}

(Because I had killed him in error) Rasulullaah (### was then pleased with me and drew me closer." (3)

Rasulullaah Fis Cold Towards Someone who Killed a Mu'min

Hadhrat Uqba bin Khaalid Laythi Teports that Rasulullaah once dispatched an expedition that engaged the enemy in battle. When one of them started to flee, one of the Muslims pursued him with a drawn sword. As the man shouted, "I am a Muslim! I am a Muslim!" the Muslims paid no heed to his cries and killed him with a blow form his sword. When the news reached Rasulullaah, he used harsh words to condemn it. These words reached the man who killed and as Rasulullaah was delivering a lecture, he stood up and said, "O Rasulullaah was 1 swear by Allaah that he said it only to save himself from being killed." Rasulullaah however ignored the man and those in his direction and continued with his lecture. The man repeated himself saying. "O Rasulullaah he said it only to save himself from being killed." Rasulullaah again ignored the man and those in his direction and continued with his lecture. When the man could bear it no more and repeated himself for a third time, Rasulullaah see turned to him with anger apparent on his face. Rasulullaah see said, "Verily Allaah has forbidden me from killing any Mu'min." This Rasulullaah see repeated thrice. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir.

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood, Nasa'ee, Tahaawi, Abu Awaanah, Ibn Hibbaan and Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.) Pg.781, Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.192) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Duwali, Ibn MAndah and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.316).

A Verse of the Qur'aan is Revealed when Hadhrat Miqdaad Kills a man Who Recited the Shahaadah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Feports that Rasulullaah Fe once dispatched an expedition which included Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad Fe when the Sahabah Fe found the tribe, they discovered that all the people had fled except for a single man with plenty of wealth who remained behind. The man professed:

"أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَّا إِلَّهُ اللَّهُ"

'I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah'

However, Hadhrat Miqdaad Sissis still attacked and killed him. Another Sahabi Said, "Have you killed someone who testifies that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah? I shall definitely report this to Rasulullaah Sissis returned to Rasulullaah Sissis they said, "O Rasulullaah Miqdaad killed a man who testified that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah." Rasulullaah Sissis then asked them to call for Hadhrat Miqdaad Sissis (When he arrived) Rasulullaah Sissis asked, "O Miqdaad! Did you kill a man who professed 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'? How will you fare tomorrow (on the Day of Qiyaamah) against 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'?" It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

O you who have Imaan! When you travel in Allaah's way then verify (when people claim to be Muslims) and do not say to the one who makes his submission (to Islaam) apparent, "You are not a Mu'min!" (thereby) seeking the gains of this worldly life (to take his possessions as booty). With Allaah lies tremendous booty (rewards much better that the wealth of this world). You were the same (as the Kuffaar) before, until Allaah bestowed His favour on you (and made you Muslims). {Surah Nisaa, verse 94}

Rasulullaah (then said to Hadhrat Miqdaad (A Muslim man was hiding his Imaan while living with the Kuffaar but when he got the opportunity to make it public, you went and killed him? In the same manner, you also had been hiding your Imaan while living in Makkah previously," (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la. Baythami (Vol.7 Pg.293) has commented on the chain of narrators. Nasa'ee, Baghawi and thn Hibbaan have also reported the narration, as quoted in Issabah (Vol.2 Pg.991). Khateeb has also reported a simflar narration in his Muttafiq wal Muftariq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.79), as have Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.116) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.48).

Hadhrat Muhallim bin Jathaamah Kills Aamir bin Athbat

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad Freports, "Rasulullaah Fresent us with a party of Muslims to Idham. Amongst us were Abu Qataadah Fraarith bin Rib'ee and Muhallim bin Jathaamah bin Qais. We left Madinah and were in the heart of Idham when Aamir bin Athbat Ashja'ee passed by us on his camel. He had a few goods with him and a bag of milk. When he greeted us with the greeting of Islaam, we left him alone but Muhallim bin Jathaamah attacked and killed him on account of a grudge he bore against him. He then seized his goods and bag. When we returned to Rasulullaah Free informed him about what had happened. It was then concerning us that Allaah revealed the verse:

﴿ يَأْيُهَا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُواْ إِذَا صَرَيْتُمْ فِيْ صَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ فَتَبَيَّنُواْ وِلاَ تَقُوْلُواْ لِمَنْ الْفَى اِلَيْكُمُ السَّلْمَ لَسُنَ مُؤْمِنًا * تَبْتَغُونَ عَرَضَ الْحَيْوةِ الدُّنْيَا لَـ فَينْدَاللّٰهِ مَغَانِمُ كَيْئُرَةٌ * كَذَلِكَ كُنْتُمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَمَنَّ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْكُمْ فَتَبَيَّنُوا * إِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيْرًا

(سورة نساء آيت ٩٤)

O you who have Imaan! When you travel in Allaah's way then verify (when people claim to be Muslims) and do not say to the one who makes his submission (to Islaam) apparent, "You are not a Mu'min!" (thereby) seeking the gains of this worldly life (to take his possessions as booty). With Allaah lies tremendous booty (rewards much better that the wealth of this world). You were the same (as the Kuffaar) before, until Allaah bestowed His favour on you (and made you Muslims). So verify (any person's submission to Islaam before disbelieving him)! Indeed Allaah is Informed of what you do (Allaah can take you to task for being indiscriminate, for He knows your motives). {Surah Nisaa, verse

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sees reports that Rasulullaah sees once sent Hadhrat Muhallim bin Jathaamah sees as part of an expedition. When Aamir bin Athbat met them, he greeted them with the greeting of Islaam. However, since they bore a grudge against him from the Period of Ignorance, Hadhrat Muhallim bin Jathaamah sees shot an arrow that killed him. When the news reached Rasulullaah sees, Hadhrat Uyaynah sees (in defence of Aamir) and Hadhrat Aqra sees (in defence if Hadhrat Muhallim sees) started debating about the issue. Hadhrat Aqra sees said, "Set the precedent today (by forgiving Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.9). Tabraani in his Kabeer and Daar Qutni in his Afraad have reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad from ibn is haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.224). Tabraani has reported a similar narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.8). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg. 15) and ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.282) have also reported a similar narration.

him) and he will not do it in future." Hadhrat Uyayna Siassi said, "Never! By Allaah! (He should be executed so that) His women should feel the grief that my women have felt (for the death of Aamir)."

Hadhrat Muhallim then arrived wearing two sheets and sat before Rasulullaah for so that Rasulullaah for may seek Allaah's forgiveness for him. Rasulullaah said to him, "Allaah has not forgiven you." He then stood up and left, wiping away the tears from his eyes. It was barely seven days afterwards when he passed away. When the Sahabah buried him, the ground brought his body back to the surface. When the Sahabah reported this to Rasulullaah for he said, "The earth accepts the bodies of people much worse than your companion. However, Allaah intends to teach you people an important lesson to respect your sanctity (the sacredness of a Muslim's life)." The Sahabah threw the body into a crevasse between two mountains and covered it with rocks. It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

﴿ يَأْيَهُمُ الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوْا إِذَا صَرَبْتُمُ فِي صَبِيْلِ اللَّهِ فَتَبَيَّنُوا ولَا تَقُوْلُوا لِمَنُ ٱلْقَى إِلَيْكُمُ السَّلْمَ لَسْتَ مُؤْمِنًا * تَبْتَغُونَ عَرَضَ الْحَيْوةِ الدُّنْيَا لَا قِبِنْدَاللَّهِ مَغَالِمٌ كَيْبُرَةٌ * كَذَلِكَ كُنْتُمُ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَمَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمُ فَتَبَيَّنُوا * إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيْرًا

(سورة نساء آيت ٩٤)

O you who have Imaan! When you travel in Allaah's way then verify (when people claim to be Muslims) and do not say to the one who makes his submission (to Islaam) apparent, "You are not a Mu'min!" (thereby) seeking the gains of this worldly life (to take his possessions as booty). With Allaah lies tremendous booty (rewards much better that the wealth of this world). You were the same (as the Kuffaar) before, until Allaah bestowed His favour on you (and made you Muslims). So verify (any person's submission to Islaam before disbelieving him)! Indeed Allaah is Informed of what you do (Allaah can take you to task for being indiscriminate, for He knows your motives). [Sarah Nisaa, verse 94)(1)

The Earth Brings up the Body of a Man who Killed a Mu'min

Hadhrat Qabeesah bin Dhuwayb (Singless narrates that a Sahabi (Singless) once attacked a group of Mushrikeen who had already been defeated. He then overpowered one of the Mushrikeen who had given up and as he was about to raise his sword over the man, the Mushrik recited, "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah".

However, the Sahabi Gibb did not restrain himself and killed the man. He however felt extremely distressed about killing the man. When he related the incident to Rasulullaah B., he said, "The man recited the Kalimah only to protect himself." Rasulullaah B. rebuked him saying, "Did you tear open his (1) lbn lareer, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 4 Pg. 225).

heart (to see his intention for reciting the Kalimah)? It is only by the tongue that a person can express the contents of the heart." It was not long thereafter that the Sahabi passed away. However, when he was buried, his body had surfaced by the morning. His family reported this to Rasulullaah him, who instructed them to bury him again. When they buried him for the second time, the body was again on the surface the following morning. This time when they reported it to Rasulullaah him, he said, "The earth refuses to accept his body. You should therefore throw the body down a crevasse in the mountains." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (1996) and the Banu Jadheema Tribe

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far Muhammad bin Ali reports that when Makkah was conquered. Rasulullaah (sent Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (to invite people to Islaam and not to fight anyone. With him were several Arab tribes including the Banu Sulaym bin Mansoor and Banu Mudlaj bin Murrah tribes. When they came across the Banu Jadheema bin Aamir bin Abd Manaat bin Kinaanah tribe and they spotted Hadhrat Khaalid & the immediately took up their weapons. Hadhrat Khaalid wiss said to them, "Put down your weapons because everyone has already accepted Islaam (since you cannot fight all the Arabs, you rather surrender). When the tribe laid down their weapons, they were all tied up with the order of Hadhrat Khaalid (Many of them were then put to the sword. When the news reached Rasulullaah & he raised his hands to the sky and said, "O Allaah! I exonerate myself from what Khaalid bin Waleed has done." Rasulullaah : then sent for Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib and instructed him saying, "O Ali! Go to those people and look into the matter, trampling the affairs of the Period of Ignorance underfoot." Hadhrat Ali & then went to them with a large sum of money that Rasulullaah and had given him. He then compensated the people for every life and item of property that they had lost, even to the extent of a container from which a dog drank. Eventually, when there was no life or article left to be compensated for, some money was still left over. Hadhrat Ali with then asked the tribe's people after completing, "Is there any life or article that has not been compensated for?" When they declared that there was nothing, Hadhrat Ali was said, "I am handing over to you this amount that has been left-over as a precaution from the side of Rasulullaah for anything that has escaped either his or your attention. After doing this, he returned to report back to Rasulullaah W. Rasulullaah W. commended him saying, "You did right and you did well." Rasulullaah then stood up. faced towards the Qibla and raised both his hands so high that his armpits were visible. He then thrice repeated, "O Allaah! I exonerate myself from what Khaalid bin Waleed has done," (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sies states that Rasulullaah Sie once dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Sies to the Banu Jadheema tribe.

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.316).

^{(2) (}bn is'haaq

When he invited them towards Islaam, they could not properly say that they had accepted Islaam and rather said, "We have changed our religion!" Hadhrat Khaalid then took them prisoner and handed one prisoner over to each member of his party. On one of the mornings, Hadhrat Khaalid suddenly instructed every person to execute his prisoner. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar refused saying, "By Allaaht I shall never execute my prisoner and neither shall any of my companions execute theirs!"

When they returned to Rasulullaah and informed him about what Hadhrat Khaalid had done, Rasulullaah raised his hands towards the sky and twice repeated, "O Allaah! I exonerate myself from what Khaalid bin Waleed has done." (1)

Ibn Is'haaq says that as far as he knows, it was because of this incident that there was a dispute between Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Hadhrat Khaalid Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Khaalid Hadhrat Khaalid Hadhrat Khaalid Hadhrat Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Khaalid Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Khaalid Hadhrat Khaalid Hadhrat Rahmaan Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Hadhrat Khaalid Hadh

The Incident between Rasulullaah A and Hadhrat Sakhar Ahmasi

Hadhrat Sakhar was fighting the Thaqeef tribe, he led a party of horsemen to reinforce Rasulullaah when he however discovered that Rasulullaah had left without conquering the territory. He then took a vow never to leave the fortress until the enemy surrendered to the command of Rasulullaah (True to his word) He did not leave them until they eventually submitted to the command of Rasulullaah when hadhrat Sakhar who then wrote a letter to Rasulullaah saying: "O Rasulullaah with the Banu Thaqeef have surrendered to your command and I am escorting them with my cavalry."

Rasulullaah as gathered Sahabah some together with the announcement "As Salaatu Jaami'ah" and then prayed for the Ahmas tribe by repeating ten times, "O Allaah! Bless the Ahmas in their cavalry and infantry." When they arrived Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba sawa addressed Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Bukhaari, Nasa'ee and Abdur Razaaq.

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.313).

Sakhar has captured my aunt whereas she has also entered the fold of Islaam as the others have done." Rasulullaah su summoned Hadhrat Sakhar and said, "O Sakhar! When people accept Islaam, they have safeguarded their blood and their wealth, so do hand over to Mughiera his aunt." Hadhrat Sakhar so handed her over and asked Rasulullaah to make over to him the oasis of the Banu Sulaym who had renounced Islaam and deserted the place. He said, "O Rasulullaah se! Hand the place over to me and my tribe to settle there." Rasulullaah agreed and they settled there.

However, the Banu Sulaym tribe accepted Islaam again and approached Hadhrat Sakhar to hand the oasis back to them. When he refused to do so, they went to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying After we accepted Islaam, we approached Sakhar to give us back our oasis, but he refused." Rasulullaah had then said to Hadhrat Sakhar saying, "O Sakhar! When people accept Islaam, they have safeguarded their blood and their wealth, so do hand over their oasis back to the Banu Sulaym." Hadhrat Sakhar saying immediately complied and said, "Certainly, O Nabi of Allaah say." Rasulullaah says face had then turned red out of shyness because he had taken from Hadhrat Sakhar saying the lady as well as the oasis. (1)

Refraining from Killing Muslims and the Abomination of Fighting for Land

Rasulullaah Forbids Killing anyone who Attests to the Oneness of Allaah and the Nabuwaat of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aws bin Aws Thaqafi reports that Rasulullaah fonce approached them as they sat in a tent in the Masjid of Madinah. Someone then came to Rasulullaah for and whispered something to him that the others could not hear. Rasulullaah for said to him, "Go and tell them to execute him." Rasulullaah for then called the person back saying, "Did he perhaps not testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that I am the Rasul of Allaah?" When the man admitted that the person had done so, Rasulullaah for said, "Go and tell them that they should release him because I have been commanded to fight people only until they testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that I am the Rasul of Allaah. Once they say this, their blood and wealth is forbidden for me unless it needs to be taken for a right due to Allaah. Their reckoning will then be Allaah's responsibility." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Adi Ansaari (1996) narrates that Rasulullaah (1996) was once sitting with some people when someone came and requested permission to speak to Rasulullaah in private concerning a Munaafiq who had been killed. Rasulullaah however spoke to him loudly saying, "Did he not testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah?" The man's response was, "Yes, but his testimony cannot be heeded." Rasulullaah asked further, "Did he not testify that I am the Rasul of Allaah?" Again the man replied by saying, "Yes, but his testimony cannot be heeded." Rasulullaah the then enquired, "Did he too perform salaah?" "Yes," the man replied, "but his salaah cannot be heeded." Rasulullaah in finally told him, "These are the people whom I have been prohibited from (killing)." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.351), Ahmad, Daarmi, Ibn Raahway, Bazzaar, Ibn Abi Shaybah and Tabraani have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Nabur Ra'ya (Vol.3 Pg.412). Firyaabi in his Musnad, Baghawi and Ibn Shaaheen have also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.180), as has Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.114).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Daarmi, Tahaawi and Tayaalisi.

Hadhrat Uthmaan Prohibits Fighting when he was Besieged in his House

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports, "Rasulullaah fonce said, 'Call one of my companions.' I asked, 'Abu Bakr?' 'No,' replied Rasulullaah fonce said, 'Call one of my companions.' I asked, 'Abu Bakr?' 'No,' replied Rasulullaah fonce said, 'Then Umar?' I asked. 'No,' Rasulullaah fonce again replied. 'Then your cousin Ali?' I said. When Rasulullaah fonce again replied in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan?' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan.' 'Yes,' Rasulullaah fonce said in the negative, I said, 'Then Uthmaan.' 'Yes,' Rasululla Hadhrat Uthmaan in narrates that Rasulullaah is said, "A Person's Blood is Forbidden unless for one of Three Reasons"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Wiss narrates that when Hadhrat Uthmaan was besieged in his house, he looked out to the people (the rebels) and asked them, "For what reason do you want to kill me? I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'A person's blood is forbidden unless for one of three reasons; the married man who commits adultery shall be stoned to death, the one who intentionally murders shall be executed and the one who renounces Islaam shall also be executed.' By Allaah! I have never committed adultery, neither during the Period of Ignorance nor as a Muslim. I have also never murdered anyone because of which I should be executed and I have also never renounced Islaam. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad sit is the servant and Rasul of Allaah." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah says, "I was with Uthmaan says in his house when he was under siege. From the entrance we used, we could hear what the people were talking at the Balaat. When Uthmaan says entered through there one day, for some reason, he came to us with his face pale. He said, 'Those people have just threatened to kill me. We said to him, 'Allaah shall suffice for you against them, O Ameerul Mu'mineen.' He continues, 'But why do they want to kill me when I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'A person's blood is forbidden unless for one of three reasons; if a man renounces Islaam, commits adultery after being married or murders another without a warrant.' By Allaah! I have never committed adultery either during the Period of Ignorance or after Islaam. Since Allaah has guided me (to Islaam), I have never even wished for a replacement for my Deen and I have never murdered anyone. Why do they want to kill me?"(!)

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Hasan bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 Pg.78).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.181). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.46) has also reported the narration but in greater detail.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.179).

The Lecture Hadhrat Uthmaan (Ma) delivered to those who Besieged him

Hadhrat Abu Layla Kindi reports that he was present when Hadhrat Uthmaan was besieged in his house and peeped through a vent in the wall and said, "O people! Do not kill me and (if I have sinned) rather get me to repent. I swear by Allaah that if you kill me, you (Muslims) shall never again be able perform salaah together nor fight the enemy as a unified force. You will then be at loggerheads until you become like this." He then interlaced his fingers. He then recited a verse of the Qur'aan (quoting the words of Hadhrat Shu'ayb www):

"O my people! Let not your opposition for me cause the same punishment to afflict you as afflicted the nation of Nooh or the nation of Hood or the nation of Saalih . And the nation of Loot are not far off from you (in memory and location)." (Surah Hood, verse 89)

Hadhrat Uthmaan with then sent for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam to ask him what his opinion was. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam replied, "Restraint! Restraint, (restrain your hand from the rebels) because it lends more weight to your argument (on the Day of Qiyaamah)." (2)

The Incident between Hadhrat Mughiera (1996) and Hadhrat Uthmaan (1996) when he was Under Siege

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba (Sies) narrates that when Hadhrat Uthmaan (was under siege, he approached him and said, "You are the leader of the masses and are in the predicament you can see. I therefore have three proposals for you, You may choose any of them you like. You may go out and light them for

⁽i) Abu Dawood, Nasa'ee, ibn Maajah and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.179). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.46).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.49).

Hadhrat Uthmaan replied, "I cannot go out and fight them because I never want to be the first of the Ummah of Rasulullaah to shed (the) blood (of Muslims). Although they will never regard my blood to be lawful if I go to Makkah, I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'A man from the Quraysh will go to Makkah and be a cause of spreading irreligiousness. He shall suffer the punishment of half the universe.' I never want that man to be me. I cannot also go to Shaam although the people of Shaam and Muaa'wiya are there because I shall never leave the place of Hijrah and the proximity of Rasulullaah ..."(1)

Hadhrat Uthmaan Forbids some of the Sahabah From Fighting when he was Under Siege

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 劉德德 reports that he entered Hadhrat Uthmaan 劉德德's house when he was under siege and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! It has now become permissible for you to fight these rebels." Hadhrat Uthmaan was asked. "O Abu Hurayrah! Would you like to kill all of mankind including myself?" "Certainly not," replied Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 氢碳碳。Hadhrat Uthmaan 氢碳碳 then said, "By Allaah! If you kill a single person it is tantamount to killing all of mankind." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (2) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr susse entered Hadhrat Uthmaan susses house and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! In your house you have such a group of people who will attract the help of Allaah (when fighting the rebels) even though they may be few in number. Please issue the command so that we may fight." Hadhrat Uthmaan Sies said, "I am pleading to every man in the name of Allaah that he should not have his blood spilt for me and should not spill the blood of another for me." Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr said to Hadhrat Uthmaan (Fight them because Allaah has made it permissible for you to fight them." Hadhrat Uthmaan signs replied, "Never! I swear by Allaah that I shall never fight them." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir (1966) narrates that when he was under siege in his house, Hadhrat Uthmaan (1966) said, "The one most useful to me is he who restrains his hand and his weapon." (4)

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit (approached Hadhrat Uthmaan and said,

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.211). Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.230) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.48) as quoted in Muntakhali Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.25).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 3 Pg.49)

^{(4) (}bn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.48),

"The Ansaar are at your door saying, 'If you permit, we shall be the helpers of the cause of Allaah! If you permit, we shall be the helpers of the cause of Allaah!"

Hadhrat Uthmaan  refused their offer saying, "If they intend fighting, then I give no permission." (1)

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen says, "With Hadhrat Uthmaan with in the house were seven hundred men. Had he left them (to fight), they would have crushed the rebels with the permission of Allaah, completely removing them from the boundaries of Madinah Amongst them was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with Hadhrat Hasan bin All with and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Saa'idah (Teeports that Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Al Aas came to Hadhrat Uthmaan (These people have eaten at us. While some of them have fired arrows at us, others have thrown stones at us and some have even drawn their swords. Please give us the command (to fight)." Hadhrat Uthmaan (Teeport) in have no intention of fighting them even though I know that I will be safe from them if I do so. I prefer to rather hand them over to Allaah together with those who instigated them against me because we will all be gathered together before our Rabb. As for fighting them, I swear by Allaah that I shall never issue the command." Hadhrat Sa'eed (Teeport) said, "By Allaah! I shall never be asking anyone about you ever." He then left and fought until he sustained a fatal wound to his head. (3)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Restrains Himself from Fighting

Hadhrat Aamir the son of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas say approached his father and asked, "Dear father! People are fighting for the world and you are sitting here?" "Dear son," Hadhrat Sa'd say replied, "are you instructing me to become a leader of anarchy? By Allaah! I shall never participate unless I am given a sword that when raised over a Mu'min, it misses him without injury and when raised over a Kaafir, it kills him (since this cannot be found, I cannot participate). I have heard Rasulullaah say, "Verily Allaah loves the independent person who is inconspicuous and possesses Taqwa." (4) Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates that someone once asked Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abl Waqqaas (Why don't you take up arms because you are one of the consultative assembly and more deserving of the Khilaafah than others?" Hadhrat Sa'd (Who replied. "I shall never fight until you give me a sword that has two eyes, a tongue and two lips and which can differentiate between a Mu'min and a Kaafir (so that it kills only Kuffaar and not Mu'mineen). I used to wage Jihaad at a time when I knew that it was really Jihaad (the fighting taking place now is not

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.48).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.49).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.5 Pg.23).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. Pg.283). Abu Nu'aym in his Hillya (Vol. 1 Pg.94) has reported a similar narration.

against Kuffaar and is waged with ulterior motives)." (1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Sa'd (1966), Hadhrat Usaama (1966) and another Person About not Fighting

Hadhrat Ibraheem Taymi reports from his father that after eating a full meal, Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid siss said, "I shall never fight anyone who recites 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'." Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik (bin Abi Waqqaas) siss then remarked, "By Allaah! I shall also never fight a man who recites 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'." Another man then said to the two of them, "Does Allaah not say:

Fight them until no corruption (kufr and shirk) exists and all religion (worship) is for Allaah. (Surah Anfaal, verse 39)

The two Sahabah (1998) replied, "We did fight until no corruption existed and until all religion was for Allaah." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Restrains Himself from Fighting During the Troubled times of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr

Hadhrat Naafi reports that two men approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar during the period of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr when fighting was raging. They asked, "People are dying while you are the son of Umar during and a companion of Rasulullaah for What prevents you from going out (and fighting)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar fighting)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar fighting)?" They argued, "Does Allaah not say:

'Fight them until no corruption exists and all religion (worship) is for Allaah.'?" (Surah Anfaal, verse 39)

Hadhrat Abdullash bin Umar series replied, "We did fight until no corruption existed and until all religion was for Allash. However, you people are fighting so that corruption should appear and so that religion should be for others besides Allash. (3)

Another narration states that a man approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and said, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! What makes you perform Hajj one year, Umrah the following year but leaving out waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah whereas you know what encouragement Allaah has given for it?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar weer replied, "Dear nephew! Islaam if founded on five pillars; Imaan in Allaah and His Rasool (is five salaah, fasting in Ramadhaan, paying zakaah and performing Hajj." The person enquired further, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Have you not heard that Allaah says in His Book:

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.299), Abu Nu'aym in his Hillya (Vol.1 Pg.94) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.101) have also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.48), as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.309).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari (Pg.648)

If two groups of Mu'mineen fight each other, then reconcile between them. (However, despite your efforts to reconcile,) If the one group transgresses against the other, then fight that (transgressing) group until they return to (the obedience of) Allaah's command (to live in peace and harmony with other Muslims). (Surah Hujuraat, verse 9)

'Fight them until no corruption exists and all religion (worship) is for Allaah.'?" {Surah Anfaal, verse 39}

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Series replied, "We did that during the time of Rasulullaah We when the adherents to Islaam were few. Because of his Deen, a person was put through trials either when the Kuffaar killed him or tortured him. The people of Islaam eventually increased in number and there no longer remained any corruption."

The person then asked, "Then what is your opinion about Ali said and Uthmaan said:" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said replied, "As for Uthmaan said," Allaah has forgiven him whereas you people do not like him to be forgiven. As for Ali said, he was the cousin of Rasulullaah said as well as his son-in-law." Pointing with his hand, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "That house you see was his."

Yet another narration states that a person once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 劉範齡, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Have you not heard Allaah mention in the Qur'aan:

If two groups of Mu'mineen fight each other, then reconcile between them. (However, despite your efforts to reconcile,) If the one group transgresses against the other, then fight that (transgressing) group until they return to (the obedience of) Allaah's command (to live in peace and harmony with other Muslims). (Surah Hujuraat, verse 9)

What prevents you from fighting as Allaah has instructed in his Book?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (See replied, "Dear nephew! I prefer not to fight and be criticised for not practising on this verse rather than being criticised for being guilty of perpetrating what Allaah says in the verse:

﴿ وَمَنْ يَفْتُلُ مُؤْمِنًا مُّتَعَبِّدًا فَجَزَآوُهُ جَهَنَّمُ خَالِدًا فِيهَا وَغَضِبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْه وَلَعْنَهُ وَاعَدَّ

لَهُ عَذَابًا عَظِيْمًا ١٩٠ (سورة نساء: آيت ١٦)

Whoever purposely murders a Mu'min (regarding his act as a permissible act), his punishment shall be Jahannam where he shall live forever. Allaah shall be angry with him, curse him and prepare for him a dreadful punishment. (Surah Nisaa, verse 93)

The man then argued, "But Allaah also says:

'Fight them until no corruption exists and all religion (worship) is for Allaah.'?" (Surah Anfaal, verse 39)

To this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (""We did that during the time of Rasulullaah ("F."." The narration then proceeds like the one quoted above. (1) Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Basked the man, "Do you know what is meant by 'corruption'? Muhammad ("Basked the man, "Basked the Mushrikeen and fighting them is (fighting) 'corruption'. It was nothing like how you fight nowadays for land, (2)

What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr said to Safwaan said Concerning his Reluctance to pledge allegiance to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Hadhrat Abul Aaliya Baraa reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr sand Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Safwaan were one day sitting in the Hateem when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Speed by while performing Tawaaf. One of them said to the other, "Do you think that there is anyone alive who is better than that man?" He then asked another man to call Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he had completed his Tawaaf. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar completed his Tawaaf and had performed the two Rakaahs, the messenger that the two Sahabah was had sent approached him saying, ' Abdullaah bin Zubayr 望障障 and Abdullaah bin Safwaan 望障障 over there are calling for you." When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was came to them, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Safwaan Sies asked, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! What prevents you from pledging allegiance to the Ameerul Mu'mineen (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (1966) when the people of Makkah, Madinah, Yemen, Iraq and most of the people of Shaam have already pledged their allegiance to him?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar spies replied, "By Allaah! I shall never pledge my allegiance to you as long as the swords you hang over your necks are dripping with the blood of Muslims." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.292).

⁽²⁾ Talseer of thin Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.308).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.192).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Refuses to Allow People to pledge their allegiance to him

Hadhrat Hasan says that when the Muslims were plunged in problems, they approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and said, "You are a leader, the son of a leader and the people are happy with you. Why don't you come forward and allow people to pledge their allegiance to you?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar problem, "Never! By Allaah! As long as there is life in me, not even as much as a cupper's cupful of blood will be spilt for my sake." People later came and threatened him saying, "By Allaah! If you do not come out (to have the pledge of allegiance taken at your hand), you will be killed here on you bed." (Undeterred by the threat) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar gase gave the same reply as he did the first time. Hadhrat Hasan continues, "By Allaah! Until Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar spassed away, the people were unable to attain their objectives through him." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Concerning Unity and Disunity

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sumayr narrates that some people once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Why don't you set matters right for the people (by taking the reins of Khilaafah) because they are all happy with you." He said to them, "What if someone in the East opposes me?" They replied, "If anyone stands up in opposition, he will be killed because what is the death of one person for the sake of the Ummah's unity?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("By Allaah! If the entire Ummah of Muhammad ("By take hold of the shaft of a spear and I take hold of the head at the expense of a single person losing his life, I would not like it even if I were given the world and all its contents." (2)

Hadhrat Qatan reports that a man once came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umat and said, "No person has done worse for the Ummah of Muhammad than you!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar responded by saying, "Why is that? By Allaah! I have neither spilt their blood, divided their unity nor broken their strength." The man then proposed, "If you choose (to become Khalliah) no two persons would differ on the decision (everyone is pleased to have you as Khalifah)." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports, "I would never like the Khilaafah to come to me when one man is saying 'no' and another 'why not'," (3) Hadhrat Qaasim bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that during the first period of strife. (4), the people once approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar saying, "Are you not going out to fight?" He replied. "I fought at a time when there were idols between the Hajar Aswad and the door of the Kabah until Allaah wiped

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.293) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.111).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.111).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.111).

⁽⁴⁾ The time when Hadhrat Ali Sasso and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Sasso were at war.

them out from the land of the Arabs. I do not like to fight people who recite 'Laa ilaaha illaliaah'." The people then accused him saying, "By Allaah! That is not at all your view. All you want is for the Sahabah المنافقة لله المنافقة لله kill each other off so that when none beside yourself is left, the people should say. 'Pledge allegiance to Abdullaah bin Umar to lead the Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar المنافقة responded by saying, "I have no such inclinations within me. All I want is that when you say (أَرْضَ عَلَى الْفَلَوْنَ) ('Come to salaah'), I want to respond and when you say (أَرَّقَ عَلَى الْفَلُورُ) ('Come to success') I want to respond. Furthermore, when you divide, I do not wish to associate with you but when you unite, I shal! never separate from you."

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that during the time when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was struggling for the Khilaafah and when the Khawaarij and Khashabiyyah sects were on the increase, someone said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar المعاقبة, "Why do you perform salaah with those people and the others when they are killing each other (yet you do not fight with either group)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar المعاقبة replied, "I respond to the one who says ('Come to salaah') and to the one who says ('Come to salaah') and to the one who says 'Come to salaah') المعاقبة الم

Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali Dislikes Killing Mu'mineen and Reconciles with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya

Hadhrat Abul Ghareef says, "Twelve thousand of us were part of the frontline forces of Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali See. Abu Umrata was our commander and in our eagerness to fight the forces from Shaam, our swords were almost dripping with their blood. When the news reached us about the truce that Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali See and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya See had made, it seemed as if our backs had been broken with the rage and frustration of it. When Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali See came to Kufa, one of our men called Abu Aamir Sufyaan bin Layl stood up and said, 'As Salaamu Alaykum, O humiliator of the Mu'mineen!' 'Do not say that, O Abu Aamir,' Hadhrat Hasan See said, 'I have not humiliated the Mu'mineen but merely disliked killing them in pursuit of land." (3)

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya said to Hadhrat Hasan said, "Stand up and address the people and inform them of your standpoint." Hadhrat Hasan said then stood up and addressed the people saying, "All praise is due to Allaah Who has used us (our elders) to guide our former ones and has now used us to save the blood of our latter ones. Behold! Indeed the most intelligent one is the one with the most Taqwa and the most helpless one is the sinner. The matter concerning which I had been disputing with Mu'aawiya was either rightfully his or rightfully mine. I have however forsaken my right for the good of the Ummah of Muhammad see and to save their lives." He then turned to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya save and addressed him with the verse:

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.294).

^{(2) 1}bn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg. 125).

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.157). Ibn Abdul Birr in his Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.372) and Khateeb Baghdaadi have also reported the narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.8 Pg.19).

"I have no idea whether it is a test for you or an enjoyment until a stipulated time." (Surah Ambiyaa, verse 111)

He then descended. Hadhrat Amr (1) then said to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (1).
"This is exactly what you wanted." (1)

What Hadhrat Hasan said to Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr Concerning the Khilaafah

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr Anarates that he once said to Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali Mass, "The people say that you desire the Khilaafah." Hadhrat Hasan mass replied, "When I had all the Arab leaders in my hand and they were prepared to fight whom I wished to fight and make peace with whom I wanted to make peace, I forsook the post for the pleasure of Allaah and to save the blood of the Ummah of Muhammad Mass. Would I now venture to snatch away the Khilaafah with the displeasure of the people of Hilaaz?" (2)

Hadhrat Ayman Asadi Refuses to Fight with Marwaan

"I cannot fight someone who performs salaah for the sake of another king from the Qułaysh For me to fight another Muslims for no reason shall give me no benefit as long as I live While he has his kingdom and I am burdened with a sin May Allaah save me form such ignorance and foolishness" (3)

⁽¹⁾ Jbn Abdul Birr in his Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.374). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.175) and Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.173) have also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.170), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.7 Pg.296). Tabraani has reported a similar narration with slight differences in the wording of the couplets. Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.193) has also reported a similar narration.

What Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr signs said to Hadhrat Ali

A messenger from Hadhrat Ali woo once came to Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr with a message saying, "Verily you are most worthy of assisting me in this matter of Khilaafah." Hadhrat Hakam woo sreply was, "I have heard my good friend who was your cousin see say that when matters are like this (with Muslims fighting each other), it is best for you to take up a wooden sword. I have therefore already taken up a wooden sword." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa (1966) Refuses to Fight for Yazeed

Hadhrat Abu Ash'ath San'aani narrates, "Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya once sent me to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa Wiss. With him were many Sahabah Wisse when I asked, 'What would you command the people to do?' He replied, 'Abul Qaasim Wissed advised me that if I ever see such things happening (Muslims lighting Muslims), I should go to Mount Uhud, break my sword and remain seated in my house. 'What if someone barges into my house (to kill me)?' I asked. Rasulullaah Wissed replied, 'Then go to the inner room of your house and if they barge in there too, then sit on your knees (preparing for death) and say, 'Take my sins together with yours (by killing me) so that you may become one of the inmates of Jahannam. Such is the punishment for the oppressors.' I have already broken my sword and if anyone barges into my house, I shall enter the inner room. If they then enter the inner room, I shall sit on my knees and say to them what Rasulullaah Wisse told me to say."(2)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslamah Abides by the Advice of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslamah ("Wen you see people fighting for worldly wealth, take your sword to the largest boulder in Harrah and strike it on the boulder until it breaks. Then remain sitting in your home until the hand of a sinner reaches you (to kill you) or until death puts an end to you." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslamah ("I have already practised on this command of Rasulullaah ("I)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslamah says, "Rasulullaah says gave me a sword and said, 'O Muhammad bin Maslamah! Use this sword to wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah until the time when you see two parties of the Muslims fighting each other. You should then hit it against a rock until it breaks. Thereafter, you should remain sitting in your home until death puts an end to you or until the hand of a sinner reaches you (to kill you)." After the martyrdom of Hadhrat Uthmaan says, when the affairs of people took the turn it did, Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.301) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.300) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.301).

Muhammad bin Maslamah (1) went to a rock in his courtyard and struck his sword on it until it was broken. (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah Concerning Fighting

Hadhrat Rib'ee reports that at the funeral of Hadhrat Hudhayfah (he overheard someone saying, "The person on this bier once said, 'I have no doubts about what I heard Rasulullaah (he say Therefore, if you people start fighting amongst yourselves, I shall enter my home and if anyone barges in, I shall tell him, '(You may kill me and) Take with you my sins coupled with your own." (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Muaa'wiya

Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar says, "When we heard about the appearance of Rasulullaah says, I left with a delegation form my tribe, when we reached Madinah, I met the companions of Rasulullaah before meeting him. They said, 'Rasulullaah says ago, He informed us that Waa'il bin Hujar would be coming to us.' Rasulullaah says then met me, welcomed me and called me close to him. He spread out his shawl for me and made me sit on it. He then summoned the people and when they gathered, he mounted the pulpit, taking me along with him. As I sat just below him, he praised Allaah and then said, 'O people! This is Waa'il bin Hujar who has come from a far off place. He has come from Hadhramout out of his own free will and without any compulsion. He is from royal descent. May Allah bless you, O Waa'il bin Hujar and your children.' Rasulullaah says then dismounted.

Rasulullaah then gave me a place to settle that was a bit far from Madinah and instructed Mu'aawiya bin Abu Sufyaan to settle me there. He therefore left with me and when we were on the road, he said, 'O Waa'i!! The hot sand is burning the soles of my feet, so please allow me to ride with you.' I replied, 'I am not selfish with this camel, but because you are not of royal birth, I would not like to spoil my name (by riding the same animal) with you.' Mu'aawiya then requested, 'Then throw me your shoes so that I may have some protection from the sun.' I replied, 'I am not selfish with these shoes, but because you are not one who wears royal attire, I would not like to spoil my name with you."

The narration continues to the point where it says that when Hadhrat Mu'aawiya became Ameerul Mu'mineen, he dispatched an expedition a man from the Quraysh called Busr bin Artaat saying, "Since I have now annexed the entire region, I want you to leave with your army. When you leave the borders of Shaam, draw your sword and kill anyone who refuses to pledge allegiance to me. Proceed in this manner to Madinah and even when you enter Madinah, I want (1) lbn Sald (vol.3 Pc.20).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.301) has commented on the chain of narrators.

you to kill anyone who refuses to pledge allegiance to me. And if you find Waa'll bin Hujar saids still alive, bring him to me.

Busr did as commanded and finding Hadhrat Waa'il Still alive, he brought him to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Still alive, he brought him to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Still alive. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Issued instructions that Hadhrat Waa'il Still be given royal welcome and after permitting him to his court, allowed him to sit on his throne. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya then asked, "Is this throne of mine not better than your camel?" Hadhrat Waa'il Still replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I was just newly out of ignorance and kufr at the time and that was the way we lived during the Period of Ignorance. Allaah then brought Islaam to us and Islaam has concealed all that I did."

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (asked further, "Then what prevented you from assisting me when Uthmaan trusted you so much and even made you his son-in-law?" Hadhrat Waa'il 图题题 replied, "Because you fought a man who was closer to Uthmaan www than yourself. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya www remarked, "How can he be closer to Uthmaan that than me when I am more closely related to Uthmaan (Page 1978) Hadhrat Waa'il (Page 1978) replied, "Rasulullaah (Page 1978) forged a bond of brotherhood between Uthmaan 经路路 and Ali 经路路 and the bond of brotherhood is stronger than the bond of being a cousin (as you are). Furthermore, I did not want to fight any of the Muhaajireen." Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 部區 asked, "Are we not Muhaajireen as well?" Hadhrat Waa'il 当底 replied, "Did we not stay away from both groups? Another strong reason is that I was once with Rasulullaah see with a large group when he looked towards the east. He then looked back saying, "Tribulations shall come to you like the many portions of a dark night. They will be extremely difficult and unpleasant and will appear very fast.' I was the only one who asked. 'O Rasulullaah : What will these tribulations be?' He replied, 'O Waa'il! When two swords cross in Islaam, stay away from either one."

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (staunch supporter of Hadhrat Ali (staunch)?" "No," replied Hadhrat Waa'il (staunch supporter of Hadhrat Ali (staunch)?" "No," replied Hadhrat Waa'il (staunch supporter of Hadhrat Ali (staunch)?" "No," replied Hadhrat Waa'il (staunch) said, "Had I heard this before, I would have never sent for you." Hadhrat Waa'il (staunch) then informed Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (staunch) "Did you not see what Muhammad bin Maslama (staunch) did when Uthmaan (staunch) was martyred? He took his sword to a rock and hit it until it broke." Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (staunch) remarked, "They (the Ansaar) are after all people who have to be tolerated." Hadhrat Waa'il (staunch) responded by saying, "Then what will you do about the statement of Rasulullaah (staunch) whoever loves the Ansaar loves them because of his love for me and whoever hates the Ansaar hates them because of his hatred for me."

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Sies's next statement was, "Choose whichever city you please (to live in) because you cannot return to Hadhramout." Hadhrat Waa'il (Sies) replied, "My tribesmen are in Shaam while my family members are in Kufa." Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Sies) commented, "A single member of you family is worth more than ten tribesmen." Hadhrat Waa'il (After migrating) I have never returned happily to Hadhramout. It is also not appropriate for a Muhaajir to return to the place he migrated from except with good reason." "What is your good reason?" questioned Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Concerning the tribulations. Because of your disputes, I have kept away from you but as soon as you unite, I shall come to you. This is the good reason."

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya sies then offered, "I intend making you the governor of Kufa, so proceed there." "I cannot assume a post of governorship from anyone after Rasulullaah sies." Hadhrat Waa'il sies replied, "Did you not see that when Abu Bakr sies wanted to appoint me as governor, I refused? Thereafter, when Umar sies wanted to appoint me as governor, I refused as well and even when Uthmaan sies wanted to appoint me as governor, I refused yet again. Despite all of this, I never forsook the pledge of allegiance I took to any of them. The letter of Abu Bakr sies came to me when the people from my region had forsaken Islaam and I stood up (to fight in Jihaad) amongst them until Allaah returned them all to the fold of Islaam. This I did without having to fill the post of governorship."

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya then sent for Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Ummul Hakam said to him, "I have made you the governor of Kufa, Go there with Waa'il bin Hujar, honour him and fulfil his needs." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan said said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Your opinion of me is not a good one. You have commanded me to honour someone whom I have seen being honoured by Rasulullaah said. Abu Bakr said, Umar said and Uthmaan said and yourself." This statement made Hadhrat Mu'aawiya said very happy. Hadhrat Waa'il said then proceeded to Kufa with Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan said and it was not long thereafter that he passed away. (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Barzah Aslami about the Fight Between Marwaan and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr

Hadhrat Abul Minhaal reports, "When Ibn Ziyaad was expelled (from Basrah when Yazeed passed away), Marwaan seized power in Shaam, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Salas seized power in Makkah and a group calling themselves the 'Qurraa' took control of Basrah, My father was extremely grieved about the situation and said (to me), 'May you have no father! Let us go to the companion of Rasulullaah Abu Barzah Aslami Salas Sitting In the shade of his balcony that was constructed from bamboo. It was an extremely hot day and we also sat down with him. My father started speaking about general matters until he finally got to ask, 'O Abu Barzah! Do you not see (what is happening)? Do you not see (what is happening)?'

Tabraani in his Sagheer and Käbeer. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.376) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The first thing that Abu Barzah said was, 'I hope to be rewarded by Allaah for becoming extremely angry with the tribes of the Quraysh, O little Arab tribes! You know well the times when you were plunged in ignorance. Those were times when you were few in number, you were disgraced and astray. Allaah then elevated you with Islaam and with Muhammad until you reached the heights you now enjoy. It is only the love of this world that has corrupted you. I swear by Allaah that the one in Shaam (Marwaan) is fighting only for worldly gain. I swear by Allaah that the one in Makkah (Ibn Zubayr (Ib)) is fighting only for worldly gain. I swear by Allaah that those around you (in Basrah) whom you call the Quraa are fighting only for worldly gain.'

When Abu Barzah (What would you then tell us to do in such situation?' Abu Barzah (What would you then tell us to do in such situation?' Abu Barzah (Today I see none better than the group who are attached to the ground.' Saying this, he pointed to the ground. He then continued, 'They are those whose bellies are empty of the wealth of others and whose backs are not burdened by the blood of others." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah Concerning Killing

Hadhrat Thamar bin Attiyya reports that Hadhrat Hudhayfah woo once said to someone, "Will it please you to kill someone who is the worst of sinners?" When the man replied in the affirmative, Hadhrat Hudhayfah woo remarked, "In that case, you will be an even worse sinner than he." (2)

Abstaining from Wasting the Life of a Muslim

Hadhrat Anas reports that Hadhrat Umar replied, "We first make a strong shield from leather and send one of our men." "Now tell me," Hadhrat Umar replied, "We first make a strong shield from leather and send one of our men." "Now tell me," Hadhrat Umar replied Continued, "What if rocks are thrown at him?" "He will then be killed," replied Hadhrat Anas replied. Hadhrat Umar replied that! I swear by the Being Who controls my life! It will never please me if you conquer a city of four thousand warriors at the expense of wasting the life of single Muslim." (3)

Rescuing a Muslim from the Clutches of the Kuffaar

Hadhrat Umar (a) once said, "More than having control over the entire Arabian peninsula, I prefer rescuing a single Muslim from the clutches of the Kuffaar." (4)

Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.193). Bukhaari, Isma'eeli and Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.13 Pg.57).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.280)

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.42). Shaafi'ee has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.165).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.312),

Frightening a Muslim

Rasulullaah E Forbids Frightening a Muslim

Hadhrat Abul Hasan was a Sahabi who participated in the Pledge of Aqabah as well as in the Battle of Badr. He says, "We were sitting with Rasulullaah when a man stood up (to leave), forgetting his shoes behind. Another person took his shoes and put it beneath him. When the returned, he then asked the others where his shoes were, they replied that they had not seen it. (After the Sahabi worriedly searched for his shoes) The other Sahabi (who hid it away) said, "Here are they." Rasulullaah then remarked, "How will you answer (on the Day of Qiyaamah) for frightening a Mu'min?" The Sahabah says explained, "I only did it in jest." However, Rasulullaah repeated two or three times more, "How will you answer for frightening a Mu'min?" (1) Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah (See reports that a Sahabi (See once hid away the shoes of another Sahabi (See in jest. When the matter was reported to Rasulullaah (See he said, "Never frighten a Muslim because frightening a Muslim is a great injustice." (2)

Other Narrations in this Regard

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer when narrates that they were once on a journey with Rasulullaah when one of them fell asleep on his animal. When another Sahabi when removed an arrow from the sleeping man's quiver, he got up with a shock. Rasulullaah we rebuked the Sahabi saying, "It is not at all permissible for anyone to frighten a Muslim." (3)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla reports that the Sahabah informed them that they were once travelling with Rasulullaah when one of them fell asleep. Another person went and grabbed the rope that the sleeping man was holding, causing him to get a fright. Rasulullaah we rebuked the man saying, "It is not at all permissible for anyone to frighten a Muslim." (4)

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Surad (narrates that a Bedouin was once performing salaah with Rasulullaah (when someone took away the rope he had with him. After Rasulullaah (has completed the salaah with Salaam, the Bedouin exclaimed, "My rope!" Some of the Sahabah (involved in taking the rope away) were busy laughing. Rasulullaah (rebuked them saying, "Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day should never frighten a Muslim." (5)

Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.263). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.253) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibnus Sakan has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaahah (Vol.4 Pg.43).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Abush Sheikh and the Hibbaan in his Kitaabut Towbeegh, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.263). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.253) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg,262).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.254) has commented on the chain of narrators

Belittling and Looking Down at a Muslim

The Narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha (1996), Hadhrat Ataa and Hadhrat Urwa (1996) About Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid (1996)

Hadhrat Aa'isha in arrates that Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid in once tripped and fell over a doorstep, causing him to sustain a gash on his head. Rasulullaah is said, "O Aa'isha! Wipe the blood off him." When Hadhrat Aa'isha is felt repulsed to do it, Rasulullaah is licked the blood off Hadhrat Usaama is would have adorned her with fine clothing and jewellery and got her married."

Hadhrat Ataa bin Yasaar reports that as soon as he arrived in Madinah, Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid was afflicted with smallpox. He was still a little boy and mucus often ran from his nose to his mouth. This repulsed Hadhrat Aa'isha Rasulullaah fie then entered the room, washed the boy's face and then kissed him. Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "By Allaah! After seeing this, I shall never distance this boy from me," (2)

Hadhrat Urwa size narrates that Rasulullaah size actually delayed leaving Arafah (to proceed to Muzdalifah) because he was waiting for Hadhrat Usaama bin Zald sizes. When Hadhrat Usaama bin Zald sizes who was a boy with a flat nose and a black skin arrived, the people of Yemen remarked, "Was it for someone like this that we were delayed?" Hadhrat Urwa sizes says that it was because of this statement that the people of Yemen reverted to kufr."

Hadhrat Ibn Sa'd says that he asked Hadhrat Yazeed bin Haaroon, "What did Hadhrat Urwa when he said that it was because of this that the people of Yemen reverted to kufr?" He replied, "Their leaving the fold of Islaam during the time of Hadhrat Abu Bakr was because they belittled the behaviour of Rasulullaah (by waiting for Hadhrat Usaama (b)."(3)

Another similar narration quotes Hadhrat Urwa (1986) as saying, "After the demise of Rasulullaah (1986), the people of Yemen reverted to kufr because of (their looking down at) Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid (1986). (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Hasan reports that when a group of people once went to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (Sing), he gave something to the Arabs amongst them while giving nothing to (non-Arab) slaves. Hadhrat Umar (Sing) then wrote a letter to rebuke him saying, "Why did you not treat them equally? It is enough for a man

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.43). Ibn Abi Shaybah has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.135).

⁽²⁾ Waaqidi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 136).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.44).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 135).

to be regarded as an evil person when he looks own on his Muslim brother." (1)

Making a Muslim Angry

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Salmaan (1996), Suhayb (1996) and Bilaal (1996) with Regard to Abu Sufyaan (1996)

Hadhrat Aa'idh bin Umar narrates that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (who was not yet a Muslim) once approached a gathering that included Hadhrat Salmaan Hadhrat Suhayb (hadhrat Salmaan Hadhrat Bilaal (hadhrat Salmaan Hadhrat Suhayb (hadhrat Bilaal (hadhrat Salmaan Hadhrat Bilaal (hadhrat Salmaan Hadhrat Salma), "The swords of Allaah had not yet taken the necks of Allaah's enemies as they ought to have," Hadhrat Abu Bakr (hadhrat Said to them, "Are you addressing those words to the elder of the Quraysh and their leader?" When he then reported the matter to Rasulullaah (hadhrat Rasulullaah (hadhrat Said, "O Abu Bakr! You may have made them angry and if you did make them angry, you would have angered your Rabb as well." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (hadhrat Said) then went back to them and asked, "Dear brothers! Have I made you angry?" They graciously replied, "Not at all. May Allaah forgive you, dear brother." (2)

Hadhrat Suhayb was once passing by with a prisoner for whom he had sought amnesty from Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Suhayb who was sitting in the Masjid asked, "Who is this man with you?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr peplied, "He is my Mushrik prisoner for whom I have sought amnesty from Rasulullaah ." Hadhrat Suhayb commented, "His neck would have been a perfect place for a sword to strike." This infuriated Hadhrat Abu Bakr so Seeing Hadhrat Abu Bakr so angry, Rasulullaah asked, "Why do I see you so angry?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr peplied, "When I passed by Suhayb with this prisoner, he remarked, 'His neck would have been a perfect place for a sword to strike." "Have you not perhaps hurt him?" Rasulullaah saked. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr swore by Allaah that he had not, Rasulullaah said, "Had you hurt him, you would have hurt Allaah and His Rasool sa swell." (3)

Cursing a Muslim

The Narration of Hadhrat Umar Concerning Rasulullaah S's Prohibition from Cursing Someone who Drank Wine

Hadhrat Umar (1986) narrates that during the time of Rasulullaah (1986) there was a man called Abdullaah (1986). He was nicknamed 'Himaar' and used to make Rasulullaah [36] laugh. Rasulullaah [36] also had him lashed on one occasion for drinking wine. When he was again brought before Rasulullaah [36] (guilty of drinking yet again), Rasulullaah [36] issued the command for him to be lashed. Someone from the crowd remarked, "May Allaah's curse be on him! How many times will he be brought?" Rasulullaah [36] rebuked the person saying, "Do not curse him! By Allaah! As far as I know, he loves Allaah and His Rasool

Abu Ubayd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.319). Ahmad has reported a similar narration in his Zuhd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.172).

⁽²⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.304). Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.346) and ibn Abdul Birr in his Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.181) have also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.49).

Another narration states that a man nicknamed 'Himaar' once gave Rasulullaah a container of butter and another of honey as a gift. When the owner of the butter and honey came to collect the payment (and was not paid), he brought the man to Rasulullaah a, saying, "O Rasulullaah Please pay for the goods." All Rasulullaah add did was to smile and then issue instructions for the man to be paid and he was. When he was brought one day to Rasulullaah a on charges of drinking wine, someone from the crowd remarked..." The rest of the narration is the same as quoted above. (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah and Hadhrat Salamah bin

Akwa in this Regard

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Ibn Nu'maan was once brought to Rasulullaah (for drinking wine), for which he was lashed. He was then brought four or five times again and lashed. Someone then remarked, "May Allaah's curse be on him! How many times will he drink? How many times will he be lashed?" Rasulullaah rebuked the person saying, "Do not curse him because he is a man who loves Allaah and His Rasool

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari, Ibn Jareer and Bayhagi.

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la, Sa'eed bin Mansoor and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ununaal (Vol. 3 Pg. 107).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.108). A narration of Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.56) states that the person was Hadhrat Nu'aymaan 更添め or Hadhrat Ibn Nu'aymaan 更添め.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.105).

brother (Muslim), it was our belief that he had approached a door of the major sins (he had committed a major sin). (1)

Swearing a Muslim

A Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning a man who Swore his Slave

Hadhrat Aa'isha harrates that a man came and sat in front of Rasulullaah He said, "I have many slaves who lie to me, cheat me and disobey me. I (retaliate when I) swear them and hit them. What is my position with them?" Rasulullaah replied, "On the Day of Qiyaamah, their cheating, disobedience and lies will be calculated together with the punishment you gave them. If your punishment is equal to their wrongs, the slate will be clean and you will neither have anything for you or against you. However, if your punishment exceeds their wrongs, they will be allowed to have revenge for the excess." The man then stepped aside and started crying loudly. Rasulullaah then said, "Did you not read (in the Qur'aan) that Allaah says:

On the Day of Qiyaamah, We will erect the scales of justice (to weigh the good and bad actions of people) and no soul will be oppressed (wronged) in the least. Even if a deed (good or bad) is equal to the weight of a mustard seed, We shall bring it (to be weighed on the scales). We suffice as Reckoners (and need no one else for the task). (Surah Ambiyaa, verse 47)

The man then said, "O Rasulullaah (2005) I see nothing for them and myself better than being separated from each other. I make you witness that they are all free." (2)

The Incident Between Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr when Someone was Swearing him

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah hadhrat Someone started swearing Hadhrat Abu Bakr had ⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.499), both reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.464).

"There was an angel with you who was responding on your behalf. However, when you started replying to some of his abuse, Shaytaan arrived and I could not sit with Shaytaan." Rasulullaah then added, "O Abu Bakr! Three things are absolute facts. Whenever a person overlooks any injustice done to him, Allaah lends him tremendous strength. Whenever a person opens the door of gifts with the intention of joining ties, Allaah increases for him in abundance. Whenever a person opens the door of begging with the intention of amassing wealth, Allaah speeds up the reduction of his wealth." (1)

Hadhrat Umar Wow Vows to Cut Off his Son's Tongue for Swearing Hadhrat Miqdaad

When Hadhrat Abdullaah said the son of Hadhrat Umar said once swore Hadhrat Miqdaad said, "Hadhrat Umar said, "A vow is still binding on me if I do not cut off your tongue!" Even after others had spoken to Hadhrat Umar said and pleaded with him to forgive his son, Hadhrat Umar said, "Leave me to cut off his tongue so that he may never again swear any companion of Rasulullaah said."

Hadhrat Bahiy narrates that there once arose a dispute between Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was and Hadhrat Miqdaad was. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was swore Hadhrat Miqdaad was, the latter complained to Hadhrat Abdullaah was state (Hadhrat Umar was). Hadhrat Umar was then vowed to cut off the tongue of his son. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was feared that his father would fulfil the vow, he sent some people to intercede on his behalf. However, Hadhrat Umar was said, "Leave me to cut off his tongue so that this becomes a precedent for others to emulate after me. Every person who then swears any of the companions of Rasulullaah was will then have his tongue cut off." (2)

Speaking Ill of a Muslim

Rasulullaah Admonishes a Sahabi for this

Hadhrat Anas Freports that someone once spoke ill of another in the presence of Rasulullaah Frank. "Stand up (and leave)," said Rasulullaah Frank. "for your Shahaadah is worthless." "O Rasulullaah Frank. I shall never repeat myself," pleaded the Sahabi Frank. Rasulullaah Frank. I shall never repeat myself," pleaded the Sahabi Frank. Rasulullaah Frank. I shall never repeat myself, "pleaded the Sahabi Frank. Rasulullaah Frank. I shall never repeat myself," pleaded the Sahabi Frank. Rasulullaah Frank. I shall never repeat myself, "our dank mocked the Qur'aan this morning. Whoever legalises something that the Qur'aan forbids cannot have done by speaking ill of someone, and act which the Qur'aan forbids.)." (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Khaalid And Hadhrat Sa'd And

Hadhrat Taarig bin Shihaab reports that there was once a dispute between

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg. 190) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.424).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.231).

Hadhrat Khaalid (Hadhrat Sa'd (Hadhrat Sa'd (Hadhrat Sa'd (Hadhrat Sa'd (Hadhrat Khaalid (Hadhrat Sa'd (Hadhrat Sa

Backbiting a Muslim

Rasulullaah Admonishes Those Who Backbit a Sahabi Www who was punished for Adultery

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah William narrates that a Sahabi William from the Banu Aslam tribe once approached Rasulullaah and four times (on different occasions) confessed that he had illegal intercourse with a woman. However, Rasulullaah es ignored his confession each time. The narration then continues to the point where Rasulullaah the finally gave the instruction for him to be stoned to death. (After he was stoned.) Rasulullaah (See overheard one of the Sahabah saying to another, "Look at this man! Whereas Allaah had concealed him, he did not leave himself to be until he was stoned like a dog." Rasulullaah & did not respond to the remark and walked on for a while. When they passed by the carcass of an ass whose one leg was raised in the air, Rasulullaah called for the two men. When they presented themselves, Rasulullaah said to them, "Dismount and eat from that carcass." Their response was, "O Nabi of Allaah Wall May Allaah forgive you! Who can eat from that?" Rasulullaah said, "What you just backbite about your brother is worse than eating that carcass. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that at this moment he is diving in the rivers of Jannah." (2)

Ibnul Munkadir narrates that when Rasulullaah had a woman stoned, someone remarked, "All her deeds are destroyed!" to this, Rasulullaah responded by saying, "While the punishment absolved her of the sin, you will be taken to task for what you have said." (3)

The Narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam Concerning Hadhrat Safiyya and a Another Lady

Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966) narrates that she once said to Rasulullaah (1966). "It will suffice you to know that Safiyya is like that!" Narrators of the report say that Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966) was referring to the fact that Hadhrat Safiyya (1966) was short. Rasulullaah (1966) then reprimanded Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966) saying, "Should the words you spoke be mixed with the ocean, it would surely spoil it."

Abu Nu'ayın in his Hillya (Vol.1 Pg.94), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.223).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.93). Ibn Hibbaan has also reported a similar narration in his Saheeh, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.288). Bukhaari has also reported the narration briefly in his Adab (Pg.108) and Haafidh has confirmed its authenticity from Ibn Hibbaan in Fathul Baari (Vol.10 Pg.361).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.93).

Hadhrat Aa'isha sees also reports that when she once imitated someone, Rasulullaah sees said that he would not like her to imitate someone in front of him even in exchange for an abundance of wealth.

A narration of Abu Dawood states that the camel of Hadhrat Safiyya once fell ill. Because Hadhrat Zaynab had extra riding camels, Rasulullaah asked her to give one to Hadhrat Safiyya Hadhrat Zaynab however responded by saying, "Should I give my camel to that Jewess!" This angered Rasulullaah so much that he did not go to Hadhrat Zaynab for the months of Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and a part of Safar. (2) Another narration (3) states that Rasulullaah kept away from her for the two months of Dhul Hijjah and Muharram or perhaps even three months. Hadhrat Zaynab says that she had even lost hope of Rasulullaah ever ever returning to her.

Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) says, "I was once with Rasulullaah (2006) when I remarked that a certain woman wore a long hem. 'Spit out!' Rasulullaah (2006) exclaimed, 'Spit out!' When I spat, it was a piece of meat that came out." (4)

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that Rasulullaah sess wives once gathered to see Rasulullaah session during the illness in which he passed away. Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay said, "O Nabi of Allaah session! By Allaah! I wish that I should rather be suffering what you are suffering," (Taking her words to be insincere,) The other wives then started winking at each other. Seeing them do this, Rasulullaah session! To see the said of the service of the service of the service of the said of the service of your companion. I swear by Allaah that she is sincere in what she said." (5)

Rasulullaah Æ rebukes Some Sahabah Æ for their Backbiting

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah American narrates that when a particular Sahabi Marican once stood up (and left), some of the Sahabah Marican remarked, "What a feeble person he is, O Rasulullaah Marican (or they said, "What a weak person he is!"). To this, Rasulullaah Marican adminished, "You have backbitten your friend and eaten his flesh." A narration of Tabraani states that when a Sahabi Marican got up to leave; the others noticed that he did so very feebly. "How very feeble is he!" they commented. Rasulullaah Marican immediately said, "You have eaten your brother's flesh and backbitten him." (6)

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal states report a narration similar to the above with

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi and Bayhaqi,

⁽²⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.284).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 8 Pg. 127).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 4 Pg. 284).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.6 Pg.128), as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.348). Ibn Sa'd has also reported a similar narration from Hadirat Ataa in (Vol.2 Pg.313).

⁽⁶⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.285). Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.94) has commented on the chain of narrators.

the addition that the Sahabah (who passed the remark) enquired, "O Rasulullaah (will be have stated only what is truly his nature." Rasulullaah (will explained, "(That is still backbiting because he would not like to hear this, however) If you had mentioned what was not actually in him, you would then be guilty of slandering him." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr See reports that some of the Sahabah ence passed a remark about a particular Sahabi saying, "He will never eat until he is fed and will not ride unless the animal is saddled for him (he is very lazy)." "You have backbitten him," Rasulullaah see scolded. "O Rasulullaah see they submitted, "But we have only stated what is truly his nature." Rasulullaah see replied, "It is enough to backbite that you merely mention a fault that your brother truly has within him." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood got up to leave. After he had left, someone then spoke ill of him. "Repent," Rasulullaah go instructed. "What should I repent for?" the person queried. Rasulullaah go replied, "Because you have eaten your brother's flesh." (3)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah instructed, "Pick your teeth". "What should I pick them for, O Rasulullaah instructed, "I have not eaten any meat?" (4)

The Incident of Two Ladies who Ruined their Fasts by Backbiting

Hadhrat Anas Feports that Rasulullaah once instructed them to fast, making it clear that none was to end the fast until he permitted them. The Sahabah feports then observed the fast. By the evening, a man came and said, "O Rasulullaah permission. In this manner, people continued coming until a man came and said, "O Rasulullaah to two young ladies from your family have fasted all day and are too shy to come to you (for permission to end the fast), so do grant them permission to terminate their fasts." Rasulullaah figured the man. When the man repeated himself, Rasulullaah figured him. When he again repeated himself, Rasulullaah figured him. When he did so yet again, Rasulullaah still ignored him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "The two of them definitely did not fast. How can a person fast when he has spent this day eating the flesh of people? Go and tell them that if they really have fasted, they should vomit."

The man returned to them and when he informed them (of Rasulullaah ses instruction), they both vomited clots of blood. The man then reported back to Rasulullaah ses who said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if it

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.94) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Isbaaani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg. 285).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tathseb (Vol.4 Pg. 285).

⁽⁴⁾ Majma'uz Zawaa'ld (Vol.8 Pg.94).

had remained in their bellies, the Fire of Jahannam would have consumed both of them." (1)

Another narration states that when the man told one of the ladies to vomit, she vomited blood, puss and meat which half filled a cup. When he then told the other lady to vomit, she vomited blood, puss and fresh meat which then filled the cup. Rasulullaah then said, "The two of them fasted (abstained) from what Allaah had made lawful for them (food and drink) but then terminated their fasts with that which Allaah had forbidden for them (backbiting). The one sat with the other and started eating the flesh of other people." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr www and Hadhrat Umar www with a Man who Used to Serve them

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik Figure reports that it was customary amongst the Arabs to serve each other during journeys. There was a man who used to serve Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and Hadhrat Umar was and it once occurred that the two of them slept away (after charging the man to prepare their meal. He however also fell asleep). When the two awoke and the meal was not prepared, they remarked, "He is a real sleepy head." They then got him up and told him to go to Rasulullaah with the message, "Abu Bakr and Umar convey their Salaams to you and ask for some gravy." (When the man brought the message,) Rasulullaah said, "The two of them have already eaten the gravy." (After informing them of Rasulullaah (statement) Hadhrat Abu Bakr (and Hadhrat Umar Exist came to Rasulullaah & and said, "O Rasulullaah & What have we eaten as gravy?" Rasulullaah Freplied, "The flesh of your brother. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I can see his flesh between your teeth." The two men submitted, "Do seek Allaah's forgiveness on our behalf, O Rasulullaah 學等." Rasulullaah 學等 advised them saying, "Ask him to seek forgiveness for vou." (3)

Spying to Discover Faults in Muslims

Hadhrat Umar Will Turns a Blind Eye to People who Were Drinking

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (E) reports that one night he stood guard over Madinah with Hadhrat Umar (E). As they were walking along, they noticed a lantern in a house. They walked towards it and when they got close, they found the door ajar. It revealed some people talking in raised voices and making a noise. Taking hold of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (E) hadhrat Umar (E) asked, "Do you know whose house is this?" Hadhrat Abdur

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, Tayaalisi, Ibn Abi Dunya and Bayhaqi, Ahmad, Ibn Abi Dunya and Bayhaqi have also reported the narration from Hadhrat Ubayd the Ireed slave of Rasulullaah

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol+4 Pg.286).

⁽³⁾ Haafidh Diyaa Maqdasi in his Mukhtaaran, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 4 Pg. 216).

Rahmaan bin Auf (This is the house of Rabee'ah bin Umayyah bin Khalaf and the people here are drinking wine. What do you think (we should do)?" Hadhrat Umar (This said, "We have perpetrated what Allaah has prohibited when He says:

'And do not spy' (Surah Hujuraat, verse 12)

We have spied." Hadhrat Umar (1986) then went away and turned a blind eye to them. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar with an Individual and a Group of people

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Umar said did not see one of his companions for some time, he told Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (1986) to accompany him to the man's house to see what had happened to him. When they approached the house, they found the door open. The man was sitting there and his wife was busy pouring something in his cup and giving it to him. Hadhrat Umar said to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said. "This is what had been keeping him away from us. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan was asked, "How will you know what is in the cup?" Hadhrat Umar & said, "I fear that this may be spying." "But it is spying," Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan spice confirmed. "What is the way to repent for this?" Hadhrat Umar Significant Abdur Rahmaan steeplied, "Do not inform him what has been learnt about his affairs and maintain only good thoughts about him." The two men then left. (2) Hadhrat Taa'oos reports that Hadhrat Umar Sie left home one night to keep guard over some travellers who had set up camp on the outskirts of Madinah. It was late at night when he passed by a house where some people were drinking wine. Hadhrat Umar sizes called out, "Is the command of Allaah being disobeyed? Is the command of Allaah being disobeyed?" One of them responded by saving, "Allaah has prohibited you from this (spying)." Hadhrat Umar then went away and left them alone. (3)

Hadhrat Umar Scales the Wall of a Singer's House

Hadhrat Thowr Kindi narrates that Hadhrat Umar was was patrolling Madinah one night when he heard a man singing in his house. Hadhrat Umar scaled the wall of the house and confronted the man saying, "O enemy of Allaah! Do you think that Allaah will conceal your wrongs when you disobey Him?" The man replied, "Do not be hasty, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! While I may have disobeyed Allaah in one respect, you have disobeyed on three counts. While Allaah Abdur Razzaaq and Abd bin Humayd, Ibn Mundhir and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as guoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 167).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mundhir and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 167).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.141).

declares [رَّ تَعْ تَحْسُوا) 'Do not spy'(1), you have spied. While Allaah says أَرُونُ السُّؤُونَ مِنْ) 'Enter your homes from their (front) doors'(2), you have scaled the wall to get to me and have done so without permission whereas Allaah states:

Do not enter any home besides your own until you have acquired permission (to enter from those inside) and (until you have) greeted the inhabitants. (Surah Noor, verse 27)

Hadhrat Umar Sees submitted, "Will you employ the good in you if I overlook what you have been doing?" "Certainly," the man replied. Hadhrat Umar Sees then pardoned the man, leaving the house and the man alone. (3)

An Incident of Hadhrat Umar with an Old Man

Hadhrat Suddi reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was with Hadhrat Umar when he saw the light of a fire during the dead of night. Following the light, Hadhrat Umar was entered a house lit by a lantern. There they discovered anold mansitting with some drink and a slave girl who was singing for him. The man perceived nothing until Hadhrat Umar was confronted him. Hadhrat Umar was exclaimed, "To this night, I have never seen a sight uglier than this old man waiting for his death (in such sin)!" The old man lifted his gaze and said, "Quite in order, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! But what you have done is even uglier. You have been spying when Allaah has forbidden it and you have entered without permission."

"You are right," Hadhrat Umar (Sie admitted. As he left biting his garment and weeping, he said, "Umar's mother may well have lost him if his Rabb does not forgive him. This old man thought that he was hiding himself from his family but will now continue sinning saying that Umar has already seen me (what more have I to lose)." The old man then stayed away from Hadhrat Umar (Sies)'s gatherings for a while.

liadhrat Umar was one day sitting in a gathering when the old man came discreetly and sat amongst the people at the back. Seeing him arrive, Hadhrat Umar seems sent someone to summon him. When the person told the old man that Hadhrat Umar was was calling for him, the old man expected that Hadhrat Umar would now punish him for what he had seen him do. "Come closer to me," Hadhrat Umar who bade the old man. Hadhrat Umar would now punish him for what he had seen him do. "Come closer to me," Hadhrat Umar would now be seated him right beside him. "Bring your ear closer to me," Hadhrat Umar told the old man. Hadhrat Umar then whispered in his ear saying, "Listen! I swear by the Being Who has sent Muhammad was as a Rasul with the truth that neither I nor ibn Mas'ood who was with me have informed a soul about what we had seen you doing."

⁽¹⁾ Surah Hujuraat, verse 12.

⁽²⁾ Surah Bagara, verse 189.

⁽³⁾ Kharaa'iti, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.167).

The old man then said to Hadhrat Umar ("O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Bring your ear closer to me". He then whispered in Hadhrat Umar ("Ess's ear saying, "Listen! I swear by the Being Who has sent Muhammad ("Ess as a Rasul with the truth that upto the time that I have come to this gathering, I have never repeated myself." Hadhrat Umar ("Ses then raised his voice saying, "Allaahu Akbart" and none present there had any idea why he had done so. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar with Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Thaqafi

Hadhrat Abu Qilaabah narrates that Hadhrat Umar was once informed that Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Thaqali was and some of his friends were drinking wine at his house. Hadhrat Umar was left and entered the house, finding only one person with Hadhrat Abu Mihjin was. Hadhrat Abu Mihjin was said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is not at all permissible for you because Allaah has forbidden you from spying." "What is he saying?" asked Hadhrat Umar was and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Arqam who hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit was and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Arqam who hadhrat Saying. "He is right, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This falls into the category of spying." Hadhrat Umar was then left him alone. (2)

Concealing the Faults of Muslims

Hadhrat Umar (See Section 1) Instructions to the Family of a Young Lady in this Regard

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that a man once came to Hadhrat Umar Saying, "I had a daughter whom I had buried alive during the Period of Ignorance. However, we then removed her from the ground before she died. Together with us, she then found the Period of Islaam and accepted Islaam. After accepting Islaam, she became liable for capital punishment for violating the law of Allaah. She then grabbed a dagger to kill herself but we managed to stop her after she had severed an artery, We then treated her and she has recovered. Subsequently, she has repented most sincerely. Now that she has received a proposal for marriage from a certain family, we have informed all about her past." Hadhrat Umar Said, "Do you wish to expose that which Allaah has concealed? By Allaah! If you ever again inform anyone about her past, I shall make you a lesson for all the people of the many cities to learn from. Marry her as you would marry any chaste Muslim woman." (3)

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that a woman was once punished for a crime of immorality. However, after her tribe had arrived as immigrants in Madinah, she repented very sincerely. When she received a proposal for marriage, her uncle did not approve of getting her married without first informing the people about her past. At the same time, he also disliked disclosing her secret. When he consulted

⁽¹⁾ Abu Sheikh, as quoted in Kanzul Ummazi (Vol.2 Pg.141).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 141).

⁽³⁾ Hannaas and Haarith, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.150).

Hadhrat Umar (See about the matter, Hadhrat Umar (See said, "Get her married as you would get any of your righteous girls married." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1996), a Little Child and Four Women

Hadhrat Sha'bi also reports that a woman once came to Hadhrat Umar saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I have found a child (abandoned) together with an Egyptian cloth bag containing a hundred Dinaars. I then took the child and hired a wet nurse for him. There are now four women who come to the child and kiss him. I do not know which of them may be his mother." Hadhrat Umar says then told her to inform him as soon as the women arrived again. When she did as told, Hadhrat Umar says came and asked one of the women, "Which of you is the child's mother?" She responded by saying, "O Umar! You have not done well and your approach is totally wrong. Do you wish to expose a woman whom Allaah has concealed?" "You are right," Hadhrat Umar says admitted. He then said to the lady (caring for the child), "Whenever these women come to you, you should not question them about anything and continue caring for the child." He then left. (2)

Hadhrat Anas Mass Instructs that a Lady should Not be Exposed

Hadhrat Saalih bin Karz narrates, "I once brought before Hakam bin Ayyoob a slave girl of mine who had fornicated. I was sitting there when Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik ("Saalih") arrived and sat down as well. 'O Saalih' he asked, 'Who is this slave girl with you?' I replied, 'She is my slave girl who has fornicated and I wish to have her case brought before the governor so that she may be punished.' Hadhrat Anas ("Do not do that. Rather take your slave girl back home. Fear Allaah and conceal her folly.' When I refused to do as he said, he said, 'Do not go ahead and do as I say.' He then continued insisting until I eventually took her back." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir Solos Scribe and a Group of People who had been Drinking

Hadhrat Dukhayn Abul Haytham was a scribe for Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir He says, "I once said to Hadhrat Uqba (We have a few neighbours who drink wine. I am going to call for the police to arrest them.' He advised, 'Do not do that. Rather advise them and threaten them (with arrest).' I replied, 'I have already tried to stop them but they refuse to take heed. I will now have to call the police to arrest them.' Hadhrat Uqba (Shame on you! Do not do that because I have heard Rasulullaah say, "Whoever conceals a fault is like one who has brought back to life one who has been buried alive."(1)

⁽¹⁾ Sa'eed bin Mansoor and Bayhagi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.296).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.329).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.94).

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Dardaa sissis and his Son Concerning the Criminals of Damascus

Hadhrat Bilaal bin Sa'd Ash'ari narrales that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya so once wrote to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa so to submit to him the names of all the criminals of Damascus. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "What have I to do with the criminals of Damascus? How am I to know who they are?" His son Bilaal then offered to write their names and when he did, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "How do you know them? You would never know that they are criminals unless you are amongst them, so begin with your own name." He then did not send the list. (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Jareer was and Hadhrat Umar was in this Regard

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Umar was once in a room with Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah (and others) when he smelt an odour (from someone who had passed wind). Hadhrat Umar was said, "I command the person responsible for this odour to get up and perform wudhu." Hadhrat Jareer then said. "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Should everyone rather not perform wudhu (so that the one person is not embarrassed)?" Hadhrat Umar was praised him saying, "You were an excellent leader during the Period of Ignorance and now an excellent guide in Islaam." (3)

Forgiving and Overlooking the Faults of a Muslim

The Letter of Hadhrat Haatib bin Abi Balta'ah

Hadhrat Ali (See) narrates that Rasulullaah (See) dispatched him, Hadhrat Zubayr (See) and Hadhrat Miqdaad (See) with instruction saying, "Ride until you reach Rawda Khaakh⁽⁴⁾ There you will find a woman in her carriage with a note that you should take from her."

The Sahabah raced their horses to the place where they saw the woman. When they asked here for the note, she denied having it in her possession. When they threatened to remove all her clothing if she did not surrender the note, she removed the note from the plait of her hair. When they brought the note to Rasulullaah they they discovered that it was from Hadhrat Haatib bin Abi Balta'ah they and it was addressed to the Mushrikeen of Makkah, passing on to them some information about (the intentions of) Rasulullaah ...

⁽I) Abu Dawood and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.17). Ibn Hibbaan has also reported the narration but Mundhiri has commented on one of the narrators., (2) Bukhaan in his Adab (Pg.188).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.151).

⁽⁴⁾ This is a place that lies approximately 12 miles out of Madinah.

When Rasulullaah Asked Hadhrat Haatib What the matter was, Hadhrat Haatib Was explained, "O Rasulullaah Please do not be hasty. I am not one of the Quraysh and was only living with them as an ally(1). The others who have migrated with you have relatives in Makkah by virtue of whom their families and property are protected. Because I have no relatives there I wanted to do a favour for the Quraysh so that they become indebted to me. In this way, they will see to the protection of my family. I did not do it out of apostasy nor because of being pleased with kufr after becoming a Muslim."

After hearing the story, Rasulullaah said, "He has spoken the truth." Hadhrat Umar then exclaimed, "O Rasulullaah self Permit me to behead this hypocrite." Rasulullaah self said, "Haatib participated in the Battle of Badr and Allaah has looked upon the veterans of Badr saying, 'Do as you please because I have forgiven you". It was with reference to this incident of Hadhrat Haatib that Allaah revealed the verse:

﴿ إِنَّا أَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوا لَا تَتَّجِدُوا عَدُوِى وَعَدُوَّكُمْ اَوْلِيَآءَ تُلَقُونَ اِلَيْهِمْ بِالْمُوَدَّةِ وَقَدْ

- كَفُرُوا بِمَا جَآءَ كُمْ مِّنَ الْحَقِّ ؟ يُخْرِجُونَ الوَّسُولَ وَايَّاكُمْ اَنْ تُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ رَبِّكُمْ الْنُ
كُنْتُمْ خَرَجْتُمْ جِهَادًا فِي شَبِيلِنِي وَابْتِغَآةَ مَرْضَاتِي " تُسِرُّونَ النَّهِمْ بِالْمُودَّةِ " وَآنَا
اَعْلَمُ بِمَآ اَخْفَيْتُمْ وَمَا اعْلَنْتُمْ " وَمَنْ يَقْعَلُهُ مِنْكُمْ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ سَوَّاءَ الشَّبِيل ﴿)

(سورة ممتحنه آيت ١)

O you who have Imaan! Do not take My enemy and your enemy as friends, offering your friendship to them when they reject the truth (of Islaam) that has come to you. They have driven out the Rasool was and yourselves (from Makkah simply) because you believe in Allaah as your Rabb. If you emerge to strive (in Jihaad) in My path and to seek My pleasure (you would not befriend the Kuffaar). You secretly show friendship to them (by passing confidential information on to them) when I am Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal. The one who does this from among you has certainly strayed from the straight path. (Surah Mumtahina, verse I) (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Jaabir adds that Hadhrat Haatib said, "Rasulullaah sie! I did not write the note because I am a hypocrite or because I wished to betray the messenger of Allaah. I knew that Allaah would grant victory to His Nabi and complete His Deen irrespective of whether I wrote or not. However, I was always an alien in Makkah and my mother still lives there. So I wished that the people of Makkah become indebted to me (and care for my mother on account of this)." Hadhrat Umar sizes then exclaimed, "O Rasulullaah size! Permit me to behead this hypocrite." Rasulullaah size said,

⁽I) Allaama Qurtubi 河流流流 mentions (Vol. 18 Pg. 51) that Hadhrat Haatib 河流流流 was originally from Yemen.

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.284).

"Do you want to kill a veteran of Badr? Haatib participated in the Battle of Badr and Allaah has looked upon the veterans of Badr saying, 'Do as you please." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali with a Thief

Hadhrat Abu Matar reports that he once saw a person being brought to Hadhrat Ali Saids. The people accused him of stealing a camel. Hadhrat Ali Saids said to him, "I do not think that he had stolen." "No," said the man, "I did steal." Hadhrat Ali Saids then asked, "Perhaps you made a mistake (mistook someone else's camel as your own)." However, the man confessed saying, "Not at all. I did steal." Hadhrat Ali Saids then instructed his slave Qambar saying, "Take him and tie up his fingers. Then light a fire and summon the executioner to cut off his hand. Then wait for me to arrive."

When Hadhral All Wee later arrived, he asked the man, "Did you steal?" This time his reply was, "No." Hadhral Ali then let him go free. Some people asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Why did you let him go when he had already confessed before you?" Hadhral Ali the replied, "It was by his statement that I had apprehended him so I therefore let him go also because of his statement. When a person was brought to Rasulullaah for stealing, his hand was cut by the command of Rasulullaah Rasulullaah then then started to weep. When I asked him what made him weep, he replied, "Why should I not weep when the hands of my Ummah are being cut?" Some people then asked, 'O Rasulullaah Wee! Why did you then not pardon the man?" Rasulullaah Feplied, "It is only an unfit ruler who would pardon a crime deserving corporal punishment. It is you people who should pardon each other (for crimes committed against you rather than demand the punishment). "(2)

The Instruction of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Concerning a Drunk

Hadhrat Abu Maajid Hanafi reports that a man once brought his drunk nephew to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood saying, "I found him drunk." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "Shake him up and smell his mouth." When the people shook him up and smell his mouth, they discovered that he smelt of wine. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said then had him imprisoned. When the man was taken out of prison the following day, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood sissued instructions for the end of the whip to be hammered (flattened and softened so that it may not be too hard on the man). He then said to the flogger, "Do not lift your hand so high that your armpits show and give every limb its right." The man was wearing a cloak and trousers when he was being flogged. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood had the man flogged lightly in this way and then set him free.

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.284), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.303). Haakim has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.137), as have Abu Ya'la, Bazzaar and Tabraani, all also reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Yol.9 Pg.304).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.117).

Thereafter, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said (with reference to the uncle), "By Allaah! He is terrible guardian over an orphan! Neither did he train (his ward) well nor did he save him from disgrace, Allaah is indeed Most Forgiving and loves forgiving people. It is improper for a governor not to enforce corporal punishment when the case is brought before him." He then started relating a Hadith, "The first Muslim whose hand was cut (for theft) was a man from the Ansaar who was brought before Rasulullaah for theft) was a man from the Ansaar who was brought before Rasulullaah for the the people as well as a man from the Ansaar who was brought before Rasulullaah for the the people as well as a side of the people as the theory over Rasulullaah for the people as a side of the people as the people as a side of the p

They should (rather) forgive and pardon. Do you not like Allaah to forgive you? (fust as you would like Allaah to forgive you for your shortcomings, you should also forgive the shortcomings of others. Be like) Allaah (Who) is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (1) (Surah Noor, verse 22) (2)

Hadhrat Amr bin Shu'ayb narrates that the first instance of corporal punishment enforced in Islaam was to a man who was brought to Rasulullaah . After the witnesses had testified against him, Rasulullaah gave the instruction for his hand to be cut. After the man's hand was amputated, Rasulullaah saked, "O Rasulullaah Islaam it is it is it is it is it is it is instruction for his hand had been hard for you?" "What is there to prevent me (from being depressed) when you people are assisting Shaytaan against your brother?" "Why did you not release him then?" they asked. Rasulullaah said, "Why did you not do that before bringing him to me? When a ruler is presented with a case deserving of punishment, it is improper for him to ignore it (when guilt is proven, the ruler cannot waive the punishment unless the aggrieved party pardons the criminal)." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Flogging a Drunk and the Letter Hadhrat Umar Whose Wrote to him

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wis narrates that he was once with (his father)

⁽¹⁾ The entire verse reads: [They should (rather) forgive and pardon. Do you not like Allaah to forgive you? (Just as you would like Allaah to forgive you for your shortcomings, you should also forgive the shortcomings of others. Be like) Allaah (Who) is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.]

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaag, Ibn Abi Dunya, Ibn Abi Haatim. Tabraani, Haakim and Bayhagi.

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.83,89).

Hadhrat Umar for Hajj or Umrah when they spotted a rider arrive. "I think that he is looking for us," said Hadhrat Umar William. When the man arrived, he started weeping. Hadhrat Umar Consoled him saying, "What is the matter? If you are in debt, we shall assist you. If you are in fear, we shall grant you security; unless you have murdered someone and deserve to be executed. If you dislike living amongst certain people, we shall transfer you away from them."

The man replied, "When living with the Banu Taym, I drank some wine. Abu Moosa Ash'ari had me flogged, shaved off my hair, blackened my face and had me paraded through the streets announcing to the people, 'Do not associate with him and do not eat with him!' Three ideas then came to my mind. The first was to use my sword to kill Abu Moosa, the second was to come to you so that you may transfer me to Shaam where no one knows me, and the third was to join the enemy and to eat and drink with them."

Hadhrat Umar then also started to weep saying, "Even if Umar were to have a staggering sum of wealth, it would give me no pleasure if you were to do these things. In fact, I had been one of the worst drunks during the Period of Ignorance. Drinking is not as serious a crime as adultery." Hadhrat Umar then wrote to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari had a greeting him and informing him that the particular person from the Banu Taym tribe had reported the incident to him, he wrote.

"I swear by Allaah that if you ever repeat yourself, I shall ensure that I blacken your face and parade you through the streets. If you wish to know whether my words are true, go ahead and repeat what you did. Command the people to associate with the man and to eat with him. If he has repented, they should also accept his testimony."

Hadhrat Umar 当场场 then gave the man transport together with two hundred Dirhams. (1)

Interpreting the Actions of Muslims in a Favourable Manner

The Incident of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed and Hadhrat Maalik bin Nuwayrah

Hadhrat Abu Own and others reports that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Stage once claimed that Hadhrat Maalik bin Nuwayrah Stage had left the fold of Islaam because of a statement he had been informed Hadhrat Maalik Stage denied the allegation saying. "I am still firm on Islaam and have not changed in the least." However, even though Hadhrat Abu Qataadah Stage and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Stage testified in favour of Hadhrat Maalik Stage, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Stage brought Hadhrat Maalik Stage forward and commanded Hadhrat Diraar bin Azwar Asadi Stage to execute Hadhrat Maalik Stage, which he did. (After the expiry of her Iddah) Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Stage then married Hadhrat Maalik

(1) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.107).

Swife Hadhrat Ummu Mutammim.

When the news reached Hadhrat Umar executed and married his wife, Hadhrat Umar said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr "Khaalid has committed adultery so have him stoned to death." However, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I cannot have him stoned because (he had not done so intentionally but) he had erred in his judgement." Hadhrat Umar said, "But you should have him executed because he had killed a Muslim." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I cannot have him executed because (he had not done so intentionally but) he had erred in his judgement." "Then at least relieve him of his post," demanded Hadhrat Umar said. "Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I cannot have him executed because (he had not done so intentionally but) he had erred in his judgement." "Then at least relieve him of his post," demanded Hadhrat Umar said. "Hadhrat Abu Bakr said responded by saying, "i shall never sheath a sword that Rasulullaah said had drawn." (1)

Hating the Sin and not the Sinner

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Forbid Swearing a Sinner Hadhrat Abu Qilaaba narrates that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Sies) once passed by a person whom people were insulting for committing a sin. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Sies) said to them, "If you people ever found him lying in a well, would you take him out of it?" When they replied that they certainly would, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Then do not insult your brother but rather thank Allaah for safeguarding you (from the sin)." "Do you not hate him?" the people enquired. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Porsakes it, he is again my brother." (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "When you see your brother commit a sin, do not assist Shaytaan against him by saying, 'O Allaah! Humiliate him! O Allaah! Curse him! Rather ask Allaah for safety (from the sin). We the companions of Rasulullaah so never said anything about a person until we knew in what condition he died. If he died in a good manner, we then knew for certain that he earned much good. On the other hand, if he died in a bad way, we feared for him." (3)

Keeping The Heart Free from Ill-Feelings and Jealousy

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr and a Sahabi Wes Whom Rasulullaah Am had Given the Glad Tidings of Jannah

Hadhrat Anas 劉德 reports that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah 認識

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.132).

⁽²⁾ Ifin Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Uminaal (Vol.2 Pg. 174). Abu Nu'ayin has reported a similar narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg. 225).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.205).

when he said, "A man from amongst the people of Jannah shall now appear before you." A man from the Ansaar then arrived with his beard dripping water from his wudhu and hanging his shoes over his left hand. The next day Rasulullaah said the same thing and the same man again appeared as he did the first time. On the third day, Rasulullaah said again repeated his words and the man appeared yet again in the same state as he did previously.

After Rasulullaah (28) had stood up (and left), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas the followed the man saying to him. "I had an argument with my father and swore not to go home for three days. Do you think that you could accommodate me at your place until the period expires?" When the man agreed, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Sissi stayed with him for three days. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr wood did not see the man perform any salaah during the night. All he did was to engage in Dhikr and recite "Allaahu Akbar" whenever he awoke at night and turned on another side. He then continued sleeping until the Fair salaah. "Apart from this," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (1986) recalls, "I heard him speaking only good. After the three days had passed, I was on the verge of thinking that his deeds were not deserving (of the accolade Rasulullaah paid to them), when I enquired, 'O servant of Allaah! There was never any argument or severed tie between my father and I. (I wanted to stay with you because) On three occasions I heard Rasulullaah 🕮 say, 'A man from amongst the people of Jannah shall now appear before you.' On each of the three occasions, it was you who appeared. I therefore made up my mind to stay with you for three days to observe your actions so that I may follow suit. I have however not seen you do anything extraordinary. What is it that you do to deserve what Rasulullaah (said?"

"There is nothing besides what you have observed," the man replied. When Hadhrat Abdullaah was leaving, the man called him back and said, "There is nothing besides what you have observed. However, another thing is that I harbour absolutely no ill-feelings towards any Muslim and I do not begrudge anyone for any good that Allaah has granted him." Hadhrat Abdullaah was gave you," (1)

Another narration names the Sahabi as Hadhrat Sa'd (1966). The end of this narration states that Hadhrat Sa'd (1966) said, "There is nothing besides what you have observed, dear nephew. However, I never go to sleep with any ill-feelings for any Muslim." (2) Yet another narration states that to this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (1966) remarked, "It is this that has conveyed you and it is something that we are incapable of doing." (3)

Another narration names the Sahabi as Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Said.

The end part of that narration states that Hadhrat Sa'd said, "There is nothing

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad. (2) Abu Ya'la and Bazzaar

⁽³⁾ Nasa'ee, Bayhaqi and Isbahaani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.328). Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.79) has commented on the chains of narrators wille ibn Katheer has confirmed that Ahmad's narration is authentic.

besides what you have observed, dear nephew. However, I do not harbour any ill-feelings for any Muslim and never speak any ill about them," To this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (Size) remarked, "It is this that has conveyed (glad tidings of Jannat) you and it is something that I am incapable of doing." (1)

The Face of Hadhrat Abu Dujaanah Sissis Shines During his Illness

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam with reports that when people went to visit Hadhrat Abu Dujaanah with during his illness, his face was always shining and radiant. When he was asked the reason for his radiant face, he replied, "There are two deeds of mine that I have the most reliance on (that they will be a source of my salvation and because of which my face is as you see). The first is that I never speak what is not necessary and the second is that my heart is always clear towards all Muslims." (2)

Deriving Pleasure from the Happiness of the Muslims

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (is Happy for the Happiness of the Muslims Hadhrat Buraydah Aslami marrates that when someone once insulted Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas marrates in me. Whenever I recite a verse of Allaah's Book, I wish that all of mankind also share the knowledge I have. (The second is that) Whenever I hear of a Muslim ruler exercising justice amongst the people, I become extremely happy even though I may never have the opportunity of having a case judged by him. (The third is that) Whenever I hear about rains falling upon any city of the Muslims, I become very happy (for them) even though I have no grazing animals in that area." (3)

Behaving Cordially towards People

Rasulullaah Behaves Cordially Towards a Man of Evil Disposition

Hadhrat Aa'isha (See Rasulullaah) reports that when a man asked permission to see Rasulullaah) Rasulullaah (See Rasulullaah) remarked, "He is the worst of his tribe."

However, when he entered, Rasulullaah ## received him most warmly and showed happiness to have him. After the man had left, another person arrived and asked permission to see Rasulullaah ##. This time, Rasulullaah ## remarked.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, reporting from reliable sources, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.43).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg. 102).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.284), Bayhaqi has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.334), as has Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.322).

"He is the best of his tribe." When this man entered, Rasulullaah we did not receive him as warmly as he did the first person and did not appear as happy as he did with the first.

After he had left, Hadhrat Aa'isha wasked, "O Rasulullaah with When the first person atrived, you said what you did and then proceeded to receive him warmly and express happiness at his visit. You then said what you did about the second person but did not receive him as you did the first person," Rasulullaah replied, "Amongst the worst of people are those from whose abuse people have to guard themselves." (1)

Hadhrat Safwaan bin Assaal Sales narrates that they were once on a journey with Rasulullaah when a man arrived. Seeing him arrive, Rasulullaah commented, "He is the worst of his tribe and a terrible person." However, when he arrived, Rasulullaah allowed him to sit close to him. After he has left, the Sahabah saked, "O Rasulullaah see! When you saw him, you said that he is the worst of his tribe and a terrible person. However, when he arrived, you allowed him to sit close to you?" Rasulullaah see replied, "He is a Munaafiq and because of his hypocrisy 1 treat him cordially so that he may not spoil my name before others." (2)

Hadhrat Buraydah Personal Pers

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Concerning the Cordial Treatment of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (While we may be smiling in the faces of certain people, our hearts are actually cursing them." (4)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 3000 said, "We also laugh with them." $^{(5)}$

Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.17). Bukhaari has also reported the narration in his Adab (Pg.190).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg. 191).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.17) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.222). Ibn Abi Dunya has also reported the narration.

⁽⁵⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Fat'hui Baari (Vol.10 Pg.403). Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.162).

Making a Muslim Happy

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Regrets his Exchange of Words with Hadhrat Umar Roseks Forgiveness

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa harrates that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah when Hadhrat Abu Bakr harrates that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah when Hadhrat Abu Bakr har came in (in a hurry) holding the edge of his clothing (and without him realising it) because of which his knees were exposed. Rasulullaah commented, "Look! Your friend has had an argument." After greeting with Salaam, Hadhrat Abu Bakr har said, "I had an argument with (Hadhrat Umar) Ibn Khattaab and in the heat of the discussion I told him something, I then regretted the words and asked him to forgive me. However, he refused to do so and I have therefore come to you." Rasulullaah thrice repeated, "May Allaah forgive you, O Abu Bakr."

Hadhrat Umar later regretted (not forgiving Hadhrat Abu Bakr was at home, he was informed that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was not there. He then went to Rasulullaah and greeted with Salaam. However, Rasulullaah for sacreddened (with anger) so much that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was became alarmed. Kneeling down before Rasulullaah for Hadhrat Abu Bakr was pleaded, "O Rasulullaah for swear by Allaah that it was i who was at fault." After Hadhrat Abu Bakr was had repeated this twice, Rasulullaah who said, "When Allaah sent me (as a Nabi) to you people, you all said that i was lying except for Abu Bakr who said, "He is speaking the truth." He then supported me with his health and wealth, so will you people not leave my companion alone for my sake?" This Rasulullaah for repeated twice, after which no one hurt Hadhrat Abu Bakr were again.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was not a time that he asked you to forgive him but you failed to do so." Hadhrat Umar was not a time that he asked you to forgive him but you failed to do so." Hadhrat Umar was not a time that he asked you to forgive him but you failed to do so." Hadhrat Umar was not a time that he asked you to forgive him but you failed to do so." Hadhrat Umar was replied, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with truth! There was not a time that he asked me to forgive him when I did not do so (privately). After yourself there is none of creation whom I like more than him." Hadhrat Abu Bakr withen added, "And I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that after yourself there is none of creation whom I like more than him." Rasulullaah the then remarked, "Do not hurt me concerning this companion of mine because when Allaah sent me with guidance and the truth, you people said I am lying while Abu Bakr said, 'You are speaking the truth.' Had Allaah not named him my companion (in the Qur'aan), I would have surely made him my 'Khaleel' (special friend). He is after all my brother in Islaam. Take note! Seal off all accesses (leading from some houses directly to the Masjid) except the access leading from the house of Abu Bakr bin Abu Quhaafah." (I)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in Sifatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.92).

Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah Forgives Hadhrat Aa'isha Forgives and Hadhrat Ummu Salamah Forgives at the Time of her death

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Sassays, "Ummu Habeebah the wife of Rasulullaah (Sassays, "Ummu Habeebah the wife of Rasulullaah (Sassays) called for me as she lay on her deathbed. She said, "There had been incidents between us as occurs between co-wives. May Allaah forgive me and you for all such incidents that occurred between us." I replied by saying, 'May Allaah forgive you all of that, overlook it and save you from the punishment of it all.! She then said, 'You have made me happy. May Allaah keep you happy.! She then sent for Ummu Salamah and said the same to her." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Goes to Hadhrat Faatima to Make her Happy

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Faatima fell ill (just before her demise), Hadhrat Abu Bakr went to request permission to address her. (Her husband) Hadhrat Ali went said, "O Faatima! Abu Bakr wants permission to speak to you." "Do you want me to permit him?" she asked. When Hadhrat Ali went replied in the affirmative, she granted permission. Hadhrat Abu Bakr went then started saying things that would please her. He said, "By Allaah! I forsook my home, wealth, family and tribe only for the pleasure of Allaah, for the pleasure of His Rasool we and for your pleasure, the household of Rasulullaah we "He then continued saying things to make her happy until she was pleased. (3)

Hadhrat Umar saks Forgiveness from a Man whom he Disliked

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Umar once mentioned that he disliked a particular person. People then started asking him why Hadhrat Umar so disliked him. Eventually, when too many people came to his house, he approached Hadhrat Umar so and asked, "O Umar! Have I caused a rift in Islaam (amongst the Muslims)?" When Hadhrat Umar so replied that he did not, the man asked, "Have I then committed any crime?" When Hadhrat Umar so again replied that he did not, the man further asked, "Have I started some new innovation in Islaam?" "No," came the reply. The man then said, "For what reason do you then dislike me? Allaah has mentioned:

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.45).

⁽²⁾ Ibn 54'd (Vol.8 Pg.100)

⁽³⁾ Baylogi (Vol.6 Pg.301). (b) Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.27) has also reported the narration.

Those who harm the Mu'mineen men and women for no sin on their part will bear the burden of slander and a manifest sin. (Surah Ahzaab, verse 58)

You have harmed me greatly (by making the statement). May Allaah not forgive you." Hadhrat Umar States then said, "He is right. By Allaah! neither has he caused any rift nor has he perpetrated any of the other wrongs. Do forgive me for that." Hadhrat Umar States then continued pleading with the man (to forgive him) until he eventually did. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Seeks Pardon from Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali

Hadhrat Rajaa bin Rabee'ah narrates that he was once sitting in the Masjid of Rasulullaah & in Madinah. In the gathering with him were the likes of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed was and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr & When Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali shade passed by and greeted them with Salaam, they all replied with the exception of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr who remained silent. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr watched Hadhrat Hasan was leave and then replied:

"وَعَلَيْكَ السَّلاَمُ وَرَحْمَهُ الله"

He then said further, "Of all the inhabitants of the earth, that man is most beloved to the inhabitants of the heavens. By Allaah! I have not spoken to him since the days of the Battle of Siffeen." Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed said, "Why do you then not go to him and present your excuse." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr said agreed and when they went to Hadhrat Hasan saids house, Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed saked permission to enter. He then entered and requested permission for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr saids to enter.

(When they had entered) Hadhrat Abu Saleed said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr said, "Tell us what you just said when Hasan passed by." "Of course," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr said, "I had told you that of all the inhabitants of the earth, this man is most beloved to the inhabitants of the heavens." Hadhrat Hasan said, "If you knew that I am the most beloved person on earth to the inhabitants of the heavens, why did you light us and strengthen the ranks of the others during the Battle of Siffeen?" Hadhrat Abdullaah said submitted, "I swear by Allaah that I neither strengthened their ranks nor wielded a sword with them. I just happened to be with my father." Hadhrat Hasan said saked, "Did you not know that the creation cannot be obeyed when it entails disobeying the Creator?" "I did indeed," Hadhrat Abdullaah explained, "but when I used to observe unbroken fasts during the time of Rasulullaah es. my father complained to Rasulullaah es. He said, 'O Rasulullaah es. Abdullaah bin Amr see fasts all day and engages in Ibaadah all night.' Rasulullaah es then said, 'Fast on some days and do not fast on others. Observe Ibaadah and sleep as well because I perform salaah and sleep and I also fast at times and do not fast on other days.' Rasulullaah es then added, 'O Abdullaahi Obey your father.' Therefore, when my father left to fight in the Battle of Siffeen, I had to leave with him." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibnul Mundhir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol. 1 Pg.260).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Sie Seeks Pardon from Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali

Hadhrat Rajaa bin Rabee'ah narrates that he was once sitting in the Masjid of Rasulullaah we when Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali see passed by and greeted them with Salaam. While they all replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr see, who remained silent. It was after the others became silent that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr see replied:

"وَعَلَيْكَ السَّلَامُ وَرَحْمَهُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ"

He then turned to the people saying, "Should I not inform you who of the inhabitant of the earth is most beloved to the inhabitants of the heavens?" When the people begged to know, he said, "It is that man whose back is now towards you. By Allaah! Neither have I spoken a word to him nor has he spoken a word to me since the days of the Battle of Siffeen. By Allaah! For him to be on friendly terms with me is more beloved to me than a heap of wealth the size of Mount Uhud." Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Said, "Why do you then not go and present your excuse to him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr sales agreed and the two arranged to go together the next morning. Hadhrat Rajaa says that he accompanied them the following morning. When they went to Hadhrat Husayn Shouse, Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed States asked permission to enter. When Hadhrat Husayn was gave permission, he then entered with Hadhrat Rajaa and requested permission for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (When Hadhrat Husayn (Figure 1) Hadhrat Abu Sa'ced (Figure 1) kept insisting until Hadhrat Husayn 等端等 granted permission and Hadhrat Abdullaah 等端等 entered. When Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed 运送 saw Hadhrat Abdullaah 运送 enter, he moved off his place (to allow Hadhrat Abdullaah with to sit there) but Hadhrat Husayn www pulled him back. Hadhrat Abdullaah www did not sit and when he saw this, Hadhrat Husayn (let go of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed (who then made place for Hadhrat Abdullaah, Hadhrat Abdullaah wie then proceeded to sit between the two men. Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed 经超级 then explained the situation of Hadhrat Husayn (who asked, "It that so, O Ibn Amr? Do you now really believe that I am the most beloved person on earth to the inhabitants of the heavens?" "Indeed," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (1) Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.177) has commented on the chain of narrators

Simples, "I swear by the Rabb of the Kabah that you certainly are the most beloved inhabitant of earth to those of the heavens." "Then what made you fight my father and I during the Battle of Siffeen when I can swear by Allaah that my father was an even better person than I?" Hadhrat Abdullaah Signification submitted. "That is correct. However, my father once complained about me to Rasulullaah saying, 'Abdullaah fasts all day and engages in Ibaadah all night.' Rasulullaah signification said, 'Observe Ibaadah and sleep as well, fast on some days and do not fast on others and obey (your father) Amr.' When the Battle of Siffeen took place, my father forced me in Allaah's name (to participate). I swear by Allaah that I neither strengthened their ranks, never wielded a sword for them, never threw a spear for them nor shot an arrow."

Hadhrat Husayn saked, "Did you not know that the creation cannot be obeyed when it entails disobeying the Creator?" "I did indeed," Hadhrat Abdullaah sakes replied. Hadhrat Husayn sakes then accepted the explanation of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr

Fulfilling the Need of a Muslim

Hadhrat Ali with once said, "I cannot say which of the two favours of Allaah to me are greater. Whether it is a man coming to me with the sincere belief that I am able to fulfil his need or whether it is the favour of Allaah fulfilling his need or at least alleviating some of it at my hand. Fulfilling the need of a Muslim is something I love more than the earth full of gold and silver." (2)

Standing to Fulfil the Needs of a Muslim Hadhrat Umar Stands Still for An Old Lady who Stopped him

Hadhrat Ibn Yazeed narrates that a lady called Khowlah conce met Hadhrat Umar so as she was travelling with some people. When she bade Hadhrat Umar to stop, he obliged, came close to her and lowered his head (to listen to her). He also placed his hand on her shoulders (and stood there listening to her) until she had stated her needs and had left. Someone asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You kept senior men of the Quraysh waiting for that old lady?" "Shame on yout" Hadhrat Umar scolded, "Do you have any idea who that lady is?" When the man submitted that he did not, Hadhrat Umar said, "That is the woman whose complaint Allaah heard from above the seven heavens. That is Khowlah bint Tha'laba. By Allaah! Had she not turned away and left me until nightfall, I would have never turned away from her without hearing out her needs." (3)

Hadhrat Thurnaamah ibn Hazan (Specific reports that a lady once met Hadhrat Umar (Specific as he was riding his donkey, "Stop, O Umar!" she demanded. When

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.187) has commented on the chain of narrators

⁽²⁾ Nirsi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.317).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, Daarmi and Bayhaqi.

Hadhrat Umar Sisses stopped, she addressed him most harshly. Someone then commented, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! To this day have I not seen anything like this." Hadhrat Umar Sisses responded by saying, "Why should I not listen to her when Allaah personally listened to her and revealed the verses:

(أَقَدُ سَمِعَ اللّٰهُ قُوْلَ التَّبِيُّ تُجَادِلُكَ فِي زَوْجِهَا وَتَشْتَكِي الِّي اللّٰهِ فَقُل السّورة مجادلة: آيت ا Allaah had certainly heard the speech of the lady who debated with you (O Rasulullaah عنه) concerning her husband and who complained to Allaah. (Surah Mujaadalah, yerse 1)

Walking to Fulfil the Needs of a Muslim Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Leaves His I'tikaaf to Fulfil a Need of a Muslim

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was once observing I'tikaaf in the Masjid of Rasulullaah we when a man came to him. After the man had greeted with Salaam and sat down, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said, "It seems that you are extremely concerned about something?" "That is true, O cousin of Rasulullaah we!" the man replied, "I am indebted to someone and I swear by the honour of the occupant of this grave (Rasulullaah we) that I am unable to settle it." "Should I speak to him on your behalf?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas wo offered, "if you please," the man replied.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas then put on his shoes and left the Masjid. The man called out, "Have you forgotten what you were engaged in (your l'tikaaf)?" "No," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas replied, "It is something that I heard from the occupant of this grave and it was not a long time ago." His eyes then welled with tears as he continued, "I heard him say, Whoever walks to fulfil the need of a Muslim and applies himself in this regard, it will be better for him than ten years of I'tikaaf. As for the one who spends a single day in I'tikaaf for the pleasure of Allaah, Allaah will place between him and the fire of Jahannam three trenches larger than the distance between the heavens and the earth." (2)

Visiting a Muslim

Rasulullaah 🕮 Often Visited the Ansaar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Qais (Sies) narrated that Rasulullaah (Sies) visited the Ansaar very often, both on an individual basis and on a collective basis. When he visited someone on an individual basis, he would go to the person's house and when he visited them on a collective basis, he would go to the Masjid (to meet them there). (3)

Hadhrat Anas 學學等 reports that Rasulullaah 機響 once visited a home of the

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Taareekh and Ibn Mardway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.) Pg.267).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Bayhaqi and Haakim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.272).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 173) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Ansaar, where he had something to eat. As he was leaving, he had water sprinkled on a certain spot in the house where a mat was spread out for him. Rasulullaah (25%) then performed salaah on the mat and made du'aa for the people of the household.

The Sahabah

Hadhrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah we used to forge a bond of brotherhood between every two Sahabah we. (The bond became so strong that) The night would seem extremely long for each one of the two until he had met his brother. They would show great love and affection to each other when they did meet and would ask each other what he had done since they last met. As for the others (between whom no bonds were formed), not even three days would pass any of them without him getting to know what had happened to his brother. (1)

Hadhrat Own narrates that when the companions of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was came to see him, he said, "Do you people sit in each other's company?" "That we do not omit," they replied. "Do you still visit each other?" he enquired further. "Certainly, O Abu Abdur Rahmaan," they replied, "When one of us does not see his brother, he would go walking to the end of Kufa to meet him." Hadhrat Abdullaah 7bin Mas'ood was then remarked, "You people will certainly remain in good stead as long as you keep doing this." (2)

Hadhrat Ummu Dardaa (says that Hadhrat Salmaan (same walking all the way from Madaa'in to visit them (her husband Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (saws)) in Shaam. He was then wearing a short shawl that just covered his knees (3)

Behaving Hospitably towards Visitors Rasulullaah Behaves Hospitably towards

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Wes) narrates, "When I once visited Rasulullaah (Wes), he threw to me a pillow stuffed with bark. However, I did not sit on it (out of respect) and it lay there between him and L.* (4)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr & Behaves Hospitably towards the Daughter of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee

Hadhrat Ummu Sa'd who was the daughter of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee reports that she once went to see Hadhrat Abu Bakr (for some need because he was Khalifah). He spread out for her a sheet, on which she sat. Hadhrat Umar then entered and asked about her. Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "She is the daughter of someone who was greater than you and

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.174) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.144).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.52).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg. 174).

I." "Who is he, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah  Hadhrat Umar  asked. Hadhrat Abu Bakr  replied, "He was a man who passed away during the time of Rasulullaah . He has already prepared his abode in Jannah while you are I are still alive (not knowing what our plight will be)." (1)

Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Salmaan Buss Behave Hospitably towards each other

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik Feports that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi Sie once came of visit Hadhrat Umar Who who was reclining on a cushion. When Hadhrat Umar Who threw the cushion to Hadhrat Salmaan Who, the latter remarked, "Allaah and His Rasool Who have spoken the truth." "Narrate to us the Hadith, O Abu Abdullaah," Hadhrat Umar Who asked. Hadhrat Salmaan replied, "I once went to visit Rasulullaah Who as he was reclining on a cushion. He then threw it to me and said to me. 'O Salmaan. When a Muslim goes to visit his brother Muslim and he (the host) throws him a cushion (to use) as a gesture of hospitality, Allaah forgives his sins." (2)

Hadhrat Anas was narrates that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi so once came of visit Hadhrat Umar so who was reclining on a cushion. Hadhrat Umar threw the cushion to Hadhrat Salmaan so and said, "O Salmaan. When a Muslim goes to visit his brother Muslim and he (the host) throws him a cushion (to use) as a gesture of hospitality, Allaah forgives his sins." (3)

Hadhrat Anas Sies also reports that when Hadhrat Umar Sies went to visit Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi Sies. Hadhrat Salmaan Sies threw a cushion to Hadhrat Umar Sies, who asked, "What is this, O Abu Abdullaah," Hadhrat Umar Sies asked. Hadhrat Salmaan replied, "I once heard Rasulullaah say, "When a Muslim goes to visit his brother Muslim and he (the host) throws him a cushion (touse) as agesture of hospitality and honour, Allaah forgives his sins." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith Sissi Shows Hospitality towards Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Nasheet

Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Nasheet reports that when he once visited Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith bin Iaz Zubaydi (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor his visitor has no ties with either Ahmad (Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor hi

Hospitality towards Guests

Hadhrat Abu Usayd Saa'idi Abb Entertains Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Sahi bin Sa'd Sie narrates that Hadhrat Abu Usayd Saa'idi

Tabraani, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.27). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.310) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.607) has also reported the natration.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.599)

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.174) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani in his Sagheer.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources.

invited Rasulullaah (for his wedding (Waleema). His wife who was the new bride was actually serving the guests on that day. She once said, "Do you know what I soaked for Rasulullaah (so I soaked for him a few dates in a little earthen (or stone) container overnight (so that he may enjoy a sweet drink the following day)." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ibn Jaz Zubaydi Google Concerning Hospitality towards Guests

When two persons went to visit Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith bin Jaz Zubaydi (1998), he removed from beneath him a cushion that he had been sitting on and threw it to them. They said, "We do not need this because we have only come to hear something of benefit to us." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith (1998) then said, "Whoever is not hospitable towards his visitor has no ties with either Muhammad (1998) or ibraheem (1998). Glad tidings for the one who spends the day holding the reins of his horse in the path of Allaah, ending his fast with only a piece of bread and some cold water. Destruction for those who are served a variety of foods and who savour them all like cows saying, "Take this away, servant! Bring that, servant! When doing all of this, they fail to think of Allaah

Being Hospitable Towards a Prominent Person

Rasulullaah A Throws his Shawl for Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah The to Sit on Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah Bajali reports that he once went to see Rasulullaah in his room at a time when there was a large crowd present. As Hadhrat Jareer stood at the door, Rasulullaah looked to his right and his left but could not find any place for Hadhrat Jareer to sit, Rasulullaah then took his shawl, folded it and threw it to Hadhrat Jareer saying, "Sit on this." When Hadhrat Jareer caught the shawl, he held it against him, kissed it and then returned it to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah May Allaah honour you as you have honoured me." Rasulullaah said, "When a prominent person of a tribe comes to you, you should honour him." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Fig. 6) narrates that when Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah (Fig. 6) once came to Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) room, it was full of people and he could find nowhere to sit. Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) then threw to him his (spare) lower garment or shawl, saying to him, "Sit on this." When Hadhrat Jareer (Fig. 6) caught the shawl, he kissed it, held it against him and then returned it to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah : May Allaah honour you as you have honoured me." Rasulullaah : said, "When a prominent person of a tribe comes to you, you should honour him." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.110).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.66).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Sagheer and Awsat. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.15) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Rasulullaah A Makes Hadhrat Uyanah bin Hisn

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas with reports that Hadhrat Uyaynah bin Hisn once came to Rasulullaah with whilst Hadhrat Abu Bakr with and Hadhrat Umar with were sitting there on the bare ground. Rasulullaah with then had a duvet brought for Hadhrat Uyaynah with and made him sit on it. Rasulullaah with then said, "When a prominent person of a tribe comes to you, you should honour him." (2)

Rasulullaah Gives a Cushion to Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim (a parates that when he came to Rasulullaah (b). Rasulullaah (b) gave him a cushion (to sit on) but he preferred to rather sit on the bare ground. Hadhrat Adi (b) then said, "I testify that you neither seek superiority on earth nor any corruption." He then accepted Islaam. The Sahabah (c) commented. "O Nabi (c) we have seen you do something today that we have not seen you do for anyone else." Rasulullaah (c) "When a prominent person of a tribe comes to you, you should honour him." (3)

Rasulullaah Abu Raashid

Hadhrat Abu Raashid bin Abdur Rahmaan المنافعة says, "I went to Rasulullaah with a hundred men from my tribe. When we drew close to Rasulullaah with a hundred men from my tribe. When we drew close to Rasulullaah with we stopped and the others said to me, "You go ahead, O Abu Mu'aawiya. If you see what you like, come back to us and we shall all go to him. On the other hand, if you do not like what you see, come back to us and we shall all turn back.' Although I was the youngest of us all, I went to Rasulullaah and and said, 'A very good morning to you, O Muhammad with 'I hat is not the greeting Muslims use amongst themselves,' Rasulullaah said. 'What is it then, O Rasulullaah significant is then, O Rasulullaah significant when you meet any Muslims, you should say: 'L' "

I therefore said. اَلْسَادِهُمُ عَلَيْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللّهِ وَرَدَعُهُ اللّهِ وَيَرَكُنَهُ اللّهِ وَيَرَكُنهُ اللّهِ وَيَرَكُنُهُ اللّهِ وَيَرَكُنهُ اللّهُ وَيَرَكُنهُ اللّهُ وَيَرَكُنهُ اللّهُ وَيَرَكُنهُ اللّهُ وَيَرَكُنُهُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَرَكُنُهُ اللّهُ وَيَرَكُنُهُ اللّهُ وَيَرَكُنُهُ اللّهُ وَيَرَكُنُهُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ الللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَيَعْلَمُ اللّهُ وَاللّهُ اللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ اللّهُ وَاللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ وَاللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ وَاللّهُ اللّهُ الللّهُ اللّهُ اللّ

⁽¹⁾ Tabraaru in his Awsat as well as Bazzaar in brief but Haythami (Vo).8 Pg.16) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.16) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Askari and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.55).

sit beside him. He also gave me his shawl as well as his shoes and staff. I then accepted Islaam. Some of those sitting with Rasulullaah (W) then said, 'O Rasulullaah (W) We see that you are showing great honour to this man?' Rasulullaah (W) replied, 'He is a prominent person of his tribe and when a prominent person of any tribe comes to you, you should honour him."(1)

Winning over the Hearts of Certain Leaders

Rasulullaah EE Endearing the Leader of a Tribe

Hadhrat Abu Dharr 到底 narrates that Rasulullaah 製能 once asked him what he thought of Hadhrat Ju'ayl (1866). "I see him as just another poor man like many others," Hadhrat Abu Dharr William replied. When Rasulullaah Will asked him what he thought of another man, Hadhrat Abu Dharr wife replied, "He is a great leader amongst the leaders of people." Rasulullaah EE then remarked, "But Ju'ayl is better than the world full of that man." Hadhrat Abu Dharr then enquired. "O Rasulullaah : Why do you then treat him (as well) as you do when he is that bad a person?" Rasulullaah 2005 replied, "He is the leader of a tribe and I am merely winning them over (attracting them towards Islaam)." (2) Another narration states that someone said to Rasulullaah . "O Rasulullaah 题题! You have given Uyaynah bin Hisn 生质的 and Agra bin Haabis 生质的 a hundred camels each while you have left Ju'ayi 空域等 out. Rasulullaah 變麗 responded by saying, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! Ju'ayl bin Suraaga is better than the earth full of the likes of Uyaynah and Agra. I am however (doing this in an effort towards) winning over the hearts of Uyaynah and Agra. As for Ju'ayl, I entrust him to his Imaan (he needs nothing material to strengthen his Imaan),"(3)

Honouring the Household Members of Rasulullaah  s Family

The Parting Advice of Rasulullaah (E) Concerning the Members of his Household

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Hayyaan says, "Husayn bin Saburah, Amr bin Muslim and I once went to Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam (Wes). When we sat down with him, Husayn asked, 'You have seen some tremendous times, O Zaid. You saw Rasulullaah (Wes), you heard him speak, you fought battles by his side and you

⁽¹⁾ Duwali in his Kuna (yol.1 Pg.31). Ibn Mandah and Ibn Sakan have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (yol.2 Pg.409). Uqayli has also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanaul Ummaal (yol.5 Pg.216).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.353), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.320), Rooyani has also reported the narration in his Musnad as has Ibn Abdul Hakam in his Fulooh Misr. thin Hibbaan has also reported the narration without mentioning the name of Hadhrat Ju'ayi 图形 while the narration of Bukhaari in his Adab omits both the names of Hadhrat Ju'ayi 图形 and Hadhrat Abu Dharr 图形 图形 10 Phare Phare performed salaah behind him. You have certainly seen some tremendous times. O Zaid, do tell us something that you heard from Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat Zaid . Hadhrat I seen twith Rasulullaah . Hadhrat past and I have forgotten some of the things that I remembered from him. You should therefore take note of what I narrate and do not force me to narrate that which I do not do so myself. Rasulullaah . Hadhrat once stood up to deliver sermon at a pond between Makkah and Madinah called . Rhum. After praising Allaah, giving advice and reminding us of some things, he said:

⁽³⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Issahah (Vol.1 Pg.239). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.353).

'O people! Take note that I am also a human and the messenger (angel of death) from my Rabb shall soon come and I shall have to respond. I am however leaving behind me two weighty things. The first is the Book of Allaah that contains guidance and light. You should therefore grab Allaah's Book and hold fast to it.' Rasulullaah the encouraged the people to Allaah's Book and then added, (The second thing is) The members of my household. I urge you to remember Allaah when dealing with the members of my household.

Husayn then enquired, 'Who exactly are the members of Rasulullaah shousehold?' Hadhrat Zaid shousehold?' Hadhrat Zaid shousehold.' Although Rasulullaah shousehold are members of his household, the actual members of his household are those to whom giving Zakaah is forbidden after the demise of Rasulullaah shousehold. When Husayn asked for further elaboration, Hadhrat Zaid shousehold, 'They are the family of All shousehold, the family of Aqeel shousehold.' They are the family of Albaas shousehold.' Husayn enquired further, 'Is zakaah forbidden for all of these people?' Yes.' was the reply." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Sing) narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sing) said, "Consider Muhammad (Sing) when dealing with the members of his household." (2)

Rasulullaah Abbaas Abbaas

Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha in arrates that Rasulullaah was once sitting with his companions with Hadhrat Abu Bakr arrived, Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Bakr an Muslim, as quoted in Riyaadhus Saaliheen. Ibn fareer has also reported the narration, as quoted in Muniakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.95).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.94).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sassa asked, "O Rasulullaah He replied that nothing like that had happened, Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sassa asked, "O Rasulullaah Fe replied that nothing like that had happened, Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sassa querted, "But I noticed that your voice had become extremely soft." Rasulullaah Fe explained, "When Abbaas arrived, libra'eel Fe instructed me to lower my voice as you people have been commanded to lower your voices before me." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Feports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Feboral) had a reserved sitting place near Rasulullaah (Feboral) which he would forsake for none other than Hadhrat Abbaas (Feboral). Rasulullaah (Feboral) was very much impressed by this gesture of his. When Hadhrat Abbaas (Feboral) arrived one day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Feboral) who was not a reserved one day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Feboral) who was a reserved one day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Feboral) was a reserved one day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Feboral) was a reserved. The matter of the reserved one day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Feboral) was a reserved one day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Febora) was a reserved one day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Febora) was a reserved one day, Hadhrat Abu B

When Hadhrat Abbaas t arrived, he asked, "O Rasulullaah 機能! Did you say something to Abu Bakr?" "Ionly told him what is good," Rasulullaah 機能 remarked, Hadhrat Abbaas 知識 commented, "That is true. May my parents be sacrificed for you! You only speak what is good." Rasulullaah 機能 then said, "I said to him, 'This is Abbaas coming with white clothing. His progeny after him shall soon be wearing black clothing and twelve of them shall be kings.""⁽²⁾

Hadhrat Abu Bakr William Vacates his Place for Hadhrat Abbaas

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Muhammad narrates from his great grandfather that Hadhrat Abu Bakr saws always sat on the right of Rasulullaah saw while Hadhrat Umar saws sat on his left. Hadhrat Uthmaan saws sat in front of Rasulullaah saw for he used to write any confidential matters for Rasulullaah saw would move when Hadhrat Abbaas saws came along, Hadhrat Abu Bakr saws would move from his place and Hadhrat Abbaas saws would sit there. (3)

Rasulullaah Es Encourages People to have Love for Hadhrat Abbaas

Hadhrat Muttalib bin Rabee'ah reports that Hadhrat Abbaas (a) once came to Rasulullaah (a) in a rage. "What is the matter?" Rasulullaah (a) enquired. "O Rasulullaah (b) Hadhrat Abbaas (a) what is the problem between us (the Banu Haashim) and the Quraysh?" Rasulullaah (b) enquired further, "What has happened between yourself and the Quraysh?" Hadhrat Abbaas (a)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg 68).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.270) has commented on the chain of natrators. Ibn Asaakir has reported a similar narration in brief, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.211).
(3) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.214).

replied, "While the Quraysh meet each other with smiling faces, they meet us with different faces." Rasulullaah  then grew so angry that the vein between his eyes swelled. When his anger had cooled, Rasulullaah  said. "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad! imaan has not entered the heart of any person until he loves you (the Banu Haashim) for the sake of Allaah and His Rasool  Rasulullaah  then said further, "What is the matter with some people that they hurt me by hurting Abbaas? A man's paternal uncle is just like his father." (1)

Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib reports that he once said to Rasulullaah F. "O Rasulullaah F. While the Quraysh meet each other with open and smiling faces, whereas when they meet us, they do so with strange faces." Rasulullaah F then grew extremely angry and he said, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad! Imaan has not entered the heart of any person until he loves you (the Banu Haashim) for the sake of Allaah and His Rasool

Hadhrat Ismah narrates that when Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib entered the Masjid one day, he noticed resentment on the faces of some people. He then went to Rasulullaah ses room and said, "O Rasulullaah sel why is it that I notice resentment on the faces of people when I enter the Masjid?" Rasulullaah then went to Masjid and said, "O people! You can never have Imaan and cannot be called Mu'mineen until you have love for Abbaas." (3)

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar was and Hadhrat Abbaas was and the Du'aa Rasulullaah Made for Hadhrat Umar was because of his Honouring Hadhrat Abbaas was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood in a narrates that Rasulullaah once sent Hadhrat Umar is to collect zakaah. The first person Hadhrat Umar is met was Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib is "Bring along the zakaah for your wealth. O Abu Fadhl," Hadhrat Umar is called out. Hadhrat Abbaas then burst out in a barrage of insults against Hadhrat Umar is, to which Hadhrat Umar is replied, "By Allaah! Remember that had it not been for fear of Allaah your relationship with Rasulullaah is I would have given you a belitting reply for what you have said." The two then separated and took different paths.

Hadhrat Umar Sweet then met Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib Sweet and related the incident to him. Hadhrat Ali Sweet took Hadhrat Umar Sweet by the hand and led him to Rasulullaah Weet." O Rasulullaah When you sent me to collect zakaah, the first person I met was your uncle Abbaas, 'Bring along the zakaah for your wealth, O Abu Fadhi,' I called out. He then burst out in a barrage of insults against me, to which I replied, 'By Allaah! Remember that had it not been for fear of Allaah your relationship with Rasulullaah . I would have given you a belitting reply for what you have said." Rasulullaah . I would have given you a belitting reply for what you have said." Rasulullaah . I would have hendour of Hadhrat Umar . Saying, "May Allaah honour you as you have honoured him. Remember that the paternal uncle of a man is just like his father. Do not talk to Abbaas about zakaah because I have already taken two years zakaah from him in advance." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.333).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.269) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Abbaas Slaps a Man who Insulted his Father

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (IIII) narrates that when someone spoke about the father of Hadhrat Abbaas (IIII) and insulted him, Hadhrat Abbaas (IIII) slapped the man. Some people gathered around and swore, "By Allaah! We shall slap Abbaas just as he slapped this man." When this news reached Rasulullaah (IIII) he stood up to address the people. "Which person is most honoured by Allaah?" Rasulullaah (IIII) asked. "You, O Rasulullaah (IIII) the people replied. Rasulullaah (IIII) continued, "Abbaas is from me and I am from him. Never insult the dead, thereby hurting the living." (2)

Another narration states that the people added, "O Rasulullaah (2004) We seek Allaah's protection from your anger! Do seek forgiveness from Allaah on our behalf." Rasulullaah (2004)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Umar (1996) Honour Hadhrat Abbaas (1996) during their Terms as Khalifah

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab reports that during their terms as Khalifah, whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sees or Hadhrat Umar Sees met Hadhrat Abbaas Sees while they were riding, they would dismount the animal (let Hadhrat Abbaas Sees mount it) and then lead the animal while walking until Hadhrat Abbaas Sees had reached his destination. Only then would they leave him. (4)

Hadhrat Uthmaan Will Lashes a man who Ridiculed Hadhrat Abbaas

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad reports that amongst the rulings that Hadhrat Uthmaan (b) initiated and which was approved of (by the Sahabah (b)) was having a man lashed for ridiculing Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib (c) in an argument. When someone raised a objection, Hadhrat Uthmaan (c) said, "When Rasulullaah (c) honoured his uncle, how can I allow people

Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muniakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.214), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.27) has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Qataadah.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.329), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.211). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.24) has also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (2006).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.69).

to ridicule him? Whoever allows such behaviour will be opposing Rasulullaah 微矩." This ruling was then sanctioned (by the Sahabah 微矩态).(1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Honours Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Anas in arrates that Rasulullaah was once sitting in the Masjid with the Sahabah around him. Hadhrat Ali such then arrived, greeted with Salaam and then stood there to look for a place to sit. Rasulullaah looked at the faces of the Sahabah such to see which of them would make place for him. Hadhrat Abu Bakr such, who was sitting on Rasulullaah sit sight shifted from his place and said, "Come here, O Abul Hasan."

Hadhrat Ali such then sat between Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr such. The Sahabah such could actually see the happiness on the face of Rasulullaah as he said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr such, "O Abu Bakr! It is only the people of virtue who recognise others of virtue." (2)

A Group of the Ansaar Address Hadhrat Ali (30)

Hadhrat Rabaah bin Haarith reports that a group of the Ansaar once came to Hadhrat Ali with in Rahbah (a place in Kufa) and greeted him with the words, "As Salaamu Alayka, O Moulana (O our master)!" Hadhrat Ali was asked, "How can I be your Moula (master) when you are Arabs (and therefore cannot be slaves)?" They replied, "On the day Rasulullaah was delivered a lecture at the pond of Khum, we heard him say, 'For those to whom I am their Moula (master), then he (Hadhrat Ali was) is also their Moula." Hadhrat Rabaah says that he followed the group after they had left and enquired who they were. I was informed that they were a group of the Ansaar and amongst them was Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari was as well. (3)

Rasulullaah Says, "For those to whom I am their Friend, then Ali should also be their Friend"

Hadhrat Buraydah (Freports, "Rasulullaah (Freports, "R

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 213).

⁽²⁾ Ibnul A'raabi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.359).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 104).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.108).

Rasulullaah As Says, "Whoever Hurts Ali has Hurt me"

Hadhrat Amr bin Shaas Aslami who was with Rasulullaah at Hudaybiyyah says, "I was with the group of horsemen under the command of Hadhrat Ali whom Rasulullaah at had dispatched to Yemen. When Hadhrat Ali whom Rasulullaah at had dispatched to Yemen. When Hadhrat Ali whom we returned to Madinah, I complained about him in various gatherings and to whoever I met. One day, I went to the Masjid where Rasulullaah was sitting. When Rasulullaah saw me, he continued looking me in the eye until I sat down before him. As I sat down, he said, "Take note, O Amr! You have hurt me deeply." "Innaa Lillaahi wa innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon!" I exclaimed, "I seek protection from Allaah and in Islaam from hurting the Rasool of Allaah at the said, "Rasulullaah and said, "Whoever hurts Ali has hurt me."

Hadhrat Sa'd Seeks Protection from the Anger of Rasulullaah when he Insulted Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Says, "I was sitting in the Masjid with two other persons when we insulted Ali Says. When Rasulullaah Says arrived, we could see the anger on his face, so we sought protection in Allaah from his anger. Rasulullaah Says said, "What have you got against me? Whoever hurts Ali has hurt me." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Reproaches Someone who Insulted Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Urwa sales narrates that someone once insulted Hadhrat Ali sales in the presence of Hadhrat Umar sales. Hadhrat Umar sales, said, "Do you know that occupant of this grave? He is Muhammad sales, the son of Abdullaah, who was the son of Abdul Muttalib. Ali is the son of Abdul Taalib who was also the son of Abdul Muttalib. You should therefore only speak good of Ali sales because if you hurt Ali, you will be hurting the one in this grave." (3)

Hadhrat Sa'd Saws, "I shall never Revile him even if a Saw is Placed on my Head"

Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Khaalid bin Urfuta narrates that he once went to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik (1986) and asked, "The news has reached me that in Kufa you people are being forced to revile Ali (1986). Have you ever reviled him?" Hadhrat Sa'd (1986) replied, "Aliaah forbid! I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Ibn Is'haaq and Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.347). Ahmad. Tabraani and Bazzaar have also reported the narration, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.129).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.347). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.129) has commented on Bazzaar's chain of natrators

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzui Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 46).

Sa'd that I have heard Rasulullaah 認識 say such things about Ali 生现碳 that I would never revile him even if a saw is placed on my head." (1)

Hadhrat Sa'd Saw Forbids Hadhrat Mu'aawiya from Insulting Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waggaas (narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Abu Sufvaan 送路路 once instructed him saying. "What prevents you from reviling Abu Turaab (Hadhrat Ali 3336)?" Hadhrat Sa'd 3366 replied, "If I had to my credit even one of the three virtues that Rasulullaah @ mentioned for Ali (I would prefer this to having red camels. I cannot revile him as long as I remember these. When Rasulullaah appointed Ali as his deputy (in Madinah) when leaving for one of the battles, Ali asked, 'O Rasulullaah Are you leaving me behind with the women and children?' I then heard Rasulullaah & say, Would you not like your relationship with me to be like the relationship between Haaroon will and Moosa Will. Of course, there shall be no Nabi after me.' I also heard Rasulullaah as say during the Battle of Khaybar, 'I shall give the flag to someone who loves Allaah and His Rasool and whom Allaah and His Rasool as also love.' I also hoped to get it but Rasulullaah : then asked for Ali is to be summoned. When brought before Rasulullaah (25), he was suffering from pain in his eyes. Rasulullaah put some of his blessed saliva into Ali willis eyes (thus curing them) and handed the flag over to him. Allaah then granted the conquest at his hand. Furthermore, it was Ali (1986), Faatima (1986), Hasan (1986) and Husayn whom Rasululiaah 優麗 called for when Aliaah revealed the verse:

(سورة آل عمران آيت ٢١)

Say to them (O Rasulullaah (SE), "Come! We shall call your sons and our sons, your wives and our wives, yourselves and ourselves... (Surah Aa) imraan, verse 61)

Thereafter, Rasulullaah (2) said, "O Allaah! This is my family." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Nujayh narrates that when Hadhrat Mu'aawiya sperformed Hajj, he took hold of the hand of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas speed and said, "O Abu Is'haaq! We are people whom all these battles have distanced from the Hajj to the extent that we have almost forgotten some of its Sunnah practices. You perform the Tawaaf and we will follow you." After the Tawaaf was complete, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya speed took Hadhrat Sa'd speed into Daarun Nadwa where he seated him upon his chair. He then spoke of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib spoke ill of him.

Hadhrat Sa'd sies said, "You brought me into your room, seated me on your chair and then start to speak ill of Ali sies?" By Allaah! More than everything upon which the sun rises, I love to have even one of the three virtues he had. More than everything upon which the sun rises, I love to have for myself what Rasulullaah said to him when he left for the expedition to Tabook. On that occasion, Rasulullaah said to Ali said, 'Would you not like your relationship with me to be like the relationship between Haaroon u and Moosa u. Of course, there shall be no Nabi after me.' More than everything upon which the sun rises, I love to have for myself what Rasulullaah said about him during the Battle of Khaybar. On that occasion, Rasulullaah said about him during the Battle of Khaybar. On that occasion, Rasulullaah said to Ali said, 'I shall give the flag to someone who loves Allaah and His Rasool said and whom Allaah and His Rasool saids also love. Allaah shall grant the conquest at his hand and he is never one who flees from the battlefield.' More than everything upon which the sun rises, I love to have for myself the virtue of being the son-in-law of Rasulullaah so by marrying his daughter and having from her the children that he did. I shall never again enter any room with you." Hadhrat Sa'd steep shook off his shawl and left. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 130).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Muslim and Tirmidhi.

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah Rebukes Someone who Reviled Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Abu Abdullaah Jadali reports, "I once went to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ("Do people amongst you revile Rasulullaah ("P": 'Allaah forbid!' I exclaimed. I may also have made statements like 'Subhaanallaah!' or something similar. She then said, 'I have heard Rasulullaah ("S" say, 'Whoever reviles Ali has reviled me." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Abdullaah Jadali reports that Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (1996) once asked him, "Do people amongst you revile Rasulullaah (1997) "How can Rasulullaah (1998) be reviled?" he asked. She replied, "Is Ali (1998) and those he loves not reviled whereas Rasulullaah (1998) loved him?" (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali Concerning his Lineage and Deen

Hadhrat Abu Saadiq reports that Hadhrat Ali some once said to him, "My lineage is the same as that of Rasulullaah some and my Deen is also the same as that of Rasulullaah some . Therefore, whoever reviles me actually reviles Rasulullaah some "(4)"

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Honours Hadhrat Hasan Hasan

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Isbahaani narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sissis was sitting on the pulpit of Rasulullaah (Sissis) when Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali Sissis

⁽¹⁾ Abu Zur'ah Dimishki, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 7 Pg. 340, 341).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.130) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani and Abu Ya'ia. Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Abi Shaybah has also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.46).

⁽⁴⁾ Khateeb in his Muttafiq and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 46).

(who was still a child) came there and said, "Do dismount my grandfather's place!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("You are right. This place is your grandfather's." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("You are right. This place is your grandfather's." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("Hadhrat Hasan ("This place is your grandfather's." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("By Allaah! This was not by my instruction." "That's true," Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("I) had no doubts about it." ("I)

Hadhrat Urwa sees narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr sees was once delivering a sermon when Hadhrat Hasan sees (who was still a child) arrived and also mounted the pulpit saying, "Do dismount my grandfather's pulpit!" Hadhrat Ali sees then said, "This was done without my consultation." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Husavn Husavn

Hadhrat Urwa sie narrates that Hadhrat Umar was once delivering a sermon when Hadhrat Husayn (who was still a child) stood up and said, "Do dismount my grandfather's pulpit!" Hadhrat Umar sie said, "It is indeed the pulpit of your grandfather and not that of mine. Who instructed you to do this?" Hadhrat Ali sie then stood up and said, "No one instructed him to do It! Take note, you rascal! I shall definitely punish you for this." Hadhrat Umar interceded by saying, "Do not punish my nephew for he has spoken the truth. By Allaah! It is certainly his grandfather's pulpit." (3)

Hadhrat Husayn Anarrates, "I once climbed the pulpit on which Umar was and said, 'Do dismount my grandfather's pulpit and mount your father's pulpit!" 'My father does not have a pulpit,' he replied and he then made me sit with him. After dismounting and proceeding home, he asked, 'Dear child! Who taught you to do this?' When I assured him that no one did, he said, 'Dear son! It would be nice if you visited us frequently.' I therefore went to him one day but found him alone with Mu'aawiya while his son Abdullaah was standing at the door and did not have permission to enter. I therefore returned home. When Umar met me afterwards, he asked, 'Dear son! Why is it that you have not visited us?' I replied, 'I had come when you were alone with Mu'aawiya However, when I saw that your son Abdullaah had to return (without receiving permission to enter), I also returned.' He said, 'You are more deserving of permission than my son Abdullaah. Allaah has crowned our heads because of your family (Rasulullaah.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Honours Hadhrat Hasan Hoss

Hadhrat Uqba bin Haarith narrates that it was after the demise of Rasulullaah

⁽I) Abu Nu'aym and Jaabiri in his Juz.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.132).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 105).

⁽⁴⁾ ibn Sa'd, ibn Raahway and Khateeb, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.105) and reporting from reliable sources as confirmed in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.333).

that he left the Masjid with Hadhrat Abu Bakr sales after performing the Asr saleah. Hadhrat Ali sales was walking on the right of Hadhrat Abu Bakr sales when they passed by Hadhrat Ali sales son Hadhrat Hasan sales playing with some other boys. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sales put the boy on his shoulders as he said a couplet which meant:

"May my father be sacrificed! This boy is the image of Nabi and in no way resembled his father" Hadhrat All $3506 laughed at this. [1]

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Kisses Hadhrat Hasan Kisses Stomach

Hadhrat Umayr bin Is'haaq reports that he saw Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah seemeet Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali seemeet and say, "Show me that part of your stomach where I saw Rasulullaah seekiss." When Hadhrat Hasan seemeet did so, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah seemeet also kissed the spot. Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah skissed his navel. (2) Yet another narration states that when Hadhrat Hasan seemeet his belly, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah seemeet placed his hand on Hadhrat Hasan seemeet says.

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Uses the Words "My Guide" when Addressing Hadhrat Hasan Hadhrat Maqbari reports that they were once with Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah when Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali success arrived and greeted them with Salaam. The people returned the greeting but Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah was unaware of what happened until somebody said to him, "That was Hasan bin Ali who greeted with Salaam." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah with then went to meet Hadhrat Hasan and said, "Salaams to you too, O my leader." When someone asked Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah why he had addressed Hadhrat Hasan with as "my leader", Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah who replied, "I testify that I heard Rasulullaah say, 'He is a leader." "(4)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah and Marwaan Concerning Having Love for Hadhrat Hasan was and Hadhrat Husayn

Marwaan once visited Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Marwaan said, "Since we have been living with you, nothing has angered us more than your love for Hasan and Husayn." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, Ahmad, Bukhaari, Nasa'ee and Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 103).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.177) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Najjaar has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.104).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Voi.9 Pg.187). Abu Ya'ia and Ibn Asaakir have reported a similar natration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.104), as has Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.169).

speed pulled himself together and sat up saying, "I testify that we were once travelling with Rasulullaah & when he heard Hasan was and Husayn Sitted crying. They were with their mother (Hadhrat Faatima (1996)) at the time. Rasulullaah the hurried to them and I heard him ask. What is the matter with my children?' When their mother informed Rasulullaah 2005 that they were suffering of thirst, Rasulullaah & grabbed at his water bag to see if it had water (but it did not have any). Water was extremely scarce those days and the people were searching for some. 'Does anyone have any water?' Rasulullaah announced. Every person then grabbed for his water bag to look for water but no one had a drop with them. 'Give one of them to me,' Rasulullaah : asked. When Faatima was gave one of them from beneath the carriage, I could see her forearms as she did so. Rasulullaah took the child and pressed him to his chest but the child continued screaming without stopping. Rasulullaah @# then took out his tongue and the child started sucking on it until he was pacified. I did not hear him cry afterwards. In the meantime, the other boy was still crying as he had been without abating. 'Pass me the other one,' Rasulullaah asked. When the other child was passed to Rasulullaah E. he did the same and they were both quiet. I did not hear either of them make a sound again. Rasulullaah then called out, 'Let us move on!' Because we were travelling with women, we (men) moved from side to side and I was only able to meet up with Rasulullaah WE later along the road. How can I not love those two when I have seen Rasulullaah (1) do that?" (1)

Honouring Ulema, Elders and Men of Virtue Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit Honour each other

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that as Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit 色谱镜 was about to mount his animal one day, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 色谱镜 caught hold of the stirrup. "Go away, O cousin of Rasulullaah 微镜," Hadhrat Zaid 色谱镜 bade Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 金屬鏡, However, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas states when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1) Another narration states when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1) held the stirrup of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit (1) animal, he said, "We have been commanded to hold on to the stirrup of our teachers and our seniors." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 181).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. Pg.37).

Rasulullaah Abu Honours Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah was in the company of some Sahabah was such as Hadhrat Abu Bakr was in the company of some Sahabah was such as Hadhrat Abu Bakr was in the company of some Sahabah was such as Hadhrat Abu Bakr was in Hadhrat Umar was and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah was when Rasulullaah was passed the cup to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was, he submitted, "You are more deserving (of having it first), O Nabi of Allaah was ubaydah was insisted that he take it, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was took it but before drinking, he said, "You ake it, O Nabi of Allaah was then said, "Please drink because blessings lie with our elders." That person has no relationship with us who does not have mercy on our vounesters and does not respect our elders." (3)

Rasulullaah : Instructs that the Eldest Should be First to Speak

Hadhrat Raali bin Khadeej was and Hadhrat Sahl bin Abi Hathmah work both reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sahl was and Hadhrat Muhayyisah bin Mas'ood were separated from each other amongst the date palms of Khaybar when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sahl was murdered. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Sahl was murdered. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Sahl was murdered. Hadhrat Huwayyisah bin Mas'ood was then went to Rasulullaah was to discuss the matter with him. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan was started speaking but because he was the youngest of the three, Rasulullaah was said that the eldest should speak first. After they had informed Rasulullaah was about what had happened to their companion, Rasulullaah was said, "Will you not have a right to the blood money by the oaths of fifty members of your tribe?" "O Rasulullaah with the paid, "Then the Jews (of Khaybar) will be absolved by the oaths of fifty of them." "O Rasulullaah with the men argued, "Butthey are Kuffaar (and cannot be trusted)." (To settle the affair) Rasulullaah with the paid the blood money from his side. (4)

Rasulullaah Honours Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar

Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar (In Hadhramaut) We heard about the Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Isaabali (Vol.1 Pg.561). Tabraani has reported a similar narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.345). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.175) has reported a similar narration, as has Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.423), as quoted in Isaabali (Vol.2 Pg.332) appearance of Rasulullaah (at a time when we were in control of a large kingdom where people obeyed us. I then forsook everything and left with enthusiasm for Allaah and His Rasool (We). When I came to Rasulullaah (), he had already given the people the news of my arrival. When I came to him and greeted with Salaam, he replied to my greeting and spread out his shawl for me to sit on. He then mounted the pulpit and made me sit with him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah () raised his hands, praised Allaah, invoked Allaah's mercy on the Ambiyaa and gathered the people. He then said to them, 'O people! This is Waa'li bin Hujar who has come from far off, from Hadhramaut. He has come of his own will, without compulsion and with enthusiasm for Allaah, His Rasool (and His Deen.) 'That is true,' I affirmed."

 Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.38).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg. 15) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari.

In another narration, Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar says that when he came to Rasulullaah Rasul

Rasulullaah A Honours Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh A on his Deathbed

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas arm started bleeding profusely (from a wound), Rasulullaah stood by him and embraced him even as the blood splattered over Rasulullaah form the blood, the closer Rasulullaah form the blood form the blood, the closer Rasulullaah form the blood form th

One of the Ansaar narrates that after Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh what had passed judgement for the Banu Qurayzah tribe and had returned (to Madinah), his wound ruptured. When the news reached Rasulullaah we, he went to Hadhrat Sa'd was fair in complexion and large in stature so when he was covered in a white sheet, his feet were exposed when his face was covered. Rasulullaah we then prayed, "O Allaah! Sa'd strove in Your path, believed in Your Rasool and fulfilled his duties, so accept his soul in the best way that You accept any soul." Hearing the prayer of Rasulullaah we, Hadhrat Sa'd wo opened his eyes and said, "As Salaamu Alayka, O Rasulullaah we! Take note that I testify that you are certainly Allaah's

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.373) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.374) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.426)

Rasul." Seeing that Rasulullaah was holding Hadhrat Sa'd seeing that Rasulullaah was holding Hadhrat Sa'd seeing seeing family grew concerned. When Rasulullaah was informed of the concern of Hadhrat Sa'd seeing family, he said, "Angels as many as you people are in his house sought permission from Allaah to be present for Sa'd's death." Hadhrat Sa'd seeing seeing as she recited a couplet (which meant):

"Oh the mother of Sa'd is destroyed

He was a man who meticulously applied himself"

Someone rebuked her saying, "Are you reciting poetry for Sa'd?" Rasulullaah si intervened saying, "Leave her alone because it is poets other than her who speak lies (she is true because her son was exactly as she says)." (1)

Hadhrat Umar Honours a Sahabi Called Hadhrat Mu'aygeet

Another narration reports that when Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (but accepted). Eating with them was Hadhrat Mu'ayqeet (but accepted). Eating with them was Hadhrat Mu'ayqeet (but accepted). Eating with them was Hadhrat Mu'ayqeet (but accepted). Hadhrat Umar (but accepted) and what is nearest to you. Had it been anyone other than you, he would have never shared a plate with me but would have been a spear's length away from me." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Honours Hadhrat Amr bin Tufayl

Hadhrat Abdul Waahid bin Aun Dowsi narrates that Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr Dissi returned (from the region of his tribe the Dows) to Rasulullaah and remained with Rasulullaah in Madinah until Rasulullaah in passed away. When some Arabs left the fold of Islaam, Hadhrat Tufayl in the Battle of Yamaamah with his son Hadhrat Amr bin Tufayl in Was was martyred in the battle, his son Hadhrat Amr was everely injured and his hand was cut off. He was once with Hadhrat Omar when some food was served. When Hadhrat Amr bin Tufayl is stepped aside, Hadhrat Umar is asked, "What is wrong" Are you stepping aside because of your (injured) hand (which you feel embarrassed to put into a plate with someone else):" When Hadhrat Amr is admitted that this was the reason, ⁽I) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.426).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.87).

Hadhrat Umar Sission said, "You should not do this! By Allaah! I shall not even taste the food until you have put your hand into it. I swear by Allaah that there is no person besides you who has a part of himself already in Jannah." Hadhrat Amr Sission later left with the Muslims for the Battle of Yarmook where he was martyred. (1)

Hadhrat Umar Wis Writes to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari about Giving Precedence to People of Virtue

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Umar some once wrote to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari some saying, "The news has reached me that you allow a large group of people in all at once. When this letter of mine reaches you, I want you to begin with the people of virtue, status and personality. It is only after they have taken their places that you should permit the others in." (2)

Giving Leadership to Seniors

The Advice Hadhrat Qais bin Aasim gave to his Sons

On his deathbed, Hadhrat Qais bin Aasim was gave the following advice to his sons: "Fear Allaah and give leadership to the seniors because when people hand over leadership to their seniors, they follow the ways of their forefathers. However, when they hand leadership over to those who are youngest, their status falls in the estimation of their contemporaries. Tend to the earning and investing of your wealth because it lends added honour to the honourable and makes them independent of the mean ones. Keep away from asking from people because this is the worst earning for a man. Do not wail when I die because no one wailed when Rasulullaah was passed away. Furthermore, when I die I want you to bury me in a place the Banu Bakr bin Waa'il tribe have no knowledge of because during the Period of Ignorance I used to ambush them (and they should not do anything nasty with my grave)." (3)

Honouring People Despite Differences in Opinion and Deed

The Instruction Hadhrat Ali sign gave the people During the Battle of Jamal

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed narrates from his uncle who says, "When we participated in the Battle of Jamal, Hadhrat Ali formed our rows (before engaging in battle) and announced, 'No one should (be the first to) shoot an arrow, or to attack with a spear or to strike with a sword. Do not initiate the hostilities and speak kindly to them (because they are also Muslims).' I think that he also said. 'Whoever is successful on this occasion will be successful on the Day of Qiyaamah.' We then stood like this until the day had progressed considerably and the people (of the other army) all started shouting (to each other). 'O the avengers of Uthmaan (prepare yourselves)!' Hadhrat Ali when called for Muhammad bin Hanafiyyah who was standing before us and bearing the flag. He asked, 'O Ibn Hanafiyyah! What are they saying?' Muhammad bin Hanafivyah sugas approached us and said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! They are shouting. 'O the avengers of Uthmaan!" Hadhrat Ali shows then raised his hands and prayed, 'O Allaah! Let the murderers of Uthmaan fall flat on their faces."(1) Hadhrat Muhammad bin Umar bin Ali bin Abi Taalib reports that Hadhrat Ali did not engage the opposite army in battle until he had called them (to forsake the weapons) for three days. On the third day, Hadhrat Hasan & So. Hadhrat Husayn 经减多 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far 经减多 came to him and said, "These people have inflicted many casualties on us." "Dear nephew!" Hadhrat Alj was said. "I am not at all in the dark concerning what is happening to the people." He then asked them to pour out some water for him and when they did, he made wudhu and performed two Rakaahs of salaah. After completing, he raised his hands and made du'aa to Allaah. He then addressed the people saving. "If you are victorious over them, you should not chase after those who flee and should not kill any of the wounded. Take only those weapons of war that are brought to the battlefield and everything else that remains (clothing and other personal possessions) shall remain the property of the heirs of those killed." Imaam Bayhagi says that the more authentic version of the narration states that Hadhrat Ali be did not take any booty nor any of the possessions of those killed. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Jbn Sa'd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg.78).

⁽²⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.55).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.54). Ahmad has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.253). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.36)

Hadhrat Ali bin Husayn reports that when he once went to Marwaan bin Hakam, the latter said to him, "I have never seen anyone so noble in victory as your (grand) father (Hadhrat Ali (1986)). We had only just started fleeing from the battlefield of the Battle of Jamal (after being defeated by him) when one of his announcers called out, "Do not kill anyone fleeing nor any of the wounded." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali Good Concerning the People who Fought him in the Battle of Jamal

Hadhrat Abd Khayr reports that when Hadhrat Ali was questioned about those who fought him in the Battle of Jamal, he said, "They were simply our brothers whom we fought because they rebelled against us. However, they have since repented and we have pardoned them." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Umar bin Ali bin Abi Taalib reports that on the day the Battle of Jamal was fought, Hadhrat Ali was said, "We shall be gracious to them because they testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and we shall allow sons to be the heirs of their father's (by not taking any of their possessions for ourselves)." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg. 180).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.181).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.181).

Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that Hadhrat Ali (1) was once asked whether the people who fought him in the Battle of Jamal were Mushrikeen. He replied, "It is from Shirk that we fled." "Were they then Munaafiqeen?" he was asked further. Hadhrat Ali (1) replied, "Munaafiqeen very seldom think of Allaah (whereas these did so very often)." "Then what were they?" came the final question. Hadhrat Ali (1) explained, "They were simply our brothers who rebelled against us." (2)

Hadhrat Ali William Welcomes the Son of Hadhrat Talha William and his Statements Concerning Hadhrat Talha William and Hadhrat Zubayr

Hadhrat Abu Habeebah the freed slave of Hadhrat Talha sizes says that it was after the Battle of Jamal that he once went to Hadhrat Ali sizes in the company of Hadhrat Imraan the sonof Hadhrat Talha sizes (3). Hadhrat Ali sizes welcomed him most warmly and called him close. He then said, "I wish that Aliaah would make your father and I amonest those about whom He says:

verse 47}

Addressing Hadhrat Imraan in the most endearing terms, Hadhrat All when asked him about all the wives and children of Hadhrat Talha when by name. He further said, "We have taken possession of your lands these past few years only for fear that others may usurp them." Addressing one of his men, Hadhrat All when instructed, "Take him to ibn Qardha and tell him to hand over to this man the revenue due to him for all these years together with his land."

There were two men sitting in the corner, one of whom was Haarith A'war. They remarked, "Allaah is more just than that! How is it that they had been fighting us and still be our brothers in Jannah?" Hadhrat Ali Saiss said, "Get up you two and get away to the furthest of Allaah's lands. Who else can the verse be referring to if it does not refer to Talha and I? (Hadhrat Ali Saiss then addressed Hadhrat Talha Saiss son saying,) My dear brother's son! Come to me whenever you need something." (4)

A narration of Hadhrat Rib'ee bin Hiraash adds that (when the two men passed their comment), Hadhrat Ali sees screamed so loud that the scream could have brought a palace tumbling down. He said, "Who will such people be if they are not Talha and I?"

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.181). (2) Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.173).

⁽³⁾ Hadhrat Talha (3) and Hadhrat Zubayr (3) both fought against Hadhrat Ali (3) in the Battle of Jamal.

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.173) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.224).

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that when Ibn Jurmooz (the person who martyred Hadhrat Zubayr (1) sought permission to see Hadhrat Ali (1), the Khallfah was very unwilling to see him. "(Is this how you treat) Those who fought hard (for you)?" Hadhrat Ali (1) replied, "Take sand in your mouth! I have every hope that Talha, Zubayr and I shall be amongst those about whom Allaah says:

﴿ وَنَزَعْنَا مَا فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِّنْ عِلِّ إِخْوَانًا عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُتَقَلِّلِيْنَ كَا ﴾ (سورة العجر آيت ٤٧) We shall remove any ill-feelings that may be in their breasts. As brothers they will be seated on couches, facing each other," (Surah Hijr, verse 47)(1)

Hadhrat Ammaar Rebukes those who Spoke

Hadhrat Amr bin Ghaalib reports that when Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (2) overheard someone speak ill of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha (2), he said, "Be quiet! May you remain deprived of good and sworn at! I testify that she shall definitely be the wife of Rasulullaah (2) in Jannah." (3) Another narration adds that Hadhrat Ammaar (3) said to the man, "Get away! May you be deprived of all good! Are you insulting the beloved of Rasulullaah (2)."

Hadhrat Ammaar Wies once said, "Our mother Aa'isha Wies had her own opinion. We know for sure that she is the wife of Rasulullaah Wie in this world as well as in the Aakhirah, but Allaah used her to test whether it was He (Allaah) Whom we obeyed or her." (5)

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il (and hadhrat that when Hadhrat Ali (see sent Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (and Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali (to Kufa to rally people to fight, Hadhrat Ammaar (and hadhrat the people saying, "I know well that she (Hadhrat Aa'isha (and hadhrat the wife of Rasulullaah (in this world as well as the next, but Allaah is using her to test if it is He (Allaah) Whom we obey or her." (6)

Following The Elders Despite Believing Differently

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood William Instructs that Hadhrat Umar William be Followed

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab reports, "I once went to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

⁽¹⁾ tbn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.113).

⁽²⁾ Hadhrat Ammaar SINES fought by the side of Hadhrat All SINES against Hadhrat Aa'isha was and others in the Battle of Jamal.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.116). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.65) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.360).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 116).

⁽⁶⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.174), Bukhaari,

Sizes to teach me a particular verse of the Qur'aan. When he taught it to me in a certain way, I informed him that Hadhrat Umar Sizes had taught it to me in a manner quite different to the way in which he taught it. He then started to weep so much that I saw his tears amongst the pebbles (on the ground). He then said, 'Read it as Umar had read it because I swear by Allaah that his recitation was clearer than that of the people of Saylaheen (a place near Baghdad). Umar was an impregnable fortress of Islaam. Islaam would enter by him but never leave from him. When he was martyred, the fortress was holed and Islaam has come out of the fortress without entering into it." (1)

Getting Annoyed for the Sake of One's Elders Hadhrat Umar (Sake) is Annoyed by a Man who Insulted Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Sake)

Hadhrat Shurayh bin Ubayd reports that a man once said to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa What is the matter with you learned men? You are more cowardly than us, most miserly when asked for something and have the largest morsels when you eat!" Hadhrat Abu Dardaa What ignored the man without replying. When the news reached Hadhrat Umar What is, he asked Hadhrat Abu Dardaa What is said, "I seek Allaah's forgiveness. Should we take them to task for everything we hear them say?" Hadhrat Umar What is then went to the man who made the remark to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa What Hadhrat Umar What is grabbed him, throttled him and brought him before Rasulullaah where the man pleaded, "We were only talking and joking." It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

﴿ وَلَيِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ لِيَقُولُنَّ إِنَّمَا كُنَّا نَخُوضُ وَنَلْعَبُ ﴾ (سورة توبه آيت ٢٥)

If you have to ask them they will (brush it off and falsely) say, "We were only talking and joking (to pass time without intending any harm)." (Surah Taubah, verse 65) (2)

Hadhrat Umar Kebukes and Warns a Person who Regarded him to Be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr reports that a group of people once came to Hadhrat Umar with and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We swear by Allaah that we have never seen anyone more just, more outspoken of the truth and more sterner against the Munaafiqeen than yourself. You are certainly the best of people after Rasulullaah with "Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik with remarked, "You are wrong! By Allaah! We have seen someone better than him after Rasulullaah with "Who is that O Awf?" Hadhrat Umar was asked. When Hadhrat Awf with replied that the person was Hadhrat Abu Bakr with Adhrat Umar work. "Awf is telling the truth while you people are false. I swear by Allaah that Abu Bakr was purer than musk while I am in need of more guidance than our family's camel." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.371).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.Z10)

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Umar (Imar (I Hadhrat Ali (See Rebukes a Person who Regarded him to Be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Abu Zinaad narrates that someone once asked Hadhrat Ali (A) (A) Ameerul Mu'mineen! What is the matter with the Muhaajireen and Ansaar? They regard Abu Bakr (A) as being superior to you whereas your virtues are more, you had accepted Islaam before him and have excelled him. Hadhrat Ali (A) asked, If you belong to the Quraysh tribe, I assume that you must be from the Aa'idha family. When the man confirmed that he was, Hadhrat Ali (A) Had a Mu'min not been in the protection of Allaah, I would have certainly had you executed. If you were to survive, I would then chastise you in a manner that you would be unable to escape. Shame on you! Abu Bakr (S) excelled me in four matters (especially). He was appointed to the position of being Imaam before me when Rasulullaah (P) put him forward as Imaam. (Secondly.) He made Hijrah before me, (thirdly) he beat me to the cave (to be with Rasulullaah (A) during the Hijrah) and (fourthly) he also proclaimed his Islaam before me.

⁽i) Abu Nu'aym in his Fadhaa'ilus Sahabah #記憶66 as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.350).

⁽²⁾ Asad bin Moosa.

⁽³⁾ La'alkaa'

⁽⁴⁾ Khaythamah, as quoted in Muntakhali Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.350).

Shame on you! Whereas Allaah has condemned mankind (for not assisting Rasulullaah (SE), Allaah praised Abu Bakr (SES) when He says:

﴿إِلَّا تَنْصُرُوهُ فَقَدُ نَصَرَهُ اللَّهُ إِذْ آخُرَجَهُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُواْ ثَانِيَ اثْنَيْنِ اِذْ هُمَا فِي الْغَارِ إِذْ يَقُولُ لِصَاحِبِهِ لاَ تَحْزَنَّ إِنَّ اللَّهُ مَعَنَا فَأَنْزِلَ اللَّهُ سَكِيْنَتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَاللَّهُ بِجُنُودٍ لَّمْ تَرَوْهَا وَجَعَلَ كَلِمَةَ اللَّذِيْنِ كَفَرُواْ السُّفْلَى وَكَلِمَةُ اللّٰهِ هِيَ الْعُلْيَا وَاللّٰهُ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيْمٌ

(سورة توبه آيت ١٤)

If you do not assist him (Rasulullaah (B)), then indeed Allaah had assisted him when the Kuffaar drove him out him (of Makkah). He was the second of the two (the other being Abu Bakr (B)) when they were (hiding from the Kuffaar) in the cave (outside Makkah) and he (Rasulullaah (B)) told his companion (Abu Bakr (B)) (when the Kuffaar were on the verge of capturing them), "Do not grieve (do not fear for my safety). Verily Allaah is with us (and He will protect us from the Kuffaar)." So Allaah caused His tranquillity (serenity, mercy and peace) to descend on him, assisted him (on various occasions) with an army (of angels and other creation) that you had not seen. And (Allaah) placed the word of the Kuffaar (the call to Shirk) at the very bottom while the word of Allaah (the Kalimah) is right at the top. Allaah is Mighty, The Wise, (Surah Taubah, verse 40) (1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Mughierah Hadhrat Another Man

Hadhrat Mughierah bin Shu'bah (Iran narrates, "I was with Abu Bakr when a horse was brought to him. When a man (from the Ansaar) asked for the horse to be given to him, Abu Bakr said, 'Rather than giving it to you, I prefer giving it to one of the youngsters who will be able to ride it despite his lack of experience.' The man became angry and blurted out, 'By Allaah! I am a better horseman than both you and your father!' When he used these words for the Khalifah of Rasulullaah (I became extremely angry and grabbing him by the head, I threw him down on his nose. His nose bled so much that it appeared as if a large water bag had burst open. When the Ansaar decided that they would have retribution from me, the news reached Hadhrat Abu Bakr (I). He rebuked them saying, 'Do people think that I will allow them to have their retribution from Mughierah bin Shu'bah? I would prefer exiling them from their homes rather than them having retribution from someone who prevents Allaah's servants from evil."

⁽I) Khaythamah and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.355). Ishaari has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 出版的。 as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.447).

⁽²⁾ Tahraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.361)

Hadhrat Umar hits Two Men for their Insolence Towards Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wonce saw a man's garment hanging below his ankles, he told him to lift it up. The man retorted, "What about you, O Abdullaah bin Mas'ood? You also lift up your garment higher." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood word replied, "I am not like you. My calves are extremely thin and I lead people in salaah (therefore if I lift my garment too high, people would be repulsed)." When news of this incident reached Hadhrat Umar words, he hit the man saying, "Do you backchat Ibn Mas'ood words." (1)

Hadhrat Alaa reports from his teachers that Hadhrat Umar was once standing by the home of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood in Madinah, watching it being built when a man from the Quraysh remarked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Let someone else (like the owner) do this work for you." Hadhrat Umar grabe grabbed hold of a brick and hurled it at the man saying, "Do you wish to make me dislike ibn Mas'ood?" (2)

Hadhrat Umar Hits a Man for the Sake of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il narrates that because Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (1996) owed something to a certain man, the man took an oath against her. For this, Hadhrat Umar (1996) had the man lashed thirty stripes, causing his skin to be cut and to become swollen. (3)

Hadhrat Ali Expresses the Intention to Execute Ibn Saba for Regarding him to be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Expresses and Hadhrat

Umar المُعَالِقَةُ

Hadhrat Ummu Moosa reports that when the news reached Hadhrat Ali that Ibn Saba claimed that he (Hadhrat Ali Sies) was superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sies and Hadhrat Umar Sies, Hadhrat Ali Sies expressed the wish to have Ibn Saba executed. Someone remarked, "Will you execute a man for merely showing respect to you and for regarding you to be an esteemed person?" Hadhrat Ali Sies then said, "Alright then (he need not be executed). However, he should never be allowed to live in the town where I reside." (4)

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that the news once reached Hadhrat Ali Suiss that Abdullaah bin Aswad degraded the status of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Suiss and Hadhrat Umar Suiss. Hadhrat Ali Suiss asked for a sword with the intention

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 55).

⁽²⁾ Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan and (bn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.55).

⁽³⁾ Abu Ubayd in his Ghareeb, Sufyaan bin Uyaynah and La'alkaa'i, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Uminaal (Vol.5 Pe.120).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.8 Pg.253).

of executing him. However, when someone spoke him out of it, he said, "Then he should never stay in a town where I reside." Abdullaah was therefore exiled to Shaam. (1)

Hadhrat Ali Rebukes a Man for Regarding him to be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr And Hadhrat Umar Ames

Hadhrat Katheer narrates that a man once came to Hadhrat Ali saying, "You are the best of people." "Have you seen Rasulullaah ?" Hadhrat Ali saked enquired. When the man replied that he had not, Hadhrat Ali saked further, "Have you then seen Abu Bakr saked further, "No," came the reply. Hadhrat Ali saked further, "Take note of this! Had you mentioned that you had seen Rasulullaah , I would have had you executed and had you mentioned that you had seen Abu Bakr saked and Umar saked. I would have had you lashed (for slander)." (2)

Hadhrat Alqamah reports that Hadhrat Ali series once delivered a lecture to them. After duly praising Allaah, he said, "The news has reached me that some people regard me to be superior to Abu Bakr series and Umar series. Had I warned against this previously, I would have certainly given punishment for It. However, I dislike meting punishment for something I have not warned against. Now after this proclamation of mine if anyone says anything like this, he will be regarded as a slanderer and shall so be punished as one. The best of all people after Rasulullaah series is Abu Bakr series and then Umar series. Thereafter, when they had departed we started many new things concerning which Allaah shall decide as He pleases (whether they were correct or not)." (3)

A Historic Lecture of Hadhrat Ali (1996) Concerning the Superiority of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Umar (1996)

Hadhrat Suwayd bin Ghaflah narrates that he once passed by a group of people who were degrading the status of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1995) and Hadhrat Umar (1995). When he reported this to Hadhrat Ali (1995), he said, "May Allaah curse those who harbour anything besides good towards the two illustrious men. They were the brothers and extremely close companions of Rasulullaah (1995)," Hadhrat Ali (1995) then mounted the pulpit and delivered an eloquent lecture in which he said:

"What is the matter with some people who speak about the two leaders of the Quraysh and the two fathers of the Muslims in a manner that I would never. I absolve myself from what they say and shall punish for it. I swear by the Being Who splits the seed and Who creates the soul that it is only the Allaah-fearing

⁽¹⁾ Ishaari and La'alkaa'i, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.447).

⁽²⁾ Ishaari.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Aasim, Ibn Shaaheen, La'alkaa'i, Isbahaani and Ibn Asaakir.

Mu'min who loves these two men and only the sinful outcast who dislikes them. They were both true and loyal companions of Rasulullaah who enjoined good, forbade evil, punished criminals and never trespassed the ways of Rasulullaah is in any matter. Rasulullaah is never valued any opinion as he did theirs and did not love anyone as he loved them. Rasulullaah passed through this world well pleased with them and the people were also just as pleased. Abu Bakr 细胞 was appointed (by Rasulullaah 學麗) to lead the salaah and when Rasulullaah we passed away, the Muslims entrusted the task of leading the salaah with him and also handed over their zakaah to him because these two (salaah and zakaah) are always coupled (mentioned together in the Our'aan). I was the first from amonest the progeny of Abdul Muttalib to nominate him (as Khalifah). He however did not like to assume the post and wanted one of us to rather fill the post for him. By Allaah! He was the best of those left after Rasululiaah & the most compassionate of them, the kindest, the wisest in his piety and the first to accept Islaam. Rasulullaah Will likened him to Mika'eel will in his kindness and mercy and to Ibraheem will in his forgiving nature and reputation. He walked the path of Rasulullaah will until he passed away. May Allaah shower His mercy on him."

Hadhrat Ali was continued, "With consultation from the people, Abu Bakr appointed Umar bin Khattaab as his successor, While some people disapproved and others approved. I was amongst those who approved. By Allaah! Before he left this world, Umar wow won the approval of all those who had disapproved (of his appointment). He managed affairs in the manner that Rasulullaah 袋雞 and his companion (Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨瑙錫) managed affairs and he followed in their footsteps just as a foal follows in the footsteps of his mother. By Allaah! He was the best of all those who remained (after Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($1000). He was compassionate and merciful and helped the oppressed against the oppressor. Allaah brought the truth on his tongue to the extent that we actually thought that an angel spoke with his tongue. Allaah strengthened Islaam by his entering its fold and his migration was a bolster for the Deen. While Allaah filled the hearts of the Mu'mineen with love for him. Allaah also filled the hearts of the Munaafigeen with fear for him. Rasulullaah We likened him to Jibra'eel in his sternness and austerity towards enemies and to Nooh Will in his admonishment and frustration towards the Kuffaar. Which of you can compare to the two of them? Their heights cannot be reached without having love for them and following in their footsteps. Whoever loves them loves me. On the other hand, whoever dislikes them dislikes me and I am absolved of such a person. Had I warned against reviling the two of them previously, I would have certainly given the most severe punishment for it. Now after this proclamation of mine if anyone says anything like this, he will be punished as a slanderer is punished. Take note! The best person of this Ummah after its Nabi is Abu Bakr speed and then Umar speed. Allaah knows best where the best person is after them. I have now made myself clear and seek Allaah's pardon for myself and on your behalf." (1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Ali signs and another Person Concerning Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Abu Is'haaq reports that a man once came to Hadhrat Ali was and said, "Uthmaan (ﷺ) is in Jahannam." "What makes you say this?" Hadhrat All support of the man replied, "Because he had started many new practices." "Tell me," Hadhrat Ali was said to the man, "If you had a daughter, would you marry her without consultation?" When the man said that he would not. Hadhrat Ali Sissi continued, "Do you think that there could be an opinion better than the opinion Rasulullaah the had concerning (the marriage of) his two daughters? Now tell me this about Rasulullaah (28). Whenever he intended to do something, would he or would he not ask Allaah for the best course to take?" The man replied, "Of course. Rasulullaah & would certainly ask Allaah for the best course to take." Questioning the man further, Hadhrat Ali said, "Would Allaah then choose the best course for Rasulullaah (2008) or not?" "Indeed," the man responded, "Allaah would definitely choose the best course for Rasulullaah 25%." Hadhrat Ali 3000 then said, "Now tell me this about Rasulullaah : Did Allaah not select Uthmaan : to marry the (two) daughters of Rasulullaah (2002) I have thought about having you executed but Allaah has decided otherwise. Remember this well! I swear by Allaah that should you ever say anything else (other than what I have explained to you), I shall have you executed." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar about Someone who Complained about Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Saalim reports that his father once met one of the Sahabah who had a problem with his speech and could therefore not express himself clearly. When he complained about Hadhrat Uthmaan who had hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar words said, "By Allaah! I do not know what you are saying. Nevertheless, O assembly of Muhammad who companions, you all know well that during the time of Rasulullaah who well that during the time of Rasulullaah who would always be saying. 'Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthmaan' (their names were always taken together because all respected them most highly). However, now that wealth has become a priority, it is only when he gives (someone a share that the person is pleased with him)." (3)

The Du'aa of Hadhrat Sa'd is Accepted Against Someone who Reviled Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Talha and Hadhrat Zubayr Hadhrat Aamir bin Sa'd narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd (Hadhrat Sa'd (Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd (Hadhrat Wasan Baghdaad), Shiraazi, Ibn Mandah and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 446).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 5 Pg. 18).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'ay in his Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.235).

somewhere when he overheard a person speaking III of Hadhrat All Hadhrat Talha Hadhrat Zubayr Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Said. "You are reviling people who have received tremendous accolades from Allaah. By Allaah! If you do not desist from reviling them, I shall curse you." The man scoffed, "He threatens me as if he were a prophet!" Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Sa'd narrates that when someone reviled Hadhrat All Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Hadhrat Sa'd Ladhrat Sa'd bin Maalik Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Hadhrat Sa'd Ladhrat Sa'd bin Maalik Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Hadhrat Sa'd Ladhrat Sa'd Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim reports that he was once walking about the marketplace in Madinah when he reached a place called Ahjaaruz Zayt. There he saw some people gathered around a horseman who had mounted an animal and was reviling Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (1986). The people were just standing there (without saying or doing anything) when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik @ 666 arrived. Stopping there, Hadhrat Sa'd Swee asked, "What is happening here?" When the people informed him that the man was busy reviling Hadhrat Ali 劉國語。Hadhrat Sa'd 劉國語 went forward and the people gave him way until he stood by the man. He then said, "What is this? For what reason are you reviling Ali bin Abi Taalib? Was he not the first to accept Islaam? Was he not the first to perform salaah with Rasulullaah (25)? Was he not the most abstinent of people? Was he not the most knowledgeable of people?" He then continued mentioning the virtues of Hadhrat Ali was until he said, " Was he not the son-in-law of Rasulullaah 學麗? Was he not Rasulullaah 學麗's flag-bearer in his battles?" Hadhrat Sa'd sugget then faced the Oibla, raised his hands and prayed, "O Allaah! This man is reviling one of Your friends. Let this gathering not disperse without showing them Your power."

Hadhrat Qais says, "By Allaah! We had not yet dispersed when the animal started sinking in the ground and it threw him off. He landed head first on the stones, causing him to die as his head burst open." (3)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid (is Annoyed by a man who Swore Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Rabaah bin Haarith reports that Hadhrat Mughiera (Sie was sitting in the largest Masjid with the people of Kufa on his right and his left when someone called Sa'eed bin Zaid (Sie arrived, Hadhrat Mughiera (Sie welcomed him

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 154).

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.499)

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.500), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi. Abu Nu'aym has also reported a similar narration in his Dalaa'il (Pg.206)

and made him sit near his feet on the same platform. A man from Kufa then arrived and facing Hadhrat Mughiera  wearing at, O Mughiera?" asked Hadhrat Sa'eed  Hadhrat Mughiera replied, "He is swearing Ali bin Abi Taalib." "O Mughiera bin Shu'ba! O Mughiera bin Shu'ba! O Mughiera bin Shu'ba! O Mughiera bin Shu'ba! Hadhrat Sa'eed  repeated, "Am I not hearing a companion of Rasulullaah  being sworn at in your presence without you repulsing it or even doing anything to change the situation?! I testify to what my ears heard Rasulullaah  say and what my heart memorised from him. I shall never report from him anything false that he will question me about when I meet him. I have heard him say, 'Abu Bakr shall be in Jannah, Umar shall be in Jannah, Uthmaan shall be in Jannah, Ali shall be in Jannah, Talha shall be in Jannah, Zubayr shall be in Jannah, Abdur Rahmaan (bin Aul) shall be in Jannah and Sa'd bin Maalik shall be in Jannah. The ninth person to accept Islaam shall also be in Jannah and if I wished to, I would also take his name."

The people in the Masjid then started to make a noise asked him in the name of Allaah to tell them who the ninth person to accept Islaam was. Hadhrat Sa'eed said, "You have asked me in the name of Allaah and Allaah is Great (I can therefore not refuse). I was the ninth person to accept Islaam and Rasulullaah was the tenth (of the ten Muslims we were at the time)." Hadhrat Sa'eed then took an oath as he said, "When a man's face get dusty as he stands by Rasulullaah said (in a battle), this deed of his is better than every deed that any of you could do if he were given the lifespan of Nooh said."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Dhaalim Maazini narrates, "When Mu'aawiya left Kufa, he appointed Mughiera bin Shu'ba left as its governor. Mughiera then appointed orators to revile Hadhrat Ali left. I was sitting next to Sa'eed bin Zaid left. When he became extremely angry at this. He then stood up and taking me by the hand said, 'Look at that man who oppresses himself. He is ordering the reviling of someone who is a dweller of Jannah. I am prepared to testify that nine people shall definitely enter Jannah (amongst them is Hadhrat Ali left) and I would not be sinful for testifying to the tenth one as well (myself)."(2)

Weeping Over the Deaths of Elders

Hadhrat Suhayb Weeps upon the Death of Hadhrat Umar Subs and the Statement of Hadhrat Hafsah Subs on this Occasion

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen reports that when a drink was brought to Hadhrat Umar

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.95).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.96). Ahmad, Abu Nu'aym in his Ma'rifah and Ibn Asaakir have also reported a similar narration from Hadbrat Rabaah, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.79).

drank). At this, Hadhrat Suhayb (Cried out, "O poor Umar! O my dear brother! Who is there for us after him?" Hadhrat Umar (Cried Said, "Take it easy, dear brother. Don't you know that the person over whom people cry loudly will be punished?"

Narrating from his father, Hadhrat Abu Burdah narrates that when Hadhrat Umar was stabbed, Hadhrat Suhayb was arrived weeping in a loud voice. "Is it over me that you weep?" Hadhrat Umar was enquired. When Hadhrat Suhayb was replied that it was, Hadhrat Umar was said, "Don't you know that Rasulullaah was said, The person over whom people cry (loudly) shall be punished?"

Hadhrat Miqdaam bin Ma'dikarib was narrates that when Hadhrat Umar was wounded, (his daughter) Hadhrat Hafsah was entered the room saying, "O companion of Rasulullaah was of Cather-in-law of Rasulullaah of Cather-in-law of Rasulullaah was of Cather-in-law of Rasulullaah was of Cather-in-law of Rasulullaah was of Cather-in-law of Rasulullaah was of Cather Hadhrat Umar was said to his son, "O Abdullaah hadhrat Umar was supported Hadhrat Umar was against his chest, Hadhrat Umar was said to Hadhrat Hafsah was, "By the rights that I have over you, I prohibit you from wailing over me after this. I have of course no control over your eyes (for you are allowed to weep as much as you please). Whenever a deceased person is praised for what was not in him, the angels record this (against him)." (1)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Weep at the Death of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdul Malik bin Zaid narrates from his father that as he was weeping, someone once asked Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid (William), "What makes you weep, O Abu A'war?" Hadhrat Sa'eed (William) replied, "I am weeping over the fate of Islaam. It has sustained a void at the death of Umar (William) that shall never be filled until the Day of Qiyaamah."

Hadhrat Abu Waa'll reports, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Sies once came to us and was given the news of Hadhrat Umar Sies's death. I have never seen him weep more than that day and never saw him more depressed. He then said, 'By Allaah! I would have even loved a dog if I knew that Umar loved it. By Allaah! I am certain that even the thorny trees are distressed by the death of Umar Siess (2)

Hadhrat Umar Weeps Over the Death of Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan says, "When the news of Nu'maan bin Muqarrin (1986)'s death reached Umar (1986), I saw him place his hands on his head and start to

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.362). (2) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.372).

weep." (1)

Hadhrat Thumaamah (Hadhrat Zaid (Haw)), Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Hadhrat Abu Humayd (Hadhrat Weep at the Death of Hadhrat Uthmaan (Haw)

Hadhrat Abul Ash'ath San'aani says, "The governor of San'aa was a Sahabi called Thumaamah bin Adi (San'aa). When he heard of the death of Hadhrat Uthmaan (San'a), he wept and said, 'Khilaafah on the pattern of Nubuwwah has been snatched away and it shall now be kingship and tyranny. Whoever has power over something will now devour it." (2)

Hadhrat Zaid bin Ali narrates that Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit (1996) wept over Hadhrat Uthmaan (1996) the day he was martyred in his home.

Hadhrat Abu Saalih reports, "Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (wept whenever someone mentioned what had happened to Hadhrat Uthmaan (his as if I can actually hear him say, 'Ah! Ah!' as he wept uncontrollably."

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed reports that when Hadhrat Uthmaan (Sie) was martyred, Hadhrat Abu Humayd Saa'idi (Sie) who was a veteran of the Battle of Badr vowed never to carry out certain actions and never to laugh until the day he meets Allaah. (3)

Finding a Change in Oneself at the Death of an Elder

The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri

Hadhrat Ubay

and Hadhrat Anas

about the Changes within themselves after the demise of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (1986) once said, "We had hardly left from burying Rasulullaah (1986) when we found a change within our hearts." (4)

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (See Said, "When with Rasulullaah (See, we were united but no sooner did he leave us and we divided left and right," Another narration states that he said, "We all looked in the same direction when we were with Rasulullaah (See But when he passed away, we started looking this way and that." (5)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik (1996) said, "The day Rasulullaah (1996) passed away, everything in Madinah became dark. We had hardly finished burying Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg., 17).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Muntakhah Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.27). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.80) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.81).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.38) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.254).

when we felt a change within our hearts." (1)

In a narration discussing the Hijrah of Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Anas says, "I saw Rasulullaah . the day he came to us in Madinah. I have never seen a day better and brighter than the day Rasulullaah . entered Madinah. I also saw him the day he passed away and have never seen a day worse or darker than that day." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Talha William the Day Hadhrat Umar William Passed away

Hadhrat Anas reports that when the consultative assembly (appointed by Hadhrat Umar reports before his death) assembled, Hadhrat Abu Talha saw what they were doing (each one wishing the Khilaafah for the next) and said, "More than my fear that you should all be aspiring for the Khilaafah is my fear that you should all want to pass it on another. By Allaah! Every Muslim home has suffered a deficiency in its religious and worldly affairs by the death of Umar

Honouring the Weak and Poor Muslims

Rasulullaah W Honours the Poor Muslims

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Massim narrates that they were six Muslims with Rasulullaah Massim when the Mushrikeen said (to Rasulullaah Massim), "Drive these people away from you." They then went on to belittle these Sahabah Massim (indicating that they as wealthy people could not sit with these poor men). The Sahabah Massim included Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Massim, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Massim, a Sahabi form the Banu Hudhayl tribe, Hadhrat Bilaal Massim whose names the narrator had forgotten. When Rasulullaah Massim started to consider the request. Allaah revealed the verse:

verse 52}(4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sime) reports that a group of the Quraysh once passed by Rasulullaah (Sie when he was in the company of some poor Muslims such as Hadhrat Suhay) (Hadhrat Bilaal (Sie)), Hadhrat Khabbaab (Hadhrat Ammaar (Hadhrat Ammaar)). The Mushrikeen said, "O Muhammad! Are you content with the likes of these men from your people? Should we become followers of these people? Are these the people upon whom Allaah has bestowed His favours? Drive them away from you for perchance we may follow you if you

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.274).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.234).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.374).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.) Pg.346). Heakim (Vol.3 Pg.319) has reported a similar narration in brief.

do so." It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

﴿ وَاَنْذِرْ بِهِ الَّذِيْنَ يَخَافُونَ اَنْ يُحْشَرُواْ الِي رَبِّهِمْ لَيْسَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِهِ وَلِيُّ وَلَا شَفِيعٌ لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُونَ وَلَا تَطُوُدِ الَّذِيْنَ يَتُعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدَاةِ وَالْعَشِيِّ يُرِيْدُونَ وَجْهَهُ مَا عَلَيْكَ مِنْ حِسَّابِهِمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ وَمَا مِنْ حِسَابِكَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ فَتَطُودُ هُمْ فَتَكُونَ مِنَ الظَّالِمِيْنَ﴾ (سورة العام آيت ١٥)

Use it (the Qur'aan) to warn those who fear that they will be gathered before their Rabb without any helper or intercessor, so that they may grow concerned. Do not drive away those (poor Sahabah (worship)) their Rabb morning and evening, seeking His pleasure. You are not accountable at all for them (for their inner condition), nor are they at all accountable (responsible) for you, (there is therefore no reason) that (permits) you (to) drive them away and to (thereby) become of the wrong-doers (by doing this). (Surah An'aam, verses 51,52) (1)

Rasulullaah : Honours Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom : After being Chided

Discussing the verse عَنَى (2), Hadhrat Anas عَنَى says that Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom (who was blind) once came to Rasulullaah الله while Rasulullaah was speaking to Ubay bin Khalaf (he was one of the leaders of the Quraysh and Rasulullaah was inviting him to Islaam). When Rasulullaah ignored Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom (thinking that he could always see to him later), Allaah revealed the verses:

He (Rasulullaah (2012)) frowned and turned away because a blind man came to him... (Surah Abas, verses 1,2)

After this, Rasulullaah always honoured Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom

Hadhrat Aa'isha Teports that the Surah (4) was revealed with reference to the blind Sahabi Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom Who once came to Rasulullaah Faylong, "Guide me." Because Rasulullaah Was busy speaking (giving Dawah) to one of the leaders of the Mushrikeen, he ignored Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom Who. Devoting his attention to the Mushrik instead, Rasulullaah Was asked him, "Do you see anything wrong in what I have told you?" The man admitted that he saw nothing wrong with it. It was on this occasion that Allaah revealed the Surah:

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.346).

⁽²⁾ Surah Abas, verse I

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la.

⁽⁴⁾ Surah 80.

He (Rasulullaah (%)) frowned and turned away because a blind man came to him... (Surah Abas, verses 1,2) (1)

Allaah Instructs Rasulullaah to Remain in the Company of the Poor Muslims

Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat image narrates that Rasulullaah was once in the company of some poor Muslims, amongst whom were Hadhrat Ammaar image, Hadhrat Suhayb image, Hadhrat Bilaal image and Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat image. Just then Aqra bin Haabis Tameemi and Uyaynah bin Hisn Fazaari arrived. The two of them held these Sahabah image in low esteem and took Rasulullaah image aside saying, "We feel embarrassed that the Arab delegations will be coming to see you and will see us sitting with these slaves. Therefore, when we come to you, you should get them to leave." When Rasulullaah image agreed to do so, the two men asked to have it in writing. Rasulullaah image then sent for a paper and called Hadhrat Ali image to write. The poor Sahabah image were still sitting there in a corner when Hadhrat libra'eel image descended with the verses:

﴿ وَلاَ تَطُورُ الَّذِيْنَ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْعَداوةِ وَالْعَشِيِّ يُرِيْدُونَ وَجْهَةً * مَا عَلَبُكَ مِنْ حَسَابِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَتَطُودُهُمْ فَتَكُونَ مِن الظَّلِمِيْنَ وَسَابِكَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَتَطُودُهُمْ فَتَكُونَ مِن الظَّلِمِيْنَ وَ وَكَالِكَ فَتَنْا بَعْضَهُمْ بِبَعْضَ لِيَقُولُواْ آهَوُلاءِ مَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ يَنِنَا النِسُ اللَّهُ بِإَعْلَمْ مِنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ مَنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ عَتَلَى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ عَتَلَى اللَّهُ مَنْ عَمِلَ مِنْ مُنْ اللَّهُ مَنْ عَمِلَ مِنْ مُنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ عَلَيْ مِنْ اللَّهُ مَنْ عَمِلَ مِنْ مُنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَلَى مَنْ عَمِلَ مِنْ مُنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْ وَلَا عَلَيْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ مِنْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُمُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَى اللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُومُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ مِنْ عَلَيْكُمْ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ الْعَلَالِمُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللْ

Do not drive away those (poor Sahabah (worship)) their Rabb morning and evening, seeking His pleasure. You are not accountable at all for them (for their inner condition), nor are they at all accountable (responsible) for you, (there is therefore no reason) that (permits) you (to) drive them away and to (thereby) become of the wrong-doers (by doing this). In this manner (as these people do not wish to associate with those of lower social standing) We use some (people) to test others so that they (the upper class) say, "Are these (lower classes) the ones whom Allaah has blessed from among us (by guiding them to Islaam instead of us)?" Allaah knows well who the grateful ones are (and it is them who Allaah shall guide to the straight path regardless of their social standing). When those who believe in Our Aayaat come to you, then say to them, "Peace be upon you. Your Rabb has made mercy (towards you) compulsory upon Himself. The fact is that whichever one of you sins out of ignorance⁽¹⁾ and then repents and (makes) amends (for his sin), (he should remember that). Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful (Allaah will therefore forgive him)." (Surah An'aam, verses 52-54)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la, Ibn Jareer and Tirmidhi, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer.

Hadhrat Khabbaab Felated further, he says, "Rasulullaah Felaten threw the paper away and called for us. When we came to him, he said," - Peace be upon you. We then drew so close to him that our knees touched his. It was the practice of Rasulullaah Felaten when he sat with us to stand up and go when he needed to leave. However, Allaah then revealed the verse:

(O Rasulullaah (28) Restrain yourself with (in the company of) those who, seeking His pleasure, call to (worship) their Rabb morning and evening and do not shift your attention from them.' (Surah Kahaf, verse 28) Thereafter, whenever we sat with Rasulullaah and it reached the hour when he would usually get up to leave, we would stand up and leave him. Had we not done this, he would restrain himself as long as we did not stand." (2) Hadhrat Salmaan wis narrates that there came to Rasulullaah we some people (new Muslims) whose hearts Rasulullaah was still winning over to Islaam. Amongst them was the likes of Uyaynah bin Hisn and Agra bin Haabis. They said, "O Rasulullaah WE! Why don't you sit at the front of the Masjid and keep away from us these people and the odour of their cloaks," They were referring to the likes of Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Salmaan) and other poor Muslims who wore woollen cloaks because they could afford no better (they could not afford finer material and therefore perspired with the thick wool). "If you do this," they continued, "we could sit with you, discuss with you and learn from you." It was then that Allaah revealed the verses:

﴿ وَاتْلُ مَا أُوْحِى الِنَيْكَ مِنْ كِتَابِ رَبِّكَ أَ لَا مُبَيِّلَ لِكَلِمْتِهِ * وَلَنْ تَجِدَ مِنْ دُوْنِهِ مُلْتَحَدًا ۞ وَاصْبِرْ نَفْسَكَ مَعَ اللَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُ مُ بِالْغَدُوةِ وَالْعُشِيِّ يُرِيُدُونَ وَجُهَةً وَلَا تَعْدُ عَيْنَكَ عَنْهُمُ * تُرِيْدُ زِيْنَةَ الْحَيْوةِ الدُّنْيَا * وَلَا تُطِعْ مَنْ أَغْفَلْنَا قَلْبَةً عَنْ ذِكُونَا وَاتَّيَعَ هَوْلَهُ وَكَانَ أَمْرُهُ فُرُطًا ۞ (سورة حهف آیت ۱۹٬۱۲۸)

(O Rasulullaah (1) 'Recite (to people) what (revelation) has been revealed to you from the Book of your Rabb (the Qur'aan). There is none who can alter His words (Allaah's words in the Qur'aan and His promises) and you will certainly not find another place of refuge

All sins are committed out of ignorance because no person will sin if he really knows the punishment for the sin.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.146). Ibn Maajah has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.56). Ibn Abi Shaybah has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.246).

besides with Him. Restrain yourself with (in the company of) those who, seeking His pleasure, call to (worship) their Rabb morning and evening (even though they are poor and of low social standing). (Even though the wealthy ones insist that you drive these Mu'mineen away so that they can draw close to you,) Do not shift your attention from them (from the poor Mu'mineen) with the intention of acquiring the adornment of this worldly life (with the intention that if the wealthy Kuffaar accept Islaam, the status and financial strength of Islaam will grow). (Therefore,) Do not obey him (the wealthy Kaafir) whose heart We have made heedless of Our remembrance, who pursues his passions and whose (every) affair entails transgressing (the laws of Allaah). Speak the truth that comes from your Rabb. Whoever is willing, should accept Imaan (and be successful in both worlds) and whoever is willing should commit kufr (and thus suffer eternal punishment). We have surely prepared for the oppressors (the Kuffaar) a Fire, the walls of which will surround them (from all sides, making it impossible to escape).' (Surah Kahaf, verses 27,28)

These verses threaten people with the fire of Jahannam. Rasulullaah the stood up to look for the poor Muslims and found them engaged in Dhikr at the back of the Masjid. Rasulullaah see said, "All praises belong to Allaah Who has commanded me before my death to restrain myself in the company of a certain group from my Ummah. With you people shall I live and amongst you shall I die." (1)

The Incident Between Ibn Mataatiyyah and Hadhrat Mu'aadh and the Lecture that Rasulullaah Delivered in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Salamah bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that Qais bin Mataatiyyah once came to a gathering that included Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi (Hadhrat Suhayb Roomi (Hadhrat Bilaal Habshi (Habshi (Hadhrat Bilaal Habshi (Habshi (Habshi (Hadhrat Bilaal Habshi (Habshi (Ha

Hadhrat Mu'aadh sees stood up and grabbing Ibn Mataatiyyah by the collar, brought him to Rasulullaah sees tood up in anger and pulling his shawl along, he entered the Masjid. The announcement "Gather for salaah" was made (to assemble the people) and after duly praising Allaah, Rasulullaah sees said, "O people! Verily your Rabb is but One Rabb, your father (Aadam sees) is but one father and your Deen is but one Deen. Take note that Arabic is neither your father nor your mother. It is merely a language and whoever speaks Arabic is therefore Arab."

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Itilya (Vol.1 Pg.345).

Still holding on to the collar of Ibn Mataatiyyah, Hadhrat Mu'aadh saked, "O Rasulullaah saked," What is your instruction concerning this Munaafi? Q" "Leave him to the Fire of Jahannam!" replied Rasulullaah saked. Ibn Mataatiyyah was therefore amongst those who left the fold of Islaam and was killed in this condition. (1)

Honouring Parents

What Rasulullaah said to a Man who asked about Fulfilling his Debt of Gratitude to his Mother

Hadhrat Buraydah (1966) narrates that a man once came to Rasulullaah (1966) and asked, "O Rasulullaah (1966)! I have carried my mother a distance of two Farsakh⁽²⁾ on my neck over sands so scorching that a piece of meat would cook on it. Have I fulfilled the debt of gratitude I owe her?" Rasulullaah (1966) replied, "It may perhaps have paid off a single labour pain." (3)

The Advice Rasulullaah Gave a Man Concerning his Father

Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Who is this?" Rasulullaah ("Fe enquired. When he informed Rasulullaah ("Fe said, "Never walk in front of him, never sit down before him, never call him by his name and never make him the target of abuse (by swearing at another person's father, thereby inciting him to swear one's own father)." (4)

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Gave Abu Ghassaan Concerning his Father

Hadhrat Abu Ghassaan Dhabi says, "I was walking with my father on rocky ground (in Madinah) when Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (in Madinah) when I informed him that it was my father, he said, 'Never walk in front of your father but walk either behind him or by his side. You should also never allow anyone to come between yourself and your father. Never walk upon your father's roof when there are no railings, for it will frighten him (to think that you may fall) and never eat a bone of meat that your father had his sights on, for he may be desiring to have it." (5)

Rasulullaah Commands a Person to Care for His Parents when he Came to Fight in Jihaad

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas (1966) narrates that a man once came to

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg,46).

⁽²⁾ A distance of approximately six miles.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Sageer. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg 137) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraam in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.137) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Flaythami (Vol.8 Pg. 137) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Rasulullaah seeking permission to fight in Jihaad. Rasulullaah see asked, "Are your parents alive?" When the man replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah see said, "Then your Jihaad is to be with them." (1)

Another narration⁽²⁾ states that a man came to Rasulullaah see saying, "I pledge at your hand my allegiance to migrate and to wage Jihaad seeking rewards from Allaah." "Are any of your parents alive?" Rasulullaah see enquired. "Yes," the man replied, "In fact, they are both living." "Do you want rewards from Allaah?" Rasulullaah see asked. "Yes," the man replied. Rasulullaah see then told him, "Then return to your parents and be good to them."

Yet another narration (3) quotes that the man said, "While I have come to you to make a pledge to migrate, I have left my parents in tears." Rasulullaah (2) said to him, "Return to them and make them laugh just as you have made them weep."

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (in Madinah), Rasulullaah (in Madinah), Rasulullaah (in Madinah), Rasulullaah (in Madinah), Rasulullaah (in Madinah), Rasulullaah (in Madinah), Rasulullaah (in Madinah), Rasulullaah (in Madinah), in Verment, Hadhrat Anas harrates that a man once said to Rasulullaah , "While I desire to march in Jihaad, I do not have the means." Rasulullaah asked, "Are any of your parents still alive?" The man replied that his mother was still living. "Then," said Rasulullaah , "meet Allaah while involved in serving her. If you do this, you will be (rewarded like) one who has performed Hajj, Umrah and waged Jihaad." (5)

Rasulullaah Stops Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah from Participating in the Battle of Khaybar because of his Mother

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Aba narrates that once Rasulullaah announced, "Prepare to march on the town with oppressive inhabitants because if Allaah wills, He will allow you to conquer it." Rasulullaah added, "No one with stubborn or frail animals should march with us." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah abas then went to his mother and said, "Prepare my journey's provisions because Rasulullaah has just given the instruction to fight in Jihaad." His mother said, "You are leaving when you know that I am unable to enter without you by my side?" "But I cannot stay behind Rasulullaah ass." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah asset explained. His

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee.

⁽²⁾ Muslim.

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Ya'la and Tabraani, is quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol 4 Pg.93).

mother then indicated towards her breasts and pleaded with him to listen to her on account of the milk that she fed him. (He however remained adamant.)

She then secretly went to Rasulullaah and stated her case before him. Rasulullaah reassured her saying, "You may go. Your case will be attended to without you having to come." When Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah said, Rasulullaah furned away from him. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah said, "O Rasulullaah reached you about me." Rasulullaah reached you

Rasulullaah Commands Some Sahabah to Forsake Jihaad to Care for their Parents

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas () arrates that Rasulullaah () was in Siqaayah when a woman came to him with her son. She said, "This son of mine wants to march in Jihaad but I am refusing to allow him." Rasulullaah () said (to the son), "Remain with your mother until she permits you or until death claims her life because this will earn you greater rewards." (2)

Another narration states that a man came with his mother to Rasulullaah William While he wanted to proceed in Jihaad, she was averse to the idea. Rasulullaah William advised him saying, "Stay glued to your mother and your reward with her shall be the same as what you would receive in Jihaad." (3)

Hadhrat Talha bin Mu'aawiya Sulami Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Saying, "O Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah I was saying, "O Rasulullaah Freports that he wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah." "Is your mother alive?" Rasulullaah Freports that she was, Rasulullaah Freports that she was, Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached that she was, Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached that she was, Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached that she was, Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached that she was, Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that he once approached Rasulullaah Freports that she was, Rasulullaah Freports that she w

Hadhrat Jaahimah (Fig. 1) reports that when he approached Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) seek advice about proceeding in Jihaad, Rasulullaah (Fig. 2) asked him whether his parents were alive. When he informed Rasulullaah (Fig. 3) that they were, Rasulullaah (Fig. 3) said, "Stay glued to them because Jannah lies beneath their feet."

Hadhrat Jaahimah (1966) says, "I went to Rasulullaah (1966) and said, 'O Rasulullaah (1961) I intend fighting in Jihaad and have come to consult with you."

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.323) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.322) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg. 138) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.138).

'Do you have a mother?' Rasulullaah saked. When I told him that I did, he said. 'Stay glued to her because Jannah lies beneath her feet.' When I repeated myself to Rasulullaah sake a second and a third time on various occasions, his reply was always the same." (1)

Hadhrat Nu'aym the freed slave of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (Page 1) reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Salamah Page 1) left for Hajj and was somewhere between Makkah and Madinah, he recognised a particular tree and sat down beneath it. He then said, "I saw Rasulullaah (Page 1) beneath this tree when a young man from this valley came and stood by him. He said, 'O Rasulullaah (Page 1) have come to wage Jihaad with you in the path of Allaah thereby seeking Allaah's pleasure and the home of the Aakhirah.' Rasulullaah (Page 2) asked him, 'Are both your parents alive?' 'Yes,' was his reply. Rasulullaah (Page 3) said, 'Then return and be good towards them.' The man then returned whence he came from.' (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Ali (1996) and his two Sons when Hadhrat Umar (1996) Proposed for his Daughter

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when Hadhrat Umar proposed for Hadhrat Ummu Kulthoom, (her father) Hadhrat Ali said, "She is still too young for marriage." Hadhrat Umar said, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Every kinship by blood or marriage shall be severed on the Day of Qiyaamah except for all my kinship by blood or marriage.' I therefore wish to establish a kinship with Rasulullaah say (by marrying your daughter)." Hadhrat Ali said to his sons Hadhrat Hasan said and Hadhrat Husayn said to his sons Hadhrat Hasan said and Hadhrat Husayn so, "Get your uncle married (to your sister)." They remarked, "She is a woman of individuality and will choose for herself." This remark made Hadhrat Ali said furious and when he stood up, Hadhrat Hasan said grabbed hold of his father's clothes saying, "Dear father! I cannot bear you being detached from us (do forgive us)!" "Then get him married," Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Usaama Feeds the Sap of a Date Palm to his Mother

Hadhrat Mullammad bin Seereen reports that the price of a date palm reached a thousand Dirhams during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan Sissi. Hadhrat Usaama Sissi bored to the centre of a date palm and extracted the sap, which he gave his mother to eat. People asked him, "What makes you do this when you know that a date palm can fetch a price of a thousand Dirhams?" He replied, "My mother asked me for it and if I can get it, I always give her anything she asks me for." (4)

⁽¹⁾ lbn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.17).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg. 138) has commented on the chain of narrators

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.296).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.94).

Showing Mercy To Children and Treating them with Equality

Rasulullaah E Descends the pulpit for Hadhrat Husayn

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Salas narrates that he once saw Rasulullaah delivering a sermon from the pulpit when Hadhrat Husayn salas came out dragging a cloth around his neck. He then tripped and fell down on his face. Rasulullaah salas got off the pulpit to get to him but seeing what he intended, the Sahabah salas picked up the child and took him to Rasulullaah salas Rasulullaah salas took the child and carried him saying, "May Allaah destroy Shaytaan! Children are surely a trial. By Allaah! (In the eagerness of helping the child) I had no idea that I had descended from the pulpit until the child was brought to me." (1)

Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Husayn Climb on Rasulullaah sis Shoulders During salaah and He Prolongs the Sajdah because of it

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed while he was in Sajdah and climbed on his back. Rasulullaah held him and stood up. When Rasulullaah for proceeded into Ruku, the child then stood on his back. When he got up, Rasulullaah held hen left the boy and he went away. (2)

Hadhrat Zubayr The narrates that he once saw Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali The State of the Climb on to Rasulullaah should be saked when he was in Sajdah. Rasulullaah should did not make the boy get off (and remained in Sajdah) until the child himself decided to get down. Rasulullaah should so parted his legs so that boy could go in from one side and out the other side. (3)

Hadhrat Bahiy narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr who it was that most closely resembled Rasulullaah. He replied, "Hasan bin Ali how most closely resembled Rasulullaah had and he was the most beloved to Rasulullaah. While Rasulullaah was performing salaah, he would sometimes come and sit on Rasulullaah has back Rasulullaah would then not move from his position until Hasan how got off. He would then go beneath Rasulullaah had saladomen and Rasulullaah would separate his legs for the boy to go out again." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Silies reports that at times when Rasulullaah was in Sajdah, Hadhrat Hasan Silies and Hadhrat Husayn Silies would climb on his back. When the Sahabah Willies ventured to stop them from them

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haytnami (Vol.8 Pg.155) has commented on the chain of narrators

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.175) has commented on the chain of narrators,

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.175) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.176) has commented on the chain of narrators.

doing so, Rasulullaah www. would indicate to them to leave the boys alone. After completing the salaah, Rasulullaah www. would place them on his lap and say, "Whoever loves me should love these two." (1)

Hadhrat Anas was in Sajdah, Hadhrat Husayn would come and climb on his back. Rasulullaah www would then prolong the Sajdah. When asked why the Sajdah was prolonged, Rasulullaah www would reply, "When my two (grand) children mounted my back, i did not like to get up to quickly." (2)

Rasulullaah Performs Salaah with Hadhrat Umaamah on his shoulders

Hadhrat Abu Qataadah (French that Rasulullaah (French that Rasulullaah) (French that Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah EE Carries Hadhrat Hasan EE and Hadhrat Husayn EE on his shoulders and his Statement about them

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah in arrates that Rasulullaah in once came out to them with Hadhrat Hasan in on one shoulder and Hadhrat Husayn in the other. He was kissing the one and then the other in turn when someone asked, "O Rasulullaah in the name of them were much?" Rasulullaah in the said, "Whoever loves them loves me and whoever hates them hates me." (4)

Rasulullaah Sucks the Tongue of Hadhrat Hasan

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 墨寧寧 once sald, "I have seen Rasulullaah 梁寧 suck his tongue (the tongue of Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali 墨寧寧) and the tongue or lips that Rasulullaah 梁寧 sucked can never suffer any punishment." (5)

The Incident between Rasulullaah A and Hadhrat Aqra Was when Rasulullaah Kissed Hadhrat Hasan

Hadhrat Saa'lb bin Yazeed (1986) narrates that when Rasulullaah (1986) once kissed Hadhrat Hasan (1986), Hadhrat Agra bin Haabis (1986) said, "Although I

- (I) Abu Ya'la and Bazzaar, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'ld (Vol.9 Pg.179). The narration of Bazzaar states that Rasulullaah (20) would embrace the two boys after completing his salaah. Tabraani has reported a similar narration in brief.
- (2) Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 181) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (3) Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.887). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.39) has reported a similar narration.
- (4) Ahmad, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.179) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bazzaar and Ibn Maajah have reported a similar narration in brief.
- (5) Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.177) has commented on the chain of narrators.

have ten children of my own, I have never kissed one of them." To this Rasulullaah * remarked, "Allaah does not show mercy to those who do not show mercy towards people." (1)

Rasulullaah ('s Statement Concerning Children and his Visit to His Son Ibraheem

Hadhrat Aswad bin Khalaf Sizes reports that Rasulullaah (28) once picked up Hadhrat Hasan Sizes, kissed him and then turned to the Sahabah (20) saying, "It is because of his child that a man becomes miserly (towards others), does foolish things and becomes cowardly (fearing for the welfare of his child if anything happens to him)." (2)

Hadhrat Anas Sass says, "Rasulullaah sass was most compassionate towards his family. He had a son (Ibraheem Sass) who was being suckled by the wife of a blacksmith at one end of Madinah. We would go to see the child at times when the house was filled with smoke from the burning of Idhkhir grass (in the furnace). Rasulullaah sass would then kiss the child and smell him." (3)

Rasulullaah Gives Glad Tidings to People who are Compassionate Towards their Children and who Strive to Treat them Equally

Hadhrat Anas with her two little daughters. When Hadhrat Aa'isha with her two little daughters. When Hadhrat Aa'isha with her two little daughters. When Hadhrat Aa'isha with put the third one into her mouth when the girls looked at her (with craving for her date). The mother then broke the date into two parts, gave half to each girl and then left. When Rasulullaah arrived and Hadhrat Aa'isha with narrated to him what the woman had done, he said, "Because of her deed, she shall surely enter Jannah." Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali with reports that a woman once came to Rasulullaah with to beg for food with her two sons. Rasulullaah with gave her three dates, one for each of them. The woman gave one to each child and they both ate theirs. They then started looking at their mother, who then broke her date into two parts, giving half to each of them. To this, Rasulullaah commented, "Allaah shall be merciful towards her as she has been merciful towards her sons, (5)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah sassi narrates that a man once came to Rasulullaah with his child. When the man hugged the child, Rasulullaah asked, "Are you merciful towards him?" When the man replied that he was, Rasulullaah said, "Allaah is more merciful towards you than you are towards your

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.156). Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.887) has reported a similar narration also from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1866).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Baythami (Vol.8 Pg.155).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.56), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.87) has reported a similar narration also from Hadhrat Anas $1006.

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.158) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani in his Sagheer and Kabeer, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.158) has commented on the chain of narrators.

child because He is the Most merciful of those who show mercy." (1)
Hadhrat Anas Anas Anas have a man was sitting with Rasulullaah when his son arrived. The man kissed the boy and seated him on his lap. When his daughter came, he merely seated her in front of him. To this, Rasulullaah reprimanded, "Why have you not treated them equally?" (2)

Honouring One's Neighbour

The Rights of Neighbours According to the Ahadeeth

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Haydah ("You should risit him when he falls ill, attend his funeral when he passes away, give him a loan if he asks for one and conceal his poverty (and help him in a way that no one else comes to know). You should also congratulate him if some good comes his way and sympathise with him when a calamity befalls him. Furthermore, you should not raise your building higher than his so as to obstruct the ventilation of his house and also not distress him by the aroma of your pot (when he has no food) unless you intend dishing out some of the food for him." (3) Another narration adds, "You should provide clothing for him if he has none." (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abdullaah bin Salaam (1966) and his Troublesome Neighbour

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abdullaah bin Salaam says that he once complained to Rasulullaah sit that his neighbour was causing him much trouble. Rasulullaah sit encouraged him to exercise patience. When he again returned with the same complaint, Rasulullaah says gave him the same advice. When he lodged the same complaint for the third time, Rasulullaah said, "Take all your belongings out on the street and whenever anyone asks you what the matter is, tell him that your neighbour is giving you trouble. He will then receive the curses of the people. Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day should honour his neighbour. Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day should honour his guest. Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day should either speak what is good or remain silent." (5)

Rasulullaah Forbids a Person from Accompanying him in Battle because he Had Caused Harm to his Neighbour

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that as Rasulullaah we was once

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.56).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 156) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.165) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.5 Pg.44).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Ma'rifah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.44).

leaving for a battle, he announced, "None who has caused harm to his neighbour should accompany us today." Someone asked, "Turinated at the base of my neighbour's wall." "You will then not accompany us today," Rasulullaah

The Amplified Severity of Committing Adultery with one's Neighbour's Wife and of Stealing from him

Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad har narrates that Rasulullaah once asked the Sahabah har "What do you think of adultery?" They replied, "It is Haraam. Allaah and His Rasool have forbidden it and it will remain Haraam until the Day of Qiyaamah." Rasulullaah the said to them, "The sin of committing adultery with ten women is less severe than that of committing adultery with the neighbour's wife:" Rasulullaah the the asked, "What do you think of stealing?" They replied, "Allaah and His Rasool have forbidden it and it is therefore Haraam." Rasulullaah the said to them, "The sin of stealing from ten homes is less severe than that of stealing from the neighbour's house."

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Dharr Stating that Allaah Loves Three Persons and Detests Three Persons

Hadhrat Mutarrif bin Abdullaah sees says, "I had always been hearing a Hadith narrated by Hadhrat Abu Dharr sees and desired to meet him (to hear the Hadith directly from him). Therefore, when I eventually met Hadhrat Abu Dharr sees one day, I said to him, 'O Abu Dharr! I have been hearing a Hadith that you narrate and have always wished to meet you.' He exclaimed, 'May Allaah bless your father! You have now met me, so come (tell me which Hadith it is).' I replied, 'The Hadith I heard was that Rasulullaah see once told you that Allaah loves three persons and detests three persons.'

Hadhrat Abu Dharr sizes remarked, 'It never even occurs to me to lie about what Rasulullaah sizes said.' I asked, 'Who then are the three persons whom Allaah loves?' He replied, 'The man who strives in the path of Allaah with steadfastness, expecting rewards only from Allaah and then fights until he is martyred. You find mention of him in Allaah's Book that is with you.' He then recited the verse:

(سورة صف آيث ٤)

Verily Allaah loves those (Mu'mineen) who fight (the enemies of Islaam) in His path (standing) in rows (in front of the enemy with steadfastness and unity) as if they are a solid building. {Surah Saff, verse 4} I asked further, "Who else?' he replied, 'The man whose evil neighbour gives him plenty of trouble but he exercises patience until Allaah suffices for him by either life (by changing the behaviour of the neighbour) or death (by taking either one of them from this world)." The Hadith still continues further. [1]

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.170) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani in his Kabeer and Awsat, both reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.168).

Hadhrat Qaasim narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr so once passed by his son Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan so who was busy arguing with his neighbour. Hadhrat Abu Bakr so said to him, "Do not argue with your neighbour because while other people (with whom you argue)will go away, your neighbour will always remain where he is (and you will have to contend with him every day)." (2)

Honouring a Righteous Travel Companion

Rasulullaah Advises Two Sahabah to Honour Hadhrat Rabaah bin Rabee

Hadhrat Rabaah bin Rabee in arrates, "We were on a military expedition with Rasulullaah who had given every three of us a camel to ride. In the desert, two persons would ride while the third drove the camel on form behind. However, in the mountains, all would dismount. Rasulullaah once passed by us while I happened to be walking and asked, I see you walking, O Rabaah? I replied, I have just dismounted, while my two companions have started to ride. Rasulullaah the two of them dismounted and when I passed by, they said, 'Mount the camel, sit at the front and remain there until we return (to Madinah). We shall take turns to ride with you.' When I asked them why they insisted on this arrangement, they replied, 'Rasulullaah is told us that we have a righteous travel companion whom we should treat well."

Treating People According to their Status

The Action of Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) in this Regard

Hadhrat Amr bin Mikhraaq reports that when a man of prominent appearance passed by Hadhrat Aa'isha (to share the meal with her) and he sat down to eat. When another man passed by, she merely gave him a piece of bread. When someone asked her the reason for this, she replied, "Rasulullaah instructed us to treat people according to their status." (4)

Another narration states that when a beggar came to beg from Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006), she had a piece of bread given to him. When a man of prominence then arrived, she allowed him to sit down and share the food she was eating. When

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.171) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, Abu Ubayd In his Ghareeb, Kharaa'iti and Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.44).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.42).

⁽⁴⁾ Khateeb in his Muttafaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.142).

someone asked her the reason for this, she replied, "Rasulullaah (EE) instructed us to treat people according to their status." (1)

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Aa'isha was once on a journey when she had a supper prepared for some people of the Quraysh. When a wealthy man of prominence arrived there, she had him invited. He dismounted, partook of the meal and then left. When a beggar then arrived, she had a piece of bread given to him. Someone asked, "You instructed us to invite the rich man but had a piece of bread given to the beggar?" Hadhrat Aa'isha was replied, "It would have been inappropriate for us to treat the rich man in any manner other than the manner in which we did. When the beggar asked for something, I had someone give him something that would please him. "Rasulullaah instructed us to treat people according to their status," (2)

The narration has already passed in which Hadhrat Ali (Sies) gave a man a set of clothing and a hundred gold coins and said, "I have heard Rasulullaah (Sies), 'Treat people according to their status' and this is the status of this man in my regard." (3)

Greeting a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Agharr from the Muzaynah tribe says, "Rasulullaah once gave instructions for me to have a Jareeb of dates that was with one of the Ansaar. However, when the Ansaari procrastinated, I spoke to Rasulullaah obout it. Rasulullaah of then instructed Hadhrat Abu Bakr of to accompany me the next morning to get the dates. Hadhrat Abu Bakr of promised to meet me at the Masjid after performing the Fajr salaah. I found him where we had arranged to meet and we left. Whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr of saw anyone from far, he greeted him with Salaam. He then said, 'Do you not see the tremendous virtue that others are gaining over you (by beating you to greeting), Never let anyone beat you to making Salaam.' Thereafter, whenever we saw anyone approach from a distance, we would greet him before he could greet us." (5)

Hadhrat Zuhrah bin Khameesa Sies narrates, "I was once riding behind Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sies on the same animal. Whenever we passed by any people and greeted them with Salaam, their reply was longer than our greeting. Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sies remarked, 'People have been overpowering us today."

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, Ibn Khuzaymah, Bazzaar, Abu Ya'la, Abu Nu'aym in his Mustakhraj, Bayhaqi in his Adab and Askari in his Amthaal.

⁽²⁾ Abu, Nu'aym In his Hilya (Vol. 4 Pg. 379). Allaama Zubaydi has commented on the chain of narrators in his commentary of thya (Vol. 6 Pg. 265).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Abu Moosa Madeeni in his Kitaabu (stid'aai) Libaas, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.324).

⁽⁴⁾ A unit of measure used during those days.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer and Awsat, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.206). Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.145), Ibn Jareer, Ahu Nu'ayni and Kharaa'iti have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.52).

Another narration quotes him as saying, "People have surpassed us in great good today." (1)

Hadhrat Umar (Piese reports, "I was once riding behind Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Piese) on the same animal. Whenever he passed by any people and greeted them with the words 'As Salaamu Alaykum', they replied by saying, 'As Salaamu Alaykum wa Rahmatullaah wa Barakaatuh'. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (People have surpassed us tremendously today." (2)

The Advice of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (1966) in this Regard and the Behaviour of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah was once giving a lecture when he said, "Hold fast to patience because in markets that you like and those that you do not because patience is a most excellent quality. This world has certainly attracted you. It is dragging its skirt before you and has put on its dressing and adornments for you. On the other hand, the companions of Muhammad was (were so eager to earn the rewards of the Aakhirah that they) used to sit in their yards saying, "We sit to greet with Salaam and to be greeted." (3)

Hadhrat Anas (assessing once said, "When we were with Rasulullaah (assessing as to separate), we would greet each other with Salaam as soon as we rejoined." (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with Hadhrat Tufayl

Hadhrat Tufayl bin Ubay bin Ka'b narrates, "I used to accompany Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar to the marketplace every morning. When we went there, he would not pass by any hawker, trader, poor person or any other person without greeting them with Salaam. When I went to him one day and he requested me to follow him to the marketplace, I asked, 'What do you do at the marketplace when you do not make any purchases, do not enquire about any product, do not ask prices and do not even participate in the gatherings at the market? Why do we not rather sit here and talk.' Hadhrat Abdullaah was said, "Dear tubby (Hadhrat Tufayl was overweight and the term was one of endearment)! We go there for the sake of Salaam, so that we may greet whoever we meet with Salaam." (5)

The Practice of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Baahili (1986) used to greet everyone he met with

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah.

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.52).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.156).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.207). Bukhaari has reported a similar narration in his Adab (Pg.148).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. t Pg.310), as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.141). Bukhaari has also reported the narration in his Adab (Pg.148).

Salaam. There was none who ever beat him to making Salaam except a Jew who once hid behind a pillar and then surprised him by coming out to greet him. "Shame on you, O Jew!" Hadhrat Abu Umaamah cried out, "What made you do this?" The Jew replied, "I noticed that you are a man who greets very often so I knew that there must be great virtue in it. I therefore wished to have the virtue." Hadhrat Abu Umaamah then said to him, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Verily Allaah has made the Salaam a greeting for (the Muslims of) my Ummah and a security for the Kuffaar living under our (Muslim) rule." (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ziyaad reports, "I was holding the hand of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (Sies) as he proceeded to his house. He did not pass by any Muslim, Christian, youngster or adult without saying 'Salaamun Alaykum', 'Salaamun Alaykum'. When he reached the door of his house, he turned to us and said, 'O son of my brother! Our Nabi (Sies) commanded us to make Salaam common amongst ourselves." (2)

Hadhrat Basheer bin Yasaar says, "None could ever beat Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar to making Salaam." (3)

Replying to a Greeting

The Incident of Rasulullaah with Some of the Hadhrat Salmaan ﴿ الْمَالِّهُ اللهُ

'When you are greeted with a greeting, then reply with a better greeting, or (at least) return (the same greeting).' (Surah Nisaa, verse 86) I therefore returned your greeting (since there was no better reply)." (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha with Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Jibra'eel

Hadhrat Aa'isha was reports that Rasulullaah once said to her, "O

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Yaythami (Vol.8 Pg.33) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.6 Pg.112).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.145)

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.33) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Aa'isha! Jibra'eel الْمُعَلَّكُ السَّادِ أَرْبَعْنَا اللهُ

The Incident of Rasulullaah W with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah W w

Hadhrat Anas المنافذة عليه المالية المنافذة الم

"May the pious eat your food, may the angels pray for you and may fasting people end their fasts with you." (2)

Hadhrat Anas المحافظة المحافظ

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar with Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Jubayr reports that Hadhrat Umar street once passed

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.33).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Abu Dawood has reported a part of the narration.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.34).

by Hadhrat Uthmaan was and greeted him. Hadhrat Uthmaan who however did not reply to the greeting. Hadhrat Umar was proceeded immediately to Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and complained to him about this. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr was asked Hadhrat Uthmaan who had had not reply to the greeting, Hadhrat Uthmaan was explained, "By Allaah! I did not even hear him because I was so deep in thought." "What was it that you were deliberating upon?" enquired Hadhrat Abu Bakr was. Hadhrat Uthmaan were deliberating upon?" enquired Hadhrat Abu Bakr was. Hadhrat Uthmaan was replied, "About opposing Shaytaan. He was plaguing my mind with thoughts that I do not even wish to express for all the wealth of the world. When he cast these thoughts in my heart, I said to myself, "If only I had asked Rasulullaah was about how we could save ourselves from these thoughts of Shaytaan!"

Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I expressed the very concern and question to Rasulullaah saying, 'How can we save ourselves from the thoughts that Shaytaan casts within us?' Rasulullaah see replied, "The very same thing that I told my uncle (Abu Taalib) to say on his deathbed will save you if you say the same words. He however, did not say them."(1)

"O Khalifah of Rasulullaah (2004) I have some shocking news for you! When I passed by Uthmaan (2004) and greeted him, he did not even reply."

In a more lengthy narration, Hadhrat Uthmaan Says, "When Umar went to Abu Bakr Says, he said, 'O Khalifah of Rasulullaah Say! I have some shocking news for you! When I passed by Uthmaan Says and greeted him, he did not even reply.' Taking Umar Says by the hand, Abu Bakr Says came to me and asked, 'O Uthmaan! Your brother Umar Says has come to me saying that when he passed you and greeted you, you did not reply. What is the reason for this?' 'But I did no such thing, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah Say!' I defended. 'You certainly did,' Umar Says asserted, 'By Allaah! This pride is an old tradition of you Banu Umayyah!' 'By Allaah!' I protested, 'I have no idea that you even passed by me or that you greeted me with Salaam.'

Abu Bakr then bore me out saying, 'You have spoken the truth. It appears to me that something on your mind had distracted you from realising what had happened.' That is indeed so,' I confirmed. When Abu Bakr saked me what it was, I replied, 'Rasulullaah passed away without me asking him what it was in which the salvation of this Ummah lay. I was engrossed in this thought, startled at my negligence at this.' Abu Bakr said, 'I have asked Rasulullaah about this and he informed me what it is.' "What is it?' I begged to know, He replied, I posed the question to him, saying, 'O Rasulullaah in what does the salvation of this Ummah lay?' Rasulullaah is replied, 'Whoever accepts from me the words that I offered to my uncle but which he refused, those words shall be his salvation.' The words that Rasulullaah in offered to his uncle was to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is the Rasul sent by Allaah (i.e. the Kalimah 'Laa Ilaaha Illailaah Muhammadur Rasulullaah (i.e.). "(2)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.74).

^{(2) (}bn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.312).

The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Says, "I once passed by Uthmaan bin Affaan in the Masjid and greeted him. Although he could see me clearly, he still did not reply to my greeting. I then approached Ameerul Mu'mineen Umar bin Khattaab Says and twice asked, 'Has anything new developed in Islaam?' 'What has happened?' he asked. 'Nothing much,' I replied, 'except the fact that when I passed by Uthmaan Says in the Masjid and greeted him, he did not reply even though he could clearly see me.' Umar Says then sent for Uthmaan Says and asked, 'What prevented you from replying to your brother's Salaam?' When Uthmaan Says denied doing such a thing and I insisted that he did, he swore that he did not while I swore that he did. When the thought struck him, Uthmaan says exclaimed, 'I seek Allaah's forgiveness and return to Him! When you passed by me just now, I was engrossed in thinking about something that Rasulullaah Says once said. By Allaah! Whenever I remember these words, my eyes and heart are engulfed by a veil."

Hadhrat Uthmaan was then said, "Let me tell you what it was. Rasulullaah was about to mention to us how to begin a du'aa when a Bedouin arrived and distracted him so much that he then got up (without completing what he was going to tell us). I then followed Rasulullaah as and when I feared that he would enter his room before I reached him, I stamped my feet hard on the ground (as I walked). Turning towards me, Rasulullaah as asked, 'Who is that? Is that Abu Is'haa?Q' 'Yes, it is I, O Rasulullaah se, 'I replied. 'What is it then?' he asked. I said, 'Nothing much except that you were about to mention to us how to begin a du'aa when that Bedouin arrived and distracted you.' 'O yes,' Rasulullaah said, 'It is the du'aa of the man of the fish (Hadhrat Yunus when he was in the belly of the fish, (the words are):

'There is no Ilaah but You (O Allaah). You are Pure. I have certainly been from among the wrongdoers.'

Whenever a Muslim makes du'aa to Allaah with these words, Allaah will certainly accept his du'aa.^{m(1)}

Conveying Salaams

The Incident of Hadhrat Salmaan with Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais with Jareer bin Abdullaah with

Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais was and Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.68) has commented on the chain of narrators. Tirnidhi has reported a portion of the end, while Abu Ya'ia and Tabraani have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Liminad (Vol.1 Pg.298).

Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah Bajali مصدد went to see Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi المستدد When they came to him in a fortress in a corner of Madaa'in, they greeted him with the words "المستدد " ("May Allaah keep you alive"). They then asked, "Are you Salmaan Faarsi?" When he replied that he was, they asked further, "Are you the companion of Rasulullaah المستدد " am not sure," he replied. This put them in doubt and they said, "Perhaps you are not the person we want." Hadhrat Salmaan ولا المستدد

The two Sahabah  explained, "We have come to you from one of your brothers in Shaam." "Who is he?" Hadhrat Salmaan  enquired. When they informed him that it was Hadhrat Abu Dardaa  Hadhrat Salmaan  asked, "Then where is my gift that he has sent with you?" "He has not sent any gift with us," they averred. Hadhrat Salmaan  warned them saying, "Fear Allaah and hand over the trust that has been given to you! None has come to me from him without a gift for me." The two reasoned with him saying, "Please do not file a case against us for this. We have much wealth with us and you may choose whatever you want from it." "But I do not want your wealth," Hadhrat Salmaan  Salmaan  Said. "All I want is the gift that he has sent with you."

"By Allaah!" they swore, "He has sent us with nothing but these words: 'Amongst you is a certain man. Whenever Rasulullaah was alone with him, Rasulullaah was wanted no one else. When you go to him, do convey my Salaams to him." Hadhrat Salmaan when said, "This was the only gift that I wanted from you. What gift can be better than Salaam, which is a blessed and pure greeting from Allaah?" (1)

Shaking Hands and Embracing

Narrations of Hadhrat Jundub (1996), Hadhrat Abu Dharr (1996) Abu Hurayrah (1996) Concerning the Practice of Rasulullaah (1996) With Regard to Shaking Hands

Hadhrat Jundub (Saiss says, "When meeting his companions, Rasulullaah (Saisser shook their hands until he had first greeted them with Salaam." (2) Someone once asked Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Saisser, "I want to ask you about a Hadith of Rasulullaah (Saisser, "Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Saisser, "I shall then narrate it to you unless it is a secret." The person then asked, "Was Rasulullaah (Saisser, in the habit of shaking your hands when you met him?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Saisser, "There was never a time that I met him without him shaking my (1) Tabraani. Haythami (Yol. 8 Pg. 40) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.201).

(2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.36) has commented on the chain of narrators.

hand."(1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Sissi narrates that when Rasulullaah sissi once met Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan sissi and was going to shake his hand, Hadhrat Hudhayfah sissi turned away saying, "I am in a state of impurity." Rasulullaah sissi said to him, "When a Muslim meets his brother Muslim and shakes his hand, their sins are shed off just as leaves are shed off a tree." (2)

Narrations of Hadhrat Anas and Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning the Practice of Rasulullaah With Regard to Embracing and his Prohibition from Bowing

Hadhrat Anas (Fig. 1) reports that the Sahabah (Fig. 2) once asked, "O Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) Can we bow to each other (when greeting)?" "No," came the reply. They then asked, "Can we then embrace each other?" When Rasulullaah (Fig. 2) again said "No", they asked, "Can we then shake each other's hands?" This time, Rasulullaah (Fig. 3)

Hadhrat Anas Anas Anarates that someone once asked, "O Rasulullaah Anarates that someone once asked, "O Rasulullaah Anarates that someone once asked, "O Rasulullaah Anarates that someone once asked, "O Rasulullaah Anarates that and kiss him?" the Sahabi Anarates asked further. Again, Rasulullaah Anarates asked, "No." He then asked, "Can he then take his hand and shake it?" "This he may do," replied Rasulullaah Anarates asked, "Can he then embrace him and kiss him?" Rasulullaah Anarates asked, "Can he then embrace him and kiss him?" Rasulullaah Anarates asked, "No, unless he has returned from a journey." (5)

Hadhrat Aa'isha was narrates, "Rasulullaah was in my house when Zaid bin Haaritha arrived in Madinah. When Zaid was came to meet Rasulullaah and knocked at the door, Rasulullaah sood up (in great excitement), dragging his clothing along with him but without wearing anything (over his upper body). By Allaah! I have never before or ever after seen Rasulullaah sood like this. Rasulullaah then embraced Zaid sood and kissed him."

The Practice of the Sahabah With Regard to Shaking Hands and Embracing Hadhrat Anas says, "It was the practice of the Sahabah to shake hands when meeting each other and embracing when returning from a journey."

(7)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Rooyaani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.54).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 37) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Daar Qutni and (bn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.54).

⁽⁴⁾ Tirmidhi (Vol.2 Pg.97).

⁽⁵⁾ Razeen, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.142).

⁽⁶⁾ Tirmidhi (Vol.2 Pg.97).

⁽⁷⁾ Tahraani in his Awsat, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.36).

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when Hadhrat Umar with thought of one of his companions during the night, he would sigh, "Oh how long is the night!" Then after performing the Fajr salaah, he would hurry to the person and embrace him as soon as he met him. (1)

Hadhrat Urwa (Fig. 7) reports that when Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 7) arrived in Shaam, the common people as well as the leaders came to meet him. "Where is my brother?" Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 7) asked. "Who is he?" the people enquired. "Abu Ubaydah," replied Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 7). The people said, "Here he comes." When Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (Fig. 7) came, Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 7) descended from his animal and embraced him. The narration continues and will soon be quoted. (2)

Kissing the Hand, Foot and Head of a Muslim

Rasulullaah Kisses Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abu Taalib

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abu Taalib is met Rasulullaah as he was returning from Khaybar. Rasulullaah embraced him and kissed him between the eyes saying, "I don't know whether it is the arrival of Ja'far or the conquest of Khaybar that makes me happier." Another narration states that Rasulullaah pulled Hadhrat Ja'far it towards him and embraced him. (3)

The Sahabah Kiss the Hands and Feet of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Razeen reports that Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa Said, "It is with these hands of mine that I pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah $35." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan says further that when they then kissed Hadhrat Salamah $35.55 hands, he did not stop them. (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Fig. 1) reports that he kissed Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) hands. (5) Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 3) also reports that he kissed Rasulullaah (Fig. 3) hands. (6)

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik (1968) narrates that when the verses of the Qur'aan were revealed to confirm his forgiveness (for failing to participate in the expedition to Tabook), he went to Rasulullaah (1978) and kissed his hands.

Hadhrat Zaari bin Aamir Siss reports that when they arrived in Madinah and

⁽¹⁾ Muhaamili, as guoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 42).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg. 101).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.34).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg.42).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.42) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Dawood has reported a similar narration, as quoted by Iraaqi (Vol.2 Pg.181).

⁽⁶⁾ Jam'ul Fawaa'ld (Vol.2 Pg.143).

⁽⁷⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.42) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Bakt bin Muqri has reported a similar narration, as quoted by trasql (Vol.2 Pg.181).

Rasululiaah was pointed out to them, they started kissing his hands and feet. (1)

Hadhrat Mazeedah Abdi Sissi reports that Hadhrat Ashaj Sissi walked up to Rasulullaah Rasu

Hadhrat Umar Kisses the Head of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Kisses and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah Kisses the Hand of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abu Rajaa Utaaridi says, "When I arrived in Madinah, I beheld a gathering at the centre of which a man was kissing the head of another man saying, 'We would have been destroyed had it not been for you.' When I enquired who the man kissing was, I was informed that he was Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab who was kissing the head of Hadhrat Abu Bakr was for fighting the renegades who had refused to pay zakaah." (Hadhrat Abu Bakr was the only one who saw the need for this when all the other Sahabah with did not see its necessity.) (3)

Hadhrat Tameem bin Salamah reports that when Hadhrat Umar Sission arrived in Shaam, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Sission welcomed him, shook his hand and kissed it. The two men then sat by themselves and wept. Hadhrat Tameem always maintained that kissing the hand of pious people is Sunnah. (4)

Kissing the Hand of Hadhrat Waathilah bin Asqa to Attain Blessings of the pledge of allegiance it took With Rasulullaah Hadhrat Yahya bin Haarith Dhimaari says, "When I met Hadhrat Waathilah bin Asqa ("Was it with these hands that you pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah ("") When he confirmed that it was, I said, 'Bring them here so that I may kiss them.' He then gave me his hand and I kissed it." (5)

Hadhrat Yunus bin Maysarah narrates that they once went to visit an ailing Yazeed bin Aswad when Hadhrat Waathilah bin Asqa (1986) also arrived there. When he saw him, Yazeed stretched out his hand and took the hand of Hadhrat Waathilah (1986). He then passed Hadhrat Waathilah (1986) is hand over his face and chest because it was with that hand that Hadhrat Waathilah

⁽I) Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg. 144)

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.86).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.350).

⁽⁴⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, Kharaa'ti in his Makaarimul Akhlaaq, Bayhaqi and ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg 54).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol 8 Pg.42) has commented on the chain of narrators had pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah (SE. Hadhrat Waathilah Sassed, "O Yazeed! How are your expectations of your Rabb?" "Good," replied Yazeed. Hadhrat Waathilah (See then said, "Glad tidings for you! I have heard Rasulullaah (See say, 'Allaah says, 'I treat my slaves according to their expectations of Me. If their expectations are good, I treat them well and if it is bad, I shall treat them badly."(1)

Kissing the Hands of Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa Bios, Hadhrat Anas Bios and Hadhrat Abbaas Bios

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Razeen says, "As we were passing Rabdha, Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa was pointed out to us. I approached him and when we greeted him, he showed us his hands saying, "It is with these hands that I pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah ." The palm he extended was as large as the foreleg of a came! We then stood up and started kissing his hand." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Jad'aan narrates that Hadhrat Thaabit once asked Hadhrat Anas Sies, "Did you ever touch Nabi Sies with your hand?" When Hadhrat Anas Sies said that he did, Hadhrat Thaabit kissed his hand. (3)

Hadhrat Suhayb 劉德德 says that he saw Hadhrat Ali 多陽縣 kiss the hand and feet of Hadhrat Abbaas 劉德德 (4)

Standing Out of Respect for a Muslim

Rasulullaah Welcomes his Daughter Hadhrat Faatima Wes and She Welcomes him

Hadhrat Aa'isha was narrates that she had not seen anyone who resembled Rasulullaah was more in his speech and mannerisms than (his daughter) Hadhrat Faatima was. Whenever Rasululiaah saw her arrive, he would welcome her, stand up and kiss her. He would then take her by her hand and take her with him to sit where he had been sitting. In a like manner, whenever he went to her, she would also welcome him, stand up and kiss him. When she came to see him during his final illness, he welcomed her and kissed her. He then whispered something to her and she started weeping. Thereafter, he again whispered something to her and she started to laugh.

Hadhrat Aa'isha marrates further, "I then said to some other women, 'I had always believed that this lady was superior to other women, but it appears that she is just like other women because while weeping, she suddenly started to laugh.' When I asked her what it was that Rasulullaah said to her, she replied, '(If I told you) I would then be disclosing a secret.' However, after Rasulullaah passed away, she said, 'I started to weep when Rasulullaah

⁽I) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.306).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari in his Adabul Mufrid (Pg.144). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.39) has reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg. 144).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari in his Adah (Pg.144).

whispered to me that he was going to pass away. I then became happy when he informed me that I would be the first of his family to meet him."(1)

The Sahabah (Allies) Stand up for Rasulullaah (Allies) Hadhrat Hilaal (California) (narrates from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Saisse who) says that whenever Rasulullaah (their gathering), they stood up for him and would not sit until he entered his room. (2)

Rasulullaah Prohibits the Sahabah From Standing up for him

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Sass says, "When Rasulullaah Res once came out to us taking support from his staff, we stood up for him. He then said, "Do not stand up as the non-Arabs stand up in honour of each other." (3)

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit sussi narrates that when Rasulullaah so once came out to them, Hadhrat Abu Bakr sussi (may Allaah shower His mercy upon him) said, "Stand up and seek help from Rasulullaah si in your case against the hypocrite." However, Rasulullaah si said, "None should stand! Allaah is the only One for Whom people ought to stand up." (4)

The Practice of the Sahabah 經過過 in this regard

Hadhrat Anas Sass, "There was none whom the Sahabah loved to see more than Rasulullaah sass. Despite this, they would not stand up for him when they saw him because they knew that he disliked it." (5)

Hadhrat Naafi reports from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar that Rasulullaah forbade a person from making another stand up from his place and then sitting in the same place. Therefore, whenever someone stood up from his place for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar the would not sit there. (6)

Hadhrat Abu Khaalid Waalibi says that when Hadhrat Ali (1996) once came out to them, they stood waiting for him to go ahead. Hadhrat Ali (1996) reprimanded them saying, "Why do I see you people standing with your chests out (like soldiers)?" (7)

Hadhrat Abu Mijlaz reports that when Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out while Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir (Came out while Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir (Came out while Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir (Came out while Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (Came out while Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger out who was the larger of the two remained sitting, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Came out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who was the larger out who wa

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.138).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.8 Pg.40).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.55). Abu Dawood has also reported the narration, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.143).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 40) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.138), Tirmidhi, Ahmad and Abu Dawood have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.57).

⁽⁶⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.169). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.120) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁷⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.6 Pg.28).

for himself a house in Jahannam." (1)

Shifting Oneself for Another Muslim Rasulullaah Eshifts for a Person who Entered the Masjid

Hadhrat Waathila bin Khattaab Qurashi reports that a person once entered the Masjid when Rasulullaah was there by himself, Rasulullaah shifted from his place for the man. When someone commented that there was enough space for the man (and Rasulullaah did did not need to move), Rasulullaah said, "It is the right of a Mu'min that his brother should shift from his place when he sees him arrive."

Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa Ama narrates that Rasulullaah was all alone in the Masjid when a man entered. When Rasulullaah shifted for the man, someone asked, "O Rasulullaah shifted for the man, someone asked, "O Rasulullaah shifted for the man, someone asked, "O Rasulullaah shifted for the man, which was the plant of a Muslim." (3) The narration has already passed (4) in which Hadhrat Abu Bakr shifted from his place for Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib shifted, saying, "Come here, O Abul Hasan." Hadhrat Ali shifted from his place for Hadhrat Abi between Rasulullaah shifted and Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Honouring the Person Sitting with One

Statements of the Sahabah (in this Regard

Hadhrat Katheer bin Murra says, "I once entered the Masjid on a Friday where I found Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee (See) sitting in a gathering with his legs stretched out before him. When he saw me arrive, he folded his legs in and said, "Do you know why I had stretched out my legs? I did it so that some pious person should come and sit here." (5)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abbaad bin Ja'far narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ("The person I have the most respect for is the one with whom I am sitting." Hadhrat Ibn Abi Mulaykah reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ("The person I have the most respect for is the one with whom I am sitting, even though he steps over people's shoulders to sit with me." (6)

Accepting the Hospitality of a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali with Two Men

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far narrates that when two men went to see Hadhrat Ali sales, he threw a cushion to each of them. While the one man sat on the cushion, the

⁽I) Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.144).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.55).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.40) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "Honouring the Household Members of Rasulullaah r's Family" and the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1966) Honours Hadhrat Ali (1966) and Vacates his Place for him".

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.167).

⁽⁶⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.167).

other sat on the ground. Addressing the man sitting on the ground, Hadhrat Ali said, "Get up and sit on the cushion because it is only a donkey who refuses hospitality." (1)

Concealing the Secret of a Muslim

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Conceals Rasulullaah Secret Concerning Marrying Hadhrat Hafsah

Hadhrat Umar in arrates, "My daughter Hafsah was widowed when her husband Khunays bin Hudhaafah Sahmi passed away in Madinah. He was a companion of Rasulullaah who participated in the Battle of Badr. When I met Abu Bakr is said, 'If you agree, I would like to get you married to Hafsah the daughter of Umar.' He however gave me no reply. It was only a few days later that Rasulullaah for met me thereafter and I married her to Rasulullaah had bakr imarried met me thereafter and said, 'You may have been angry with me when you proposed that I marry Hafsah and I gave no reply?' When I confirmed that I was, he explained, 'The only thing that prevented me from giving you a reply was that I had heard Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of (proposing for) her and I did not wish to reveal Rasulullaah make mention of the make mention of the make mention of the make mention of the make mention of the ma

Hadhrat Anas Conceals Rasulullaah Secret

Hadhrat Anas Felates, "I was in Rasulullaah Felates service one day and when I had completed, I thought to myself that since Nabi Felates is having his siesta. I may as well leave. I then saw some children playing and stood there watching them play. Rasulullaah then came where the children were, greeted them and then called for me. He then sent me on an errand that remains in my mouth (because it was a secret). By the time I eventually reported back to Rasulullaah (after completing the errand), I was late in returning to my mother. "What kept you up?" she enquired. When I informed her that Rasulullaah had sent me on an errand and she asked what it was, I replied, 'It is Rasulullaah ses secret.' She then said, 'Then conceal the secret of Rasulullaah ses'. I have therefore not informed a soul about the errand. (Then addressing his student Hadhrat Thaabit Banaani, Hadhrat Anas Said,) If there was anyone I would tell, it would be you." (3)

Honouring Orphans

The Advice Rasulullaah 🕮 gave To Soften a hard Heart

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Fig. 1) reports that when a man once complained to

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Vanzul Ummaal (Vol. 5 Pg. 55).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.361). Ahmad, Ibn Sa'd, Bukhaari, Nasa'ee, Bayhaqi, Abu Ya'la and Ibn Hibbaan have also reported the narration with additions, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.120).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaati in his Adab (Pg.169). Bukhaati has reported a similar narration in his Saheeh as has Muslim, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.148).

Rasulullaah (## about his hard heartedness, Rasulullaah (## said, "Pass your hand over the head of an orphan and feed a poor person." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (The Complained to Rasulullaah (The Complained to Rasulullaah (The Complained to Rasulullaah (The Complained to Rasulullaah (The Complained to Rasulullaah (The Complained The Complai

The Incident of Hadhrat Basheer bin Aqrabah with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Basheer bin Aqrabah Juhani ("") relates, "On the day the Battle of Uhud was fought, I asked Rasulullaah ("") What has happened to my father?" Rasulullaah ("") replied, "He has been martyred. May Allaah shower His mercy on him." When I started to weep, Rasulullaah ("") picked me up, passed his hand over my head and put me with him on his animal saying, "Will you not like me to be your father and Aa'isha to be your mother?" (3)

Honouring The Friends of One's Father Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Honours a Bedouin whose Father was a Friend of Hadhrat Umar Honouring

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar had a donkey that he took along with him when travelling to Makkah. He would use the donkey to rest or when the camels grew tired. He also had with him a turban that he tied on his head (on the journey). As he was riding the donkey one day, a Bedouin happened to pass by. "Are you not so-and-so?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar had asked. When the man confirmed that he was the person, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar gave him the donkey saying, "Ride this away." He also handed him the turban saying, "Tie this to your head." One of his companions remarked, "May Allah forgive yout You have given him the donkey you rest upon as well as the turban you tie on your head?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah says, 'Indeed the best act of virtue is for a man to maintain good ties with those who were close to his father after his father's death.' This man's father was a close friend of (my father) Umar had to rest to the says of the

Another narration adds that someone asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Would (giving him) two Dirhams not suffice?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Wow replied, "Nabi See said, 'Care for your father's associates and do not

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.160).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.160) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.161) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bukhaari has reported a similar narration in his Taareekh, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.153), Ibn Mandah and Ibn Asaakir have also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.146).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Muslim, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg. 169).

severe ties with them, otherwise Allaah shall extinguish your Noor." (1)

Treating Parents well after their Demise

Hadhrat Abu Usayd Saa'idi in arrates that someone once asked, "Rasulullaah is I is there any good treatment that I may give to my parents after their demise?" Rasulullaah is replied, "Certainly. Make du'aa for them, seek Allaah's forgiveness for them, fulfil their promises, maintain the ties you have through them and honour their friends." (2)

Accepting the Invitation of a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari and Other Soldiers at Sea

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin An'am Afriqi reports that they were once at sea as soldiers during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya when their vessel joined up with that of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari when their lunch was served, they invited Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob was, who said, "You are inviting me when I am fasting. It is however, imperative for me to accept your invitation because I heard Rasulullaah see say, 'Six rights are incumbent for a Muslim to fulfil towards his fellow Muslim brother. Should he neglect one of them, he has neglected an compulsory right due to his brother. (These are) He should greet him when he meets him, he should accept his invitation, he should respond to his sneeze (by saying 'Yarhamu Kallaah'), he should visit him when he falls ill, he should attend his funeral and he should give him good advice when he asks for it." The narration continues further. (3)

Some Statements of the Sahabah (in this Regard

Hadhrat Humayd bin Nu'aym narrates that when Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab and Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan were once invited to a meal, they both accepted the invitation. Astheywere leaving, Hadhrat Umar wise said to Hadhrat Uthmaan wife, "Although I attended the meal, I wish that I had not." "Why is that?" Hadhrat Uthmaan was asked. Hadhrat Umar weep replied, "Because I fear that it was hosted for show."

When he was the Ameerul Mu'mineen, Hadhrat Uthmaan was invited when Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba was got married. When Hadhrat Uthmaan arrived, he said, "Although I am fasting, I wished to accept the invitation and to pray for blessings." (5)

Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi some said, "When your friend, neighbour or relative who works for the state gives you a gift or invites you for a meal, you should accept (even though you doubt the legality of his earnings). (If the earnings are actually illegal) This is something you will attain without any effort

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.9).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood,

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.134).

^{(4) (}bn Mubaarak and Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.66).

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, as Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.66).

while the sin (of the unlawful earnings) will be his." (1)

Removing an Obstacle from the Path of a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Ma'qal Muzani and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra says, "I was once with Ma'qal Muzani when he removed an obstacle from the road. When I later saw something else (on the road), I beat him to removing it. What made you do that, O son of my brother?' he enquired. I replied, 'I did something that I had seen you do.' He then remarked, 'You have done well, O son of my brother! I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Whoever removes an obstacle from the path of the Muslims shall have the rewards of a good deed recorded in his favour and whoever has even a single good deed accepted (by Allaah) shall enter Jannah." (2)

Responding to a Sneeze

The Guidance Rasulullaah gave in this Regard Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar narrates that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah when he sneezed. When the Sahabah responded by saving: (ارْعَتْ اللهُ) (Yar-Hamu Kallaah), Rasulullaah said:

"May Allaah guide you and set all your affairs right." (3)

"May Allaah guide you and set all your affairs right." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减多 says, "Rasulullaah 優麗 taught us to respond whenever someone sneezed." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood هُ الله also mentioned, "Rasulullaah الله taught us that whenever anyone sneezed, he should say: (الْفَنَدُ لِلّٰهِ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينِ) (Alhamdu

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.66).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.87).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 57) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad and Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.57) has commented on the chain of narrators, (bn Jareer and Bayhagi have reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha 22226, as quoted in Kanzul Ummad (Vol.5 Pg.56).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.57).

لَنَّرُعُنُكُ . Lillaahi Rabbil Aalameen'). When he says this, those with him should say,: النَّهُ (Yar-Hamu Kallaah'). When they then say this, he (the one who sneezed) should reply by saying: (النَّهُ اللهُ لِي نَكُمُ (Yagh Firullaahu Li wa Lakum')."(1)

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah المنافعة reports that a person once sneezed next to Rasulullaah المنافعة s room and then said, (المنافعة الله '(Alhamdu Lillaah)". To this, Rasulullaah عنافية said, (المنافعة الله said, (المنافعة الله said, المنافعة الله said, المنافعة الله said, المنافعة said, (المنافعة الله said, المنافعة said, المنافعة soom. This person said, المنافعة الله soom. This person said, المنافعة الله soom. This person said, المنافعة (Alhamdu Lillaah Katheeran Tayyiban Mubaarakan Fee')". To this, Rasulullaah عنافية responded by saying, "This man has superceded the other by nineteen stages." (2)

Rasulullaah الله Prohibits Replying to the Sneeze of Someone who does not say (الله مُعُمُلُلِكُ) "('Alhamdu Lillaah')"

Hadhrat Anas المنطقة reports that when two persons sneezed in the presence of Rasulullaah ه he replied to the one and not to the other. When he was asked about this, he replied, "Whereas the one said (المنطقة) " (Alhamdu Lillaah), the other did not." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah المتعاددة المعاددة ### The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Abu Burdah (5) narrates, "I once went to (my father) Abu Moosa (5) when he was at the home of Ummu Fadhl bin Abbaas (5) When I happened to sneeze, he did not reply to my sneeze but when she sneezed, he replied to her sneeze. I informed my mother about this and when he came to her, she took him to task saying, "When my son sneezed, you did not reply to his sneeze but when that lady sneezed, you replied to her sneeze?!' Abu Moosa (5) Thave heard Rasulullaah (6) Say, When any of you sneezes and

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.57) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.56).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim, Abu Dawood and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg. 145).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.58) has commented on Ahmad's chain of narrators. Bukhaari has also reported the narration in his Adab (Pg.136), as has Bayhaqi, Ibn Shaaheen and Ibn Najjaar, as guoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.57).

⁽⁵⁾ The lady was most probably Bint Fadhl bin Abaas ($2006), one of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

then says (الْتُعَنِيْلِيُّةُ) ('Alhamdu Lillaah'), you should reply to his sneeze. You should however not reply to his sneeze, when he does not say (الْتُعَنِيُّلِيُّةُ) ('Alhamdu Lillaah'). 'Therefore, when my son sneezed and did not say (الْتُعَنِيُّلِيُّةُ) ('Alhamdu Lillaah'), i did not reply to his sneeze. On the other hand, when the lady sneezed, she said (الْتُعَنِيُّلِيُّهُ) ('Alhamdu Lillaah') and replied to her sneeze.' 'You have done well,' my mother nodded in approval.

The Practices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar signs and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in this Regard Hadhrat Makhool Azdi reports that he was once with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar المرحدة in the Masjid when someone sneezed in the corner of the Masjid. To this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar الرحدة (Yar-Hamu Kallaah) المرحدة (Yar-Hamu Kallaah) المرحدة المعادية (Alhamdu Lillaah)." (أا)

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that whenever anyone replied to the sneeze of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Yar-Hamu Kallaah)', he would say:

"May Allaah shower us and you with His mercy and may He forgive us and you."(2)
Hadhrat Naafi also reports that when a man once sneezed in front of Hadhrat
Abdullaah bin Umar عنده (Alhamdu Lillaah), Hadhrat
Abdullaah bin Umar المحافظة remarked, "You have acted in a very miserly fashion!
Why did you not also sent salutations on Rasulullaah (recite Durood) when you said (المحافظة)(Alhamdu Lillaah)?" (3)

Hadhrat Dahhaak bin Qais Yashkari says, "When a man once sneezed in front of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar المُعْنَاتُةُ and said ('Alhamdu Lillaah'), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar المعادية remarked, "Why did you not complete it by sending salutations to Rasulullaah ('by reciting Durood and Salaam)?" (4)

Hadhrat Abu Jamara narrates that he once heard Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas

"May Allaah shower us and you with His mercy and may He forgive us and you."(5)

Visiting the Ill and What to say to them

Rasulullaah W Visits Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam Arqam And Hadhrat Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas

Hadhrat Zaid bin Argam 墨崎崎 says, "Rasulullaah 優麗 once visited me when I

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaati in his Adab (Pg. 136).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaql, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.51). Bukhaari has reported a similar narration in his Adab (Pg.136).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqí,

⁽⁴⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.57).

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.135).

was suffering from an eye infection," (1)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waggaas Saws, "During the year in which the farewell Hajj was performed, Rasulullaah & visited me when I fell extremely ill. I then said to him, 'My illness has become extremely severe and I being a wealthy man have none besides my daughter to inherit from me. (Since a third will be sufficient for her) May I then donate two thirds of my wealth towards Sadagah? 'No,' replied Rasulullaah & . 'May I then donate half?' I asked. When Rasulullaah again replied in the negative, I asked, 'Then how much?' Rasulullaah (A replied, 'A third, And a third is also plenty. It is better for you to leave your heirs wealthy than to leave them destitute and stretching their arms out to people. Whenever you spend anything for the pleasure of Allaah, you will be rewarded for it, even for that (morsel of food) which you place in your wife's mouth.' I then said, 'O Rasulullaah 認識! Will I be left behind with my companions (to die here in Makkah while they return to Madinah)?' Rasulullaah said, 'You will not be left behind, Every good deed you do will increase your status and your honour and while many nations will be greatly benefited by you, there will be others (the enemies of the Muslims) who will suffer at your hands.' (Rasulullaah : then prayed.) O Allaah! Allow the Hijrah of my companions to be completed and never let them turn back on their heels. (This du'aa I am making) especially for Sa'd bin Khowlah (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Wagqaas (1986)." Rasulullaah (felt pity for me that I should die in Makkah." (2)

Rasulullaah Wisits Hadhrat Jaabir

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah says, "When I once fell ill, Rasulullaah says, "When I once fell ill, Rasulullaah says came with Hadhrat Abu Bakr says to visit me. They both arrived on foot but found me unconscious. Rasulullaah says then performed wudhu and sprinkled the wudhu water on me. I then recovered consciousness and when I saw Rasulullaah says there, I asked, 'O Rasulullaah says What should I do with my wealth? How should I wrap up my estate?' Rasulullaah says gave no reply until the verses of inheritance were revealed." (3)

Rasulullaah W Visits Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah W S

Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid sees reports that Rasulullaah sees once mounted a donkey saddled with a carriage that was covered in shawl made in Fidak. Rasulullaah sees then mounted Hadhrat Usaama sees behind him and rode off to visit Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah sees. Rasulullaah sees then rode by a gathering in which Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool was present. Since this was before the Battle of Badr, Abdullaah bin Ubay had not yet expressed his (false) conversion to Islaam. The gathering included mostly of Muslims, Mushrikeen, idol-worshippers and Jews. Amongst them was also Hadhrat Abdullaah bin

⁽¹⁾ Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.124).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.173) and Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.39).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Saheeh (Vol.2 Pg.843) and his Adab (Pg.75).

Rawaaha (When the dust kicked up by the animal engulfed the gathering, Abdullaah bin Ubay covered his nose with his shawl saying, "Do not kick dust on us!"

Rasulullaah see then greeted, stopped and dismounted. He invited them towards Allaah and also recited the Qur'aan to them. Abdullaah bin Ubay responded by sneering, "Dear man! If what you say is the truth, there can be nothing better than it. However, do not disturb us with it in our gatherings. Rather return to your home and address those of us who come to you."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha then said, "Do carry on, O Rasulullaah less to Continue coming to us in our gatherings because we enjoy it." The Muslims, Mushrikeen and Jews then started hurling abuse at each other until matters reached such a head that they almost came to blows. All the time, Rasulullaah secontinued calming them until they all fell still. Rasulullaah then mounted his animal and when he entered the home of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah secontinued, "O Sa'd! Did you hear what Abu Hubaab just said?" Here Rasulullaah secontinued to Abdullah bin Ubay. Hadhrat Sa'd second, "Forgive him, Rasulullaah second overlook what he said. Allaah has given you (the status and honour) He has granted you whereas (just before you arrived) the people of this city had unanimously decided to crown him and to make him their chief. This was however put off by the truth that Allaah sent with you and this has stuck in his throat. It is because of this (jealousy for you) that he is doing what you see." (1)

Rasulullaah W Visits a Bedouin

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 密障師 reports that Rasulullaah 認識 once visited a villager. Whenever Rasulullaah 認識 visited a sick person, he would say:

"Do not worry, this is a means of cleansing sins if Allaah wills"
Rasulullaah E* therefore said this to the villager, who in turn said, "A means of cleansing sins?! Never! This fever has attacked an old man very viciously and will leave him only when he reaches the grave." Rasulullaah E* said, "It will then be as you say." (The man then died of the condition). (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Bilaal (1996) Fall Ill Upon Arrival in Madinah

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Basis' reports that when Rasuiullaah (Bis arrived in Madinah, both Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Basis') and Hadhrat Bilaal (Basis') suffered extreme fever. She went to them both and asked, "Dear father! How are you? O Bilaal! How are you?" When Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Basis') s fever rose, he recited some couplets which mean!

"Every person is given greetings of good morning to you

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.845).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.855).

whereas death is closer than the straps of his shoe"

Whenever Hadhrat Bilaal Species fever came down, he would think of Makkah and say the following couplet which meant:

"If only I knew whether a single night I could pass in a valley (in Makkah) surrounded by Idhkhir and Jaleel grass

If only the waters of Majinna (1) I could one day attain

Or would I ever see Shaama and Tufayl (2) ever again"

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah), he made the following du'aa: "O Allaah! Make Madinah even more beloved to us than Makkah. O Allaah! Make Madinah a place of good health, bless us in its Mudd and Saa⁽³⁾ and transfer its epidemic to Juhfa." (4)

A Collection of Good Traits in Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports that Rasulullaah once asked which of them had started the day by fasting. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied that he had, Rasulullaah asked which of them had visited a sick person that day. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr saked which of them had followed a funeral procession that day. Again it was Hadhrat Abu Bakr saked who replied that he had done so. Rasulullaah then asked who had fed a poor person that day. This time again it was Hadhrat Abu Bakr saked who replied that he had done so. Rasulullaah then asked who had fed a poor person that day. This time again it was Hadhrat Abu Bakr saked who replied that he had done so. Rasulullaah then said that the person who carries out all these deeds on one day will certainly enter Jannah. (5)

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Wisits Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Naafi narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari said, "Take note that when a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother in the morning, seventy thousand angels visit with him, all the time praying for his forgiveness until the evening. In addition to this, a garden is prepared for him in Jannah. When a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother in the evening, seventy thousand angels accompany him, praying for his forgiveness until the following morning and in addition to this, a garden is prepared for him in Jannah." (6)

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (1986) visited Hadhrat Hasan (1986), Hadhrat Ali (1986) asked, "Have you come to visit him

⁽¹⁾ A place near Makkah where water was plentiful and good.

⁽²⁾ Two mountains near Makkah.

⁽³⁾ These were units of weight and measurement used during those times.

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhari (Vol.2 Pg.844).

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.75).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Jareer and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Unimaal (Vol.5 Pg.50). Abu Dawood has reported a similar narration. Several others have reported the narration with Hadhrat Ali Subsequently directly from Rasulullaah 2006.

because heisillorforanother reason?" When Hadhrat Abu Moosa (Confirmed that it was because he was ill, Hadhrat Ali (Confirmed Said, "Take note that when a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother..." The rest of the narration is as it appears above.

Hadhrat Abu Faakhitanarratesthat when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari wis visited Hadhrat Hasan wis, Hadhrat Ali wis came in and asked, "Have you come to visit him because he is ill or for another reason?" "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari wis replied, "It is not for another reason. I have come to visit him because he is ill." Hadhrat Ali wis then said, "I have heard Rasulullaah wis say, "When a Muslim visits his ailing Muslim brother, seventy thousand angels pray from the morning until the evening for Allaah's mercy to be showered on him. In addition to this, a 'Khareef' is prepared for him in Jannah." When the narrators asked him what a 'Khareef' was, Hadhrat Ali wis replied that it was a stream by which date palms are irrigated. (2)

Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth 当時的 Visits Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali 当時

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Yasaar reports that when Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth visited an ailing Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali (Hadhrat Al

What Hadhrat Salmaan Said to a Sick Man in Kindah

Hadhrat Sa'eed reports that he was once with Hadhrat Salmaan when he visited a sick man in the Kindah district (of Kufa). When he entered the house, Hadhrat Salmaan will said to him, "Glad tidings to you because Allaah has made the illness of a Mu'min a means for him to attain Allaah's forgiveness and pleasure. As for the illness of a sinner, it is like a camel whose owner had tied it up and then released it without it knowing why it was tied up nor why it was released." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad (Vol.1 Pg.121):

⁽²⁾ Ahmad (Vol. 1 Pg.91).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad (Vol.1 Pg.97), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.3 Pg.31).

Bazzaar has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg. 72).

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Wahab reports that he once accompanied Hadhrat Salmaan on a visit to a sick friend of his from the Kindah tribe, when they entered the house, Hadhrat Salmaan said said to the man, "Allaah sometimes tries His Mu'min servant with illness and then cures him, thereby making the illness a means of forgiveness for his past and a means of attaining His pleasure in future. At the same time, Allaah Whose name is so exalted, also tries His sinful servant with illness and then cures him. In this case however, he is merely like a camel whose owner had tied him up and then released him. When they tie him up, he has no idea why he is being tied up and when they release him, he has no idea why he is being teleased." (1)

What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said to a Sick Person and what Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said to Someone who was with a Sick Person

Hadhrat Naafi reports that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with came to a sick person, he would ask how the person was and whenever he left, he would say, "May Allaah give you the best." He would say nothing more than this. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hudhayl reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood once visited a sick person along with several other men. There happened to be a lady in the house and when one of the men started looking at her, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood remarked, "It would be better for you if your eye had to burst!" (3)

What Rasulullaah W Would Say to a Sick Person and do For him

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1938) reports that when Rasulullaah (1938) visited a sick person, he would sit by the person's head and recite the following du'aa seven times:

"I implore the Majestic Allaah, Rabb of the Majestic Throne to cure you"

Thereafter, the person would be cured if it was not yet the time for his death. (4)

Hadhrat Ali whenever Rasulullaah w visited a sick person, he would say:

"O Rabb of mankind, remove the difficulty. You grant a cure for only

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym In his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.206).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.78).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.78).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.79).

You can cure. There is none who can cure but You." (1)
Another narration adds the words:

"There is no cure like Your cure, Grant a cure that does not leave out any illness." (2)

Hadhrat Ali sies also reports that whenever Rasulullaah sies visited a sick person, he would place his right hand on the person's right cheek and say:

"O Rabb of mankind, remove the difficulty. You grant a cure for only You can cure. There is none but You who can remove ailments." (3) Hadhrat Anas (3) narrates that when Rasulullaah (3) visited a sick person, he would say:

"أَذْهِبِ الْبَأْسَ رَبَّ النَّاسِ وَاشْفِ أَنْتَ الشَّافِيُ لَاشَافِيَ الَّا أَنْتَ شِفَاءً لَا يُغَادِرُ سَقَمَّا"

"O Rabb of mankind, remove the difficulty. You grant a cure for only You can cure. There is none who can cure but You. Grant a cure that does not leave out any illness." (4)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Tipe) reports that when Rasulullaah (Tipe) would place his hand on the part of the person's body that was in pain and then say: (5)

"بسم الله لا بأس"

Hadhrat Salmaan Sisses says that Rasulullaah sisses one visited him when he was ill. As Rasulullaah sisses prepared to leave, he addressed Hadhrat Salmaan Sisses saying:

"كَشَفَ اللَّهُ ضَرُّكَ وَغَفَّرَ ذُنْبَكَ وَعَافَاكَ فِي دِيْنِكَ وَجَسَدِكَ إِلَى ٱجَلِكَ"

"May Allaah alleviate your difficulty, forgive your sins and grant you well being in your Deen and your body until the day you die." (6)
Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that whenever Rasulullaah well went to see a sick person or whenever a sick person was brought to him, he would say:

"O Rabb of mankind, remove the difficulty. You grant a cure for only You can cure. There is no cure like Your cure. Grant a cure that does not leave out any illness." (7)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) also says that Rasulullaah (2006) used these words when making du'aa for Allaah's protection. She further narrates that when Rasulullaah

⁽I) Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad, Tirmidhi and Dowragl.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.50). (3) Ibn Mardway and Abu Ali Haddaad in his Mu'jam.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.51).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.299).

⁽⁶⁾ Tabraani in his Kaheer. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg 299) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁷⁾ Bukhaari (Vol. 2 Pg. 8-17).

s illness became severe when he was on his deathbed, she took his hand and passed it over his body while reciting these same words to secure Allaah's protection. Rasulullaah then pulled his hand away and said:

"أَللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَالْحِقْنِي بِالرَّفِيْقِ"

"O Allaah, forgive me and let me meet the (Highest) Friend (Allaah)"

These were the last words that Hadhrat Aa'isha (Highest) heard Rasulullaah (Highest) say. (1)

Requesting Permission to Enter

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas About Rasulullaah Greeting Thrice

Hadhrat Anas reports that when Rasulullaah gg greeted with Salaam (to seek permission to enter a home), he did so thrice⁽²⁾ and when he spoke (something of great importance), he would repeat it thrice. (3)

The Incident of Rasulullaah & with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah & with Hadhrat Sa'd

Hadhrat Oais bin Sa'd 劉爾爾 narrates. 'Rasulullaah 總羅 once visited us at our home and greeted with the words: " ٱلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ رَزَحْمَهُ اللهُ" Although my father (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah ﴿ وَعَلَيْكَ السَّارُ مُ وَرَحْمَهُ اللَّهِ اللَّهِ (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah ﴿ وَهَا اللَّهُ اللّلْمُ اللَّهُ ال so in a voice that was not audible to Rasulullaah . 'Are you not going to allow Rasulullaah & in?' I asked. My father replied, 'Allow Rasulullaah & to make Salaam to us many times (so that it may be a prayer for us). When Rasululiaah ﷺ again greeted with the words: 'السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللهُ ' , my father again replied in a voice that was inaudible to Rasulullaah (39). Thereafter, Rasulullaah : repeated the greeting and then turned to leave (thinking that no one was at home). My father ran after him saving, 'I heard you each time you greeted and I had replied in a voice that you could not hear so that I could get more of your Salaams (because Salaam is a du'aa for peace and blessings).' Rasulullaah then accompanied my father home where he had some water brought for Rasulullaah W. After Rasulullaah W. had taken a bath, Hadhrat Sa'd was gave him a shawl to wear that was dyed in saffron or in Waras (a fragrant grass). Rasulullaah then raised his hands and made du'aa saying, 'O Allaah! Shower Your special mercy and compassion on the family of Sa'd.' Rasulullaah 優麗 then partook of the food. When Rasulullaah 優麗 intended to leave, Hadhrat Sa'd was gave him a donkey that was prepared with a fine shawl draped over it. 'O Qais,' Hadhrat Sa'd with called out, 'Go with Rasulullaah 🕮 ! I then accompanied Rasulullaah 🕮 . When Rasulullaah 🕮 beckoned me to ride with him, I declined the offer (out of respect for him).

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.14).

⁽²⁾ This could also mean that Rasulullaah (2006) greeted once when first seeking permission to enter, thereafter a second time when entering and finally a third time when leaving.
(3) Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.923).

Rasulullaah (1) then said, 'You may either ride with me or go back.' I therefore went back."

The Incident of a man Who Sought Permission to Enter without first Greeting

Hadhrat Rib'ee bin Hiraash التنافض narrates from a man from the Banu Aamir tribe who once came to Rasulullaah على and asked, "May I come in?" Rasulullaah على said to a slave girl, "Go outside and tell him that he should say, السَّدُمُ عَنَيْكُ (As Salaamu Alaykum). May I come in?' he has certainly not done well in his asking permission to enter." The man however overheard this before the girl could some to him and said. "السَّادُ عَنْكُ (Wa Salaamu Alaykum). May I come in?" Rasulullaah على responded by saying, "وَعُلَكُ (Wa Alayk). You may now come in." The Hadith continues further. (2)

Hadhrat Umar (1966), Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1966) and Hadhrat Ali (1966) Seek Permission to see Rasulullaah

Another narration(4) from Hadhrat Umar (500) states that he said:

He then continued saying, "اَلَّهُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ (As Salaamu Alaykum). Can Umar come in?" In another narration⁽⁵⁾, Hadhrat Umar نقطة says that Rasulullaah granted him permission to enter after he had asked thrice.

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1996) narrates that when they once came to Rasulullaah (1997) after ne had sent for them, they first sought permission to enter. (6)

Hadhrat Safeenah was narrates that he was once with Rasulullaah when Hadhrat Ali was arrived, wanting to enter the room. As he knocked very lightly at the door, Rasulullaah was gave the instruction for the door to be opened for him. (7)

Rasulullaah Forbids Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah From Seeking Permission to Enter while Standing Directly in Front of the Door

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah sissis reports that he once sought permission to

- (1) Abu Dawood, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.143).
- (2) Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg. 158) and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg. 143).
- (3) Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.44).
- (4) Abu Dawood, Nasa'ee, Khateeb and Tirmidhl, as'quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.51).
- (5) Bayhagi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.51).
- (6) Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.45) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (7) Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.45) has commented on the chain of narrators.

enter while standing directly in front of the door. Rasulullaah advised him saying, "Never seek permission to enter while standing directly in front of the door." In another narration, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah says, "I once came to Rasulullaah as while he was in his room. I then sought permission to enter while standing directly in front of the door. Rasulullaah set then gestured to me to move to the side. (I then did so and again) I Sought permission to enter and (after being granted permission) Rasulullaah set said, "Seeking permission to enter is done only for (the purpose of safeguarding) the sight (from seeing what one ought not to see. This objective will therefore be defeated if one stands directly in front of the door in a manner that one can see inside the house)." (1)

Rasulullaah EE Rebukes a Man who Looked Inside his Room

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik reports, "A man was once peeping inside one of Rasulullaah ses stood up and headed towards him with an arrowhead in his hand. I can still picture Rasulullaah ses appearing as if he was looking for an opportunity to thrust the arrowhead at the man." (2)

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd Saa'idi (1986) narrates that a man was once peeping through a hole in the door of Rasulullaah (1986)'s room while Rasulullaah (1986) was scratching his head with a comb. When Rasulullaah (1986) saw him, Rasulullaah (1986) said, "Had I known that you had been looking at me, I would thrust this comb into your eyes. Seeking permission to enter is done only for (the purpose of safeguarding) the sight (from seeing what one ought not to see. This objective will therefore be defeated by peeping into a person's room)." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari when Hadhrat Umar would did not Granted him Permission to Enter after Thrice Seeking Permission

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Februs, "I was once sitting in a gathering of the Ansaar when Abu Moosa Game looking extremely flustered. He explained, I thrice sought permission to see Umar Game without being granted permission. When I therefore left, he (called for me and) asked me what prevented me from entering. I said, When I received no reply after thrice seeking permission, I left because Rasulullaah Game said, When any of you receives no reply after thrice seeking permission, he should leave. Umar Game then demanded, 'By Allaah! You will have to produce a witness to this. Did any of you hear this from Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (Because we have all heard it) It

⁽i) Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.44).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.922).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.1020)

shall be the youngest amongst us who will go with you (to attest to this Hadith)." Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (continues, "Since I was the youngest, I went with him and informed Umar (that Nabi (that Nabi had stated these words." (I) Another narration(2) adds that Hadhrat Umar (the said, "This instruction of Rasulullaah (that Nabi had stated in the marketplace had distracted me (from spending more time with Rasulullaah (to learn more)." Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (says, "It once occurred that I thrice sought permission to see Umar (the without being granted permission. When I therefore left, he called me back and asked, 'O servant of Aliaah! Were you so much in a hurry that you could not stand waiting at my door? Remember that in a like manner, people will also be too much in hurry to remain standing at your door.' I replied, 'But I went away only because you did not grant me permission to enter after I had thrice asked permission to enter.' He then asked, 'Did you or did you not hear this from Rasulullaah (the said)." If you do not produce a witness to this, I shall make you an example for others to learn from.'

If then left and approached a group of Ansaar sitting in the Masjid, When I asked them about this Hadith, they asked, 'Can anyone have any doubts about this?' I then informed them about what Hadhrat Umar with had demanded. To this, they said, 'By Allaah! (Because we have all heard it) It shall be the youngest amongst us who will go with you (to attest to this Hadith).' Abu Sa'eed Khudri or Abu Mas'ood then accompanied me to Hadhrat Umar signs and said to him, 'We once went with Rasulullaah 認識 to see Sa'd bin Ubaadah 知識論。 When we reached the house, Rasulullaan egg greeted but received no reply. He then greeted a second and a third time again without any reply. Rasulullaah 🕮 then returned saving, 'We have fulfilled our duty,' Sa'd 经适益 then (came running behind and) caught up with Rasulullaah 🕮 saving. 'O Rasulullaah I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I heard you each time you greeted and I had replied in a voice that you could not hear because I wished to get more of your Salaams (du'aas for peace) for myself and my family." (Hadhrat Umar was satisfied with this testimony to which) Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari asked, "By Allaah! I have been totally trustworthy in my narration of the Ahadeeth of Rasulullaah : "Indeed," confirmed Hadhrat Umar (I did not think that you would be untruthful) however, I only wished to have the matter corroborated." (3)

Some Incidents of the Sahabah Concerning Seeking Permission

Hadhrat Aamir bin Abdullaah reports that a slave girl of his once accompanied the daughter of Hadhrat Zubayr (Sies) to see Hadhrat Umar (May I come in?" she asked (at the door). When Hadhrat Umar (Sies) refused permission, she went back. Hadhrat Umar (Sies) then sent someone after her with the message that she ought to say, "السَّادُرُ عَنْيَكُوّ (As Salaamu Alaykum). May I come in?" (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.923).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg. 1092).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.157).

Hadhrat Aslam reports, "Hadhrat Umar "Goods's instructions to me were, 'O Aslam! Stand guard at my door but never accept anything from anyone.' When he one day saw me wearing new clothing, he enquired where I had gotten it from. '(Your son) Ubaydullaah bin Umar Goods gave it to me,' I replied. To this, he said, 'You may take from Ubaydullaah but from no one else.' Standing at the door one day, Hadhrat Zubayr Goods came and asked permission to enter. When I told him that the Ameerul Mu'mineen was busy at that moment, he lifted his hand and hit me so hard behind my head that I let out a scream. I then went in to Hadhrat Umar Goods who asked me what the matter was. I informed him that Hadhrat Zubayr Goods had hit me and narrated the entire episode to him. 'By Allaah!' Hadhrat Umar Goods had him that had head had him to be and narrated the entire episode to him.'

When I let Hadhrat Zubayr (in, Hadhrat Umar asked, Why did you hit the slave?' Hadhrat Zubayr (ie) replied by saying, 'He was going to prevent us from seeing you.' 'Has he ever before refused you permission to enter my door?' Hadhrat Umar (ie) enquired. When Hadhrat Zubayr (ie) replied in the negative, Hadhrat Umar (ii) said, 'Then when he tells you to be patient because the Ameerul Mu'mineen is busy at the moment, then do so and excuse me. By Allaah! When an animal is mauled (by one), all the other animals eat him up (if you start hitting him, so will others)." (2)

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit (Size) reports that Hadhrat Umar (Size) once sought permission to see him at a time when his head happened to be in the hands of his slave girl who was busy combing his hair. He granted Hadhrat Umar (Size) permission to enter and then quickly pulled his head away from her. Hadhrat Umar (Leave her to comb your hair.) Hadhrat Zaid (Size) said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Had you sent for me, I would have come to you." Hadhrat Umar (Size) reply was, "It was I who is in need (and I shall therefore have to come to you)."

Another narration states that when some people requested permission to see Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sie after the Fajr salaah, he allowed them in. He then veiled his wife with a shawl saying, "I did not want to keep you waiting (any longer by taking more time in sending her out)." (4) Hadhrat Moosa bin Talha (Super says, "I once went with my father to my mother. When he entered the room and I followed him in, he struck me so forcefully on the chest that I fell on my buttocks. He then said, 'Do you enter without permission?' (5)

Hadhrat Muslim bin Nadheer narrates that a man was already peeping in (the house) when he asked Hadhrat Hudhayfah 医隐态 permission to enter. Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.51).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.51).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg. 189).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.46) has commented on the chain of parrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.155), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haafidh in his Fat'hul Baari (Vol.11 Pg.20).

Hudhayfah  remarked, "Well! Your eyes have already entered and all that remains now is your buttocks!" The man then asked, "Should I seek permission to enter even from my mother?" Hadhrat Hudhayfah  replied, "If you do not, you would see something that you would not at all like to see." [1] Hadhrat Suwayd Abdi says. "We once sat at the door of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar  waiting for permission to enter, When he delayed in granting us permission, I went up to the door of one of his rooms and peeped inside. He noticed this and when he did grant us permission to enter and we were seated, he asked, 'Which of you was peeping into my room just now?' When I admitted that it was I, he asked, 'For what reason did you deem it acceptable to peep into my room?' "When you delayed in calling us,' I explained, 'I happened to look in without the express intention of doing so.' The others then questioned him about several things, after which I asked, 'O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! What do you say about Jihaad?' He replied, "Whoever wages Jihaad does so for his own benefit." [2]

Loving a Muslim for the Pleasure of Allaah Rasulullaah Asks About the Strongest Link of Islaam

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib Feports that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah Feports when Rasulullaah Feports the question, "Which is the strongest link of Islaam?" When the Sahabah Feports replied that it was salaah, Rasulullaah Feports remarked, "Salaah is most excellent, but it is not this." "Then the fasts of Ramadhaan," said the Sahabah Feports. "They are most excellent," replied Rasulullaah Feports but it is not this." Jihaad was the next choice of the Sahabah Feports However, Rasulullaah Feports responded by saying, "Jihaad is most excellent, but it is not this. Indeed the strongest link of Imaan is to love for Allaah and to hate for Allaah," (3)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Dharr Sizes states that Rasulullaah Sizes once came to the Sahabah Sizes and asked, "Do you know which deeds Allaah loves most?" Whereas someone mentioned that they were salaah and zakaah, another stated that it must be Jihaad. Rasulullaah Sizes however stated. "Verily the deeds that Allaah loves most is to love for Allaah and to hate for Allaah." (4)

Rasulullaah Ababa has Love for People of Taqwa and for Hadhrat Ammaar and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadhrat Aa'isha (S) says, "Rasulullaah (S) loved people who possessed Taqwa." (5)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg. 159).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.44) has commented on the chain of narrators.

³⁾ Ahmad

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.90).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.274).

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abil Aas Sues says, "There were two men whom Rasulullaah like liked very much until the day he passed away. They were Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Sues and Ammaar bin Yaasir Sues "(1)

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Rasulullaah dispatched expeditions of Sahabah under the command of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas someone therefore said to him, "Rasulullaah dispatched to appoint you as commander, kept you close to him and liked you very much." To this, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas remarked, "Although Rasulullaah used to appoint me as commander, I do not know whether it was because he was merely pacifying my heart or because he really liked me. I can however show you two men whom Rasulullaah dispatched very much until the day he passed away. They were Abdullaah bin Mas'ood dispatched and Ammaar bin Yaasir sime." Another narration adds that the people then remarked, "By Allaah! That (Hadhrat Ammaar sim) was the very man whom you people killed during the Battle of Siffeen!" "True," Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas damitted, "By Allaah! We were responsible for killing him." (3)

Hadhrat Ali See and Hadhrat Abbaas See Ask Rasulullaah See Which of His Family he Liked Most

Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid in arrates, "I was once sitting (at Rasulullaah is door) when Ali is and Abbaas arrived to see Rasulullaah is to see us.' I said, 'O Rasulullaah is !Ali and Abbaas are requesting permission to see you.' 'Do you know what brings them?' Rasulullaah is asked. When I replied that I did not know, Rasulullaah is said, 'But I know. Let them in.' The two men then entered and asked, 'O Rasulullaah is !We have come to ask you which of your family members you like best. 'My daughter Faatimah,' was the reply. 'But we are not asking you about your immediate family," they entreated. Rasulullaah is therefore said, "Then the one I like most is he one on whom Allaah had bestowed His grace and on whom I had bestowed my grace, Usaamah bin Zaid.' 'Who then after him?' they enquired further. Rasulullaah is replied, 'Then it is Ali bin Abi Taalib.' 'O Rasulullaah is 'Abbaas is exclaimed, 'You have placed (me) your uncle in the last position.' To this Rasulullaah is remarked, 'Ali beat you to making Hiirah." 'S)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir.

^{(2) 1}bn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 238).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.188).

⁽⁴⁾ Here Rasulullaah (4) was most probably referring to Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha (4) was father of Hadhrat Usaama (4) was because the description fits him according a verse of the Qur'aan in which Allaah says, "When you (O Rasulullaah (4) said to the one on whom Allaah had bestowed His grace (by guiding him to Islaam), and on whom you had bestowed your grace (by teaching and raising him, referring to Zaid bin Haaritha (5) ..." (Surah Ahzaab, yerse 37)

⁽⁵⁾ Tayalisi, Tirmidhi, Rooyaani, Baghawi, Tabraani and Haakim, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummai (Vol.5 Pg. 136).

Rasulullaah 🕮 s Love for Hadhrat Aa'isha 🕮 🧓 and Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas "reports that Rasulullaah was once asked, "O Rasulullaah white was once asked, "O Rasulullaah white was the reply. "And from amongst the men?" the question came. Rasulullaah white said, "Abu Bakr." "Whom then?" was the next question. "Then it is Abu Ubaydah," said Rasulullaah white was the next question. "Then it is Abu Ubaydah," said Rasulullaah white which person do you love most?" When Rasulullaah white replied that it was Hadhrat Aa'isha white was that he loved most, Hadhrat Amr white said, "I am asking about men." "Her father (Hadhrat Abu Bakr white reply. (2)

Rasulullaah Fells the Sahabah to Inform the Person they Liked Solely for the Pleasure of Allaah that they Liked him

Hadhrat Anas when another passed by. "O Rasulullaah we"! the Sahabi said, "I really like that man." "Have you informed him about it?" Rasulullaah se enquired. When the Sahabi replied that he had not, Rasulullaah se told him to do so. The Sahabi she then met the man and said to him, "I like you for the pleasure of Allaah," The other responded by saying:

"May the One (Allaah) for Whose pleasure you like me, also like you." (3)
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sees says, "I was once sitting with Rasulullaah when a man arrived. He greeted Rasulullaah sees and then left. I then said to Rasulullaah sees, 'O Rasulullaah sees are really like that man.' 'Have you informed him about it?' Rasulullaah sees enquired. When I replied that I had not, Rasulullaah sees said, 'Then inform your brother about it.' I then went up to him, greeted him and holding his shoulder, I said, 'By Allaah! I like you only for the pleasure of Allaah.' He responded by echoing, 'I too like you for the pleasure of Allaah.' I then said, 'Had Rasulullaah sees not instructed me to do this, I would never have done so."(4)

Miscellaneous Incidents of the Sahabah (Concerning their Love for Each Other

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sarjas (1986) reports that he once said to Rasulullaah (1986). "O Rasulullaah (1986) I really like Abu Dharr." "Have you informed him about it?" Rasulullaah (1986) enquired. When Hadhrat Abdullaah (1986) replied

⁽I) fbn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.351).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.67).

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.147). Ibn Asaakir, Ibn Najjaar and Abu Nu'aym have also reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer and Awsat. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.262) has commented on the chain of narrators.

that he had not, Rasulullaah see told him to do so. He then met Hadhrat Abu Dharr sees and said to him, "I like you for the pleasure of Allaah." Hadhrat Abu Dharr sees responded by saying:

"أَحَبُّكَ الَّذِي ٱخْبَبْتَنِي لَهُ"

"May the One (Allaah) for Whose pleasure you like me, also like you."
When Hadhrat Abdullaah (I) reported back to Rasulullaah (I) Rasulullaah (II) Remember that even in mentioning this lies tremendous rewards." (I) Hadhrat Mujaahid narrates that when a man passed by him, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (I) remarked, "That man likes me a lot." "How do you know that, O Ibn Abbaas (I) the people enquired. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (I) replied, "Because I like him very much." (2) Hadhrat Mujaahid also reports that a Sahabi (I) once held him by his Hadhrat Mujaahid also reports that a Sahabi sign once held him by his shoulders from the back and said, "You should know that I like you a lot." To this, Hadhrat Mujaahid replied:

"أَحَبُّكَ الَّذِي آخْبَبْتَنِي لَهُ"

"May the One (Allaah) for Whose pleasure you like me, also like you."

The Sahabi then continued, "Rasulullaah sis said, 'When someone likes another person, he should inform him about it.' Had Rasulullaah sis not said this, I would have never informed you." He then proceeded to propose a marriage to Hadhrat Mujaahid saying, "I have a daughter (I wish you would marry. She is blessed with the most excellent qualities but I have to make matters plain to you and (inform you that) She is blind in one eye." (3)

Hadhrat Mujaahid reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sies once said, "Love for Allaah's pleasure, hate for Allaah's pleasure, make friends for Allaah's pleasure and make enemies for Allaah's pleasure because it is only by this that a person attains Wilaayah (friendship with Allaah). Even though a person may perform salaah in abundance and fast very often, he will never taste true Imaan until he does this. However, (it is sad to note that) bonds between people are now being forged only for worldly motives." (4)

Severing Ties with a Muslim

The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha @ and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (1986)

Hadhrat Auf who was the son of Hadhrat Aa'isha (wish's uterine brother Hadhrat Tufayl reports that Hadhrat Aa'isha (wish was once informed that when she gave away or sold something, (her nephew) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (marked, "By Allaah! Aa'isha (will have to stop (being so open-handed) or I shall have to restrict her (allowance)." "Did he really say this?"

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Häythami (Vol.10 Pg.282) has commented on the chain of narrators

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg. 275) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.80).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.90) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Sha took an oath saying, "It is to Allaah that I vow never to speak to Ibn Zubayr, ever again!"

When the separation became too long for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr wise, he sent people to intercede on his behalf, but Hadhrat Aa'isha wise said, "By Allaah! I shall never accept the intercession of anyone on his behalf and I shall never break my vow." When it became too much for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr wise to bear, he spoke to Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah wise and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Aswad bin Abd Yaghooth who both belonged to the Banu Zuhrah tribe. He pleaded with them saying, "I beseech you in the name of Allaah to get me into the house of Aa'isha wise because it is not permissible for her to take a yow to severe ties with me.

Consequently, Hadhrat Miswar (1986) and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (1986) hid Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (1986) in their shawls and sought permission to enter from Hadhrat Aa'isha (1986) saying:

"May we come in." When Hadhrat Aa'isha was gave them permission to enter, they asked, "Can we all come in?" "Of course," replied Hadhrat Aa'isha was not knowing that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr t was with them, "you may all come in," as soon as they entered, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was rushed behind the veil and embracing Hadhrat Aa'isha was, he started weeping and pleading with her in the name of Allaah.

Hadhrat Miswar (Fig. 6) and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (Fig. 6) also pleaded with her in the name of Allaah that she should speak to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (Fig. 6) and accept his apology. They also said to her, "As you know, Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) forbade severing of ties and that it is not permissible for a Muslim to severe ties with a Muslim brother for more than three days." When they took pains to remind her and were persistent, she started to weep as she addressed the two men saying, "I have taken and oath and an oath is a serious matter."

They however continued convincing her until she started speaking to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (2006). As expiation for her broken vow, she then freed forty slaves and whenever she thought about the vow, she wept so much that her tears would wet her scarf. (1)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr (Yol.2 Pg.897). Bukhaari has also reported a similar parration in his Adab (Pg.59) interceded on his behalf, Hadhrat Aa'isha refused to break her vow. It was some members of the Banu Zuhra family (Rasulullaah Fes mother's family) including Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah family and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Aswad bin Abd Yaghooth Fes who one day said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Fes, "After we have secured permission to enter, you should rush behind the veil (and plead with Hadhrat Aa'isha Fes (and plead with Hadhrat Aa'isha Fes (as expiation for breaking the oath). She however continued freeing slave after slave until she had eventually set free forty slaves. She then said, "I wish that I had specified an act to carry out when I took the oath (e.g. saying that I would set two slaves free if I spoke to him) so that I would now be finished (and at ease, knowing for certain that I had fulfilled my duty)." (1)

Reconciling Between People

Rasulullaah Resolves The Dispute Between the people of Quba

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd will in narrates that the people of Quba once fell into such a dispute that they started throwing stones at each other. When he heard about the matter, Rasulullaah will said to the Sahabah will will, "Come. Let us go and settle the affair." (2)

Another narration states that when some people from the Banu Amr bin Auf tribe fell into a dispute, Rasulullaah (B) took some of the Sahabah (B) along with him and went to settle the dispute. The Hadith continues further. (3)

Rasulullaah & settles a dispute when he went to Visit Abdullaah bin Ubay

Hadhrat Anas (Ties) reports that a request was once made to Rasulullaah (Ties) to visit Abdullaah bin Ubay (the leader of the Munaafiqeen). Rasulullaah (Ties) therefore proceeded on his donkey while the Muslims walked along with him on the rocky ground. When Rasulullaah (Ties) reached him, Abdullaah bin Ubay exclaimed, "Get away from me because the stench of your donkey disgusts me!" One of the Ansaar responded to this by remarking, "By Allaah! The donkey of Rasulullaah (Ties) smells better than you!" When a person from Abdullaah bin Ubay's tribe became incensed on his behalf, the two men started insulting each other. Eventually the men from both sides grew angry and they started fighting with sticks, fists and shoes. Hadhrat Anas (Ties) says that they had been informed that it was with reference to this incident that Allaah revealed the verse:

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari (Vol. 1 Pg.497).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.371).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.370).

If two groups of Mu'mineen fight each other, then reconcile between them. {Surah Hujuraat, verse 9} $^{(1)}$

The Hadith of Hadhrat Usaamah (First From Bukhaari has already been quoted in the chapter concerning visiting the ill. The narration mentions that the Muslims, Mushrikeen and Jews then started hurling abuse at each other until matters reached such a head that they almost came to blows. All the time, Rasulullaah (First From Rasulullaah) (First From Bukhaari has already been quoted in the matters reached such a head that they almost came to blows. All the time, Rasulullaah (First From Rasulullaah) (First From Bukhaari has already been quoted in the chapter concerning visiting the ill.)

Rasulullaah (Reconciles Between the Aws and the Khazraj Tribes

Hadhrat Anas says that the Aws and the Khazraj tribes were two tribes of the Ansaar between whom was enmity during the Period of Ignorance. When Rasulullaah says came to them, all enmity disappeared and Allaah created great love between their hearts. However, it once occurred that when they were once sitting in a gathering, someone from the Aws recited a couplet that ridiculed the Khazraj. In response, someone from Khazraj then recited a couplet that ridiculed the Aws. In this manner, the two continued reciting poetry mocking the other until some of them sprang up to attack others. They then grabbed hold of their weapons and were prepared to fight each other. When the news reached Rasulullaah says, he had already received revelation to the effect. He hurried to them so quickly that (his lower garment lifted and) even his shins became exposed. When he saw them, Rasulullaah says called out to them:

O you who have Imaan! Fear Allaah as He should be feared (by obeying all His commands) and do not die except as Muslims. Hold fast to the rope of Allaah, all of you together, and do not separate (because Allaah's mercy lies in unity). Recall Allaah's favour to you when you were enemies and He (Allaah) created love between your hearts. Then you became brothers by His grace. You were on the edge of an abyss (pit) of fire (of Jahannam because you were steeped in kufr and disobedience) and He rescued you from it (by making you Muslims). In this way, does Allaah explain His Aayaat Io you so that you may be guided. (Surah Aal Imraan, verses 102, 103)

The Ansaar then immediately threw down their weapons and embraced each other. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.370).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.80) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Making True Promises to Muslims

The Parting Words of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr About a Man to Whom he had Promised to Marry his Daughter

Hadhrat Haaroon bin Rabaab reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr was on his deathbed, he instructed the people to look for a certain man saying, "I had mentioned to him something of a promise concerning my daughter (that I would marry her to him). Because I would not like to meet Allaah with one of the three traits of a hypocrite (breaking of promises), I make all of you witness to the fact that I am marrying her off to him." (1)

Abstaining from Harbouring Ill thoughts Against a Fellow Muslim

The Incident of Two Sahabah www who took their Case before Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas (Aler than a man once passed by a gathering during the time of Rasulullaah (Aler than a man once passed by a greeted him and he had passed by, one of them remarked, "I do not like him at all!" The others rebuked him saying, "Be quiet! By Allaah! We are certainly going to inform him about this!" They then sent someone to inform the person about what had been said. (After the messenger had informed the Sahabi (After the messenger had informed him about what had happened and about what the person had said. "O Rasulullaah (Aler") the Sahabi (Sahabi (S

Rasulullaah (sent for the man) and asked, "Why do you dislike him?" The other responded by saying, "O Rasulullaah (self)! I am his neighbour and know him well. I have never seen him perform any (Nafl) salaah besides the salaah that the pious and the sinful ones all perform (the Fardh salaah)." The Sahabi (self) defended himself by saying, "O Rasulullaah (self)! Ask him whether I have ever made an improper wudhu for my salaah or every delayed it until after its time had expired?" The other replied in the negative but then continued, "O Rasulullaah (self)! I am his neighbour and know him well. I have never seen him feed a single poor person besides giving the zakaah that the pious and the sinful ones all give."

The other said in defence, "O Rasulullaah (Ask him whether he has ever seen me refuse anyone asking for charity?" Again the man was forced to say no, but then spoke further saying, "O Rasulullaah (Ask I am his neighbour and know him well. I have never seen him observe any (Nafl) fasts besides the fasts of the month in which the pious and the sinful ones all observe (the Fardh fasts during

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 159).

Ramadhaan)." In response to this, the Sahabi said, "O Rasulullaah se! Ask him whether he has ever seen me miss a single fast when I was not ill or not in a journey?" When the neighbour was again forced to say no, Rasulullaah said to him, "It seems to me like he is a better man than you." (1)

Praising a Muslim and the Type of Praise that is Detestable

The Incident Between Rasulullaah and a Man from the Banu Layth Tribe

Hadhrat Übaadah bin Saamit sees narrates that a man from the Banu Layth tribe thrice asked Rasulullaah see permission to recite a poem. Upon the fourth request (Rasulullaah see granted permission and) he recited a poem in praise of Rasulullaah sees. Rasulullaah sees then said appreciatively, "If any poet had spoken well, it must surely be you." (2)

Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid Rhadhrat Khallaad bin Saa'ib Rhadhrat

Hadhrat Khallaad bin Saa'ib in arrates that he once visited Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid in who praised him on his face. Hadhrat Usaamah then said, "The only thing that made me praise you on your face is the fact that Rasulullaah is said, "When a Mu'min is praised on his face, the Imaan in his heart grows (far from becoming proud, he develops conviction in his good deeds when people show their appreciation for it)." (3)

What Rasulullaah Said to the Person who Overstated His Words of Praise

The father of Hadhrat Mutarrif says, "I accompanied the delegation from the Banu Aamir tribe that went to Rasulullaah . You are our leader,' we said. 'Allaah is the leader,' Rasulullaah . Fersponded. We then said, 'You are the highest of us in status and the most magnanimous.' To this Rasulullaah . Said, 'These common words you may say, but rather state even less than this because Shaytaan should never gain control over you (and urge you to transgress the limits of praise). (A) Another narration states that Rasulullaah . Is also added, "I do not want you to place me on a pedestal higher than that upon which Allaah has placed me. I am Muhammad the son of Allaah's servant and am myself the servant of Allaah and His Rasul."

Hadhrat Anas (reports that so neone once addressed Rasulullaah (saying, "O the best of us and the son of the best of us! Our leader and the son of our

⁽I) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 170).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.119) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.119) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood.

⁽⁵⁾ Razeen, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.150).

leader!" Rasulullaah (crrected him saying, "Say only that which I tell you to say and never allow Shaytaan to mislead you (into transgressing the limits of praise). Place me only upon that pedestal upon which Allaah has placed me (and no higher). I am the servant of Allaah and His Rasul." (1)

What Rasulullaah A Said to a Man who Praised Another in his Face and Rasulullaah A Guidance in this Regard Hadhrat Abu Bakrah reports that when a man once praised another in front of Rasulullaah remarked, "Shame on you! You have cut off your companion's neck! You have cut off your companion's neck!" Rasulullaah repeated this thrice and then added, "When any of you wishes to praise his brother for something he has certain knowledge of, he should say, 'I think that he is like this' because only Allaah knows him for sure and a person cannot declare the righteousness of another before Allaah. If he therefore knows a person to be such, he should merely state, 'I believe that he is like that." (2) Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari rarates that Rasulullaah once overheard a person overstating his praise for another. To this, Rasulullaah remarked, "You have broken the man's back (by exaggerating your praise for him."

The Incident of Hadhrat Mihjin Aslami

Hadhrat Rajaa says, "I once accompanied Hadhrat Mihjin with to the Masjid of Basrah. There we found Hadhrat Buraydah Aslami with sitting at one of the doors while a man called Sabkah was inside the Masjid performing a lengthy salaah. Hadhrat Buraydah was a man who liked making jokes and as Hadhrat Mihjin with approached wearing his shawl, Hadhrat Buraydah willing approached wearing his shawl, Hadhrat Buraydah willing did not reply and went back. He then said, "Rasulullaah will once led me by my hand and when we had climbed Mount Uhud, he looked over Madinah and said, "Woe be the time when the inhabitants of the city will have to forsake it at a time when it will be most populous! When Dajjaal will approach Madinah, he will find an angel at every one of its gates and will be unable to enter it."

Rasulullaah then climbed down and when we reached the Masjid, Rasulullaah saw a man performing salaah, engrossed in Ruku and Sajdah. Who is that?' Rasulullaah saw asked me. I then started heaping praises upon the man as I informed Rasulullaah saw who he was. Rasulullaah then bade me, 'Stop! Let him not hear you for you will then be destroying him.' Rasulullaah then continued walking and when he reached his room, he dusted off his hands and thrice repeated, 'The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest. The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest."(1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.182). Ahmad has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Anas $2556, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.44).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'ld (Vol.2 Pg. 150).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 182).

Another narration from Hadhrat Rajaa also states that when he started heaping praises upon the man as he informed Rasulullaah who the man was, Rasulullaah bade him, "Stop! Let him not hear you for you will then be destroying him." Rasulullaah then continued walking and when he reached his room, he let go of Hadhrat Mihjin who shand and said, "The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest. The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest. The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest. The best deed of your Deen is that which is easiest." (2) Yet another narration states that after informing Rasulullaah who the man was, Hadhrat Mihjin who continued to add that of all the people of Madinah, the man was the best or was the one who performed the most salaah. To this Rasulullaah twice or thrice remarked, "Let him not hear you for you will then be destroying him." Rasulullaah then be destroying him." Rasulullaah then added, "You are a nation for whom Allaah wants ease." (3)

Praising a Muslim angers Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Ibraheem Taymi reports from his father that they were once sitting with Hadhrat Umar when a man came to him and greeted with Salaam. Another person then started heaping praises on the man in front of him. To this, Hadhrat Umar said, "You have slaughtered him. May Allaah slaughter you! How can you praise a man for his Deen on his face?!" (4)

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when someone once praised Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadh

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (See and Hadhrat Jaarood (See)

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Umar was once sitting in the company of others with a whip in his hand when Hadhrat Jaarood was arrived. Someone commented, "Here is the leader of the Rabee'ah tribe!" This remark was heard by Hadhrat Umar was, the people around him and by Hadhrat Jaarood himself. When Hadhrat Jaarood came close to Hadhrat Umar was, the Khalifah struck him with the whip. "What has happened between us, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" asked a startled Hadhrat Jaarood what has happened between us?!" Hadhrat Umar was echoed, "You had definitely heard the comment." Hadhrat Jaarood replied, "I heard it, so what about it?" Hadhrat Umar was explained, "I feared that some of it may penetrate your heart (creating some pride in you) and I therefore wished to remove the effect from you,"(6)

⁽I) Bukhaarl in his Adab (Pg.51).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad (Vol.5 Pg.32).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.182).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Bukhaari in his Adab, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.182).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya in his Samt, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 167).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya in his Samt, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 167).

Hadhrat Miqdaad Throws Sand in the Faces of People who Praised him

Hadhrat Hammaam Lin Haarith reports that when someone started praising Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Miqdaad (Hadhrat Who was a large man, went towards the man and kneeling down, he started throwing pebbles in the man's face. "What is the matter?" Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Miqdaad (Hadhrat Miqdaad (Hadhrat Miqdaad)) replied, "Rasulullaah (Hadhrat When you see the people who heap praises (for ulterior motives), then throw sand in their faces (1) "(2)"

Another narration states that when someone started heaping praises on one of the Khalifahs, Hadhrat Miqdaad (Sizes) started throwing sand on the man's face saying, "Rasulullaah (Signatura) has commanded us to throw sand into the faces of those who heap praises (for ulterior motives)," (3)

The Statement and Practice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986) in this Regard

Hadhrat Ataa bin Abi Rabaah narrates that when someone started heaping praises on another person in the presence of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar State, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar State throwing sand at the man's mouth saying, "Rasulullaah state said, "When you see the people who heap praises (for ulterior motives), then throw sand in their faces." (4)

Hadhrat Ataa bin Abi Rabaah narrates that when someone started heaping praises on Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadh

Hadhrat Naafi and other reports that a person once addressed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sussi saying, "O the best of people!" or he said, "O the son of the best of people!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sussi responded by saying, "I am neither the best of people nor the son of the best of people, I am merely a servant from amongst the servants of Allaah who aspires for His mercy and fears (His punishment). By Allaah! You people keep at a man (keep heaping praise on him) until you eventually destroy him (by creating pride and vanity in him)." (6)

Hadhrat Taariq bin Shihaab reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wiss said, "A man may leave home with his Deen intact and then return without any trace of it. (This because) He would approach a man who can neither harm nor benefit himself nor another and then swear in the name of Allaah that he is so-and-so (heap praises on him). He then returns without having his need fulfilled (because ⁽i) While Hadhrat Miqdaad @@@# practized the literal meaning of the Hadith to teach the lesson, the figurative meaning is that nothing should be given to the person.

⁽²⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.414) and Abu Dawood (Vol.5 Pg.241)

⁽³⁾ Muslim, Tirmidhi (Vol.2 Pg.62) and Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.50).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.51).

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.117).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.307).

the man gave him nothing or nothing that would last) but after incurring the wrath of Allaah." (1)

Fostering and Severing Family Ties

The Incident of Rasulullaah and Abu Taalib

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that (before Rasulullaah proclaimed his Nabuwaat) the Quraysh suffered severe drought. Conditions were so hard that they were forced to eat even dried bones. During those times, there were none in better stead than Rasulullaah and (his uncle) Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib speed. Rasulullaah and therefore said to Hadhrat Abbaas processes, "Dear uncle! Your brother Abu Taalib has many children and because the Quraysh has been afflicted with the condition as you know, let us go to him and take some of his children in our care."

The two then went to Abu Taalib and said, "O Abu Taalib! Your people have been afflicted with the drought and we know that you are one of them (suffering as much as the rest). We have come to take some of your children in our care." Abu Taalib replied, "Do as you please but please leave Aqeel for me. Rasulullaah then took Hadhrat Ali said in his care while Hadhrat Abbaas in his care. The two then stayed with their custodians until they became independent. In fact, Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Dawood states that Hadhrat Ja'far said remained with Hadhrat Abbaas said until the time he migrated to Abyssinia. (2)

The Incident of Rasulullaah with Hadhrat Juwayriyyah and Hadhrat Faatimah

Hadhrat Jaabir reports that when Hadhrat Juwayriyyah informed Rasulullaah that she intended setting free one of her slaves, Rasulullaah advised her saying, "Rather give the slave to your uncle who lives amongst the Bedouins so that the slave may graze the animals for him. This will earn you a greater reward." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri المحتجة narrates that when Allaah revealed the verse: "وَابِ ذَالتَّارِيْنِ خَلَّا" ("Give the relative his right") , Rasulullaah المحتجة said to Hadhrat Faatimah ("S) "O Faatimah! You may have my land in Fidak." (5)

Rasulullaah & s Advice to the Person who Complained About the Ill Treatment he received from his Relatives

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 等時時 reports that a man once came to Rasulullaah 學學

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg. LL8) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Raythami (Vol.8 Pg.153) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.153).

⁽⁴⁾ Surah Bani Israaeel, verse 26.

⁽⁵⁾ Haakim in his Taareekh. Haakim has commented on the chain of narrators, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.158).

complaining, "I have relatives who sever ties with me when I foster them, who behave ill towards me when I am good to them and who behave foolishly with me when I behave tolerantly with them." Rasulullaah sees advice to him was, "If you are as you claim, then it is as if you are filling their mouth with burning ashes (they are harming themselves by behaving as they do). As long as you behave as you are doing, there shall remain with you an assistant (angel) from Allaah." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr some to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah saying, "I have relatives who severe ties with me when I attempt to foster them, who oppress me when I forgive them and who are bad to me when I am good to them. Should I do to them as they do to me?" Rasulullaah says sersponse was, "In that case, you would all be partners (in evil). You should rather adopt the better stance and continue bonding ties because as long as you behave as you are doing, there shall remain with you an assistant (angel) from Allaah." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah with a Man who Severed Family Ties

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Sulaymaan who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan says, "Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah once came to us on the night between Thursday and Friday and said, 'I am stating with great emphasis that anyone who severs family ties should leave this gathering." However, no one left until he had repeated the announcement three times. A youngster then stood up and went to an aunt of his with whom he had severed ties for two years. Surprised, she asked, "Dear nephew! What brings you here?" when he informed her about what Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah had mentioned, she said, "Go back to him and ask him why he had stated what he did." (When the young man made the enquiry) Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah said, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'The deeds of mankind are presented to Allaah on every night between Thursday and Friday and (while the deeds of all are accepted) the deeds of the one who severs family ties are not accepted." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Requests people who severe Family ties to leave when he Intended Making Du'aa

Hadhrat A'mash narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was sitting in a gathering after the Fajr salaah when he said, "In the name of Allaah do i ask those who severe family ties to leave us because we intend making du'aa to our Rabb and the doors of the heavens are locked to those who sever family ties." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.315). Bukhaari has also reported the narration in his Adab (Pg.11).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.154) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.12).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 151) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Chapter Ten

The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah (2006) and their Noble Traits

This chapter highlights the character and traits of Rasulullaah 經濟 and the Sahabah 的學 and how they interacted with each other

The Noble Character of Rasulullaah

The Statements of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Hishaam reports that he once asked Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tell me about the character of Rasulullaah ""Have you not read the Qur'aan?" she asked. "Of course, I have," he replied. Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Rasulullaah "Ss character was the Qur'aan (every noble character trait mentioned in the Qur'aan was to be found in the life of Rasulullaah ("I)

Another narration mentions that Hadhrat Qataadah 認識多 said, "Indeed the Qur'aan brought every noble trait of good character." (2)

⁽I) Muslim and Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg 35), ⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.90). Abu Nu'aym has also reported a similar narration in his Dalaa'il (Pg.56) as has Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.90) narrating from Hadhrat Masrooq.

⁽³⁾ Ya'qoob bin Sutyaan

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 6 Pg.35).

companions or family called for him, he always responded by saying, 'At your service.' It was for this reason that Allaah revealed the verse:

Verily, you (O Rasulullaah (1)) are (firmly stationed) upon an exalted (flawless) character. (Surah Qalam, verse 4)

Hadhrat Qais bin Wahab reports from a man from the Banu Suraat tribe that he once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tell me about the character of Rasulullaah "Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Have you not read in the Qur'aan where Allaah says:?" She then continued, "Rasulullaah was once with his companions when I and Hafsah ("Basulullaah was once with his companions when I and Hafsah ("Basulullaah was both prepared some food for him. When she beat me to sending the food. I sent my slave girl with instructions to overturn the platter. Consequently, when Hafsah was serving the food to Rasulullaah was gathered the food that had fallen on the ground and the Sahabah was ate it. When I sent my platter, Rasulullaah handed it over to Hafsah was saying, "Take this platter in place of yours and eat whatever is in it." I did not notice even a hint of displeasure on the face of Rasulullaah was "(2)"

The statement of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit in this Regard

Hadhrat Khaarijah bin Zaid narrates that a group of people once came to his father Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit with the request, "Tell us something about the character of Rasulullaah "I Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit said, "I was Rasulullaah se's neighbour. When revelation would come to him, he would send for me and I would come to him to write it down. Whenever we spoke of worldly matters, he also spoke about it, whenever we spoke of the Aakhirah, he also spoke about it and whenever we spoke of food, he also spoke of the same (he was never aloof from us). I am narrating all this to you on behalf of Rasulullaah set." (3)

A Narration of Hadhrat Safiyya

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay (Rasulullaah) is wife) says, "I have never seen anyone with better character than Rasulullaah . I was riding on the back of his camel with him as we returned from Khaybar. It was at night and as I began to fall asleep, my head hit the back of the carriage. Rasulullaah is touched me gently as he said, 'Take it easy, dear lady. Take it easy, O daughter of Huyay (this is not the place to sleep).' When we eached a place called Sahbaa, he said to me,

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'il (Pg.57).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.44).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Daláa'il (Pg.57). Tirmidhi and Bayhaqi have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Kihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.42) as has Tabraani as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.17). Ibn Abu Dawood in his Masaahif, Abu Ya'la, Rooyaani and Ibn Asaakir have also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.185). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.90) has reported a similar narration as well.

'Do excuse me for what I had to do with your people (the Jews of Khaybar).' He then explained to me what they had said (and done) to him (because of which he was forced to act against them)." (1)

Narrations of Hadhrat Anas in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah see was one of the most compassionate people. I swear by Allaah that he never refused even a slave or a child who brought water to him on a freezing morning (to wash with it and then give it back to them for blessings). (Despite the intense cold) He would wash his face and arms with the water. Whenever anyone came to him with a request, he would listen attentively to the person and not move away until the person moved away. Whenever anyone took him by the hand, he would give his hand and not pull it away until the person himself let go." (2)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik saws, "After Rasulullaah performed the Fajr salaah, the slaves of Madinah would come to him with their utensils of water. Rasulullaah would then dip his hands into every utensil brought (so that the people may have the blessings of his blessed limbs). At times, people would come to him on an extremely cold morning, but he would still dip his hands into the water." (3)

Hadhrat Anas show also reports, "Whenever Rasulullaah shook hands with anyone or whenever anyone shook his hands, he would never pull his hand away until the person pulled his own hand away first. He would also not turn away from a person he was facing (when speaking) until the person himself turned away first. He was also never to be seen stretching out his feet towards a person sitting before him." (4)

Hadhrat Anas Sales narrates, "I have never seen Rasulullaah see move his head away from anyone whispering into his ear until the person himself moved away. I have also never seen Rasulullaah see pull his hand away from anyone holding his hand until the person himself let go of Rasulullaah see's hand." (5)

Narrations of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1996) and Hadhrat Anas (1996) Concerning Rasulullaah (1996) s Shaking Hands with the Sahabah (1996)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says, "Whenever anyone took Rasulullaah says hand (to shake it), he never pulled it away until the person himself let go. Rasulullaah says feet were also never to be seen stretched out towards a person sitting in front of him. When someone shook his hand, Rasulullaah says turned his full attention towards the person and would not turn away

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani and Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.15) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'il (Pg.57).

⁽³⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.256).

⁽⁴⁾ Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan, Tirmidhi and ibn Maajah, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 pg.39). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 pg.99) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.39).

until the person had finished what he had to say." (1)

Hadhrat Anas says, "Even if it were a child from amongst the common children of Madinah who took Rasulullaah say by the hand, he would not pull his hand away from hers so that she could take him wherever she wanted to." (2) Another narration states that even the slaves girls of Madinah could take Rasulullaah say by the hand and take him wherever she needed him to go." (3) Hadhrat Anas reports that a lady who was mentally deranged once came to Rasulullaah say and said, "O Rasulullaah say! I need you to do something for me." Addressing her by her title, Rasulullaah said, "Choose any of the streets (to explain it to me) so that I may address your problem (Rasulullaah say chose to speak to her privately in a place where people could see them so that no suspicions would be aroused). Rasulullaah say then stepped aside with her in one of the streets where she explained her problem to him." (4) Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslamah Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslamah (Williams says, "When I once returned from a journey, Rasulullaah (Williams took me by the hand and did not leave it until I let go of his hand." (5)

Rasulullaah Always Chose the Easier of Two Options and only Took Revenge for the Sake of Allaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Whenever Rasulullaah was faced with two options, he always chose the easier of the two (so that it would be easy for the Ummah to emulate) on condition that it did not entail sin. If it entailed sin, he was then the most abstinent of people. He also never took revenge for personal reasons. He had people punished only when anything forbidden by Allaah was violated, in which case he had the punishment meted for the sake of Allaah." (6) Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Rasulullaah see never hit any servant or woman. In fact, he never hit anything unless he was fighting in Jihaad in the path of Allaah. Whenever faced with two options, he always chose the easier of the two on condition that it did not entail sin. If it entailed sin, he was then the most abstinent of people. He also never took revenge for anything done against him. He had people punished only when anything forbidden by Allaah was violated, in which case he had the punishment meted for the sake of Allaah says called in which case he had the punishment meted for the sake of Allaah says violated, in which case he had the punishment meted for the sake of Allaah says violated, in which case he had the punishment meted for the sake of Allaah says violated, in which case he had the punishment meted for the sake of Allaah says violated. (7)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 15).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Ibn Maajah.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Bukhaari in his Adab, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.49).

⁽⁴⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg, 256). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Dalaa'll (Pg. 57).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.17) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Maalik, Abu Dawood, Nasa'ee and Ahmad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.47). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Dalaa'ii (Pg.57).

⁽⁷⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.36). Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.256), Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'il, Abdur Razzaaq, Abd bin Humayd and Haakim have also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.47).

forbidden by Allaah was violated, in which case he was amongst the most infuriated of people. Whenever faced with two options, he always chose the easier of the two on condition that it did not entail sin." (1)

Rasulullaah was Never Rude, Noisy, Vulgar or one who Cursed

Hadhrat Abu Abdullaah Jadali says that when Hadhrat Aa'lsha was questioned about the character of Rasulullaah we, he heard her reply, "Rasulullaah we was never rude and vulgar and never even pretended to be so. He was never noisy in the marketplaces and never fought evil with evil. In fact, he always forgave and overlooked." (2)

Hadhrat Saali!. narrates that when describing Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah . When he turned towards someone, he turned completely and when he turned away from someone, he also turned completely. May my parents be sacrificed for him! Rasulullaah . was never rude and vulgar and never even pretended to be so. He was never noisy in the marketplaces." Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah . added, "Never have I seen any like him before and never after."

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah sa was never vulgar, never cursed people and never rude. The most he would tell someone when scolding him was, "What is the matter with him? May sand fall on his forehead!" (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (Fig. 1) reports, "Rasulullaah (Fig. 2) was never rude and vulgar and never even pretended to be so. He always said, "The best of you is the one with the best character." (5)

Rasulullaah 🕮 s Sterling Character with his Servant Hadhrat Anas 🕬

Hadhrat Anas sales narrates, "When Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah, Abu Taiha sales led me by my hand to Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah, Abu Taiha sales led me by my hand to Rasulullaah arrived and said, 'O Rasulullaah arrived and sales and said, 'O Rasulullaah arrived and sales and sales and sales and sales and sales and sales and sales arrived and that for anything I did, he never said, "Why did you do that in that way?" and when I failed to do something, he never once asked, "Why did you not do that like this?" (6) In another narration, Hadhrat Anas sales reports, "Rasulullaah sales had the very best of character. He once sent me to do something one day to which I blurted, 'By Allaah! I shall never do it!' In my heart however, I had resolved that I

(I) Titmidhi in his Shamaa'ii (Pg.25) as well as Abu Ya'la and Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.) Pg.473.

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood Tayaalisi and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 6 Pg.36), Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 1 Pg.90), Ahmad and Haakim have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.47).

⁽³⁾ Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad and Bukhaari.

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.36):

⁽⁶⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.253)

would definitely carry out his instructions. After leaving, I passed by some children playing in the marketplace. (As I stood there watching them) Rasulullaah suddenly grabbed hold of my neck from behind. As I looked at him, he was laughing as he said, 'Dear little Anas! Have you been to where I sent you?' 'Yes,' I replied, 'I am presently on my way there, O Rasulullaah ses."

Hadhrat Anas reports further. He says, "By Allaah! Although I was in Rasulullaah ses service for nine years, he never said to anything I did, 'Why did you do that?' and when I failed to do something, he never once asked, 'Why did you not do that?"

Another narration states that Hadhrat Anas Sales said, "I served Rasulullaah for ten years, I swear by Allaah that he never once told me 'Oof!'

(synonymous to "Oh no!" or any other expression of displeasure). Not once did he ever ask me. 'Why did you do that?' or 'Why did you not do that?''(1)

Hadhrat Anas sales also narrates, "Although I served Rasulullaah sales for ten years, he never once scolded me for something that I had delayed in carrying out or that I had bungled. Even when any member of his household scolded me, he would tell them, 'Leave him alone. When something had been destined to happen, it will happen."(2)

Hadhrat Anas says, "Although I served Rasulullaah so for ten years, not once did he ever swear at me, hit me, scold me or even frown at me. He never once scolded me for something that I had delayed in carrying out or that I had bungled and when any member of his household scolded me, he would tell them, 'Leave him alone. When something had been destined to happen, it will happen."

Hadhrat Anas says, "When Rasulullaah sayrived in Madinah, I was a boy of eight. My mother took me to Rasulullaah sayring, 'O R

The Noble Character of the Sahabah

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Regarding, Hadhrat Uthmaan was and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Sies) says, "There are three men from the Quraysh who are the most handsome, have the best character and have the most ⁽¹⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.253). Bukhaari has also reported the narration in similar words.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.37). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.J I) has reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'il (Pg.57).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.9).

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Siess said, "There are three men from the Quraysh who are the most handsome, have the best character and have the strongest sense of modesty. They are Abu Bakr Siess, Uthmaan Siess and Abu Ubaydah Siess." (2)

Rasulullaah E Testifies to the Excellent Character of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Rasulullaah (2008) once said, "If I chose to do so, I could take each of my companions to task for aspects of their character except for Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (2008)."(3)

Rasulullaah says that the Character of Hadhrat Uthmaan says is Closest to his Own

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Uthmaan Qurashi (The Hadhrat

Rasulullaah ﷺ's Comments about the Character of Hadhrat Ja'far ﷺ, Hadhrat Zaid ﷺ, Hadhrat Ali ﷺ and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin

Ja'far Elisting

Hadhrat Abdullaah (1996) who was the son of Rasulullaah (1996) freed slave Aslam (1996) reports that Rasulullaah (1996) once said to Hadhrat Ja'far (1996), "You resemble me both in looks and in personality."

(I) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.56).

(2) Tabraani, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.253).

- (3) Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.253). Haakim (Vol.2 Pg.266) has reported a similar narration.
- (4) Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.81).
- (5) Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.81) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim and Ibn Asaakir have reported similar narrations, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.4).
- (6) Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.272).

Hadhrat Ali Sie narrates, "Ja'far Sie, Zaid Sie and I once came to Rasulullaah Se. Rasulullaah Res said to Zaid Sie, You are our brother and friend," Zaid Sie skipped with joy. Rasulullaah Se then said to Ja'far Sie, "You resemble me both in looks and in personality". Ja'far Sie then skipped about even more than Zaid Sie. Thereafter, Rasulullaah Se said to me, 'You are from me and I from you.' I therefore skipped about more than Zaid Sie and Ia'far Sie "(1)

Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid (Fig. 1) reports that Rastilullaah (Fig. 2) once said to Hadhrat Ja'far (Fig. 2) reports that Rastilullaah (Fig. 2) reports that Ra Hadhrat Abdullaah (From all of Allaah's creation, you most resemble your father (Ja'far Size)."

Heard from Rasulullaah (From all of Allaah's creation, you most resemble your father (Ja'far Size)."

Heard from Rasulullaah (From all of Allaah's creation, you most resemble your father (Ja'far Size)."

Heard from Rasulullaah (From all of Allaah's creation, you most resemble your father (Ja'far Size)."

The Excellent Character of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Bahriyyah reports, "When my uncle Khidaash saw Rasulullaah eating from a particular plate, he asked Rasulullaah to give it to him. The plate then remained with us afterwards. Whenever Hadhrat Umar used to ask for it to be taken out, we would fill it with Zamzam water and give it to him. He would then drink from it and pour it over his head and face. However, it once occurred that a thief did us a grave injustice when he stole the plate along with other possessions of ours. Hadhrat Umar saw then came to us one day after the theft and asked us to take the plate out. 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen!' we submitted, 'It was stolen along with some other goods of ours.' Hadhrat Umar saw exclaimed, 'A pretty clever thief to steal Rasulullaah saw's plate!' By Allaah! Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas arrived (in Madinah), he stayed with his nephew Hadhrat Hurr bin Qais who happened to be amongst those that Hadhrat Umar kept close to him. It was only the learned ones whom Hadhrat Umar kept close to him. It was only the learned ones whom Hadhrat Umar kept in his company and with whom he consulted, regardless of whether they were young or old. Hadhrat Uyaynah kept said to his nephew, "Dear nephew! Since you have some status in the eyes of the Ameer, please secure permission for me to see him." When Hadhrat Umar kept granted permission, Hadhrat Uyaynah kept called out, "Hey son of Khattaab! By Allaah! Neither do you give us much nor do you rule us with justice!" This outburst made Hadhrat Umar kept so angry that he was close to assaulting Hadhrat Uyaynah

⁽I) Ibn Abi Shaybah, Abu Ya'la and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntaknab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.130).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.272) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ugayli and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 222).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.57). Bushraan has also reported the narration in his Amaall, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.400).

প্রাক্তের Hadhrat Hurr প্রাক্তি then intervened saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Allaah had mentioned to His Nabi প্রস্কৃত্তি:

Adopt forgiveness, instruct (others to do) what is right and ignore the ignorant ones (because it is futile to argue with them). (Surah A'raaf, verse 199)

This man is certainly from amongst the ignorant ones."

The narrator says, "By Allaah! When this verse was recited to him, Hadhrat Umar says," did not do a thing. It was his noble trait to immediately forsake anything for the instruction of the Qur'aan." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sissis says, "I have never seen a time when Hadhrat Umar Sissis became angry and was not dissuaded from taking action (against the perpetrator) by the mention of Allaah, mention of fear for Allaah or by someone reciting a verse of the Qur'aan to him." (2)

Hadhrat Bilaal (1956) once asked Hadhrat Aslam, "How do you find Hadhrat Umar (1969) Hadhrat Aslam replied, "He is an excellent man. However, matters are grave when he becomes angry." Hadhrat Bilaal (1966) advised him saying, "If you are with him at a time when he becomes angry, just recite the Qur'aan until his anger vanishes."

Hadhrat Maalik Daar (one of Hadhrat Umar sies slaves) says, "Hadhrat Umar noce shouted at me and was about to strike me with his whip when I said, 'I urge you to remember Allaah!' He immediately threw down his whip saying, 'You have reminded me of a Great Being," (3)

The Excellent Character of Hadhrat Mus'ab

Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah Sass, "Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr Sass was a friend of mine from the time he accepted Islaam up to the time that he was martyred at Uhud. May Allaah shower His mercy on him. He accompanied us on both migrations to Abyssinia and was my travelling companion. I must say that I have never seen a person with better character than him nor one who had fewer differences with people than he." (4)

Hadhrat Habba bin Juwayn reports that they were once with Hadhrat Ali when they started to mention some of the statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wie. Praising him, someone said (to Hadhrat Ali wie.), "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We have never seen a man with better character, nor anyone who teaches as compassionately, nor anyone who is better company nor anyone more plous than Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wie." Hadhrat Ali wie asked, "I ask you to say in the name of Allaah whether this is the truth in your hearts." When they

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari, Ibn Mundhir, Ibn Abi Haatim, Ibn Mardway and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.416).

⁽²⁾ Ibn 5a'd

⁽³⁾ Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.413).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.82).

expressed that it was, Hadhrat Ali remarked, "O Allaah! I make You the Witness that my opinion of him (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin

The Noble Character of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Saalim says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Image of the cursed a single slave save for one whom he then set free (as compensation)." Hadhrat Zuhri says that as he was about to curse a slave, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("Image of Said," "O Allaah! May Your cur..." He then did not complete the word (curse) and said, "That is a word that I hate to mention."

The narration has already passed in the chapter entitled "The fervour that Rasulullaah (25) and the Sahabah (25) had to Spend in the Path of Allaah" in which Hadhrat Jaabir (35) says, "Mu'aadh bin Jabal (35) was amongst the most handsome of people, amongst those with the best character and the most open-handed."

Tolerance and Overlooking The Tolerance of Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah 's Tolerance with the Person who Criticised the Manner in which he Distributed the Booty of the Battle of Hunayn

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Feports, "After the Battle of Hunayn Rasulullaah Fe gave extra (booty) to some people. He gave Aqra bin Haabis And Uyaynah bin Hisn Fe a hundred camels each and gave a lot to certain other people as well. Someone remarked, 'Allaah's pleasure was certainly not intended in this distribution.' I said, 'I am definitely going to report this to Rasulullaah Fe when I reported it to Rasulullaah Fe, he said, 'May Allaah shower His mercy on Moosa Fe. Greater abuse than this was hurled at him but he exercised patience."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.110).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.307).

⁽³⁾ Under the subheading "The Natration of Hadhrat Jaabit 5200 Concerning the Generosity of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 5200.

do not? May Allaah shower His mercy on Moosa his. Greater abuse than this was hurled at him but he exercised patience." (1)

Rasulullaah : is Tolerant towards Dhu Khuwaysarah

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Wiss narrates that when they were with Rasulullaah while he was distribution the spoils of war, Dhu Khuwaysarah who belonged to the Banu Tameem tribe came to him. Dhu Khuwaysarah said, "O Rasulullaah 優麗! Be just!" Rasulullaah 優麗 said. "Shame on you! Who will be just if I am not? May I be a failure and at a loss (if I do not exercise justice)! Who can possibly be just if I am not?" Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (1) then asked. "O Rasulullaah @ Permit me to behead him!" "Leave him." Rasulullaah replied, "because he has some friends before whose salaah you would look down on your own salaah and before whose fasts you would look down on your own fasts. Although they recite the Qur'aan, it does not pass even their collarbones, They pass through Islaam just as an arrow passes through prey and you find no trace of it on the arrow's head when you examine it closely. Even when you examine the thread (that fixes the head to the shaft), you find no trace (of the prey). Similarly, you find no trace of it even after examining the shaft and the feathers of the arrow although the arrow passed through the gut and blood of the prey. The outstanding feature of these people will be a dark-skinned man whose one arm will be hanging loose and will appear like a woman's breast or like a loose piece of flesh. They will make their appearance at a time when there will be disunity amongst the people."

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (Saiss) says further, "I testify that I had certainly heard these words from Rasulullaah (Saiss) and I also testify that I was with Ali bin Abi Taalib (Saiss) when he fought against these people. Upon the instruction of Ali (Saiss), a search was carried out for this man. When he was brought, I saw him to be exactly as Rasulullaah (Saiss) had described him." (2)

Rasulullaah is Tolerant with Hadhrat Umar at the Death of Abdullaah bin Ubay

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with says that when Abdullaah bin Ubay died, his son approached Rasulullaah with the request, "Give me your upper garment so that I may shroud my father in it. I also want you to lead the funeral prayer (Janaazah salaah) for my father and to seek Allaah's forgiveness for him." Rasulullaah with garment and told him, "Let me know when I should lead the prayer." When the son called for Rasulullaah with and he was about to go, Hadhrat Umar with pulled Rasulullaah with back saying, "Did Allaah not forbid you from praying for the Munaafiqeen?" Rasulullaah with replied, "I have two choices because Allaah says:

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari,

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.362).

﴿ اِسْتَغْفِرُ لَهُمْ أَوْلاً تَسْتَغْفِرْلَهُمْ * ﴾ (سورة توبه آبت ٨٠)

'Seek forgiveness for them (the Munaafiqeen) or do not seek forgiveness for them." (Surah Taubah, verse 80) Rasulullaah (then proceeded to lead the salaah, after which Allaah revealed the verse:

Do not ever perform (the funeral) salaah for any of them who die. {Surah Taubah, verse 84} ⁽¹⁾

Hadhrat Umar Sisses says, "When Abdullaah bin Ubay died. Rasulullaah says called for the Janaazah salaah and he proceeded. When Rasulullaah stood before the corpse with the intention of leading the salaah, I turned around and stood in front of him saying, 'O Rasulullaah see! Will you perform the salaah for the enemy of Allaah, Abdullaah bin Ubay, the one who made all those (blasphemous) statements?" I then went on to recount the things he had said. Rasulullaah see continued smiling and it was only when I had gone too far that he said, 'Do move away from me, O Umar because I have been given a choice and have made mine. I have been told:

(سورة توبه آيت ٨٠)

'(O Muhammad ()') Seek forgiveness for them (the Munaaliqeen) or do not seek forgiveness for them. Even if you seek forgiveness for them seventy times, Allaah will never forgive them. This is because they disbelieved in Allaah and His Rasool (). Allaah does not guide the disobedient ones (because they have no desire to be guided).' (Surah Taubah, verse 80)

If I knew that he would be forgiven if I sought forgiveness for him more than seventy times, I would certainly exceed seventy.' Rasulullaah the proceeded to lead the salaah and stood by the grave until the funeral was over. I was greatly perplexed by my audaciousness before Rasulullaah for Allaah and His Rasool km know best (what is right and what not). By Allaah! it was hardly much longer afterwards that Allaah revealed the following two verses:

Do not ever perform (the funeral) salaah for any of them who die and do not stand over their graves (to bury them or to visit their graves). Undoubtedly they disbelieved in Allaah and His Rasool and died as disobedient people (as Kuffaar). Their wealth and their children should not impress you. Allaah intends to punish them with these in this worldly life and (Allaah intends) that their souls depart (from this world) while they are Kaafiroon. (Surah Taubah, verses 84,85)

After this and up to the day he passed away, Rasulullaah he never led the Janaazah salaah of any Munaafiq and never stood by any of their graves." (1) Hadhrat Jaabir he reports that when Abdullaah bin Ubay died, his son came to Rasulullaah sair saying, "O Rasulullaah if If you do not attend my father's funeral, people will always be insulting us." When Rasulullaah arrived (at the funeral), he found that the body had already been placed into the grave. Rasulullaah said, "Why did you not call me before you lowered him in the grave?" The body was then taken out and Rasulullaah be blew on it from head to foot and also shrouded it with his own garment (primarily because Abdullaah bin Ubay gave his garment to Rasulullaah said success after the Battle of Badr). (2)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah came to (the funeral) Abdullaah bin Ubay after he had been lowered into his grave. By the command of Rasulullaah case, the body was then taken out and placing the body on his knees, Rasulullaah the blew on the body and shrouded it with his own garment. (3)

Rasulullaah A Shows Tolerance Towards the Jew who Cast a Spell over him

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam was says that because a Jew had cast a spell over Rasulullaah was Rasulullaah was was ill for several days. Hadhrat Jibra'eel was then came to Rasulullaah says saying, "One of the Jews has cast a spell over you. He has tied a few knots and placed them in a certain well. Send someone to fetch it." Rasulullaah says sent Hadhrat Ali says, who removed it from the well and brought it to Rasulullaah says. When Rasulullaah untied the knots, it appeared as if he had been freed from bondage. Until his death, Rasulullaah says never even mentioned this to the Jew and no anger could even be noticed on Rasulullaah says face. (4)

Hadhrat Aa'isha see narrates that aspell was cast on Rasulullaah see because of which he would think that he had been to his wives when in reality he had not. One of the narrators called Sufyaan says that this is the worst effect of witchcraft. Rasulullaah see one day said to Hadhrat Aa'isha see, "O Aa'ishal Allaah has given a reply to the question I posed to Him. Two (angels in the form of) men came to me. The one sat by my head and the other by my feet. The one by my head asked, 'What is the matter with this person?' 'He has been affected by

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Tirmidhi and Bukhaari,

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Nasa'ce.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg. 378).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad and Nasa'ee.

witchcraft,' replied the other. 'Who is responsible for the witchcraft?' the first one asked further. 'Labeed bin A'sam,' came the reply. Labeed was a hypocrite belonging to the Banu Zurayq tribe and was an ally to the Jews. The angel enquired further, 'Upon what did he carry it out?' 'Upon a comb and the hairs it had removed,' the other replied. 'Where is it now?' was the next question. The reply was, 'In the male spathe of a palm beneath a rock in the Dharwaan well."' Rasulullaah then went to the well and had the thing removed. Rasulullaah also said, "This was the very well I was shown with water appearing like that used to wash a henna-filled container and the palms of which appeared to be the heads of the Shayaateen." Hadhrat Aa'isha was asked, "Why did you not publicise the event?" Rasulullaah replied. "Allaah had cured me from it and I do not wish to start a scandal against someone." (1)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Aa'isha as said, "It was for six months that Rasulullaah would think that he had been to his wives when in reality he had not. Two angels then came to him..." The rest of the Hadith continues (like the one above). (2)

Rasulullaah Shows Tolerance Towards the Jewish Woman who Served him Poisoned Meat

Hadhrat Anas Freports that a Jewish woman once gave Rasulullaah a poisoned goat meat, which he ate from. When the woman was later brought before Rasulullaah (when he discovered what she had done), he questioned her about it. "I wanted to kill you," she admitted. Rasulullaah responded by saying, "Allaah would never give the power to kill me," "Are you not going to have her executed?" the Sahabah saked. "No," replied Rasulullaah saked. "Radhrat Anas says. "I could always notice the effect of the poison on Rasulullaah says uvula." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah which was poisoned. "Hang on," Rasulullaah which was poisoned. "Hang on," Rasulullaah which was poisoned." Rasulullaah which was poisoned. "Rasulullaah which was poisoned." Rasulullaah which then questioned the woman, "What made you do this?" Her response was, "I wanted to know that if you really are a Rasul, Allaah would inform you about it and if you are not, people could be rid of you." Rasulullaah which did not take any action against her. (4)

Another narration from Hadhral Abdullaah bin Abbaas (30%) adds that whenever Rasulullaah (30%) felt the effect of the poison, he would have his blood cupped. In fact, when he was on a journey and about to enter the state of lhraam on one occasion, he sensed its effect and had cupping done. (5)

Hadhrat Jaabir reports that a Jewish woman from Khaybar once poisoned

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari.

⁽²⁾ Muslim and Ahmad, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.574).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi, Abu Dawood, Ahmad and Bukhaari.

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad

However, some of the Sahabah who had eaten from the meat passed away and because he had also eaten from it, Rasulullaah who had blood cupped from his shoulder. Hadhrat Abu Hind who was a freed slave of the Ansaar Banu Bayaadha tribe did the cupping using a horn and a blade. Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Salamah who states that Hadhrat Bishr bin Baraa bin Ma'roor who passed away (from the poisoning). The narration further states that (because of this death) Rasulullaah whether had the woman executed. (1)

Hadhrat Marwaan bin Uthmaan bin Abu Sa'eed bin Mu'allaa Speed narrates that when Rasulullaah see was on his deathbed, the sister of Hadhrat Bishr bin Baraa bin Ma'roor speed came to visit him. Rasulullaah see said to her "O Ummu Bishr! I can now feel my arteries shredding because of what I ate with your brother in Khaybar." (Because of this) Muslims believe that together with the mantle of Nabuwaat, Allaah also blessed Rasulullaah see with the mantle of martyrdom. (2)

Rasulullaah Expressed Tolerance towards a Man who Wished to Assassinate him

Hadhrat Ja'da bin Khaalid bin Simmah Jushami harrates that Rasulullaah once saw a man with a large belly and pointed towards the man's belly. Hadhrat Ja'da then heard Rasulullaah say, "It would have been better for you if that had been somewhere else (if you had spent on those without food rather than gorging yourself)." Thereafter, a man was brought and Rasulullaah was informed that the man had intended to assassinate Rasulullaah file. "There is nothing to be feared," Rasulullaah said, "Had you tried it, Allaah would have never given you power over me." (3)

Rasulullaah Behaves Tolerantly Towards a Party of the Quraysh who Planned an Ambush

Hadhrat Anas (Sies) narrates that during the time when the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah was being concluded, eighty armed men from Makkah approached from Mount Tan'eem with the express purpose of ambushing Rasulullaah and the Sahabah William. However, they were captured when Rasulullaah and a du'aa to Allaah. Rasulullaah then forgave them, after which Allaah revealed the verse:

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haag, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.208).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Khalaaji (Vol.2 Pg.25)

It is Allaah Who restrained their hands from (lighting) you and your hands from (lighting) them right in Makkah (at Hudaybiyyah) after granting you dominance over them. Allaah is always Watchful over what you do. {Surah Fatah, verse 24}⁽¹⁾

In a lengthy narration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal says, "As we remained there, thirty armed men left (Makkah) and attacked us by surprise. Rasulullaah says however prayed to Allaah and Allaah made them all deaf. (As they stood dumbstruck) We then got up and captured them. Rasulullaah says then asked them, "Have you men come under the protection of any treaty or has anyone granted you any amnesty?" When they replied in the negative, Rasulullaah says let them go. It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

It is Allaah Who restrained their hands from (fighting) you and your hands from (fighting) them right in Makkah (at Hudaybiyyah) after granting you dominance over them. Allaah is always Watchful over what you do. {Surah Fatah, verse 24}⁽²⁾

Rasulullaah si Tolerance with the Daus Tribe

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports that Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr of the Daus tribe once came to Rasulullaah and said, "The Daus tribe are disobedient and refuse to accept (Islaam). Please curse them." Rasulullaah then turned to face the Qibla and raised his hands (to pray), to which the Sahabah remarked, "Those people will certainly be destroyed." Rasulullaah then prayed, "O Allaah! Guide the Daus tribe and bring them (to us as Muslims). O Allaah! Guide the Daus tribe and bring them." (3)

The Tolerance of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abu Za'raa (Siass) reports that Hadhrat Ali bin Abu Taalib (Siass) used to say, "My pure wives, pious progeny and myself have been the most tolerant people in youth and the most learned as adults. It is us that Allaah uses to eradicate dishonesty, to shatter the teeth of rabid dogs, to deliver you from your

⁽I) Ahmad, Muslim, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Nasa'ee., as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg. 192).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim.

tyrants, to remove the shackles from your necks, to start off things and to terminate them." (1)

The narration has already passed⁽²⁾ in which Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Said, "I have not seen any person as quick-witted, as intelligent, as knowledgeable and as tolerant as Abdullaah bin Abbaas Saids"

Compassion and Mercy The Compassion of Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah shortens the Salaah because of a Childs Cries and another Incident of his Compassionate Nature

Hadhrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah of once said, "I sometimes commence the salaah with the intention of lengthening it when I hear the cries of a child and then shorten the salaah because I know that the crying would pain the mother." (3)

Hadhrat Anas harrates that a man once asked Rasulullaah (%), "Where is my father (who died as a Mushrik)?" "In the fire (of Jahannam)," came the reply. When Rasulullaah (%) saw the grief on the man's face, he consoled him by saying, "Both my father (4) as well as yours are in the fire." (5)

The Incident of Rasulullaah was and a Bedouin who Addressed him Very Harshly

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah harrates that a Bedouin once came to Rasulullaah to seek assistance in paying some blood money. After giving him a handsome sum, Rasulullaah asked "Have i done you justice?" "Not at all," the man replied, "You have not done me any good." This angered some Muslims so much that they wanted to get up and hit the man. Rasulullaah have however motioned to them to restrain themselves. When Rasulullaah aske later stood up and went to his room, he called the Bedouin to his room saying, "You came to us asking for something and we gave it to you. You then made the remark that you did." Rasulullaah the Bedouin said, "You have indeed. May Allah reward you amply on behalf of all my family and relatives."

Rasulullaah (then said to him, "You came to us asking for something and we

Abdul Ghani bin Sa'eed in his Idaahui Askaal, as quoted in Afuntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5, Po.50).

⁽²⁾ In the chapter entitled " Hadhrat Umar 知過過 Consults with Men of knowledge" and under the subheading "Hadhrat Umar 知識 and Hadhrat Uthmaan 知識 Consult with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 知識 and the Good Comments that Hadhrat Umar 知識 and Hadhrat Sa'd 知識 made about him".

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Safwatus Safwa (Pg.66).

⁽⁴⁾ Allaah knows best the condition of Rasulullaah (22) parents in the Aakhirah because certain narrations suggest that Allaah accepted Rasulullaah (22) intercession on their behalf.

⁽⁵⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Safwatus Safwa (Pg.66).

gave it to you. You then made the remark that you did, thus causing hurt to the hearts of my companions. Now when you leave, tell them what you have just said before me so that the hurt may leave their hearts." The man agreed and when he again arrived (in the gathering), Rasulullaah & said, "Your friend here came to us asking for something and we gave it to him. He then made the remark that he did. We then called for him and again gave him something. He now believes that he is satisfied. Is that not true, dear Bedouin?" the Bedouin replied, "It certainly is. May Allah reward you amply on behalf of all my family and relatives."

Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "Indeed the example of this Bedouin and myself is like a person who had a camel. When the camel bolted from him and the people ran after it, all that they achieved was to make it run further away. The owner of the camel then said, "Leave me to my camel because I am more compassionate towards it and know it better. He then headed for the camel taking along with him some dates that had fallen to the ground. He then called for the camel and it responded and came to him, He then comfortably tied his carriage to it. Had I done as you wanted when he made the remark he did, he would certainly have been doomed for Jahannam." (1)

The Compassion of the Sahabah 經過過

Hadhrat Asma'ee reports that (when Hadhrat Umar who became the Ameerul Mu'mineen) the people requested Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf who to speak to Hadhrat Umar who to be gentle with the people because even young damsels in their secluded quarters were overawed by him. When Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf who had spoken to Hadhrat Umar who, the Ameerul Mu'mineen said, "That is the only way I see appropriate to treat the people. By Allaah! If the people knew the gentleness, the mercy and the compassion I have for them, they would actually take the clothes off my back." (2)

Modesty

The Modesty of Rasulullaah

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Concerning the Modesty of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Saws says, "Rasulullaah W was more modest than a virgin in her own secluded quarters." Another narration adds that whenever Rasulullaah W disliked something, it would be noticed on his face. (3)

Hadhrat Anas significant reports that Rasulullaah significant said, "Modesty is goodness

Bazzaar, as quoted in the Talseer of 1bn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.404). Ibn Hibbaan in his Saheeh, Abush Shaykh and 1bn Jowzi in his Wafaa have also reported the narration, as quoted by Khafaji (Vol.2 Pg.78).

⁽²⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.416).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.36). Tirmidhi has also reported the narration in his Shamaa'il (Pg.26) as has ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.92) and Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.17).

through and through." (i)

Rasulullaah Dislikes Telling People what would Displease them

Hadhrat Anas 劉德德 narrates that Rasulullaah 總確 was once displeased when he saw some Sufrah (a fragrance usually worn by women that stains the clothing yellow) on a person. After the person had left, Rasulullaah 總確 said (to the other Sahabah 經濟), "Why do you people not instruct him to wash the Sufrah off?" Hadhrat Anas 劉德德 says, "It was never the habit of Rasulullaah 總確 to tell a person on his face something that would displease him." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (@1666) says, "Whenever the news reached Rasulullaah (1666) that someone had said something, he would never say, "What is the matter with that person to say...?" He would rathersay, Whatisthematterwithsome people who say...?"

The Statement of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning His Modesty with his Wives

Hadhrat Aa'isha 歐端崎 said, "I have never seen the private parts of Rasulullaah

The Modesty of the Sahabah

Rasulullaah & s Statement about the Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan &

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Al Aas sales narrates that Rasulullaah sales wife Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Uthmaan sales both reported to him that Hadhrat Abu Bakr sales once sought permission to see Rasulullaah who was lying down on his bed wearing a shawl belonging to Hadhrat Aa'isha sales. Remaining as he was, Rasulullaah permitted Hadhrat Abu Bakr sales in and he left after completing the work he had with Rasulullaah sales asked permission to enter. Rasulullaah sales also left. However, when Hadhrat Uthmaan sales sought permission to enter, Rasulullaah sales at up and urgently asked Hadhrat Aa'isha sales to ensure that her clothes were covering her properly. After Hadhrat Uthmaan sales had completed the work he had with Rasulullaah sales, he then also left.

Hadhrat Aa'isha then asked, "O Rasulullaah !!! Why is it that you became more anxious at the arrival of Uthmaan than you did at the arrival of both Abu Bakr is and Umar Rasulullaah !!" Rasul come for." Many narrators reports that Rasulullaan (also said to Hadhrat Aa'isha (why should I not be shy in front of that person in front of whom even the angels are shy?" (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.17) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Nasa'ee in his "Yowm wal Layl" and Abu Dawood have also reported the nattation.

⁽³⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.26).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar peports that Rasulullaah was once sitting with Hadhrat Aa'isha behind him when Hadhrat Abu Bakr sought permission to enter and then entered (after permission was granted). Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar sought permission to enter and he also entered. Next came Hadhrat Sa'd bin Maalik who entered after seeking permission to do so. Rasulullaah was busy talking to the others with his knees exposed when Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan sought permission to enter. Rasulullaah then amediately covered his knees and told Hadhrat Aa'isha was to move away. After speaking for some time, the men left. Hadhrat Aa'isha was then asked, "O Nabi of Allaah will. When my father and his companions entered, you did not place your clothes over your knees neither did you ask me to move away from you (why did you do so when Hadhrat Uthmaan was came in?)."

Rasulullaah & replied, "Why should I not be shy in front of that person in front of whom even the angels are shy? I swear by the Being Who controls my life that the angels ar shy for Uthmaan bin Affaan just as you are shy before Allaah and His Rasool & rad he entered when you were close to me, he would neither speak nor raise his head until he left." (2)

A Narration of Hadhrat Hasan Concerning the Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan (Males) and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Males)

Speaking about the extreme modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Hasan says, "Even though he was in a room behind a locked door, he would not remove his clothing to pour water over himself (when taking a bath). His modesty would prevent him from standing straight up (when bathing. He would therefore do so while sitting)." (3) Hadhrat Aa'isha (alisha i rover my head out of modesty before Al'aah even when I enter the toilet." (4)

The Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mas'ood Sisse and Hadhrat Umaarah bin Ghuraab Yahsubi Sisse both narrate that Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Sisse once came to

- (1) Ahmad, Muslim and Abu Ya'la. Ahmad and Hasan bin Urfa have reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Halsah @@@@6.
- (2) Tabraani, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.203,204). Abu Ya'la has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.82). Tabraani and Abu Ya'la have also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Hafsah (2002). as quoted by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.82).
- (3) Ahmad (Vol.1 Pg.74), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.82). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.56).
- (4) Sufyaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.144).

Rasulullaah se saying, "O Rasulullaah se I do not like my wife to see my private parts." "Why is that so?" asked Rasulullaah se Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon replied, "Because I feel shy and I dislike it." Rasulullaah se said to him, "Allaah has made her your garment and made you hers. At times my wives see my private parts and I see theirs. "You do that, O Rasulullaah se!" Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon se asked in surprise. When Rasulullaah se confirmed that this was indeed so, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon seid, "Who can there be after you (for me to follow)?" After he had left, Rasulullaah se said, "Verily Ibn Madh'oon se is extremely bashful and one who always keeps his private area concealed." (1)

The Modesty of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Abu Mijlaz reports that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Sissis said, "I bath in a dark room and do not stand up straight until I have picked up my clothes. This I do out of shyness for my Rabb." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Qataadah sisses states that when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'arl sisses took a bath, he would do so in a dark room (sitting down) and bend over when getting his clothing without standing up straight. (3)

Hadhrat Anas says that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari always wore some clothing when sleeping for fear of his private area becoming exposed. (4) Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Nusay reports that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari says once saw some people standing in water without their lower garments. To this, he exclaimed, "I prefer to die and be raised again, then to die and be raised again and again to die and beraised again rather than doing what these people are doing."(5)

The Modesty of Hadhrat Ashaj Abdul Qais

Hadhrat Ashaj Abdul Qals Fies reports that Rasulullaah Fonce said to him, "You have two qualities that Allaah loves." When he asked what they were, Rasulullaah Fies said, "Tolerance and modesty." Hadhrat Ashaj Fies asked further, "Are these natural qualities within me or have they been developed afterwards?" "No," replied Rasulullaah Fies. "They have been naturally instilled within you." Hadhrat Ashaj Fies then said, "All praise is for Allaah Who has instilled within me such qualities that He loves." (6)

Humility The Humility of Rasulullaah The Incident of Rasulullaah Jibra'eel and Another Angel

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Preports that Hadhrat Jibra'eel (Preports was once

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg,287).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.260). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.84) has reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn 5a'd (Vol.4 Pg.84).

⁽⁴⁾ fbn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.82).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.84).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.140).

sitting with Rasulullaah when he looked towards the sky. An angel suddenly descended to which Hadhrat Jibra'eel which said, "Since he has been created, this angel has never descended until this moment." When the angel came down, he said, "O Muhammad we! Your Rabb has sent me to you. (Allaah asks whether) 'Is it a Nabi who is a king that I should make you or a Rasool that is a slave (of Allaah)?" Advising Rasulullaah we, Hadhrat Jibra'eel whis said, "Adopt humility before your Rabb, O Muhammad will Rasulullaah we then replied, "I would rather be a Rasool who is a slave." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha (Biss) adds at the end, "After this, Rasulullaah (Biss) never ate in a reclining position and would say, "I eat as a slave eats and sit as a slave sits."

A similar narration⁽²⁾ from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 登場場 has already passed.

A Narration of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Baahili

Hadhrat Abu Ghaalib says that he once asked Hadhrat Abu Umaamah to narrate to them a Hadith that he had heard from Rasulullaah Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Feelied, "Everything that Rasulullaah Feelied said was (according to) the Qur'aan. He made Dhikr in abundance, kept his lectures brief, lengthened his salaah and was never too stuck up, or proud to go with a poor or unimportant person to personally see to his needs." (3)

A Narration of Hadhrat Anas

Hadhrat Anas saws, "Rasulullaah we made Dhikr in abundance, never engaged in futilities, rode a camel, wore woollen clothing and even accepted the invitations of slaves. If only you saw him (you would realise the extent of his humility) on the day the Battle of Khaybar was fought, he rode a donkey with reins made from the bark of a date palm." (4) Another narration (5) adds that Rasulullaah we also visited the ill and attended funerals.

The Narrations of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Significant, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Significant Hadhrat Anas Significant in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari saws, "Rasulullaah the used to ride a donkey, wear woollen clothes, hold down a goat and milk it and personally serve guests." (6)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Bazzaar and Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.19).

⁽²⁾ In the chapter "Giving Back Wealth" and under the subheading "Rasulullaah 認識 Refuses to Accept wealth given to him" followed by the subtitle "The incident of Rasulullaah 認識 With Hadhrat Jibra'eel 微弧 and another Angel".

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.20). Bayhaqi and Nasa'ee fiave reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.45).

I) Tayaalisi.

⁽⁵⁾ Tirmidhi, ibnSqid(Vol.1 Pg.95) his also reported the narration from Hadhrat Anas (5) in more detail.
(6) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.45). Tabraani bas also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.20).

Hadhral Abdullaah bin Abbaas saws, "Rasulullaah we would sit on the floor, eat on the floor, hold down a goat himself while milking it and even accept the invitation of a slave to partake of barley bread." Another narration states that even in the middle of the night Rasulullaah we would accept the invitation to eat barley bread extended by a person from the upper part of Madinah." (1)

Hadhrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah www would accept an invitation even if it were to eat barley bread and foul-smelling fat. Rasulullaah was also had a suit of armour that he pawned to a Jew and until the day he passed away, he did not have enough money to recover the armour from the man. (2)

A Narration of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab Hadhrat Umar Says that when a man called for Rasulullaah three times, Rasulullaah Reference replied with the word "Labbaik" ('At your service') each time.

The Incident of Rasulullaah with a Woman

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (during the time of Rasulullaah) there was an immoral woman who was flirtatious with the men. She once passed by "asulullaah when he was busy eating Thareed. She shouted out, "Look at this man, sitting like a slave and eating like a slave!" Rasulullaah fremarked, "Which slave can be more devoted in his servitude (to Allaah) than 1?" She then said further, "He eats without giving me anything to eat." "Do eat," Rasulullaah said. "Give me with your hand," she demanded. When Rasulullaah gave her, she made a further demand saying. "Give me from what is in your mouth." When Rasulullaah complied and she ate the food, (its blessings were so profound that) the woman was overcome with modesty and she never flirted with a man for the rest of her life. (4)

The Incident of Rasulullaah with a Man who was Shivering before him

Hadhrat Jareer Feports that when a man once came before Rasulullaah Hadhrat Jareer Feports that when a man once came before Rasulullaah Feports that when a man once came before Rasulullaah Feports Jareer Feports That when a man once came before Rasulullaah Feports That when a man once came before Rasulullaah Feports Jareer Feports That when a man once came before Rasulullaah Feports That when a man once came before Another narration⁽⁶⁾ from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood states that it was on the day the Muslims conquered Makkah that a man started shivering while talking to Rasulullaah . The rest of the narration is like the one above, Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah states says, "I was proceeding with Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.20).

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.23).

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.20) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.45).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.21) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.20) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.293).

to the Masjid when one of his shoe straps broke. I immediately got hold of the shoe to fix it when Rasulullaah the took it from my hand saying, "You are giving me preferential treatment and I dislike being given preferential treatment " (1)

Rasulullaah Dislikes being treated Differently from his Companions

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jubayr Khuzaa'ee (narrates that Rasulullaah () was once walking with his companions when someone shaded him with a sheet. When he saw the shadow, Rasulullaah looked up and saw the sheet that was shading him. "What is this?" Rasulullaah exclaimed as he took hold of the sheet and put it down. He then said, "I am merely a human being like you (and therefore do not need preferential treatment)." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Figure 1) reports that Hadhrat Abbaas (Figure 1) said, "I once said to myself, I wonder how long Rasulullaah we will still remain amongst us. (To ascertain this) I then proceeded to ask, 'O Rasulullaah We! Why do you not have a platform constructed for you?' Rasulullaah : replied, 'I prefer to remain amongst you (like one of you) with people trampling my heels and pulling at my shawl until the time when Allaah finally gives me comfort (and takes me away) from the people."(3)

In another narration from Hadhrat Ikramah (Hadhrat Abbaas (Hadhrat Abbaas (Hadhrat Abbaas)) "I shall definitely find out how long Rasulullaah will still be staying amongst us. I then asked, 'O Rasulullaah (2) I see that the people and the dust they kick up is causing you harm. Why do you not have a platform built for you from which you may address them? Rasulullaah E replied. 'I prefer to remain amonest you... 'The reply is the same as above. Hadhrat Abbaas says further, "I then knew that Rasulullaah www would be with us for only a very short while." (4)

Narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha كالمنافقة Concerning what Rasulullaah was did at Home

Hadhrat Aswad reports that he once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha (What would Rasulullaah (do when he entered the house?" Hadhrat Aa'isha (replied, "He would engage himself in some domestic chores and would leave to perform salaah when the time for salaah arrived." (5)

Hadhrat Urwa 出版的 narrates that someone once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha 即為時 "Would Rasulullaah carry out domestic chores at home?" "Certainly," she replied. "He would mend his shoes and stitch his clothes just as any of you does at home." (6)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.21) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.21).

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.21).

⁽⁴⁾ Daarmi, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg. 180). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg. 193) has reported a similar ⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad. Bukhaari and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.91) have reported a similar narration.

⁽⁶⁾ Bayhagt,

Hadhrat Amrah reports that she once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha ("What would Rasulullaah ("B" do at home?" Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Rasulullaah) replied, "Rasulullaah ("Rasulullaah) was a human and would remove lice from his clothing, milk his goat and take care of himself." (1)

Narrations of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Hadhrat Jaabir sees concerning the Humility of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1996) reports that Rasulullaah (1996) never assigned to anyone the duty of making arrangements for his wudhu and also the duty of handing out the charity he gave. He would personally attend to these duties. (2)

Hadhrat Jaabir (1966) says, "When Rasulullaah (1966) came to visit me, he was neither riding a mule nor a thoroughbred horse."

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah a performed Hajj on an old carriage (atop his camel) which was covered in a sheet that was hardly worth four Dirhams. Despite this, he prayed, 'O Allaah! Make this a Hajj devoid of ostentation and boastfulness." (4)

The Humility of Rasulullaah : when he Victoriously Entered Makkah

Hadhrat Anas (1996) reports that when Rasulullaah (1996) entered Makkah (1990) the Conquest of Makkah) and the people were crowding to have a look at him, he placed his head against his carriage out of humility. (5)

Hadhrat Anas says that when Rasulullaah are entered Makkah on the day Makkah was conquered, he had his chin on his carriage out of humility. (6) Another narration states that when Rasulullaah are reached Dhu Tuwa, he stood on his carriage. He wore his reddish, striped Yemeni shawl around his head with its end hanging over his face. When Rasulullaah as saw the great victory that Allaah had blessed him with, he lowered his head so much in humility to Allaah that his beard touched the centre of the carriage. (7)

Rasulullaah Stops Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah From Carrying his goods and from Kissing his hands when Selling Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Fig. 1) reports, "I once entered the marketplace with Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) Rasulullaah (Fig. 2) Rasulullaah (Fig. 3) Rasulullaah (Fig.

⁽I) Bayhaqi and Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 6 Pg. 44).

⁽²⁾ Qazweeni, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.180).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.) Pg.25).

⁽⁴⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.24).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.169) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Bayhadi.

^[7] Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol 4 Pg.293).

trouser for four Dirhams. The cloth merchants had with them a person would took measurements. Addressing this person, Rasulullaah said, 'Let the benefit be for the buyer when taking measurements (give rather more than less).' Rasulullaah then took the trousers and when I attempted to carry them for him, he said 'The owner of an item has a greater right to carrying it unless he is too weak or unable to do so. In that case, his Muslim brother may lend him a hand,' I then said, 'O Rasulullaah sit! Do you wear trousers?' He replied, 'Certainly. I wear them when on journey, when at home, during the night and during the day. I have been commanded to keep my private areas concealed and I find nothing more concealing than trousers."(1)

Another narration adds that Rasulullaah said, "Let the benefit be for the buyer when taking measurements." To this, the person taking measurements said, "I have never heard these words from any person before this." Hadhrat Abu flurayrah said to him, "It is sufficient evidence of your Ignorance and foolishness in Deen that you do not recognise your Nabi se!" The man immediately threw aside his scale and leapt up to grab the hand of Rasulullaah in an effort to kiss it. However, Rasulullaah pulled his hand away from the man saying, "What is this?! It is only the non-Arabs who do this with their kings. I am not a king but a man from amongst you." The man then took the measurements and let the benefit go to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah then took the measurements and let the benefit go to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah

The humility of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Umar ides a camel on his journey to Shaam

Hadhrat Aslam reports that when Hadhrat Umar state arrived in Shaam riding a camel, the people started talking amongst themselves (that he should have rather chosen a good horse for the journey). To this, Hadhrat Umar states remarked, "Their gazes are on the conveyances of people (the Kuffaar) who have no portion (in the Aakhirah. They had rather look to the conveyances used by Rasulullaah and the Muslims)." (3)

Hadhrat Umar Will Teaches Women to make Flour

Hadhrat Hishaam narrates that he once saw Hadhrat Umar pass by a woman who was busy making Aseedah (a paste made from flour and clarified butter). "That is not how Aseedah is made," said Hadhrat Umar he he took a wooden spoon and showed her how to make it saying, "This is how it is done." (4)

Tabraani in his Awsat and Abu Ya'la. Ahmad has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Naseemur Riyaadh (Vol. 2 Pg. 105).

⁽²⁾ Majma'uz Zawaa'd (Vol.5 Pg.121). Tabraani and Abu Ya'la have also reported the narration but Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 417)

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd.

Hadhrat Hishaam bin Khaalid says that he heard Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (as he taught some women to make Aseedah), "You should never add the flour until the water is hot. When the water gets hot, you should then add the flour gradually as you stir with a spoon because it will then mix well without forming lumps."

Hadhrat Umar Goes Barefoot to the Masjid and Ridicules Himself in his Sermon

Hadhrat Zirr says that he saw Hadhrat Umar 劉陽縣 proceed barefoot for the Eid salaah. (2)

Hadhrat Umar Makhzoomi reports that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab concernade an announcement for the people to gather in the Masjid. The people got together and when a large number had gathered, Hadhrat Umar counted the pulpit. After duly praising Allaah and sending salutations on Rasulullaah had, he said, "O people! I have seen the time when I used to graze animals for my maternal aunts from the Banu Makhzoom tribe. (As wages) They would then give me a handful of dates and raisins. I would then spend the entire day doing this and what days they were?!"

When Hadhrat Umar (Sie descended from the pulpit, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Sie Sald, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! All you have done is ridicule yourself." "Shame on you, O Ibn Auf!" Hadhrat Umar (Sie exclaimed, "When I was alone by myself, the thought came to mind that since I am the Ameerul Mu'mineen, there must be none better than me. (By doing what I did) I wanted to teach myself who I really was." (3)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar Another I had no source of livelihood apart from a few handfuls of raisins that my aurits from the Banu Makhzoom tribe would give me for bringing water for them." This narration ends with the words, "I found some pride in myself and therefore wished to humble myself (by telling the people what I did)." (4)

Hadhrat Umar Rides Behind a Young Boy on a Donkey

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab wo once left home on an extremely hot day with a shawl thrown over his head. When a young boy passed by riding a donkey, Hadhrat Umar was asked, "Dear boy! Please give me a ride with you on the donkey." The boy immediately jumped off the donkey saying, "You may get on, O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" "No," said Hadhrat Umar wow, "you ride and I will ride behind you. You want me to have a comfortable place to ride when you are on a hard place (this cannot be)!" Hadhrat Umar then rode behind the boy. When they entered Madinah, the people stared

⁽¹⁾ Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.417).

⁽²⁾ Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.418).

⁽³⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.417).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.293).

at them because Hadhrat Umar 500 was still riding behind the boy. (1)

Hadhrat Umar Www Walks with a Boy to Protect him from other boys

Hadhrat Sinaan bin Salamah Hudhali says, "I once went out with some other boys to pick up dates (that had fallen to the ground). Hadhrat Umar successive suddenly appeared with a lash in his hand and when the boys saw him, they dispersed amongst the date palms. I stood where I was with the dates I had picked up collected in my lower garment. 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen,' I said, 'these are the dates that the wind has blown off.' He looked at what was in my garment but did not hit me. I then said further, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! The boys are now ahead of me and they take away all that I have.' 'Never,' Hadhrat Umar sasured me, 'Walk ahead.' He then accompanied me to my home." (2)

Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan allow People to Ride with them on their

The grandfather of Hadhrat Maalik say that he saw Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan when they arrived from Makkah and camped at a place called Mu'arras (Dhul Hulayfah). When the party rode again to enter Madinah, every one of them took a youngster to ride with him. In this manner, they entered Madinah. Even Hadhrat Umar was and Hadhrat Uthmaan was had someone riding with them. One of the narrator's students asked, "Did they do this because of humility?" The reply was, "Certainly. In addition to this, they also wished to benefit others (so that the person need not walk) and did not want to be like other rulers (who feel it below their dignity to allow a commoner to ride with them)." The narrator then proceeded to criticise the new trend (of rulers) to make youngsters walk behind them as they rode. (3)

The Humility of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports from a man from Hamdaan that he saw Hadhrat Uthmaan speed riding a mule with his slave Naa'il riding behind him on the same animal. This was during the time that Hadhrat Uthmaan was Khalifah. (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah Roomi says that Hadhrat Uthmaan which himself fetched the water he needed for performing wudhu during the night. When someone suggested that he get one of the servants to do it for him, he refused saying, "The night is theirs to have a rest." (5)

The grandmother of Hadhrat Zubayr bin Abdullaah had been a servant of Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.417).

⁽²⁾ Thn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.90).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.143).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.60).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn 5a'd, Ahmad in his Zuhd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.48).

Uthmaan (Sie). She says, "Hadhrat Uthmaan (Sie) never awakened any members of the household (at night when he awoke for Tahajjud). The only time he would ask any of them to get him water for wudhu was if he found them awake. He also fasted perpetually." (1)

Hadhrat Hasan says, "I saw Hadhrat Uthmaan (1966) sleeping in the Masjid covered in a shawl. Although he was then the Ameerul Mu'mineen, there was none around him." (2)

The Humility of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨瑙德

Hadhrat Unaysa says, "The little girls of the locality would take their goats to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (for milking). (Not only would he do it for them but) He would also ask, "Would you like me to milk for you like Ibn Afraa (someone from the Ansaar) does?"(3)

The narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadhrat Abusayyab have already passed in the chapter entitled "The Lives of the Khulafaa and Leaders". It is stated there (4) that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Abusa) was a businessman by trade and would proceed to the marketplace every morning to buy and sell. He also had a flock of goats that would come to him in the evenings. He sometimes took them out himself for grazing and sometimes had someone else graze them. He used to milk goats for the people of his locality so when he became the Khalifah, a little girl said, "Now there will be none to milk our animals." When he heard her saying this, Hadhrat Abusakr (Who not! I swear by my life that I shall definitely still milk for you. I hope that what I have entered into will never change the personality I always had." He then continued milking for the people and would sometimes say to the little girl of the locality. "Dear girl! Would you like me to make the milk foamy or without foam?" At times she would ask for foamy milk while at times she asked for it to have no foam. He then did exactly as she asked.

Episodes of the Humility of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali

The blanket merchant Hadhrat Saalih reports from his grandfather who says, "I saw (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Ali (Saiss) purchase dates for a Dirham and then carry them in his bag. When I or another man offered to carry it for him, he refused the offer saying, 'The father of a family has a greater right to carry their goods." (5)

Hadhrat Zaadhaan reports that even as Ameerul Mu'mineen, Hadhrat Ali 竖脚的 used to walk alone in the marketplace where he would guide lost people,

(2) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.60).

(3) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 161).

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mubaarak in his Zuhd, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 2 Pg.463).

⁽⁴⁾ Under the subheadings "The Life of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq (1998)" and "His Life Before Becoming the Khalifah and Afterwards".

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.81). Ibn Asaakir has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.56). Abul Qaasim Baghawi has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.8 Pg.5).

announce lost items and assist the weak. When passing by traders and grocers, he would open the Qur'aan and recite to them:

This (Jannah) is the Home of the Aakhirah, which We shall assign to those who do not desire pomp (glory) on earth nor corruption. (Surah Oasas, verse 83)

He would then say, "This verse was revealed with reference to rulers and people with authority over others who (despite their positions, they) exercise justice and are humble." (1)

Hadhrat Jurmooz narrates that he saw Hadhrat Ali week emerge from his house wearing two reddish cloths made in Qatar, a lower garment that reached halfway up his calves and wrapped in a shawl of about the same size. He also carried a lash and walked with it in the marketplace, instructing people to be wary of Allaah and to trade in an amiable manner. He would also say, "Weigh and measure in full and do not blow into the meat (to make it appear large)." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Matar says, "I was once leaving the Masjid when I suddenly heard someone behind me shouting, 'Lift your lower garment because it shows greater wariness of your Rabb and also keeps the garment cleaner. You should also trim your hair if you are a Muslim.' I then noticed that it was Hadhrat Ali holding a lash in his hand. He then went to the camel market where he said (to the traders), 'Never take oaths when selling because although oaths sell goods, they destroy blessings.'

When he went to a date seller, he found a servant weeping. When Hadhrat Ali saked her what the problem was, she informed him that her master refused to accept the dates that the date seller had sold to her for a Dirham, Addressing the seller, Hadhrat Ali said instructed, 'Take back the dates and return her Dirham because she has no choice in the matter.' When it appeared as if the man would refuse, I said, 'Do you not know who this is?' He admitted that he did not. I then told him, 'He is Ameerul Mu'mineen Ali said,' The man then readily poured out the dates into his own and returned the Dirham. Then he said, 'I want you to be pleased with me, O Ameerul Mu'mineen.' Hadhrat Ali said replied, 'I shall be immensely pleased with you if you give people their dues in full.' As he then passed by the other date sellers, Hadhrat Ali said, 'Feed the poor and your earnings will increase.'

Hadhrat Ali with proceeded further to the fishmongers, whom he instructed with the words, 'Never sell in our markets fish that are found floating in the water (after dying).' Thereafter, Hadhrat Ali with arrived at the cloth market where all the cloth merchants were found. Addressing one of them, he said, 'Dear old man! Give me a good deal on an upper garment for three Dirhams.' When the ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.56). Abul Qaasim Baghawi has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.8 Pg.5).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.18). Ibn Abdul Birr has reported a similar narration in his Istiluub (Vol.3 Pg.48).

man recognised him. Hadhrat Ali with did not buy from him but went to another merchant. However, when he also recognised Hadhrat Ali with, the Ameerul Mu'mineen did not buy from him either. Hadhrat Ali with then purchased a garment from a youngster (who did not know him) for three Dirhams. When he wore it, the sleeves reached up to his wrists while the rest of it reached his ankles. When the owner of the store arrived, someone told him that his son had sold a garment to the Ameerul Mu'mineen for three Dirhams. Reprimanding the boy, he said, "Why did you rather not take two Dirhams?" He then took one Dirham and went to Hadhrat Ali ways saying, "Please accept this Dirham." What for?" Hadhrat Ali was enquired. "My son sold you the garment for three Dirhams when it costs only two Dirhams." Hadhrat Ali was refused to accept it saying. "He sold it with my happiness and I bought it with his happiness."

The Humility of Hadhrat Faatima (1996) and Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (1996)

Hadhrat Ataa reports that when Rasulullaah ()'s daughter Hadhrat Faatima kneaded dough, her plaits would hit against the bowl. (2)

Referring to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (), Hadhrat Mutallib bin Abdullaah says, "It was in the evening that the Arab widow came as the bride of the best of all Muslims (Rasulullaah ()) and later that night she was grinding flour." (3)

Episodes of the Humility of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi

Hadhrat Salaamah Ajali says, "One of my cousins from the countryside whose name was Qudaamah came to me with the request, 'I wish to meet Salmaan Faarsi and greet him. We left to see him and found him in Madaa'in in command of an army of twenty thousand men. When we reached him, he was sitting on a platform, weaving baskets out of palm leaves. We greeted him and I said, 'O Abu Abdullaah! This is my cousin who is visiting me from the countryside. He wishes to greet you.' Hadhrat Salmaan replied to the greeting saying.

"وَعَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَرَحْمَهُ اللَّه"

I then continued to say, 'He also claims that he has a liking for you.' To this, Hadhrat Salmaan (1986) made the du'aa:

"أَحَبُّهُ اللَّهُ"

'May Allaah love him'." (4)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Umayrah reports, "I once went to Hadhrat Salmaan 🚟 🦝

Ibn Raahway, Ahmad in his Zuhd, Abd bin Humayd, Abu Ya'la, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.57).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.3 Pg.312).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.64).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.197).

and found him in his tannery scraping off some hide with his hands. When I greeted him with Salaam, he said, 'Remain where you are until I come out.' 'By Allaah!' I said, 'I do not think that you know who I am.' 'I certainly do,' he responded, 'My soul knew yours before I came to know you because all souls were a collective army (before coming to this world). Those that acquainted themselves for the pleasure of Allaah become friends and those who acquainted themselves for another besides Allaah will have enmity between themselves.'"(1)

Hadhrat Abu Qilaabah narrates that someone once came to Hadhrat Salmaan as he was busy making dough. "What is this?" the man said in surprise. Hadhrat Salmaan replied, "I had already sent the servant out on an errand and disliked giving him two jobs (so I decided to do this myself). The person then conveyed to Hadhrat Salmaan repeatings from another person, "When did you arrive?" Hadhrat Salmaan required from the man. When the man explained when he came, Hadhrat Salmaan required from the man when the man explained when he came, Hadhrat Salmaan required from the man when the man explained when he came, Hadhrat Salmaan from the man unfulfilled trust." (2) Hadhrat Amr the son of Abu Qurra Kindi says that his father once offered his sister in marriage to Hadhrat Salmaan However, Hadhrat Salmaan refused the offer and instead married a freed slave woman named Bugayrah (who once belonged to Hadhrat Abu Qurra).

When the news reached Hadhrat Abu Qurra that there had been an argument between Hadhrat Hudhayfah was and Hadhrat Salmaan was, he went to Hadhrat Salmaan was but was told that Hadhrat Salmaan with a basket full of greens. He had put his staff through the handle of the basket and carried it over his shoulder. As they walked to Hadhrat Salmaan was house, Hadhrat Salmaan was entered the house and said, "As Salaamu Alaykum." He then allowed Hadhrat Abu Qurra in. A bedding was spread out with a few bricks at the head side (as pillows). There were also a few odds and ends lying about. Hadhrat Salmaan was said to Hadhrat Abu Qurra, "You may sit on the bedding that your slave had prepared for herself." (3)

Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports that a man from the Abdul Qais tribe once saw Hadhrat Salmaan rejorts that a man from the Abdul Qais tribe once saw Hadhrat Salmaan from the soldiers called out (in the wind). Here comes the commander!" the soldiers called out (in derision). Hadhrat Salmaan said, "Good and bad will be known only after today (in the Aakhirah)." (4)

A man from the Abdul Qais tribe says, "I was with Hadhrat Salmaan Siess when he was commanding an army. As he passed by two youngsters from the army

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakilab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.196). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.198) in detail where the words of Hadbrat Salmaan was are quoted from Rasululiaah (1966).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.201), Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 4 Pg.64) and Ahmad have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol. 4 Pg.64).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.) Pg.198).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg 199).

they laughed as they remarked, 'This is your commander!' 'O Abu Abdullaah!' I protested, 'Do you not see what they are saying?' 'Leave them alone,' he bade me, 'Good and bad are to be seen after today (in the Aakhirah). If you are able to live off the earth, do so rather than being commander over even two persons. Beware of the curse of the oppressed and those left with no options because there is no barrier to their curses (Allaah accepts it immediately)."

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Salmaan was the governor of Madaa'in, he would go out to the people wearing his simple lower garment and shawl. When they saw him, the people would say, "Gurg Aamad! Gurg Aamad!" "What are they saying?" Hadhrat Salmaan was asked. "They are comparing you to a toy of theirs," the people replied. To this, Hadhrat Salmaan was remarked, "It does not matter (what they say). Good will be seen only after this day (in the Aakhirah)."

Hadhrat Huraym reports, "I once saw Hadhrat Salmaan "I'm" riding a donkey that was unsaddled. He was wearing a garment made in Sumbulaan which was short for him and was narrow at the bottom. He was a long-legged and hairy man and the garment reached only up to his knees. When I saw some youngsters (mischievously) prodding his donkey on from the back, I rebuked them saying, "Will you not get away from your Ameer?!" To this, Hadhrat Salmaan "I'm" said, "Leave them alone because good and evil will only be seen after this day."

Hadhrat Thaabit reports that Hadhrat Salmaan was the governor of Madaa'in when a man arrived from Shaam carrying figs. Because Hadhrat Salmaan was wearing his simple lower garment and shawl, the man (not recognising Hadhrat Salmaan was and thinking him to be a common labourer) called to him saying, "Come and carry this!" Hadhrat Salmaan wobliged and when the people saw him and recognised who he was, they exclaimed, "This is the governor!" When the man pleaded that he did not recognise Hadhrat Salmaan was (and wished to take the load back), Hadhrat Salmaan was said to him. "Leave it until I reach your destination."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Salmaan (I) added, "I had already formulated an intention (to please Allaah by this service) and I am therefore unable to put this down until I reach your house," (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Buraydah sissi narrates that Hadhrat Salmaan sissi used to make things with his hands and when he earned some money by selling them, he would purchase some meat or fish. He would then invite some lepers to share the meal with him. (3)

The Humility of Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen reports that whenever Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab appointed a governor, he would write in the letter of appointment (the following instruction to the people of the area), "You should listen to him and obey him as long as he exercises justice," However, when Hadhrat Umar pointed Hadhrat Hudhayfah pointment as governor of Madaa'in, he wrote the following in his letter of appointment: "Listen to him, obey him and give him whatever he asks you for."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.63).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.63).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.200).

Hadhrat Hudhayfah whatever he asks you for.

Hadhrat Hudhayfah whatever he people of the area and the local farmers, he was sitting on the carriage with a piece of bread and a bone with some meat in his hand. After reading out to them the letter of appointment, the people submitted, "You may ask us whatever you want." Hadhrat Hudhayfah with said, "All I ask for is some food to eat and fodder for this donkey as long as I am with you."

After staying there for some time, Hadhrat Hudhayfah was approaching (Madinah), Hadhrat Umar when hid himself beside the road at a place where he would not be seen. When he saw Hadhrat Hudhayfah were return in exactly the same condition he had left in, Hadhrat Umar work, "You are my brother and I am yours." (1)

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates, "When Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Sies) arrived in Madaa'in, he arrived riding atop a carriage mounted on his donkey. He was eating a piece of bread with a bone with some meat." A narration of Hadhrat Talha bin Musarrif adds that at the time, Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Sies)'s legs were dangling on the side of the donkey. (2)

The Humility of Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah

Hadhrat Sulaym bin Abu Hudhayl says, "I mended clothes by the door of Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah ($150). Whenever he came out of his house and mounted his mule, he would take his slave along with him on the animal." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam was once passing through the marketplace carrying a bundle of wood when someone said to him, "What makes you do this when Allaah has freed you from it (you can always get someone else to do it for you)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam was replied, "I wish to ward off pride because I have heard Rasulullaah was say, 'The person in whose heart is an iota of pride will not enter lannah." (4)

Hadhrat Ali says, "Three Factors form the Core of Humility"

Hadhrat Ali once said, "Three factors form the core of humility. (These

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pp.23).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.277).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg 373) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani and Isfahaani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 4 Pg. 345).

are:) That one is first to greet whoever one meets, that one is content with an inferior position in a gathering rather than one of superiority and that one dislikes ostentation and boastfutness." (1)

Humour and Jest The Humour of Rasulullaah

The Humour of Rasulullaah E Despite Always Speaking the Truth

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Piess) reports that the Sahabah (Piess) once asked, "O Rasulullaah (Piess) You manage to joke with us?" Rasulullaah (Piess) replied. "However, I speak only the truth (when I joke)."

Rasulullaah "'s Jokes with his Wife المنظمة

A man once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas whether Rasulullaah we used to joke. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas we replied that Rasulullaah we used to joke, the man enquired about the nature of Rasulullaah we's jokes. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas we replied, "Rasulullaah we once gave one of his wives a large shawl to wear saying, 'Wear it, thank Allaah and drag it along like a bride's train." (3)

Rasulullaah Jokes with Abu Umayr

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah she had the best of character. I had a brother called Abu Umayr who was just weaned off milk. Whenever Rasulullaah came and saw him, Rasulullaah would ask, "O Abu Umayr! How is Nughayr (4)?" This was the little red-beaked bird that Abu Umayr played with. At times, the time of salaah would arrive while Rasulullaah she was at our house. He would then have the mat he sat on spread out, swept and water sprinkled over it. Rasulullaah she would then stand up in salaah and we would stand behind him as he led the salaah. The mat was made of palm leaves." (5)

In another narration, Hadhrat Anas (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) would associate with us so much that he would even ask my little brother, 'O Abu Umayr! How is Nughayr?" (6)

Hadhrat Anas (Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Anas (Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Anas (Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat A

⁽¹⁾ Askari, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.143).

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.17) and Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.41).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.43).

⁽⁴⁾ Diminutive form of the word "Nughar", which was the little bird the boy played with.

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad and many others, as quoted in Al Bidaavah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.38).

⁽⁶⁾ Bukhaari in his Adah (Pg.42) and Tirmidhi.

is Nughayr?" (1)

Rasulullaah E Jokes with Someone

Hadhrat Anas reports that a man once came to Rasulullaah to ask for transport. Rasulullaah si said to him, "We shall give you the child of a camel to ride." "O Rasulullaah si the man said in surprise, "What will I do with the child of a camel (it is too small to ride)?" Rasulullaah replied, "Is every camel not the child of another?" (2)

Rasulullaah Jokes with Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Hadhrat Anas Freports that Rasulullaah Freports once jokingly called fiadhrat Anas Same saying, "O two-eared one!" (3)

Rasulullaah 經歷 Jokes with Hadhrat Zaahir 经通過

Hadhrat Anas reports that a man from the countryside called Zaahir used to give Rasulullaah things from the countryside and when he left, Rasulullaah would give him things from the city. Rasulullaah would give him things from the city. Rasulullaah would give him things from the city. Rasulullaah would give him things from the city. Although he was not a good looking person, Rasulullaah would liked him a lot. As he was busy selling his wares in the marketplace one day, Rasulullaah grabbed him from the back (and covered his eyes) so that he could not see. "Release me!" Hadhrat Zaahir shouted, but when he turned and recognised Rasulullaah he he started pressing his back closer to Rasulullaah would but this slave?" Rasulullaah announced. "O Rasulullaah would hadhrat Zaahir said, "By Allaah! If you sell me, you will run at a loss." "Not at all," Rasulullaah corrected, "You are not a loss in the sight of Allaah. In Allaah's sight, you are expensive." (4)

Rasulullaah Jokes with Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer (Simon narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Simon was once about to ask permission to enter Rasulullaah (Risks room, he heard (his daughter) Hadhrat Aa'isha (Risks raising her voice at Rasulullaah (Risks)). When he entered, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Simon grabbed her to give her a slap saying, "Are you raising your voice above that of Allaah's Rasool (Risks)!" However, Rasulullaah (Risks) stopped him from taking action and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Risks)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.506).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Abu Dawood and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Al Bildaeyah wan Nihaeyah (Vol.6, Pg.46). Bukhaati has also reported the narration in his Adab (Pg.41), as has Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4, Pg.224) who has specified the person to be Hadhrat Ummu Ayman 2006.

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.46). Tirmidhi has also reported the narration in his Shamaatii (Pg.16), as have Abu Nu'aym and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.142).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad. Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il and Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Voi.6 Pg.46). Abu 'Ya'ia and Bazzaar have also reported the narration. Bazzaar and Tabraani have also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Yol.9 Pg.26).

left in anger. After Hadhrat Abu Bakr is had left, Rasulullaah is said to Hadhrat Aa'isha is is is 'Now what do you think of me after I rescued you from that man?" It was a few days later that Hadhrat Abu Bakr is again sought permission to see Rasulullaah is. This time he found that the couple had reconciled and said to them, "Now enter me into your peace as you had entered me into your war." "We certainly will," Rasulullaah is said, "We certainly will."

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports, "I once accompanied Rasulullaah so on one of his journeys when I was still a slim girl who had not put on much weight. Rasulullaah so instructed the others to go ahead and when they did, he said to me, "Come! Let's have a race." I then beat him in the race. Rasulullaah so let the matter rest until the time came when I had put on weight and forgotten about the incident. When I then accompanied him on a journey, he again instructed the others to proceed ahead. When they did so, he said to me, "Come! Let's have a race." This time he beat and he laughed as he said, "This is for that." (2)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik (Similar) narrates that Rasulullaah (Similar) was once on a journey with his wives riding in front of him. Addressing the person who was reciting some poems to drive the camels on faster, Rasulullaah (Similar) was said, "O Anjasha! Shame on you! Take it easy with the crystals (the women. Do not drive the camels too fast)," (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Anas says that Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym was with the wives of Rasulullaah (on a journey) when Rasulullaah came to them. (Noticing that the camels were being driven too fast) Rasulullaah said (to the person driving them along), "O Anjasha! Move easily with the crystals." Hadhrat Abu Qilaabah says, "Rasulullaah said made a statement that if any of you made, it would be held against him; (the statement was). "Go easy with the crystals."

Rasulullaah Jokes with an Old Woman

Hadhrat Hasan reports that an old woman once came to Rasulullaah with the request, "O Rasulullaah wi! Pray to Allaah to enter me into Jannah." Addressing her by her title, Rasulullaah said, "Old women will not enter Jannah." When the lady turn away in tears, Rasulullaah wie sent someone to give her the message that she would not enter Jannah as on old woman because Allaah says:

Indeed We have created these damsels (of Jannah) very specially and We have made them all virgins... (Surah Waaqi'Ahmad, verses 35,36)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.46).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg 68).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 6 Pg. 47).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.41).

The Humour of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee 经通過 Jokes with Rasulullaah 操鍵

Hadhrat Awfbin Maalik Ashja'ee 医神经 reports, "I went to Rasulullaah 健健 during the expedition to Tabook while he was in a (very small) leather tent. I greeted Rasulullaah 健健 with Salaam and after he replied, I asked, 'May I enter?' When Rasulullaah 健健 permitted me to enter, I asked, 'All of me, O Rasulullaah 健健 replied, 'All of you.' I then entered."

Hadhrat Waleed bin Uthmaan bin Abu Aaliyah explains that Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik (1886) joked "All of me" because the tent was very small. (1)

Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan Joke with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ibn Abu Mulaykah marrates that when Hadhrat Aa'isha only cracked a few jokes with Rasulullaah fie, her mother said, "O Rasulullaah fie! Many of our tribe's jokes come from the Kinaana tribe." "In fact," Rasulullaah fie remarked, "this tribe is the subject of many of our jokes." (2) Hadhrat Abul Haytham reports from someone that he heard Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan bin Harb foking with Rasulullaah fie in the house of his daughter Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah fie (who was one of Rasulullaah fie's wives). Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan fie said, "By Allaah! As soon as I left you alone (stopped fighting you), all the Arabs also left you, otherwise the horned ones and hornless ones would all still be fighting because of you." Rasulullaah fie smiled as he said, "You and what you say, O Abu Handhala." (3)

The Sahabah (throw Melons at each other and the Statement of Hadhrat Ibn Seereen about their Humour

Hadhrat Bakr bin Abdullaah says, "Although the Sahabah (1996) of Rasulullaah (1996) used to (playfully) throw melons at each other, they were still the most resolute men when matters were serious." (4)

Hadhrat Qurra narrates that he once said to Hadhrat Ibn Seereen, "Did the Sahabah ("They were just like other people, In fact, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (used to say the following couplet in jest:

"He (is so miserly that) loves to drink wine from the money of his companions and dislikes to part with his own money" (5)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg. 46).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.41).

⁽³⁾ Zubayr bin Bakkaar and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.43).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.41).

⁽⁵⁾ Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.8 Pg.89).

Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Wee Plays a Trick on Hadhrat Suwaybit

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (2006) narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2006) once went on a trade journey to Busra. Accompanying him were Hadhrat Nu'aymaan and Hadhrat Suwaybit bin Harmala 5000, both of whom were veterans of the Battle of Badr. Because Hadhrat Suwaybit was in charge of the goods, Hadhrat Nu'aymaan was asked him for something to eat. Hadhrat Suwaybit wise refused saying that they would have to wait for Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sies. Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Sies who was a joker and full of tricks, went to the people (of the locality), with his camel in trail. "Who will buy from me an intelligent Arab slave?" he announced. When some people agreed to the sale. Hadhrat Nu'aymaan (warned, "He is however a good talker and may claim to be a free person. If you intend letting him go on this pretext of his, then let me be and do not complicate matters for me (do not make the purchase)." "No!" the people insisted, "We shall buy him from you in exchange for ten young camels." Hadhrat Nu'aymaan then returned, leading the camels (and the buyers) along with him. He then said to them, "There he is. Grab him!" Hadhrat Suwaybit pleaded, "He is lying! I am a free man." "He has already told us about you," the people said as they threw a rope around his neck and took him away. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr 医瞬间 returned and was informed about what had happened, he went to the people with his companions, returned the ten camels to them and got Hadhraf Suwaybit was back. Rasulullaah was also informed about the incident and it kept him and the Sahabah (laughing for an entire year afterwards. (1)

Hadhrat Nu'aymaan William plays a trick on a Bedouin

Hadhrat Rabee'ah bin Uthmaan in narrates that a Bedouin once came to see Rasulullaah and put his camel to sit in the courtyard of the Masjid. Some of the Sahabah then suggested to Hadhrat Nu'aymaan bin Amr Ansaari who was referred to as An-Nu'aymaan, "We have a strong desire to eat some meat so why don't you slaughter that camel for us to eat. Rasulullaah will then recompense the owner for it."

Hadhrat Nu'aymaan when the Bedouin came out of the Masjid and saw his camel slaughtered, he screamed, "Oh dear! My camel has been slaughtered, O Muhammad!" Rasulullaah came out and asked, "Who did that?" When the Sahabah was informed him that it was Hadhrat Nu'aymaan was, Rasulullaah se searched for him. After making queries about his whereabouts, Rasulullaah se finally found him in the house of Hadhrat Subaagha bint Zubayr bin Abdul Muttalib sees. He was hiding in a hole and covered himself with palm leaves and bark. Pointing his finger towards the hole, someone shouted as he said, "I have not seen him, O Rasulullaah Her got Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition out of the hole, his face was messed with the palm bark that had fallen onto it. "What made you do that?" Rasulullaah Asked him. "O Rasulullaah Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it. "Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it." Rasulullaah then smiled as he started wiping Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Subsition in the same people who led you to me were the ones who instructed me to do it."

⁽I) Ahmad. Abu Dawood Tayaalisi and Rooyaani have reported a similar narration but with the roles of Hadhrat Suwaybii 型海峽 and Hadhrat Nu'aymaan 氢硫碳 reversed. Refer to Isaabab (Vol.2 Pg.98) for further details. Ibn Abdu) Birr has also reported the narration in his Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.162) and (Vol.3 Pg.573).

Hadhrat Nu'aymaan Rays a Trick on Hadhrat Makhramah bin Naufal

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mus'ab (Sie narrates that Hadhrat Makhramah bin Naufal bin Uhayb Zuhri (Sie was an extremely old blind man in Madinah who had already reached the age of a hundred and fifteen. One day he stood in the Masjid ready to urinate when the people started shouting at him. It was then that Hadhrat Nu'aymaan bin Amr bin Rifaa'ah bin Haarith bin Sawaad Najaari (Sie came to him and led him to the corner of the Masjid saying, "Sit here." There he made him sit and urinate. As Hadhrat Makhramah (Sie urinated, the people started to scream at him. When he had finished, Hadhrat Makhramah (Sie asked, "Shame on you people! Who was it that brought me here?" When he was informed that it was Hadhrat Nu'aymaan (Sie), Hadhrat Makhramah (Sie cursed him saying, "Take note! I swear by Allaah that if I ever get the upper hand over him. I will hit him most severely with this staff of mine."

After some time, Hadhrat Makhramah was had forgotten about the incident when Hadhrat Nu'aymaan was came to him. At the time, Hadhrat Uthmaan was performing salaah in the corner of the Masjid and it was his habit not to ever pay attention to anything else whilst performing salaah. Hadhrat Nu'aymaan was asked Hadhrat Makhramah was, "Are you still after Nu'aymaan?" "O yes," Hadhrat Makhramah was said, "Where is he? Lead me to him." Hadhrat Nu'aymaan was then led Hadhrat Makhramah was to Hadhrat Uthmaan was saying, "Here he is, Grab him!" Hadhrat Makhramah was then took his staff into both hands and hit Hadhrat Uthmaan was so hard that his head was severely injured. Someone then told Hadhrat Makhramah was tribe, "It was the Ameerul Mu'mineen that you hit!" When (Hadhrat Makhramah was stribe) the Banu Zuhra heard about the incident, they got together (to punish Hadhrat Nu'aymaan was) but Hadhrat Uthmaan was said, "May Allaah's mercy be far from him. Leave Nu'aymaan was alone because he is a veteran of Badr." (2)

Ibn Abdul Birr in his Isti'aah (Vol.3 Pg.575). Zubayr bin Bakkaar has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.570).

⁽²⁾ Isti'aab (Vol.3 Pg.577) and Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.570)

Generosity

The Generosity of Rasulullaah

Statements of the Sahabah Concerning the Generosity of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, "Rasulullaah was was the most generous of people. He was even more generous on Ramadhaan when he met Hadhrat Jibra'eel was even more generous the Qur'aan with him. In fact, Rasulullaah was even more generous than the blowing wind (that benefits all and sundry)." (1)

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "Rasulullaah ar never said 'No' to anything asked of him." (2)

In a lengthy Hadith from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr, Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Says, "Rasulullaah Re never refused anything asked of him." (3)

In another lengthy narration, Hadhrat Ali was says, "When asked to do something, Rasulullaah was always said 'Yes' when he intended doing it and would remain silent when he did not intend doing it (when it was not to the benefit of the person asking). However, he never said 'No' to anything asked of him "(4)

Rasulullaah 's Generosity towards Hadhrat Rubayyi bint Mu'awwidh and to Hadhrat Ummu Sumbula

Hadhrat Rubayyi bint Mu'awwidh bin Afraa says, "(My father) Hadhrat Mu'awwidh bin Afraa sent me to Rasulullaah with a Saa of fresh dates topped with slices of newly grown cucumbers because Rasulullaah loved cucumbers. Rasulullaah had then just received some jewels from Bahrain so he scooped up a handful of the jewels and gave them to me." Another narration states that Rasulullaah significant filled her hand with either jewels or gold.

(5) Rasulullaah then told her, "Adorn yourself with these." (6)

Hadhrat Ummu Sumbula (Fig. 6) arrates that when she once presented a gift to Rasulullaah (Fig. 6), his wives refused to accept it, saying, "We cannot accept this." They however took it when Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) instructed them to do so. In return, Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) is then allotted to her a piece of land between two mountains. It was this piece of land that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash (Fig. 6) bought from Bukhaari, Muslim, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg 69). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.195) has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.42).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.13) has commented on the chain of narrators,

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraant in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.13) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 13).

⁽⁶⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.13). Tirmidhi has also reported the narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.56).

Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali 经运运 (1)

Other incidents about the generosity of Rasulullaah ### have passed in the chapters concerning spending of wealth in the path of Allaah.

The Generosity of the Sahabah 經過節

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Speed) reports that a woman once came to Rasulullaah (Speed) saying, "I want to give this garment to the most generous of all Arabs." Pointing to Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Al Aas (Speed) who was standing there, Rasulullaah (Speed) said, "Give it to this young man." It is for this reason that such garments are referred to as Sa'eediyyah. (2)

Other incidents about the generosity of the Sahabah (1986) have passed in the chapters concerning spending of wealth in Jihaad and in the path of Allaah.

Preferring others Above Oneself

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (we had so much concern for each other that) none of us (Sahabah (we)) thought himself more worthy of a Dinaar or a Dirham than his fellow Muslim brother. Unfortunately, we are now in a time when Dinaars and Dirhams are more beloved to us than our fellow Muslim brothers." The narration still continues further. (3)

Several incidents of preferring others above oneself have passed in the chapter dealing with spending on others despite being in need and other stories about the Ansaar. There, incidents were mentioned how they gave others despite their intense thirst and need for clothing (and other necessities).

Patience and Perseverance

Exercising Patience in Illness

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri was suffering extreme fever and was covered in a blanket. Placing his hand on the blanket, Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed was said, "What a high fever you have, O Rasulullaah we!" Rasulullaah remarked, "Thus are difficulties intensified for us and likewise are the rewards multiplied." "O Rasulullaah we!" Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed was asked, "Who are the people who suffer the most difficulties?" "The Ambiyaa," came the reply. "Who next?" Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed was asked further. Rasulullaah replied, "The Ulema." When Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed was asked who was next, Rasulullaah informed him, "The pious people. Some of them are so troubled by lice that they are killed and others are so impoverished that they own only the garment they wear. Despite all of this, they are as pleased with difficulties as any of you are pleased with bounties." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 14) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Zubayt bin Bakkaar and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Limmaal (Vol.5 Pg.189).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.285).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Maajah. Tbn Abi Dunya and Haakim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.243). Bayhaqi has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.154), as has Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.370).

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Hudhayfah reports from his aunt Hadhrat Faatimah that she was with a few women who visited Rasulullaah when he was suffering high fever. Because of the intensity of the fever, Rasulullaah had a water bag hung overhead from a branch and lay beneath it so that drops of water fell on to his head. "O Rasulullaah for it she said, "Why don't you pray to Allaah to cure you?" Rasulullaah for replied, "Those who suffer the most difficulties are the Ambiyaa, then those closest to them, then those closest to them and then those closest to them."

Hadhrat Aa'isha was in great suffering and turned from side to side on his bed. Hadhrat Aa'isha was asked, "Would you not be angry with any of us if we had to do this?" Rasulullaah was replied, "Difficulties will continue harassing a Mu'min but whenever he is pricked by a thorn or suffers any other pain, a sin is forgiven and a stage (in the Aakhirah) is elevated." (2)

The Sahabah Exercise Patience with Illness

The People of Quba and the Ansaar Patiently Bear Fever

Hadhrat Jaabir Marrates that fever (in the human form Allaah had granted it) once sought permission to see Rasulullaah Marrates. "Who is it?" Rasulullaah Marrated it to go to the people of Quba and (when it did) only Allaah knows how many people were afflicted. When the people of Quba came to complain about it to Rasulullaah Marrated. When the people of Quba came to complain about it to Rasulullaah Marrated. "You have a choice. If you wish, I shall pray to Allaah to remove it from you or if you prefer, it could (remain amongst you and thereby) be a means of purification for you (from sin)." "Can you really do this?" they asked. When Rasulullaah Marrated in the could, they bade him to let it stay. (3)

Hadhrat Salmaan narrates that when fever once sought permission to see Rasululiaah he asked who it was. It replied, "I am fever. I peel at flesh and suck blood." "Go to the people of Quba," Rasululiaah in instructed. It then proceeded there and (after a while) the people of Quba came to Rasululiaah with pale faces. When they complained about the fever to Rasululiaah in he asked them, "Youhaveachoice. If you wish, I shall pray to Allaah and He will remove it from you or if you prefer, you could leave it to remain amongst you and thereby be a means of removing all the sins you may have left." Their reply was, "Why not (why should we not want our sins forgiven)? Leave it, O Rasululiaah  Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.154). Alimad and Tabraani have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.292).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, Haakim and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaəl (Vol.2 Pg.154). Ahmad has reported a similar narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.292).

⁽³⁾ This is the title Arabs give to fever.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.260). Abu Ya'la and ibn Hibbaan have also reported the narration.

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Abu Hurayr

One of the Sahabah Patiently Bears with his Fever

Hadhrat Aa'isha some narrates that Rasulullaah some once did not notice someone who regularly attended his gatherings. When Rasulullaah some asked what the matter was that the person was not to be seen, the Sahabah some informed Rasulullaah some that the man had been struck down by an intense fever. "Let us go an visit him," Rasulullaah some said to them. When Rasulullaah some entered the room, the young man started to cry, "do not cry," Rasulullaah some consoled him, "because Jibra'eel some has just informed me that fever is my Ummah's share of Jahannam (if they suffer it in this world, they will not be subjected to Jahannam in the Aakhirah, Inshaa Allaah)." (2)

The Patience of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa

Hadhrat Abu Safar reports that when some people came to visit Hadhrat Abu Bakr Well during his illness, they said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah Well Should we not summon a physician to see you?" "He has already been to see me," Hadhrat Abu Bakr Well informed them. "And what did he say to you?" they asked. (Referring to Allaah) Hadhrat Abu Bakr Well replied, "He said, 'I do as I please'." (3)

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra will narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Dardaa will fell ill, his friends came to visit him. "What is the problem?" they asked. "My sins," he replied. "What do you wish for?" they enquired further. "I wish for Jannah," was his reply. "Should we summon a physician for you?" they asked.

Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.306) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nibaayah (Vol.6 Pg. 160).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.160), Bukhaari has also reported the narration in his Adab (Pg.73).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.302) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Signer replied, "It is He (Allaah) Who has made me lay here (with this Illness)," (1)

The Patience Hadhrat Mu'aadh was and his Family Exercised During the Plague

When this news reached Hadhrat Mu'aadh (), he prayed, "O Allaah! Grant the family of Mu'aadh their share in full." His two daughters then passed away in the plague and his son Abdur Rahmaan was also afflicted. Advising his son, Hadhrat Mu'aadh () recited the verse:

The truth is from your Rabb so never be among those who doubt. (Surah Baqarali, verse 147)

To this, his son replied with the following verse of the Qur'aan:

If Allaah wills, you will soon find me to be among the patient ones. (Surah Saaffaat, verse 102)

The plague then struck Hadhrat Mu'aadh himself (and it showed up first) on the back of his hand. "This," Hadhrat Mu'aadh said, "is more beloved to me than red camels." When he saw a man weeping beside him, he asked, "What makes you weep?" The man replied, "I am crying over the knowledge I used to gain from you (which I shall no longer be gaining after your demise)." "Do not cry," Hadhrat Mu'aadh said consoled him, "because although Hadhrat Ibraheem was in a place where there was no knowledge to be learnt, Allaah gave him the knowledge. After I die, seek knowledge from four men (viz.) Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, Abdullaah bin Salaam said, Salmaan said, and Abu Dardaa

Another narration states that Hadhrat Mu'aadh (Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah (Hadhrat Abu Maalik Ash'ari (Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah (Hadhrat Abu Maalik Ash'ari (Hadhrat Abu Bayana)

ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.141), Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad in his Zuhd and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.34), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.153).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.218), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.118) has reported a similar narration.
(3) Rasulullaah 鐵罐 made du'aa to Allaah to accord the status of a martyr to any person of his Ummah who died in a plaque.

⁽⁴⁾ Someone who dies in a plague is a martyr in the sight of Allaah.

Mu'aadh ("This is the mercy of your Rabb, the du'aa of your Nabi and the manner in which the lives of the pious ones before you were taken.

O Allaah! Grant the family of Mu'aadh their full share of this mercy."

The night was not yet over when his only son Abdur Rahmaan was struck by the plague. Abdur Rahmaan was the most beloved person to Hadhrat Mu'aadh was and it was with his name that Hadhrat Mu'aadh was received his title (of Abu Abdur Rahmaan). Returning from the Masjid, Hadhrat Mu'aadh was found his son restless and asked, "O Abdur Rahmaan! How are you?" In reply, his son said, "Beloved father, "The truth is from your Rabb so never be among those who doubt." Hadhrat Mu'aadh was said to him, "If Allaah wills, you will soon find me to be among the patient ones." Abdur Rahmaan passed away that night and Hadhrat Mu'aadh was buried him the following morning.

Hadhrat Mu'aadh Sies was also afflicted with the plague and when the pangs of death struck him, they struck more severely than they did any other person. Each time he regained consciousness from his coma, he opened his eyes and said, "O Rabb! You may strangle as often as you please because I swear by Your honour that You know how much my heart loves You." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and Other Muslims Persevere Through the Plague

Hadhrat Shahr bin Howshab reports from a man from his tribe called Raaba that when the plague started to spread, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah addressed the people saying, "O people! This plague is the mercy of your Rabb, the du'aa of your Nabi and the manner in which the lives of the pious ones before you were taken. Abu Ubaydah prays that Allaah grant him his full share of it." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was then struck with the plague and passed away.

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal was then appointed commander over the troops and he later addressed the people saying, "O people! This plague is the mercy of your Rabb, the du'aa of your Nabi and the manner in which the lives of the pious ones before you were taken. Mu'aadh prays that Allaah grant his family their full share of it." His son Abdur Rahmaan was then struck by the plague and passed away. Hadhrat Mu'aadh with then prayed to Allaah that the plague strike him and it did (the first signs appearing) on his palm. The narrator says, "I saw Hadhrat Mu'aadh with looking at his palm and then turning it around saying, 'I swear by Allaah that I would not like to exchange you for anything in this world."

After Hadhrat Mu'aadh passed away, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was appointed commander. When he stood up to address the people, he said, "O people! When this plague strikes, it spreads like wildfire so seek shelter from it in the mountains." To this, Hadhrat Abu Waathilah Hudhali when you are wrong! By Allaah! I was in the company of Rasulullaah when you were worse than this donkey of mine!" Hadhrat Amr when you were worse than this donkey of mine! Hadhrat Amr Wasser response was, "By (I) Ibn Khuzaymah and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg.312). Ahmad and Bazzaar have also reported the narration, as quoted in Maimatuz Zawaata (Vol. 2 Pg.312).

Allaah! I shall not reply to what you are saying but I swear by Allaah that we shall not be staying on here."

The narrator continues, "Hadhrat Amr when then left, the people scattered and Allaah removed the plague from them. When the opinion of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was reached (Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab was, he said "I swear by Allaah that he did not condemn it." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Mu'aadh (Concerning the Plague of Amwaas

Hadhrat Abu Oflaabah narrates that when the plague struck Shaam, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas street said. "This is a scourge that has come so flee from it to the mountains and ravines." When this statement reached Hadhrat Mu'aadh far from confirming it, he said, "Not at all! It is martyrdom, a mercy and the du'aa of your Nabi 256." Hadhrat Abu Qilaabah narrates further, "While I knew that it was a form of martyrdom and a mercy, I did not know how it was the du'aa of Rasulullaah () until I was informed that while performing salaah one night. Rasulullaah : thrice made du'aa saying, 'Then let it be fever or a plague.' The following morning, one of his family members asked, 'O Rasulullaah : 1 overheard you making a du'aa last night.' 'You heard it?' Rasulullaah 🕮 asked. 'I certainly did,' came the reply. Rasulullaah then explained, 'I asked my Rabb not to let my Ummah perish through drought and this du'aa was accepted. I then prayed to Allaah never to allow an enemy to overpower them and annihilate them (this was also granted). I also prayed to Him never to let my Ummah fragment into groups, waging wars against each other. This du'aa however was refused. It was then that I thrice said, Then let it be fever or a plague'." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 🕬 s Joy at the Plague

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr (See reports that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (See and his family were unaffected by the plague of Amwaas when he prayed to Allaah saying, "O Allaah! Grant the family of Abu Ubaydah their share." When a sore erupted on his little finger, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (thinking that it was a sign of the plague) but he was assured that it meant nothing. He then said, "I wish that Allaah blesses it because when he blesses something little, it becomes a lot." (3)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Abu Umayrah Haarithi narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (1986) sent him to ask Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (1986) how he was when the plague struck him. Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (1986) showed Hadhrat Haarith a sore

Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.240). Haakim (Vol.1 Pg.276) has also reported the narration. Ahmad has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.311).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.78).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad. Haythaml (Vol.2 Pg.311) has commented on the chain of narrators.

that had erupted on his palm. It looked very serious to Hadhrat Haarith and gave him a fright. Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (1) then swore in the name of Allaah that he would not want to trade it even for red camels. (1)

Patiently Bearing Loss of Sight The Sahabah Fatiently Bear the Loss of Sight

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam (See Exercises Patience when he Loses his Sight

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam Says, "When I developed a cataract, Nabi says, when I developed a cataract, Nabi says, "When I developed a cataract, Nabi says, came to visit me. He asked, 'O Zaid! What would you do if you lost your eye?' 'I shall exercise patience and look forward to the rewards (from Allaah),' I replied. Rasulullaah said, 'If after losing your eye you exercise patience and anticipate the rewards, your reward will be Jannah." (2)

Hadhrat Anas sais narrates that he accompanied Rasulullaah sais to visit Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam sais when he was suffering from an eye ailment. Rasulullaah said to him, "O Zaid! If you lose your eye and exercise patience and anticipate the rewards, you will meet Allaah without a single sin against your name." (3)

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam Arqam said, narrates that Rasulullaah once visited him when he was ill. Rasulullaah said, "No harm will come to you from this illness but what will you do if you reach old age after my demise and then lose your eyesight?" Hadhrat Zaid said replied, "I shall then exercise patience and anticipate the rewards," "In that case," Rasulullaah said remarked, "you shall enter Jannah without reckoning," Hadhrat Zaid said later did go blind after Rasulullaah said. Hadhrat Zaid said did go blind but Allaah restored his eyesight before he passed away. May Allaah shower his mercies on him. (5)

A Sahabi Exercises Patience upon the Loss of his Eyesight

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that when some people visited a Sahabi who had lost his eyesight, he said, "I wanted my sight only to see Rasulullaah was. However, since Rasulullaah has passed away, it would not even please me to use them to see a gazelle from the gazelles of Tabaala (a place in Yemen)." (6)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.74).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.78).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahrnad. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.308) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Ya'la and Ibn Asaakir. Bayhaqi has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.157).

⁽⁶⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.309) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Exercising Patience Upon the Demise of Children, Family and Friends

Rasulullaah ses s Patience Upon the Demise of his Son Ibraheem

Hadhrat Anas Sales says, "I saw (Rasulullaah Ses son) Ibraheem Sales surrendering his soul in front of Rasulullaah Ses. With his eyes filled with tears, Rasulullaah said, 'Although the eyes weep and the heart grieves, we shall say only that which pleases Allaah. O Ibraheem! I swear by Allaah that we are deeply saddened by your demise."(1)

Hadhrat Makhool narrates that Rasulullaah was leaning on Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was as he entered the room where (his son) Ibraheem was surrendering his soul. When the boy passed away, Rasulullaah seys eyes filled with tears. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was said, "O Rasulullaah was lis this not what you forbade people from doing? When the Muslims see you weep, they will also weep." When his tears stopped, Rasulullaah was said, "This (these tears) is because of mercy (soft-heartedness) and whoever is not merciful will not have mercy shown to him. What we have been forbidding people from doing is from wailing and from praising attributes of a (deceased) person that he never possessed. Had it not been for Allaah's promise to gather people together (for reckoning), for the fact that death is a well travelled path and for the fact that the last of us will meet with the first of us, we would have felt grief more severe than this. Because of our sorrow over his death our eyes weep and our hearts grieve but we shall never say anything that will anger our Rabb. The balance of his suckling will be done in Jannah." (2)

Rasulullaah : s Patience upon the Death of his Grandson

Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid Alam narrates that they were with Rasulullaah one day when one of his daughters sent for him with the message that her son was dying. Rasulullaah in instructed someone saying, "Go and inform her that to Allaah belongs all that He takes and all that He gives and He has decreed a fixed term for everything, Instruct her to exercise patience and to look forward to the rewards (from Allaah for her patience)." The messenger returned to Rasulullaah saying, "She is beseeching you to come in the name of Allaah." Rasulullaah got up to leave and a few of the Sahabah went with him. Amongst them were Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah saying, Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal saying, "Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b saying, and Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit says, "I also accompanied them and when the child was given to Rasulullaah say, he was quivering in the throes of death (making a sound) as if the soul was in an old water bag. As Rasulullaah says (1) Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg. 78), the Sa'd (Vol. 2 Pg. 85) has reported a similar narration.

eyes welled with tears, Sa'd (Said asked, What is this (tears), O Rasulullaah (Said Rasulullaah (This is the mercy that Allaah has placed in the hearts of His servants and it is only upon His merciful servants that Allaah showers His mercy."

Rasulullaah  s Patience Upon the Martyrdom of his Uncle Hadhrat Hamzah ***

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Feports that as Rasulullaah (Feborary Stood by the body of Hadhrat Hamzah bin Abdul Muttalib (Feborary Stood by the body of Hadhrat Hamzah bin Abdul Muttalib (Feborary Stood by the Sight was more painful than any he had ever witnessed because the body had been savagely mutilated. Rasulullaah (Feborary Standary Stood St

(سورت نحل آیت ۱۲۷٬۱۲۲)

When you claim retribution (for a wrong done to you), then avenge yourself in proportion to the aggression (wrong) done against you (and not any more). But if you exercise patience (without taking revenge), then this is definitely best for the patient ones. (Surah Nahl, verse 126)

Rasulullaah then paid the expiation (for not fulfilling the oath) and restrained himself from taking action. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas are narrates that when Rasulullaah saw what was done to (his uncle) Hadhrat Hamzah saw, he remarked, "If it were not for the grief it would cause our women, I would not bury him and would leave him in this condition so that Allaah would resurrect him from the bellies of wild animals and birds of prey." When the sight grieved him too deeply, Rasulullaah said, "If I get the upper hand over them (the Mushrikeen), I shall mutilate thirty of them." It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

(سوره نحل: آیت۱۲۱، ۱۲۷)

When you claim retribution (for a wrong done to you), then avenge yourself in proportion to the aggression (wrong) done against you (and not any more). But if you exercise patience (without taking revenge), then this is definitely best for the patient ones. Be patient! Your patience is only from Allaah (only Allaah can give you the ability to exercise patience). Do not grieve over them (the Kuffaar when they refuse to accept Islaam) and do not be saddened by their plotting (against you because Allaah will see to them). (Surah Nahl, verses 126,127)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.88) and in more detail in (Vol.1 Pg.89).

⁽²⁾ Tayaalisi, Ahmad, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah, Abu Awaanah and Ibn Ribbaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.118).

Rasulullaah then gave instructions for the body of Hadhrat Hamzah to be turned towards the Qiblah and performed the Janaazah salaah with nine Takbeers. All the other martyrs were then brought to Rasulullaah Each time a martyr was brought, he was placed beside Hadhrat Hamzah would perform the Janaazah salaah for the martyr and Hadhrat Hamzah in this manner, Rasulullaah performed the Janaazah salaah seventy-two times for Hadhrat Hamzah in Rasulullaah then stood by the Sahabah in until the martyrs were buried. After the above verse was revealed, Rasulullaah forgave the Mushrikeen and forsook the idea of mutilation. (1)

Rasulullaah  s Grief upon the Demise of Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha ***

Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid Sissis says, "When my father (Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha Sissis) was martyred, I went to see Rasulullaah (Sissis) was martyred, I went to see Rasulullaah (Sissis). When he saw me, Rasulullaah (Sissis) started weeping. When I again went to him the next day, he said, 'Even today I felt the grief I feel when I saw you yesterday." (2)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Shumayr Teports that when Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha was martyred and Rasulullaah we went to the Sahabah was. Hadhrat Zaid Saws daughter burst out crying in front of Rasulullaah we when Rasulullaah the then started weeping profusely, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah was asked, "What is this, O Rasulullaah we "This," replied Rasulullaah wis in the longing a friend has for his friend." (3)

Rasulullaah s Grief upon the Demise of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon **

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that when Rasulullaah K kissed Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Affect his demise, his eyes were flowing with tears.

(4) In another narration, Hadhrat Aa'isha Fassays, I actually saw Rasulullaah Fassays tears flowing on the cheek of Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Fassay. (5) (6)

Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg. 119) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim (Vol.3 Pg. 197) has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Tabraant. Haythami (Vol 6 Pg.120) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ibn Manee, Bazzaar, Baswardi, Daar Qutni in his Afraad and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.136).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.32).

⁽⁵⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 2 Pg. 464).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.288).

The Sahabah Exercise Patience on the Occasions of Death

Hadhrat Ummu Haaritha Exercises Patience upon the Demise of her Son

Hadhrat Anas Treports that Hadhrat Haaritha bin Suraaqa Was killed during the Battle of Badr. Although he was a non-combatant, he was killed by a stray arrow. His mother came there asking, "O Rasulullaah Was! Tell me what has become of Haaritha. If he is in Jannah, I shall exercise patience. If not, I shall show Allaah what I will do." She was referring to wailing, which had not yet been forbidden at the time. "Shame on you!" Rasulullaah Was exclaimed, "Are you mad? There are eight levels of Jannah and your son had reached Firdous which is the highest of them all." (1)

Another narration⁽²⁾ states that she said, "I shall exercise patience if he is Jannah. If not, I shall exert myself in crying." "O Ummu Haarithal" Rasulullaah consoled her, "There are many levels of Jannah and your son had reached Firdous which is the highest of them all." Yet another narration states that Rasulullaah consoled her, "O Ummu Haarithal There is not only one Jannah. There are many levels of Jannah and he is in Firdous which is the highest of them all." She then said, "I shall then exercise patience." (3)

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas states that Hadhrat Ummu Haaritha said, "O Rasulullaah if he is in Jannah, I shall not weep and will not be grieved. However, if he is in Jahannam, I shall continue weeping as long as I live." "O Ummu Haarith!" Rasulullaah consoled her, "There is not only one Jannah. There are many levels of Jannah and Haarith is in Firdous which is the highest of them all." She then returned laughing as she said, "Well done, Haarith! Well done!" (4)

Hadhrat Ummu Khallaad Elem Exercises Patience upon the Demise of her Son

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas was narrates that when the Muslims fought the (Jewish) Banu Qurayzah tribe, a man from the Ansaar called Khallaad was was martyred. When someone went to inform her that he had been martyred, she went (to receive his body) while wearing her veil. Someone remarked, "Khallaad has been killed and you are wearing a veil?!" She replied, "I may have lost Khallaad but I have not lost my modesty." When Rasulullaah was informed of this, he said, "Take note that he (Hadhrat Khallaad was) shall receive the rewards of two martyrs." When someone

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.274).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.167). Ibn Abi Shaybah has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.273). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.208) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.68) have also reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Fg.275).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.26).

asked the reason for this, Rasulullaah (2006) replied, "Because he was killed by the Ahlul Kitaab." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Talha and Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym Exercise Patience upon the Demise of their Son

Hadhrat Anas (Tiese) reports that (his mother) Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym (Tiese) once came to his father Abu Anas saying, "Today I have come with news that you will dislike." His response was: "You are always coming with news from that Bedouin that I dislike." She said, "He is a Bedouin whom Allaah has selected and made a Nabi," "What is the news you have brought?" he asked. "Wine has been forbidden," she replied. To this he said, "Then this is where we separate." He then died as a Mushrik.

When Hadhrat Abu Talha (with a marriage proposal), she said, "I cannot marry you when you are a Mushrik." "No," exclaimed Hadhrat Abu Talha ("By," "By Allaah! That is not your motive." "Then what is my motive?" asked Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ("Your motive is gold and silver," he replied. "In that case," retorted Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ("I make you and the Nabi of Allaah ("I witness to the fact that if you accept Islaam, I shall be content with you giving me only your acceptance of Islaam (as dowry. I want nothing else)." "Who will stand guarantee for me to this agreement?" Hadhrat Abu Talha ("O Anas! Get up and go with your uncle."

Hadhrat Anas (Sies) got up and with Hadhrat Abu Talha (Sies) shand on his shoulder, they proceeded. When they got close to where Rasulullaah (Sies) was and he heard their voices, he remarked, "Here is Abu Talha with the radiance of Islaam sparkling between his eyes." Hadhrat Abu Talha (Sies) greeted Rasulullaah (Sies) and then professed:

"أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَّا اللهَ الَّا اللَّهُ وَآشُهِدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبُدُهُ وَ رَسُولُهُ"

I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad Wis is the Rasul of Allaah Rasulullaah (###) then married him (to Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym (##) on the condition of his accepting Islaam. Hadhrat Abu Talha (##) later fathered a son who was the apple of his father's eye. However, when the child started to walk, Allaah decided to take the child away.

(Still unaware that the child had passed away) Hadhrat Abu Talha (Still unaware that the child had passed away) Hadhrat Abu Talha (Still unaware that Ummu Sulaym?" Better then he had been (because death har relieved him of his illness)," she replied. She then said further, "Why don't you have your supper because it is already late." After serving him his supper, she asked, "O Abu Talha! When a trust is given to some people for safekeeping and the owners of the trust send a (1) lbn 5a'd (Vol.3 Pg.83). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.157), as has Abu Ya'ia, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal message after some time that they require it back, can those who have it in trust refuse to return it?" "Not at all," replied Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym then said, "Your son has left this world." "Where is he now?" Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Abu Talha Hadhrat Abu Talha Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Abu Talha Hadhrat Abu Talha Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Abu Talha Hadhrat Abu Talha (Hadhrat Abu Talha (Had

"To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return"

He then went to inform Rasulullaah A about the statement of Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym A to which Rasulullaah A said, "I swear by the Being Who has sent me with the truth that because of her patience at the demise of her child, Allaah has already placed another son in her womb."

After Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym which had delivered the child, Rasulullaah said, "O Anas! Go and tell your mother that after cutting the umbilical cord, she should not feed anything to the baby without first sending for me." Hadhrat Anas says, "She then gave the baby in my arms and I took it to Rasulullaah says, when I placed the baby before Rasulullaah says, he asked for three Ajwa dates. When I brought them, he removed the stones, chewed on them and then opened the child's mouth to place it inside. The child immediately started turning it about in his mouth, to which Rasulullaah says remarked, "The Ansaar certainly love dates." Thereafter, Rasulullaah said to me, 'Go and tell your mother, 'May Allaah bless you in this child and make him obedient and pious,"(1)

Hadhrat Anas Anas Anarrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha Anarrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha Anarrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha Anarrates asked, "How is my son?" Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym Anarrates replied, "He is calmer than he had been." She then served him supper and after he had completed, the couple engaged in sexual relations. It was only afterwards that she told him to bury the child. The next morning when Hadhrat Abu Talha Anarrate ("Did you have relations with your wife last night?" After receiving a positive reply, Rasulullaah Anarrate ("O Allaah! Bless them." Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym Allen gave birth to a son.

Hadhrat Abu Talha (1966) then instructed Hadhrat Anas (1966) to carefully take this child to Rasulullaah (1966). Ummu Sulaym (1966) also sent some dates with the baby and when Rasulullaah (1966) took the child, he asked, "Has something come with him?" When the Sahabah (1966) informed him that some dates had also come, Rasulullaah (1966) asked for them. After chewing them, Rasulullaah (1966) took it from his mouth, placed it in the child's mouth and rubbed it on the child's palate (called Tahneek). Rasulullaah (1966) then named the child

¹⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.291) has commented on the chain of narrators. Another narration of Bazzaar states that Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym 图如题 said to Hadhrat Abu Talha 图如题。"How can I marry you when you worship the wood which that slave of mine brings?" Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.316) has reported a similar narration.

Abdullaah,(1)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "Allaah shall bless them in their night." Hadhrat Sufyaan reports that a man from the Ansaar mentioned, "I saw nine of their (Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym said Hadhrat Abu Talha short) children all of whom were proficient scholars of the Qur'aan." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Exercises Patience upon the Demise of his son Abdullaah Exercises

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah (After healing) His wound reopened forty days after the demise of Rasulullaah (After healing) His wound reopened forty days after the demise of Rasulullaah (After healing) His wound reopened forty days after the demise of Rasulullaah (After healing) His wound reopened forty days after the demise of Rasulullaah (After healing) Hadhrat Ab'sha (After healing) Hadhrat Ab'sha (After healing) Hadhrat Ab'sha (After healing) Hadhrat After leaving, he again came to her saying, "Dear daughter! Are you not afraid that Abdullaah may have been buried while he was still alive?" Hadhrat Aa'sha (Dear father!

To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "I seek protection from Allaah the All Hearing and All Knowing from the accursed Shaytaan! Dear daughter! Each and every person has influences. One comes from an angel and the other from Shaytaan."

When a delegation from the Thaqeef tribe (the people of Taa'if) came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sies), he still had with him the arrow (that killed his son). Taking it out, he asked them, "Does any of you recognise this arrow?" Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubayd (Sies) of the Banu Ajlaan tribe replied, "It is I who made that arrow, who attached its feathers and head and who shot it." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sies) said, "It was this arrow that killed my son Abdullaah. All praise belongs to that Allaah Who honoured him (with martyrdom) at your hand and Who did not disgrace you (with death as a Kaafir) at his hand. Allaah is indeed the greatest Protector." (3) Another narration (4) states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sies) said, "The good that Allaah grants is indeed vast to both of you."

The Patience of Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Abu Dharr

Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed 经跨路 narrates that whenever a child was born to Hadhrat Uthmaan 经路路, he would ask for the child while it was still wrapped

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.822).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.174).

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.477).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.89).

(after birth). He would then smell the child. When asked why he did this, Hadhrat Uthmaan (I like to do this because should anything happen to the child, there would be love for the child in my heart (I would then be rewarded for the greater patience I would need to exercise)." (1)

Someone once said to Hadhrat Abu Dharr ("None of your children seem to stay alive?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr ("Feplied, "All praise belongs to Allaah Who takes them away from this temporary home (this world) and stores them as a treasure (for me) in the eternal abode (of the Aakhirah)." (2)

The patience of Hadhrat Umar wife upon the Demise of his Brother Hadhrat Zaid

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Zaid bin Khattaab narrates that whenever a calamity befell Hadhrat Umar (he would console himself saying, "When I was struck with the calamity of the death of (my brother) Zaid bin Khattaab, I managed to exercise patience (why should I not do so now?)." When Hadhrat Umar (he would a person who killed his brother Hadhrat Zaid (he would be with the wind blows." (3)

The Patience of Hadhrat Safiyyah www upon the Death of her Brother Hadhrat Hamzah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Feports that when Hadhrat Hamzah was martyred, (his sister) Hadhrat Safiyyah was, unaware of what had happened, came looking for him. When she met (her nephew) Hadhrat Ali was and (her son) Hadhrat Zubayr was, "Tell your mother (that her brother has been martyred)." "No," replied Hadhrat Zubayr was, "You go ahead and tell your aunt." "How is Hamzah?" Hadhrat Safiyyah was asked. The two men made it seem to her that they knew nothing. She then approached (her nephew) Rasulullaah was who said, "I fear for her sanity (if she knew the truth) "Rasulullaah was placed his hand on her chest and made du'aa, (Then when he informed her) She wept as she said,

To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return." Rasulullaah :: then stood by the mutilated b

Rasulullaah then stood by the mutilated body and said, "If it were not for the grief it would cause our women, I would not bury him and would leave him in this condition so that Allaah would resurrect him from the bellies of wild animals and birds of prey." Thereafter Rasulullaah the gave instructions for all the martyrs to be brought forward and he started performing the Janaazah salaah for them. Nine bodies were brought and laid beside that of Hadhrat Hamzah Rasulullaah performed the salaah with seven Takbeers. The bodies were then taken away while that of Hadhrat Hamzah (we performed the Janaazah salaah for them with seven Takbeers. These bodies were then carried away while that of Hadhrat Hamzah (we performed the Janaazah salaah for them also was left behind. Yet again, another nine bodies were brought and Rasulullaah (we performed the Janaazah salaah for them also with seven Takbeers. These bodies were then carried away while that of Hadhrat Hamzah (was left behind. This continued until Rasulullaah (we had performed the Janaazah salaah for them all. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.157).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 157):

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.227). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.98).

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam American narrates, "A woman came running during the Battle of Uhud and would have seen the dead bodies when Rasulullaah discalled out, '(Stop) The woman! (Stop) The woman! Rasulullaah discalled out, '(Stop) The woman! (Stop) The woman! Rasulullaah discalled that women should see the bodies. When I guessed that she was my mother Safiyya of the safiyya woman and struck me in the chest saying, 'Get away from me. The ground does not belong to you!' I said, 'Rasulullaah discalled has emphatically prohibited you form going there.' She then halted in her tracks and took out two sheets saying, 'I have brought these two sheets for my brother Hamzah. The news of his death has already reached me and I want you to bury him in these.'

We then took the sheets to enshroud Hamzah in but found next to him someone from the Ansaar who was also killed and mutilated as Hamzah was. Because we felt difficult to enshroud Hamzah in two sheets while the Ansaari had none, we decided that one sheet would be used for Hamzah and the other for the Ansaari. After measuring the two sheets, we found the one to be larger than the other. (To decide who would have which sheet) We then drew lots between the two and enshrouded each one in the sheet that fell to his lot." (2)

Discussing the martyrdom of Hadhrat Hamzah it is reported that when Hadhrat Safiyyah bint Abdul Muttalib came to see her brother, Hadhrat Zubayr met her saying, "Dear mother! It is the instruction of Rasulullaah that you return." She said, "Why should I? I have already heard that my brother's body has been mutilated. This has taken place for the sake of Allaah and we are pleased with it (with Allaah's decree). I shall definitely exercise patience and look forward to the rewards from Allaah." When Hadhrat Zubayr reported her words to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah and prayed for his forgiveness. Rasulullaah then gave instructions for him to be buried. (3)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.197). Ibn Abi Shaybah and Tabraani have reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Space), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.170). Bazzaar has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'd (Vol.6 Pg.118).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Ahmad and Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.6 Pg. 118) has commented on the chain of narrators.
(3) Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg. 349).

The Patience of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah upon the Demise of her Husband

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah Savs, "(My husband) Abu Salamah once came to me from Rasululiaah see saying, 'I have heard from Rasululiaah see something that gives me great pleasure. Rasulullaah 😂 said that whenever a Muslim is afflicted with any calamity, he will be rewarded and granted something better in return if he recites:

'To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return'

followed by the du'aa:

'O Allaah! Reward me in my calamity and replace me with something better I learnt the du'aa from him and when Abu Salamah (passed away, I recited:

"إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَ إِنَّا الِّهُهِ رَاحِعُونَ" "To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return."

'O Allaah! Reward me in my calamity and replace me with something better' I then thought to myself, 'Where will I get someone better than Abu Salamah However, after completing my Iddah, I was one day dying a piece of leather when Rasulullaah see sought permission to see me. After washing the Qaridh leaves (used for dying) from my hands, I permitted him in and placed for him a leather cushion stuffed with the bark of a palm. Rasulullaah Wis sat on it and then proposed for my hand in marriage. After Rasulullaah After had spoken, I said, 'O Rasujullaah : I have no reason for not wanting to marry you. However, I am a woman who is extremely possessive and I fear that you may see something in me (because of my possessiveness) that would cause Allaah to punish me. In addition to this, I am not young anymore and I have children.' Rasulullaah We replied, 'As for your possessiveness, Allaah will soon dispel it. As for your age, I am affected by advanced age just as you are. As for your children, they shall be my children as well.' I then accepted, saying, 'I shall then hand myself over to the Rasool of Allaah 25. Allaah really did replace

The Patience Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr Exercised Upon the Death of his Wife

Abu Salamah (for me with someone better, with Rasulullaah ()."(1)

Hadhrat Aa'isha was says that they were returning from Hajj or Umrah and were welcomed at Dhul Hulayfah where the children of the Ansaar normally met their families. When the people met Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr and gave him the news of his wife's death, he covered his face and started to weep. "May Allaah forgive you," Hadhrat Aa'isha said to him, "You are a companion of Rasulullaah was and are one of the first people to enter the fold of Islaam. Why would you be weeping over a woman?" Hadhrat Usayd was uncovered his face and said. "You are right. I swear by my life that after the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh said, I have no right to weep over anyone else especially after what Rasulullaah said about him." "What did Rasulullaah say about him?" Hadhrat Aa'isha said about him? "What did Rasulullaah say asy about him? Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "The Arsh (Throne of Allaah) actually shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'aadh."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Nasa'ee, Ibn Maajah and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.91). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg,63,64) has reported a similar narration.

Another narration states that Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr said, "Have I no right to weep when I heard Rasulullaah say, The pillars of the Arsh shook with the death of Sa'd bin Muaa'dh." (2) Yet another narration states that he said, "Why should I not weep when I heard Rasulullaah say..." The rest of the narration is the same as the one above. (3)

The Patience of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wood upon the death of his Brother Hadhrat Utba

Hadhrat Awn reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood heard about the death of his brother Hadhrat Utba (he started to weep. When asked what made him weep, he replied, "He was my real brother and my companion with Rasulullaah (he had him to pass away and for me to anticipate the rewards for (my patience at) losing him is dearer to me than for me to pass away and for him to anticipate the rewards for (his patience at) losing me." (4)

Hadhrat Khaythama Mase narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ecceived the news of the death of his brother Hadhrat Utba Mase, his eyes welled with tears as he said, "This (weeping) is because of the mercy that Allaah has placed (in the heart) that man has no control of." (5)

The Patience of Hadhrat Abu Ahmad bin Jahash upon the death of his Sister Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Saleet (SIES) narrates, "I saw Abu Ahmad bin Jahash (SIES) carrying the funeral bier of (his sister) Zaynab bint Jahash (SIES). He was blind and in tears. As the people started crowding about the bier, I heard Hadhrat Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad, Shaashi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg./12). (bn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.12) and Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.289) have reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.118).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.309).
(4) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.253).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.94).

Umar Sass say, 'O Abu Ahmad t! Move away from the bier so the people will not hurt you.' However, Abu Ahmad Sass replied, 'O Umar! It is from her that I received every good. This (carrying her bier) cools the heat of the grief I am feeling.' Then hold on tight,' Hadhrat Umar Sass said, 'Hold on tight,' (1)

The Patience of the Muslims upon the death of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Ahnaf bin Qais Says, "I once heard Hadhrat Umar Says say, 'The Quraysh are leaders and when any of them enter a door, an entire group of people enter with them.' I however did not fully understand what he meant until he was stabbed. On his deathbed, he instructed Suhayb to lead the salaah for three days and also gave instructions for food to be served to the people until his successor was appointed. When the people returned from the funeral, the food was served and the tablecloths laid out. However, because of their grief, the people refrained from eating. Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib and we also ate and drank after the demise of Rasulullaah and we also ate and drank after the demise of Hadhrat Abb Bakr Says. Now it is also necessary for us to eat this food." He then stretched out his hand and ate. The people followed suit. I then understood what Hadhrat Umar Says said about the Quraysh being leaders." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Ali Advise People to Exercise Patience upon the Deaths of Close Relatives

Hadhrat Abu Uyaynah (There is no calamity when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (There is no calamity when there is patience and no benefit when there is impatience. What precedes death is simple while that which follows it is difficult. If you think of the loss of Rasulullaah (Fig.), your tragedy will seem light and Allaah will inflate your reward."

Hadhrat Sufyaan reports that when consoling Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais woon the death of his son, Hadhrat Ali woo said, "It is the right of your family relationship that you should grieve but if you exercise patience, Allaah shall replace the loss of your son. If you are patient, fate will take its course and you will be rewarded. However, if you are irritated, fate will still take its course and you will be sinful," (4)

Exercising Patience upon Misfortunes in General An Ansaari Woman Perseveres with her Epilepsy

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 氢硫酸 narrates that Rasulullaah 微微 was once in

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.80).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 4 Pg. 19), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 67). Tabraani has reported a similar narration but Haythami (Vol. 5 Pg. 196) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Khaythamah, Deenowri and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg. 122).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.122).

Makkah when a woman from the Ansaar came to him saying, "O Rasulullaah I There is this wretch (evil spirit) that overpowers me (please cure me)." Rasulullaah is said to her, "If you persevere with this problem, you will appear on the Day of Qiyaamah without any sins and will have no reckoning to give." She replied, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth, I prefer to persevere until I meet Allaah." She then added, "However, I fear that the wretch would strip me naked." Rasulullaah is then prayed for her and whenever she feared that the spirit was approaching, she would cling on to the shroud of the Kabah and say to it, "Get away!" It would then leave her. (1)

Hadhrat Ataa "Februs reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas once said to him, "Should I not show you a woman who shall be amongst the inhabitants of Jannah?" "Please do," Hadhrat Ataa Februs responded, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas With the said, "There was this black woman who once approached Rasulullaah with the request, 'Please pray for me because I suffer from epilepsy and (in the fit my clothing opens up and) my body becomes exposed.' Rasulullaah said to her, 'If you want, you can persevere and earn yourself Jannah, otherwise I can pray to Allaah to cure you.' 'Not at all,' she replied, 'I shall rather persevere (and be assured of Jannah), but do pray to Allaah that my body does not become exposed.' Rasulullaah the made du'aa for her. (2) Another narration adds that Hadhrat Ataa Februs then saw the lady holding on to the shroud of the Kabah. She was called Ummu Zufar And she was a tall black woman. (3)

The Incident of a Man with a Woman who had been a Prostitute during the Period of Ignorance

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal American narrates that a woman who had been a prostitute during the Period of Ignorance once passed by a man who stretched out his hand towards her. "Stop!" she cautioned, "Allaah has obliterated Shirk and brought Islaam (I am therefore no longer a prostitute)." He then left her and turned away. However, as he continued looking at her, he struck his face on a wall (and was injured). He then went to Rasulullaah and reported the incident to him. Rasulullaah said, "You are a person for whom Allaah intends good. When Allaah had good intentions for a person, He hastens the punishment for his sins in this world (so that he suffers no punishment in the Aakhirah). On the other hand, when Allaah does not intend good for a person, He holds back the punishment (in this world) until the person receives his punishment in full on the Day of Qiyaamah (when the punishment will be much worse)." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in Al Bldaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg. 160).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg, 155).

The statement of Hadhrat Umar (1996) that everything which Affects a Mu'min is a Calamity if he does not Like it

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Khalifah narrates that he was once with Hadhrat Umar

"To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return"

Thereafter (to explain why he said this), Hadhrat Umar (1) said, "Everything that is unpleasant to you is regarded as a calamity." (1) Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that when the front portion of Hadhrat Umar (1) shows show broke, he exclaimed:

"To Allaah we belong and to Him shall we return"

"O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" the people enquired, "You are reciting () for a mere front portion of a shoe?" Hadhrat Umar  replied, "When anything that he finds unpleasant happens to a Mu'min, it is regarded as a calamity." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Good Commands Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah Good to Persevere Against the Enemy and The Perseverance of Hadhrat Uthmaan until he was Martyred

Hadhrat Aslam reports that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah some wrote to Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab some, informing him that the Romans were launching a massive military offensive and also stating the grave dangers they (the Muslim army) faced. In his reply after duly praising Allaah, Hadhrat Umar some wrote, "Whenever any difficulty afflicts a Mu'min, Allaah creates ease afterwards and no difficulty can overpower two eases(3). Allaah states in His book:

(سورت آل عمران آیت ۲۰۰۰)

O you who have Imaan! Exercise sabr, compete in patience, continue doing good deeds (especially ensuring that the borders of Muslim countries are well guarded) and fear Allaah so that you may be successful (in reaching your goal). (Sura) Aal Imraan, verse 200] (4)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Mahdi says that Hadhrat Uthmaan Spossessed

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Abd bin Humayd, Ibn Mundhir and Bayhaqi.

⁽²⁾ Marwazi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 154).

⁽³⁾ Here Hadhrat Umar STAGE was referring to the verses of the Qur'aan where Allaah states: meaning that every difficulty is followed by two eases.

⁽⁴⁾ Maalik, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ibn Abi Dunya, Ibn Jareer, Hakim and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 154).

two virtues that neither Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Spee) nor Hadhrat Umar (Spee) had. One was his perseverance until it led to his martyrdom and the other was that he united the Muslims on one standard version of the Qur'aan. (1)

Gratitude

The Gratitude of Rasulullaah 經經

Rasulullaah Prolongs his Sajdah in Gratitude to Allaah

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Feports, 'Rasulullaah Fe once left the Masjid and headed for his room on the upper storey. After entering, he faced towards the Qiblah and fell into Sajdah. He prolonged his Sajdah so much that I thought his soul had been taken. I therefore went close to him and sat down, Raising his head from the ground, he asked, 'Who is there?' When I told him that I was Abdur Rahmaan, he asked further, 'What is the matter?' 'O Rasulullaah Fe I explained, 'You Sajdah was so long that I feared Allaah may have taken your soul in it.' Rasulullaah Fe Said, 'Jibra'eel Fe I gust came to me saying that Allaah says, 'Whoever invokes My mercy on you (recites Durood), I shall shower My mercies on him and whoever invoked peace on you (sends Salaams), I shall bless him with peace.' I therefore made Sajdah to Allaah in gratitude.'"(2)

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal Sass says, "I once approached Rasulullaan and found him standing and performing salaah. He continued standing until dawn broke and made such a long Sajdah that I thought his life had been taken. Afterwards he asked, 'Do you know what that (long Sajdah) was for?' 'Allaah and His Rasool k know best,' I submitted. After repeating the question three or four times, Rasulullaah sexplained, 'I performed as much salaah as my Rabb had ordained for me when my Rabb appeared and addressed me. At the end of the conversation, he asked me, 'What shall I do with your Ummah?' O my Rabb,' I declared, 'you know best what You shall I do with them.' After repeating the question three or four times, Allaah again asked, 'What shall I do with your Ummah?' When I again submitted that He knew best, Allaah said, 'I shall never make you grieve over your Ummah.' I then fell into Sajdah because my Rabb is appreciative and loves those who show gratitude." "(3)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Abu Bakr was narrates that when he once went to visit Rasulullaah . Rasulullaah swe was busy receiving revelation. When the revelation stopped. Rasulullaah swe asked Hadhrat Aa'isha was to pass him his shawl. He then left the house and entered the Masjid where he found some people besides whom there was no one else there. Rasulullaah sat on one side until the person addressing them had completed his talk. Thereafter.

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilyo (Vol.1 Pg.58).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.287).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.288) has commented on the chain of narrators,

Rasulullaah Frecited Surah Tanzeel Sajdah (Surah) and made such a long Sajdah that people living as far as two miles away arrived there as people started telling each other about the Sajdah. Hadhrat Aa'isha Frecita sent a message to her family telling them to come because she was seeing Rasulullaah of do something she had never seen him do before.

After Rasulullaah Albu had lifted his head (from Sajdah), Hadhrat Abu Bakr saked, "O Rasulullaah Albu Pave Polonged your Sajdah so much?" Rasulullaah Albu Pave Polonged your Sajdah so much?" Rasulullaah Albu Pave Polonged your Sajdah so much?" Rasulullaah Albu Pave Polonged your Sajdah so much?" Rasulullaah Albu Pave Polonged your Sajdah so much?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr Albu Pave Hen sajd, "O Rasulullaah Albu Pave You should have asked for more for them." This he repeated two or three times when Hadhrat Umar Albu Pave Asked a great gift for your Ummah." (1)

The Gratitude Rasulullaah showed when he saw a man Suffering from a Terminal Disease

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was narrates that when Rasulullaah se once passed by a man suffering from a terminal disease, he dismounted from his animal and made Sajdah. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr see passed by the man, he also dismounted and made Sajdah and Hadhrat Umar see followed suit when he passed by. (2)

Rasulullaah EE Thanks Allaah for Returning his Family Members Safely from an Expedition

Hadhrat Ali subsection reports that when Rasulullaah section comprising of his family members, he prayed, "O Allaah! If You return them to me safely, I owe it to You to thank You as You ought to be thanked." It was not long afterwards that they came back safely and Rasulullaah section. "All praise belongs to Allaah for all the bounties of Allaah." "O Rasulullaah section." Hadhrat Ali section asked, "Did you not say that if Allaah returned them safely, you owed it to Him to thank Him as He ought to be thanked?" "Did I not just do that?" Rasulullaah

The Gratitude of the Sahabah

The Gratitude of a man To Whom Rasulullaah gave a Single Date

Hadhrat Anas reports that when a beggar once came to Rasulullaah reference instructions for a date to be given to the man. The beggar however (thinking it to be too little) threw it away. Another beggar then arrived and again

⁽i) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.289) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.289) has commented on the chain of parrators.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.151).

Rasulullaah see gave instructions for a date to be given to him. The man exclaimed (in joy), "Subhaanallaah! A date from Rasulullaah see" Rasulullaah then said to one of the servants, "Go to Ummu Salamah and instruct her to give this man the forty Dirhams she has with her."

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when a beggar once came to Rasulullaah and he gave him a date, the beggar exclaimed (in derision), "Subhaanallaah! A Nabi from the Ambiyaa giving a mere date as Sadaqah!" Rasulullaah said to him, "Don't you know that there are multitudes of atoms in that (1)?" Thereafter, another man came to beg. When Rasulullaah said gave him a date as well, he exclaimed (in joy), "A date from a Nabi from the Ambiyaa! I shall never part with this date as long as I live and shall always anticipate its blessings." Rasulullaah then instructed the people to be good to the man and he soon became a wealthy man. (2)

The Gratitude Hadhrat Umar Showed to Allaah for Elevating his Status and his Words Concerning Patience and gratitude

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Yasaar narrates that when Hadhrat Umar saw once passed by a place called Dajnaan, he said, "I once saw myself grazing animals in this place for (my father) Khattaab. By Allaah! As far as I know, he was a stern and harsh man. (By the grace of Allaah) I then became the guide of the Ummah of Muhammad & He then recited the following couplets (which mean):

"There is nothing in the things you see besides superficial enjoyment While wealth and children are temporary, all that shall remain is Allaah" He then spurred his camel on saying, "Howb!" (3)

Hadhrat Umar (1986) once said, "When I come to the conveyance of gratitude and the conveyance of patience, I care not which of the two I ride." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (See Soncerning a Leper and Another Man

Hadhrat Ikramah sizes reports that Hadhrat Umar sizes once passed by a leper who was also blind, deaf and dumb. Addressing the people with him, Hadhrat Umar sizes asked, "Do you see any of Allaah's bounties in this man?" When the people replied that they saw none, Hadhrat Umar sizes said, "Why not? Do you not see that he is able to urinate with ease without the urine holding back or coming out with difficulty? This is and extremely great bounty from Allaah." (5)

Here Rasululiaah was referring to the verse of the Quraan that states: Whoever (sincerely) does an atom's weight of good will see it (its consequences when he is rewarded for it). (Surah Zilizaal, verse 7)

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.42).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.417).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.417).

⁽⁵⁾ Abd bin Humayd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 154).

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that Hadhrat Umar some heard a man say, "O Allaah! I wish to spend my wealth and my life in Your path." To this, Hadhrat Umar some said, "Why doesn't any of you remain silent, exercising patience when in difficulty and expressing gratitude when enjoying prosperity?" (1)

What Hadhrat Umar said to a man Who Greeted him, His Letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari said and his Statement Concerning People who are Grateful

Hadhrat Anas (The property of the first after a man greeted Hadhrat Umar (The had replied to the greeting, Hadhrat Umar (The had asked him, "How are you?" "I only have the praises of Allaah to sing before you," the man replied. "That is exactly what I wanted from you," said Hadhrat Umar (Lies). (2)

Hadhrat Hasan Basri narrates that Hadhrat Umar (1996) wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (1996): "Be content with the sustenance Allaah provides for you in this world because Allaah gives more sustenance to some of His servants and less to others to test all of them. He tests those whom He has given plenty to see whether they are grateful. His gratitude to Allaah fulfils the duty he owes to Allaah for the sustenance and bounties Allaah has blessed him with."

Hadhrat Umar Sizes once said, "The grateful ones always received more from Allaah so seek more from Allaah. This is because Allaah says:

If you show gratitude (for the favours I grant you), then I will definitely grant you (many) more." {Surah Ibraheem, verse 7} (4)

Hadhrat Uthmaan shows Gratitude for not Encountering some people who Were Involved in Evil

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Moosa narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan was once called to deal with some people who were involved in some evil activity. However, when Hadhrat Uthmaan when went to them, he found that they had already dispersed even though the effects of their evil was still visible Hadhrat Uthmaan when praised Allaah for not encountering them and (as a token of gratitude) he freed a slave. (5)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali Good Concerning Bounties and Gratitude

Hadhrat Ali woo once said, "Every bounty should be followed by gratitude and

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.154).

⁽²⁾ Maalik, Ibn Mubaarak and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 151)

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 151).

⁽⁴⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.151).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.60).

gratitude is followed by an increase (in the bounty). Gratitude and an increase in bounties are directly proportional to each other. Therefore, Aliaah will never stop increasing the bounties on His servant until the servant stops being grateful (in which case they stop)." (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi narrates that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib speed once said, "It never occurs that Allaah opens the door of gratitude and closes the door of increasing bounties. It also never occurs that Allaah opens the door of du'aa and closes the door of acceptance. Similarly, it never occurs that Allaah opens the door of Taubah and closes the door of forgiveness. I shall recite this from Allaah's Book. Allaah says:

"Supplicate (make du'aa) to Me and I shall respond." (Surah Al Mumin, verse 60)

Allaah also says:

"If you show gratitude (for the favours I grant you), then I will definitely grant you (many) more." (Surah Ibraheem, verse 7)
Allaah says further:

"So think of Me and I will think of you." (Surah Baqarah, verse [52] Allaah also says:

(سورة النساء آيت ١١١)

Whoeyer commits a (minor) sin or wrongs himself (by committing a major sin) and then seeks Allaah's forgiveness, he will surely find that Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Surah Nisaa, verse 110)⁽²⁾

The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (1996), Hadhrat Aa'isha (1996) and Hadhrat Asmaa (1996) Concerning Gratitude

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "When a night or a day passes without people seeing me suffer any difficulty, I see this as an extremely great bounty from Allaah." Another narration quotes him as saying, "The person who sees Allaah's bounties only in food and drink has a limited understanding and has his punishment ever present." (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha was once said, "Gratitude is binding on the person who

⁽¹⁾ Baynaqi

⁽²⁾ Ibn Maajah and Askari, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 151).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.152) and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pgs.210,220).

drinks even plain water that enters his body without difficulty and then exits without difficulty." (1)

When (her son) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was martyred, Hadhrat Asmaa bint Abu Bakr was happened to lose something that Rasulullaah was gave her and which she kept in a bag. When she finally found it after some searching, she fell into Sajdah (in gratitude to Allaah). (2)

Fervour for Earning Rewards

The Fervour of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood will narrates that when the Muslims went for the Battle of Badr, every three of them had to share a camel (to ride in turns because of a shortage of transport). Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah will and Hadhrat Ali will shared a camel with Rasulullaah will and when it was Rasulullaah will sturn to walk, they both offered to walk instead. However, Rasulullaah refused saying, "Neither are you two stronger than I nor am I less in need of rewards than you."

The Fervour of the Sahabah (to earn Rewards

The Sahabah Exert themselves to Stand in Salaah to earn rewards

Hadhrat Muttalib bin Abu Wadaa'ah (See reports that when Rasululiaah (See once saw a person performing salaah while sitting down, he said, "The salaah of a sitting person is half (in reward) of the salaah of a standing person." Thereafter the Sahabah (See exerted themselves greatly to perform salaah while standing (despite suffering extreme hunger and weakness at times).

Fladhrat Anas Freports that when Rasulullaah Frequency arrived in Madinah, he was suffering with high fever and the other Muslims were also suffering of the same. When Rasulullaah Frequency entered the Masjid one day and found the people sitting and performing salaah (because of their illness), he said, "The salaah of a sitting person is half (in reward) of the salaah of a standing person." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas some narrates that when Rasulullaah and his companions (from Makkah) arrived in Madinah, they were so afflicted by the fever in Madinah that they became extremely ill. Eventually they were able to perform salaah only while sitting down. Allaah however, cured Rasulullaah from the condition. When Rasulullaah feel left his room one day and found the Sahabah stiting and performing salaah, he said, "Take

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 152).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.290) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ah and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.261), Bazzaar has also reported the narration, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.69).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.150) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haafidh in his Fat'hul Baari (Vol.3 Pg.395).

note that the salaah of a sitting person is half (in reward) of the salaah of a standing person." Thereafter the Sahabah (Sies) exerted themselves greatly to perform salaah while standing despite their extreme weakness and illness solely in aspiration for the additional rewards. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Rabaa'ah bin Ka'b with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Rabaa'ah bin Ka'b says, "I was Rasulullaah ss servant and served him all day until he performed the Isha salaah. I would then sit by his door when he entered his room saying to myself, 'Perhaps Rasulullaah sw will need something.' I would then remain sitting there hearing Rasulullaah say, 'Subhaanallaahi wa Bi-hamdihi,' until I would get tired or until my eyes overwhelmed me and I would fall asleep right there. Seeing my fervour to serve him and feeling that he owed something to me, Rasulullaah so one day asked me, 'O Rabaa'ah bin Ka'b! Ask from me and I shall give you.' 'O Rasulullaah si I submitted. 'Allow me to think about it and then I shall inform you.'

I then addressed myself saying, 'The things of this world are temporary and will soon come to an end. In any case, I have my (preordained) sustenance in this world which is sufficient for me and will come to me (it is therefore futile to ask Rasulullaah 愛麗 for some worldly thing). I shall therefore ask Rasulullaah 愛麗 for something of benefit for my life in the Aakhirah because he enjoys an exalted status with Allaah.' I then approached Rasulullaah & and he asked, 'What have you decided, O Rabee'ah?' 'I have made a decision, O Rasulullaah (I said, 'My request to you is to intercede on my behalf that Allaah frees me from Jahannam.' Rasulullaah & asked, Who told you to say this, O Rabee'ah?' I explained to him saying, 'O Rasulullaah :: I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that no one told me what to say. You asked me to ask from you and because you enjoy a high status in Allaah's sight, I though the matter over. Realising that the things of this world are temporary and will soon come to an end and that I have my (preordained) sustenance in this world which will come to me I decided to ask you for something of benefit for my life in the Aakhirah.' Rasulullaah @ remained silent for a long while after which he said, I shall do that but do assist me against your carnal self by making Sajdah in abundance."(2)

In another narration, Hadhrat Rabee'ah says, "I used to spend the night in the service of Rasulullaah se, bringing him his water for wudhu and seeing to his other needs. When he once asked me to make a request, I said, 'I request your company in Jannah.' 'Anything else?' he asked. When I insisted that this was all, he said, 'Then assist me against your carnal self by making Sajdah in abundance "(3)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.224).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.335). Tabraani, Muslim and Abu Dawood have reported a similar narration in brief.

⁽³⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.) Pg.213).

Hadhrat Abdul Jabbaar bin Haarith Seeks rewards for his Companionship with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdul Jabbaar bin Haarith bin Maalik Hadasi Manaari (1986) narrates. "I was part of a delegation to Rasulullaah as from the land of Saraat. When I came to Rasulullaah . I greeted him with the traditional Arab greeting saving, 'May you have a good morning!' Rasulullaah : said, 'Allaah has given Muhammad was and his Ummah another greeting. They greet each other with replied عَيْنَا لَكُ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللهُ ! Rasulullaah الشَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللهُ by saying, 'وَعَلَيْكُ ٱلسَّادِمُ' . When he asked what my name was, I informed him that I was Jabbaar bin Haarith. I then accepted Islaam and pledge my allegiance to Rasulullaah . After I had pledge my allegiance someone said to Rasulullaah This Manaari is one of the accomplished horsemen of his tribe.' Rasulullaah then gave me a horse and I remained fighting by his side. When Rasulullaah we one day missed the neighing of the horse he had given me, he asked, 'Why do I not hear the neighing of the Hadasi's horse?' 'O Rasulullaah (##: I explained, 'I was told that its neighing was disturbing you so I had it castrated (to quieten it).' It was then that Rasulullaah We forbade castrating horses. Someone once suggested to me to request Rasulullaah for a note (of guaranteeing for something) as my cousin Tameem Daari had done. 'Did he ask for something of this world or for something of the Aakhirah?' I asked. When I was told that it was for something of this world. I said. 'It was from this world that I have turned away. I shall rather ask Rasulullaah (25 to assist me tomorrow when I appear before Aliaah."(1)

The Statement of Rasulullaah EE Concerning Hadhrat Amr bin Taghlib EE and Hadhrat Amr

Hadhrat Amr bin Taghlib reports that when Rasulullaah gave gave something to some people and not to others, it appeared as if they were upset. Rasulullaah then said, "I give to some people only for fear of their impatience and agitation. Then there are those whom I hand over to the goodness and independence Allaah has placed in their hearts. Amongst these people is Amr bin Taghlib." Hadhrat Amr bin Taghlib said, "I would not trade these words of Rasulullaah ever even for red camels." (2).

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali (1996) and Hadhrat Umar (1996) with a Man who Performed Tawaaf with his Mother

Hadhrat Amr bin Hammaad reports that Hadhrat Ali was and Hadhrat Umar

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mandah and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.215).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.361), Ibn Abdul Birr has also reported the narration in his Istifaab (Vol.2 Pg.518).

were leaving from performing Tawaaf when they saw a Bedouin carrying his mother on his back reciting the following couplets (which mean):

"I am her conveyance that never bolts

and when other conveyances become crazed, I shall not

She did more when she carried me and suckled me"

He then called out, "ثَيْنَتُ اللّٰهُ لِثَيْنَا "Addressing Hadhrat Umar الطَّقَاقَة , Hadhrat Ali الطَّقَاقَة said, "O Abu Hafs! Let us go back to perform Tawaaf so that the mercy descending (on the Bedouin) may encompass us as well." They then started performing Tawaaf as the Bedouin repeated:

"I am her conveyance that never bolts

and when other conveyances become crazed, I shall not

She did more when she carried me and suckled me

"(At your service, O Allaah, I am at your service) لَبَيْكَ ٱللَّهُمَّ لَبَيْكَ

At the same time, Hadhrat Ali will reciting the following couplets (which mean):

"Allaah is Most Appreciative if you care for your mother He shall then grant you in abundance for your little effort" (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Looks forward to the Rewards for his Stolen Camel and for Freeing Its Shepherd and Marries to Earn rewards

Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan reports that people from Haroora who were associated with Najdah (one of the leaders of the Khawaarij) once passed by a camel belonging to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and took it along with them. The shepherd tending to it went to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar saying, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Look forward to the rewards for your camel." "What has happened to her?" asked Hadhrat Abdullaah with The shepherd replied, "The people from Haroora who are associated with Najdah passed by and took her along with them." "But how," Hadhrat Abdullaah with asked, "did they take the camel away and leave you alone?" "They took me along as well but I managed to escape from them," the shepherd replied.

Hadhrat Abdullaah sasked him further, "What made you leave them and come to me (when you would no longer be a slave if you escaped)?" "Because I love you more than them," the man replied. Hadhrat Abdullaah sasked then enquired, "Will you swear by the Being besides Whom there is no god that you love me more than them?" When the shepherd swore on oath, Hadhrat Abdullaah said, "Then I look forward to the reward for (freeing) you together with that of the camel." By so saying, he set the slave free.

It was a while later when someone came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar saying, "Do you still want that camel of yours." The person even took the name of the camel and continued, "She is there being sold in the marketplace." "Give me my shawl," Hadhrat Abdullaah said and he stood up as he placed the (1) Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg.310).

shawl over his shoulders. He then sat down again and removed the shawl saying, "I had been looking forward to the rewards for (losing) her and will therefore not go out and get her back." (1)

Hadhrat Amr bin Dinaar narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar same made up his mind not to marry, (his sister) Hadhrat Hafsah said to him, "Get married because if your children pass away, you will be rewarded (for your patience) and if they live, they will make du'aa for you." (2)

The Words of Hadhrat Ammaar (on the Way to the Battle of Siffeen Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abza (Feports that en route to Siffeen when he was on the bank of the Euphrates River, Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (Fesaid, "O Allaah! IF I knew that you would be pleased with me for throwing myself off a mountain and rolling down as I fall, I would certainly do so. O Allaah! If I knew that you would be pleased with me for kindling a large fire and throwing myself into it, I would certainly do so. O Allaah! If I knew that you would be pleased with me for throwing myself into the water and drowning, I would certainly do so. O Allaah! I am fighting only to please You and I am certain that you will never make me unsuccessful as long as I do things to please You." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Concerning his Actions after the Demise of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas some once said, "For me to do a good deed today is more beloved to me than two liked deeds done during the time of Rasulullaah see because when we were with Rasulullaah see, our only concern was the Aakhirah and not this world. Today, however, the world has fallen for us." (4)

Exertion in Worship

The Exertion of Our Guide Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Alqama narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha ("was Rasulullaah ("F") in the habit of specially setting aside certain days (for worship)?"
"Not at all," Hadhrat Aa'isha ("F") replied, "His deeds were perpetual, but which any of you is capable of doing what Rasulullaah ("F") (5)

Hadhrat Mughierah bin Shu'ba (Fig. 1) reports that Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) salaah until his feet cut open." When someone asked him, "Did Allaah not

(2) Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 4 Pg. 125).

Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg.300). Siraaj in his Taareekh and Abu Nu'aym have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 2 Pg.348).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.258). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.143).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.287). Tabraani has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.354).

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Pg.74).

forgive all your past and future errors?" he replied, "Should I then not be a grateful servant?" (1)

More narration of this nature will appear in the chapter concerning salaah, Inshaa Allaah.

The Exertion of the Sahabah

The exertion of Hadhrat Uthmaan (1996) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (1996)

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Abdullaah reports from his grandmother whose name was Zuhaymah that Hadhrat Uthmaan fasted perpetually and stood in salaah throughout the night save for a portion at the beginning of the night when he slept. (2)

Hadhrat Mujaahid narrates that the level of worship Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (Sies) reached was unmatched. In fact, when a flood prevented people from performing Tawaaf, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (Sies) performed several circuits swimming.

Hadhrat Qatan bin Abdullaah narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr would fast for seven days continuously to the extent that his intestines dried up. Another narration from Hadhrat Hishaam bin Urwa states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr would fast for seven days continuously and it was only when he became extremely old that he reduced it to three days. (4)

Incidents about these two great men and others will soon appear in the chapter concerning salaah, Inshaa Allaah.

Bravery

The Bravery of Our Guide Rasulullaah

Statements of Hadhrat Anas Sassand Hadhrat Ali Concerning the Bravery of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah was was the most handsome of people, the most generous and the bravest. When a frightening sound scared the people of Madinah one night, they ventured towards the sound. However, Rasulullaah beat them to it and was already returning from the place when he met them. He was riding Hadhrat Abu Talha says bare-backed horse with a sword dangling from his neck. He assured the people saying, "There is nothing to be alarmed about. There is nothing to be alarmed about." Although the horse was known to be a lazy one, Rasulullaah commented, "He was like an ocean

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.58). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.384) has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.56), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.10).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.226).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.226).

(moving speedily and fluidly. This happened by the blessings of Rasulullaah

Another narration states that when an alarm was raised in Madinah, Rasulullaah borrowed Hadhrat Abu Talha sies horse whose name was Mandoob. Rasulullaah mounted the horse (and after investigating) he reassured the people saying, "We have seen nothing alarming but have found this horse to be like an ocean." Hadhrat Anas sies also said, "Whenever the battle grew furious, we always sought refuge with Rasulullaah sies."(2) Hadhrat Ali sies says, "During the Battle of Badr, we sought refuge from the Mushrikeen by the side of Rasulullaah sies because he was the most furious of fighters." (3)

Rasulullaah ses s Bravery During the Battle of Hunayn and the Statement of Hadhrat Baraa in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Is'haaq reports that a man from the Qais tribe once asked Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib المنافقة والمنافقة المنافقة I am a Nabi without a lie. I am the son of Abdul Muttalib"

Yet another narration states that Rasulullaah (2) then dismounted the mule. (4) Hadhrat Baraa (3) also narrates, "Rasulullaah (3) then descended from his mule and prayed for assistance saying:

"I am a Nabi without a lie. I am the son of Abdul Muttalib. O Allaah! Send down Your assistance"

Hadhrat Baraa 经验验 says further, "When the battle grew furious, we took refuge with Rasulullaah 認識 and it was only the bravest ones who could light by his side." (5)

In the chapter concerning the bravery of the Sahabah (2006) in Jihaad, the incidents have already passed about the bravery of Hadhrat Abu Bakr, Umar, Ali, Talha, Zubayr, Sa'd, Hamzah, Abbaas, Mu'aadh, Ibn Umar, Mu'aadh bin Afraa, Abu

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽²⁾ Muslim.

⁽³⁾ Ahmau and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.37).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari. Muslim and Nasa'ee have reported a similar narration.

⁽⁵⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.328).

Dujaanah, Qataadh, Salamah bin Akwa , Abu Hadrad , Khaalid bin Waleed, Baraa bin Maalik, Abu Mihjin, Ammaar bin Yaasir, Amr bin Ma'dikarib and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 經經過

Piety and Scrupulousness

The Piety and Scrupulousness of Our Guide Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas Feports that one night Rasulullaah found a date lying by his side and ate it. When he was unable to sleep that night, one of his wives asked, "O Rasulullaah Fe You stayed awake all night?" Rasulullaah Fe replied, "I ate a date that I found at my side and because we had the Sadaqah dates with us, I feared that this could be one of those." (1)

The Piety and Scrupulousness of the Sahabah

The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen says that besides Hadhrat Abu Bakr (he knows of no one who forcibly vomited out the food he had just eaten. Once after eating some food he had been served, someone informed him that the food had been provided by Hadhrat Ibn Nu'aymaan (he hadhrat Abu Bakr (he exclaimed, "Were you feeding me the incantation fares of Ibn Nu'aymaan?!" He then forced himself to vomit. (2)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla reports that Hadhrat Ibn Nu'aymaan was an extremely handsome Sahabi. (During the Period of Ignorance) Some people once came to him asking if he knew anything that would help cure a woman who always miscarries. "Oh yes, I do," he replied. When they asked him what it was, he recited to them an incantation (which means):

"O disobedient womb!

Be still and stop spoiling blood

You are depriving her of bearing many children

If only these many children were in the disobedient womb

Because then she would bear them and recover"

In exchange for this, the people gave him a goat and some butter (after he had already become a Muslim). He then brought some of the meat to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Silves), who ate. However, (after being informed of the incident) Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Silves) stood up and forced himself to vomit. He then reprimanded, "Why do you people bring me food without informing me where it has come from?" (3)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bldaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.59).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd.

⁽³⁾ Baghawi, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.360).

Hadhrat Zaid bin Argam speed reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr speed had a slave who earned an income for him. When the slave brought some food one night and Hadhrat Abu Bakr was ate a morsel, the slave asked, "What has happened to you that you have not questioned me tonight (about the source of the food) when you usually do so every night?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (replied, "It was extreme hunger that made me do it. Where did you get it from?" The slave explained, "During the Period of Ignorance, I passed by some people and (to assist them out of some difficulty, I) recited some incantations for them. They had promised to pay me and it was only today that I happened to pass by them as they were celebrating a wedding. They then gave me this food." "You would have killed me!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (See exclaimed as her thrust his fingers in his mouth to vomit out the food. However, the food would not come out (because he had eaten it when he was very hungry). When someone suggested that it would come out only with water, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was asked for a bowl of water and he continued vomiting out the water until the food also came out. "May Allaah have mercy on you." someone remarked, "All this trouble merely for that morsel?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I would have taken it out even if it cost me my life because I heard Rasulullaah see say. The fire of Jahannam is most deserving of a body nourished by that which is unlawful.' I therefore feared that any part of my body should receive nourishment from that morsel." (1)

The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that Hadhrat Umar speed once drank some milk and finding the taste queer, he asked the person who brought it, "Where did you get this milk from?" The person explained, "We were passing by a watering place where some zakaah camels were being watered. The herders then milked the camels for us and I put some in this water bag of mine (from which you just drank)." Hadhrat Umar speed then thrust his fingers into his throat and vomited the milk out. (2)

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama (See says, "We stuck close to Hadhrat Umar (3) to learn piety and scrupulousness from him."

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Ali was once out in Kufa when he stopped by a house and asked for water. When a little girl came out with a jug and a napkin, Hadhrat Ali was asked, "Dear girl! Whose house is this?" When she informed him the person's name and that he was a coin evaluator, Hadhrat Ali was said, "I have heard Rasulullaah was say that one should never drink from the well of a coin evaluator and never take shade under anything belonging to a tax collector." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg.31). From his Afraad, Bukhaari has reported a part of the narration, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol. I Pg.95). Hasan bits Sufyaan and Deenowri In his Mujaalasah have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.360).

⁽²⁾ Maalik and Bayhagi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.418).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.418).

The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Mu'aadh

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (which had two wives. (He was so particular about treating them equally that) When it was the turn of the one (to be with him), he would not even make wudhu in the house of the other. It so happened that both of them passed away on the same day from the plague that struck in Shaam. Because the people were extremely busy that day, both ladies had to be buried in one grave. Hadhrat Mu'aadh (with scrupulous about being just between them) then drew lots to decide which of the two would be placed first in the grave.

Another narration states that Hadhrat Mu'aadh (Sies) had two wives and would not even drink water from the house of one of them if it was the turn of the other to be with him, (2)

Hadhrat Tawoos says, "I testify that I heard Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, 'I testify that I heard Hadhrat Umar says recite the Talbiya⁽³⁾.' We were standing on Arafaat when a man asked, 'Tell me when Hadhrat Umar says left Arafaat.' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says (because of his cautiousness) replied, 'I do not know.' The people were very surprised by this cautiousness of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says (4)

Tawakkul (Trust in Allaah)

The Tawakkul of Our Guide Muhammad Rasulullaah

The Incident of a Bedouin who Wanted to Kill Rasulullaah as as he Slept Beneath a Tree

Hadhrat Jaabir wie narrates that he accompanied Rasulullaah on an expedition to Najd. On the way back, it was the time for their siesta when they came to a valley filled with thorny trees. As the Sahabah dispersed to take shade beneath the trees, Rasulullaah also found some shade beneath a tree and hung his sword on it. Hadhrat Jaabir narrates further, "We had slept only a short while when Rasulullaah called for us. When we responded to his call, we found a Bedouin sitting with him. Rasulullaah said, 'This person drew my sword while I was asleep. When I awoke, it was already drawn and in his hand as he said, 'Who will save you from me?' 'Allaah!' I replied. When he again asked, 'Who will save you from me?' 'Allaah!' He then sheathed the sword and sat down. Rasulullaah did not punish the man

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.165).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.234).

⁽³⁾ Taibiya means to recite the entire du'aa repeated in Hajj and Umrah, starting with the words:

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.229).

despite what he had done. (1)

Hadhrat Jaabir (In Najd). It was at a time when the enemy found the Muslims in negligence when a man from them named Ghowrath bin Haarith approached Rasulullaah (In Najd). It was at a time when the enemy found the Muslims in negligence when a man from them named Ghowrath bin Haarith approached Rasulullaah (In Najd). It was at a time when the enemy found the Muslims in negligence when a man from them named Ghowrath bin Haarith approached Rasulullaah (In Najd). It was a took head, he asked, "Who will save you from me?" "Allaah!" Rasulullaah (In Najd). The sword fell from the man's hand and Rasulullaah (In Najd) asked. Ghowrath begged, "Do be a good captor." "Do you testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah?" Rasulullaah (In Najd) asked. "No," Ghowrath replied, "But I pledge that I shall never fight against you and neither join forces with anyone who fights against you." Rasulullaah (In Najd) then let him go. When he returned to his comrades, he said to them, "I have come to you from the best of people." The narration then continues to explain the Salaatul Khowf. (2)

The Tawakkul of the Sahabah

The Tawakkul of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Yahya bin Murrah narrates, "When Hadhrat Ali used to go to the Masjid at night to perform Nafl salaah, we would also go with to guard him. After completing his salaah, he would ask us, 'What are you sitting here for?' When we informed him that we were there to guard him, he asked, 'Is it against the inhabitants of the heavens that you are guarding me or against the inhabitants of the earth?' 'Only from the inhabitants of the earth,' we submitted. He then said, 'Nothing happens on earth until it is decided in the heavens. There are two angels assigned to every person who protect and guard him. However, when a predestined matter arrives, they leave him to it. I therefore have a fortified shield from Allaah which will leave me only when death arrives. No person can taste the sweetness of Imaan until he is convinced that whatever (difficulty) afflicts him would never have passed him by and whatever (good) passes him by would never have come to him in the first place." (3)

Hadhrat Qataadah sees reports that Hadhrat Ali sees was extremely restless throughout the last night he spent in this world. This made his family very concerned and after secretly convening, they arrived at a decision and asked him in the name of Allaah (not to leave the house). However, he said to them, "Two angels are assigned to each and every person to protect him from that which is not destined for him (and this happens as long as what is predestined does not come to him). However, when something predestined comes his way, the two angels leave him to it." Hadhrat Ali sees then proceeded to the Masjid and he was assassinated. (4)

⁽I) Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.85).

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood and Ibn Asaakir.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood and Ibn Asaakir.

Hadhrat Abu Mijlaz narrates that a man from the Muraad tribe once came to see Hadhrat Ali when he was busy performing salaah in the Masjid. (After Hadhrat Ali when he was busy performing salaah in the Masjid. (After Hadhrat Ali when he was busy performing salaah in the Masjid. (After Hadhrat Ali when he was busy performing salaah in the Masjid. (After Hadhrat Ali when he salaah) The man said to him, "Appoint some guards because the people of the Muraad tribe are planning to assassinate you." However, he said to them. "Two angels are assigned to each and every person to protect him from that which is not destined for him. However, when something predestined comes his way, the two angels leave him to it. One's appointed term is a fortified shield (because nothing can violate it)." (1) Hadhrat Yahya bin Katheer and others report that when people offered to guard Hadhrat Ali when he said, "A person's appointed term guards him." (2) Hadhrat Ali when man and Baaqir reports that two men presented their dispute to Hadhrat Ali when he said the base of a wall, one of the men cautioned. "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! That wall is going to fall." Hadhrat Ali when reassured him saying. "Continue. Allaah suffices as a protector." When Hadhrat Ali when had passed judgment and stood up, the wall fell down. (3)

The Tawakkul of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadhrat Abu Dhabiyya reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was on his deathbed, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan wisse visited him. "What is the problem?" Hadhrat Uthmaan was asked. "My problem is my sins," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wisse replied. Hadhrat Uthmaan was asked further, "What do you wish for?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wisse replied, "For the mercy of my Rabb." Hadhrat Uthmaan was then asked, "Should I not have a physician see you?" (Referring to the fact that Allaah is the greatest of curers,) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was said, "It was the physician (Allaah) Who gave me the illness."

Hadhrat Uthmaan ("I have no need for an allowance," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("Hadhrat Uthmaan ("Do you fear that my daughters would suffer poverty after my death?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("I have instructed my daughters to recite Surah Waaqi'ah every night because I have heard Rasulullaah ("E say that poverty shall never ever afflict the person who recites Surah Waaqi'ah every night." (4)

Incidents similar to this concerning Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (1996) have passed in the chapter concerning exercising patience during illness

⁽I) Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. I Pg.88).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.75).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'il (Pg.211).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in the Talseer if Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.281).

Being Content with Allaah's Decision

The Statements of Hadhrat Umar 墨屬為, Hadhrat Abu Dharr 墨屬為, Hadhrat Ali 墨屬為 and Hadhrat

Abdullaah bin Mas'ood المنطقة in this Regard

Hadhrat Umar (1) once said, "I care not how my morning goes, whether it be in a manner that I like or in a manner that I dislike because I know not whether goodness is in what I like or in what I dislike." (1)

Hadhrat Hasan reports that someone once said to Hadhrat Ali ("Abu Dharr Says that he prefers poverty to riches and illness to good health." To this, Hadhrat Ali ("Hadhrat Ali ("Hadhrat Ali) ("Hadhrat A

It was also Hadhrat Ali (Line) who said, "Whoever is happy with what Allaah decides will have Allaah's decision pass over him together with being rewarded. On the other hand, whoever is unhappy with what Allaah decides will still have Allaah's decision pass over him but his deeds will be laid to waste." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood woo once said, "On the Day of Qiyaamah, each and every person will wish that in this world he had only that much of food which he could subsist on. The conditions a person experiences each morning and evening in this world will be detrimental to him only if his heart is filled with anger and discontentment. Furthermore, it is better for any on you to bite on a coal and burn himself rather than say about anything that Allaah had decreed, "if only that had not happened." (4)

Taqwa (5)

Hadhrat Ali Addresses the People in a Graveyard and His Statement Concerning Taqwa

Hadhrat Kumayl bin Ziyaad says that he was once with Hadhrat Ali when they reached a graveyard. Turning towards the graves, Hadhrat Ali when said, "O inhabitants of the grave! O inhabitants of the place of decay! O inhabitants of the place of loneliness! What news have you! The news from us is that your wealth has already been distributed, your children have become orphans and your wives have remarried. That is the news that we have. What news have you?" Hadhrat Ali when turned and said, "O Kumay!! Had they been permitted to Ibn Mubaarak, Ibn Abi Dunya in his Faraj and Askari in his Mawaa'idh, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 145).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.145).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.145).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg. 137).

⁽⁵⁾ Although commonly translated as "fear for Allaah" or "piety", the word Taqwa refers to such consciousness of Allaah or such piety that drives a person to carry out all Allaah's commands and to stay away from everything that Allaah has prohibited.

respond, they would have told us that the best provision is Taqwa." He then started weeping as he continued. "O Kumayl! The grave is a box containing one's actions and it is only at the time of death that one finds out about it." (1) Hadhrat Qals bin Abu Haazim reports that Hadhrat Ali work once said, "Give more importance to having your deeds accepted than to Taqwa because while a deed with Taqwa can never be undermined, how can one that is accepted ever be undermined?" (2) Another narration states that Hadhrat Ali work said, "When a deed with Taqwa can never be undermined, how can one that is accepted ever be undermined?" (3)

The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood """, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa """ and Hadhrat """ Ubay bin Ka'b """ Concerning Taqwa

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "The knowledge that Allaah has acceptedevenasingledeedofmineismore beloved to me than the earth full of gold." (4) Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "How grand is the sleep of the intelligent ones (who prepare for the Aakhirah) and their days without fastingt How won't they object to the waking nights and fasts of the foolish ones (who have no concern for the Aakhirah). An atom's weight of good that a person with Taqwa and conviction carries out is greater, more rewarding and more likely to be accepted than a mountain's weight of worship carried out by the negligent ones." (5) Hadhrat Abu Dardaa saids also said, "For me to know with certainty that Allaah has accepted even one salaah of mine is more beloved to me than the entire world and its contents because Allaah says:

﴿ إِنَّمَا يَتَقَبَّلُ اللَّهُ مِنَ الْمُتَّقِيْنَ ۞ ﴾ (سوره مانده: آيت٢٧)

Allaah accepts only from those with Taqwa. {Surah Maa'idah, verse 27} (6) Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (5) Said, "Whenever a person leaves out something for the pleasure of Allaah, Allaah grants him something much better from sources he does not expect. However, when someone is careless and takes things without knowledge (of the legality of sources), Allaah afflicts him with difficulties from sources he does not expect." (7)

Fear for Allaah (8)

The fear of Our Guide Muhammad Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 经减多 reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减多 once remarked, "O Rasulullaah 经验! I see that your hair is getting white?" Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Deenowri and 1bn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Fg.142).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya and Ibn Asaakir.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya and Ibn Abi Dunya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.142).

⁽⁴⁾ Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.142).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg 211).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.43).

⁽⁷⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.142).

⁽⁸⁾ This refers to the fear one has for displeasing Allaah because of one's intense love for Allaah.

replied, "Surahs Hood, Waaqi'ah, Mursalaat, Amma Yatasaa'aloon and Idhash Shamsu Kuwwirat⁽¹⁾ have given me these white hairs." Another narration states that when Hadhrat Umar commented that Rasulullaah was getting white hairs very early. Rasulullaah said, "Surah Hood and its companions, namely Waaqi'ah, Amma Yatasaa'aloon and Idhash Shamsu Kuwwirat have given me these white hairs." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Abu Sa'eed Khudri Abu Sa'eed Khudri Sasa narrates that Rasulullaah Abu Sa'eed Khudri Sasa narrates that Rasulullaah Abu Said, "How can I possibly enjoy life when the one with the horn (the angel Hadhrat Israafeel Abu I already has it between his lips with his head bent forward and straining his ears in anticipation of the command (to blow the horn to announce the Day of Qiyaamah)." "O Rasulullaah Abu I asked, "What should we say?" Rasulullaah Abu Feplied, "You should recite:

'Allaah is Sufficient for us and He is the best of all Guardians. It is solely in Allaah that we trust', (3) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sisse narrates that Rasulullaah (See fell unconscious when he heard someone recite the verse:

Verily We have (In store for them in Jahannam) handcuffs, the Blazing fire... (Surah Muzammil, verse 12) (4)

The Fear of the Sahabah

An Incident of a Young Ansaari

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd see narrates that when the fear for Allaah gripped a young Ansaari, he wept so much every time he heard mention of Jahannam that this kept him indoors. When this was mentioned to Rasulullaah he he went to the house. As Rasulullaah see entered, he embraced the Ansaari see, who then expired (in Rasulullaah see sams). Rasulullaah then said, "Enshroud your companion because fear has ruptured his liver." (5)

Hadhrat Hudhayfah has reported a similar narration with the addition that when the youngster saw Rasulullaah has the stood up, embraced Rasulullaah has and then fell down dead. Rasulullaah has then said, "Enshroud your companion because fear for Jahannam has ruptured his liver. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that Allaah has saved him from it. Whoever aspires for something shall seek it and whoever fears something shall run away from it." (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was narrates that after it was revealed to

⁽¹⁾ These are Surahs 11,56, 77, 78 and 81 respectively.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.59).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.56).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.43).

⁽⁵⁾ Haakim and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 223).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya and Ibn Qudaamah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.144).

Rasulullaah 認識, he one day recited to the Sahabah 過端的 the verse:

(دورة تحريم آيت ٦)

verse 6)

O you who have Imaan! Save yourselves and your families from the Fire (of Jahannam), the fuel of which is people and stones. (Surah Tahreem,

A young Sahabi (Size) then fell unconscious. When Rasulullaah (Size) placed his hand on the Sahabi (Size) heart, it was racing. Rasulullaah (Size) said to him, "Dear boy! Recite 'Laa Ilaaha Illailaah'." When he recited it, Rasulullaah (Size) gave him the glad tidings of Jannah. The other Sahabah (Size) then asked, "Does this apply to all of us (or is it exclusively for him)." Rasulullaah (Size) replied, "Have you not read the verse:

This (promise) is for him who fears standing before Me (on the Day of Qiyaamah) and who fears My warning (of punishment). (Surah Ibraheem, verse 12)(1)

The Statements of Hadhrat Umar (Signs) and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Signs) Concerning Fear and Hope

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib reports that when Hadhrat Umar Sa'eed bin Musayyib reports that when Hadhrat Umar Sa'e once fell ill, Rasulullaah see went to visit him. "How are you feeling, O Umar?" Rasulullaah see asked. "I have hope (in Allaah's mercy) as well as fear (for Allaah's punishment)." Rasulullaah see then said, "Whenever fear and hope are coupled in the heart of a Mu'min, Allaah grants him his hope and saves him from his fear." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("Do you not see that Allaah mentions the verses of ease together with those of hardship and the verses of difficulty together with those of ease so that a Mu'min may be hopeful (in Allaah's mercy) as well as fearful (for Allaah's punishment)? In this manner, he will never have such hopes in Allaah that are unfounded and will also not throw himself into destruction." (3)

Other incidents concerning the fear that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($1366) and Hadhrat Umar ($1366) had for Allaah have passed in the chapter entitled "The Fear that the Khulafaa had for Allaah".

The Statements that Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn (Made about Fear

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Roomi reports that the news reached him that Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Haakim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 194).

⁽²⁾ Bayhagi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 145).

⁽³⁾ Abush Shavkh, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg.144)

Uthmaan Sies once said, "If I were between Jannah and Jahannam, not knowing into which of the two I will be ordered to go, I would prefer to be turned into ashes before knowing towards which of them I would be heading." (1)

Hadhrat Qataadah narrates that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (Sie once said, "I wish that I was a mere sheep whom my owners would slaughter and then eat my flesh and my gravy."

Hadhrat Qataadah narrates that Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn was said, "I wish that I were some sand on the top of a hill that the wind would blow away on a windy day," (2)

Hadhrat Qataadah also narrates that Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn Sissis said, "I wish that I were some sand that the wind would blow away." (3)

The Fear of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadhrat Aamir bin Masrooq narrates that someone once mentioned in the presence of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (1) to do not want to be amongst the 'As'haabul Yameen' but wish to be amongst the 'Muqarrabeen (4) !" To this, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (1) remarked, "However, you have here a person (myself) who wishes not to even be resurrected after dying (let alone wanting to be amongst a certain group)."

Another narration from Hadhrat Hasan states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "If I were placed between Jannah and Jahannam and then told, 'Choose between either entering one of these or becoming dust', I would rather be turned to dust." (Because of his humility, he felt unworthy of entering Jannah) (5)

The Fear of Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadhrat

Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Sing) said, "By Allaah! If you people knew what I know, you will neither make advances to your wives nor find rest on your beds. By Allaah! I wish that the day Allaah created me, He should have created me as a tree that is felled and whose fruit is eaten." (6)

Hadhrat Hizaam bin Hakeem reports that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa woo once stated, "If you people knew what you will see after death, you would neither derive pleasure out of eating nor out of drinking. You would then not go into your homes for shade but would rather go out onto the plains beating your chests and weeping over your condition. I wish that I were a tree that would be Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.60). Ahmad has reported a similar narration in his Zuhd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pc.10).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.74). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.413) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.26).

⁽⁴⁾ Those who will have a higher status in Jannah than the 'As'haabul Yameen', as stated in Surah Waagi'ah.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.) Pg.133).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.164)

felled and then its fruit eaten." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (also mentioned, "I wish that I were a sheep belonging to some people who have visitors passing by. They will then pass a knife over my jugular veins, eat me and feed others." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 🕮 once said, "I wish that I was this pillar." (3)

The Fear of Hadhrat Mu'aadh and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ()

Hadhrat Tawoos reports. "When Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal $1500 came to our land, our scholars said to him, 'If you just give the word, we shall take these rocks and trees and build a Masjid for you.' Hadhrat Mu'aadh replied, 'I fear that I may be made to carry it on my back on the Day of Qiyaamah."(4)

Hadhrat Naafi says, "When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with entered the Kabah, I heard him say the following when he was in Sajdah: '(O Allaah!) You know that it is only my fear for You that prevents me from opposing the Quraysh for their position in this world."(5)

Hadhrat Abu Haazim narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar passed by a man from Iraq who had fallen down (unconscious), he asked, "What is the matter with him?" The people said, "This happens to him every time the Qur'aan is recited to him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wie remarked, "Although we also fear Allaah, we never fall down." (6)

The Fear of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws Ansaari

It is reported that whenever Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws Ansaari 墨城區 lay on the bed, he would turn from side to side without being able to fall asleep. He would then say, "O Allaah! The fire of Jahannam has dispelled my sleep," Thereafter, he would stand up and perform salaah until the morning. (7)

The Fear of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Amr bin Salamah 🖼 🍪 narrates that Hadhrat Aa'isha 🖼 😘 said. "By Allaah! I wish that I were a tree. By Allaah! I wish that I were sand. By Allaah! I wish that Allaah had not created me at all."

Another narration states when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was came to Hadhrat Aa'isha (1956) before her death, he praised her saying, "Glad tidings for you, O wife of Rasulullaah & Rasulullaah & never married a virgin besides you and your innocence was proclaimed from the heavens. It was then that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was entered from the opposite side. Hadbrat Aa'isha said to him, "Abdullaah bin Umar sies is heaping

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.216).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.12).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.12).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.236).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.292).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.312).

⁽⁷⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.264).

praises on me when I do not wish to hear anyone praise me today, I only wish that I had been completely forgotten." (1)

Weeping

The Weeping of Our Guide Muhammad Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Teeplied, 'Rasulullaah (Teeplied) once said to me, 'Recite (the Qur'aan) to me.' I replied, 'How can I recite to you when it was to you that the Qur'aan was revealed?' Rasulullaah (Teeplied) said, 'I would like to hear the Qur'aan recited by someone else.' I then recited Surah Nisaa until I reached the verse:

(سورة النساء آيت ٤١)

How will it be (the condition of the Kuffaar on the Day of Qiyaamah) when We shall bring forth a witness from every nation (the Ambiyaa of every community who will testify against the Kuffaar) and call you (O Muhammad (Surah Nisaa, verse 41)

Rasulullaah : then said, 'That's enough.' When I then looked up, I saw that tears were flowing from his eyes." (2)

Some other narration shall appear in the chapter concerning salaah, Inshaa Allaah.

The Weeping of the Sahabah

The Men of Suffa Weep when a Verse is Revealed

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1986) narrates that the men of Suffa wept excessively when Allaah revealed the verse:

﴿ أَفَمِنْ هَذَا الْحَدِيْثِ تَعْجَبُونَ ۞ وَتَضْحَكُونَ وَلا تَبْكُونَ ۞ ﴾ (سورة النجر آيت ١٠٠٥)

Are you astonished about this speech (the Qur'aan) and do you laugh (at it out of ridicule) instead of crying (out of fear for the warnings it sounds)? (Surah Najm, verses 59,60)

They wept so much that tears flowed on their cheeks. Hearing them, Rasulullaah also started weeping and seeing him weep, the other Sahabah also wept. Rasulullaah also then said, "The person who weeps out of fear for Allaah shall never enter Jahannam and the person who sins persistently shall never enter Jannah. However, if you never sin, Allaah shall create a nation that does sin and He will then forgive them (when they repent sincerely because He loves to forgive)." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.74).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.59), ⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.190).

An Abyssinian Weeps In front of Rasulullaah when he Recited a verse of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Anas 劉端德 narrates that Rasulullaah 優麗 once recited the verse:

... (The fire of Jahannam) the fuel of which is people and stones...

(Surah Tahreem, verse 6)

Rasulullaah then said, "The Fire of Jahannam was stoked for a thousand years until it became red. It was then stoked for another thousand years until it became white. Thereafter, it was again stoked for a thousand years until it became black. It is now pitch black and dark and its flames cannot be extinguished." In front of Rasulullaah was an Abyssinian man who then started to weep very loudly. Hadhrat Jibra'eel then descended and asked (Rasulullaah), "Who is this man weeping in front of you?" Rasulullaah informed Hadhrat Jibra'eel that the man was from Abyssinia and also praised the man. Hadhrat Jibra'eel then told Rasulullaah that Allaah said, "I swear by My honour, by My power and by My exaltedness over My throne that whenever the eye of My servant weeps in this world out of fear for Me, I shall definitely increase his laughter in Jannah." (1)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Umar (1996)

Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim says, "I once went to see Rasulullaah sa and found that Hadhrat Abu Bakr says had already taken his place (had become the Khalifah). (In his address to the people) Hadhrat Abu Bakr says praised Allaah tremendously and wept excessively." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan bin Muhammad bin Ali bin Abi Taalib نوا المنافعة states that during the Friday sermon, Hadhrat Umar المنافعة used to recite the Surah المنافعة (Surah Takweer) until he reached the verse:

On that day every soul will know what (actions) it had presented (Surah Takweer, verse 14)

At this point, his voice would stop (because of his excessive weeping). (3) Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar (3) once recited the verse:

Indeed, the punishment of your Rabb shall take place and there shall be none to avert it. {Surah Toor, verses 7.8}

After reciting it, his voice ballooned (because of the emotion. This caused him to fall ill and) because of it, people were visiting him for twenty days. (1) Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr (1) reports that Hadhrat Umar (1) once led them in the Fair salaah and started reciting Surah Yusuf. However, he started weeping and had to stop when he reached the verse:

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi and Isfahaani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 194).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.260).

⁽³⁾ Shaafi'ee.

(Referring to Hadhrat Ya'qoob (Allaah says) His eyes had turned white (blind) with sorrow (because of excessive crying) and he was suppressing it (his sorrow) all the time. (Surah Yusuf, verse 84)

Hadhrat Umar (2) then went into Ruku. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Shaddaad bin Haad narrates that even while standing in the last rows of the congregation, he could hear the sobbing of Hadhrat Umar during the Fajr salaah. Hadhrat Umar was was reciting Surah Yusuf and (because of his excessive weeping, he had to stop when he) reached the verse:

i complain of my sorrow and my grief only to Allaah. (Surah Yusuf, verse 86) (3) Hadhrat Hishaam bin Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar (with emotion). He would then weep so much that he would fall down. (Because of weakness) He would then have to stay indoors and people would visit him thinking him to be ill. (4)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Haani who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan was says that whenever Hadhrat Uthmaan was stopped at a graveyard, he would weep so much that his beard would get wet. Someone once asked him, "You do not weep when you think of Jannah and Jahannam but weep when you think of the grave?" He replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah sas say, 'The grave is the first stage from amongst the many stages of the Aakhirah. If one is successful there, the later stages are easier. However, if one is unsuccessful there, the later stages will be extremely difficult." Hadhrat Uthmaan sas also added, "I have also heard Rasulullaah say that he had never seen a sight more frightening than that of the grave." In his narration, Hadhrat Haani adds that he heard Hadhrat Uthmaan says recite the following couplet by a grave (which means):

"If you are saved from this (the punishment in the grave), then you are saved from something enormous

If not, then I do not think that you will be saved (from future torment)"(5)

- (I) Abu Ubayd.
- (2) Abu Ubayd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 401).
- (3) Abdur Razzaaq, Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Shaybah and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.387).
- (4) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.51).
- (6) Tirmidhi, as quoted in Targheeti wat Tarheeti (Vol.5 Pg.322). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in brief in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.61).

The Weeping of Hadhrat Mu'aadh

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar in arrates that Hadhrat Umar in once passed by Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal in who was weeping. "What makes you weep?" Hadhrat Umar in enquired. Hadhrat Mu'aadh in replied, "A Hadith that I heard from Rasulullaah in (which states that); 'Indeed the tiniest amount of ostentation is tantamount to Shirk and the people most beloved to Allaah are those with Taqwa who are anonymous. They are those who will not be missed if they are not there and will not be recognised when they are present. These people are the torchbearers of guidance and the beacons of knowledge." (1)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar وَعَالِينَا اللهُ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar المنافقية was once reciting the Surah المنافقية (Surah Mutaffifeen). However, he started weeping when he reached the verse:

...the day when all of mankind will stand before the Rabb of the universe (to account for their actions and words)? (Surah Mutaffifeen, verse 6)

He wept so much that he fell down and was unable to recite further. (2) Hadhrat Naafi reports that there was not a single occasion when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 劉德德 did not weep when reciting the following verses of Surah Baqarah:

Whether you make known what is in your hearts or hide it, Allaah will bring you to account for it (will remind you of it on the Day of Qiyaamah). He forgives whoever He wills and punishes whoever He wills. Allaah has control over all things. (Surah Baqarah, verse 284)

He would then say, "Verily, this accountability is a grave matter." (3)
Hadhrat Naafi also reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would cry uncontrollably whenever he recited the verse:

Has the time not come for the hearts of the Mu'mineen to submit to Allaah's remembrance? (Surah Hadeed, verse (6) (4)

Hadhrat Yusuf bin Maahak says, "I walked with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Siness to Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr Siness who was busy lecturing to some of

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.270) and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.51).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.305). Ahmad has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.234).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.305). Ahmad has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.234).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.305). Abul Abbaas has reported a similar narration in his Taareekh, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.349).

his companions. When I again looked at Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (after he had been listening awhile), I saw that tears were flowing from his eyes."(1)

Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr signs once recited the verse:

(سورة نساء آيت (١)

How will it be (the condition of the Kuffaar on the Day of Qiyaamah) when We shall bring forth a witness from every nation (the Ambiyaa of every community who will testify against the Kuffaar) and call you (O Muhammad (See)) to be a witness over all of them? (Surah Nisaa, verse

(Upon hearing this verse) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sisses started weeping so profusely that his beard and collar became wet with tears. Hadhrat Abdullaah says, "The man sitting beside Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sisses said to me, 'I actually contemplated getting up and telling Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr sisses to curtail his talk because of the difficulty he was causing the elderly man (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sisses)."(2)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Mulaykah says, "I accompanied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas from Makkah to Madinah and wherever he set up camp, he stood in salaah for half the night." When Hadhrat Ayyoob asked him what Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas frecitation of the Qur'aan was like, he replied, "He once cried painfully as he continuously recited the following verse with slow intonation:

The pangs (agony) of death will bring the truth (of Imaan to every person). (It will then be said to the dying person,) "This (death) is what you used to avoid (However, now you have no option)." (Surah Qaal, verse 19).

Hadhrat Abu Rajaa says, "The lines on the face of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas where his tears ran resembled two old shoe straps." (4)
Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abu Saudah says that he once saw Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit says on the wall of the Masjid that (Allaah showed Rasulullaah a vantage point that) overlooked a valley of Jahannam. His chest was upon the wall and he was weeping. "O Abu Waleed!" Hadhrat Uthmaan asked, "What makes you weep so?" Hadhrat Ubaadah says replied, "Rasulullaah say informed us that it was in this place that he saw Jahannam." (1)

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg. 62).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.327)

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.329)

The Weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah

Hadhrat Ya'la bin Ataa reports from his mother who made kohl for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr that he wept excessively. In fact, he would lock his door and weep so much that he developed a condition that caused his eyes to secrete a white fluid all the time. Hadhrat Ya'la says that it was for this reason that his mother prepared the kohl for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (2). (2) Hadhrat Muslim bin Bishr reports that when Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah was weeping during his illness (before his death), someone asked him what it was that made him weep. He replied, "Take note that it is not for this world of yours that I am weeping. I am weeping because of the long journey ahead and the deficiency of my provisions. I have now climbed a rise that leads down either to Jananah or to Jahannam and I know not towards which of the two I shall be heading." (3)

Contemplation and Meditation The Contemplation and Meditation of the Sahabah

The Deep Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah

Hadhrat Dhamrah bin Habeeb reports from a freed slave of the Sahabi Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah (that when Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah (to once returned from a military expedition, he ate supper, made wudhu and then stood (to perform salaah) at the place where he performed salaah. He started reciting a Surah of the Qur'aan and stood rooted to the spot until the Mu'adhin called out the Adhaan (for the Fajr salaah). "O Abu Rayhaanah!" his wife said, "You have just marched on an expedition that was extremely exhausting. Thereafter, you returned (and engrossed yourself in salaah without a thought for me). Is there no share for us (in your time)?" Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah ("By Allaah! Of course there is a share for you in my time, if I had only thought of you." "Then what was it that preoccupied you (from thinking of me)?" she asked. He replied, "Deep meditation about the descriptions Allaah has given about Jannah and its pleasures had engrossed my mind until I heard the Muadhin." (4)

The Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Dharr

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Waasi narrates that a man rode from Basrah to see Hadhrat Ummu Dharr 回路等 after the demise of (her husband) Hadhrat Abu Dharr 图像 to ask her about the Ibaadah of Hadhrat Abu Dharr 图像 When

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.6 Pg. 110).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.290).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.62). Abu Nu'aym has reported a similar narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.383).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Mubaarak in his Zuhd, as quoted in /saabah (Vol. 2 Pg. 157).

he arrived, he said to her, "I have come to you so that you may inform me about the Ibaadah of Hadhrat Abu Dharr Speed." She said, "He would spend the entire day only meditating in solitude." (1)

The Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa المُعَلِّقَةُ

Hadhrat Aun bin Abdullaah bin Utba reports that he once asked Hadhrat Ummu Dardaa about the best deed of (her husband) Hadhrat Abu Dardaa abous. She replied, "Meditation and heeding to lessons." Another narration states that when she was asked about the deed that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa about did most frequently, she replied, "Heeding to lessons." Yet another narration states that her reply was, "Meditation." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (once said, "Meditation for a moment is better than standing in salaah an entire night." (3) Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (See also said, "Amongst people there are those who are the keys to good and the locks of evil. They shall have great rewards. There are then also those who are the keys to evil and locks of good. They will be terribly punished. Meditation for a moment is better than standing in salaah an entire night." (4)

Hadhrat Habeeb bin Abdullaah narrates that a man intending to march in Jihaad came to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Frank) for advice, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Frank) in prosperity and He will think of you when you are in difficulty. When you admire something of this world, think about what it is to become (old and then turned to dust)."

Hadhrat Saalim bin Abil Ja'd reports that two bulls once passed by Hadhrat Abu Dardaa was as they were being worked. When one of them stopped as the other continued, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "There is certainly a great lesson in this (while the one will be whipped for stopping, the other will be saved from the whipping)." (5)

Taking Stock of Oneself

The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar sizes in this Regard

One of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Siese's freed slaves reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Siese's once said, "Whoever angers his carnal self for the sake of Allaah will be saved from Allaah's anger." (6) Hadhrat Thaabit bin Hajjaaj narrates that Hadhrat Umar (Weigh yourselves up before you are weighed and assess yourselves before you are assessed because reckoning with yourself (in this world) is easier than the

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg. 164).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.208) and Ahmad, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.258).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya, Ahmad and Ibn 5a'd (Vol.7 Pg.392).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.142).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (vol.1 Pg.209). Ahmad has also reported the first narration, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (vol.1 Pg.258).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya in Muhaasabatun Nafs, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.162).

reckoning you will face tomorrow (in the Aakhirah). You should also adorn yourselves (with good deeds) before the great presentation (the Day of Qiyaamah, about which Allaah says):

On that day, you will all be presented and nothing (no action or word) of yours shall remain hidden. (Surah Haaga, verse 18)⁽¹⁾

Hadhrat Anas Sies reports, "I was one day with Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab Sies when he went into an orchard. There was a wall between us and he was standing in the middle of the orchard when I heard him say (to himself), 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! By Allaah! You should fear Allaah or He will definitely punish you." (2)

Remaining silent and Guarding the Tongue The Silence of our Guide Rasulullaah

In a lengthy narration, Hadhrat Simaak says that he once asked Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah ("Tod you associate often with Nabi ("F") Hadhrat Jaabir ("Tes, He was a person who often remained silent." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Maalik Ashja'ee sees reports that his father said, "We were little boys when we used to sit in the company of Rasulullaah see and have never seen anyone remain silent as much as Rasulullaah see did. Whenever his companions would talk too much, he merely smiled." (4)

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit in narrates that Rasulullaah was once out with his companions. As he rode, one of them stepped out ahead of him. Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal is said, "O Rasulullaah !! I pray that Allaah takes our lives before yours. May Allaah never show us the day (of your demise), but should we see it, what deeds should we carry out after you? May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah !! Should it be Jihaad in the path of Allaah?" Rasulullaah replied, "Jihaad in the path of Allaah is an excellent deed, but people have become accustomed to it. (What you should be doing is) Something that exercises greater restraint (on the carnal self)." "Then fasting and Sadaqah?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh saked. "Fasting and Sadaqah are an excellent deeds," Rasulullaah commented, "but people have become accustomed to it. (What you should be doing is) Something that exercises greater restraint (on the carnal self)."

Hadhrat Mu'aadh then went on to mention every type of good deed, but each time Rasulullaah ses reply was, "But people have become accustomed to it. (What you should be doing is) Something that exercises greater restraint (on the carnal self)." Hadhrat Mu'aadh

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.52).

⁽²⁾ Maali, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Dunya in his Muhaasabatun Nafs, Abu Nu'aym in his Ma'rifah (Vol. Pg.) and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 400).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.297) has commented on Ahmad's chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.372) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Tahraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.298) has commented on the chain of narrators.

become accustomed to these deeds, what is that thing that exercises greater restraint (on the carnal self)?" Pointing to his mouth, Rasulullaah said, "Remaining silent at all times save when speaking what is good." "Will we be taken to task for what our tongues speak?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh saked in surprise. Striking his hand on Hadhrat Mu'aadh said something like, "Your mother ought to have lost you!" He then added, "It is because of what the tongue speaks that people will be thrown headlong into Jahannam. Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should speak only what is good or remain silent about evil. Speak what is good and you will reap the rewards. Remain silent about evil and you will be safe." (1)

The Silence of the Sahabah

Rasulullaah says about a Martyr, "He may have mentioned something that was futile"

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah rarrates that when someone was martyred, a lady was weeping over him saying, "Oh dear martyr!" Addressing her, Rasulullaah said, "Stop saying that. How do you know that he is a martyr (and is guaranteed immediate access into Jannah)? He may have mentioned something that was futile or was miserly with something that would not have cost him anything." (2)

In another narration, Hadhrat Anas states that when one of the Sahabah was martyred during the Battle of Uhud, a rock was found tied to his belly (which he had tied) because of hunger. Wiping the dust off his face, his mother said, "Glad tidings for you, O beloved son of Jannah." Addressing her, Rasulullaah said, "How do you know that he is a martyr (and is guaranteed immediate access into Jannah)? He may have mentioned something that was futile or refused something that would not have harmed him (to part with)." (3)

The silence of Hadhrat Ammaar 等等等, Hadhrat Mu'aadh 等等等 and the statement of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 等等等 Hadhrat Khaalid bin Numayr says, "Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir will often remained silent for prolonged periods of time and always seemed depressed. (When he did speak, he was mostly seeking Allaah's protection from trials." (4) Hadhrat Abu Idress Khowlan! says, "I once entered the Masjid of Damascus when my eyes caught sight of a man with sparkling front teeth. He was a very quiet man and whenever the people with him disagreed on some issue, they referred it to him and readily accepted his verdict. When I enquired who he was, I was

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.299) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.303) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.303) has commented on the chain of narrators. Tirmidhi has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Mishkaar.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.142).

informed that he was Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (1995, "(1)) Hadhrat Aslam narrates that when Hadhrat Umar (1995) once found Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1995) pulling at his tongue, he asked, "What are you doing, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah (1995)" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1995) replied, "There is not a part of the body that does not complain of the sharpness of the tongue." (2) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (rebuke their Tongues

Hadhrat Abu Waa'ii narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood sonce climbed Mount Safa, he caught hold of his tongue saying, "O tongue! Speak what is good and reap the rewards. Shun speaking evil and you will remain safe before having to regret." He then narrated, "I have heard Rasulullaah so say, 'Most of man's sins stem from the tongue." (3)
Hadhrat Sa'eed Jareeri reports from a man who said, "I once saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas holding the point of his tongue as he said, 'Shame on you! Speak what is good and reap the rewards. Shun speaking evil and you will remain safe. Someone then asked, 'O Ibn Abbaas why why do I see you holding your tongue and saying that?' Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas so replied, 'The news has reached me that on the Day of Qiyaamah a person will be more angry with his tongue than with anything else." (4)

The Silence of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws After he pledged allegiance at the hand of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Thaabit Bunaani narrates that Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws so once said to one of his companions, "Lay the tablecloth so that we may dig in to it!" Another of his companions said in surprise, "I have never heard you speak like that since I have come to know you." Hadhrat Shaddaad so said, "Since I separated from Rasulullaah see, every statement I have made was a harnessed one (said with much thought). By Allaah! Another like this shall never again escape." (5)

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Moosa reports that Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws some said, "Lay the tablecloth so that we may frolic with it." The people with him immediately picked at his words saying, "Look at Abu Ya'la (Hadhrat Shaddaad soe's title)! What a statement has come from him!" Hadhrat Shaddaad then said, "Dear son of my brother! Since the time I pledged allegiance at Rasulullaah soe's hand, every statement I have made had been a harnessed one, except for this one. Come, forget this and let me tell you something better

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.269).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.302) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration briefly in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.33).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.300).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.328).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.265).

for you to note. (It is this du'aa) 'O Allaah! We seek steadfastness in our affairs and the resolve to do good. We ask You for the ability to be grateful for Your bounties and for the ability to worship You in a most beautiful manner. We ask You for a pure heart and a truthful tongue. We also beseech You for the good You are aware of and for protection from the evil You know about.' Learn this from me and forget the other words (I said without thinking)." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Shaddaad added, "Do not learn these words from me, but rather learn what I shall narrate to you that I heard Rasulullaah as say, "When people started hoarding treasures of gold and silver, fill your treasures with the words: 'O Allaah! We seek steadfastness in our affairs and the resolve to do good." Hadhrat Shaddaad then then mentioned words like the narration above before adding, "(O Allaah) I seek forgiveness from You from the sins You know I have committed, for You are the One who knows well all that is hidden." (2)

The statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Significant About the Dangers of the tongue

Hadhrat Isa bin Uqba narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (once said, "I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship that nothing on earth is more deserving of a long prison sentence than the tongue." (3) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (See once said, "Beware of futile speech. All you need to say it that which would get your needs fulfilled." (4) Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (See oid, "The people guilty of the most sins on the Day of Qiyaamah shall be those who most engaged in idle talk." (5)

Hadhrat Ali sissi and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa sissi encourage Silence

Hadhrat All wiss said, "The tongue is the basis of the body's well-being. When the tongue is upright, the other limbs are all upright. However, as soon as the tongue is out of control, no other limb stays under control." Another narration states that he once said, "Keep a low profile and you will not be talked about (thus saving you from pride). Remain silent and you will remain safe."

Another narration states that he said, "Silence invites towards Jannah." It was also Hadhrat Ali (Silence who mentioned the following couplets (which mean):

"Never disclose your secrets except to yourself Because there is an advisor to every advisor

- (1) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.265)
- (2) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.265) and (Vol.1 Pg.266). Ahmad has also reported the narration, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.351).
- Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.134). Tabraani has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.303).
- (4) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.303) has commented on the chain of parrators.
- (5) Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.303).

And I have also seen many misguided men

Who do not leave upright men unscathed (by their insults)"(1)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Sies) once said, "Learn to remain silent just as you learn to speak because silence is a great source of self-control. You ought to be more interested in listening than speaking and should never speak about things that do not concern you. You should also not laugh when there is nothing to laugh about or go somewhere you do not have to go." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sisses also said, "There is no limb of a Mu'min that Allaah loves more than his tongue because it is by means of this that he will enter Jannah. At the same time, there is no limb of a Kaasir that Allaah hates more than his tongue because it is by means of this that he will enter Jahannam." (3)

The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Hadhrat Anas about Guarding the Tongue

Hadhrat Abdullaan bin Umar (4) said, "The limb that a person most needs to purify is his tongue." (4)

Hadhrat Anas ($1500) said, "A person can never have Taqwa until he controls his tongue." (5)

Speech

The Speech of Rasulullaah 經過

The Sahabah See Describe the Speech of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Rasulullaah sis speech was such (so clear) that if anyone wished to count the words, they could have easily done so." She also mentioned, "Shall I not surprise you? A certain person actually came and spoke to Rasulullaah sis beside my room so loudly that I could hear him talk as I was busy with my salaah. He then left before I could complete my salaah. Had I been able to find him before that, I would have certainly given him a piece of my mind." She then added, "Rasulullaah sis never spoke continuously and quickly as you people do." (6)

In another narration, Hadhrat Aa'isha (25%) says, "Rasulullaah (25%)'s speech was so clear that everyone could understand it. He would never speak continuously and quickly." (7)

It was Hadhrat Jaabir who said,

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya in his Samt, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 158).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.159).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.220).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.307).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd (vol.7 Pg.22).

⁽⁶⁾ Bukhaari. Ahmad, Muslim and Abu Dawood have also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abu. Hurayrah 劉國德

⁽⁷⁾ Ahmad and Abu Dawood.

"Rasulullaah (see speech was crisp, with every letter distinctly pronounced." (1) Hadhrat Anas (see spoke anything (of marked importance), he would repeat it thrice and whenever he approached a gathering, he would greet thrice." (2)

Hadhrat Thumamah bin Anas narrates that whenever Hadhrat Anas spoke (something of importance), he repeated himself thrice and would say that when Rasulullaah gegreted with Salaam (to seek permission to enter a home), he did so thrice⁽³⁾ and when he spoke (something of great importance), he would repeat it thrice. ⁽⁴⁾ Hadhrat Anas spoke also reported that when Rasulullaah spoke, he would repeat himself thrice so that people could understand what he was saving." ⁽⁵⁾

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Sies) narrates that Rasulullaah (Sies) once said, "I have been sent with concise yet comprehensive speech and have been assisted with awe. When I was sleeping once, the keys to the treasures of the heavens and the earth were brought to me and placed in my hand." (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam (1996) reports, "When Rasulullaah (1996) sat down to talk, he would often look towards the sky (in anticipation of revelation)." (7)

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Regrets the Many Questions he Posed to Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas says, "Even when speaking to the worst of people, Rasulullaah would turn his full attention to the person so that (they would feel special and) their hearts would be won over. When speaking to me, Rasulullaah also turned his full attention towards me until I eventually felt that I was the best of all the Sahabah sow. 'O Rasulullaah is I once asked, 'Am I better or Abu Bakr?' 'Abu Bakr,' came the reply. 'O Rasulullaah self! I asked further, 'Am I better or Umar?' When Rasulullaah replied that Umar was better, I pursued the enquiry saying. 'O Rasulullaah self! Am I better or Uthmaan?' 'Uthmaan,' he replied. After asking Rasulullaah and after he had been truthful to me, I wished that I had never asked him these questions." (8)

Smiling and Laughing The Smiling and Laughing of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "I have never seen Rasulullaah as laugh so much

- (1) Abu Ya'la.
- (2) Bukhaari.
- (3) Rasulullaah (3) greeted once when first seeking permission to enter, thereafter a second time when entering and finally a third time when leaving.
- (4) Ahmad
- (5) Tirmidhi
- (6) Ahmad and Bukhaari,
- (7) Ibn Is/haaq, as quoted by Abu Dawood in his Adab. The above narrations have been quoted from Al Bidaayah wah Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.40,41).
- (8) Tirmidhl in his Shamaa'ii (Pg.25). Tabraani has reported a similar narration but Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.15) has commented on the chain of narrators.

in a manner that I could see his uvula. All he did was smile." (1) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith bin Jaz (Sizes says, "I have never seen anyone smile as much as Rasulullaah (See." In another narration, he says, "Rasulullaah (see never laughed but only smiled." (2)

Hadhrat Simaak bin Harb reports that he once asked Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah "Were you frequently in the company of Rasulullaah "F": Hadhrat Jaabir Simor replied, "Yes, I was often in his company. He never stood up from his place of performing the Faji salaah until the sun rose. He would then get up while the Sahabah "were sometimes discussing events that occurred during the Period of Ignorance. As they laughed, Rasulullaah "would merely smile." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Simaak bin Harb reports that he once asked Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah ("Were you frequently in the company of Rasulullaah ("Pes.") Hadhrat Jaabir ("Yes. He often remained silent and would laugh very little. The Sahabah ("Wes.") would often recite poetry to him and when he said something that made them laugh, he would merely smile."

Hadhrat Husayn bin Yazeed Kalbi (1996) says, "I have never seen Rasulullaah (1996) laugh. He would only smile. There were also times when he would have to tie a rock to his belly because of extreme hunger." (5)

Hadhrat Amrah questions Hadhrat Aa'isha about Rasulullaah & S Domestic Life

Hadhrat Amrah reports that she once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha about Rasulullaah se's behaviour when he was alone with his wives. Hadhrat Aa'isha replied, "He was like any other man except for the fact that he was the noblest of them all and the most compassionate. He also laughed and smiled very often." (6)

Rasulullaah "s Laughing

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "When revelation would come to Rasulullaah or when he was delivering a lecture, he would appear like a person warning his people of an approaching punishment. However, when this was not happening, you would see that he had the most smiley face, was the most jovial of people and the handsomest of all men." (7)

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah www says, "Rasulullaah www was one of the most

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi.

⁽³⁾ Muslim...

⁽⁴⁾ Tayaalisi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.41,42). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.372) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym and ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.42), ibn Qaani has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.340).

⁽⁶⁾ Kharaa'iti and Haakim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 4 Pg.47). Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 1 Pg.91) has also reported a similar narration.

⁽⁷⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.17).

jovial of people and the one with the best personality." (1)

Rasulullaah W Laughs during the Battle of Khandaq

Hadhrat Aamir bin Sa'd reports that Hadhrat Sa'd said to him, "I saw Rasulullaah simile so broadly during the Battle of Khandaq that his molar teeth actually became visible." When Hadhrat Aamir asked what the reason for Rasulullaah similes laughter was, Hadhrat Sa'd similes explained that a man from the enemy was waving his shield to and fro to protect his forehead (thereby teasing the Muslim archers to get him). Being a crack archer, Hadhrat Sa'd similes took out an arrow (placed it on the bow and waited for the chance). As soon as the man raised his head, Hadhrat Sa'd shot the arrow, which struck the man squarely on the forehead. The man fell to the ground while his leg remained extended into the air. It was then that Rasulullaah similed to broadly that his molars became visible. "What made Rasulullaah similed someone asked. The narrator replied, "It was the astuteness with which Hadhrat Sa'd dealt with the man." (2)

Rasulullaah E Laughs at what a Poor man did During Ramadhaan

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah sees reports that a man once came to Rasulullaah saying, "I am destroyed! I have engaged in sexual relations with my wife during Ramadhaan." "Then free a slave," Rasulullaah sees advised. When he declared that he was unable to afford it, Rasulullaah sees advised further saying, "Then fast for two consecutive months." When he said that he would be unable to do that as well, Rasulullaah sees said, "Then feed sixty poor people." "I cannot afford that either," the man said. When someone later presented a basket of dates to Rasulullaah sees, he summoned the man and instructed him to give the dates away as Sadaqah. "Should! give it to someone more in need than I? By Allaah! There is no family between the rocky plains of Madinah more in need of it than my family." Rasulullaah sees then smilled so widely that his molars became visible as he said, "Then let it be spent on your family." (3)

The Narrations of Hadhrat Abu Dharr and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Sies) narrates that Rasulullaah (Sie once said, "I know the first person to enter Jannah and the last to emerge from Jahannam. A man will be summoned on the Day of Qiyaamah and his minor sins will be presented before him while his major sins will be concealed. Given the precise dates and times, he will be asked whether he committed certain evil acts. Unable to deny anything, he will admit to it all, fearing the major sins (still to be accounted for), it will then be said, 'Grant him a good deed in place of every sin he committed.' He will then quickly say, "But I have committed other sins that I do not see here." Hadhrat Abu Dharr Sizes says, "I then saw Rasulullaah sizes smile so widely that his molars were visible." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.17) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg. 16).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.2 Pg.899).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood peports that Rasulullaah said, "I know who the last person to emerge from Jahannam will be. He will come out of Jahannam crawling (unable to stand up straight because of the intensity of the punishment) and will be told to enter Jannah. As he starts proceeding towards Jannah, he will see that other people have already occupied its levels. He will then return to Allaah saying, "O my Rabb! People have already occupied the various levels (leaving no place for me)." He will then be asked, "Do you remember the times you had (in the world)?" "I certainly do," he will reply. "Then wish (for all you would like to have)," he will be told. After wishing for everything he can think of, he will be told, "You shall have everything you have wished for together with ten times more of what the world had to offer." He will say in disbelief, "Are You joking with me when You are the King of the worlds?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood says, "I then Rasulullaah says smile so widely that his molars were visible." (2)

Dignity

The Dignified Behaviour of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Khaarijah bin Zaid saws, "Rasulullaah www was the most dignified person in his gatherings and (as he sat) none of his limbs extended (towards the people)." (3)

The Dignified Behaviour of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (1986)

Hadhrat Shahr bin Howshab says that whenever the Sahabah (spoke in the presence of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (they kept looking at him out of awe for him.

In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Muslim Khowlaani narrates, "I once entered the Masjid of Hims where I came across close to thirty middle-aged Sahabah of Rasulullaah & Amongst them was a youthful man with kohl around his eyes and sparkling front teeth. He spoke not a word and remained silent. When the others disagreed about anything, they turned to him and asked him. When I asked the person beside me who the man was, he informed me that he was Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal & I immediately took a liking to him and remained with the group until they dispersed."

Hadhrat Abu Muslim also narrates, "I once entered the Masjid with some Sahabah 經過過 during the early years of Hadhrat Umar 宏观 Skhilaafah. There were more of them present that day than any other and the gathering I sat

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.16).

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.16).

⁽³⁾ Qaadhi Ayaadh in his Shifaa and Abu Dawood in his Maraaseel, as quoted in Khafaajee's Sharhush Shifaa (vol.2 Pg.117), in included over thirty Sahabah (Said), all narrating Ahadeeth from Rasulullaah (Said). Also sitting in the gathering was a youthful man who was brown in complexion, who spoke extremely well and who was exceptionally good looking. Although he was the youngest of the group, they referred to him whenever they doubted anyone's narration. He would then (correctly) narrate the Hadith (they doubted) to them. Unless they asked him, he did not narrate anything else to them. 'Who are you, O servant of Allaah?' I asked him. 'I am Mu'aadh bin Jabal,' came the reply." (1)

Suppressing One's Anger

Hadhrat Abu Barzah 医神经 narrates, "When a man spoke harshly to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 医神经 Isaid, 'Should I not execute him?' Hadhrat Abu Bakr 医神经 rebuked me saying, 'Such punishment is not warranted for anyone (speaking harshly to anyone) after Rasulullaah 经等。"(2)

Hadhrat Umar ("No person cannot sip any milk or honey that is better than a sip of his anger." (3)

Possessiveness

The Possessiveness of Hadhrat Ubay bin ka'b

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (with a man once reported to Rasulullaah that a certain person frequently went to see his father's wife (with apparently sinister intentions). Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (with a exclaimed, "Had it been me, I would have killed him." Rasulullaah (with laughed as he said, "How possessive are you, O Ubay! However, I am more possessive than you and Allaah is more possessive than I." (4)

The possessiveness of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah

Hadhrat Mughierah narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah ("If I found any man with my wife, I would strike him with the sharp edge of my sword." When this was reported to Rasulullaah ("If he said, "Are you surprised with Sa'd's possessiveness? By Allaah! I am more possessive than him and Allaah is more possessive than I. It is because of Allaah's possessiveness that He has forbidden all types of indecency, be it apparent or hidden. There is also none who loves to be absolved of blame more than Allaah and it is because of this that He has sent warners and givers of glad tidings (the Ambiyaa so that people cannot say that they did not know). There is also none who loves praise more than Allaah and it is because of this that he created Jannah." (5)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.231).

⁽²⁾ Tayaalisi, Ahmad, Humaydi, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Abu Ya'la, Sa'ed bin Mansoor and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg.161).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 132).

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaart and Muslim.

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Fig. 1) reports that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (Fig. 2) once asked, "If I found a man with my wife, am I not allowed to touch him until I present four witnesses?" "That's right," Rasulullaah (Fig. 2) replied. Hadhrat Sa'd (Fig. 3) then said, "That cannot be! I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that before that I would speed up his journey with my sword." "Listen to what your leader has to say," Rasulullaah (Fig. 3) said to the Sahabah (Fig. 4). "He is extremely possessive, but I am more possessive than him and Allaah is more possessive than I." (I)

A lengthy narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas adds that the Sahabah said, "O Rasulullaah see! Do not rebuke him because he is an extremely possessive person. By Allaah! He has only married virgins and because of his possessiveness, none of us has ever dared to marry any woman he has divorced." Hadhrat Sa'd see then said, "O Rasulullaah se! I know that the injunction (of presenting four witnesses to prove adultery) is true and is from Allaah but I find it strange that when I find a man rubbing his thighs against those of an immoral woman, I am unable to move him until I bring four witnesses. By Allaah! By the time I come with them, he would have fulfilled his desire (and left)." (2)

The Possessiveness of Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that when Rasulullaah then returned to see what she was doing and commented, "What is the matter, O Aa'isha? Have you been overcome with possessiveness?" Hadhrat Aa'isha replied, "Why should someone like myself not be possessive over someone like yourself?" "Your Shaytaan must have come to you," Rasulullaah remarked. "O Rasulullaah replied. "And with you, O Rasulullaah replied. "And with you, O Rasulullaah replied. "And with you, O Rasulullaah replied. "Yes," Rasulullaah replied, "but Allaah has assisted me and he has become a Muslim (and therefore does not influence me to do evil)," "Assimilation of the second replied."

Hadhrat Aa'isha was narrates, "When Rasulullaah s married Ummu Salamah was, I became extremely depressed because people always told us about her beauty. When I managed to secretly steal a glance at her, I found her to be much more beautiful than people had described. I then mentioned this to Hafsah was (Hadhrat Aa'isha was and Hadhrat Hafsah were extremely close). She said, 'By Allaah! This is only because of your extreme possessiveness. She cannot be as beautiful as you people say.' When Hafsah was also managed to steal a glance at her, she said, 'I have seen her and I swear by Allaah that she is not as beautiful as you say. In fact, she is not even close to what you have described, although I do admit that she is pretty."

⁽¹⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Mishkaatul Masaabeeh (Pg.278).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la and Ahmad, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg. (2) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Mishkaatul Masaabeeh (Pg.280).

Hadhrat Aa'isha says further, "I then went to see her again and I swear by my life that she was just as Hafsah says had mentioned. It was because of my extreme possessiveness (that I found her to be more beautiful than she actually was)."

(1)

Hadhrat Ali Rebukes People Bereft of any Possessiveness

Hadhrat Ali woo once addressed the people saying, "The news has reached me that your women crowd the marketplaces with Kuffaar men. Have you people no sense of possessiveness? There can be no good in a person who is bereft of all possessiveness." Another narration states that Hadhrat Ali wood said, "There are two types of possessiveness. The first is commendable and a means by which a person keeps his family in check. The other is the type that leads a person to Jahannam." (2)

Enjoining what is Good and Forbidding what is Evil

Rasulullaah A narrates the Incident of People of the past who were Tortured for Enjoining what is Good and Forbidding what is Evil

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (At your service, O Rasulullaah

"O Ibn Mas'ood!" Rasulullaah se said again. "At your service, O Rasulullaah se!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood replied. "Do you know who are the most learned people?" Again Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood submitted, "Allaah and His Rasool know best." Rasulullaah se explained. "Indeed the most learned of people are those with the deepest insight into the truth when people are in disagreement even though they fall short in deeds and are dragging themselves along on their buttocks. Those before me were divided into seventy two groups, amongst which all besides three were destroyed. One of these groups opposed the kings and fought them for the sake of their Deen which was the Deen of Isa bin Maryam sub. They were captured and killed when their bodies were cut up with saws. Another group amongst them neither had the power to fight the kings nor to live amongst the masses and invite them to Allaah and to the Deen of Isa bin Maryam sub. They therefore dispersed in the land and adopted monasticism. It is with regard to these people that Allaah says:

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.94).

⁽²⁾ Rustah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.161).

﴿ وَرَهْبَانِيَّةَ إِبْتَدَعُوْهَا مَا كَتَيْنَهَا عَلَيْهِمْ إِلَّا ابْتِغَاءَ رِضُوَانِ اللَّهِ فَمَا رَعُوْهَا حَقَّ رِعَايَتِهَا ؟ فَالْيُنَا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوْا مِنْهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ ؟ وَكَنِيْرٌ مِنْهُمْ فْسِقُوْنَ ۞﴾ (سورة حديد آبت ٢٧)

They invented monasticism (involving isolation from society and forsaking marriage and pleasures) which We did not ordain for them but they did it in search of Allaah's pleasure (to preserve their Deen from the corruption that society introduced to it). However, they did not observe it (its demands) as it ought to have been observed (because its demands were against human nature). (However, after the coming of Rasulullaah .) We granted their reward to those of them who had Imaan (who believed in Rasulullaah . and accepted Islaam) while many of them were sinners (choosing to stay away from Islaam). (Surah Hadeed, verse 27)

Rasulullaah then added, "Those (of them) who believe in me and follow me have observed its demands as it ought to be observed. As for those who do not follow me, they shall be destroyed."

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "A group from them remained with the kings and tyrants to invite them towards the Deen of Isa said. However, they were captured and killed (after being cut into pieces) with saws and then burnt. Nevertheless, they were steadfast until they met Allaah." The rest of the narration is the same as the one above. (2)

Rasulullaah W Warns those who do not Enjoin what is good and do not forbid what is evil

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal ("You people shall remain on the clear path of your Rabb as long as two intoxicants do not become manifest amongst you; the intoxicant of ignorance and the intoxicant of love for this world. Even though you may be enjoining what is good, forbidding what is evil and waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah, as soon as the intoxicant of love for this world manifests itself amongst you, you will stop enjoining what is good, forbidding what is evil and waging Jihaad in the path of Allaah. Those who speak by the Qur'aan and the Sunnah during such times will be like the very first to accept Islaam from the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar." (1)

The Rank on the Day of Qiyaamah of those who enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil

Hadhrat Yazeed Raqaashi reports from Hadhrat Anas ($100) that Rasulullaah said, "Should I not inform you about a group of people who although not belonging to the Ambiyaa and the Shuhadaa (martyrs), will be the envy of the Ambiyaa and Shuhadaa on the Day of Qiyaamah because of their closeness to

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.260) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.271) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Allaah. They will be recognised by the pulpits of light upon which they will be seated." "Who are they, O Rasulullaah ??" the Sahabah begged to know. Rasulullaah replied, "They are those who travel the world advising people so that Allaah's servants become beloved to Him and so that He becomes beloved to them." Hadhrat Anas servants, but how do they make Allaah's servants beloved to Him?" Rasulullaah replained, "They enjoin them to do what Allaah likes and forbid them from doing what Allaah dislikes. When the people follow this advice of theirs, they become beloved to Allaah." (1)

When will this Ummah Forsake enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil?

Hadhrat Hudhayfah ("O Rasulullaah ("When will people forsake enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil, whilst these two deeds are the chief actions of righteous people?" Rasulullaah ("When that which afflicted the Bani Israa'eel afflicts you as well." "O Rasulullaah ("When that which afflicted the Bani Israa'eel?" Hadhrat Hudhayfah ("When as aked. Rasulullaah ("When (for worldly gain) the good amongst you become lenient towards the sinners, when the knowledge of Deen goes to the worst amongst you and when leadership goes to the youngsters. When this happens, you will suffer adversities that will keep coming your way and towards which you will keep going." (2) Hadhrat Abu Bakr (See Explains the verse: "Take Care of your Own Selves" Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) had become Khalifah, he mounted the pulpit and after duly praising Allaah, he said, "O people! You recite the verse:

(سورة مائده ایت ۱۰۰)

O you who have Imaan, take care of your own selves. He who has strayed cannot harm you when you are rightly guided. {Surah Maa'idah, verse 105}

However, you people have been misinterpreting the verse. I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Whenever people see evil and fail to change it, the time is close when Allaah shall engulf them all in great punishment (the evil-doers for the evil and the others for failing to prevent them).(3)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, Naqqaash in his Mu'jim and Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.139).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.286) has commented on the chain of narrators, ibn Asaakir and ibn Najjaar have reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Anas (2006) while ibn Abi Dunya has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Anisha (2006), as Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.139).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad, Abd bin Humayd, Adani, Ibn Munee, Humaydi, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Nasa'ee, Ibn Maajah, Abu Ya'la, Daar Qutni in his Ilal, Abu Nu'aym in his Ma'rifah, Bayhaqi, Sa'eed

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that on the day he was named Khalifah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr is sat on Rasulullaah is pulpit. After duly praising Allaah and sending salutations to Rasulullaah is, he stretched out his hands and placed them on the spot of the pulpit where Rasulullaah is used to sit. He then said, "As he was sitting on this very same spot, I heard my beloved friend (Rasulullaah is) explain the meaning of the verse:

(سورة مائده آيت ١٠٥)

O you who have Imaan, take care of your own selves. He who has strayed cannot harm you when you are rightly guided. {Surah Maa'idah, verse 105}

In his explanation to us, Rasulullaah see said, 'Yes. When evil is perpetrated in a community and they are being corrupted with vices without them making an attempt to change matters or to even oppose it, it becomes binding on Allaah to engulf them all in great punishment. Thereafter even their du'ass will not be accepted." Hadhrat Abu Bakr sees then placed his fingers into his ears saying, "May both these ears become deaf if I had not heard this from my beloved friend (Rasulullaah sees)."(1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (When people perpetrate evil in the midst of others who are more powerful than them but who do not prevent them, Allaah shall engulf them all in a great calamity that will not be alleviated." (2)

Hadhrat Umar www and Hadhrat Uthmaan Instruct People to enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil

(Addressing the people) Hadhrat Umar (Addressing the people see a fool dishonouring people, what prevents you from opposing him?" When the people admitted that they feared abuse from the person, Hadhrat Umar (Addressing Vin that case, you will be unable to be witnesses (for the Ambiyaa on the Day of Qiyaamah)."

Hadhrat Uthmaan (once said, "Enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil before the worst amongst you are given authority over you and then when even the best of you make du'aa against them, their du'aas will not be accepted." (4)

Hadhrat Ali Esse Encourages people to Enjoin Good and Warns them against Giving up Forbidding Evil

Hadhrat Ali (once said, "You people must enjoin what is good, forbid what bin Mansoor and others, all reporting from reliable sources.

⁽i) Ibn MArdway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 138).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 138).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Abu Ubayd in his Ghareeb and Ibn Abi Dunya in his Samt, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.139).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.139).

is evil and defend the Deen of Allaah, otherwise Allaah shall place in authority over you such people who will punish you, after which Allaah will punish them as well." Another narration states that Hadhrat Ali said said, "You people must enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil otherwise Allaah shall place the worst amongst you in authority over you and then when even the best of you make du'aa, their du'aas will not be accepted." (1)

In one of his sermons, Hadhrat Ali sees said, "O people! Those who were destroyed before you were destroyed because when they perpetrated sin, their Rabbis and religious scholars did not prohibit them. Each time they transgressed all limits of sin and their Rabbis and religious scholars did not prevent them, punishment overtook them. You should therefore enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil before you suffer a like fate. Remember that enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil can neither deprive you of your sustenance nor hasten your death." (2)

Hadhrat Ali once said, "Jihaad is of three categories; Jihaad with the hand, Jihaad with the tongue and Jihaad with the heart. The first of these to disappear will be the Jihaad of the hand, followed by Jihaad of the tongue and then Jihaad of the heart. Eventually when the heart falls to recognise what is good and does not reject evil, it will be turned completely upside down." (3) Hadhrat Ali once said, "The first Jihaad to disappear will be the Jihaad of your hands, followed by Jihaad of your tongue and then Jihaad of your heart. The heart that fails to recognise what is good and does not reject evil will be turned completely upside down just as a water bag is turned upside down to empty out everything inside." (4)

The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood concerning enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil

When Idrees bin Uroob Shaybaani once came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood and said, "Destroyed is the person who does not enjoin good and forbid evil." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood responded by saying, "(That stage comes afterwards) In fact, the person whose heart does not recognise good and does not reject evil is already destroyed." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (These once said, "People are of three types. There is no good in anyone who does not fall into one of these three categories. The first is the person who sees a group fighting in the path of Allaah and then himself fights using his own wealth. The second is the person who wages Jihaad with his tongue (in the defence of Deen) and enjoins good and forbids evil. The

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 139).

⁽³⁾ Masaddad and Bayhaqi.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Abu Nu'aym in his Nusr fi Huljah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.139).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.275). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.35) as have Jbn Abi Shaybah and Nu'aym In his Filan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.140).

other (third) is the man who recognises the truth with his heart." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "Wage Jihaad against the Munaafiqeen with your tongues and if you can do nothing else besides frowning at them (to express your displeasure with them), then go ahead and frown at them." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (also said, "When you see an evil and are unable to change it, it will suffice for Allaah to know that you hate it within your heart." Another narration quotes that he said, "When a person witnesses an evil being perpetrated in his presence and he dislikes it, he is like one who had not witnessed it at all. However, when a person approves of an evil that is carried out in his absence, he is like one who has witnessed it. (3)

It was also Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood who said, "Many evils will take place in the future. Those who approve of them are like those witnessing them even though they may not be present. On the other hand, those who actually witness them but despise them are like those who have not witnessed them at all." (4)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood & said, "The righteous ones shall leave this world first, leaving behind only doubtful people who will be unable to recognise good or reject evil." (5)

The Statements of Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Concerning enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil Hadhrat Abur Ruqaad says, "I was a youngster when I went out with my master one day. We were somehow led to (a gathering addressed by) Hadhrat Hudhayfah who was saying, "In a single sitting, I hear some of you four times making a statement that if spoken during the time of Rasulullaah will, would render a person a hypocrite. You people must enjoin good, forbid evil and encourage each other to do good otherwise Allaah shall uproot you people with punishment. Alternatively, Allaah shall grant the worst of you authority over you, after which the du'aas of even the best of you will not be answered." (6)

⁽I) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.276) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.140). Tabraani has also reported the narration but Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.276) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg.140).

⁽⁴⁾ Nu'aym and Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 140).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.7 Pg.280).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilla (Vol. 1 Pg.279), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 140).

⁽⁷⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.279).

In another narration, Hadhrat Hudhayfah (1986) says, "There shall certainly come a time when the best of people will be deemed to be those who do not enjoin good and do not forbid evil." (1)

The Statements of Hadhrat Adi and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim (Simo) once said, "The good you do today was considered an evil in times gone by and the evil of today will be considered something good in times to come. You will always remain on the right as long as you do not regard good as evil and evil as good and as long as your scholars continue speaking the truth without demeaning it." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sission one said, "I enjoin on you to do something that I do not do in the hope that Allaah will grant me the reward for it." (3)

Hadhrat Umar Forbids his Family from Something he Forbade the People from Doing and his Comment about Hishaam bin Hakeem

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was says that whenever Hadhrat Umar wintended forbidding the people from anything, he first approached his family saying, "Should I come to know of any of you perpetrating what I am forbidding the people from, I shall mete out double the punishment to him." (4)

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab reports that Hadhrat Hishaam bin Hakeem bin Hizaam and few men with him together engaged in enjoining good and forbidding evil. Hadhrat Umar with used to say, "Evil shall not take place as long as Hishaam and I are alive," (5)

The Advice Hadhrat Umayr bin Habeeb gave his Son

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far Khalmi reports that his grandfather Hadhrat Umayr bin Habeeb bin Khumaasha was a Sahabi who had been in the company of Rasululiaah was since the time he came of age. He once advised his son saying, "Dear son! Beware of the company of the foolish ones because keeping their company is a disease. The person who tolerates the foolish ones (without responding to their foolish statements) shall remain happy while the one who responds to them has regrets. Whoever cannot tolerate the little bother he gets from such people shall soon have to tolerate a whole lot more. The person who intends enjoining good and forbidding evil will have to get himself in the habit of exercising patience in the face of harm and will have to be convinced about the Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.279). 15n Abi Shaybah and Ibn Abi Dunya have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 140).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.141).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.140). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.213).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. (4)),

⁽⁵⁾ Maalik and (bn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.141) rewards from Allaah. Verily the person who is convinced about the rewards from Allaah shall never be harmed by the touch of harm." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakrah Fears Living in a Time when there is no enjoining good and forbidding evil

Hadhrat Abdul Azeez bin Abu Bakrah narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakrah married a woman from the Banu Ghudaanah who later passed away. As he carried her to the graveyard, her brothers prevented him from leading the Janaazah salaah. He however said to them, "Do not stand in my way because I am more worthy of leading the salaah than you are." "The companion of Rasulullaah se is right," they finally agreed. After he had performed the salaah and was going to enter the grave, some people pushed him so hard that he fell down and collapsed. When he was taken home, all twenty of his sons and daughters started screaming. Hadhrat Abdul Azeez says that he was one of the youngest children that day. When Hadhrat Abu Bakrah some regained consciousness, he said, "Do not scream and cry over me because I would not like the death of anyone more than that of Abu Bakrah." When the children had settled, they asked, "Why is that, dear father?" Hadhrat Abu Bakrah serplied, "I fear living in a time when I will be unable to enjoin good and forbid evil. There shall be no good in such a time." (2)

Hadhrat Anas (See and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (See Shun Preventing Hajjaaj from Evil Out of Fear for being Harmed

Hadhrat All bin Zaid reports that he was once with Hajjaaj in a castle as Hajjaaj was busy interrogating people about their links with Ibnul Ash'ath. Hadhrat Anas arrived there and when he drew close, Hajjaaj called out to him, "Come here, you wretch, you anarchist! You are sometimes siding with Ali bin Abi Taalib, sometimes with Ibn Zubayr and sometimes with Ibnul Ash'ath. I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I shall peel you just as glue is peeled off and skin you just as a lid is skinned!" Hadhrat Anas with remarked, "Who is the Ameer referring to? May Allaah rectify him." "It is you I am referring to," Hajjaaj snapped, "may Allaah make you dea?" Hadhrat Anas simply recited, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon" and then left. Thereafter, he said, "Had I not thought of my children and feared what Hajjaaj would do to them, I would have told him such things on the spot for which he would have no reply." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sie said, "I once heard Hajjaaj say something in his lecture that I did not like. However, when I intended objecting to it, I recalled the words of Rasulullaah who said, 'It is not appropriate for a Mu'min to humiliate himself.' When I asked Rasulullaah who it was possible for a Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.266). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Kitaabuz Zuhd, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.30).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.280).

⁽³⁾ Tabtaani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.274) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Mu'min to humiliate himself, Rasulullaah (### replied, When he instigates such difficult conditions to come to himself that he is unable to bear.(1)

Keeping to Oneself

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar Goncerning Keeping to Oneself

Hadhrat Umar wiss once said, "In keeping to oneself, one finds an escape from mixing with bad company." (2) In another narration, Hadhrat Umar wisses stated, "Take your full share of keeping to yourself." (3)

Hadhrat Mu'aafaa bin Imraan reports that Hadhrat Umar Sussisionce passed by some people who were following a man who had been arrested for committing a crime. Hadhrat Umar Sussisions said, "There is no welcome for faces that are seen only on occasions of evil." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood About keeping to oneself and his Advice to his Son and to another Person

Hadhrat Adasah Taa'ee reports, "I was in Sarif when Hadhrat Abdullaah (bin Mas'ood) which arrived there and my family sent me to him with a few things (as gifts). It so happened that a few of our slaves who tended to the camels brought a bird from a place to which it took four days to travel. When they sent the bird to Hadhrat Abdullaah who had he asked from where it had been brought. I replied, 'A few of our slaves who tend to the camels brought the bird from a place which lies four days away.' He then remarked, 'I wish that I was at that place where I need not speak to anyone about anything and no one would speak to me either until the day I meet Allaah." (5)

Hadhrat Qaasim narrates that a man once came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Mass) asking for advice. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Mass) advised him saying, "Let your home accommodate you (stay indoors), restrain your tongue and weep at the though of your sins." (6)

Hadhrat Ismaa'eel bin Abu Khaalid narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood sawe three advices to his son Abu Ubaydah, when he said. "Dear son! I advise you to adopt Taqwa, to have your house accommodate you (stay indoors) and to weep over your sins." (7)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg. 274).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad in his Zuhd and Ibn Abi Dunya in his Azlah.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Ibn Hibbaan in his Rowdah and Askari in his Mawaa'idh, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.159). Ibn Mubaarak has reported a similar narration in his Raqaa'iq, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.11 Pg.262).

⁽⁴⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.159).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.304) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Asaakir has reported a similar narration in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.159).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.135).

⁽⁷⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.299).

Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Hadhrat Abu Jahm (Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Hadhrat Abu Dardaa)) all Encourage Keeping to Oneself

Hadhrat Hudhayfah Sissis once said, "I wish I had someone to manage my finances so that I could lock my door and neither have anyone come to meet me nor go out to meet anyone until the day I meet Allaah." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said, "Had it not been for the evil whisperings (of Shaytaan), I would go to a place where I have no friends (so that I could spend my time in solitude). It is only people who corrupt people." (2) Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed says that Hadhrat Abu Jahm bin Haarith bin Simma was a person who did not associate with his fellow Ansaar. When this solitude was mentioned to him, he remarked, "People are worse than solitude "(3)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Exam said, "The best monastery for a Muslim is his home where he is able to keep his carnal self his eyes and his private organs under control. Beware of the gatherings in the marketplaces because they involve a person in negligence and futile activities." (4)

The Solitude of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr who once passed by Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal who was standing by his door and pointing with his fingers as if speaking to himself. "What is the matter, O Abu Abdur Rahmaan?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr was asked, "Why are talking to yourself:" Hadhrat Mu'aadh was replied, "What else can I do? That enemy of Allaah (Shaytaan) is trying to divert me from what I heard Rasulullaah was say. He (Shaytaan) says, "Why do you distress yourself by remaining at home all the time? Why do you rather not join the gatherings of people? I have heard Rasulullaah was say that the person who goes out in the path of Allaah is in the guardianship of Allaah, the person who visits the ill is in the guardianship of Allaah, the person who goes morning or evening to the Masjid is in the guardianship of Allaah, the person who goes out to assist the (just) Muslim ruler is in the guardianship of Allaah and the person who stays at home without backbiting about anyone is in the guardianship of Allaah.' This enemy of Allaah wishes to take me out of my house to sit in the various gatherings of people." (5)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.159). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.278).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 159).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.159).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.159).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, Bazzaar and Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.304) has continented on Ahmad's chain of narrators.

Contentment

Hadhrat Umar Elicourages Contentment

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ubayd narrates that when Hadhrat Umar some once saw Hadhrat Ahnaf some wearing a (new) upper garment, he asked, "O Ahnaf! What did you pay for this garment?" "I bought it for twelve Dirhams," Hadhrat Ahnaf some replied. "Shame on you!" Hadhrat Umar some exclaimed, "Couldn't you buy one for six Dirhams and use the balance in something (some good cause) that you know of?" (1)

Hadhrat Hasan Basri reports that in a letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari word, "Be content with whatever sustenance you receive in this world because the simple fact is that Ar Rahmaan gives some people more sustenance than others. In fact, each person is tested in this manner. Allaah tests those whom He gives in abundance to see whether they are grateful. Their gratitude to Allaah is expressed by their fulfilling the binding duties connected to the wealth Allaah has blessed them with." (2)

The Contentment of Hadhrat Ali signs and the Advice that he and Hadhrat Sa'd signs gave in this Regard Hadhrat Abu Ja'far narrates that Hadhrat Ali (1996) once ate some dry dates, drank some water and then placed his hand on his belly saying, "May Allaah distance (from His mercy) the person whose stomach gets him admitted into Jahannam." He then recited a couplet (which means):

"Whenever you give your stomach and genitals whatever they ask for They will both attain only the heights of regret" (3)

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (O) son of Aadam (O) son of Aadam (O) where bring the worry of the approaching day before the worry of the present day (by worrying about what you are to eat the following day) because if you are not destined to die (tomorrow), your sustenance will definitely be coming to you. You should also remember that when you accumulate wealth that is more than your basic necessities, you are actually acting as treasurer for someone else (who will soon be taking possession of it)." (4)

Hadhrat Sa'd (bin Abi Waqqaas) (Sie once advised, "Dear son! When you seek to be independent, do so with contentment because when a person is not content, his wealth will never make him independent (because he will never have enough)." (5)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 161).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 161).

⁽³⁾ askarı, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.161).

⁽⁴⁾ Deenowri, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 161).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg. 161).

The Marriages of Rasulullaah A and the Sahabah A

It was Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah or another Sahabi who reported that (as a youngster before announcing his Nabuwaat) Nabi grazed goats but later gave it up when he and a partner of his started (a rental business) with camels. They once rented some camels to the sister of Hadhrat Khadeeja was and when the journey had been completed, she still owed them some money. When Rasulullaah so partner started going to her to collect the money, he asked Rasulullaah for to accompany him. "You go ahead," Rasulullaah would tell him, "because I feel too shy." When the partner one day went to her, she asked, "Where is Muhammad?" the partner explained that whenever he asked Rasulullaah to accompany him, Rasulullaah would say that he is too shy. She remarked, "I have never seen a man more modest than he, more chaste than him..." She then continued to enumerate the excellent qualities of Rasulullaah causing (her sister) Hadhrat Khadeeja to fall in love with Rasulullaah Hadhrat Khadeeja Gommunicated a message to Rasulullaah saying, "Gotomyfatherandproposeformyhandin marriage." Rasulullaah communicated a message back saying, "Your father is a very wealthy man and will not accept (a proposal from a poor man such as 1)." She however persisted saying, "Go meet him and speak to him. I shall arrange matters further. Go see him when he is drunk." Rasulullaah did did as she directed and when he approached her father, the father got him married. The following morning when her father attended a gathering, someone remarked, "You have done well to get Muhammad married (to your daughter)." "I did such a thing?" he asked in surprise. When the people confirmed that he did, he got up and went to Hadhrat Khadeeja Gome "The people tell me that I got Muhammad married (to you)," he said. "Indeed," she replied, "you need never regret your decision because Muhammad is ..." she then started enumerating the great virtues of Rasulullaah says on much that he was happy (with the marriage).

Hadhrat Khadeeja later sent two Awqiya of silver or gold to Rasulullaah telling him to use it to purchase a set of clothing to give her as a gift as well as a sheep and some other items (with which to host a meal). Rasulullaah die did as she told." (1) Another narration substitutes the words "Go see him when he is drunk" with the words "Go see him (my father) without duress (on either party)". The narration states that Hadhrat Khadeeja look told Rasulullaah to buy the clothing and give it as a gift to her father. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani and Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.222) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Rasulullaah force mentioned how the father of Hadhrat Khadeeja was reluctant to marry her to Rasulullaah for She however prepared a meal and invited her father along with several members of the Quraysh who ate and drank until they were drunk. It was then that she said to him, "Muhammad bin Abdullaah has proposed to marry me. Do marry me to him." When he got her married, she applied Khalooq (a type of fragrance) to him and gave him a set of clothing to wear, in keeping with the custom of their forefathers. When he became sober and noticed the Khalooq and clothing, he exclaimed, "What has happened to me? What is this?" When Hadhrat Khadeeja for informed him that he had married her to Muhammad for Din Abdullaah, he cried out, "Did I get Abu Taalib's orphan married?! By my life! This can never be!" "Have you no shame?" Hadhrat Khadeeja fremarked, "Do you wish to make yourself look like a fool in front of the Quraysh who will inform the people that you were drunk?" She then continued convincing him until he was happy (with the marriage). (1)

Hadhrat Nafeesah (1996) reports, "Hadhrat Khadeeja bint Khuwaylid (1996) was an extremely wise, strong and noble woman. She was all of this together with the honour and good that Allaah had in store for her. During her time, she was noted as a woman of highest birth who was the most respected and also the wealthiest amongst the Ouraysh. Every man of her people desired to marry her if he got the opportunity to do so. In fact, many had asked for her hand in marriage and had spent large sums of money in their quest. When Muhammad come one day returned with her caravan from a journey to Shaam, Hadhrat Khadeeja sent me to him to extract some information, 'O Muhammad (##: I said, 'What prevents you from getting married?' 'I have no money at hand with which to marry," he replied. I went further and asked, 'What if your expenses were taken care of and you were asked to marry a beautiful, wealthy and respectable woman who was perfectly suited to you? Would you accept the offer?' 'Who is she?' he enquired. When I told him that she was Khadeeja @ he remarked. How is it possible for me (when she is so wealthy and I a pauper)?" 'That is my responsibility," I assured him. 'Then I am prepared,' he confirmed.

When I reported back to her, she sent him a message informing him exactly when to arrive (for the ceremony). She then sent for her uncle Amr bin Asad to get her married. Just after Amr had arrived, Rasulullaah also arrived with several of his uncles and it was one of them who conducted the marriage ceremony. Amr bin Asad remarked, 'He is a partner that can never be turned down.' At the time of this marriage, Rasulullaah was twenty-five years old while Khadeeja was forty. She was born fifteen years before the Year of the Elephant." (2)

Rasulullaah Ses Marriage to Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966) reports that when Hadhrat Khadeeja (1966) passed (1) Ahmad and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (vol. 9 Pg. 220). (2) Ibn Sa'd (vol. 1 Pg. 131).

away, Rasulullaah was still living in Makkah. It was then that Hadhrat Khowla bint Hakeem bin Awqas was the wife of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon suggested, "O Rasulullaah sel Are you not interested in getting married?" "To whom?" Rasulullaah saked. She replied, "A virgin if you wish or a previously married woman if you wish." "Who is the virgin?" Rasulullaah saked. Hadhrat Khowlah sel replied, "She is the daughter of the person you like best, Aa'isha the daughter of Abu Bakr sels." "And who is the previously married woman?" Rasulullaah saked. "She is Saudah bint Zam'ah sels," came the reply, "she has believed in you (as Allaah's Rasul) and follows you in your Deen." Rasulullaah sels then said to her, "Go and mention my name to them."

Hadhrat Khowlah went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr shouse where she found Hadhrat Ummu Roomaan," she said, "What tremendous goodness and blessings is Allaah about to shower on your family! Rasulullaah has sent me to propose for Aa'isha's hand in marriage." Hadhrat Ummu Roomaan said, "I would love it, but let us wait for Abu Bakr who is soon to arrive." When he came, Hadhrat Khowlah said to him, "What tremendous goodness and blessings is Allaah about to shower on your family! Rasulullaah has sent me to propose for Aa'isha's hand in marriage." Hadhrat Abu Bakr sha sent me to propose for Aa'isha's hand in marriage." Hadhrat Abu Bakr sha saked, "Is she suitable for him? She is the daughter of his brother."

Hadhrat Khowlah (1) reported back to Rasulullaah (1) the doubt that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2) expressed. Rasulullaah (2) said, "Go back and tell him that he is my brother in Islaam and that I am his brother in Islaam (not by blood). His daughter is therefore suitable for me." When she conveyed the message to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2), he said, "Call Rasulullaah (2) here." Rasulullaah (3) then came and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (3) got Hadhrat Aa'isha (3) married to him. (1)

Another narration states at the end that Rasulullaah told Hadhrat Khowlah Good and tell him that I am his brother in Islaam (not by blood) and that he is my brother in Islaam. His daughter is therefore suitable for me." When Hadhrat Khowlah Good and that he is my brother in Islaam. His daughter is therefore suitable for me." When Hadhrat Khowlah Good and the returned with the message, Hadhrat Abu Bakr Good says that Mut'im bin Adi had requested the hand of Hadhrat Aa'isha Good for his son Jubayr and Hadhrat Abu Bakr Good had promised it to him. Because Hadhrat Abu Bakr Good had promised it to him. With Mut'im at the time was his wife who was the mother of the boy in question (Jubayr). She however spoke to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Good hadhrat Abu Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Similer) asked Mut'im, "What have you to say about this girl (my daughter? Are you still interested in getting your son married to her)?"

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg 225) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Mut'im however turned to his wife saying, "What have you to say?" She turned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "It seems that if we marry the boy to her, you will make him irreligious and enter him into the religion you follow." Hadhrat Abu Bakr again turned to Mut'im and asked, "What have you to say?" Mut'im replied, "You have heard what she has to say (I stand by that)." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then left them. Allaah had removed from his heart the worry for the promise he had made. He then said to Hadhrat Khowla for "Call Rasulullaah for here." She then called Rasulullaah for married to him. Hadhrat Ad'isha for was then six years old.

Hadhrat Khowla She said to Hadhrat Sauda She said to Hadhrat Sauda She said to Hadhrat Sauda She said to Hadhrat Sauda She said to Hadhrat Sauda She said to Hadhrat Sauda She said to Hadhrat Sauda She said to Hadhrat Sauda She said to Shower on you!" "What is it?" Hadhrat Sauda She saked. "Rasulullaah She has sent me to propose for your hand in marriage." "I would love to marry him. Go and tell my father about it." Her father was an extremely old man who was unable to even perform Hajj. Hadhrat Khowla She went to him and greeted him with the greeting of the Period of Ignorance. "Who is there?" he asked. "Khowla bint Hakeem," she replied. When he asked her why she had come, she replied. "Muhammad She hin Abdullaah has sent me to propose for Sauda's hand in marriage." "What has she to say?" the old man asked. "She would very much like to marry him," Hadhrat Khowla She replied. The old man then asked her to call for Rasulullaah She and when he arrived he married her to Rasulullaah

When Hadhrat Sauda (out of remorse). However, after he had accepted Islaam, he remarked, "By my life! I was a real fool the day I threw sand on my head because Rasulullaah (as married Sauda bint Zam'ah."

Hadhrat Aa'isha lease relates further, "When we arrived in Madinah, we stayed in Sunh with the Banu Haarith bin Khazraj tribe. When Rasulullaah less came to our house one day, my mother came to me as I was swinging on a swing suspended between two palm branches. She took me off the swing and neatened my hair which was very short. She then wiped my face with some water and led me to the door. I was out of breath by then and stood there until my breathing had returned to normal.

My mother then took me into the room where Rasulullaah we was sitting on a seat with several men and women of the Ansaar. My mother closed the door behind me and said. This is now your family. May Allaah bless you with them and bless them with you." All the men and women then stood up and left. It was then in our house that the marriage was consummated. Neither was any camel nor any goat slaughtered for my marriage until Sa'd bin Ubaadah sent a platter of food which he usually sent to Rasulullaah we whenever he was with any of his wives. I was then seven years old (however, several more authentic narrations confirm that Hadhrat Aa'isha was then nine years old)." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.227) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Rasulullaah ses s Marriage to Hadhrat Hafsah the daughter of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar I narrates that Hadhrat Halsah I hecame a widow when her husband Hadhrat Khunays bin Hudhaafah Sahmi I haw was a veteran of the Battle of Badr, passed away in Madinah. When this happened, Hadhrat Umar I hadhrat Uthmaan I hadhrat Uthmaan I hadhrat Uthmaan I shall think about it," Hadhrat Uthmaan I hadhrat Uth

Hadhrat Umar Sass himself narrates further. He says, "I then approached Abu Bakr Sasying, 'If you agree, I can get you married to (my daughter) Hafsah.' He however remained silent. This made me angrier than I had been with Uthmaan Sass but it was only a few days later that Rasulullaah proposed for her hand in marriage. After I had married her to Rasulullaah sass, Abu Bakr met me and said, 'You were perhaps very angry with me when I failed to give you a reply the day you proposed that I marry Hafsah?' I certainly was,' I replied. He then explained, 'The only thing that prevented me from getting back to you was that I knew Rasulullaah sass had spoken about (proposing for) her and I could not divulge Rasulullaah sass secret. I would have accepted the proposal had Rasulullaah sass left her."(1)

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Umar complained to Rasulullaah about Hadhrat Uthmaan (not accepting the proposal), Rasulullaah remarked, "Hafsah shall be married to someone better than Uthmaan and Uthmaan shall be married to someone better than Hafsah." Rasulullaah as later got Hadhrat Uthmaan shall be married to his daughter (and himself married Hadhrat Hafsah (2)).

Rasulallaah ses s Marriage to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah bint Abu Umayyah

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah reports that when her Iddah had expired, Hadhrat Abu Bakr reports that when her Iddah had expired, Hadhrat Abu Bakr reposed for her hand in marriage but she did not marry him. When Rasulullaah research someone to extend his proposal of marriage, she said, "Do inform Rasulullaah that I am a woman who is extremely possessive, that I have children and that none of my guardians are present." (When the message reached him) Rasulullaah research, "Tell her, 'As for your statement that you are extremely possessive, I shall pray to Allaah to dispel it. As for your statement that you have children, they shall be well taken care of and as for your statement that you have no guardians present, none of them who are either present or absent shall object to this." (When the message reached her) Hadhrat Ummu Salamah researched her son Umar researched her) Hadhrat Ummu Salamah researched her son Umar researched her) saying, "Get up and get Rasulullaah A married." He then got Rasulullaah A married (to his mother). (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Jam'ul Pawaa'id (Vol. 1 Pg.214).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Bayhaqi, Abu Ya'la and Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. (20).

When Hadhrat Ummu Salamah was arrived in Madinah and told the people that she was the daughter of Abu Umayyah bin Mughiera, they refused to believe her. When some of them were leaving for Hajj, they asked her if she wanted to write to her family (in Makkah). She sent a letter with them (by which they managed to confirm who she was) and when they returned, they believed her. This then increased her status amongst them. After she had given birth to her daughter Zaynab (signalling the expiry of her Iddah), Rasulullaah proposed for her hand in marriage. She said, "Can a woman such as I be married? I am unable to bear children (because of my age), am extremely possessive and have children of my own." Rasulullaah replied, "I am elder than you, Allaah shall remove your extreme possessiveness and your children shall be the responsibility of Allaah and His Rasool Rasulullaah Akher is Zaynab?" This continued until one day Hadhrat Ammaar (bin Yaasir) took the child away saying, "She (her presence) is preventing Rasulullaah Akher is room his needs (with his new bride)." During that period, Hadhrat Ummu Salamah Akher is Zaynab?", Hadhrat Ummu Salamah Akher is Zaynab?", Hadhrat Qareenah bint Abu Umayyah Akher is Hadhrat Ummu Salamah Akher is Sister) who happened to be there, informed him that Hadhrat Ammaar Akher is had taken her away (so that Rasulullaah Akher is Could have some privacy). Rasulullaah Akher is that he would see her that night.

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (beside then put down her leather spread (beneath her grindstone for the dirt to fall upon) and took out some barley grains from her earthen pot. (After grinding the barley) She then mixed the barley with some fat to make a type of porridge for Rasulullaah (beside) to eat. After Rasulullaah (beside) had spent the night with her, he said. "You certainly deserve the respect of your family. If you wish, I could spend seven nights with you, but then I would have to do the same for all my other wives."

Rasulullaah ses s Marriage to Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah ses the Daughter of Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Ismaa'eel bin Amr reports that Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah bint Abu Sufyaan was said, "What I remember well about the time I was in Abyssinia was the arrival of Najaashi's (the king's) messenger. She was a lady called Abraha and was in charge of the king's clothing and oils. She sought permission to enter and when I allowed her in, she said, 'The king says, 'Rasulullaah was has written to me to get you married to him.' I replied by saying, "You have given me most excellent news (I accept).' She then said, 'The king asks you to appoint someone to hand you over in marriage.' I sent for Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas and appointed him for the task. Thereafter, out of joy for the news she had brought me, I gave Abraha two silver bangles, two silver anklets and every silver toe ring I was wearing."

⁽¹⁾ Nasa'ee, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.459) and Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.214).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.117). Nasa'ee has also reported the narration from reliable sources, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.459). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.93) has also reported the narration.

That evening, Najaashi was invited Ja'far bin Abi Taalib and all the other Muslims who were there. Najaashi with then delivered a lecture saying, "All praise is due to Allaah The Supreme King, The Most Pure, The Giver of Peace, The Mighty and Most Powerful. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad & is His Rasul, His Rasul and the one about whose arrival Isa bin Maryam selle had given the glad tidings. I wish to tell you that Rasulullaah Will has asked me to marry him to Ummu Habeebah the daughter of Abu Sufvaan, I have complied with his wish and am giving her a dowry of four hundred gold coins." He then poured out the coins in front of the people. Thereafter, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed (spoke, He said, "All praise belongs to Allaah. It is He that I praise and from Him do I seek forgiveness. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is the servant and Rasul of Allaah whom Allaah has sent with guidance and the true Deen that shall overcome all other religions even though the Mushrikeen detest it. I wish to say that I also comply with the wish of Rasulullaah and hand over Ummu Habeebah bint Abu Sufyaan to him in marriage. May Allaah bless Rasulullaah 经等。" Najaashi (in then handed over the coins to Hadhrat Khaalid (in the Muslims then started to leave, Najaashi (in said to them, "Do remain seated. It has been the practice of the Ambiyaa host a meal on the occasion of a marriage. He then sent for the food and the Muslims ate before leaving. (1)

Hadhrat Ismaa'eel bin Amr bin Saa'eed bin Al Aas reports that Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah bint Abu Sufyaan said, "I saw my husband Ubaydullaah bin Jahash in a dream looking most horrible and hideous. I awoke with a fright and said, 'By Allaah! His condition must have changed.' That morning he surprised me by saying, 'O Ummu Habeebah! I have thought about religion and see no religion better than Christianity. I had been a Christian before entering the religion of Muhammad. I have now reverted to Christianity.' 'By Allaah!' I exclaimed, 'There is no good for you in this.' When I informed him about my dream, he simply ignored it and then got hooked on wine until he died."

Continuing her narration, Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah says, "I then saw someone in a dream addressing me with the title of 'Ummul Mu'mineen'. I awoke with a start and interpreted the dream to mean that Rasulullaah som marry me. As soon as my Iddah had expired, I well recall when the messenger of Najaashi some to me..." The rest of the narration is like the one above.

⁽I) Zubayr bin Bakkaar, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.143).

The narration however adds at the end that Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah said, "After the Muslims had eaten and left and the money came to me, I sent for Abraha who had brought me the good news. I said to her, I gave you what I did that day only because I had no money then. Here are fifty gold coins. Please take it and use it for yourself.' She however produced a box containing everything I had given her. Returning it to me, she said, 'The king made me promise that I shall not take anything from you as long as I am in charge of his clothing and oils. I am also a follower of the Deen of Rasulullaah and have submitted to Allaah. The king has already instructed his wives to send to you all the perfumes they have in their possession.' The next morning, she brought me plenty of fragrances such as Ood, Waras, Amber and Zabaad. I brought back all of this to Rasulullaah and although he saw it with me and saw me wearing it, he never objected.

Abraha then said to me, 'My only request to you is that you convey my Salaams to Rasulullaah and that you inform him that I have become a follower of his Deen. She treated me very kindly and even helped me prepare for the journey. Whenever she came to me, she would say, 'Do not forget my request.' When I got to Rasulullaah as and informed him about the proposal and the behaviour of Abraha was,' he merely smiled and when I conveyed her Salaams to him, he replied by saying:

"وَعَلَيْهَا السَّلَامُ وَرَحْمَهُ اللَّهِ وَ بَرَكَاتُهُ"

'May Allaah's peace, mercy and blessings be on her. (1)

Rasulullaah 🕮 s Marriage to Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash 🕮 🍎

Hadhrat Anas reports that when the Iddah of Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash had expired, Rasulullaah told Hadhrat Zaid to ask her if she would marry him. When Hadhrat Zaid was saw her as she was kneading dough, her status soared so much in his heart because Rasulullaah was wanted to marry her and that he was unable to even look at her. He therefore turned on his heels and facing his back to her, he said, "O Zaynab! Glad tidings to you! Rasulullaah has sent me to propose for your hand in marriage." Hadhrat Zaynab was replied by saying, "I am unable to do anything until I consult with my Rabb." She then stood at the place where she performed her salaah (and engaged in salaah). It was then that Allaah revealed some verses of the Qur'aan (in which Allaah says, "We married her (Zaynab) to you (O Rasulullaah was then went to Hadhrat Zaynab without needing to seek permission.

Hadhrat Anas Sass says further, "I was also there when Rasulullaah sass went to Hadhrat Zaynab sass and fed us bread and meat to celebrate the occasion. While some people (ate and) left, others remained behind in the room to talk after eating. Rasulullaah see left the room and I followed him. He then visited the rooms of all his wives to greet them and they all asked him how he found his new bride. I cannot remember if it was I or someone else who informed Rasulullaah see that the guests had all left, upon which he went back (to Hadhrat Zaynab sees 's room). As I was about to enter with Rasulullaah see, he drew a curtain between himself and I because the verses of Hijaab had just been revealed. Also revealed was the verse teaching etiquette to the people, which states:

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.20). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.97) has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Surah Ahzaab, verse 37.

﴿ لِلْأَيُّهُا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوْا لاَ تَدْخُلُوا بَيُوْتَ النَّبِي إِلَّا أَنْ يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ عَيْرَ نظوِينَ النَّهُ لاَ وَلاَكُمْ اللَّهُ وَلاَكُمْ لِحَدِيْثِ * إِنَّ الْنَهُ لاَ وَلاَكُمْ اللَّهُ وَلَا مُسْتَأْنِسِيْنَ لِحَدِيْثٍ * وَإِذَا طَهِمْتُمْ وَالْتَهُ لاَ يَسْتَخْي مِنَ الْحَقِّ * وَإِذَا ذَلِكُمْ لَا يَسْتَخْي مِنَ الْحَقِّ * وَإِذَا مَالْتُمُوْمُنَّ مَنَاعًا فَسْتَلُومُنَّ مِنْ وَرَاءً حِجَابٍ * ذَلِكُمْ اَطْهَرُ لِقُلُوبِكُمْ وَقُلُوبِينَ * وَمَا كَانَ لَكُمْ اَنْ تُؤْدُوا رَسُولُ اللهِ وَلا اَنْ تَنْكِحُواْ اَزُواجَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِمْ آبَدًا * إِنَّ ذَلِكُمْ كَانَ عَنْكُولُكُمْ كَانَ عَنْكُولُكُمْ أَنْ تَنْكِحُواْ اَزُواجَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِمْ آبَدًا * إِنَّ ذَلِكُمْ كَانَ عَنْكُولُكُمْ كَانَ عَنْكُمْ اللهُ عَظَيْمًا اللهِ وَلا اَنْ تَنْكِحُوْا اَزُواجَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِمْ آبَدًا * إِنَّ ذَلِكُمْ كَانَ عَنْكُولُكُمْ عَلَى اللّهُ عَظَيْمًا اللهِ عَلَى اللّهُ عَلَيْمُ اللهُ عَظَيْمًا اللهُ عَلَيْهُ اللّهُ اللهُ عَظَيْمًا اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ
O you who have Imaan! Enter the rooms of the Nabi W only when you are permitted to do so (invited) to partake of a meal. Then too, do not wait for it (the meal) to be prepared (by arriving too early or without invitation), but enter when (the meal is done and) you are called (to eat) and disperse (depart) once you have eaten without (remaining behind and) enjoying a (lengthy) conversation. Indeed this (arriving too early and remaining behind afterwards) hurts the Nabi EEE, but he is shy for you the does not tell you lest you feel offended). (However,) Allaah does not shy away from the truth (and makes it clear to all without exception). When you ask them (Rasulullaah Was 's wives) for anything, then ask them from behind a curtain (without seeing them). This is purer for your hearts and for their hearts (for it safeguards you from evil thoughts and desires). It is not (permissible) for you (Mu'mineen) to hurt the Nabi (in any way), nor to ever marry his wives after him (after he passes away). Verily this (hurting Rasulullaah and marrying his wives after his demise) is grave in the sight of your Rabb. (Surah Ahzaab, verse 53) (1)

In another narration, Hadhrat Anas (15%) states, "To celebrate his marriage to Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash (15%), Rasulullaah (15%) hosted a meal of bread and meat. I was sent to invite the people to the meal and as they arrived, they ate and then left. When I could find no one more to invite, I submitted, 'O Nabi of Allaah (15%) I cannot find anyone else to invite. Rasulullaah (15%) then gave the instruction for the food to be taken away but there were still three people who stayed behind to talk. Rasulullaah (15%) therefore left the room and went to the room of Hadhrat Aa'isha Wies. When he greeted her with the words:

⁽I) Ahmad, Muslim and Nasa'ee

she replied by saying:

She then asked, 'How did you find your wife? May Allaah bless you,' Rasulullaah then went to each of his wives' rooms in turn. As he greeting them as he greeted Hadhrat Aa'isha they said to him what Hadhrat Aa'isha had said. When Rasulullaah freturned to the room (of Hadhrat Zaynab Rasulullaah was extremely bashful, (rather than telling them to leave) he again walked off towards the room of Hadhrat Aa'isha returned to the room of Hadhrat them to leave) he again walked off towards the room of Hadhrat Aa'isha returned and his one foot was still on the threshold and the other outside when he dropped the curtain between himself and I and the verse of Hijaab was revealed."

Hadhrat Anas also reports that after Rasulullaah had consummated his marriage to one of his wives, Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym (Hadhrat Anas Sies) some Hais (2), placed it in a dish and instructed (Hadhrat Anas Sies) saying, "Take this to Rasulullaah had and inform him that it is a little something from us." This occurred during times when the Sahabah work were suffering great poverty and hardship. When Hadhrat Anas took it to Rasulullaah has has sent this to you. She conveys Salaams to you with the message that this is a little something from us."

Rasulullaah (See looked at the food and instructed Hadhrat Anas (See to place it in the corner of the room. Thereafter, he named a large number of people and told Hadhrat Anas (See to invite them all. In addition to those people. Rasulullaah (See also told Hadhrat Anas (See to invite every other Muslim he met. Hadhrat Anas (See to invite the named persons as well as everyone else he met. When he returned, the room, the platform and the courtyard was full of people. When one of the narrators asked Hadhrat Anas (See to how many people there were, he said that they were approximately three hundred.

Rasulullaah if then asked Hadhrat Anas it to bring the food and when he did, Rasulullaah if placed his hand on it, made du'aa and said a few other things. Thereafter, Rasulullaah if said, "Let them sit in circles of ten, recite 'Bismillaah' and then every person should eat what is in front of him." The people then started by reciting 'Bismillaah' and ate (in turns) until all of them had eaten (to their fill). Hadhrat Anas is says, "Rasulullaah if then told me to pick up the dish and when I did so and looked at it, I could not tell whether it was more when I put it down or when I picked it up."

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaar

⁽²⁾ A sweet dish prepared with dates, butter and flour.

However, some of the men remained sitting and talking in Rasulullaah from while Rasulullaah from the street wall. When they prolonged their discussion, it became very inconvenient for Rasulullaah for the was an extremely bashful person (and could not rell them to leave). Had they known about this (the inconvenience they were causing), it would have been difficult for them (to continue) sitting. Rasulullaah for got up and went to greet all his other wives. When the men saw him return, it was only then that it occurred to them that they were causing him inconvenience. They then hastened to the door and left. Rasulullaah entered the room and drew the curtain closed, leaving Hadhrat Ar.as in the courtyard. In the little while that Rasulullaah was in the room, Allaah revealed some verses of the Qur'aan and as he emerged from the room, he was reciting the verses:

﴿ إِنَّاتُهَا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوا لاَ تَذْخُلُوا لَيُوْتَ النَّبِي إِلَّا آنَ يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامِ عَيْرَ نظِيرِيْنَ اللهُ * وَلَكِنُ إِلَّى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ * وَلَكِنُ إِلَى اللهُ * وَلَكِنُ إِلَّا اللهِ عَلَى اللهُ * وَلَكِنُ إِلَّا اللهُ وَلَكُمْ كَانَتَشِرُوا وَلاَ مُسْتَأْنِسِيْنَ لِحَدِيْتٍ * إِنَّا ذَلِكُمْ كَانَ يُؤْذِي النَّبِيَ فَيَسْتَحْي مِنْ الْحَقِ * وَاللَّهُ لاَ يَسْتَحْي مِنَ الْحَقِ * وَإِذَا سَأَلْتُمُوهُمْ مَنَاعًا فَسْنَلُوهُمُّ مِنْ وَرَآءَ حِجَابٍ * ذَلِكُمْ اَطْهَرُ لِقُلُولِكُمْ وَقُلُولِهِنَ * وَمَا كَانَ لَكُمْ اللهِ وَلاَ آنَ وَتُحْوُلُوا أَزُواجَةً مِنْ بَعْدِمْ آبَدًا * إِنَّ ذَلِكُمْ كَانَ لَكُمْ اللهِ وَلاَ آنَ تَنْكِحُوْا أَزُواجَةً مِنْ بَعْدِمْ آبَدًا * إِنَّ ذَلِكُمْ كَانَ لَكُمْ اللهُ عَلَى اللهِ وَلاَ آنَ تَنْكِحُوْا أَزُواجَةً مِنْ بَعْدِمْ آبَدًا * إِنَّ ذَلِكُمْ كَانَ لَكُمْ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهِ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهِ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ عَلَى اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ (سوره احزاب: آیت ۵۳، ۵۶)

O you who have Imaan! Enter the rooms of the Nabi come only when you are permitted to do so (invited) to partake of a meal. Then too, do not wait for it (the meal) to be prepared (by arriving too early or without invitation), but enter when (the meal is done and) you are called (to eat) and disperse (depart) once you have eaten without (remaining behind and) enjoying a (lengthy) conversation. Indeed this (arriving too early and remaining behind afterwards) hurts the Nabi but he is shy for you the does not tell you lest you feel offended). (However,) Allaah does not shy away from the truth (and makes it clear to all without exception). When you ask them (Rasulullaah 22's wives) for anything, then ask them from behind a curtain (without seeing them). This is purer for your hearts and for their hearts (for it safeguards you from evil thoughts and desires). It is not (permissible) for you (Mu'mineen) to hurt the Nabi (in any way), nor to ever marry his wives after him (after he passes away). Verily this (hurting Rasulullaah & and marrying his wives after his demise) is grave in the sight of your Rabb. If you make something (such as an intention to marry of Rasulullaah see's wives after him) public or keep it secret, then (remember that) Allaah certainly has knowledge of everything (and will take you to task for it). {Surah Ahzaab, verses 53,54}

Hadhrat Anas Signes says, "Rasulullaah Rese recited these verses to me before anyone else, making me the first person to have the honour of hearing them." (1)

Rasulullaah ses s Marriage to Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay bin Akhtab

Hadhrat Anas reports that when the prisoners captured after the Battle of Khaybar were mustered together, Hadhrat Dihya approached Rasulullaah with a request. "O Rasulullaah in he said, "Give me a slave woman from the captives." "Go and take one," Rasulullaah said. Hadhrat Dihya proceeded to take Safiyya bint Huyay. Someone then came to Rasulullaah saying, "O Nabi of Allaah sie! You have given to Dihya Safiyya bint Huyay who is the leader of the Banu Qurayzah and Banu Nadheer tribes! She is suitable only for you." Rasulullaah sie then sent for her and when he saw her, he instructed Hadhrat Dihya sais to take another woman. Rasulullaah then set her free and married her. (2)

Hadhrat Anas in narrates that they marched to Khaybar and after conquering the fortress there, Rasulullaah was informed about Safiyya bint Huyay bin Akhtab. She was an extremely beautiful lady whose husband had been killed while she was still a new bride. Rasulullaah choose (to marry) her and (after leaving Khaybar) it was only when they reached the boundary of Sahbaa that she stopped menstruating. It was therefore only there that Rasulullaah was able to consummate the marriage. Rasulullaah the then had some Hais prepared and served on a leather tablecloth. Hadhrat Anas was then instructed to invite whoever was in the area (to partake of the food). This was the Waleemah meal for Rasulullaah she sam marriage to Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay he saw Rasulullaah was use a shawl to make a screen for her behind him. He would then kneel beside his camel and place his knee upright for her to step on as she mounted the camel. (4)

Hadhrat Anas Sies states, "Rasulullaah se camped at a place between Khaybar and Madinah for three days. It was here that he consummated his marriage to Saliyya ses, after which I invited the Muslims present there to a Waleemah meal that featured neither bread nor meat. All that it consisted of was Rasulullaah ses instruction to Bilaal ses to spread out a leather tablecloth. He then scattered some dates, cheese and butter onto it (which the people ate). Some of the Muslims asked, 'is she one of the Ummahaatul Mu'mineen (wives of Rasulullaah ses) or his slave woman?' Others replied, 'If Rasulullaah ses veils

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, Muslim, Nasa'ee, Tirmidhi, Bukhaari and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.146). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.5 Pg.104) has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood, Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽³⁾ A sweet dish prepared with dates, butter and flour.

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari.

her, she is one of the Ummahaatul Mu'mineen, otherwise she is his slave woman.' When the army started to leave, Rasulullaah says spread something behind him (for her to sit on) and then pulled a veil over." (1)

Hadhrat Jaabir reports, "When Safiyya bint Huyay bin Akhtab reports," when Safiyya bint Huyay bin Akhtab reports entered Rasulullaah ses tent (as his wife), many people including myself presented ourselves there to have a share (of the Waleemah food). When he emerged from the tent, Rasulullaah ses said, 'Leave your mother (my wife) alone' (they all therefore left). When we gathered at the time of Isha, Rasulullaah ses came out to us carrying in the edge of his shawl close to one and a half Mudd (2) of Ajwah dates. (Handing them over to us) Rasulullaah ses said, 'Eat from the Waleemah of your mother." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar specification narrates that because there were bluish marks around the eyes of Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay specification, Rasulullaah specification asked her the reason for it. She replied, "When I told my husband that in a dream I had seen the moon falling in my lap, he slapped me saying, 'Do you desire the king of Yathrib (Madinah)?"

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay mass narrates, "There was no one more loathsome in my eyes than Rasulullaah was who had killed both my father and husband. However, this feeling disappeared from my heart when Rasulullaah repeatedly clarified his position to me by telling me that my father had been responsible for instigating the Arabs against him and for numerous other felonies." (4)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Arabs against him and for humerous other telonies. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Arabs against him and for humerous other telonies. Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Arabs spent the night guarding the entrance. When he saw Rasulullaah Arabs the next morning, he was (still) carrying his sword and exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbarl O Rasulullaah (still) carrying his sword and exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbarl O Rasulullaah Hadhrat Abu Abarl O Rasulullaah (still) carrying his sword and exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbarl O Rasulullaah (still) carrying his sword and exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbarl O Rasulullaah (still) carrying his sword and you had her father, brother and husband killed, I did not trust her with you (It is for this reason that I have stood guard here all night)." Rasulullaah (still) laughed and praised Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (had she made any movement (to harm you), I would have been close by (to defend you)," (6) Hadhrat Ataa bin Yasaar narrates that when Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay arrived in Madinah, she stayed in a house belonging to Hadhrat Haaritha bin Nu'maan (When the women of the Ansaar heard about her, they came to see her celebrated beauty. Wearing her veil, Hadhrat Aa'isha (When the women to see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah (When the see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah (When the see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah (When the see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah (When the see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah (When the see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah (When the see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah (When the see her and as she was leaving, Rasulullaah (When the see her and as she was leaving).

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.196).

⁽²⁾ A unit of weight used by the Arabs during those times.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.251). thn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.142) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.251).

⁽⁵⁾ Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.28), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi, thin Asaakir has reported a similar narration in greater detail, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. (19).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.116).

"What have you seen, O Aa'isha?" "I have seen only a Jewess!" Hadhrat Aa'isha replied: "Do not say that," Rasulullaah warned, "She has accepted Islaam and is an excellent Muslim." (1)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that when Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Hadhrat

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Hadhrat

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Hadhrat

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Hadhrat

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Hadhrat

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Hadhrat

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Hadhrat

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Hadhrat

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay

Rasulullaah 's Marriage to Hadhrat Juwayriyya Bint Haarith Khuzaa'ee

Hadhrat Aa'isha happened to fall in the lot of Hadhrat Juwayriyyah bint Haarith happened to fall in the lot of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas happened to fall in the lot of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas happened to fall in the lot of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas happened to fall in the lot of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas happened to fall in the lot of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas happened to entered into a contract of Kitaabah (3) with him. She was an extremely pleasant and beautiful woman who attracted anyone who saw her. Hadhrat Aa'isha happened says, "She one day came to Rasulullaah to seek assistance with paying off her Kitaabah. By Allaah! I disliked her as soon as I saw her standing at the door of my room because I knew that Rasulullaah www. would also see in her what I saw. When she entered the room, she said, 'O Rasulullaah will I am Juwayriyyah the daughter of Haarith bin Abu Diraar the leader of his tribe. As you well know, a calamity has befallen me (when I was captured and taken as a slave). I fell to the lot of Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas and entered into a contract of Kitaabah with him. I have now come to seek your assistance to pay of the Kitaabah."

"Do you not want something better?" Rasulullaah saked. "What is that, O Rasulullaah saked. "What is that, O Rasulullaah saked. "That I should pay off your Kitaabah and then marry you." "Certainly, O Rasulullaah sake!" she replied, "I am most willing."

When the news reached the Sahabah that Rasulullaah had married Hadhrat Juwayriyyah they said, "They (the tribe of Hadhrat Juwayriyyah own) are now the in-laws of Rasulullaah so free those of them whom you own (as your slaves)." Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "It was therefore as a result of Rasulullaah so rarriage to Juwayriyyah that a hundred families of the Banu Mustaliq tribe were set free. I do not know of any woman who was a greater blessing for her tribe than Juwayriyyah says." (4)

Hadhrat Urwa (1966) reports that Hadhrat Juwayriyyah bint Haarith (1966) said, "Three days before the arrival of Rasulullaah (1966) I dreamt that the moon came

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd.

⁽²⁾ Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.347).

⁽³⁾ A contract between slave and master by which the slave has to gradually pay the master a certain sum of money to secure freedom.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.159), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.116) has reported a similar narration in which he names Safwaan bin Maalik as the former husband of Hadhrat Juwayriyyah (2006). Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.26) has also reported the narration.

from Yathrib and fell into my lap. I however did not want to tell anyone about this until Rasulullaah see actually arrived. When we were taken captive, the dream gave me hope and Rasulullaah see eventually set me free and married me. By Allaah! I never spoke to Rasulullaah see about (freeing) the people of my tribe until the Muslims freed them by themselves. In fact, I only found out about it when one of my cousins informed me about it. I then praised Allaah for it." (1)

Rasulullaah 🕮 s Marriage to Hadhrat Maymoonah bint Haarith Hilaaliyyah 🐯

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab narrates that it was the year after signing the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah that Rasulullaah see left to perform Umrah. This occurred seven years after the Hijrah during the month of Dhul Qa'dah, which was the same month in which the Mushrikeen had prevented Rasulullaah from entering the Masjidul Haraam (the previous year). When he reached a place called Ya'jij, Rasulullaah see sent Hadhrat Ja'lar bin Abu Taalib sees to propose on his behalf for the hand of Hadhrat Maymoonah bint Haarith bin Hazan Aamiriyyah in marriage. Hadhrat Maymoonah sees handed over her affairs to Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib sees who was married to her sister Ummu Fadhl sees. Hadhrat Abbaas sees then handed her over in marriage to Rasulullaah sees arrived there and the marriage was consummated. Allaah had decreed that Hadhrat Maymoonah should pass away at the same place where her marriage to Rasulullaah sees was consummated. (2)

Another narration states that after marrying Hadhrat Maymoonah bint Haarith Rasulullaah stayed in Makkah for three days. On the third day, Huwaytib bin Abdul Uzza came to Rasulullaah with a few men of the Quraysh and said, "Your stay has expired, so leave us." Rasulullaah said said to them, "What harm will it do to you if you leave me to consummate my marriage in your midst, after which I shall host a meal which you all can attend?" "We have no need for you food," they snapped, "do leave us." Rasulullaah said therefore left for Madinah with Hadhrat Maymoonah said and consummated his marriage at Sarif. (3)

Rasulullaah Ammaries his Daughter Hadhrat Faatima (1986) to Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib

Hadhrat Ali sie narrates, "When a marriage proposal for Faatima was sent to Rasulullaah se, a slave of mine asked. 'Do you know that a marriage proposal for Faatima see has been sent to Rasulullaah se?' When I declared that I did not know, she said, 'Well! She has already received a proposal.

Waaqidi, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.159). Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.27) has reported a similar parration.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.4 Pg, 30).

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.30), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

What stops you from approaching Rasulullaah (and requesting him) to marry her to you?' 'Do I have anything with which to marry her?' I said. She said, You only have to approach Rasulullaah was and he will marry her to you. By Allaah! She then continued giving me hope until I went to see Rasulullaah However, when I sat before Rasulullaah & I was unable to utter a word out of respect and awe for him. Rasulullaah was asked, What brings you here? Is there something you need?' When I remained silent, Rasulullaah said, 'Have you perhaps come to propose for Faatima?' 'Yes,' I managed to reply, 'Have you got anything to give as dowry?' Rasulullaah (2) asked, 'By Allaah!' I replied, 'I have nothing," What has happened to the suit of armour I gave you?" he asked, I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Ali that the armour was the type made by the Hatma bin Muhaarib tribe and was barely worth four (hundred) Dirhams. When I informed Rasulullaah (that I still had it with me, he said, 'Then I have handed her over in marriage to you so send it to her as dowry.' This was therefore the dowry of Faatima the daughter of Rasulullaah (1) Hadhrat Buraydah (Silvier) narrates that a group of the Ansaar once suggested to Hadhrat All that he propose for Hadhrat Faatima with s hand in marriage. (When he approached Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) "What does the son of Abu Taalib need?" "O Rasulullaah : "Hadhrat Ali replied, "I wish to propose for the hand of Faatima the daughter of Rasulullaah 🕮 "All Rasulullaah 🕮 said was, "Marhaban wa Ahlan." Hadhrat Ali then left and met with the group of Ansaar who had been waiting for him. When they asked him what had happened, he replied, "All I know is that Rasulullaah said, 'Marhaban wa Ahlan.'" They said, "Even one of two things. Rasulullaah Will gave you are sufficient. He gave you both Ahl (a family) as well as Marhab (a comfortable home)."

After handing Hadhrat Faatima (William) over in marriage, Rasulullaah (William) over in marriage, Rasulullaah (William) over in marriage, Rasulullaah (William) over in marriage, Rasulullaah (William) of Hadhrat Sa'd (William) offered a sheep he owned (for the meat) and the Ansaar collected a few Saa of wheat (for the bread). When the night of the consummation arrived, Rasulullaah (William) gave the couple instructions to do nothing until he arrived. (When he got there) Rasulullaah (William) asked for some water, performed wudhu and then sprinkled some of the water on to Hadhrat Ali (William) saying:

"O Allaah! Bless the two of them and bless them in their consummation." (2)

Another narration similar to the above, states that the du'aa Rasulullaah was:

"O Allaah! Bless the two of them and bless them in their two lion like sons." (3)

Bayhaqi in his Dalaa'ii, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.346). Dowlaabi has also reported the narration in his Dhurriyya Taahira, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.113).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.209).

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.209) has commented on the chain of narrators.

A third narration quotes the du'aa of Rasulullaah W as:

"O Allaah! Bless the two of them, shower Your blessings on them, bless them in their consummation and bless them in their progeny." (1)
Yet another narration states that Rasulullaah  added:

"وَبَارِكْ لَهُمَا فِي شَمْلِهِمَا"

"... and bless their communion." (2)

Hadhrat Asmaa bint Umays in arrates that after Hadhrat Faatima was married to Hadhrat Ali was, all that they saw in her house was a straw mat spread out on the ground, a pillow stuffed with the bark of a palm tree, an earthen jug and an earthen mug. (On the night of the marriage) Rasulullaah sent a message saying, "Do nothing" or "Do not get close to your wife until I come." When Rasulullaah arrived, he asked, "Is my brother here?" When Rasulullaah forged bonds of brotherhood between the Sahabah forged his brotherhood with Hadhrat Ali self, he forged his brotherhood with Hadhrat Ali self. Hadhrat Ummu Ayman self, he forged his brotherhood with Hadhrat Ali self. He hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid saked in surprise, "O Rasulullaah self. He is your brother and you have married your daughter to him?" Rasulullaah self replied, "This (marriage) can take place (despite this type of brotherhood), O Ummu Ayman."

Rasulullaah (2006) then sent for a container of water, uttered some words and then passed his hands over the chest and face of Hadhrat Ali 500. He then called Hadhrat Faatima who stood by him shivering in her shawl out of modesty. Rasulullaah W sprinkled some of the water on her and also uttered some words. He then said to her, "I have not failed you in my duty to get you married to the family member I love most." Hadhrat Asmaa @@@@@ narrates further. She says, "Rasulullaah & then noticed a figure behind the curtain or behind the door and asked, 'Who is that?' 'Asmaa,' I replied. 'Asmaa bint Umays?' Rasulullaah & asked. Yes, O Rasulullaah & I confirmed. He then asked. 'Have you come to be of service to Rasulullaah (and his family)?' 'Yes,' I replied, 'because a young girl must have a family woman with her on her first night to take care of anything she might need.' Rasulullaah the then made such a wonderful du'aa for me that it is the one deed that I have most hope in (to deliver me to salvation in the Aakhirah). Rasulullaah & then said to Ali & So. 'Look after you wife' and as he left, he continued making du'aa for them until he disappeared in his rooms." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Asmaa bint Umays says, "I was present the night Rasulullaah ses daughter Faatima ses hecame a new bride. That morning, Rasulullaah ses arrived and knocked at the door. When Ummu Ayman Rooyaani and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.113). Nasa'ee has reported u similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg.342).

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.7 Pg 342). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.21) has also reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg. 210).

Call my brother for me.' She said, 'He is your brother and you got him married to your daughter?' 'O Ummu Ayman!' Rasulullaah so continued, 'Do call him for me.' When the other women heard Rasulullaah so voice, they dispersed and he took a seat in the corner. All so then arrived and after making du'aa for him, Rasulullaah so sprinkled some water on him as well. Thereafter, Rasulullaah so sent for Faatima so She arrived all covered in perspiration and takingshort steps out of herextreme modesty. 'Relax,' Rasulullaah reassured her, 'I have married you to the family member I love the most." The rest of the narration is like the one quoted above. (1)

Hadhrat Ali sais narrates that when Rasulullaah got him married to Hadhrat Faatima sais. Rasulullaah se sent for some water and then gargled with it. Rasulullaah se then took Hadhrat Ali si into the room where he sprinkled the water on his chest and between his shoulders and then sought Allaah's protection for him by reciting Surah Ikhlaas (Surah 112) and the Mu'awwadhatayn (Surah Falaq and Surah Naas). (2)

Hadhrat Albaa bin Ahmar reports from Hadhrat Ali that when he proposed for Rasulullaah for Saughter Hadhrat Faatima for a sum of four hundred and eighty Dirhams. Rasulullaah for instructed him to use two-thirds for perfume and the remaining third for clothing. Rasulullaah for her gargled in a utensil of water and told the couple to bath with it. Rasulullaah for the gargled in a utensil of water and told the couple to bath with it. Rasulullaah for each instructed Hadhrat Faatima for hot to feed any of her children before he got to the child, but she started feeding Hadhrat Husayn for before Rasulullaah for could arrive. As for Hadhrat Hasan for Rasulullaah for put some unknown thing in his mouth because of which he was more knowledgeable than his brother. (3)

Hadhrat Jaabir Sies narrates, "We attended the marriage of Ali Sies and Faatima sees and have not witnessed a better marriage. The matting (on which we sat) was stuffed with the bark of a date palm and we were served raisins and dates to eat. Her bedding on her first night was a sheepskin." (4)

Hadhrat Ali gave her a blanket, a water bag and a leather pillow stuffed with Idhkhir grass. (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (Sies) reports that when Rasulullaah (Sies) sent Hadhrat Faatima (Sies) to (her husband) Hadhrat Ali (Sies), Rasulullaah (Sies) gave her a blanket, a water bag and a leather pillow stuffed with the bark of a date palm and Idhkhir grass. The couple slept on (half of) the blanket and used

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.210).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.113).

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.112), ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.21) has also reported the part of the perfume and the clothing.

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.209) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Bayhaqi in his Dalaa'll as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 113).

the other half to cover themselves. (1)

The Marriage of Hadhrat Rabee'ah Aslami

Hadhrat Rabee'ah (1986) says, "I was Rasulullaah (1986)'s servant. One day he asked, 'O Rabee'ah! Are you not interested in getting married?' I replied, 'I have no intention of marrying. While I have nothing with which to support a wife, I also do not want anything to preoccupy me from (serving) you.' When Rasulullaah turned away from me, I said to myself, 'By Allaah! Rasulullaah and definitely knows better than me what is best for me in this world and in the Aakhirah. By Allaah! Should he ever again ask me whether I am interested in getting married, I shall reply, 'Certainly, O Rasulullaah &: Instruct me as you please.' When Rasulullaah We did ask me whether I was interested in getting married, I replied, 'Certainly, O Rasulullaah (2021) Instruct me as you please.' Rasulullaah then instructed me to go to a particular tribe of the Ansaar who did not frequently meet with Rasulullaah . He told me to tell them that he had sent me to them with instructions to get me married to a certain girl from amongst them. I therefore went to them and informed them that Rasulullaah & had sent me with instructions that they get me married. Welcome to Rasulullaah and the messenger of Rasulullaah (##! they cried out, 'By Allaah! the messenger of Rasulullaah & shall never return without having his need fulfilled. They then got me married and treated me exceptionally well without even asking for a witness.

I returned depressed to Rasulullaah see saying, 'O Rasulullaah see! I have been to people who are extremely generous. They got me married and treated me exceptionally well without even asking for a witness. However, I have no dowry to give, Rasulullaah see then called for Buraydah Aslami see (the leader of my tribe) and instructed him to collect some gold for me equivalent to the weight of a date stone. When I took possession of what the people collected for me, I brought it to Rasulullaah see who said, Take this to them and tell them that this is her dowry. When I did so and told them that this was her dowry, they accepted it with great happiness and said, 'This is excellent and so much!'

When I again returned depressed to Rasulullaah he he asked, 'Why so gloomy, O Rabee'ah?' 'O Rasulullaah e!! I began, 'I have never met people as wonderful as them. They were happy with what I gave them and treated me extremely well. They even told me that the dowry was excellent and so much.' However, I have nothing with which to host a Waleemah. 'O Buraydah!' Rasulullaah called out, 'Collect (money) for a goat for him.' After the people (of my tribe) had collected (enough to buy) a large and fat sheep, Rasulullaah e instructed me to go to Aa'isha and and tell her to give me the basket containing the grains. I did as I was ordered and she said, 'Here is the basket containing seven Saa of barley. By Allaah! By Allaah! we have no other food besides this. You may have it.' I took the basket to Rasulullaah and informed him about what Aa'isha had said. Rasulullaah said, Take this to them (your in-laws) and tell (I) Tabraan!. Haythamii (Yol.9 Pg.210) has commented on the chain of narrators.

them to bake this (the barley) into bread and to cook that (the sheep). (When I took it to them) They said, 'While we can take care of the bread for you, you will have to see to the sheep for us.' Some men of the Aslam tribe and I took the sheep, slaughtered it, skinned it and then cooked it. We then had bread and meat with us and I hosted the Waleemah. I also invited Rasulullaah ***

Thereafter, Rasulullaah age gave me a piece of land and gave a piece to Abu Bakr Sisses as well. The world had finally come to me. It however occurred that Abu Bakr 劉璋節 and I fell into a dispute regarding a date palm which I claimed was on my property and he claimed was on his. When an argument ensued, Abu Bakr stold me something that I disliked. He however regretted what he did and said to me. 'O Rabee'ah! Please repeat the words to me so that justice is done.' 'I shall never do so,' I replied. He said, 'If you do not repeat the words, I shall complain about you to Rasulullaah 2008. When I adamantly refused, he forsook the land issue and went to Rasulullaah 25 I went behind him. Some men of the Aslam tribe came and said, 'May Allaah have mercy on Abu Bakr! What will he complain to Rasulullaah see about when it was he who said those words?' 'Do you people know who that is?' I asked. 'That is Abu Bakr Siddeeq!' I emphasised. 'He was the second of the two (in the cave) and the oldest Muslim. Beware that he should not turn and see you assisting me against him and then become angry. When he then goes to Rasulullaah A. Rasulullaah A. Rasulullaah not become angry because of his anger and then Allaah should not become angry because the two of them are angry. If that happens, Rabee'ah shall be doomed! 'What do you want us to do?' they asked. I then told them to return.

As Abu Bakr (Sie proceeded to Rasulullaah (Sie and I followed him by myself. After he had narrated the incident as it had occurred, Rasulullaah (Sie looked up to me and said, 'O Rabee'ah! What is the problem between you and Siddee?Q' I explained the situation to Rasulullaah (Sie, adding that when he told me something I disliked, he said, 'Please repeat the words to me so that justice is done.' I then refused to do so. Rasulullaah (Sie said, 'That was right. You should not repeat the words. However, you could have at least said, 'May Allaah forgive you, O Abu Bakr." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sie) then turned around weeping. (1)

The Marriage of Hadhrat Julaybeeb

Hadhrat Abu Barzah Feports that Hadhrat Julaybeeb Few was a man who frequently visited women and joked with them. Hadhrat Abu Barzah himself instructed his wife never to allow Hadhrat Julaybeeb Few to see her and threatened to do many things if she ever did so. it was a practice amongst the Ansaar never to get any of their widows married until they were sure that Rasulullaah was not interested in marrying her. Rasulullaah for once said to one of the Ansaar, "Will you allow me to marry your daughter?" "Of course,"

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.257). Abu Ya'la has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.336). While Haakim and others have reported the incident of the marriage, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.36), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.44) has reported the incident with Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sp.266.

the man obliged, "it will be a great honour and pleasure." "I do not wish to marry her to myself (but to someone else)," Rasulullaah pointed out. "Then for whom?" the Ansaari asked. "For Julaybeeb," Rasulullaah replied. The Ansaars said, "I shall consult with her mother."

He then asked (his wife), "Rasulullaah has proposed for your daughter," "Of course," she agreed, "it will be a great pleasure." "However," the Ansaari explained, "he is not proposing for himself, but on behalf of Julaybeeb." The lady burst out, "To Julaybeeb! Never! To Julaybeeb! Never! I swear by life that we shall never marry him (to our daughter)!" As the Ansaari was about to get up to inform Rasulullaah about what the mother said when the daughter asked, "Who was it that brought to you a proposal for me?" When the mother informed her (that it was Rasulullaah who brought the proposal), the girl asked, "Are you then rejecting the command of Rasulullaah had have had me over in marriage to him for he shall never destroy me (since the marriage is with Rasulullaah sapproval)."

Her father then went to Rasulullaah and reported the incident to him. saying, "My daughter places her affairs in your hands. You may marry her to whomever you please." Rasulullaah then proceeded to get her married to Hadhrat Julaybeeb (1986).

It then occurred that Rasulullaah once went out to a battle. After Allaah had given Rasulullaah of a large booty, he asked, "Is someone missing?" When the Sahabah of said that they found no one missing, Rasulullaah of said, "But I notice that Julaybeeb is missing. Look for him." When the Sahabah of went out in search of him, they found him beside the bodies of seven men of the enemy whom he had killed before the enemy managed to kill him. They then reported back saying, "O Rasulullaah of He is there beside the bodies of seven men of the enemy whom he had killed before the enemy managed to kill him." Rasulullaah went to the body of Hadhrat Julaybeeb of and said, "He killed seven before they managed to kill him. He is from me and I from him." Rasulullaah of repeated this two or three times and then took him in his arms. A grave was then dug for him and there was no bier besides the arms of Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah of himself lay the body in the grave. The Hadith does not state whether the body was bathed or not.

When Hadhrat Thaabit noted that there was no widow from the Ansaar who was more charitable than the widow of Hadhrat Julaybeeb (Hadhrat Is'haaq bin Abdullaah bin Abu Talha said to him, "Do you know what du'aa Rasulullaah (Hadhrat Hadhrat Is'haaq bin Abdullaah bin Abu Talha said to him, "Do you know what du'aa Rasulullaah (Hadhrat Is'haaq made for her? He said, 'O Allaah! Pour down good on her in abundance and never give her a life of hardship." It is for this reason that there was never a widow amongst the Ansaar more charitable than her." (1)

The Marriage of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi

Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi (William) reports that he once married a woman from the Kindah tribe and consummated the marriage in her house. On the night of the (1) Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.368).

marriage, his friends walked with him to her house and when they reached it, he said to them, "You may return now. May Allaah reward you." He did not allow them to enter the house as foolish people generally do. When he looked at the house which had been decorated (with drapes on all sides), he remarked, "Is your house feverish (because of which you had to bandage it) or has the Kabah been moved to the Kindah tribe?" The people replied, "Neither is the house feverish nor has the Kabah been moved to the Kindah tribe." Hadhrat Salmaan the said the refused to enter the house until all the drapes were removed except for the drape covering the entrance.

When Hadhrat Salmaan Finally entered the house, he saw a large amount of goods there. "Whose goods are these?" he asked. "Yours and your wife's," the people replied. Hadhrat Salmaan Finally said, "This does not conform with the advice my beloved friend (Rasulullaah Finally gave me. My beloved friend Finally goods that a traveller has as provisions." When he saw a few (female) servants, he asked, "Whose servants are these?" When he was informed that the servants also belonged to him and his wife, he said, "This also does not conform with the advice my beloved friend Finally gave me. He advised me to keep only those (female) servants whom I can marry or who I can get married (to others). If I do keep them and they fornicate (because they have none to satisfy their needs), their sins will be on me without any reduction to the sin they will be guilty of."

Hadhrat Salmaan then turned to the women around his wife and said, "Will you ladies leave me to be alone with my wife?" They readily agreed and left. Hadhrat Salmaan then went to the door, shut it and drew the drape over it. Thereafter, he sat with his wife, held her forelock and made du'aa for blessings. He then asked her, "Will you obey any instructions I give you?" Her reply was, "You are sitting in the position of a person who has to be obeyed." He continued to say, "My beloved friend the advised me that when I meet with my wife (for the first time), I should meet with her in the obedience of Allaah."He then got up and proceeded to the place of salaah with her following him. After performing salaah for some time, they left the place of salaah and he then fulfilled with her the need a man has with his wife.

Early next morning his friends came to him asking, "How did you find your wife?" When he ignored them, they repeated the question. Again he ignored them but again they repeated themselves. When they repeated the question a third time, he ignored them yet again but then finally said, "Allaah has made drapes, curtains and doors to conceal what lies behind them. It is sufficient to ask about things that are apparent but one should never ask about things that are hidden. I heard Rasulullaah say that those person who narrate such (private) things are like donkeys having intercourse on the street." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Sies) states that when Hadhrat Salmaan (Sies) returned after a long absence, Hadhrat Umar (Sies) met him and remarked, "You are a most beloved servant of Allaah." Hadhrat Salmaan (to one of your daughters)." Hadhrat Umar (to one of your daughters)." Hadhrat Umar (to one of your daughters)." Hadhrat Salmaan (to one further said, "You consider me a beloved servant of Allaah but are not happy to have me as your son-in-law?"

⁽i) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.185).

The next morning, some of Hadhrat Umar """ family members approached Hadhrat Salmaan """ To you people need something?" he asked. When they admitted that they did, he sald, "What is it? It shall gladly be fulfilled." They said, "We request that you abandon the matter i.e. your proposal to Hadhrat Umar "" "By Allaah!" Hadhrat Salmaan "" emphasised, "You should remember well that I did not make the proposal because of his being the Khalifah and ruler. The truth is that I thought to myself that because he is a pious man, perhaps Allaah will produce pious offspring from his progeny and mine." Hadhrat Salmaan "" then got married to a woman from the Kindah tribe. The rest of the narration is like the one above. (1)

The Marriage of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa

Hadhrat Thaabit Bunaani reports that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa wond once went with Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi to extend a proposal on his behalf for a woman of the Banu Layth tribe. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa was went in to see the family and told them in detail that Hadhrat Salmaan was was one of the early Muslims and also recounted his acceptance of Islaam. He then proceeded to mention to them that Hadhrat Salmaan wished to marry a particular girl of their family. Their reply was, "While we do not wish to get Salmaan was married (to our daughter), we wouldn't mind getting you married (to her)." They then handed her over in marriage to him and he left. (When he met Hadhrat Salmaan was hadhrat Abu Dardaa was said, "Something has happened that I am too embarrassed to tell you about." "What is it?" Hadhrat Salmaan was asked. When Hadhrat Abu Dardaa was related the incident to him, Hadhrat Salmaan was said, "I should be the one embarrassed since I proposed for a woman whom Allaah had destined for you." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa gets his Daughter Dardaa Married to One of the Poor and Simple Muslims

Hadhrat Thaabit Bunaani narrates that when Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya sent to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Siese a proposal for his daughter Dardaa, he rejected the proposal. One of Yazeed's companions said, "May Allaah mend your affairs. Will you allow me to marry her?" The man persisted, "Then allow me? Allaah will Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.185). Haythaml (Vol.4 Pg.291) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hillya (Vol.1 Pg.200). Tabraani has reported a similar narration but Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.275) has commented on the chain of narrators.

mend your affairs." "Alright," Yazeed said. The man proceeded to propose and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (got him married (to his daughter). The news spread that while Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (got him married yazeed's proposal, he accepted the proposal of a poor and simple Muslim and then married his daughter to him. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (got him) so comment was, "I did it in the best interests of Dardaa. What do you think would be her condition when (in Yazeed's wealthy household) she has castrated slaves standing over her all the time and when her eyes are dazzled when she sees the (opulent) house? Where will her Deen be then (when she becomes obsessed with worldly wealth)?" (1)

Kulthoom to Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far reports that Hadhrat Umar works once sent a proposal to Hadhrat Ali works for his daughter Ummu Kulthoom's hand in marriage. When Hadhrat Ali works sent a message stating that she was still too young, someone told Hadhrat Umar works that the statement meant that Hadhrat Ali works was refusing. When Hadhrat Umar works explained to Hadhrat Ali works (his reason for wanting to marry her), Hadhrat Ali works (agreed to get her married to him and) said, "(Consider the marriage done, so) I am sending her to you and she is your wife if you are pleased with her." Hadhrat Ali works then sent her to Hadhrat Umar works, who (knowing that she was his wife) ventured to lift the garment from her legs. (Not realising that the marriage was already concluded) She however exclaimed, "Leave it! Had you not been the Ameerul Mu'mineen, I would have slapped you across the face!" (2)

Hadhrat Muhammad narrates that when Hadhrat Umar proposed to Hadhrat Ali for his daughter Ummu Kulthoom's hand in marriage, Hadhrat Ali special said, "I am reserving my daughters for the sons of (my brother) Ja'far special." Hadhrat Umar special pleaded, "Please marry her to me because I swear by Allaah that no man on earth will ensure that she is honoured as I will." Hadhrat Ali special agreed and married her to Hadhrat Umar special.

Hadhrat Umar William then went to the Muhaajireen and said, "Congratulate me on my new marriage!" They all congratulated him and then asked, "Who did you marry, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" "The daughter of Ali bin Abi Taalib," he replied. He then started to explain, "Indeed Rasulullaah said, 'Every connection and relation shall be severed on the day of Qiyaamah except my connections and my telations.' I had been a father-in-law of Rasulullaah said and now I wish this as well (to become his relative by marrying his granddaughter)." Another narration from Hadhrat Ataa Khuraasaani states that Hadhrat Umar save gave her a dowry of forty thousand Dirhams. (3)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.251). Imaam Ahmad has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.260).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as quoted in Kanzul Umunaal (Vol.8 Pg.291). Ibn Umar Maqdasi has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.492).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.492).

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim Marries his Daughter to Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth (once proposed for the daughter of Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim (I.S.). Hadhrat Adi (I.S.) said, "I shall marry her (to you) only if you fulfil my condition," "What is it?" Hadhrat Amr (I.S.) asked. Hadhrat Adi (I.S.) explained, "There was indeed a sterling example for you in Rasulullaah (I.S.). I therefore instruct you to pay the dowry Rasulullaah (I.S.) gave for Aa'isha (I.S.), which is a sum of four hundred and eighty Dirhams."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth seems a proposal for the daughter of Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim with an appended message to Hadhrat Adi seems stating, "Let me know what you decide about me." Hadhrat Adi seems sent a message stating, "I have decided that you should pay (a dowry of) four hundred and eighty Dirhams, which is the Sunnah of Rasulullaah

The Marriages of Hadhrat Bilaal and his Brother

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Bilaal was and his brother extended marriage proposals to family from Yemen, Hadhrat Bilaal was said, "I am Bilaal and this is my brother. We were both slaves from Abyssinia. When we were misguided, Allaah guided us and when we were slaves, Allaah set us free. If you marry us (to your daughters), then all praise is due to Allaah (we shall be grateful) and if you refuse, (we will not mind because) Allaah is still the Greatest (and He will open other avenues for us). (The family agreed and got them married).

Hadhrat Maymoon reports that one of Hadhrat Bilaal wiss brothers claimed that he was of Arab descent and considered himself an Arab. When he once proposed for an Arab woman, the family said, "We will marry you only if Bilaal words of the Khutbah, he said, "I am Bilaal bin Rabaah and this is my brother. He is a man who is poor in his character and religious practices. You may get him married if you please and if you chose to refuse him, you are at liberty to do so." The family said, "We shall certainly marry anyone who is a brother of yours." They then got him married. (2)

Condemning Those whose Marriages Resemble The Kuffaar

Hadhrat Urwa bin Ruwaym reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Qurt Thumaali who was a companion of Rasulullaah was appointed governor by Hadhrat Umar was he was patrolling the streets of Hims one night when he (1) Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 299).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.237).

passed by a bride in front of whom people were lighting several fires. Hadhrat Abdullaah 1886 started hitting the people with his whip until they all dispersed. The next morning he sat on his pulpit and after duly praising Allaah, he said, "When Abu Jandalah 1886 married Umaamah 1886, he prepared some handfuls of food (as a Waleemah) for (his marriage to) her. May Allaah shower His compassion on Abu Jandalah 1886 and may He shower His special mercies on Umaamah 1886. May Allaah however curse your wedding of last night! The people were lighting fires and imitating the Kuffaar whereas Allaah has extinguished their light!"

Dowry

The Dowry of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha sees reports that that the dowry Rasulullaah see gave (her) was twelve Awqiya and a Nash, which totalled an amount of five hundred Dirhams. She then went on to specify that an Awqiya amounted to forty Dirhams and a Nash amounted to twenty Dirhams. (2)

Hadhrat Umar Forbids Exorbitant Dowries and a Woman's Objection to this Hadhrat Masrooq narrates that Hadhrat Umar See once mounted the pulpit and said, "I do not know who increased dowries above four hundred Dirhams because the dowry that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah see gave was always four hundred Dirhams or less. Had larger dowries been an act of Taqwa or honour, people would have never beat Rasulullaah see and the Sahabah to it." After Hadhrat Umar See had alighted from the pulpit, a woman from the Quraysh objected. "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" she said, "Are you forbidding the people from paying dowries in excess of four hundred Dirhams?" When Hadhrat Umar See confirmed it, she said, "Have you then not heard Allaah say in the Qur'aan:

"...when you have given one of them (your wives) a fortune (as dowry)..."(3) Hadhrat Umar (then said, "Allaah (orgive me! Everyone has more understanding than Umar." He then returned to the pulpit and said, "O people! I had forbidden you from paying dowries in excess of four hundred Dirhams (the prohibition no longer stands). Therefore whoever wishes to give whatever he pleases from his wealth, he may do so." (4) Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (Special once delivered a

⁽¹⁾ Abu Shaykh in his Kitaabun Nikaah, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.38).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.161).

⁽³⁾ Surah Nisaa, verse 20.

⁽⁴⁾ Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Abu Ya'la and Muhaami, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.298). Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.284) has commented on Abu Ya'la's chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.161) has reported a similar narration in greater brevity.

sermon. After duly praising Allaah, he said, "Take note that you people should not make your dowries exorbitant. If the news ever reaches me that any of you has paid more that what Rasulullaah  paid or what was paid to him (as dowry for his daughters), I shall deposit the excess into the public treasury."

After Hadhrat Umar (Sie had alighted from the pulpit, a woman from the Quraysh objected. "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" she said, "Is the Book of Allaah more worthy of following or your words?" "The Book of Allaah of course," Hadhrat Umar (Sie replied, "What do you mean by this?" She explained, "You just forbade the people from paying dowries in excess of four hundred Dirhams whereas Allaah says in His Book:

...when you have given one of them (your wives) a fortune (as dowry) then do not take anything from it...) o(1)

Hadhrat Umar whice or thrice repeated, "Everyone has more understanding than Umar." He then returned to the pulpit and said, "O people! I had forbidden you from paying dowries in excess of four hundred Dirhams (the prohibition no longer stands). A man is at liberty to give whatever he pleases from his wealth." (2)

Hadhrat Umar (1996) once said, "Had (exorbitant) dowries been a source of status and elevation in the Aakhirah, the daughters and wives of Rasulullaah (1996) would have been most deserving of it."

The Practices of Hadhrat Umar 劉德海, Hadhrat Uthmaan 劉德海, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali 劉德海 in the Matter of Dowry

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen reports that Hadhrat Umar (Sie allowed dowries of two thousand Dirhams while Hadhrat Uthmaan (Sie allowed dowries of four thousand). (4) Hadhrat Naafi reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadhrat Safiyya (Hadhrat Safiyya (Hadhrat Carlyya (Hadhrat Safiyya (Hadhrat It was insufficient. He then added another two hundred Dirhams without Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Um

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates that when Hadhrat Hasan bin All (1986) married a woman, he sent a hundred slave women to her, each one of them carrying a thousand Dirhams. (6)

⁽I) Surah Nisaa, verse 20.

⁽²⁾ Sa'eed bin Mansoor and Bayhaqi.

⁽³⁾ Abu Umar bin Fadaal in his Amaali, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.298).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 298).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 298).

⁽⁶⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.4 Pg. 284).

Relationships between Men, Women and Children

The Relationship between Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha was reports, "I once brought Rasulullaah some Hareerah that I had cooked. Sauda was sitting between between Rasulullaah and I, so I told her to have some as well. When she refused, I said, 'If you do not eat, I shall smear it on your face.' She however still refused so I put my hand in the Hareerah and plastered it on her face. Rasulullaah all laughed as he put his hand in it saying. 'Now you smear her face.' Sauda with then smeared it on my face and again Rasulullaah laughed. Just then Umar spassed by calling out for (someone called) Abdullaah. Thinking that he would soon enter, Rasulullaah said, 'Get up and wash your faces!' Thereafter, I always stood in awe of Hadhrat Umar she because of the respect Rasulullaah. Shad for him."

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("Rasulullaah

The Relationship Between Hadhrat Aa'isha and Hadhrat Hafsah with Hadhrat Sauda Yamaaniyyah

Hadhrat Razeenah who was a freed slave of Rasulullaah we reports that Hadhrat Sauda Yamaaniyyah was once visited Hadhrat Aa'isha was at a time when Hadhrat Hafsah was with her. Hadhrat Sauda was arrived looking stunning and well-dressed with a Yemeni shawl and matching scarf. She also wore two spots of aloe and saffron on their places (near her eyes) which resembled two pimples. A narrator called Ulayla says that she found women beautifying themselves with aloe and saffron.

Hadhrat Hafsah (2005) said to Hadhrat Aa'isha (2005), "O Ummul Mu'mineen! Rasulullaah (2005) is due to arrive when this woman is gleaming here between us."
"Fear Allaah, O Hafsah!" Hadhrat Aa'isha (2005) warned. However, Hadhrat Hafsah (2005) said, "I am going to ruin her adornment for her." Hadhrat Sauda (2005) who was hard of hearing asked, "What are you two saying?" "O Sauda!" Hadhrat Hafsah (2005) said, "The one-eyed (Dajjaal) has appeared!" "Really!?" Hadhrat Sauda (2005) cried out. She was extremely shocked and started to shiver. "Where shall I hide?" she asked. "You will have to go to the tent," Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Abu Yalia Haythami (Vol 4 Pg.316) has commented on the chain of narrators, thin Asaakir has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 Pg.393), as has its Najjaar as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg.302).

Hafsah told her. The tent was made of palm leaves and was a hiding place for the people. It was however filled with dirt and spider webs. Hadhrat Sauda went to hide there as Rasulullaah for arrived. Seeing the two women laughing so much that they were unable to falk, Rasulullaah was asked, "What is all the laughter about?" Rasulullaah for repeat the question thrice before they pointed towards the tent. Rasulullaah went to the tent where he found Hadhrat Sauda shivering (with fear). "What is the matter, O Sauda?" Rasulullaah for asked. "O Rasulullaah for said, "The one-eyed one has appeared." "He has not appeared," Rasulullaah for clarified, "but he is still to appear. He has not appeared but is still to appear." Rasulullaah for then helped her out and dusted the dirt and spider webs off her. (1)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Hafsah for said to Hadhrat Aa'isha was "Rasulullaah for is coming to see us and we are looking so unkempt

Rasulullaah sis Relationship with Hadhrat

while she is gleaming between us." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha was narrates, "Rasulullaah was sitting down when he heard the people and children making a lot of noise. (When he looked out) He saw some Abyssinians dancing with the people around them. 'O Aa'isha!' Rasulullaah (called out, 'Come and have a look,' Placing my cheek against his shoulder, I started looking from between his shoulders and head. 'O Aa'isha,' Rasulullaah kept saving (as I kept looking for a long time), 'have you not had your fill?' To assess my status with Rasulullaah (25%). I kept saying that I had not. I saw Rasulullaah & taking support on one leg and then the other (as he grew tired of standing so long). When Umar was appeared, the people and children all dispersed and Rasulullaah Figure remarked, 'I see the human and Jinn devils all flee from Umar (3)." The narration still continues further. (3) In another narration, Hadhrat Aa'isha was says, "By Allaah! I saw Rasulullaah standing at the door of my room as some Abyssinians amused the people with their spears in the (courtvard of the) Masiid, Rasulullaah as screened me with his shawl as I watched their feats from between his ear and shoulder. Rasulullaah : then remained standing because of me until I (grew tired and) turned away. You can well imagine how eager a young girl (as I) is for amusement (and for how long I stood watching)." (4)

The Relationship between Rasulullaah and his Wives and Between the Wives themselves

Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966) reports, "Rasulullaah (1966) used to spend time at Zaynab bint Jahash (1966) splace drinking honey. Hafsah (1966) and I therefore

⁽I) Abu Ya'la.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.316) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Adi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.393).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Mishkaatul Masaabeeh (Pg.272).

collaborated and that whichever of us Rasulullaah () came to would tell him, 'I get the smell of Maghaaleer(!). Have you eaten Maghaaleer (suggesting that the bees that made the honey ate Maghaleen).' Consequently, when Rasulullaah () came to one of us, she said the piece. Rasulullaah () replied, 'Not at all. But I did have honey by Zaynab bint Jahash. I shall however never do so again.' It was then that Allaah revealed the verses:

﴿ لِمَا لَهُمَ النَّبِيُّ لِمَ تُحَرِّمُ مَا آحَلَ اللَّهُ لَكَ * تَبْتَغِيْ مَرْضَاتَ أَزْوَاجِكَ * وَاللَّهُ عَفُوْرٌ
رَّحِيْمٌ ۞ قَدْ فَوَصَ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ تَجِلَّةَ آيَمَانِكُمْ * مَوْللكُمْ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيْمُ الْحَكِيْمُ ۞
وَاذْ أَسَرَّ النَّبِيُّ اللَّي بَعْضِ أَزْوَاجِهِ حَدِيْقًا * قَلَمًا تَبَاّتُ بِهِ وَاظْهَرَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ عَرَّفَ بَعْضَهُ
وَاعْرُضَ عَنْ بَعْضِ * فَلَمَّا نَبَاهَا بِهِ قَالَتُ مَنْ أَنْبَاكَ هَذَا * قَالَ نَبَانِيَ الْعَلِيْمُ الْخَبِيُورُ
الْ النَّهُ اللَّهُ فَقَدْ صَعْتُ قُلُهُ فُكُمَا * (اللهُ تَعْرِيدَ أَلَا اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ اللهُ اللّهُ الل

O Nabl [18] In seeking the pleasure of your wives, why do you declare unlawful that which Allaah has made lawful for you? Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful, Allaah has ordained that you release yourselves from your oaths (such as this one and pay the relevant Kaffaara). Allaah is your Protecting Friend and He is the All Knowing, the Wise. (The incident deserves mention) When the Nabi [18] whispered (confided) something to one of his wives (Rasulullaah [18] s statement, "But I did have honey") and she informed (another of his wives) about it. When Allaah disclosed this to him, he made a part of it (his knowledge of the incident) known (to her) and ignored a part of it (to save her from added embarrassment). When he informed her about it, she exclaimed, "Who told you about it?" He replied, "The All Knowing, The Informed One told me." If the two of you (Hafsa and Aa'isha [18]) repent to Allaah, then your hearts have surely turned (turned back towards the best course after straying for a while). {Surah Tahreem, verses 1-4}

Hadhrat Hishaam says that the words "When the Nabi W whispered something to one of his wives" refer to the statement Rasulullaah W made to one of his wives when he said, "I shall never do so (drink honey) again and this is a vow. However, you should not inform anyone about this." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Rasulullaah il loved sweet things and honey. After performing the Asr salaah, it was his practice to visit all his wives and get close to one of them. When he once went to Hafsah is the daughter of Hadhrat Umar is, he stayed longer than he usually stayed. Overcome with covetousness, I made enquiries about this and was informed that a woman from her family had given her a container of honey, which she mixed into a drink and gave Rasulullaah is. By Allaah! I resolved, 'I am definitely going to make some scheme.'

⁽¹⁾ Maghaafer is the odorous resin of a particular type of palm tree called the Urfut palm.

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim.

I then said to Sauda bint Zam'ah (Casa). 'Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) will soon be coming to you. When he gets close to you, ask him whether he ate Maghaaleer. When he tells you that he has not eaten any, ask him what it is then that you can smell. He will then tell you that Hasah gave him a drink of honey, to which you should say, 'The bee must have sucked nectar from the Uriut palm (the palm containing Maghaaleen.' I will also say the same thing and you O Sasiyya should also do likewise."

Hadhrat Sauda (a) Hadhrat Aa'isha (b) Hadhrat Aa'isha (b) Hadhrat Sauda (b) Hadhrat Hadhrat Hafsah (b) Hadhrat Hadhrat Hafsah (b) Hadhrat Hadhrat Hafsah (b) Hadhrat H

The Incident of Rasulullaah when he Intended Divorcing his Wives

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas wise reports, "I had always been eager to ask Umar wise about the two wives of Rasulullaah wise concerning whom Allaah says (in the Qur'aan):

'If the two of you repent to Allaah, then your hearts have surely turned (turned back towards the best course after straying for a while).' (Surah Tahreem, verse 4) This (thought) lingered on until the time when Umar when Umar when Hajj and I performed Hajj with him. We were still travelling when Umar when Umar when off the road (to answer the call the nature). I also veered off taking a jug (of water) along with me. After he had completed, Umar when to me and I started pouring water into his hands as he made wudhu. 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen!' I said, 'Who were the two wives of Rasulullaah when concerning whom Allaah says:

If the two of you repent to Allaah, then your hearts have surely turned (turned back towards the best course after straying for a while).?" {Surah Tahreem, verse 4} Hadhrat Umar Sussessid, "I am surprised at you, O Ibn Abbaas! (That despite your vast knowledge, you are still unaware of this incident)." Hadhrat Zuhri comments that although Hadhrat Umar Sussessid was surprised at the question, he Bukhaari and Musilm, as quoted in Talseer of ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.387). Abu Dawood has also reported the narration, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.229), as has ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.85).

still proceeded to relate it in detail without concealing anything. "They were Hafsah and Aa'isha," Hadhrat Umar (Diese) began. He then started narrating the incident. He said, "We members of the Quraysh always had the upper hand over our wives. When we arrived in Madinah, we encountered people (the Ansaar) whose women had the upper hand over them. Our women then started learning from their women. My house was located in the vicinity of the Banu Umayyah bin Zaid, which was in the upper reaches of Madinah, When I became angry with my wife one day (and told her something), she surprised me by backchatting. When I objected toherbackchatting shesaid, What are you objecting about my backchatting when I can swear by Allaah that the wives of Rasulullaah (Diese) backchat to him? In fact some of them (when angry) shun him morning to evening."

I then left the house and went to (my daughter) Hafsah. 'Do you backchat Rasulullaah 'When she replied in the affirmative, I asked further, 'Does any of you (when angry) shun Rasulullaah 'When she again replied in the affirmative, I said, 'Whichever of you does that is at a loss and destroyed! Does any of you not fear that Allaah would be angry with her because His Rasool 'When is angry with her? She will then most certainly be destroyed. You should never backchat Rasulullaah 'When and never ask him for anything. Rather ask from me whatever you please and never be deceived by the fact that your companion (Hadhrat Aa'isha 'When She will then you and more beloved to Rasulullaah 'When (do not emulate everything she does).'

I had a friend from amongst the Ansaar who took turns with me in attending Rasulullaah sees gatherings. He would go one day and I the next so that he brought me the news of revelation one day and I brought it to him the next day. It was during the time when there was a lot of talk about the Ghassaan tribe preparing themselves to attack us when my friend came to me at night. Knocking at my door, he called for me until I came out. 'Something serious has taken place," he said. 'What is it?' I asked, 'Have the Ghassaan tribe come?' 'No,' he replied, 'it is more serious than that and with longer lasting implications. Rasulullaah has divorced his wives!' 'Hafsah is at a loss and destroyed!' I cried, 'I had a feeling that this would happen.' After performing the Fajr salaah, I dressed and went down (to Madinah) where I went to see Hafsah. She was in tears. 'Has Rasulullaah de divorced you?' I queried. 'I do not know,' she replied, 'but he is now there in the upper story room.'

I went to Rasulullaah ses Abyssinian slave and asked him to seek permission from Rasulullaah ses for me to enter. The slave went in and then emerged saying, 'I mentioned your name to him but Rasulullaah ses merely remained silent.' I then left and went towards the pulpit where I saw a group sitting, some of them in tears. I sat for awhile, but then my anxiety got the better of me and I went back to the slave saying, 'Seek permission for Umar.' Again the slave went in and then emerged saying, 'I mentioned your name to him but Rasulullaah ses merely remained silent.' I again left to sit near the pulpit but again my anxiety got the better of me and I returned to request the slave to seek permission for me to enter. Yet again the slave went in and emerged saying, 'I mentioned your name to him but he merely remained silent.' As I turned to leave, the slave suddenly called for me saving. You may enter, for Rasulullaah (has granted you permission.) When I entered, I four d Rasulullaah E reclining against a straw mat that had left imprints on his side. 'Have you divorced your wives, O Rasulullaah 2022?' I asked. Raising his head, he replied, 'No.' 'Allaahu Akbar!' I cried out. I then said, 'O Rasululiaah 經歷! You have seen that we the members of the Ouraysh always had the upper hand over our wives. When we arrived in Madinah, we encountered people (the Ansaar) whose women had the upper hand over them. Our women then started learning from their women. When I became angry with my wife one day (and told her something), she surprised me by back chatting. When I objected to her back chatting, she said, 'What are you objecting about my back chatting when I can swear by Allaah that the wives of Rasulullaah backchat to him? In fact some of them (when angry) shun him morning to evening, I said, 'Whichever of them does that is at a loss and destroyed! Does any of them not fear that Allaah would be angry with her because His Rasool 優麗 is angry with her? She will then most certainly be destroyed.' This made Rasulullaah 經濟 smile.-

O Rasulullaah [36]: I continued, 'I then went to Hafsah and told her, 'Never be deceived by the fact that your companion (Hadhrat Aa'isha [36]) is prettier than you and more beloved to Rasulullaah [36]: Rasulullaah [36]: Smiled again. Then I asked, 'Should I continue with this light-hearted talk?' 'By all means,' Rasulullaah [36]: Said. I then sat down and I swear by Allaah that when I looked about the room, all I saw was three pieces of undyed leather. 'O Rasulullaah [36]: I said, 'Pray to Allaah to grant an abundance of wealth to your Ummah. Allaah has given abundance to the Romans and Persians even though they do not worship Him (so he will readily give us as well).'

Rasulullaah the sat up straight and said, 'Are you also in doubt, O son of Khattaab? They are people whose rewards (for their good deeds) have been brought forward to this world (without any share left for the Aakhirah). I then quickly said, 'Do seek forgiveness for me, O Rasulullaah : Because he was so angry with them at the time, Rasulullaah had vowed not to go to his wives for an entire month until Allaah directed him otherwise." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Hadhrat Umar said, "When Rasulullaah see separated from his wives, I entered the Masjid where I saw the people fondling pebbles as they said, 'Rasulullaah has divorced his wives!' This incident took place before the injunction of Hijaab was ordained. I said to myself, 'I am going to find out properly what is happening (whether Rasulullaah had divorced them or not)." The Hadith continues to mention how Hadhrat Umar when went to both Hadhrat Hafsah was as well as Hadhrat Aa'isha was to admonish them.

Thereafter, the narration quotes Hadhrat Umar who says, "When I then went to Rasulullaah . I found him on the doorstep of the room on the upper storey. I called out saying, 'O Rabaah! Secure permission for me to see Rasulullaah . The rest of the narration is like the one above until the part where Hadhrat Umar . Said, "O Rasulullaah . Do not let the matter of your wives disturb you, If you have divorced them, then Allaah is with you as well as His angels, Jibreel . Mikaal . Mikaal . Myself, Abu Bakr and all the Mu'mineen. I praise Allaah for the fact that whenever I spoke, I had firm hope that Allaah would confirm what I said. It was therefore with reference to this that Allaah revealed the following verse:

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Bukhaari, Muslim, Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee.

(سوره تحريم: آيت ٤،٥)

If the two of you (Hafsa and Aa'lsha, two wives of Rasulullaah (Lurned back rowards the best course after straying for a while.). However, if you two assist each other against him (Rasulullaah (Lurned back towards the best course after straying for a while.). However, if you two assist each other against him (Rasulullaah (Lurned back)), then his protecting friends are Allaah, Jibreel (Lurned back) and the pious Mu'mineen. Besides these, the angels are also his assistants. If he (Rasulullaah (Lurned back)) has to divorce all of you (wives), then his Rabb shall certainly replace you with wives better than yourselves who will be Muslims, Mu'minaat, obedient, repentant, worshippers, women who fast, previously married women and virgins. (Surah Tahreem, verses 4.5)

"Have you divorced them?" I asked. "No," Rasulullaah & replied. I then stood at the door of the Masjid and called out in my loudest voice, "Rasulullaah & swives have not been divorced!" It was with reference to this that Allaah revealed the verse:

When (news of) any matter of peace or fear comes to them, they (immediately) broadcast it (thereby causing harm to the Muslims). If they had (first) referred the matter to the Rasulullaah and to those of them who have understanding (to the learned Muslims with insight), it would surely be known to those of them who research (verify) the matter. (Surah Nisaa, verse 83)

Hadhrat Umar (1) continues, "It was I who researched this matter." (1) Hadhrat Jaabir (1) was I who researched this matter." (1)

Muslim, as guoted in Talseer of ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.389). Abdur Razzaaq, ibn Sa'd, ibn Hibbaan, Bayhaqi, ibn Jareer, ibn Mundhir, ibn Mardway and other have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.269).

while the Sahabah were sitting by his door. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr arrived and sought permission to enter, Rasulullaah did not grant him permission. Hadhrat Umar then arrived and Rasulullaah did not grant him permission to enter either. Rasulullaah like later granted permission to both Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and Hadhrat Umar and they both entered the room where Rasulullaah was said to himself, "I am going to say something to make Rasulullaah like laugh." He then proceeded to say, "O Rasulullaah for ling you had seen (my wife) the daughter of Zaid just now when I slapped her across the neck when she asked me for (an increase in her) allowance!" Rasulullaah smiled so broadly that his molars became visible. He said, "Here are my wives around me also asking me for (an increase in) their allowances."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sies) then stood up to hit (his daughter) Hadhrat Aa'isha (Sies) and Hadhrat Umar (Sies) also got up to hit (his daughter) Hadhrat Halsah (Sies). Both men were rebuking their daughters saying, "How can you ask Rasulullaah (Sies) for something he does not have?" Rasulullaah (Sies) however stopped the two men and the women said, "By Allaah! After this, we shall never again ask Rasulullaah (Sies) for something he does not have."

It was on this occasion that Allaah revealed the verse offering a choice (to Rasulullaah is first approached Hadhrat Aa'isha is saying, "I am about to present to you an offer that I do not want you to be hasty in deciding until you have consulted with your parents." "What is it?" she asked. Rasulullaah is then recited for her the verse:

O Nabi Say to your wives, "If you desire the life of this world and its adornments, then come forward. I shall grant you a generous provision and separate from you (divorce you) in a cordial manner. However, if you desire Allaah, His Rasool and the home of the Aakhirah, then (you may continue enjoying the status of being his wives and living with the allowance he provides because) Allaah has certainly prepared a grand reward for those of you who do good deeds (Allaah will reward you tremendously for your sacrifice)." (Surah Ahzaab, verses 28.29)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Case) immediately said, "Should I consult my parents about (having) you?! I definitely choose Allaah and His Rasool (Case). Please do not inform any of your other wives what I have decided." Rasulullaah (Case) told her, "Allaah has sent me to make matters easy for people and not to make them difficult. Therefore, if any of them asks me about you decision, I will certainly inform her." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "When the verses giving (us) the choice were revealed, Rasulullaah began with me before any of his other wives. He said, "I am about to present to you a choice about which you are in no hurry to decide until you have consulted with your parents." Rasulullaah said this despite knowing well that my parents would never tell me to separate from Rasulullaah said. Rasulullaah then continued, 'Allaah says:

﴿ لِمَا لَهُمَا النَّبِيِّ قُلُ لِازْوَاجِكَ إِنْ كُنْتُنَّ تُرِدْنَ الْحَيْوَةِ الدُّنْيَا وَزِيْنَتَهَا فَتَعَالَيْنِ أَمَيِّعُكُنَّ وَالسَّارِ اللَّهِ وَرَسُوْلَةُ وَالدَّارَ الْأَخِرَةَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُوْلَةُ وَالدَّارَ الْأَخِرَةَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُوْلَةُ وَالدَّارَ الْأَخِرَةَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَةُ وَالدَّارَ الْأَخِرَةَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَةً وَالدَّارَ الْأَخِرَةَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَةً وَالدَّارِ الْأَخِرَةَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ وَاللَّهُ مَا اللَّهُ عَلَيْمًا لَكُولُولُهُ إِنْ اللَّهُ وَلَا اللَّهُ عَلَيْمًا لَهُ اللَّهُ وَالدَّارِ الْأَخِرَةُ فَإِنَّ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْمًا لِنَّالُهُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللللَّهُ اللللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ الللَّهُ اللَّهُ ةُ اللَّهُ اللَّلَالَا اللَّهُ الللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّلَالَالَالَالِمُ اللَّالِمُ الْمُلْلَمُ الللْلَهُ الللْلَهُ اللللْمُولَا الللَّهُ اللَّلَالَاللَّالَالِمُ الللْمُولَا اللَّلْمُ الللْمُلْمُ اللَّهُ اللللْمُو

O Nabi Sal Say to your wives, "If you desire the life of this world and its adornments, then come forward. I shall grant you a generous provision and separate from you (divorce you) in a cordial manner. However, if you desire Allaah, His Rasool Sal and the home of the Aakhirah, then (you may continue enjoying the status of being his wives and living with the allowance he provides because) Allaah has certainly prepared a grand reward for those of you who do good deeds (Allaah will reward you tremendously for your sacrifice)." (Surah Ahzaab, yerses 28.29)

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "I immediately said, "Is there anything to consult my parents about? I certainly want Allaah, His Rasool and the home of the Aakhirah." Rasulullaah then presented the choice to all his wives and the reply each of them gave was similar to that of Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "When Rasulullaah agave us a choice and we chose (to remain with) him, he did not count this (choice as a divorce) against us," (3)

Rasulullaah ﷺ's Relationship with Hadhrat Aa'isha ﷺ and Hadhrat Maymoonah

Hadhrat Aa'isha properts that Rasulullaah for once said to her, "I know exactly when you are happy with me and when you are angry." When she asked Rasulullaah how he knew that, he replied, "When you are happy with me, you say, 'No, by the Rabb of Muhammad for and when you are angry with me, you say, 'No, by the Rabb of Ibraheem for "That's true," Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "but it is only your name that I leave out (while the love for you in my heart remains just as strong)." (4)

Hadhral Aa'isha Aa'isha narrates, "I was once on a journey with Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Muslim and Nasa'ee:

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim. Bukhaari and Muslim have reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim and Ahmad, as quoted in Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.481).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaarl and Muslim, as quoted in Mishkaatul Masaabeeh (Pg.272).

when I ran a race with him and beat him. After I had put on some weight, I again ran a race with him, but this time he beat me. He then said, 'This is in lieu of the last race.'"(I) Hadhrat Abdullaah bir. Abbaas Pelates, "(As a young boy) I was once the guest of (my maternal aunt) Maymoona on a night when she was not performing salaah. She brought one shawl and then another, which she lay it down by the head-side of the bedding. She then lay down, pulled the shawl over her and made a bed for me beside her. I shared her pillow with her. Rasulullaah arrived after performing the Isha salaah and when he reached the bed, he took the shawl lying by the head-side of the bed and tied it as a lower garment. Thereafter, he removed the two garments he was wearing, hung them up and got in to the bed with his wife.

Towards the final hours of the night, he got up and took a water bag that was hanging there. He opened it and started making wudhu. I was about to get up to pour the water for him when it occurred to me that I would not like him to know that I had been awake. He then came to the bed, got dressed in his two garments and removed the shaw! Thereafter, he stood at the place where he performed salaah and started performing salaah. I also got up, made wudhu and stood on his left. Rasulullaah he held me from his back and made me stand on his right. With me following him, he then proceeded to perform thirteen Rakaahs of salaah. Rasulullaah he then sat down and as I sat beside him, his cheek leaned towards mine (as he fell asleep) and I could hear him breathing like a sleeping person. Bilaal he fell asleep and called out, 'Salaah, O Rasulullaah he then strived and called out, 'Salaah, O Rasulullaah he then stood up in the place where he performed salaah and started performing two Rakaahs salaah as Bilaal started calling out the Iqaamah." (2)

Rasulullaah si Kind Treatment of an Old Woman

Hadhrat Aa'isha per reports that when an old woman once came to Rasulullaah per he asked her who she was. When she informed him that her name was Jathaamah Muzaniyyah. Rasulullaah per said, "You are now Hasaanah Muzaniyyah." He then proceeded to ask her how they were, how was their life and how they had been since he last met them. "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah per she said, "We have been well." After she had left, Hadhrat Aa'isha per saked, "O Rasulullaah per you gave such an excellent reception to the old lady?" "Dear Aa'isha," Rasulullaah per explained, "She used to visit us when Khadeeja was alive. Maintaining old acquaintances is a part of Imaan." (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "When a particular old woman used to visit Nabi says, he always became very happy and would honour her greatly. 'May my parents be sacrificed for you!' I said, 'You treat this woman better than you treat anyone else.' Rasulullaah (25% explained, 'She used to visit us when Khadeeja was alive. Do you not know that honouring bonds of affection is a part of Imaan?"

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Mishkaatul Masaabeeh (Pg.373).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 119).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi and Ibn Najjaar.

Hadhrat Abu Tufayl (1) relates, "I saw Rasulullaah (2) distributing meat in Ji'irraanah when I was a young boy who could carry only the limb of a camel. When a particular lady came to him, he spread out his shawl for her (to sit on). When I asked someone who she was, I was informed that she was the woman who suckled him as a baby." (1)

Rasulullaah : Relationship with an Abyssinian Slave and With Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

رص الله تعالى

Hadhrat Umar sizes reports that when he once went to see Rasulullaah see Rasulullaah see's short Abyssinian slave was busy rubbing his back. "O Rasulullaah see!" Hadhrat Umar sizes asked, "Did you hurt yourself?" Rasulullaah see replied, "The camel dropped me down last night," (2)

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood used to put on Rasulullaah sis shoes for him. He would then walk ahead with Rasulullaah sis staff in his hand. When Rasulullaah reached the gathering, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood would remove Rasulullaah sis shoes, place it under his arms and hand the staff over. As soon as Rasulullaah sis decided to get up, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood would give him his shoes and again walk ahead with the staff until he entered the room before Rasulullaah

Another narration state that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood week used to screen Rasulullaah week when he bathed, would wake him up when he slept and would walk about with him when there was no one else. (3)

Rasulullaah 🚎's Relationship with Hadhrat

Anas ఆ

Hadhrat Anas Sies says, "When Rasulullaah (Sies arrived in Madinah, I was a young boy of ten and when he passed away, I was only twenty. It was my mother and aunts who encouraged me to serve Rasulullaah (Sies (14))

Hadhrat Thumaamah narrates that when someone asked Hadhrat Anas whether he was present during the Battle of Badr, he replied, "Shame on you! How could I ever absent myself?" Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abdullaah Ansaari reports that Hadhrat Anas was accompanied Rasulullaah to Badr to serve him while he was still a young boy. (5)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg. 188).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Bazzaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.44).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.153).

⁽⁴⁾ Ihn Abi Shaybah and Abu Nu'aym.

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul (Jmmaal (Vol.5 Pg. 141).

The Services that the Ansaar Youth and the Sahabah

Hadhrat Anas size narrates that there were twenty youngsters from the Ansaar who always stuck close to Rasulullaah R. Rasulullaah would always dispatch them whenever he needed something done. (1)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sies reports that there were always four or five Sahabah Sies who never parted from Rasulullaah (when on journey) or from Rasulullaah (see soor (when at home). (2)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri relates, "We used to take turns (to be at Rasulullaah se's service) so that we could fulfil any need he had or he could dispatch us for any errand. Eventually, the people anticipating rewards (for this service) increased and there were plenty of people taking turns. As we were one day discussing Dajjaal, Rasulullaah se's came out to ask, 'What are these whispered discussions all about? Have I not forbidden you from whispered discussion?" (3)

Hadhrat Assim bin Sufyaan says that it was either Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Subs or Hadhrat Abu Dharr Subs whom he heard say, "I once sought permission from Rasulullaah subs to spend the night at his door so that he could awaken me for any need he may have. Rasulullaah subs granted permission and I spent the night there." (4)

Hadhrat Hudhayfah Feports, "I once performed salaah with Rasulullaah during the month of Ramadhaan. He then got up to take a bath and I screened him. When some water was left over in the container, he said, 'If you wish, you may use it to bath, otherwise, you may add some more water to it.' 'O Rasulullaah Fi I replied, 'This left-over water of yours is more beloved to me than anything more I may add.' When I then started to bath, Rasulullaah Ferened me, 'You need not screen me,' I said. He replied, 'Why not? I must screen you just as you screened me." (5)

Rasulullaah 's Relationship with his Son Ibraheem and other Children of his Family

Hadhrat Anas says, "I have never seen anyone more compassionate towards his family than Rasulullaah se. His son Ibraheem was given to a woman in the upper reaches of Madinah for suckling. With us in his company, Rasulullaah se used togo to the house, which would be filled with smoke because the nursing mother's husband was a blacksmith. Rasulullaah would always pick up the child and kiss him before leaving." Hadhrat Am seports that when Ibraheem passed away, Rasulullaah se said, "Ibraheem was my son and

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar. Haythaml (Vol.9 Pg.22) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.22) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.22).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.22).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 164).

has passed away while still suckling. Verily he shall have two nursing mothers in Jannah who will complete his period of suckling. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith harith
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far Freports, "Whenever Rasulullaah Freturned from a journey, the children of his family were brought to receive him. When he once returned from a journey, I was brought first to him so he placed me in front of him (on the animal). Thereafter, one of Faatima Freturned is children either Hasan or Husayn was brought to him and he placed him behind him. When we entered Madinah, we were therefore three people on the animal." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far was also narrates, "Rasulullaah was once passed by me as I was playing with some children. He then picked me up together with one of Abbaas sais schildren and placed us on his animal. We were therefore three on the animal." (4)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'lar says, "You should have seen the time when we were children and I would be playing with Ubaydullaah and Quthm, both the sons of Abbaas says." Passing by, Rasulullaah we would say, 'Pick that child up and give him to me.' (I was then passed to him and) He would then put me in front of him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah we would say, 'Pick that child up and give him to me.' He would then put the other child behind him. Although Abbaas says liked Ubaydullaah more than Quthm, Rasulullaah would not be embarrassed in front of his uncle (Abbaas says) to take Quthm on the animal and leave Ubaydullaah. Rasulullaah we would then pass his hand over my head thrice and say each time, 'O Allaah! You be Ja'far's successor for his children." (5)

Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab Sasays, "When I saw Hasan and Husayn riding on Rasulullaah (Sas shoulders, I remarked, 'What a fine horse you two are riding!' Rasulullaah (Sas then said, 'And what fine horsemen are they!?" (6) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Sas narrates that Rasulullaah (Sas once came out of the house carrying Hadhrat Hasan (Sas on his shoulders when someone commented, "Dear child! What a fine conveyance you have!" To this Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib was reports that Rasulullaah was once performing salaah when Hadhrat Hasan was and Hadhrat Husayn was or Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.254). Ahmad has reported a similar narralion, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.45).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.17).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Muslim.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir.

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.222).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.106) and Majma'uz Zawaa'ld (Vol.9 Pg.182). Bazzaar and Ibn Sahaaheen have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal.

⁽Vol.7 Pg. 104).

one of them (the narrator is unsure) arrived and climbed upon his back. When Rasulullaah see got up, he held the child or the two children with his hand and (after completing the salaah) said, "What an excellent mount you had mounted."(1)

Hadhrat Jaabir says that he once went to Rasulullaah sa as he was on all fours with Hadhrat Hasan says and Hadhrat Husayn says on his back.

Rasulullaah sa was saying, You two have an excellent camel and are both excellent loads." (2)

The Incident of Rasulullaah with Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Husayn when they Got Lost

Hadhrat Salmaan were sitting around Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Ummu Ayman arrived saving, "O Rasulullaah 學學! Hasan 學學學 and Husayn 學學學 are lost!" Rasulullaah 學學 said to the Sahabah ("Get up and look for my sons!" Every person went in the direction he was facing and Hadhrat Salmaan week went in the direction Rasulullaah went. Rasulullaah ke kept searching until he was at the foot of a mountain when he saw the two boys clinging on to each other. In front of them was a snake standing on its tail with flames flashing from its mouth (Allaah) had perhaps sent it to ensure that the boys ventured no further). As Rasulullaah darted towards it, it turned to look at him and then slid away into a hole. Rasulullaah then went to the boys and as he separated them, he wiped their faces saying, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! How honourable you two are in the sight of Allaah!" When he then carried one of them on his right shoulder and the other on his left shoulder, Hadhrat Salmaan specific remarked, "Glad tidings to you two. What an excellent mount you have!" To this, Rasulullaah said, "What excellent riders are they and their father is even better than them." (3) Hadhrat Jaabir 等障害 says, "We were with Rasulullaah 疑疑 when we were invited for a meal. When we came across Husayn William playing with other children in the street, Rasulullaah Fran ahead of the others and stretched out his hands (to grab the boy). Husayn started running to and fro as Rasulullaah We made him laugh in front of everyone there. Rasulullaah We then stretched out his arms and held the boy with one hand on his chin and the other between his head and ears. Thereafter, Rasulullaah we hugged and kissed him saying, 'Husayn is from me and I am from him. May Allaah love those who love him. Hasan was and Husayn was are two (distinguished) grandsons from amongst grandsons."(4)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.182).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.182) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.182) has commented on the chain of narrators, Tabraani has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Ya'la bin Murrah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.107).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.107).

Mutual Relationships between the Sahabah

Rasulullaah E Tells Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon E to Treat his Wife Better

Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq Sabee'ee reports that the wife of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon work once came to the wives of Rasulullaah wife dressed in unattractive and old clothes. When they asked her what the problem was, she informed them that her husband stood in salaah all night and fasted all day (and therefore had no time for her, because of which she felt no need to look attractive). When Rasulullaah wife was informed of what she said, he met Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon work is rebuked him and said, "Do you not have an excellent example in me?" Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon work is replied, "Certainly. May my parents be sacrificed for you!" Thereafter, his wife was always looking attractive and wearing enchanting scents. On his deathbed, his wife recited some couplets (which meant):

"Dear eyes! Be generous with your tears and never let them stop

Over the demise of Uthmaan bin Madh'oon

Over a man who spent the entire night pleasing his Creator

Over the loss of someone who will be buried. Glad tidings of Jannah to him!

Baqee (1) and its Gharqad trees are graced to be his home

And after being troubled (by having Kuffaar buried there), the ground shall be illuminated

All that the heart shall inherit will be grief that knows no end Until death comes, my tear ducts shall never dry" (2)

Another narration names the wife of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon was as Hadhrat Khowla bint Hakeem was and that it was Hadhrat Aa'isha whom she visited. The narration also states that Rasulullaah was said to Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon was, "O Uthmaan! Monasticism has not been ordained or us. Am I not a perfect example for you? By Allaah! It is I who fears Allaah most and who is most mindful of the limits He has set." (3)

Rasulullaah E Tells Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas to Treat his Wife Better

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas Freports, "My father got me married to a woman from the Quraysh. However, when she first came to me, I paid no attention to her because of my overriding enthusiasm for acts of Ibaadah such as salaah and fasting. (My father) Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Free once came to his daughter-in-law (my wife) and asked, 'How do you find your husband?' She replied, 'He is the best of husbands but has not yet ventured to expose any part of my body and has not even come near our bed.' My father then came to me and rebuked me most severely. Biting into me with his tongue, he said, 'I got you married to an honourable lady of the Quraysh and you have left her dangling in suspension?' After enumerating more of the things I was doing, he then went to complain about me to Rasulullaah ***

⁽I) The graveyard of Madinah.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.106), ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.394) has reported a similar narration without the couplets.

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 305).

Rasulullaah sent for me and when I arrived, he verified, 'Do you fast every day?' Yes,' I replied. He then asked further, 'And do you stand in salaah all night?' When I again replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah se said, 'But while I fast regularly, there are also days when I do not fast. While I perform salaah (at night) I also sleep and I also touch my wives. Whoever turns away from my way of life cannot be my follower.' Rasulullaah se then proceeded to say, 'Complete a recitation of the Qur'aan once a month.' 'But I can do more than that,' I said. 'Then complete it once every ten days,' Rasulullaah permitted. When I insisted that I could do more than that as well, Rasulullaah told me that I could then complete a recitation in three days.

Thereafter, Rasulullaah se said, 'Fast only three days a month.' When I informed Rasulullaah se that I was capable of much more, he continued increasing the number of days until he finally said, 'Then fast one day and skip the next. This is the best type of fast and was the manner in which my brother Dawood sets used to fast."

In his narration, Hadhrat Husayn states that Rasulullaah see added, "Every keen worshipper has a period of great enthusiasm but every such period comes with a waning phase. When this phase comes, the person either resorts to the Sunnah or towards Bid'ah. Whoever during this phase resorts towards the Sunnah has been rightly guided and whoever turns towards Bid'ah has been destroyed."

Hadhrat Mujaahid says that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas grew old and weak, he would fast several days consecutively and then skip several days to regain his strength. When reciting the Qur'aan he would also sometimes recite more and sometimes less. Nevertheless, he would ensure that he completed a recitation within a period of either seven days or three days. Thereafter (when he grew even weaker), he would say, "Had I accepted the concession Rasulullaah se offered me, I would have liked it more than what (extra Ibaadah) he had to send my way (because of my insistence). However, (I shall now not reduce it because) I would not like to do anything other than what I was doing at the time I separated from Rasulullaah (when he passed away)."(1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Salmaan (and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (in this Regard Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah (Yol.) Pg 285). Bukhaari has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Yol.) Pg 271).

brotherhood between Hadhrat Salmaan was and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa when Hadhrat Salmaan work once came to visit, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa when he found (his wife) Hadhrat Ummu Dardaa was in a dishevelled condition. When he enquired what the matter was, she replied, "Your brother Abu Dardaa has no need for this world." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa was then arrived and when he got a meal prepared for Hadhrat Salmaan was, he said, "You eat because I am fasting." Hadhrat Salmaan was refused saying, "I shall not eat until you eat." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa was then forced to (terminate the fast and) join in the meal.

That night when Hadhrat Abu Dardaa sissi started to perform salaah, Hadhrat Salmaan salaah instructed him to sleep. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa salaah

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam 🖦 s possessiveness over his Wife Hadhrat Asmaa

Hadhrat Asmaa (which the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr (when Zubayr)))))) is a part from his horse. I used to feed his horse for him, tend to it and care for it. I also used to crush the date stones to feed his camel that drew water from the well and fed it myself. In addition to this, I would give it water to drink, sew the water bags (that the camel used to draw water) and knead dough. However, because I was not good at making the bread, my Ansaar neighbours would do it for me. They were extremely sincere and true friends.

I used to carry the date stones on my head from the property Rasulullaah gave to Zubayr (which lay two-thirds of a Farsakh (approximately two miles) from Madinah. As I was coming one day with the date stones on my head, I met with Rasulullaah (which are and some Sahabah (which are as he instructed his carnel to sit so that I may ride on it behind him. I was however too shy to travel with men and also thought of Zubayr (which are possessiveness. He was one of the most possessive people to be found. When Rasulullaah (when Rasulullaah) (when

When I met Zubayr 经运动, I said to him, 'Rasulullaah gg and a few Sahabah

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari (Vol.1 Pg.264). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.188), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.1 Pg.137). Tirmidhi, Bazzaar, Ibn Khuzaymah, Daar Qutni, Tabraani and Ibn Hibbaan have also reported the narration, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.4 Pg.161). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.86) has also reported the narration in different words.

met me while I was carrying the date stones on my head. When he made his camel sit down for me to ride on, I felt too shy and also thought of your possessiveness.' He said, 'By Allaah! Your carrying the date stones is more difficult for me to bear than your riding with Rasulullaah ." This continued until (my father) Abu Bakr sizes sent me a servant who relieved me of tending to the horse and it seemed like he had set me free." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Asmaa with the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr was married to Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam with When she complained to her father about her husband's strict nature, Hadhrat Abu Bakr with Said, "Dear daughter! Be patient because when a woman has a pious husband and she does not remarry after he dies, Allaah will reunite them in Jannah." (2)

The Incident of a Woman who Complained to Hadhrat Umar Wood about her Husband

Hadhrat Kahmas Hilaali reports that they were once sitting with Hadhrat Umar when a lady arrived. She sat down and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! While the evil nature of my husband has increased, his good nature has dwindled." "Who is your husband?" Hadhrat Umar was asked. When she informed him that her husband was a man called Abu Salamah, Hadhrat Umar said, "He was a companion of Rasulullaah was and is a righteous man." He then asked the men around him, "Is he not so?" "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" they replied, "We know him to be just as you say." Hadhrat Umar then instructed someone sitting there to call for the husband. When her husband was sent for, the lady got up and sat behind Hadhrat Umar

It was not long before the two men arrived together and the husband sat in front of Hadhrat Umar "What has this woman sitting behind me have to say?" Hadhrat Umar "What has this woman sitting behind me have to say?" Hadhrat Umar "Who is she, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" the man asked. "She is your wife," Hadhrat Umar "Who is replied. "And what has she to say?" he asked. Hadhrat Umar "Who replied. "She claims that while your evil nature has increased, your good nature has dwindled." The husband said, "A terrible thing she has said, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! She is amongst the most righteous women of her tribe. In addition to this, she also has the most clothing and the most comfortable home. However, her husband is an old man."

Addressing the wife, Hadhrat Umar saked, "And what have you to say?"
"He has spoken the truth," she replied. Hadhrat Umar sake got up with his whip and struck her with it saying, "O enemy of yourself! You have eaten his wealth and finished his youth and then go even further to make false allegations against him!" "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" she pleaded, "Do not be hasty. I swear by Allaah that I shall never sit in this position (as complainant against my husband) ever again."

^{(1) 1}bn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.250):

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.251).

Hadhrat Umar then instructed that she be given three garments and said, "Take this in lieu of what I have done to you (when I hit you). However, I am warning you never to complain about this old man again." The narrator says, "(I remember the incident so vividly that) It is as if I can actually see her standing up with those garments." Hadhrat Umar then turned to her husband and said, "Let not what you have seen me do to her ever provoke you to treat her badly." The husband promised that he would not and they both left. Hadhrat Umar then said, "I have heard Rasulullah say, "The best period of my Ummah is that in which I am (the first period), followed by the second period and then the third. Thereafter, such people shall come who will take oaths before testifying and who will testify before being asked to do so. They will also be people whose marketplaces will be very noisy."(1)

The Incident of Another Woman and her Husband with Hadbrat Umar #15000

Hadhrat Sha'binarrates that awoman once came to Hadhrat Umar saying, "I have come to complain to you about a man who is the best of all men apart from a man whose deeds are superior or whose deeds match his. He stands in salaah all night until dawn and fasts all day until evening." She was then overcome with bashfulness and said, "Excuse me, O Ameerul Mu'mineen." "May Allaah reward you tremendously," Hadhrat Umar said, "You have certainly praised him well. You are excused." When she left, Hadhrat Ka'b bin Soor remarked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! She has certainly been eloquent in her complaint to you," "What was her complaint?" Hadhrat Umar saked. "Her husband," Hadhrat Ka'b replied.

Hadhrat Umar (when sent for the couple and (when they arrived) said to Hadhrat Ka'b, "Now you pass judgement between them." Hadhrat Ka'b said, "How can I pass judgement when you are present?" Hadhrat Umar (when in sisted saying, "It was you who understood what I did not." Hadhrat Ka'b then said, "Allaah has mentioned:

"then marry two, three of four women with whom you are pleased (to have as your wives)." (Surah Nisaa, verse 3)

You should therefore fast for three days and then not fast the next day which you will spend with your wife. You may also spend three nights in salaah and then a night with your wife." Hadhrat Umar wife remarked, "This (decision) I find more astounding than your first statement." Hadhrat Umar wife then appointed him as judge of Basrah. (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar said to the lady, "Be honest Tayaalist, Bukhaari in his Taareekh and Haakim in his Kuna, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.303). Abu Bakr bin Abu Aasim has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.93).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd.

with me and do not shy away from the truth." She then said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I am a woman who desires what all women desire." (1) Hadhrat Qataadah na rates that a woman once said to Hadhrat Umar why husband stands in salaah all night and fasts all day." Hadhrat Umar said to her, "Are you instructing me to stop him from performing salaah at night and from fasting during the day?" She then went away, but returned some time later with the same complaint. Hadhrat Umar was again repeated what he had said the first time. However, Hadhrat Ka'b bin Soor pointed out, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! She has a right." "What is her right?" Hadhrat Umar was asked. Hadhrat Ka'b replied, "Allaah has permitted four wives for him, so count her as one of four. She is therefore entitled to one night in every four nights and one day in every four days." Hadhrat Umar then summoned the husband and instructed him to spend one of every four nights with her and to skip a fast in every four fasts. (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Gharzah শুঞ্জে and Hadhrat Umar শুঞ্জে

Hadhrat Abu Gharzah ("Yes I do," she replied. "What made you do this?" Hadhrat Ibn Arqam ("Yes I do," she replied. "What made you do this?" Hadhrat Ibn Arqam ("Yes I do," she replied. "What made you do this?" Hadhrat Ibn Arqam ("People have been saying too many things about me." When Hadhrat Ibn Arqam ("People have been saying too many things about me." What made you do that?" Again Hadhrat Abu Gharzah ("People have been saying too many things about me." Hadhrat Umar ("People have been saying too many things about me." Hadhrat Umar ("People have been saying too many things about me." Hadhrat Umar ("When sent for the wife. She arrived with the shrewd aunt of hers who told her, "When he questions you (about your curt statement), say, 'Because he made me say it on oath, I did not like to tell a lie." (When she came before him) Hadhrat Umar ("What made you say what you did?" She replied, "Because he made me say it on oath, I did not like to tell a lie." Hadhrat Umar ("Why not? One of you ought to lie and say something nice because every home is not built on love. Many homes are built on polite interaction stemming from social status and Islaam." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Aatika William the Daughter of Hadhrat Zaid bin Amr William

Hadhrat Abu Salamah bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sing narrates that Hadhrat Aatika Sing the daughter of Hadhrat Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl Sing was married to Hadhrat Abdullaah Sing the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sing. He loved her very much and even gave her an orchard on condition that she does not remarry after his death. He was struck by an arrow during the battle at Taa'if

⁽¹⁾ Yashkari.

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg,307-308), Ibn Abi Shaybah has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg,315).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.303).

and it was forty days after the demise of Rasulullaah the that the wound ruptured and he passed away. In his memory, Hadhrat Aatika recited the following couplets (which meant):

"I swear that my eye shall always remain hot (with tears)

over you and that my skin shall always be covered in dust (because I shall never adorn myself for anyone else)

(This I shall do) Forever, as long as the doves of the dense forest coo and as long as the night issues forth the bright morning"

When Hadhrat Umar proposed for her afterwards, she informed him that Hadhrat Abdullaah when had given her an orchard with the condition that she should not remarry after him. Hadhrat Umar was advised her to acquire a verdict from someone. She then enquired from Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib whose verdict was that she was free to remarry after returning the orchard to the family of Hadhrat Abdullaah was for the Waleemah meal. Amongst the guests was Hadhrat Ali who also happened to be the person with whom Hadhrat Abdullaah who had made a bond of brotherhood. "Permit me to have a word with her (with your new bride)," Hadhrat Ali was asked Hadhrat Umar word with Hadhrat Umar was permission, Hadhrat Ali was said, "O Aaatika!"

I swear that my eye shall always remain hot (with tears)
over you and that my skin shall always be covered in dust" (Upon hearing this) Hadhrat Aatika (Wesses started weeping very loudly. Hadhrat Umar (The Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas with his Wife and what His Aunt Hadhrat Maymoonah Sime Said to Him

Hadhrat Nadbah the freed slave of Hadhrat Maymoonah reports that her mistress (Hadhrat Maymoonah once sent her to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas when she entered the house, she found that there were two beds. When she returned to Hadhrat Maymoonah she said, "It appears to me that the Abbaas has separated from his wife." Hadhrat Maymoonah then sent for Ibn Abbaas wife's wife who was the daughter of Sarj rindi. When she asked her about it, the wife replied, "There is nothing between us. I am only menstruating." Hadhrat Maymoonah wife then sent a message to Hadhrat Abdullar'h bin Abbaas wife reprimanding him, "Are you averse to the Sunnah of Rasulullaah wife." Rasulullaah wife used to touch his wives while they were menstruating and wearing a cloth that reached up to the knees or halfway down the thighs." (2)

Wakee, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.302). Ibn Sa'd has reported a similar parration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.356).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.138).

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas

Hadhrat ikrama says that he is not sure whether it was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who invited his cousin for a meal or whether it was his cousin who invited him. Nevertheless, while a slave woman was working in front of them (as they were eating), one of them called her an adulteress. "Stop that!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas working cautioned, "Even though you will not be lashed for that (slander) in this world, you will certainly be punished in the Aakhirah." The cousin said, "But what if she is as I have said?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas work replied, "Verily Allaah does not like people who are vulgar and who adopt offensive language (it is therefore inappropriate for you to make such a statement)." (1)

The Incident of A Slave Woman with the Wife of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas

Hadhrat Abu Imraan of Palestine reports that while the wife of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was busy cleaning his hair of lice, she called for her slave woman, When the slave delayed in arriving, Hadhrat Amr wife swife called her an adulteress. "Have you seen her commit adultery?" Hadhrat Amr was asked. When his wife replied that she had not, Hadhrat Amr wife said, "By Allaah! On the Day of Qiyaamah, you will certainly be lashed eighty times (as punishment for slander)." His wife then spoke to the slave and asked her for forgiveness. When the slave forgaveher, Hadhrat Amr wife remarked, "She has no option but to forgive you because she is in your control. You had rather set her free." "Will that compensate for it?" his wife asked. "Perhaps," Hadhrat Amr wife replied. (2)

Some Incidents About the Mutual Relations Between the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abul Mutawakkil narrates that Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah had a Negro slave who had caused grief to the entire household because of something she had done. Raising his whip over her one day, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah had it not been for Qisaas (on the Day of Qiyaamah), I would have beat you unconscious. However, I shall sell you to someone who pay your price in full. Go (free)! You are Allaah's." (3) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Qais or Ibn Abul Qais says that he was with the delegation of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (that received Hadhrat Umar When he arrived in Shaam. As Hadhrat Umar (was travelling, he was met by some entertainers from Adhri'aat who were carrying their swords (to entertain Hadhrat Umar (to entert

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.49).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.84).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.384).

Ubaydah said, "This is the custom of the non-Arabs. If you stop them, they will think that you wish to annul the pact with them (that you wish to prevent them from freely practising their customs)." Hadhrat Umar said, "Then leave them. Umar and his family are all under the command of Abu Ubaydah" (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Fig. 6) reports that when Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat Hadhrat (Fig. 6) beat (Fig. 6)

Hadhrat Saleem bin Handhalah reports, "We once went to Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b saleem to listen to Ahadeeth from him. (When he had completed) He stood up and we also stood up and walked with him. Hadhrat Umar sales then met him and said, "Don't you think that this (walking with people following you) is a danger (source of pride) for the one being followed and a source of dishonour for the ones following?" (3) Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that a man once came to Hadhrat Salmaan and said, "How pleasant was the behaviour of people today! I had been travelling and I swear by Allaah that every person I stayed with seemed to be the son of my own father. Each one of them treated me exceptionally well and was extremely kind towards me." Hadhrat Salmaan ("My dear brother's son! That is a sign of Imaan being fresh and superb. Don't you see that when an animal is just loaded, it carries the load quickly (because it is fresh) but when the journey is prolonged, it walks in a staggered motion?" (Therefore when Imaan is continually refreshed, it is capable of doing much.) (4) Hadhrat Hayya bint Abu Hayya reports, "It was midday when a man came to my house. 'What is it you want, O servant of Allaah?' I asked. He explained, 'My friend and I have been searching for our camel and while he is still out looking, I have come here to take some shade and to have something to drink.' I got up and gave him some yoghurt to drink. I then looked at him closely and asked, 'Who are you, O servant of Allaah?' When he told me that his name was Abu Bakr, I asked, 'The same Abu Bakr who was the companion of Rasulullaah : and about whom I heard so much?' 'Yes,' he replied.

I then started mentioning to him the battles that my tribe had fought with the Banu Khath'am and all the fights we (Arabs) had been having with each other during the Period of Ignorance. I then spoke of the love that Allaah had created between us (because of Islaam) and asked, 'O servant of Allaah! Until when will this status quo (of mutual love) last?' 'As long as the leaders are upright,' he replied. 'Who are the leaders?' I enquired. He said, 'Do you not see that every tribe has a leader whom they follow and whom they obey? It shall last as long

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.384), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.334).

⁽²⁾ Muhaamili, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.334).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Khateeb in his Jaami, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.61).
(4) Abu Nu'aym In his Hilya (Vol.8 Pg.61).

as these people remain upright." (1)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Mu'aawiya narrates that when he came to Hadhrat Umar Sies asked, "In what condition did you leave the people of Shaam?" After he had informed Hadhrat Umar Sies about the condition of the people there, Hadhrat Umar Sies praised Allaah and said, "Are you people perhaps socializing with the Mushrikeen?" When Hadhrat Haarith assured Hadhrat Umar Sies that they were not, Hadhrat Umar Sies said, "When you start socialising with them, you will start eating and drinking with them and your situation will remain good only when you do not do that." (2)

Hadhrat Ayaadh narrates that Hadhrat Umar some instructed Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari some to present to him all his earnings and expenditure (as governor) on a single piece of leather. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari some had a Christian accounts keeper and when he presented it, Hadhrat Umar some was impressed and said, "He has an excellent memory. Will you read out a letter that has come from Shaam in the Masjid?" "He will be unable to do so," Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari some said. "Why not?" Hadhrat Umar some asked, "Is he impure?" "No," Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari some replied, "he is a Christian." Hadhrat Umar some then reprimanded Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari some and hit him on the thigh saying, "Dismiss him!" He then recited the verse:

(سوره مانده: آیت۱۱)

O you who have Imaan! Do not take the Jews and Christians as friends (confidantes). They (all Kullaar) are only the friends of each other (and cannot be your friends). Whoever of you befriends them, then he is surely from among them. Verily Allaah does not guide a nation of wrong-doers (who befriend the Kullaar). (Surah Mae'idah, verse 51)⁽³⁾

The Practices of Rasulullaah and the Sahabah with Food and Drink

The Practices of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah was narrates, "Rasulullaah senever found fault with food ever. If he liked it, he ate and if he did not, he would leave it (without comment)." (4)

Hadbrat Ali 等障害 reports that the portion Rasulullaah 躁鬱 liked most of a goat was the foreleg. (5)

⁽¹⁾ Musaddad, Ibn Munee and Daarmi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 162).

⁽²⁾ Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan, Baybaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg.300).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.68).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.40).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.37).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood says, "Rasulullaah si liked the foreleg of an animal. When the foreleg was once poisoned, everyone suspected that it was the Jews who poisoned it." (1)

Hadhrat Jaabir (1986) narrates that when Rasulullaah (1986) came to visit them in their house, they slaughtered a goat in his honour. Rasulullaah (1986) said, "It seems like they knew we like meat." There is a more detailed story attached to this incident. (2)

Hadhrat Anas Sass, "Rasulullaah see loved bottle gourd⁽³⁾ so when some food was served, I started searching for it (in the plate) and placing them in front of him because I knew that he loved it." (4)
Hadhrat Anas Sass also narrates that whenever Rasulullaah see ate food, he licked his three fingers (with which he ate). (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, "Rasulullaah sis (was so humble that he) ate on the floor, tied the feet of goats when they were to be milked and even accepted the invitation of slaves to eat (plain) barley bread." (6)

Hadhrat Yahyaa bin Abu Katheer reports that a plate of Thareed came to Rasulullaah every day from Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah State. It went with him to the house of whichever wife he was with. (7)

Hadhrat Anas (Fig. 7) reports that when some goat's milk was milked for Rasululiaah (Fig. 7), he drank it and then gargled his mouth saying, "It has some stickiness (which needs to be rinsed out to preserve oral hygiene)." (8)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr reports that when Rasulullaah once stopped over at a certain place, a woman sent her son with a goat to Rasulullaah sec. Rasulullaah sec. Rasulullaah sec. After milked the goat and told the boy to take it to his mother. After she had drunk to her fill, the boy brought another goat. After milking it, Rasulullaah sec. When the boy then brought a third goat, Rasulullaah sec. milked it and only this time did he drink (9)

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that Rasulullaah we used to keep his right hand free for acts such as eating, drinking and making wudhu. His left hand he would keep free for acts such as Istinjaa, cleaning his nose and other such acts. (10)

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abdullaah bin Hakam bin Raafi says, "When Hakam saw once saw me eating from various parts of the plate, he said, 'Dear boy! Do not eat like that as Shaytaan eats. When Rasulullaah saw ate, his fingers would not

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.12).

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il.

⁽³⁾ A variety of gourd called "Doodi" in Urdu.

⁽⁴⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il.

⁽⁵⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'ii.

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.44).

⁽⁷⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.37).

⁽⁸⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.37).

⁽⁹⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pe.44).

⁽¹⁰⁾ Sa'ced bin Mansoor, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 45).

stray from his hands (they stayed in front of him)." (1)

Rasulullaah W Teaches the Sahabah The Etiquettes of Eating and to Recite Bismillaah at the Beginning

Hadhrat Umar bin Abu Salamah (Treports, "I was once eating with Rasulullaah when I started taking meat from all over the plate. Rasulullaah said to me. 'Eat from that which is in front of you."(2) Hadhrat Ummayyah bin Makhshi 🚟 reports that Rasulullaah 🕮 once saw a man eating without first reciting Bismillaah. When there was only a single morsel left, he lifted it to his mouth and (before eating it, he) recited:

"بسم اللهِ أَوَّلَهُ وَآخِرَهُ"

Rasulullaah then laughed and said, "By Allaah! Shaytaan continued eating with you until you took Allaah's name. He then vomited out everything that was in his belly," Another narration states that Rasulullaah (28 said, "...until when you took Allaah's name, he forcefully vomited out everything in his belly." (3) Hadhrat Hudhayfah 劉陽島 narrates that they were once with Rasulullaah 學話 when a platter (of food) was brought and placed before them. When Rasulullaah held back his hand, the Sahabah (did the same because they never ate until Rasulullaah W did. A Bedouin then came appearing as if he was being shoved along. As he was about to grab at the platter to eat from the food, Rasulullaah are caught hold of his hand. Just then, a little girl came also appearing as if she was being pushed along. When she also attempted to get her hand into the food, Rasulullaah ge grabbed her hand as well, Rasulullaah ge then said. "Verily people's food becomes lawful for Shaytaan when they do not take Allaah's name. When Shaytaan saw that we were holding our hands back, he brought the girl so that the food could become lawful for him (when she eats without saying Bismillaah). I however, grabbed her hand. He had also brought the Bedouin to make the food lawful for himself, but I had grabbed his hand as well. I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship! His hand is now in my hands together with the hands of the two of them." (4) Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966) narrates (5) that Rasulullaah (1966) was eating with six others when a Bedouin came and ate all the food in two morsels, Rasulullaah remarked, "Had he recited Bismillaah, the food would have sufficed for them all. When any of you eats, he should take the name of Allaah and if he forgets, he should recite:

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.46). The author of Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.344) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 46).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Abu Dawood, Nasa'ee, Ibn Qaani, Tabraani, Haakim and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.45).

⁽⁴⁾ Nasa'ec, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.8 Pg.46)

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg. 47).

"بِسْمِ اللَّهِ أَوَّلَهُ وَآخِرَهُ"

Rasulullaah : is Entertained by the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr relates, "Nabi once stopped over by my father, who served him a meal of Saweeq (1) and Hais (2). After Rasulullaah had eaten, my father brought something to drink. After drinking, Rasulullaah passed the cup on to the person on his right. When eating dates, Rasulullaah threw the stones like this." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr threw the pointed with his finger towards his back (to indicate that Rasulullaah threw the stones behind him). Narrating further, he says that when Rasulullaah so got on his mule, his father held the reins and said, "Do make du'aa for us, O Rasulullaah se then made the following du'aa:

"O Allaah! Bless them in the sustenance You give them, forgive them and have mercy on them." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr says, "When my father once asked my mother to prepare some food for Rasulullaah says, she prepared some Thareed. My father then proceeded to invite Rasulullaah for the meal and (when he arrived) Rasulullaah says placed his hand on the top of the dish saying (to the Sahabah says), 'Dish out taking the name of Allaah.' They then dished out from the sides. After everyone had eaten, Rasulullaah says made the following du'aa:

"O Allaah! Forgive them, have mercy on them and bless them in the sustenance You give them." (4)

The Practices of Hadhrat Ali saw and Hadhrat Umar saw with Food and Drink

Hadhrat Ibn A'bad reports that Hadhrat Ali (once asked, "O Ibn A'bad! Do you know what is the right of food?" "What is the right of food?" Ibn A'bad asked, Hadhrat Ali (That you recite:

'I begin with the name of Allaah. O Allaah! bless us in the sustenance You give us"

Thereafter, Hadhrat All sass asked, "And do you know how to express gratitude after you have finished?" "How do you express gratitude?" Ibn A'bad asked. Hadhrat Ali sass replied, "By saying:

⁽¹⁾ A type of porridge prepared from barley.

⁽²⁾ A sweet dish prepared with dates, butter and flour.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Abu Nu'aym.

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. B Pg.47).

"أَلْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانًا"

'All praise is for Allaah Who has given us food and drink."(1) Hadhrat Umar (Sizes) once said, "Beware of excessive eatin," and drinking because it harms the body, is the cause of many diseases and leads to lethargy in salaah. Rather be moderate in your eating and drinking because it is healthier for the body and further from extravagance. Allaah detests the obese scholar (whose makes eating a priority) and a person shall never be destroyed until he gives precedence to his desires over his Deen." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Mah'dhoora Freports that he was once sitting with Hadhrat Umar When Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah Free brought a platter (of food) and placed it infrontof Hadhrat Umar Free Hadhrat Umar Free Hadhrat Umar Free Hadhrat Umar Free remarked, "May Allaah curse the people who are averse to their slaves eating with them." To this, Hadhrat Safwaan Free Said, "We are not averse to them eating with us. We eat by ourselves only because we do not find sufficient good food to feed both us and them." (3)

The Practices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas with Food and Drink

Hadhrat Maalik bin Anas reports that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Stopped over in Juhfah, Ibn Aamir bin Kurayz instructed his baker to take food to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William. When he brought one plate of food, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William to put it down. When the baker returned with another plate of food and was going to take the first plate away, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William asked, "What are you doing?" "I am taking the plate away," the baker replied. "No," said Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William, "just pour the food into this other food." Thereafter, every time a different dish was served, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William made the man pour it into the other food. When the baker eventually returned to Hadhrat Ibn Aamir, he remarked, "That man must be an uncultured Bedouin!" Hadhrat Ibn Aamir, corrected the baker saying, "That man is your leader. He is Ibn Umar William (4)

Hadhrat Ja'farnarrates that because Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas always ate the seeds of the pomegranate, someone asked, "O Ibn Abbaas! Why do you do that?" He explained, "r have heard that every pomegranate on earth grows from a seed from amongst the seeds from Jannah. This seed is perhaps the one." (5) ibn Abi Shaybah, ibn Abi Dunya in his Du'aa, Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.8 Pg.46).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.47).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as guoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.48).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.301)

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.223).

The Practices of Hadhrat Salmaan (1996), Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1996) and Hadhrat Ali (1996) with Food and Drink

Hadhrat Saalim says, "I was with my master Zaid bin Sowhaan when Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi passed by us after purchasing a Wasaq of grain. 'O Abu Abdullaah!' Zaid called out, 'You are doing this (buying so much) when you are the companion of Rasulullaah  Hadhrat Salmaan  replied, 'The soul is at ease when it has secured its sustenance. It can then free itself for Ibaadah and Waswaas (the devil that whispers evil into the heart) loses hope in (adversely influencing) it.(1)

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi narrates that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi (said, I love to eat from the efforts of my own hands." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Similer) once said, "I had fifteen dates so I broke my fast with five, ate Sehri with five and kept the other five to break my fast with." (3) Hadhrat Muslim who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (Similer) says, "When Hadhrat Ali (Similer) once asked for a drink, I brought him a cup of water and blew into it. He refused to drink it and returned it to me saying, You drink it." (4)

The Practices of Nabi and the Sahabah with Regard to Clothing

The Practices of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla says that he was once with Hadhrat Umar 動廠 when he said, "I saw Abu Qaasim (Rasulullaah) 變變 wearing a narrow-sleeved cloak made in Shaam." (5)

Hadhrat Jundubbin Makeeth says, "Rasulullaah wore his best clothing whenever he received a delegation and would instruct the senior Sahabah to do the same. On the day a delegation arrived from Kindah tribe, I saw Rasulullaah we wearing clothing made in Yemen and both Abu Bakr says and Umar were wearing the saine." (6)

Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa 图 says that Hadhrat Uthmaan 图 loincloth always reached halfway up his calves and he would say, "Such was the garment of my beloved (Nabi) 經濟."(7)

Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Sulaym reports from his aunt that her uncle said, "I was walking in Madinah one day when someone behind me said, 'Lift up your loincloth because it keeps it cleaner and makes it last longer.' When I turned

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.207).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.200).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.384).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.6 Pg.237).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.37).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.346).

⁽⁷⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Tirmidhi In his Shamaa'il, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.55).

The Sahabah Describe the Attire of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Burdah narrates that Hadhrat Aa'isha once took out and showed them a patched shawl and a loincloth made of coarse cloth. She then said, "It was in these two garments that the soul of Rasulullaah was was taken away." (2)

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah (2005) says, "The garment Rasulullaah (2005) loved most was his Oamees (3) (4)

Hadhrat Asmaa bint Yazeed William reports that the sleeve of Rasulullaah Wils's Qamees reached his wrists.

Hadhrat Jaabir (1986) narrates that Rasulullaah (1986) was wearing a black turban when he entered Makkah the day he conquered it.

Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth (Preports that Rasulullaah) Haws once delivered a sermon wearing a black turban.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sisses says that once (during his illness)
Rasulullaah Sisses delivered a sermon while wearing an oily bandage.

Hadhrat Naafi reports from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar that when Rasulullaah wiff tied his turban, he would let the tails hang between his shoulders. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar has also tied his turban in the same manner and a narrator called Abdullaah says that he saw Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad and Hadhrat Saalim also do the same. (5)

Rasulullaah ('s Bedding

When Hadhrat Aa'isha was once asked about Rasulullaah she bedding, she replied, "It was made of leather and stuffed with the bark of a date palm." (6) Hadhrat Aa'isha was relates, "A lady from the Ansaar once visited me and saw that Rasulullaah she bedding comprised of cloak that was double-folded. She then left and later sent a bedding stuffed with wool. When Rasulullaah came to me, he asked, 'What is this, O Aa'isha?' I then informed him about the lady from the Ansaar who had seen his bedding and then sent this. Rasulullaah told me to return it. Because t liked to have it in my room, I did not return it until Rasulullaah repeated the instruction three times. He finally said, 'Return it, O Aa'isha. I swear by Allaah that if I willed, Allaah would have made mountains of

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'ii (Pg.9).

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.9).

⁽³⁾ A long, loose tailored upper garment.

⁽⁴⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.5).

⁽⁵⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'il (Pg.9).

⁽⁶⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg,464) has reported a similar narration.

gold and silver travel with me (wherever I went)."(1)

Hadhrat Muhammad narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha ("It was made of leather and stuffed with the bark of a date palm." When he then posed the same question to Hadhrat Hafsah ("It was made of leather and stuffed with the bark of a date palm." When he then posed the same question to Hadhrat Hafsah ("It was a coarse sheet that we double-folded. One night I thought to myself that it would be more comfortable if I four-folded it (so I did that). The following morning, Rasulullaah ("It was the same bedding," I explained, 'all that I did was to four-fold it so that It would be more comfortable for you.' Rasulullaah ("It was because its softness prevented me from performing salaah last night." (2)

What Rasulullaah A Recited when Wearing New Clothing

Hadhrat Umar Sisses reports that he saw Rasulullaah (Sisses send for some new clothing. When it reached his collar-bone as he was putting it on, he recited:

"All praise is for Allaah Who has given me clothing to conceal my private areas and with which I can look beautiful in this life."

Rasulullaah then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! When a Muslim wears new clothing, recites these words and then purely for Allaah's pleasure gives the old clothes that he is removing to a poor person, he will remain in the care, the security and the protection of Allaah as long as there remains even a single thread of the garment left (on the poor person). This applies whether he is alive or dead." (3)

Rasulullaah Praises the Trousers

Hadhrat Ali size reports that he was sitting with Rasulullaah rear (the graveyard of) Baqee on a rainy day when a woman passed by on her donkey, carrying a heavy load. As she passed through a depression in the ground, she fell off the donkey. Rasulullaah for turned his face away (so as not to see her body as it became exposed because of the fall). When someone informed Rasulullaah that the lady was wearing trousers (because of which her body did not become exposed), Rasulullaah said, "O Allaah! Forgive all the women of my Ummah who wear trousers." Addressing the Sahabah said, "O people! Always wear trousers because it is amongst the most concealing of clothing. Ensure that you protect your women with it whenever they go out." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Hadhrat Hasan bin Arafah. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.465) has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi in his Shamaa'i, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.53), Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.465) has also reported the narration but from Hadhrat Aa'isha @C$$$.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, Tabraani, Haakim, Bayhaqi and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.55).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar, Uqayli, Ibn Adi and others, reporting from various chains of narrators, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg.55). Ibn Jowzi has wrongly included this narration in his Mowdu'aat.

The ident of Rasulullaah www with Hadhrat Dihya and Hadhrat Usaamah

Hadhrat Dihya bin Khalifah Kalbi Fireports that Rasulullaah Fireports once sent him as envoy to Heraclius (the Byzantine Emperor). Upon his return, Rasulullaah Fireports gave Hadhrat Dihya Firefor a delicate white Egyptian cloth saying, "Use a part of it to make a Qamees for you and give your wife the other portion to use as a scarf." As Hadhrat Dihya Firefor was leaving, Rasulullaah Firefor called him back saying, "Tell her to wear something underneath (the scarf) so that it is not revealing." (1)

Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid Wiss relates, "Rasulullaah Wiss gave me some of the thick but delicate white Egyptian cloth that he had given Dihya Wiss. I subsequently gave it to my wife to (make something out of it to) wear. Rasulullaah Wiss later asked me, "What is the matter? Why are you not wearing the white Egyptian cloth?" When I informed Rasulullaah Wiss that I had given it to my wife to wear, he said, 'Tell her to wear something underneath because I fear that it would reveal the shape of her bones." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha (See and her Father when she Wore Clothing that Appealed to her

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that when she once wore some clothing, she kept looking down at it as she walked about in the room, turning about as she did so. (Her father) Hadhrat Abu Bakr then entered and said to her, "Don't you know that Allaah is presently not looking at you (with affection)." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "I once wore a new upper garment of mine and was very taken aback by it as I looked at it. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to me, "What are you looking at? Allaah is not looking at you (with affection).' 'Why not?' I asked. He replied, 'Don't you know that when self-adoration enters a servant because of worldly beauty, Allaah detests the person until the beauty is lost (and the self-adoration with it).' I then took off the garment and gave it away as Sadaqah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, 'That shall perhaps atone for you."(4)

The Practices of Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Anas Wis With Regard to Clothing

Hadhrat Abdl Azeez bin Abu Jameelah Ansaari reports that the sleeves of Hadhrat Umar と呼ばら Qamees never extended past his wrists. (5)

^{(1) (}bn Mandah and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.61).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ibn Sa'd, Ahmad, Rooyaani, Baaroodi, Tabraani, Bayhaqi and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.62).

^{(3) 1}bn Mubaarak and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.37), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 8 Pg.54).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd

Hadhrat Badeel bin Maysara reports that Hadhrat Umar (Singless) once went for the fumulah salaah wearing a cloak made in Sumbulaan. Apologising to the people (for coming late), he said, "It was this cloak that delayed me." He pulled his sleeves forward and as he let go of them, they returned to the ends of his lingers. (1)

Hadhrat Hishaam bin Khaalid reports that he saw Hadhrat Umar signs tie his loincloth above his navel.

Hadhrat Aamir bin Ubaydah Baahili narrates that when he once asked Hadhrat Anas shout Khazz (a material in which there is a small element of silk), Hadhrat Anas shows replied, "I wish that Allaah had never created it. Apart from Umar shows and his son, all the Sahabah shows wore it." (Hadhrat Anas shows disliked it because it was a fabric worn by affluent non-Muslims) (2)

Hadhrat Masrooq narrates that Hadhrat Umar (was once came out to them wearing cotton clothing. When the people stared at him, he recited a couplet (which meant):

"The beauty of everything you see will never last Allaah will last when all wealth and children will be destroyed"

He then remarked, "By Allaah! compared to the Aakhirah, this world is just a leap of a rabbit." (3)

The Practices of Hadhrat Uthmaan William With Regard to Clothing

Hadhrat Abu Abdullaah who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Haad says, "It was on a Friday that I once saw Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan standing on the pulpit wearing a shawl made in Kufa and a coarse loincloth made in Aden that was worth a mere four or five Dirhams. He was a thin, handsome man with a long beard." (4)

Hadhrat Moosa bin Talha says, "Hadhrat Uthmaan was used to lean on a staff (as he came to the Masjid) on Fridays. He was one of the most handsome men wearing his cream-coloured loincloth and shawl as he came to the pulpit and sat on it." (5)

Hadhrat Sulaym Abu Aamir says, "I saw Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan wearing a Yemeni shawl worth a hundred Dirhams." (6)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Rabee'ah bin Haarith says, "The Sahabah wise used to spend generously on such clothing for their wives that was both beautiful as well as concealing. I once saw Hadhrat Uthmaan wearing a shawl edged with silk that was worth two hundred Dirhams. He said, This belongs to (my wife) Naa'llah, I had given it to her to wear and am wearing it now only to

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd.

⁽²⁾ Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.419)

⁽³⁾ Hannaad and the Abi Dunya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.405).

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.96). Tabraani has reported a similar narration from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.80).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.80) has commented on the chain o' narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg,58).

make her happy." (1)

The Practices of Hadhrat Ali Will With Regard to Clothing

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that a delegation from Basrah once came to see Hadhrat Ali (1986). Amongst them was a man belonging to the Khawaarij whose name was Ja'd bin Na'ja. When he started criticising Hadhrat Ali (1986) sclothing, Hadhrat Ali (1986) said, "What problem have you got with my clothing when it is far away from pride and a most appropriate example for the people to follow." (2)

Hadhrat Amr bin Qais reports that when someone asked Hadhrat Ali why he patched his Qamees, he replied, "The heart humbles with it and the Mu'min is able to follow the example." (3)

Hadhrat Ataa Abu Muhammad says, "I once saw Hadhrat Ali William wearing an unwashed Qamees made of extremely coarse cloth." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hudhayl reports, "I once saw on Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (Shaws) a Qamees made in Ray which was such that when he stretched out his arms, the sleeves reached the ends of his fingers and when he retracted them, they reached close to halfway up his forearms," (5)

Whenever Hadhrat Ali wore a Qamees, he would pull the sleeve until it reached his fingers. He would then cut off what was extra (extending further than the fingers) saying, "The sleeves should never extend further than the hands." (6)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Azdi who was one of the Imaams of the Azd tribe reports that he once saw Hadhrat Ali come to the marketplace and say, "Who has a good Qamees for three Dirhams?" When one of the traders said that he had one, Hadhrat Ali when to him and liked the Qamees very much. "This must be worth more (than three Dirhams)!" Hadhrat Ali was remarked (thinking that the man was reducing the price because Hadhrat Ali was was the Ameerul Mu'mineen). "Not at all," the man replied, "that is really the price," Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed says that he then saw Hadhrat Ali wuntie a knot in his clothing containing some Dirhams and giving it to the trader. Hadhrat Ali wore the Qamees, which happened extend past the ends of his fingers. By his instruction, the excess that extended past his fingers was then cut off. (7)

A freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Udhayn reports that he once saw Hadhrat Ali specime out of his house and approach cloth merchant saying, "Do you have a Qamees made in Sumbulaan?" The man took out one and when Hadhrat Ali

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.58).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.82).

⁽³⁾ Hannaad, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.57). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.28) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Hanaad.

⁽⁵⁾ Hanmaad and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.57).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Uyaynah in his Jaami, Askari in his Mawaa'idh, Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.55).

⁽⁷⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.83).

wore it, it reached halfway down his calves. Looking down to his right and left, Hadhrat Ali remarked, "I have not seen a better fit. How much is this?" "Four Dirhams, O Ameerul Mu'mineen," the man replied. Hadhrat Ali then untied the money from his loincloth, handed it over to the man and then left. (1)

The Practices of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas With Regard to Clothing

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ibraheem says, "I saw Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf wearing a shawl or a suit of clothing worth four or five hundred Dirhams." (2) Hadhrat Qur'ah relates that when he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wearing coarse and stiff clothing, he approached him saying, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! I have brought you soft clothing made in Khurasaan and it would give me great pleasure to see you wearing them because your clothing is extremely coarse and stiff." "Show it to me so that I may see it for myself," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Said. Feeling it with his hand, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar No, it is cotton," Hadhrat Qur'ah assured him. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Showever said, "I fear wearing this because I fear becoming a boastful snob. Verily Allaah detests the boastful snob." (3) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hubaysh relates that he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wearing two cloths made by the Ma'aafir (a tribe in Yemen), which reached halfway down his calves. (4)

Hadhrat Waqdaan reports that he once heard a person asking Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar What clothing should I wear?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar What clothing that will neither cause foolish people to ridicule you nor cause intelligent people to criticise you (for being extravagant)." "What type of clothing is that?" the man asked. "What costs between five and ten Dirhams," came the reply. (5)

Hadhrat Abu Is'haaq reports that he saw Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 學學學 wear his loincloth halfway down his calves. In another narration, he mentions that he saw several Sahabah 學學學 such as Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid 學學學, Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam 學學學, Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib 學學學 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 學學學 all wearing their loincloths halfway down their calves.

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abu Sulaymaan reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉德德 once purchased and wore a garment worth a thousand

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.8).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.131).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.302).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg. 302). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg. 175) has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg.302).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.341).

Dirhams.(1)

The Practices of Hadhrat Aa'isha (See and Hadhrat Asmaa (See With Regard to Clothing Hadhrat Katheer bin Ubayd narrates that when he once went to Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha (See), she told him to wait until she completed stitching her old garment. As he waited, he remarked, "O Ummul Mu'mineen! If I went out and informed the people about this, they would regard it as miserliness from your side (thinking that you are too miserly to buy new clothes)." Hadhrat Aa'isha (Do as you see fit. The person who does not wear old clothes does not deserve new clothes (and may not have them in the Aakhirah)." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed reports that when someone entered Hadhrat Aa'isha (Sa's's room as she was stitching her old garment, he remarked, "O Ummul Mu'mineen! Has Allaah not granted an abundance of wealth (to buy new clothing rather than patch old clothing)?" Hadhrat Aa'isha (Sa's') replied, "Leave us alone! The person who does not wear old clothes does not deserve new clothes." (3)

When Hadhrat Mundhir bin Zubayr (his mother) Hadhrat Asmaa bint Abu Bakr (with had already become blind. He sent for her delicate and exquisite garments made in Marw and Quw and when she felt it, she exclaimed, "Alas! Send this clothing back to him." Hadhrat Mundhir (had her than the hadhrat Mundhir (had her than the her the hadhrat had had her than bout it and said, "Dear mother! The garments are not transparent." She replied, "Even though they are not transparent, they are revealing." When he then bought for her common garments made in Marw and Quw, she accepted them saying, "It is these types of garments that you should give me to wear." (4)

The Practice of Hadhrat Umar with Clothing

Hadhrat Anas Feports that a woman once came to Hadhrat Umar Saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! My upper garment is all tattered." "Have I not given you anything to wear?" Hadhrat Umar Say asked. "You have given me," she replied, "but it has torn." Hadhrat Umar Say immediately sent for an exquisite upper garment and some thread to be given to her. He then said to her, "Wear that (old clothing) when you are making bread and cooking and then wear this (new garment) once you have finished. Those not wearing old clothing do not deserve new clothes." (5)

Hadhrat Kharasha bin Hurr reports that he was once looking at Hadhrat Umar specified as a youngsten passed by, wearing his loincloth below his ankles and dragging it along as he walked. Hadhrat Umar specified for him and asked,

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.321).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.68).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.73).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.8 Pg.252).

⁽⁵⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.55).

"Are you menstruating?" "What! O Ameerul Mu'mincen!" asked the youngster in surprise "Do men also menstruate. Hadhrat Umar ("Then what is the matter with you hanging your garment below your ankles?" Hadhrat Umar then sent for a knife, gathered the end of the loincloth and cut off whatever hung beneath the ankles." Hadhrat Kharasha says, "It is as if I can still see the threads dangling over his heels." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi reports that they were in Azerbaijan under the command of Hadhrat Utba bin Farqad when a letter from Hadhrat Umar arrived. The letter read: "Ensure that you wear your loincloths, shawls and shoes and throw away your socks and trousers. Make sure that you adopt the attire of your forefather Ismaa'eel when and stay away from lives of luxury and the attire of the non-Arabs. Remain in the sun because it is the bath of the Arab. Dress simply like Ma'd bin Adnaan, live tough lives, wear old clothes, mount your animals without stirrups, do target practice and jump directly onto your horses (from the ground). Remember that Rasulullaah forbade (men from) wearing silk unless it be only this much. Rasulullaah then Indicated with his middle finger." (2)

The Homes of Rasulullaah We's Wives

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Muhammad Ansaari says that they were sitting in a gathering between the pulpit and the grave of Rasulullaah in the gathering was Hadhrat Imraan bin Abu Anas and Hadhrat Ataa Khuraasaani was saying, "I saw that the rooms of Rasulullaah is wives were made from the trunks of palm trees and their doors were simply veils made from black (animal) hairs. I was also present when the letter of (the king) Walced bin Abdil Malik was read out, giving instructions for the rooms of Rasulullaah is swives to be included within the Masjid. I have never seen more people weeping than I did that day. On that day, I heard Sa'eed bin Musayyib say, 'By Allaah! I wish that they would leave the rooms as they are so that future generations of Madinah's people and people coming from other lands could see with how little Rasulullaah is sufficed in his life. This would then cause people to abstain from amassing wealth and from boasting about worldly commodities."

Hadhrat Mu'aadh relates further that when Hadhrat Ataa Khuraasaani had completed his narration, Hadhrat Imraan bin Abu Anas said, "There were four rooms made from unbaked bricks with courtyards of palm trunks while the other five were made of plastered palm trunks with no courtyards at all. Their doors were simple veils made from black (animal) hair. When I measured the veils, I found that they were three arm's lengths in height and more than an arm's length in width. As for the weeping that you mentioned, I can recall myself sitting in a gathering with a group of the Sahabah (Sahabah) schildren. Amongst them was Abu Salamah bin Abdur Rahmaan, Abu Umaamah bin Sahl bin Hunayf and Khaarijah bin Zaid. They wept so much that their beards were wet. Abu Umaamah was the one who remarked, 'If only they had preserved the rooms without demolishing them so that (by seeing them) people would reduce their building endeavours and see what Allaah preferred for His Nabi (##) even though He possessed the keys to the treasures of the world," (1)

⁽¹⁾ Sufyaan bin Uyaynah in his Jaami, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vc. 8 Pg.59).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dharr Harawi in his Jaami and Bayhaq), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.58).

In the name of Allah the Beneficial and the Compassionate

CONTENTS

Chapter Eleven:	41
The Chapter Concerning the Belief that the Sahabah 😂 😘 Had in the Unseen	41
The Magnificence of Imaan	41
Resulullaah Was Gives the Glad Tidings of Jannah for the Person who Dies Without Committing Shirk
The Incident of the Bedouin with Great Understanding	43
The Narration of Hadhrat Uthmaan ﷺ Stating that Jahannam is Forbidden to the One who Recites the Shahaadah
Rasululiaah (2014) Gives the Glad Tidings of Forgiveness to the Sahabah (2014) who Recited the	40
Shahaadah with him in a Particular Gathering.	49
Rasulullaah & Gives Glad Tidings to the Sahabah & in Kudayd
The Shahaadah Atones for a False Oath
A Group of Mu'mineen that will be Saved from Jahannam	45
The Statements of Hadhrat All States, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa States and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Concerning the Shahaadah and those Reciting it
The Gatherings of Imaan
The Eagerness of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha 🛎 to Participate in the Gatherings of Imaan
The Eagerness of Hadhrat Umar Sizes and Hadhrat Mu'aadh Sizes to Participate in the Gatherings of Imaan
Renewing Imaan	48
The incident of a Man With Diarrhoea	48
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was and his Wile
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaeh bin Rewaaha Sales and his Wife.	49
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar was and Rasulullaah ses at Hudaybiyyah	49
The Happiness of Rasulullaah (See when Revelation About Forgiveness and Victory Arrived as they were Returning from Hudaybiyyah	F4
The Incident of the River Nile during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar
Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami 🖾 eads the Muslim Amy into the Ocean
Hadhrat Tameem Daari $1000 Drives a Fire Away.
What Rasulullaah 🚟 saw when He struck A Boulder During Preparations for the Battle of Khandag an the Glad Tidings he gave the Sahabah Hadhrat Khaalid Susses Drinks Poison and the Statement of a Christian about the Sahabah (Susses).
Statements of the Sahabah (Salashara) Attesting that Large Numbers Does not Bring Assistance
The Reality and Perfection of Imaan
Rasulullaah 袋婆 asks Hadhral Haarith Bin Maalik 宏雄感 how he Felt and his Reply Rasulullash (### asks Hadhrat Mu'aadh (#### how he Felt and his Reply
Rasulullaah 機能 asks Hadhrat Suwayd bin Haaritha 氢磷酸 and his Companions	60

The Incident of a Munaafig who Approached Rasululiaah (Wife to Seek Forgiveness on his behalf	60
imaan (Belief) In the Being of Allaah 3,500 and His Attributes	61
A Sahabi Single Recites Surah (khlaas in Abundance	61
Rasulullaah (22) Corroborates what a Jewish Scholar had to say about Allaah.	61
The Narrations of Hadhrat Anas (Spiess) and Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Spiess) about how Allaah will Resurrect People	62
Rasulullaah 總諾 Instructs the Sahabah 經過過 to say,	62
A Jew Questions Rasululaah (2006) about Volition	63
Rasulullaah 🕮 and the Sahabah 🚈 Oversleep by the Will of Allaah	63
A Jew Questions Hadhrat Umar ఆయ్యాప్ about the verse "Jannah has the vastness of the heavens and the earth"
Hadhrat Ali Susses Debates with a man about Volition
Rasulullaah (SEE tells the Sahabah (SEE) what Hypocrisy is not	65
The Incident of Rasulullaah www with a Bedouin asking about Reckoning	65
The Incident of Hadhrat Mu'aadh Siess when Hadhrat Umar Siess Sent him to Collect zakaah
The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha @ concerning the Lady who Debated	66
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Statements of Hadhrat Abu
The Statement of Hadhrat Aa'isha William when a Woman Passed Away while in Sajdah	67
Imaan (Belief) in the Angels	68
The Statement of Hadhrat All States Concerning the Turbulence of the Water and Wind when the Nati	ion
of Hadhral Nooh & and the Nation of Aad were Destroyed	68
Hadhrat Salmaan Salmaan says at the Time of his Death, "I have a few Visitors who have entered"	68
Imaan (Belief) in Predestination	69
Resulullaah (1994)'s Words to Hadhrat Aa'isha (1994)'s at the Funeral of a Child from the Ansaar	69
Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit 些認識 enjoins his Son to believe in the Predestination of Good and Evil	69
A Sahabi (Salas) Weeps on his Deathbed because He knew Not What Allaah had Destined for him	70
Hadhrat Muaa'dh Sales Weeps on his Deathbed because He knew Not What Allaah had Destined for hir	m70
What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ($1000) sald about People who Contested Bellef in Predestination	70
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sissis severs Relations with a Friend who Objected to Predestination	71
The Statement of Hadhrat Ali Sizes concerning predestination and Those who Object to it	72
The Couplets Hadhrat Umar 经减滤 would Recite on the pulpit Concerning predestination	73
Imaan (Belief) in the Signs of Qiyaamah	73
The Words of Rasulullaah W When Allaah Revealed the verse "When the trumpet is blown"	73
The Fear of Hadhrat Sauda Yamaaniyyah (2006) for the Appearance of Dajjaal	73
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2006) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (2006) Concerning
Dajjaal	74
Imaan (Bellef) in What is to Happen in the Grave and the Existence of Barzakh	74
The Words of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq (on his Deathbed	74
The Words of Hadhrat Umar States on his Deathbed	76
The Weeping of Hadhrat Uthmaan Susses whenever he Stood by a Grave	76
The Words of Hadhrat Hudhayfah	77

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	7
he Words of Hadhrat Abu Moosa 密域感 at the Approach of Death
Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr (1986) Longs to be in One of three Conditions	78
maan (Belief) in the Aakhirah	78
Rasulullaah 🕬 s Description of Jannah	.78
The Incident of Hadhrat Faatima @@@@ when she Went to her Father @@ for something of benefit in this World and Returned with Something of Benefit in the Aakhirah
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 经减速器 Concerning the Reason for People being Obliviou of the Aakhirah
Imaan (Belief) in the What is to Happen on the Day of Qiyaamah
Rasulullaah (See) The What is to Happen on the Bay of Varyasinan
Rashullaan 왕호 S Desire to his Orlinan to Comprise of Hall the People of Varinan [H. W. C. H. C. C. C. C. C. C. C. C. C. C. C. C. C.
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha 竖斑鸲。Weeps at the Thought of a Verse Concerning Jahannam Hadhrat Ubaadah 竖斑鸲。Asks his Family and Neighbours to Take Retribution from him When Death	02
Approached	83
Hadhral Umar (Supplemental Umar (Supplemental Umar (Supplementa) Umar (Supplementa) Umar
The Weeping of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah উটেইজ and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya উটেইজ when they Heard a Hadith about the Aakhirah Imaan (Belief) in Intercession.
Rasulullaah (## says, "My Intercession shall be for those members of my Ummah who never commit Shirk"
The Du'aa Rasulullaah 225 will Make for his Ummah Before Allaah shall be his Intercession on their Behalf
Rasulullaah & says, "I am an Excellent man for the Sinners of my Ummah"
The verse of the Quraan that kindles the Most Hope According to Hadhrat Ali 😂 🚟
그리는 것 보다 보다 보다 되었다. 그런 사람들은 얼마나 있는 것 같아 하는 것 같아 하는 것 같아 하는 것이다. 그런 것이 없는 것이다. 그런 것이다.
The Statement of Hadhrat Buraydah 经现场 in front of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 空域场 Concerning Intercession
The Reply Hadhrat Jaabir இந்தே gave a person who Denied Intercession	00
The Sahabah (2006) Picture the Scene of Jannah in a Gathering with Rasulullaah (2006) as if they	ò can Actually see it before their Eyes
Rasulullaah 您是 Tells the Sahabah 您证证 about the Last Day
A Bedouin asks Rasulullaah 💯 about a Tree in Jannah
A Bedouin asks Rasulullaah 🕮 about the Fruit of Jannah
An Abyssinian Man Dies in Rasulullaah (2007) s Gathering after Hearing the Description of Jannah
Hadhrat Ali 图域感 Gives Hadhrat Umar 图域感 the Glad Tidings of Jannah on his Deathbed
Hadhrat Umar 告诉告 Weeps at the Mention of Jannah
Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (1996) Is Hopeful of Jannah on his Deathbed
Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Success Fears the Life after Death at the time of his Death
The Previously Quoted Statements of the Sahabah (Similari Concerning Belief in Jannah and Jahannam
Hadhrat Aa'isha 吸弧弧 Weeps at the Thought of Jahannam and the Words of Rasulullaah 證据
An Old Man and a Youngster Pass Away at the Mention of Jahannam
The Previously Quoted Statements of the Sahabah (2016) Concerning Fear for Jahannam
Conviction in the Promises of Allaah	9
The Conviction of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 🖽 in the Battle between the Romans and the Persians as Promised by Aliaah	9

The Conviction of Hadhrat Ka'b bin Adi (2006) about the Domination of Islaam	100
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 生物形成, Hadhrat Umar 生物态 and Hadhrat Sa'd 生物态	about
Conviction in the Allaah's Promise to Assist the Mu'mineen	101
Conviction in the Words of Rasulullaah 😂 🖟
Hadhrat Khuzaymah bin Thaabit (1996) Corroborates the Words of Rasulullaah (1996) in a Disput a Bedouin Hadhrat Abu Bakr Weiffes Rasulullaah Wess Account of his Night Journey (to the heave
Hadhrat Umar Shake's Conviction in the Words of Rasulullaah (2007) Concerning the Extinction of Sp
Hadhrat All Sales S Conviction in the Words of Rasulullaah See Concerning his Assassination
Hadhrat Ammaar Sizes S Conviction in the Words of Rasulullaah
Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Sizes)'s Conviction in the Words of Rasulullaah (Sizes) Concerning his Death Hadhrat Khuraym bin Aws @ Conviction in the Words of Rasulullaah @ Concerning Sha
bint Bugaylah	A
Hadhrat Mughelrah bin Shu'ba S assistance and Victory
The Conviction of Hadhrat Abu Dardae States in the Words Rasulullaah (SE Taught him for Protest
Statements of the Sahabah මෙනුමේ that have Been Quoted Previously Concerning Conviction in I Words of Rasulullaah මුල්ම	the Conviction in the Recompense for Actions
The Conviction of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2006) in the Recompense for Actions
The Conviction of Hadhrat Urnar bin Khattaab
The Conviction of Hadhrat Amr bin Samurah (Samo) and Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn (Samo)
The Belief of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 知識論 and another Sahabl 经超過 Concerning Recompense
The Strength of the Imaan of the Sahabah
The Sahabah (Abide by the verse "Whether you make known what is in your hearts or hide
The Response of the Sahabah (2006) to the verse "Those who do not mix their Imaan with wrong-
The Response of the Ladies of the Sahabah (#1966) when Allaah revaled the verse: "And they sh wear their scarves over their Chests"
The Incident of an Old Man who had Committed many Sins and the Incident of Hadhrat Abu Farwah 😃	118
The Incident of a Sinful Woman and Hadhral Abu Hurayrah Street
The Response of Rasululiaah 微定's Poets when Allaah Revealed the verse: "Only deviant people the poets"
The Longing to Meet Allaah and Dislike to Meet Him
Hadhral Abu Bakr (1986) Weeps when Allaah reveals the verse: "When the earth shall quake most violently*
Rasululiaah 😂 Informs Hadhrat Umar 🕮 About what would Happen in the Grave
The Statement of Hadhrat Umar 密路區 Concerning the Strength of Hadhrat Uthmaan 多路路 Ir	naan 122
Words of the Sahabah 地域區 that have Already Been Quoted about the Strength of Imaan	122
Chapter Twelve:	125
The Chapter Concerning the Sahabah Cotting Together for salaah	125
The Encouragement Nabi

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (COLOR)	- 9
The Narrations of Hadhrat Uthmaan 送過過多 and Hadhrat Salmaan 经通过多	125
The Incident of Two Brothers who Passed away, One as a Martyr and the Other some time Later	126
Rasulullaah 🕮 tells a Sahabi that his Salaah is Compensation for his Sin	127
Rasulullaah 🕮 s Reply to a man who asked Him about the Best of all Deeds	127
Rasulullaah (tells a man who has Fulfilled the Pillars of Islaam that he is From Amongst the Siddeegeen and the Martyrs	127
Rasulullaah 🕮 Emphasises the Performing of Salaah Even on his Deathbed	128
he Encouragement the Sahabah 過滤器 gave for Salaah	128
he Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉德多 and Hadhrat Umar 劉德多 Concerning Salaah	128
he Statements of Hadhrat Zaid இந்தே, Hadhrat Hudhayfah இந்தே, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar প্রাইজ্জ and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr প্রাইজ্জ Concerning Salaah	129
iome Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经能能的, Hadhrat Salmaan 经能能的 and Hadhrat
Abu Moosa Ash'ari Susses Concerning Salaah	129
lasulullaah 😂 s Fervour for Salaah and the Extreme Importance he Gave to it	131
Rasulullaah 🗯 says that The Coolness of his Eyes is in Salaah and the Remark of Hadhrat
Jibra'eel %학교	131
lasulullash 🕮 says, "My Passion is for Standing in salaah at Night"	131
tatements of the Sahabah 🕾 😅 Concerning Rasulullaah 🐲 s salaah at Night	131
he incident of Hadhrat Hudhaylah 🕬 with Rasulullaah 🐲
The Namation of Hadhrat Aa'isha അନ୍ଧଳିକ Concerning Rasulullaah 생활's Recitation of Qur'aan in Salaah	134
Rasululiaah (1965) Issues the Command during his Illness that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1966) should Lead the people in Salaah	134
The Happiness of the Muslims when they Saw Rasulullash 🕮 Looking at them as Hadhrat Abu Bakr
Eliza Led the Salaah	135
The Fervour the Sahabah (had for Salaah and the Extreme Importance They Gave to it	136
fadhrat Umar (Shalash is Roused from his Coma with the Announcement of Salash	136
ladhrat Uthmaan Sisses Spends the whole night reciting the entire Qur'aan in a single Rakaah of salaah	137
ladhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1986) Refuses to Forego standing in salaah for Treating his Blindness	137
The Fervour Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (1986) had for Salaah	138
he Fervour Hadhrat Saalim 金融區 the Freed Slave of Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah 金融區 had for Salaal
he Fervour Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 经隐藏 and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 经膨胀 had for Salaah	139
The Fervour Hadhrat Abu Talha Ansaari (1996) and Another Sahabi (1996) had for Salaah	139
The Fervour Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ভাউভিজ and Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim ভাউভিজ had for Salaah	140
The Construction of Masaajid	140
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Silview) and Hadhrat Talq bin All (Silview) Concerning The Construction of Masjidun Nabawi.	140
The Effort that the Wife of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa (2006) Put into the Construction of the Masjidun Nabawi	140
Rasulullaah (1996)'s Desire to have His Masjid like the Shelter of Hadhrat Moosa	141
Rasulullaah (1986 Prostrates in Mud in the Masjid	141
Resulullash @ Refuses to Build the Masiid Like the Buildings in Shaam	142

10 THE LI	VES OF THE SANABAH (COMES) (Vol-3)
The Masjid is Extended during the Periods of of Hadhrat Uma	ar Sassa and Hadhrat Uthmaan Sassa . 142
Rasululiaah (### Demarcates A Location in Madinah for a N	tasjid for the Juhaynah Tribe143
The Letter of Hadhrat Umar (Spices to the Governors of the V	arious Districts Concerning the Construction of Masaajid
Maintenance and Cleanliness of the Masaajid	144
Rasululiaah (See s Instruction for Places of Salaah to be made	inside Houses and that they Be kept Clean 144
Rasulullaah 🕮 Sees in Jannah a Woman who Used to Ke	ep the Masjid Clean144
Hadhrat Umar : Burns Incense in the Masjidun Nabar	M145
Walking to the Masaajid
The Incident of an Ansaari who Walked to the Masjid from his	s Distant home
Rasulullaah @ Shortens his Steps to the Masjid
Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik 空路區 Shortens his Steps when	Valking to the Masjid146
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood William Hurries for Salaah	146
Rasululiaah @@ Prohibits Running for Salaah
What Masaajid are Built for and what the Sahabah	did therein
The Sahabah (Condemn a Bedouin who Urinated in	the Masjid and the Stance Rasulullaah
認能 took in the matter	146
The Incident of Rasulullaah (with Some Sahabah)	who were sitting in the Masjid to Engage in Dhikr
The Incident of Rasulullaah We with Three Persons and th	e Incident when he Sat with those Busy with the Qur'aan
The Statement of Hadhrat Ali Space Concerning the Quira	a of the Quraan148
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah States with the Peo	and the state of t
Hadhrat Umar (Signer) Praises the Gatherings in the Masaa	the second secon
Rasulullaah (Walks from the Masjid with the Sahabah) Rasulullaah /空等 has Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh 经路路 pi
during the Battle of Khandag	149
The Men of Suffa, Hadhrat Abu Dharr (and other Sa
Rasulullaah E Hastens to the Masjid when the Wind Blo	from the first of the first of the street of the Rasulullaah WE Makes a Delegation from the Thaqeef sta
What the Sahabah (did in the Masjid Apart from Iba
Things that Rasulullaah 微端 and the Sahabah 細胞區 Di
Rasulullaah Disapproves of Interlacing the Fingers wh
Rasululiaah Disapproves of a person entering the Mas
Rasulullaah & Disapproves of Spitting in the Masjid
Rasulullaah Sa and the Sahabah Cos Disapprove of Rasulullaah (25) and his Sahabah (25) Disapprove of Hadhrat Umar (Supplement) Disapproves of Raising the Voice, Mak	the self-self-self-self-self-self-self-self-
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Simos Disapproves of Re
the Direction of the Qibla
Hadhrat Haabis Taa'ee & Disapproves of People Per
Haulitat Haavis Tad de Samero Disappiores of Feople Fel	mile opion of the 1 tout of me weeking

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Col-3)	11
before Dawn	155
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Disapproves of Performing Salaah behind Every Pillar in the Masjid.	156
The Importance Rasulullaah (26) and the Sahabah (20) Gave to the Adhaan	156
Before the Direction to Call out the Adhaan, Rasululiaah (rejects the Proposals to Ring a Bell or to Blow a Trumpet to Announce the Salaah	156
Before the Directive to Call out the Adhaan, the Call "As salaatu Jaaml'ah" was Made during the Time of
Rasululaah 🕮	157
Hadhrat Sa'd Qaradh 登場後 Calls out The Adhaan for Rasulullaah 機能 at Quba	. 157
Statements of the Sahabah (Statements of the Sahabah (Statements of the Sahabah (Statements of the Sahabah (Statements))	158
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 经递滤。 Words to a man who Adopted a Singing Tone when Calling out the Adhaan and took Payment for it	159
Rasulullaah 變變 and Hadhral Abu Bakr 營運營 Instruct that Jihaad be Waged Against Tribes amongs whom the Adhaan is not called out	. 159
Rasulullaah 设施 and the Sahabah 過回過多 Wait for Salaah	, 160
Rasulullaah 🕬 s Directive in this Matter
The Sahabah (Siese) Wait for Salaah until Half the Night had Passed	. 160
Rasulullaah (1996)'s Words to those who Waited for the Next Salaah after Maghrib and After Zuhr	. 160
Rasulullaah Salaah	. 161
Rasulullaah 😂 Encourages Waiting for Salaah	. 161
Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 经现金s Interpretation of Guarding the Borders during the Time of Rasululaah 经路.	162
The Statement of Hadhrat Anas See Concerning the verse "Their sides part from their beds"	162
Emphasis and Importance shown to Performing Salaah in Congregation	.162
The Importance Resulullaah (2009) Showed to Salaah in Congregation and His Unwillingness to Allow a Blind Man to Forego it	. 162
The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经现金 and Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 经现金
About Salaah in Congregation	. 163
The Sahabah அதுத்த Suspicion about the Person who did not Perform the Fajr and Isha Salaahs
ir Congregation	. 164
Hadhrat Umar William's Statement concerning a Person Who missed the Fajr Salaah in congregation
because he had Stayed awake at Night in Ibaadah	. 164
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Supple Concerning Salaah in congregation and the Action
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1976) took when he Missed Isha Salaah in congregation	. 168
Hadhrat Haarith bin Hassaan 经减多 leaves home for the Fair Salaah the night he got Married and the
Taunting he Received	. 16
Straightening and Arranging the Rows of Salaah	. 16
The Importance Rasulullaah 過過 Attached to Straightening the Rows of the Sahabah 過過過 in Salaah	, 16
Hadhrat Umar 空間等,Hadhrat Uthmaan 空間等 and Hadhrat Ali 空間等 Instruct the Straightening of Rows before the Takbeer
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah biri Mas'ood (Statement of Hadhrat of Hadhrat Abdullaah biri Mas'ood (Statement of Hadhrat Statements of Rasulullaah 機能 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 当顾问 Concerning the First Row.
Rasulullaah (Instructs that the Muhaajireen and Ansaar should Occupy the First Row	. 168

nvolvement of the Imaam with the Needs of the People after the Igaamah has Been Called out	168
Rasululiaah 经验。Involvement With Such Matters	168
Hadhrat Umar (###### and Hadhrat Uthmaan (###################################	169
eading the Salaah and Following the Imaam During the Time of Rasulullaah (1996)	169
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Sulyaan 營화하는 Concerning the Discipline of the Sahabah 營화하는 when be saw them Performing Salaah	169
The Sahabah 經濟等 Perform Salaah behind Hadhrat Abu Bakr 또대중 upon the Instruction of Rasulullaah 經濟	170
he Statements of Hadhrat Umar 經過過 and Hadhrat Ali 空間的 Concerning Hadhrat Abu Bakr
Bission Leading the Salaah	-
The Statement of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi 经减多 Concerning the Leadership of Arabs
he Sahabah 🚈 🖦 Ioliow Slaves in Salaah	172
ladhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经定路 Performs Salaah Behind Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 经现金。 In his house	173
Hadhrat Furaat bin Hayyaan (1996) Performs Salaah in his Masjid behind Hadhrat Handhala bin
Rabee (Singles) on the Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Rasulullaah (Signal Instruction of Signal Instruction of S	174
The Ameer of Makkah Appoints Hadhrat Ibn Abzah as his Deputy to Lead the salaah To the Approval of Hadhrat Umar 발표들	174
Hadhrat Miswar একেজ pulls back an Imaam Whose Recitation was not Clear and Hadhrat Umar উম্মন্তিক Sanctions his Act Hadhrat Talha (1986) asks a Congregation he had Led in salaah whether they were Pleased with his Salaah	175
Hadhrat Anas (Spaces)'s Differences with Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez and Hadhrat Abu Avyoob	iru
S Differences with MArwaan Concerning salaah	175
The statements of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ఆయ్యం, Hadhrat Anas ఆయ్యం and Hadhrat Adi ఆయ్యం	110
About the Salaah of the Sahabah (2006) Behind Rasulullaah (2006)	176
Rasulullaah (25) and the Sahabah (25) Weep in Salaah
Rasulullaah (2005) Meeps in Salaah
Hadhrat Umar 물병을 Weeps in Salaah
Devotion and Concentration in Salaah
Devotion and Concentration in Salaan
	-05
The Devotion of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ⑤호종 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ⑤호종 in salaah
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 52006 Reprimands his wife Hadhrat Ummu Roomaan 62006 for Leaning in her Salaah
The Importance Rasulullaah (SEE Attached to the Emphasised Sunnah Salaahs
The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha (States) Regarding the Sunnah Salaahs Rasulullaah (See Performed
The Extreme Importance Rasulullaah (1996) gave to the Two Rakaahs Before the Fajr Salaah
The Extreme Importance Rasulullaah @ gave to the Four Rakaahs Before the Fardh of Zuhr Salaah
Rasulullaah 🕉 's Salaah before Asr and After Maghrib
The Importance the Sahabah (2006) Attached to the Emphasised Sunnah Salaahs
The Importance Hadhrat Umar 经减额的 gave to the Sunnah Salaahs Before the Fajr and Zuhr Salaahs The Importance Hadhrat 4" 经减额的 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减额的 gave to the Sunnah	. 182

THE LIVES OF THE SAHARAH (CVol-3)	13
Salaahs Before the Zuhr Salaah	. 182
The Importance Hadhrat Baraa (1996) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) gave to the Sunnah
Salaahs Before the Zuhr Salaah	183
The Importance Hadhrat Ali (2008) gave to the Sunnah Salaah Before the Asr Salaah and The Importance Hadhrat All (Silves) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Silves) Attached to the
Sunnah Salaahs Between the Maghrib and Isha Salaahs	183
The Importance Rasulullash (22) and the Sahabah (EDITION Altached to the Tahajjud Salaah
A Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) Concerning The Importance that Rasulullaah (2006) Attached to Olyaamul Layl	183
The Namation of Hadhrat Jaabir ($1506) About the Tahailud Salaah Being Compulsory Before Concession was Granted
Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Hishaam asks Hadhrat Aa'isha ($3566) About Rasulullaah ($266) S Witr Salaah
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sizes Concerning the Witr of the Sahabah Sizes	- 104
after Surah Muzammil was Revealed	196
The Tahajjud Salaah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr కూడితో and Hadhrat Umar కూడితో
The Tahajjud of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986)
The Tahaijiud salaah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 型域等 and Hadhrat Salmaan 登域等
The importance Rasululiaah (25% and the Sahabah (25%) Attached to the Nawaafil Salaahs betwee
Sunnise and Midday
The Narrations of Hadhrat Ummu Haani @ and Hadhrat Aa'sha @ Concerning the Salaatu
Duhaa that Rasulullaah & Performed
Narrations of Hadhrat Anas 岳政治 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa 岳政治 Concerning the	100
Salaatud Duhaa thatRasulullaah	199
The namation if Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sasses from Hadhrat Ummu Haani Sasses Concernin the Salaatud Duhaa that Rasulullaah Rasulullaah (See Encourages the Performing of Salaatud Duhaa and explains its Virtues
Hadhrat Ali 知識。Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 知識。and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas 知識
Perform Salaatud Duhaa
The Importance Attached to the Nawaafil Between Zuhr and Asr
The Importance Attached to the Nawaafil Between Maghrib and Isha
The Salaah Rasulullaah (SEE Performs salaah between Maghrib and Isha and the Salaah of Hadhrat	100
Ammaar STEES	190
The Salaah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 學過過多 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 學過過多 between Maghrib and Isha	191
Giving Importance to salaah when Entering and Leaving the House
The Taraweeh Salaah
Rasululiaah (歌藝 Encourages the Taraweeh salaah Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b & Leads the people in Taraweeh and the Taraweeh salaah during the Tir of Rasululiaah (25) and the time of Hadhrat Umar (2005)
Hadhrat Umar (1986) has the Masjid lit up for the Taraweeh Salaah to be Performed and the Du'aa
Hadhrat Ali 出版的 made for him on this Occasion	192

Hadhrat Ubay 密端感, Hadhrat Tameem Daari 密路感 and Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma
Substitute Lead the People in Taraweeh	193
Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b 🕾 🐼 Leads the Women of his Household in Taraweeh Salaah	193
alaatut Taubah	194
alaatul Haajah	194
ladhrat Anas ఆయ్ performs salaah at the Time of Need and His Need is Fulfilled	194
asulullash (## Performs Salash for Hadhrat All (###) to be Cured and he is Cured	194
he Du'aa of a Sahabi Hadhrat Abu Mu'liq 些職為 Is Answered when a Robber Wanted to Kill him	194
Chapter Theirteen:	196
he Chapter Concerning Knowledge and TheFervour the Sahabah 2000 had for Knowledge	196
he Encouragement Rasulullaah 微導 Gave towards Knowledge	196
asulullaah 邊路 Welcomes Hadhrat Safwaan bin Assaal 過源過多 who had come to Seek Knowledge	196
asulullaah 🕮 s Words to Hadhrat Oabeesah 🕮 when he Came to Seek knowledge	196
asulullaah ﷺ Tells Two of the Sahabah ﷺ that Seeking Knowledge Atones for Sins	197
he Superiority of an Aalim over an Ordinary Worshipper in the Words of Rasululiaah	197
he Encouragement Resulullaah 🕸 gave for Seeking Knowledge	198 asulullaah (See's Words to a Working Man who Complained of his Brother who was Busy
Acquiring Knowledge	198
he Encouragement the Sahabah 😂 😘 Gave towards Seeking Knowledge	198
adhrat Ali 🕮 🕮 Encourages Acquiring Knowledge and the Narration of Hadhrat Kumayl from him .	138
he Encouragement Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 经联验 gave Towards Knowledge	200
he Encouragement Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经路路 gave Towards Knowledge	201
he Encouragement Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 🖘 gave Towards Knowledge	201 he Encouragement Hadhrat Abu Dharr 经隐藏 and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 经隐藏 gave Towards Knowledge	203
he Encouragement Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 🐯 gave Towards Knowledge	203
he Encouragement Hadhrat Safwaan bin Assaal 😂 gave Towards Knowledge	203
he Fervour that the Sahabah @ 666 had for Knowledge	204
he Statement Hadhrat Mu'aadh ఆమాతన Made on his deathbed about his Fervour for Knowledge	204
he Fervour that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 🚟 😘 had for Knowledge he Fervour that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ($100%) had for Acquiring Knowledge	204 ladhrat Abu Hurayrah ఆడితిం's Fervour for knowledge he True Meaning of Knowledge and what the Word Knowledge Refers to when Used in a General Contex	206 larrations from Rasulullaah (25) Concerning the True Meaning of Knowledge he Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Sales) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Sales) Concerning the real meaning of Knowledge Reprimanding those who Occupy Themselves with Learning Things that are Contrary to that Which Rasululiaah (25) Taught	208
Rasululiah 🕮 Reprimands People who did this Hadhrat Umar இண்டு Rebukes a man who Wrote the Scripture of Hadhrat Daaniyaal இயு and His

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	15
Incident with Rasulullaah 🕮	. 209
Hadhrat Umar Susses Rebukes a man who told him That he Found a Scripture with wonderful Content	210
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减减多 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 经减减多 Condemn
Questioning The Ahlul Kitaab	211
Being affected by the Knowledge of Allaah and His Rasool Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 多類感 and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 多数多 are Affected by a Hadith of
Rasulullaah 🚟	212
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Sasaan Hadhrat Hassaan Weep when Allaah Revealed the Verse; "Only deviant people follow the poets"	.214
The People of Yemen Weep when they Hear the Qur'ean During the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr @###	214
A Warning to the Aalim who does not Teach others and to Ignorant Person who does not Learn
Allaah will Grant Whoever Strives to Gain Knowledge and Imaan	216
The Words of Hadhrat Mu'aadh States to a Man who Was Weeping by his Bedside before his Death
Learning Imaan, knowledge and Practise All at the Same Time	217
The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 墨寧德, Hadhrat Jundub bin Abdullaah 劉寧德 and Hadhral All 经路径 in this Regard	217
Acquiring That Much of Deeni knowledge that One Needs
The Words of Hadhral Salmaan Salmaan from the Banu Abs Tribe in this Regard	218
The Words of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William to a man who Wrote to ask him about Knowledge	219
Teaching Deen, Islaam and the Faraa'idh	219
Rasululiaah 機能 Teaches the Deen to Hadhrat Abu Rifaa'ah 多版語	219
Rasulullaah 微麗 Teaches Deen to a Bedouin, to Hadhrat Farwah bin Musayk 劉隆崎 and to a delegation from Bahraa	219
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 医隐肠 and Hadhrat Umar 医肠肠 Teach Deen
Teaching Salaah	_221
Rasulullaah (25% Teaches the Sahabah (25%) How to Perform Salaah	221
Rasulullaah 迷茫, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 运动运动, Hadhrat Umar 空动场 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin
Mas'ood Sings Teach the Tashahhud	221
Hadhrat Hudhayfah Amas Teaches Salaah to a man who Could not Perform Salaah Well	222
Teaching Adhkaar and Du'aas	222
Rasulullaah (## Teaches Adhkaar and Du'aas to Hadhrat Ali (##)	222
Hadhrat Ali 🕾 Teaches Adhkaar and Du'aas to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far 🕾	223
Rasulullaah	224
Hadhrat All 当時時 Teaches People how to Send Salutations to Rasulullaah 操義	225
Teaching Guests and Those who Came to Madinah
Rasulullaah : Instructs the Sahabah : Teach the Delagation from the Abdul Qais Tribe	225
Acquiring knowledge While Travelling	228
Rasulullaah (2004) Teaches the Injunctions of Deen While Travelling for the Farewell Hajj	228
The Incident of How Hadhrat Jaabir Ghaadiri (Ghaediri Acquired Knowledge during Rasulullaah
€965's Journey	228
Combining Jihaad and Acquiring Knowledge	. 230

16	THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH	/ol-3)
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Sa	eed Khudri (Sales) about how the Sahabah (Cambined)
Fighting Battles with Acquiring	Knowledge	230
Combining Earning and Acquiring	Knowledge	230
The Narration of Hadhrat Anas 🕾	about how the Sahabah (Combined Earning with
Acquiring Knowledge		230
Hadhrat Umar 经加速 and his Ar	nsaari Neighbour Take turns to Learn	231
Hadhrat Baraa Sussis says that	all of them could not Hear Ahadeeth from Rasulullaah (###	232
Hadhrat Talha 生成场 says that	it was During the Ends of the day that they went to Rasulullaah 🕮	_ 232
Learning the Deen before Earning	a Living	232
Educating one's Family		233
Hadhrat Ali 墨颂夢's Interpretation	on of the verse: "Save yourselves and your families from the Fire"	233
Rasulullaah (Instructs People	e to Teach and Educate their Families	233
Learning the Language of the Ene	my and of Others for Sake of Deen	233
Rasulullaah 認疑 Instructs Hadhr	at Zaid Success to Learn the Jewish Language	233
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 🖽	understands the Language of his Slaves	234
Hadhrat Umar States Instructs 1	he Study of Astronomyand Genealogy	234
Hadhrat Ali Sussion Instructs Had	thrat Abul Aswad Duwell to Write the Fatha, Dhamma and Kasra into the Qur'agnic Text		234
	to Teach the People
Can a Leader Prevent Someone for	rom Proceeding in the path of Allaah for the sake of Knowledge?	235
Hadhrat Umar (Space) Confines	Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaebit (States) in Madinah to Teach the People	235
Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit 经联络	Teaches People During the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Uthmaan @ and an	d
the Statement of Hadhrat Uma	ar 劉本帝 Concerning Hadhrat Mu'aadh 劉本帝 Leaving for Shaam	236 to Various Lands for Teaching
Rasulullaah 機器 Dispatches a G	roup of Sahabah (2006) to Educate the Udhal and Qaara Tribes	236
Rasulullaah (Sends Hadhrat	Ali 医脑肠 and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 医脑肠 to Yemen	237
	Amr binHazam (States), Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (States) and Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal S	to Yemen	237
	Ammaar (Can belonging to the Qais Tribe
Hadhrat Umar William Dispatche	s Hadhrat Ammaar (Alicies) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood
	ladhrat imraan 🖘 😂 to Basrah	238
	as Hadhral Mu'aadh bin Jabal (1996) and Hadhral Abu Dardaa 238 rch of knowledge
	o Shaam and to Egypt to Hear Two Ahadeeth of Rasulullah
	多 Travels to Egypt to Hear a Hadith from Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir 知識多 Travels to see Hadhrat Masiama bin Mukhallad Salass and another ee Hadhrat Fudhaala bin Ubayd 🖫 💮
	Travels to see Hadhrat Ali
A Committee of the Comm	So Concerning Travelling in Search of Knowledge
	e People and what Happens when Knowledge Lies with People	127

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	17
Unworthy of it	242
Rasulullaah 😂 Sends Hadhrat Abu Tha'laba 🔾 to Learn from Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin
Jarraah 当時時 and Praises him	242
Rasulullaah (See Makes it Clear that Seeking Knowledge from Unworthy People is Amongst the Signs of Qiyaamah	243
Statements of Hadhrat Umar States and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas ood States Concerning Acquiring Knowledge from Seniors	243
Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 🕾 and Hadhrat Umar 🕾 Both Warn Against Acquiring Knowledge from people who are not Worthy of it	244
Hadhrat Ugba bin Aamir (Simples) Emphasises to his Children to Accept Ahadeeth Only from Reliable
Sources	244
The Sermon Hadhrat Umar (1998) Delivered at Jaabiyah About Acquiring Knowledge from the Schola	rs
of the Sahabah #34666	244
Salutations and Glad Tidings for the Student
Rasulullaah 😂 Welcomes Hadhrat Safwaan bin Assaal 🖘	245
Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 型電影 Welcomes Some Students	245
Hadhraf Abu Hurayrah Stage Welcomes Students	246
Hadhral Abu Dardaa Salas Smiles when Narrating Ahadeeth
Satherings of Knowledge and Being in the Company of Ulema Rasulullaah 變麗 Encourages the Gatherings of Knowledge and the Sahabah 經驗經 Sit in Groups Around him
The Gatherings of the Sahabah (2006) after the Fajr Salaah
Rasulullaah 🕮 Sits with a Gathering of the Sahabah 😂 that Included many Poor People
Rasulullaah 🕮 Prefers the Gathering of Knowledge to the Gathering of Dhikr
Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari উন্নেজ্জ and Hadhrat Umar ভালজ্জ Sit One Night in a Gathering of Knowledge
The Incident of Hadhrat Jundub Bajali with Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (1996) Concerning Seeking Knowledge
Hadhral Imraan bin Husayn 😂 😘 Narrates Ahadeeth in the Masjid of Basrah	249
People Flock to the Door of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ($100%), who Taught them all Aspects of Deeni Knowledge
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 墨瑙寧 Praises the Gatherings of Knowledge
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah 瓷球砂 and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 瓷球砂 in this Regard Respecting the Gatherings of Knowledge
Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd Saa'idi 密路區 Gets Angry with People who Fooled Around in his Gathering
The Conduct Of Ulema and Students
Rasulullaah 🞏 s Kind Address to a Youngster who Requested Permission to Fornicate
Rasululaah 🕮 Repeats Himself Thrice to Make himself Understood
Hadhrat Aa'isha 2006 Instructs Hadhrat Ibn Abi Saa'ib to hold fast to Three Factors when Teaching
The Conduct of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood States when Teaching
Hadhrat Ali 医脚端 Describes a True Scholar	252
Rasulullaah 過過 s Words to Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 经现场 and Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari
STATES when Dispatching them to Verner	253

10	THE LIVES OF THE STUDION IT IS SAID (VICES)
	Concerning the Gatherings of the Sahabah 把隐蔽 and ar 🕮 Concerning the True Aalim253 ming the Conduct of an Aalim ng the Conduct of Students254
	s Teacher Hadhrat Anas 🛎 254 with Hadhrat Umar SIGNS and his Awe for him 254 adhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas 🖽 👑
선생님들이 그리다 아내는 생생님 그런 얼마 하시다니다.	Question by saying, "I have no knowledge on the subject" 255
	in his Teaching255
Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 설	知题。Hadhrat Ali 医现象 and Hadhrat Abdullaah ling that he does not know
The Conduct of Hadhrat Umar Salass, Hadhrat A	া প্রামাজ and Hadhrat Uthmaan প্রামাজ when Teaching 257
The Incident of Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir 经延迟	and his Tribe when they Came to Rasulullaah 🕮 258
The Incident of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas §	and his Tribe when they Came to Nabi
Learning, Teaching and Rehearsing the Knowled	ge of Deen and Questions that are Appropriate and those that are Inappropriate
The Sahabah (Rehearse in Rasulullaah	### S Gathering and Ask him Questions
The Words of Hadhrat Fudhaala bin Ubayd 签项	to his Companions in this Regard
Statements of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed 经现场, Had	dhrat Ali 劉遠德, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood
துக்கு and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas	ভাটাজ Concerning Rehearsing what was Learnt 260
Hadhrat Umar 当场等 asks Hadhrat All 金属	Three Question and is Overjoyed with the Replies 260
	allaah bin Abbaas ఆయ్య about the Differences about a Particular verse and is Impressed by the Reply that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaa	s Succes gave ullaan bin Abbaas Sibis about Some Difficulty he
A colonian franche Seat Committee Contract Contr
Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Abdullaah t	oln Abbaas (Discuss a Verse and an Incident 263
the second of th	hrat Aa'lsha 🕮 🍪 About a Hadith that Hadhrat ending Funerals
그는 그러워 하다면서 이번 중에는 이 사람들이 아니라면서 이번 후 되었다면서 되어 되었다.	Concerning how Few Questions the Sahabah
他認識 Posed to Rasulullaah 微差	265
	Questions about Deen and Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym ns and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 竖远远's Condemnation of the Same
The Sahabah Condemn Asking about	Things that have not Occurred
	it to People
	arned a Profit to Learn the Qur'aan a'b المحتودة the Virtue of Surah Faatiha

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	19
Rasululiaah 🕮 Teaches the Men of Suffa
Rasulullaah 機響 Overhears Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 密線器 Reciting the Qur'aan to some People .	268
Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Teaches the Qur'aan in the Jaami Masjid of Basrah	268
Hadhrat Ali Salass Memorises the Qur'aan after the Demise of Rasulullaah	269
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Signer Learns Surah Bagarah in Four Years
Hadhrat Salmaan Recites Surah Yusuf to the People in the Masjid of Madaa'in	269
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Teaches Qur'aan to the People and Encourages them to Learn
Hadhrat Umar 医隐毒 Instructs a Man to Leave his Door to Study the Ouraan	270
What Amount of the Qur'aan Should every Muslim Learn	270
What a Person Ought to do when it is Difficult for him to Learn the Qur'aan	271
Specialising in the Quraan	271
Reproaching Those who Question the Mutashaabih Verses of the Qur'aan	272
Hadhrat Umar & Reproaches Sabeegh for Questioning the Mutashaabih Verses of the Qur'aan	272
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar Signer and Some People who Arrived from Egypt	273
Dislike for Accepting Remuneration for Teaching the Qur'aan	274
Rasulullaah
Rasulullaah (25%)'s Words to Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik (25%) and Another Sahabi (25%) in this Regard	274
Hadhrat Umar 曼斯德 Disapproves of Accepting Remuneration for Teaching the Qur'aan	275
Fear of Differences Arising once the Qur'aan Spread amongst Different People
The Fear that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas উম্ভেট্ট had about this and the Incident with Hadhrat Umar শুমুক্তি
Another Incident about the Fear Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (2006) had in this Regard
The Advice that the Sahabah (1936) gave to Qurraa
The Advice of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab Susses
The Advice of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 🖽 🚟
The Advice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Single) Occupation with the Ahadeeth of Rasulullaah W and Befitting Behaviour for those Occupied with this .
A Bedouin Questions Rasulullaah (20% about Qiyaamah when he was Busy Narrating Ahadeeth	280
Hadhral Waabisah 學藥 Propagates a Hadith of Rasulullaah 學藥 in Conformance with the	1444
Instruction Rasulullaah (2002) gave in his Farewell Sermon
Hadhrat Abu Umaamah 经超過6 Instructs his Students to Propagate
Rasulullaah (256's Du'aa for those who Narrate his Ahadeeth and Teach them to the People	281
Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 经现金的 Narrates Ahadeeth in the Masjid of Rasulullaah 投路 before the Jumu'ah Salaah	281
The Difficulty Hadhrat Umar 鉴距答, Hadhrat Uthmaan 生现多 and Hadhrat Ali 光彩彩 Experience	d
Narrating Ahadeeth
The Difficulty Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood States Experienced with Narrating Ahadeeth Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 型電影, Hadhrat Anas 医隔影 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 医隔影 all us the words "something like that or something similar" when narrating Ahadeeth.
The Dependability of Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn (September 3) Memory and Narration of Ahadeeth
Hadbrat Suhayb 學歷過齡's Reluctance to say "Rasulultaah 學歷 said"	284

Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa Samo Narrates only the Intended Meaning of the Ahadeeth	284
Hadhrat Umar Sings Censures those Sahabah Sings who Narrated Plenty of Ahadeeth	284
The Difficulty Hadhrat Zaid bin Argam (Experienced with Narrating Ahadeeth in his Old Age	285
Attaching More Importance to Practise than to Theory	. 285
Statements of Hadhrat Mu'aadh 岩球球, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 岩球球 and Hadhrat Anas 岩球球 in this Regard.	. 285
Rasulullaah (2006's Words to a Man in this Regard and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar
The Statements of Hadhrat Ali Suiss in this regard
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood & Emphasises Combining Knowledge with Action	286
Hadhrat Abu Dardaa SIGGS Fears that on the Day of Qiyaamah he will be Questioned about how much he Practised on his Knowledge	. 287
Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 岩球線 and Hadhrat Anas 岩球線 Encourage Combining Knowledge with Practise	. 287
Following the Sunnah and the Ways of the Plous Predecessors and Rejecting Bid'ah	. 288
The Encouragement Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b States Gave in this Regard	. 288
The Encouragement Hadhrat Umar States and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood States Gave in this Regard	. 288
The Encouragement Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn Surass Gave in this Regard
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 选择 Encourages Following the Sahabah 過過多	289
Hadhrat Hudhayfah Siness Encourages the Quiraa to Follow in the Footsteps of those who Preceded them
Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abl Waqqaas (Tells his son, "We are the leaders to be followed"	. 290
Hadhrat All Sizes Forbids People from Following Living People	. 290
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减少 Reproaches a Group who Opposed the Sunnah by Changing the Method of Dhikr.
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullash bin Zubayr when his Son sat with a Group who became Ecstatic as they Engaged in Dhikr.	. 292
Hadhrat Sile bin Haarith Siles and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Siles Admonish People who Related Stories in the Masjid	. 292
Abstaining from Opinions that do not Conform to the Quraan and Ahadeeth	. 293
Statements of Hadhrat Umar (in this Regard
The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood উটেভের and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas উটেভের in this Regard
The libhaad of the Sahabah (2006)
Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Tells Rasulullaah (Tells Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Tells Rasulullaah (Tells Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Tells Rasulullaah (Tells Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Tells Rasulullaah (Tells Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Tells Rasulullaah (Tells Rasulullaah (Tells Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Tells Rasulullaah (Tells Rasul	. 204
Compromising on Diligence	294
The Concern Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Spiess) and Hadhrat Umar (Spiess) had for Matters they were Unaware of	. 295
Hadhrat Umar Shurayh in this Regard	. 295
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Concerning I)thaad
The Ijithaad of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 色彩彩 and Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b 色彩彩
Exercising Caution when Issuing Fataawaa and the Sahabah 25000000000000000000000000000000000000
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla concerning the Cautiousness of the

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Color) (Vol-3)	21
Sahabah (Singles)	296
Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 些能感, Hadhrat Hudhayfah 经能够 and Hadhrat
Umar Sizes in this Regard	297
The Cautiousness of Hadhrat Zaid bin Argam and Hadhrat Baraa 🕮 in this Regard	297
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 生原感,Hadhrat Umar 生成感,Hadhrat Ulhmaan 生成感 and Hadhrat
Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf States Issue Fataawaa During the Time of Rasulullaah	297
Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 经成场等 Tells the People not to ask him Anything While Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 生态等 is Alive	298
Those Who Issued Fataawaa during the Time of Rasulullaah 🕮 and the Time of the Khulafaa Raashideer	. 298
The Knowledge of the Sahabah 😂 😂	299
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dharr 经路路 concerning the Vast Knowledge of the Sahabah 經路路	299
The Narration of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 🚟 about what he Memorised from Rasululiaah 🕮 an	d
the Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) about the Knowledge of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2006)	300
The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减少 and Hadhrat Hudhayfah 经运动 About the Knowledge of Hadhrat Umar ($1556)	300
Rasulullaah 懷露 Declares that Hadhrat Ali 劉顯德 was the most learned of the Sahabah 經濟論 a	nd
the statement of Hadhrat Ali இழக்க about his Knowledge of the Quraan	301
The Knowledge of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 🖘 💮	301
The Statement of Hadhrat Ali (1996) concerning his Knowledge and the Knowledge of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减轻的, Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 出海运动, Hadhrat Ammaar 经减少的,
Hadhrat Hudhayfah (1966) and Hadhrat Salmaan (1966)	302
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood @@@Concerning the Knowledge of Hadhrat Mu'aa	dh
bin Jabal 🖽 😘	303
Statements of Hadhrat Masrooq Concerning the Knowledge of the Sahabah	303
The Knowledge of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 🐯 🕒
WHAT PEOPLE SAID AT THE DEMISE OF HADHRAT ABDULLAAH BIN ABBAAS 经超速6	306
The Knowledge of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 密認高, Hadhrat Ubaadah 密寫高高, Hadhrat Shadda	ad bin Aws 生成的 and Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 生成的	306
The Knowledge of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 经间间等	307
The Knowledge of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@@	307
Those Utema who are Attached to Allaah and those Who are Evil	308
The Statement of Hadhrat Abduliaah bin Mas'ood (Silves) in this Regard	308
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 邊路過過 Concerning the Ulema who are attached to Allaah	309
Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经流送 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 经流送
Concerning Evil Ulema	309
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Dham 图域感, Hadhrat Ka'b 图域感 and Hadhrat Ali 图域感
Concerning Acquiring the Knowledge of Deen for worldly Motives	310
What Hadhrat Umar 🕉 Feared for the Ummah from Evil Ulema	311
Hadhrat Hudhayfah 巡過過 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 空間過 Warn the Ulema Against Frequenting the Doors of the Rulers	311
The Disappearance and Forgetting of Deeni Knowledge	312

	rint-Sy
What Rasulullaah : Meant when he Stated that Deeni Knowledge will be Lifted	312
Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'cod ஊை and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ஊண் Concerning the Lifting of Knowledge and the Statement Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 竖跨路 made when Hadhrat Zaid 多路路 passed away Propagating one's Knowledge even if One does not practise and Seeking Protection from Knowledge th	at is not Beneficial
The statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah 🚟 😂 Concerning Propagating Knowledge
Rasulullaah 👺 Seeks Protection from Knowledge that does not Benefit	314
Chapter Fourteen	.315
The Chapter Concerning The Fervour the Sahabah (Chapter Concerning
Encouragement they Gave Towards it	.315
The Encouragement Rasulullaah 他跨 Gave towards The Dhikr of Allaah 回路第二	315
Rasulullaah 😂 says, One should adopt a tongue that engages in Dhikr	315
The meaning of Rasulullaah ($35)'s Words: "The Mularridoon are in the Lead"	316
Rasulullaah 地路 says, "Whoever wishes to Eat from the Gardens of Jannah should engage in Dhikr
in Abundance*	316
Rasulullaah 變譯 Informs us that the Best of Allaah's Servants are those who Engage Abundantly in Dhilik	316
The Dhilkr of Allaah Earns the Greatest rewards and is Most Effective in Securing Deliverance from Jahannam	317
Rasulullaah 🖽 says, "Let your tongue remain Moist with the Dhikr of Allaah"	317
The Encouragement the Sahabah @@@66 Gave Towards Dhikr	318
The Encouragement Hadhrat Umar ($1996), Hadhrat Uthmaan ($1996) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin
Mas'ood 送過過多 Gave Towards Dhikr	318
The Encouragement Hadhrat Salmaan ஊக்கு and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ஊக்க Gave Towards Dhikr ,	318
The Encouragement Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr
Gave towards Dhikr	319
Rasulullaah 💖 s Fervour for Dhikr	319
Rasulullaah (ﷺ Prefers the Dhikr of Allaah to Setting Slaves Free	319
Rasulullaah 鐵錘 Prefers Dhikr to Donating Thoroughbred Horses to Mujaahideen and to Setting
Slaves Free	320
Rasulullaah 🕮 Ranks the Recitation of "Subhaanallaah", "Al Hamdulillaah", "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah" and "Allaahu Akbar" Higher than Everything in the World	320
The Fervour that the Sahabah 過過多 of Rasulullaah 過過 had for Dhikr	320
The Fervour Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 些障碍 had for Dhikr	320
The Fervour Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 🖫 and Hadhrat Mu'aadh 🖫 had for Dhikr	321
The Fervour Hadhrat Anas 些成态。Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 些流态 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin
Umar 细胞病 had for Dhikr
Gatherings of Dhikr	322
The Virtue on the Day of Qiyaamah of those Participating in the Gatherings of Dhikr	322
The Incident of an Expedition that Rasulullaah dispatched and how he rated People Engaged in
Dhikr above them	322

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	23
Rasulullaah (1996) Sits with People Engaged in Dhikr after the Revelation of a verse of the Qur'aan	322
Rasulullaah (254 Sits with a Gathering that Included Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (254 Sits with a Gathering that Included Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (254 Sits with a Gathering that Included Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha	323
Rasulullaah 微磁 Sits with a Group that included Hadhrat Salmaan 细胞的	324
Rasulullaah (25% Sits in a Gathering of Dhikr and Tells the Participants to Eat from the Gardens of Jannah .	324
Rasulullaah @@s Statement Concerning the rewards of the Gatherings of Dhikr	. 324
Expiation for the Sins of a Gathering	. 325
Rasulullaah ($356 says that Expiation for the sins of a gathering Is to Recite "Subhaana Kallaahumma
wa Bihamdik*	325
Rasulullaah 認識 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr 金崎崎 Encourage the recitation of the Du'aa after a Gathering	325
Recitation of the Qur'aan	326
The Advice Rasulullaah 障礙 gave Hadhrat Abu Dharr 经减多 about Reciting the Qur'aan	., 326
Rasulullaah ### Recites a Portion of the Our'aan every Night	326
The Fervour Hadhrat Umar (1996) had for the Recitation of the Quraan and How he used to Ask
Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 经减多 to Recite the Qur'aan	327
The Fervour Hadhrat Uthmaan @@@ had for Reciting the Qur'aan	327
The Fervour that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 些运动。Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 生活的 and Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal had for Reciting the Quraan	328
Reciting Specific Surahs of the Qur'aan During the Day and Night and while at Home and on Journey	328
Rasulullaah 提譯 Advises Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir Juhani 签项签 to recite Surah Ikhlaas and the Mu'awwadhatayn every Night	328
What Rasulullaah See Used to Recite Before Going to Sleep	329
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Suiss Concerning the Recitation of Surah Mulk and	1
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ($1500) Concerning the Recitation of Surahs Bagar	a,
Aal Imraan and Nisaa	330
Rasulullaah 證据 Teaches Hadhrat Jubayr bin Mut'im 些認為 to Recite the Five Last Surahs of the Qur'aan	330
Rasulullaah (25) Teaches Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Khubayb (37) to Recite Surah Ikhlaas and the Mu'awwadhatayn every Morning and evening	331
The Statement of Hadhrat All States Concerning the Recitation of Surah Ikhlaas after the Fajr Salaah	331
Reciting Specific Verses of the Qur'aan During the Day and Night and while at Home and on Journey,	331
What Rasulullaah Was and Hadhrat Ali Silves Said About Aayatul Kursi	331
The statements of Hadhrat Ali 出版场, Hadhrat Uthmaan 出版场 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Maslood	1
Concerning the Recitation of Certain Verses of Surah Baqarah and Surah Aal Imraan	332
The Incident of Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (Spin) and a Jinn CONCERNING Aayatul Kursi	332
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr (1996) and a Group of Jinn and the verse of the Qur'aan
he Recited	333
What Hadhrat Alaa bin Jalaaj instructed his Sons to do when they Place him in his Grave	333
Dhikr of the Kalimah Laa Ilaaha Illallaah
Rasulullash (1998) says that the Person most Fortunate to Receive his Intercession will be the One who Recites the Kalimah (นั่น เห็น เร็บ yั) with	334
Complete Sincerity

		40.00
	Rasulullaah (Speaks about the Advice that Hadhrat Nooh (gave to his Sons	335
	Rasulullaah 經濟 Gives the Glad Tidings of Jannah for the Sahabah 經濟學 who Recited the Kalimah with him in a Gathering	. 335
	Rasulullaah 🕮 Says that (นั่น ที่ ได้ทั่ง) is the Best of all Good Deeds	. 338
	Hadhrat Umar Suiss and Hadhrat Ali Suiss State that is "The Word of Tagwa"	336
	(Lea Ileaha (الله الله) ('Subhaanallaah') (التحمدُ لِله) ('Al Hamdulillaah') (سُبِّحَانَ اللَّهِ)
	الاَّ حَوْلَ وَلَا فَوَّهَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ) (Allaahu Akbar) and (اَللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ) (Laa Howla wa Laa Quwwata
	Illa Billaah')	.336
Ó	Rasulullaah 🕮 Mentions that these Adhkaar are the 'Everlasting Good Deeds'	. 336
	Rasululiash (22) Mentions that these Adhkaar Serve as Protection from Jahannam	. 337
	Rasulullaah @ Mentions that the Rewards for these Adhkaar are as Huge as Mount Uhud	. 337
	Rasulullaah 🕮 Speaks about the Plants of Jannah and His Instruction to eat to One's Fill in the Gardens of Jannah	.337
	Rasulullaah ﷺ Speaks about Words of Dhikr that Shakes Off Sins	. 338
	Rasulullaah ﷺ Teaches Dhikr to a Bedouin	. 338
ì	Rasululiaah 🕮 informs Hadhrat Abu Dharr 🚟 About the Words that are Most Beloved to Allaah	. 339
	Rasulullaah (1996) Speaks About the Tremendous reward of Reciting the Kalimah	. 339
	Rasulullaah ﷺ Speaks about the Tremendous Virtue of Reciting (لَا حَوْلَ رَلَا نُوَّةَ الْا بِاللهُ) (Laa Howla wa
	Laa Quwwata Illa Billaah')	. 340
	The Statement of Hadhral Ibraheem الآخوَل وَلَا تُوَوَا لَا بَاللَّهِ) (Laa Howla wa Laa Quwwala (لَا حَوْل وَلَا تُوَوَالًا بِاللَّهِ)
	(la Billaah)	. 340
	The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ﴿ الْاَ حَوْلُ وَلَا تُوْدُالًا بِاللَّهِ عَلَى عَلَى اللهِ اللهِ about ﴿ وَالْتُعَالِيةِ اللهِ ا
	Laa Quwwata Illa Billaah') and what Hadhrat Imraan (had to say about the Virtues of Praising Allash	. 34
	Hadhrat Ali Carago S Explanation of the Terms ('Al Hamdulllaah') and ('Subhaanallaah')	. 34
	Hadhrat Umar Signess Lessens the Punishment for a Person who Engaged in Tasbeeh as he was being Lashed	.342
	Choosing Comprehensive Adhkaer instead of Excessive Repetition	. 342
	Rasulullaah @ Teaches Hadhrat Juwayriyyah @ a Comprehensive Dhikr	. 343
	Rasulullaah (25) Teaches a Comprehensive Dhikr to a Sahabiyyah (25)	. 34:
	Rasulullaah (SE) Teaches a Comprehensive Dhikr to Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (SE)	. 343
	Rasulullaah 經濟 Teaches Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 經濟過過 a Comprehensive Dhikr	. 34
	Rasulullash (25) Praises the Words that a Sahabi (25) said in a Gathering	. 34
	Hadhrat Umar (Singles)'s Words when he saw a Man Using a Rosary to Engage in Tasbeeh	. 34
	Adhkaar to be recited after the Salaahs and Before sleeping
	Rasulullash 200 Teaches the Poor Sahabah 200 specific Adhkaar by which to Earn Great rewards Rasulullaah 認識 Teaches Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 经减少 some Adhkaar to be Recited after Every Salaah.
	Rasulullaah 協議 Teaches Hadhrat All 劉德國 and Hadhrat Faatima 國際國 a Dhikr to Recite after salaah and Before Sleeping	. 34
	What Rasulullaah 🕮 Used to Recite after Salaun
	Adhkaar for the Morning and Evening

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	25
The Dhikr to be Recited in the Marketplaces and other Places where People are Negligent of Allaah	351
Adhkaar during Journeys
Rasulullaah ﷺ Instructs Some People for whom he Provided Transport for Hajj to Engage in the Dhik	r of Affaah when they Mount Rasulullaah 經濟字 words to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 經濟學 when he let him Ride behind him on the same Animal Rasulullaah 總等 Teaches a Sahabi 劉藤崎 Riding behind him on the same Animal what Dhikr to Recite when the Animal Falls	352
Rasululiaah  s Words when Mounting an Elevated place and the Words of the Sahabah	002
when Reaching their Destination	352
Nhat Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 설명하 Used to say when Leaving the House	100
Salutations to Nabi 過程
Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b 雲海海 Informs Rasulullaah 愛羅 that he Wishes to Devote all his Time for Dh to Sending Salutations to Rasulullaah 255
The Incident of Rasulullaah (1995) with Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (1996) and His Statement
Concerning Durood	354
Rasulullaah (25) States the Virtue of sending salutations to him	354
Rasulullaah ﷺ States that the Most Miserly Person is one Who does not sends salutations to Him when his Name is Mentioned.	355
Rasulullaah 😕 Teaches the Sahabah 🕮 how to send salutations to Him
Hadhrat Abdullash bin Mas'ood (1996) Teaches the Method of sending salutations to Rasulullash
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Umar (1996) Concerning sending salutation to Rasululleah 😂
The Statements of Hadhrat All (See and Hadhrat Abdulleah bin Abbaas (Concerning sendin salutations to Nabi 😂	7
stighfaar (Seeking Allaah's Forgiveness)
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar $3266 Concerning the Istighfaar Rasulullaah $266 Mac in a Single Sitting Rasulullaah (26) S Words to Hadhrat Hudhayfah (20) when he Complained of His Sharp Tongue
Rasulullaah 🖽 Statement about Seeking forgiveness Seventy times a Day
The Incident of Hadhrat Ali 🚟 with Rasulullaah ﷺ Concerning Istighfaar
The Narration of Hadhrat Abi 出版學 with Rasqiuliaan 课题 Concerning isogniaar Rasulullaah 😂 Teaches A Du'aa of Istighfaar to a Man who had Committed many Sins
Hadhrat Umar 劉雄德 Hadhrat Ali 劉雄德 and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 劉雄德 Encourage people to	000
Engage in Istighfaar	350
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ($100) Concerning Istighfaar
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Siles and Hadhrat Baraa Siles Concerning Istighfaar
What Falls into the Ambit of Dhikr.
Rasululiaah  s Statement about those who Love each other for the Pleasure of Aliaah Rasululiaah (255's Words to the Sahabah (2555's when they sat down to discuss the days of ignorance and the Bounty of Imaan

361
361
361
361
362
363
363 laah
363 364 int 364
5
365
365
367
367
367
367 367 im368
368
368
369
369
369
370
370
370
371 371
372
372

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)

The Incident of a Man Rolling in the hot sands and Rasulullaah (2022)'s Request to him to make Du'aa
for his Brothers	. 372
Rasulullaah EEE Exhorts those who Meet Hadhrat Uwais Qami to request him for Du'aas	. 373
Hadhrat Anas 经减滤 Makes Du'aa for his Companions upon their Request	.373
Making Du'aa for Sinners	.374
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (Supplemental Drinker to whom he Wrote a Letter and then
Made Du'aa for, After which the Man Stopped Drinking	374
Words with Which Du'aa is Started	374
Rasulullaah 經濟 Gives some Gold as a Gift to a Bedouin who Praised Allaah most Beautifully	.375
The Du'aa Rasulullaah 優麗 Made Before Hadhrat Aa'isha 国面验 in which he Included the Ismul A'zam	.376
Rasulullaah (2) then started to laugh saying, "It is amongst the names that you have mentioned."	.377
How Rasulullaah 經濟 Started and Ended his Du'aas	. 377
The Incident of Rasululiaah (2006) and Two Men who Performed Salaah and Made Du'aa	377
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood William Advises People Making Du'aa to Begin with Praising Allaah	.378
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 機能 Made for his Ummah	.378
Rasulullaah 🕮 Prays for the Forgiveness of his Ummah at Arafaat	. 378
Rasulullaah 🕮 's Du'aa for his Ummah, After which Aliaah informed him that Aliaah would please him with the Outcome of his Ummah	. 378
The Du'aa Rasulullaah @@ made for his Ummah and his Du'aa for Hadhrat Aa'isha @	.379
The Du'aas Rasulullaah W Made for the Four Khulafaa	.379
Rasulullaah 證實's Du'aa for Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉寧德 and Hadhrat Umar 劉寧德	. 379
The Du'aas Rasulullaah W Made for Hadhrat Uthmaan W Made	. 380
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 选择 Made for Hadhrat Ali 金城區	. 380
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 經經 Made for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas 經過過 and Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam Sussis	. 381
The Du'aas Rasulullaah We made for the members of his Family	. 381
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 證經 Made for Hadhrat Hasan 也能够 and Hadhrat Husayn 也能够	. 382
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 經濟 Made for Hadhrat Abbaas 经原验 and for his Children	. 383
The Du'aas Rasulullaah (25) Made for Hadhrat Ja'far (25) and his Children and for Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha ఆయేతి and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha ఆయేతి	. 384
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 微譯 Made for the Family of Hadhrat Yaasir 经减弱, for Hadhrat Abu Salama	1
উট্টেভ্র and for Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid উট্টেভ্র	. 385
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 🕮 Made for Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 🖽 , Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam
经际间。Hadhrat Jareer 经间间 and for the family of Hadhrat Busr 经间间	385
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 認能 Made for Hadhral Baraa bin Ma'roor 图域感, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah
শ্রমেন্টের and Hadhrat Abu Qataadah শ্রমেন্টের	386
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 機能 Made for Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik 经路底 and for Other Sahabah 機能能够	387
The Du'aas Rasululiaah 優媛 Made for the Weak Sahabah 過過過	388
The Du'aas Rasulullaah 😂 Recited When Bidding Farewell	. 388
Rasulullaah 🕮 says: "I place your Deen in Allaah's Custody"	. 388
Rasulullaah 愛婆s Words to a Sahabi 经运送 who informed him that he intended Leaving on a Journey	389

F	Rasulullaah 變變's Words when Bidding farewell to Hadhrat Qataadah Rahaawi 劉璋等 and another Sahabi Sasa	389
	The Du'aas Rasululiaah 🕮 Recited When Taking Food or Drink and when Wearing clothing
7	The Du'aas Rasulullaah 透過管 Recited when Sighting the New Moon and when Noticing Thunder, Cloud or Wind
7	Fig. Du'aas Rasulullaah 2006 Recited when Sighting the New Moon	222
	The Du'aas Rasulullaah (25) Recited when he Noticed Thunder, Clouds and Wind
	Some General Du'aas that Rasulullaah 227 Made Comprehensive Du'aas
	Rasulullaah @@F's Preference for Comprehensive Du'aas and his Teaching them to Hadhrat
	Aa'isha @@@@	395
ſ	Resululianh Fraches a Comprehensive Du'aa to Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Fraches and to some	000
•	other Sahabah (Casasa)	396
1	Asking for Allaah's Protection
	Factors from which Rasulullaah was used to Ask for Aliaah's Protection Securing Protection from the Jinn
	The Words Rasulullaah 🐲 used on the night the Jinn connived Against him
	What Should be Recited when Falling Asleep or when Getting Scared at Night
	The Du'aa Rasulullaah 認識 Taught Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 鱼球蛋白 to Recite to Dispel what he saw in his Dreams	401
ı	Du'aas for Distress, Worries and Anxiety	402
P	Rasulullaah (236) Teaches the Du'aa to be Recited when Experiencing Difficulty	402
	The Du'aas Rasulullaah 經濟 Recited when Faced with Difficulty and the Du'aa he Taught the Family of Abdul Muttalib	403
7	The Du'ass of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa இற்றத் and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas இற்றத் to be Relieve of Difficulties
1	Du'aas to be Recited when Fearing a Ruler Rasulullaah ﷺ teaches a Du'aa and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far ﷺ Teaches the Same to his daughter
	Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 经减多 Teaches a Du'aa
1	Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经回答等 Teaches Such a Du'aa	406
	Chapter Sixteen:	407
	The Chapter Concerning The Lectures of the Sahabah	407
í	The Lectures of Rasulullaah 🕮	407
Č	The First Lecture that Rasulullaah @ Delivered	407
7	Rasulullaah 🗐 🖫 's Jumu'ah Sermon	408
	The Lectures Rasulullaah Delivered on the Occasions of Battles	409
į	The Lecture Rasulullaah Will delivered during one of the Battles	409
	The Sermon Rasululiaah (1966) Delivered when he Stopped at Hijr en-route to Tabook	410
9	Another Sermon Rasulullaah	410

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	2
The Sermon Rasululiaah @ Delivered when Makkah was Conquered	4
Another Sermon Rasulullaah (2006) Delivered when Makkah was Conquered	4
The Sermons Rasulullaah (SSE Delivered for the Month of Ramadhaan	4
The Epic Sermon Rasulullaah (2006) Delivered upon the Arrival of Ramadhaan, as Namaled by Hadhrat
Salmaan 🖽 🍪	4
The Lecture Rasululiaah (See Stating that the sins of Muslims are forgiven on the First Night of Ramadhaan	4
The Lecture Rasulullaah (Gave Stating that the Shayaateen are Chained and that Du'aas are Accepted During Ramadhaan	4
The Lecture Rasulullaah 微锤 Gave Stating the Importance of the Jumu'ah Salaah	4
The Lectures Rasulullaah (## Delivered on the Occasion of Halj	4
The Lectures Rasulullaah (1999) Delivered About Dajjaal, Musaylama, Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj and Sinkings	4
Rasulullaah ($15)'s Lecture about Dajjaal as reported by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar	4
Rasulullaah 總等s Lecture about Dajjaal as reported by Hadhral Safeenah 學識等。	4
Rasulullaah 4355's Third Lecture about Dajjaal	4
Rasulullaah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about Dajjaal as Narraled by Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (s Lengthy Lecture about about about a lengthy Lecture about about about about a lengthy (s Lengthy Lecture about about about about about about about a lengthy (s Lengthy Lecture about about about about about about about about a lengthy (s Lengthy Lecture about a
Rasulullaah & S Lecture Stating how Dajjaal will be Prevented from Entering Makkah and Madinah	4
The Sermon Rasululiaah
The Lecture Rasulullaah (2) Delivered Concerning Musaylama Kadhaab.
The Lecture Rasulullaah Delivered about the Ya'jooj and Ma'jooj and the Sinking of the earth
Rasulullaah 'S Lecture Condemning Backbilling
The Lecture Rasulullaah (SEE Delivered about Enjoining Good and Forbidding Evil
Rasulullaah & s Lecture Warning Against Bad Character
Rasululiaah Ses Lecture Condemning Major Sins
Rasululiaah 'S's Lecture Concerning Grafitude
Rasulullaah & S Lecture Concerning the Goodness of Life
Rasulullaah SS s Lecture Concerning Abstinence from the World
Rasululiaah Sas Lecture Concerning Resurrection
Rasulullaah  S Lecture Concerning Predestination
Rasulullaah See's Lecture Concerning the Benefit of being Related to him
Rasululiaah 😂 s Lecture Concerning Leaders and Rulers
Rasululiaah 經濟 Lecture about the Ansaar
Miscellaneous Lectures of Rasulullaah 認定.
The Most Comprehensive of Rasulullaah 😂 's Lectures
Rasulullaah 😂 's Comprehensive Lecture at Tabook
Another Comprehensive Lecture from Rasulullaah
A Comprehensive Lecture of Rasulullaah & as Narrated by Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri
A Comprehensive Lecture of Rasulullaah 2005 as Narrated by Hadhrat Umar 2005 6
Rasululaah @#'s Final Sermon
The Lecture Resulullash Green Fair Until Maghnib
Rasulullaah 😂 's Condition at the Time of delivering a lecture

The lectures that Rasulullaah (25)'s Successor Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeg (25) delivered	439
His Lecture when he Assumed the Office of Khilaafah	439
Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sectors Concerning Tagwa and Acting for the Aakhirah	442
Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Special Sectors about Tagwa and about taking Lessons from the Past	442
The Narration of Tabari Concerning Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($133665) Lecture about Taqwa and about tak Lessons from the Past
A Comprehensive Lecture that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($1000) Delivered
The lecture Hadhrat Abu Bakr Statistic delivered About the condition in the Aakhirah of the person w
Was Ungrateful for the Bounties of Allaah Various lectures that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($75000 delivered.
The Lectures of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab
His lecture after Burying Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986)	0.0000000000000000000000000000000000000
His Lecture the day he became the Khalifah
The Lecture Hadhrat Umar Success gave About how he Knew the Conditions of People and about other Matters	449
Hadhrat Umar (Six Six Delivers a Lecture Preventing people from Making Dowries Expensive and	uuuu - yu
from openly stating who is a Martyr	450
The Lecture of Hadhrat Umar (1996) Prohibiting Discussions on Predestination
His Lecture at Jaabiya
A most Comprehensive Lecture that Hadhrat Umar States Delivered at Jaabiya
Hadhrat Umar 生物等。 Lecture at Jaabiya which he Quoted from Rasulullaah 集時
Hadhrat Umar Sales S Lecture at Jaabiya when he Intended to Return when the Plague Broke out
Two Lectures that Hadhrat Umar Delivered when he Became Khalifah and his Explanation of the Rights his Subjects have over Him
Hadhrat Umar States Lecture Concerning Wishing well for his Subjects and the Rights they have over h
The Historic Lecture Hadhrat Umar (Spiece Delivered concerning Allaah's Bounties on the Muslims and Encouragement to Express Gratitude for the Same	458
The Lecture Hadhrat Umar 等域器 Delivered discussing the Battle of Uhud Various Lectures that Hadhrat Umar Wass Delivered
The Lectures of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan
Various Lectures that Hadhrat Uthmaan (1996) Delivered.	467
The Final Lecture that Hadhrat Uthmaan Suiss Delivered	470
The Lectures of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib Sussi	470
The First Lecture that he Delivered
His Lecture Concerning the Value of a Person's Tribe
His Lecture when Ramadhaan Arrived.	471
His Lecture Concerning the Grave and its Condition	472
His Lecture concerning the World, the Grave and the Aakhirah
His Lecture Concerning Accompanying Funeral Processions
His Lecture Encouraging People to Act for the Aakhirah
His Lecture after the Battle at Nahrwaan

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Col-3)	31
fis Lecture Concerning Enjoining Good and Forbidding Evil	478
The Lecture he Delivered in Kufa	479
An extremely Eloquent and Comprehensive Lecture of His
His Lecture Concerning what will Happen to the Progeny of Rasulullaah	482
His Lecture In which he Quotes the Words of Rasulullaah 🕸	482
His Lecture Concerning the Merits of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) and Hadhrat Umar (1986)	483
/arious Lectures that Hadhrat Ali 色彩色 Delivered	484
The Lectures that Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali المحتودة delivered
The Lecture he Delivered after the Demise of his Father	486
His Lecture after being Stabbed	487
The Lecture he Delivered when he Made Peace with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya	488
The Lecture of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Abu Sufyaan 🕮 🚟	489
The Lectures of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr	490
His Lecture On the Occasion of Hajj	490
Various Lectures that he Delivered	492
The Lectures of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (1986)	494
The Lecture he Delivered in the presence of Rasulullaah 🕸	494
Various Lectures that he delivered	495
The Lectures of Hadhrat Utba bin Ghazwaan &	495
The Lectures of Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan 500000000000000000000000000000000000	496
A Lecture of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari	497
A lecture of Hadhrat Abduliaan bin Abbaas 💯 💮	497
Lectures of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 多路路	497
A Lecture of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam 🕾 🚟	498
The lectures of Hadhral Husayn bin All	50
The Lectures of Hadhrat Yazeed bin Shajarah Stocks	50
The Lecture of Hadhrat Umayr bin Sa'd 33566	502
The Lecture of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubayd Qaari 🗫 the father of Hadhrat Umayr 🗫	50
A Lecture of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (1986)	503
A Lecture of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Straight	503
Chapter Seventeen:	504
The Chapter Concerning The Advices of the Sahabah	504
Rasululiaah (Sas S Advices
Rasulullaah (2006)s profound Advice to Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ghifaan (2006)
"Do you know the Example of each one of you and his family, wealth and Deeds?"
The Advices of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab
The Advice he gave to Someone Eighteen Wise Advices from the Lips of Hadhrat Umar
"Men are of three Categories and Women are of three Categories"
His Advice to Hadhrat Ahnaf bin Qais

"There are some servants of Allaah who annihilate falsehood by staying away from it and revive the truth by seeaking of it"
4-7-1
Miscellaneous Advices that be Gave
The Advices of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib 经减多。
His Advice to Hadhrat Umar (1996)
His Advice about what Goodness Really is Service and the service and th
The Advices of Hadhral Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (1976)
His Advice to his Troops.
His Advice after being Afflicted by the Plague and his Statement about the Heart of a Mu'min
The Advices of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (300)
The Advices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减少。
The Advices of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi
The Advices of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (1996)
The Advices of Hadhrat Abu Dharr Success
The Advices of Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan 🖽 🚟
The Living Dead
Hearts are of Four Types
His Advice Concerning Enlicement and other Matters
The Advices of Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b 🖽 💮	527
The Advices of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaebit
The Advices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 🕾 💮
The Advices of Hadhrat Abduliaah bin Umar (1986)	529
The Advices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr &	530
The Advices of Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali States	530
The Advices of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws (2006)	531
The Advices of Hadnrat Jundub Bajali (2006)	531
The Advices of Hadhral Abu Umaamah ($1866)	531
His Advice on the Occasion of a Funeral	531
His Advice to a Group that Came to See him	533
The Advices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr	534
Chapter Eighteen:	535
The Chapter Concerning The Unseen Assistance that the Sahabah
Assistance by the Angels	535
Angels Assist the Sahabah @@@ during the Battle of Badr	535
Angels Assist the Sahabah Angels Assist the Sahabah during the Battle of Hunayn	537
Angels Assist the Sahabah (Classification) during the Battle of Uhud and the Battle of Khandaq
Angels Fight the Mushrikeen and take them Prisoner	538
During the Battle of Badr
Hadhrat Jibra'eel Will Deals With those Who Ridiculed Rasulullaah (in Makkah	540

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (CV01-3)	33
An Angel Comes to the Aid of Hadhrat Abu Mu'liq
An Angel Comes to the Aid of Hadhrat Zaid bin Haantha ఆయ్యాత్	542
Seeing the Angels
Hadhrat Aa'isha was and some other Sahabah was See Hadhrat Jibra'eel	543
An Ansaari sees Hadhrat Jibra'eel & and Speaks to him	543
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sees Hadhrat Jibra'eel	544
Hadhrat Irbaadh bin Saariyah (Saariyah) sees and Angel in the Damascus Masjid	544
The Angels Greet and Shake Hands with the Sahabah	545
Speaking to the Angels	545
Hearing the Angels Speak
Angels Speaking on the Tongues of the Sahabah	546
Angels Speaking on the Tongue of Hadhrat Umar (#1996)	546
Angels Speaking on the Tongue of Hadhrat Abu Mufazzir & during the Siege of Bahurseer	546
Angels Descend to Listen to the Sahabah Reciting the Quraan	547
The Angels Bathe the Bodies of Dead Sahabah (2006)
Angels Bathe the Body of the Martyred Hadhrat Handhala	548
The Angels bathe the Body of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh ঘ 🚟	548
The Angels Venerate the Bodies of Sahabah (EDISES who Passed Away	549
The Angels Venerate the father of Hadhrat Jaabir (1986)	549
The Angels Venerate Hadhrat Sa'd bin Muaadh	549
The Fear for the Muslims that Existed in the hearts of their Enemies	550
The Fear of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Hayda 😂 🚟	550
The Fear that the Mushrikeen felt during the Battle of Hunayn	550
Enemies are stopped in their tracks	551
Hadhrat Suraaqa bin Maalik is Prevented from reaching Rasulullaah 邀襲 and his Companion during the Hirah
The Destruction of Arbad bin Qais and Aamir bin Tufayl.	The same of the same of Enemies are Defeated with some Pebbles and Sand Thrown at them
The Enemy are Defeated by the Throwing of pebbles and sand by Rasulullaah ($25% during the Battle of Hunayn
The Enemy are Defeated by the Throwing of pebbles by Rasulullaah (SSS) during the Baltle of Badr
The Enemy Appearing Few in Number to the Muslims
Assistance by the Winds
Enemies are Sunken into the Ground and Destroyed.
Enemies Lose their Sight by the Curses of Rasululianh 2005 and the Sahabah 2006.
Some Young Men from the Quraysh Lose their eyesight by the Curse of Rasulullaah of Hudaybiyyah
A Man Loses his Sight by the Curse of Hadhrat Al
A Woman becomes Blind by the Curse of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid
A man Loses His Sight because he Cursed Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali Spisson
Eyesight is Restores by their Du'aas

34 THE LIVE OF THE SALDBALL COMES	(100-3)
The Eyesight of a Group of Quraysh is restored by the Du'aa of Rasulullaah 🕮	558
Hadhrat Qataadah 告题论's Eye is Restored by the Du'aa of Rasulullaah 機能	559
Ocular Allments are Cured by the Du'aa of Rasulullaah	559
Hadhrat Zinneera 2000 S Eyesight is Restored	560
Buildings of the Enemy are Shaken by the Recitation of the Kalimah and Takbeer	560
The Palace of Heraclius of Rome was Shaken	560
The City of Hims Shakes with all the Romans Present there	564
Their Voices reaching Far Distant Places	565
Hadhrat Umar இந்திs Voice Reaches Far into the Distance and is Heard by Hadhrat Saariyah இந்த	5 565
The Voice of Hadhrat Abu Qirsaafah 😇 Reaches Far Off	566
Hearing Voices from the Unseen	566
The Sahabah 過速時 Hear a Voice While Bathing the Body of Rasulullaah 過避	566
Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Alaisa Hears a voice while on a Naval Expedition	567
People hear a Voice Reciting the Ouraan the Day Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Passed Awa	y 567
The Sahabah (Salassa) are Assisted by the Jinn and by Unseen Voices	568
Hadhrat Khuraym bin Faatik & hears the Voice of a Jinn Inviting him to Accept Imaan	568
A Jinn brought the News of Rasulullaah Ses Prophethood to Hadhrat Sawaad bin Qaarib	570
A Jinn bring the News of Rasulullaah (Nabuwwaat to Hadhrat Abbaas bin Mirdaas ()	573
A Jinn brought the News of Rasulullaah (salah S	574
A Jinn brought the News of Rasulullaah 經濟's Nabuwwaat to a Fortune-Teller in the Vicinity of Shaa	m., 575
Another Incident in this Regard	575
A Shaytaan Instigates the Quraysh against Rasulullaah : and the Sahabah :	575
Some Men from the Khath'am Tribe Hear A Caller fromthe Jinn Informing them about Rasulullaah	薨576
Hadhrat Tameem Daari Sussis hears a Caller from the Jinn	577
Hadhrat Hajjaaj bin Alaat Sisse Accepts Islaam after hearing the Call of a Jinn	577
A Group of Muslims are Saved by the Kind Act of a Jinn
The Jinn Assist the Muslims in the Battle of Khaybar	579
Subjugating the Jinn and ShayaateenRasulullaah (20% Captures a Jinn
Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (1986) Captures a Shaytaan During the Time of Rasulullaah (1986)
Hadhral Abu Hurayrah 空间等 and Hadhral Abu Ayyoob Ansaari 空间等 both Capture Shayaateen
During the Time of Rasulullaah
Hadhrat Umar Shaws Floors a Jinn and the Shayaateen were Chained up During the Khilaafah of
Hadhrat Umar Supple	582
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 签项码 Rebukes a Jinn
The Sahabah Hear the Voices of Inanimate Objects
Hadhrat Abu Dharr Sies Hears the Tasbeeh of some Pebbles in the Hands of his Companions
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Silasis Hears the Tasbeeh of Food
The Sahabah (Subsection of a Tree Trunk
Hadhrat Salmaan 202006 and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 202006 hear the Tasbeeh of a Plate of Food
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr States Hears the Voice of a Fire
The Sahabah (2006) hear People Speak in their Graves
THE CONDUCT IN THE LEGALS OF CONTROL OF CONT

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (COLO)	35
Hadhrat Umar William Hears the Words of a Devout Youngster	587
Hadhrat Umar William Hears the Speech of People Buried in Bagee Ghargad	589
The Sahabah See People being Punished	589
The Sahabah Speak after Death	589
The Incident of Hadhrat Zaid bin Khaarija & Said Said Said Said Said Said Said Said	589
Bringing the Dead back to Life	592
The Incident of a Woman from the Muhaajireen and her Son	592
Signs of Life in their Martyrs	593
The Incident of the Martyrs of the Battle of Uhud	593
The Fragrance of Musk Walts from the Graves of the Sahabah	595
The Fragrance of Musk Walts from the Grave of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh	595
Martyred Sahabah (2006) are Raised to the heavens
Hadhrat Aamir bin Fuhayrah (States) is Lifted to the Sky.	595
The Dead Bodies of the Sahabah 1898 are Protected	596
The Body of Hadhrat Khubayb bin Adi Strikes is Protected	596
The Body of Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami Sizes is Protected	597
The Body of Hadhrat Aasim bin Thaabit	598
Wild Animals are Made Subservient to the Sahabah (2006) and Talk to them	598
Rasulullaah speaks to Wolves and they Submit to him	598
A Lion is Submissive to Rasulullaah (1996)'s Freed Slave Hadhrat Safeenah	599
A Lion is Submissive to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar
Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik 金蹄蕊 Speaks to a Lion	600
A Wolf Speaks to a Shepherd and Informs him about Rasulullaah	600
The Waters Are Made Subservient to the Sahabah
The River Nile of Egypt is Made Subservient to Hadhrat Umar Subset	601
The Ocean is Made to Submit to Hadhrat Abu Rayhaana
The Ocean is Made to Submit to Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami	602
The Tigris River is Subjugated for the Muslims During the Conquest of Madaa'in	604
Fire obeys the Sahabah 150000	607
A Fire obeys Hadhrat Tameem Daari 🖽 🕒	607
Light Appears for the Sahabah 過速過	608
Light Appears for Hadhrat Hasan Sies and Hadhrat Husayn Sies	608
Light Appears for Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan Sales from a Branch
A Light Appears for Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr (Singles) and Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr (Singles)	609
Light Appears from the Fingers of Hadhrat Hamzah bin Amr Aslami
A Staff Lights up for Hadhrat Abu Abs
A Whip Lights up for Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr Dowsi ($1500)	610
The Clouds Shade the Sahabah
Rain Falls by the Du'aas of Rasululiaah ($25 and the Sahabah ($255)	61
Rain Falls by the Du'aa of Rasulullaah
Rains fall by the Du'aa of Hadhrat Umar 4 1506	617

50
Rain Falls by the Du'aa of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Space) and Hadhrat Yazeed bin As	wad Jurashi 😂 🕮 614
Rain Falls by the Du'aa of Hadhrat Anas 🚟	615
Rain Falls by the Du'aa of Hadhrat Hujr bin Adi 🕾 🕒	615
Rain Falls On the Graves of a Tribe of the Ansaar because of a Prior Du'aa that Ra	asululiaah 😂 had made for them
Receiving Drink from a Bucket Suspended from the Sky	616
Blessings in Water
The Blessings in Water in Which Rasulullaah @@ placed his Hand and Saliva
Blessings in the Water that Was Poured in Rasulullaah (1996)'s Utensil	618
Blessings in the Water with Which Rasulullaah (20%) Washed His Face and Hand	ls 618
Blessings in Water when Rasulullaah Fac Touched its Container
Blessings in Water when some Stones were thrown into it that had been in the Hands	s of Rasulullaah 微譯 619
Blessings in the Water that Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali Exists Drank
Blessings in Food During Battles	620
Blessings in the food of the Mujaahideen by the Du'aa of Rasulullaah	620
Blessings in Food after Rasulullaah WE Places his Hand over it While the trend	h was being Dug 622
Blessings in Food When not on Journey
Blessings in a plate of Thareed Served to Rasulullaah
Blessings in the Food that Rasulullaah & Prepared for the Men of Sulfa	623
Blessings in the Food that Hadhrat Faatima seems sent for her Father Blessings in Seeds and Fruit.
Blessings in Butter and Barley in the Story of Hadhrat Ummu Shareek Blessings in half a Wasaq of Barley that Rasulullaah Wasag gave Someone Blessings in the Barley that Rasulullaah (25% gave to Hadhrat Naufal bin Haarith	626
The Blessings in Some Barley left in Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@s Shelf after the Demis	e of Rasulullaah 25 627
Blessings in the Dates that Hadhrat Jaabir Sales father Left because of a Du ₩₩ made Blessings in Dates as the Trench was being Dug Blessings in Seven Dates during the Expedition to Tabook
Blessings in the Bag of Provisions that Rasulullaah (2006) gave to Hadhrat Abu Hi	and the second s
Blessings in Hadhrat Anas (Silvers Produce by Virtue of Rasulullaah (Silvers D
Blessings in Milk and Butter Blessings in the Butter of Hadhrat Ummu Maalik Bahziyyah (2005) from the An Blessings in the Butter of Hadhrat Ummu Aws 12000000000000000000000000000000000000
Blessings in the Butter of Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym
Blessings in the Butter of Hadhrat Ummu Shareek
Blessings in the Butter of Hadhrat Hamzah bin Amr Aslami 經濟學
Blessings in the Goat of Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat 🐯 after Rasulullaah 🖔	Care Transfer of a first section
Blessings in Meat
Blessings in the Meat of Hadhrat Mas'ood bin Khaalid (1986)
Blessings in the meat of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Abdul Uzza

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	37
Sustenance from Unexpected Sources	634
Rasulullaah ASS Receives Food from the Heavens	634
The Sahabah 🛎 are Sustained by a Gigantic Sea Creature after Suffering Extreme Hunger	634
A Sahabi Salassi and his Wife are Sustained from a Source they Never Expected Rasulullaah 機器, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 细胞的 and a Bedouin Family Receive Sustenance from an Unexpected Source	637
Rasulullaah 🕮 and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 🕮 Feceive Milk from a Goal that had not yet Mated	638
ladhrat Khabbaab 劉寧寧 and his Companions are Sustained from Unexpected Sources	638
ladhrat Khubayb 劉章等 Receives Grapes from Unseen Sources when he was Held Prisoner	639
wo Companions of Rasulullash 健健 are Fed from Unseen Sources	639
Drinking to Their Fill in Dreams	639
The Incident of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan Sings	639
Nealth from Unseen Sources	639
ladhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad (1986) Receives Money from Unseen Sources	639 Vealth comes to Hadhrat Saa'lb bin Agra (Saa'lb and other Muslims from Unseen Sources or Incident of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah in this Regard	640
Blessings in Wealth	641
llessings in the Money Rasululiaah 🕮 gave Hadhrat Salmaan 🕮 to Purchase his Freedom.	641 slessings in the Wealth of Hadhrat Urwa Baarigi (because of the Du'aa of Rasulullaah () Blessings in the Wealth of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hishaam 劉隆德 because of the Du'aa of Rasulullaah 劉榮
Being Cured from Diseases ladhraf Abdullaah bin Unays (Recovers from a Head Wound through Rasulullaah (Recovers from a Head Wound through Rasulullaah)
Hadhrat Mukhallad bin Uqba 与政治的 Boil Heals by the Saliva of Rasululiaah 樂第	642
Hadhrat Abyadh bin Hammaal 氫氧氮鈣s Cured of a Ringworm Infection by the Touch and Du'aa of Rasululiaah 缓缓	643
ladhrat Raafi bin Khudayj 婆婆婆 is Cured of Stomach Pain by the touch of Rasulullaah 繼馨	643
Hadhrat Ali (1966) is Cured by the Du'aa of Rasulullaah (1966) Hadhrat Handhala bin Hadheem (1996) Heals the III through the Blessings he Received from
Rasulullaah 255	644
Camel of Hadhrat Abdullaah bir Ourt (Sures) is Cured by his Du'aa	644
Rendering the effects of Poison Useless	644
fadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 迷惑感 is Unaffected by the Poison he Drinks Rendering the effects of Heat and Cold Useless
Heat and Cold have no Effect on Hadhrat Ali
The Cold has no Effect on the Sahabah (2006) one Night by the Du'aa of Rasulullaah
The Effects of Hunger are Removed
The Incident of Hadhrat Faatima (1996) in this Regard
The Effects of Old Age are Reversed
The Effects of Old Age are Reversed for Hadhrat Abu Zaid Ansaari ($1000) through the Du'aa of Rasululaah 1989	6.17

,
648
648
649
649
650
650
650
651
651
652
652
652
653
653 654
654 655
655
655
655
656 656
657
657
657 658
658
659
660 660 660 660 661
661 662 m662

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-3)	3
Chapter Nineteen:	66
The Chapter Concerning the Reasons behind the Unseen Assistance that the Sahabah
Received	66
Enduring Difficulties and Hardships	66
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (1986) about how the Sahabah (1986) found Go	od in Difficulties and Hardships
The Letter Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siles Wrote to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Siles in this Regard	66
Carrying out Orders even though they Appeared to Contradict what was Apparent	6
Trusting in Allaah and Disbelieving what the People of Falsehood Propagate	6
The Incident of Ameerul Murmineen Hadhrat All was and a Fortune Teller in this Regard	66
Seeking Honour Where Allaah has Placed Honour	6
Incidents of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab ($100%) in this Regard	6
Giving Consideration to the Dhimmi Community when in a position of Honour	6
Taking a Lesson from those who have Forsaken Allaah's Commands	6
Making the Intention Solely for Allaah and Making the Aakhirah the Objective	6
What Hadhrat Mu'aadh (Subsected Hadhrat Umar (Subsected in this Regard	6
The Incident of Hadhrat Aamir bin Abd Qais in this Regard	6
Hadhrat Sa'd said and Hadhrat Jaabir Attest to the Integrity of the Army at Qaadisiyyah	6
Hadhrat Umar (Sie S Statement about those who Brought to him the Jewels and Sword of the Persian	1
Emperor	6
Seeking Allaah's Assistance through the Glorious Qur'aan and Adhkaar	6
The Letter Hadhrat Umar 经联络 Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 经现金 Concerning Seeking Assistance from Allaah	6
The Letter Hadhrat Umar Susses Wrote to the Commanders in Shaam in this Regard	6
Hadhrat Umar Silicis replied to their letter by writing:	6
The Muslims Seek Aliaah's Assistance using the Qur'aan during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah	6 Rasulullaah (SE Teaches the Sahabah (Eliase) to Seek Allaah's Assistance Through the Verses of
the Quraan	6
Hadhrat Sa'd 認識疑 Commands the Muslims to Seek Allaah's Assistance by Reciting "Allaahu Akbar and "Laa Howla wa Laa Quwwata Illa Billaah" during the Battle of Badr	6
Seeking Allaah's Assistance through the Agency of Rasulullaah	6
Competing with Each other in Doing Good Deeds	6
Thinking Nothing of the Glamour and Glitter of this World	6
The Incident of Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba (Space) and the Persian Ruler Dhul Haajibayn	6
The Incidents of Hadhrat Rib'ee 经减减减,Hadhrat Hudhayfah 经减减减 and Hadhrat Mughiera 经减减	6
with Rustam at Qaadisiyyah.	6
Paying no Heed to the Numbers of the Enemy and their Resources	6
What Hadhrat Thaabit bin Agram 等端局 said to Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 细胞 about this on the Occasion of the Battle of Mu'ta

The Statement of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (1995) about this on the Occasion of the Battle of Yarmook 680
What the Enemy had to Say about the Sahabah (Saining Victory over them
The Statement of one of the Apostates Concerning the Valour of the Sahabah
The Statement the King of Alexandria made to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ($10,000) in this regard
A Roman Leader's Statement to Heracijus concerning the Reasons for Triumphs of the Sahabah (1996) 68;
A Christian Arab Describes the Sahabah (2006) to the Commander of Damascus
A Christian Arab Describes the Sahabah 🕮 😘 to Qubuqalaar
A Persian Spy Describes the Sahabah 😂 😘 to Rustam
A Roman Describes the Sahabah Activities to Heractius
The Statement that the Emperor of China made about the Sahabah (2006)
Glossary of Terms
Glossary of Symbols

Chapter Eleven

The Chapter Concerning the Belief that the Sahabah Had in the Unseen

This chapter highlights how the Sahabah will believed in the unseen and how for the news Nabi gaze them, they forsook temporary pleasures, human evidence, transitory opinions and worldly experiences. It was as if they were actually witnessing the unseen and rejecting what they witnessed.

The Magnificence of Imaan

Rasulullaah & Gives the Glad Tidings of Jannah for the Person who Testifies with Conviction that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah and Imar are sitting around Rasulullaah and Imar around Imar

'Abu Hurayrah?' Rasulullaah asked. Yes, O Rasulullaah sked. 'Yes, O Rasulullaah sked. 'I replied. 'What is the matter?' he asked. I explained, 'You were with us when you left. When you delayed in returning to us, we feared that you may have come to some harm in our absence. This alarmed us and I was the first to be alarmed. When I reached this orchard, I squeezed through as a fox would do and entered. The others are all behind me.' Handing me his shoes, Rasulullaah ske said, 'O Abu Hurayrah! Take these shoes of mine and give the glad tidings of Jannah to every person you meet outside this orchard who testifies with conviction of the heart that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah.

The first person I met was Umar (What are these shoes, O Abu Hurayrah?) he asked. These are Rasulullaah (What's shoes. He has sent me to give the glad tidings of Jannah to every person I meet who testifies with conviction of the heart that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah. Umar (What's then struck me so hard on the chest that I fell down on my buttocks. He then instructed me to return and I returned to Rasulullaah (What's seeking help in lears. Umar (What's seeking help in lears. Uma was almost upon me as he came in my footsteps. 'What has happened to you, O Abu Hurayrah?' Rasulullaah asked. I related the incident to him saying, 'I met Umar and when I told him the message you had sent me with, he struck me so hard on the chest that I fell down on my buttocks. He then told me to return.'

O Umar!' Rasulullaah said, 'What made you do that?' Umar said, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah se! Did you send Abu Hurayrah with your shoes to give the glad tidings of Jannah to every person he meets who testifies with conviction of the heart that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah?' 'I certainly did,' Rasulullaah replied. 'Do not do that,' Umar said pleaded, 'because I fear that people would pin all their hopes in this (and stop doing good deeds). Rather leave them to continue doing good deeds.' Rasulullaah then said, 'Then leave them.''(1)

Rasulullaah E Gives the Glad Tidings of Jannah for the Person who Dies Without Committing Shirk

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Marrates, "When I came outdoors one night, I happened to see Rasulullaah walking all alone. Thinking to myself that perhaps Rasulullaah walking did not like anyone to be walking with him, I started walking where the moonlight was not shining (so that he may not notice me). Rasulullaah walking where turned around and when he saw me, he asked, "Who is there?" I replied by saying, 'It is Abu Dharr. May Allaah sacrifice me for you!" 'Come here, O Abu Dharr,' Rasulullaah walking with him for a while, Rasulullaah was said, 'Verily those with plenty of wealth will have the least (rewards) on the Day of Qiyaamah except for the person whom Allaah gives wealth in abundance and he distributes it to his right, his left, in front of him and behind him, using it all in good causes."

I then walked on a while longer with Rasulullaah when he said, 'Sit down here.' It was an open plain surrounded by stones where he made me sit. He then said to me, 'Remain here until I return.' Rasulullaah then walked away into the rocky plain until he disappeared from my view. He was away for a long time until I eventually heard him say as he returned, 'Even though he commits adultery or steals?' When he returned, I could not wait to ask, 'May Allaah sacrifice me for you, O Nabi of Allaah will with whom were you talking amongst the rocks? I heard no one reply to you.' Rasulullaah replied, 'That was Jibra'eel who came to me when I was a amongst the rocks. He said, 'Give your Ummah the good news that whoever of them dies without committing Shirk shall enter Jannah.' 'O Jibra'eel!' I asked, 'Even though he commits adultery or steals?' Yes,' he replied.

'Even though he commits adultery or steals, O Rasulullaah (##7' Lechoed. Yes,' Rasulullaah (##7' Lechoed. Yes,' Rasulullaah (##7' Certainly,' Rasulullaah (##7' Feplied, 'even though he drinks wine." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Muslims, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.7).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol. I Pg. 7).

Another narration adds that after Hadhrat Abu Dharr Sies repeated the question for the fourth time, Rasulullaah se said, "Even though Abu Dharr's nose is rubbed in dust (i.e. this shall be the case even though Abu Dharr may not agree)."(1)

The Incident of the Bedouin with Great Understanding

Hadhrat Anas see reports that an old Bedouin called Hadhrat Algama bin Ulaatha see once came to Rasulullaah see and said, "O Rasulullaah see! I am an old man who is unable to learn the Qur'aan. However, I do testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and I testify that Muhammad see is the servant and Rasul of Allaah. In this I have firm conviction." When the old man had left, Rasulullaah see remarked, "That man has great understanding." It has also been reported that Rasulullaah see said, "That companion of yours has great understanding." (2)

The Narration of Hadhrat Uthmaan See Stating that Jahannam is Forbidden to the One who Recites the Shahaadah

Hadhrat Uthmaan in arrates that he heard Rasulullaah is say, "I know a statement which if a person says sincerely from his heart, he will become forbidden to the fire of Jahannam." To this, Hadhrat Umar is said, "Should I not tell you what it is? It is the statement of sincerity upon which Allaah has made Muhammad is and his Sahabah is steadfast. It is the statement of Taywa that the Nabi of Allaah is had encouraged his uncle Abu Taalib to recite at the time of his death. It is to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah." (3)

Rasulullaah Gives the Glad Tidings of Forgiveness to the Sahabah William who Recited the Shahaadah with him in a Particular Gathering

Hadhrat Ya'la bin Shaddaad reports that Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit was also present and confirming Hadhrat Abu Shaddaad when he said, "We were with Rasulullaah when he asked, 'Is there any stranger amongst you?" Rasulullaah was referring to the presence of any Jews or Christians. When we assured Rasulullaah with that there was none, he had the door closed and said, 'Raise your hands and say: Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'. We (together with Rasulullaah with hands down saying, "All praise is for Allaah. O Allaah! You sent me with (i) Tirmidhi.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzui Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.70). Kharaa'iti in his Makaarimul Akhlaaq and Daar Qutni in his Afraad have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.503).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.15). Abu Ya'la, Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbaan, Bayhaqi and others have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.74).

this Kalimah, instructed me with (believing in) it and promised me Jannah for it. Verily, You never break Your promises." (1)

Rasulullaah Gives Glad Tidings to the Sahabah In Kudayd

Hadhrat Rufaa'ah Juhani reports that they were once returning with Rasulullaah (to Madinah) when we arrived in Kudayd. When some people started seeking permission from Rasulullaah for return to their families, Rasulullaah francischer granted permission. Rasulullaah francischer then stood up and after duly praising Allaah, he said, "What is the matter with some men who feel that the side of the tree near Rasulullaah francischer is more repulsive to them than the other side?" When Rasulullaah francischer said this, there was not a person who was not in tears. Someone then remarked, "Whoever seeks leave after this must be a foolt"

Rasulullaah then praised Allaah, said many good things and then added, "I testify before Allaah that when a person testifies with sincerity of heart that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, that I am the Rasul of Allaah and he then proceeds to walk on the right, he will certainly walk the path to Jannah as soon as he dies. My Rabb Table has promised me that He will admit seventy thousand members of my Ummah into Jannah without reckoning or punishment. However, I strongly believe that even before they enter, you people as well your righteous forefathers, spouses and progeny will have already occupied your abodes in Jannah." (2)

Another narration clarifies that it was Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Whoever seeks leave after this must be a fool!" (3)

The Shahaadah Atones for a False Oath

Hadhrat Anas harrates that when Rasulullaah charged a particular person for doing something, the man denied it saying, "No. I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship that I did not do it." Rasulullaah was however certain that the man had done it, so after repeating himself several times, Rasulullaah said, "Atone for this by attesting that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah." (4) Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "Atone for your lie by confirming that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (When a man took a false oath using the words 'I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship', Allaah forgave him (because he recited the Ahmad, Tabraani and Bazzaar, all reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.19).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Ibn Maajah, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.20).

⁽³⁾ Daarmi, Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbaan and Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.287).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Ya'la Both Bazzaar and Abu Ya'la report from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.83), Ibn Hajar has however commented on the chain of narrators.

words of the Kalimah)." (1)

People who Recited the Shahaadah will Leave Jahannam

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Hadhrat Rasulullaah See said, "When the people of Jahannam will get together, amongst them will also be those who faced the Qibla (Muslims). The Kuffaar will then say to the Muslims, 'Were you people not Muslims?' When the Muslims reply in the affirmative, the Kuffaar will ridicule. Then of what use was your Islaam when you have ended up with us here in the fire?' The Muslims will reply, 'We were detained because of the sins that we committed.' When Allaah hears what the Kuffaar have to say, He will issue orders that all those who faced the Qibla should be removed from Jahannam. When the Kuffaar remaining behind in Jahannam see this, they will lament, 'If only we had been Muslims so that we could leave just as they have left." Rasulullaah

Alif Laam Raa (Only Allaah knows the meaning of these letters). These are the verses of the Book and the clear Qur'aan. Many a time the Kuffaar will wish that they had been Muslims. (Surah Hilr, verses 1,2) (2)

Hadhrat Anas Tales narrates that Rasulullaah said, "When some believers in (the Kalimah) 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' will enter Jahannam because of their sins, the worshippers of (the idols) Laat and Uzza will ridicule them saying, 'Of what use was your recitation of 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' when you are with us in Jahannam.' Allaah will then get angry for their part. He will remove the Muslims from Jahannam and put them in the river of life where their burns will be healed just as the moon recovers from its eclipse. They will then enter Jannah where they will be called 'the people from Jahannam'." (3)

Another narration of Tabraani reports that because of the blackness on their faces, they will be called 'the people from Jahannam'. They will then plead to Allaah saying, "O Rabb! Remove this name from us." Allaah will then command them to bath in a river in Jannah, after which the name will be removed from them (because the blackness will be removed).

A Group of Mu'mineen that will be Saved from Jahannam

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.83).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Ibn Abi Haatim has reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.546).

idea what fasting, Sadaqah or sacrifice are. Then such a night will pass over the Qur'aan after which not a single verse of the Qur'aan will be found on earth (the angels will remove every Qur'aan from earth). There shall then remain only a few pockets of people amongst whom an old man and an old lady will say, 'Because we found our forefathers reciting this Kalimah 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah', we also reciteit." To this, one of the narrators called Hadhrat Sila asked, "Of what use will the Kalimah 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' be to them when they will have no idea what fasting, Sadaqah or sacrifice are?" When Hadhrat Hudhayfah ignored the question, Hadhrat Sila repeated it thrice. Each time, Hadhrat Hudhayfah ignored the ignored the question until on the third occasion, he turned to Hadhrat Sila and sald, "O Sila! It will save them from Jahannam! It will save them from Jahannam!" (1)

The Statements of Hadhrat Ali (Simo), Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Simo) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Simo) Concerning the Shahaadah and those Reciting it

Hadhrat Ali (2006) once said, "The people with the clearest record with Aliaah (2007) and who know Him best are those who have the most love for and who most honour the sanctity of the believers in 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'," (2)

Hadhrat Saalim bin Abul Ja'd reports that someone once informed Hadhrat Abu Dardaa that Abu Sa'd bin Munabbih had set a hundred slaves free. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa remarked, "Setting a hundred slaves free from the wealth of a single person is a great deed. However, if you please, I can inform you of something better than that. (It is) Imaan that is attached to the heart day and night and keeping your tongue moist with the Dhikr of Allaah ("3") Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "Verily Allaah has distributed good character amongst you just as He has distributed your sustenance. Whereas Allaah has given wealth to those whom He loves as well as those whom He does not love, He gives Imaan only to those whom He loves. Therefore, it is only when Allaah loves someone that He gives him Imaan. The person who is too miserly to spend (in Sadaqah), too scared to fight the enemy in Jihaad and cannot exert himself in Ibaadah at nights should recite 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah', 'Allaahu Akbar', 'Al Hamdu Lillaah' and 'Subhaanallaah' in abundance." (4)

The Gatherings of Imaan

The Eagerness of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha ties to Participate in the Gatherings of Imaan

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik was narrates that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.545), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 Pg.76).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (vol. 1 Pg.219). Ibn Abi Dunya has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.55).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.90) and Mudhiri in his Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.95).

Rawaaha who met one of the Sahabah who he say to him, "Come! Let us believe in our Rabb for a moment (let us refresh our Imaan by talking about Allaah for a while)." When he said this to someone one day, the man became angry and reported it to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah will Look at Ibn Rawaaha. He prefers your Imaan to the Imaan of a moment." Nabi will replied, "May Allaah forgive Ibn Rawaaha. He loves the gatherings about which the angels boast." (1)

Hadhrat Ataa bin Yasaar narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha some said to one of his companions, "Come here so that we may believe for a while." "Are we not already believers?" the other asked. "Certainly," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha some replied, "but let us talk about Allaah so that our Imaan can be increased." (2)

Hadhrat Shurayh bin Abdullaah reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha would grab hold of the hand of one of the Sahabah will and say, "Stand with me so that we may believe for a while by sitting in a gathering of Dhikr." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sissis says, "Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Sissis once caught hold of my hand saying, 'Come! Let us believe for a moment because the heart overturns faster than a pot boiling at its pitch." (4)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Sass says, "When Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Wass would meet me, he would say, 'O Uwaymir! Sit down so that we may discuss (Imaan) for a while.' We would then sit down and discuss, after which he would say, 'This is a gathering of Imaan. The example of Imaan is like that of your Qamees. When you have taken it off, you will again be putting it on and when you have put it on, you will again be taking it off. The heart overturns faster than a pot boiling at its pitch." (5)

The Eagerness of Hadhrat Umar saws and Hadhrat Mu'aadh saws to Participate in the Gatherings of Imaan

Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Sies) reports that Hadhrat Umar (Wash would grab hold of the hands of one or two Sahabah (Sies) and say, "Stand awhile with me so that we may renew our Imaan." They would then talk about Allaah (1920). (6)

Hadhrat Aswad bin Hilaal reports that they were walking with Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (300) when he said to them, "Sit with us so that we may believe for a moment." (7)

Ahmad, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.63). Haafidh has commented on the chain of narrators in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.258).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi.

⁽³⁾ Haafidh Abul Qaasim Laalkaa'ee.

⁽⁴⁾ Tayaalisi.

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.101).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Laalkaa'ee in his Sunnah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg. 207).

⁽⁷⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.235).

Renewing Imaan

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Press reports that Rasulullaah (Press once said, "Renew your Imaan." "O Rasulullaah (Press once asked, "How are we to renew our Imaan?" Rasulullaah (Press replied, "Abundantly recite 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'." (1)

Rejecting Experience and Eye-Witness Accounts The incident of a Man With Diarrhoea

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri harrates that a man once came to Rasulullaah saying, "My brother is suffering from diarrhoea." "Give him honey to drink," Rasulullaah said. The man went, gave honey to his brother and then returned saying, "O Rasulullaah said I gave him honey but it only made his diarrhoea worse." "Go and give him honey to drink," Rasulullaah said repeated. The man went, again gave his brother honey and then returned yet again saying, "His diarrhoea is now even worse." Rasulullaah said, "Allaah speaks the truth and it is your brother's belly that is lying. Go and give him honey." This time when the man gave honey to his brother, he was completely cured. (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadhrat Zaynab who was the wife of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood says, "Whenever (my husband) Abdullaah came home after relieving himself, he would clear his throat at the door and spit so that he does not enter upon us unexpectedly while we are in a condition that he would find unpleasant. He happened to return one day while I had with me an old lady who was busy reciting some incantations to cure me from erysipelas⁽³⁾. When he cleared his throat, I quickly hid her beneath the bed. He then came in and sat next to me. Noticing a thread around my neck, he asked, What is this thread for?' I replied, 'An incantation has been read on it for me.' He held it, cut it and then said, 'The family of Abdullaah have no need for Shirk. I have heard Rasulullaah says that incantations, talismans and amulets amount to Shirk (when people believe that they possess the inherent quality of healing)."

Hadhrat Zaynab continues, "I then said to him, 'Why do you say that when it is true that I often experience pain in my eye and whenever I go to a particular Jewish lady who recites incantations on it, the pain subsides?' He replied, 'That is because Shaytaan pokes your eye and when the incantations are read on it, he stops poking at it. All you need to do is to recite what Rasulullaah used to recite (which is):

[&]quot;O Rabb of mankind, remove the difficulty. You grant a cure for there is (1) Ahmad and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.82) and Mundhiri in Targheeb wal Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.75).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 2 Pg. 575).

⁽³⁾ A severe bacterial skin rash accompanied by fever and vomiting.

none who can cure besides You. There is also no cure like Your cure. Grant a cure that does not leave out any illness." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha and his Wife

Hadhrat Ikramah reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha was once lying beside his wife when he got up and went to have intercourse with one of his slave women in another part of the house. His wife was alarmed when she did not see him lying where he had been so she immediately got up and left the room. When she saw him on the slave woman, she returned to her room, took a knife and went back. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha had just finished and had stood up when he met her carrying the knife. "What is the matter?" he asked. "What is the matter indeed!" she replied, "Had I found you where I had seen you just now, I would have plunged this knife between your shoulders!" "And just where did you see me?" he asked. "I saw you upon the slave," she replied. "It could not have been me that you saw," he said. He then continued, "Rasulullaah has prohibited anyone from reciting the Qur'aan when one is impure (as I should be if I had had intercourse, yet I can recite for you)." "Then recite," she challenged. He then recited the following (couplets which mean):

"Rasulullaah 深麗 came to us reciting the Book

That shines forth like the rising dawn

He brought guidance after darkness and our hearts are convinced that whatever he says must happen

While he spends the night separated from his bed (engaged in Ibaadah) the Mushrikeen lie heavily on their beds"

(Thinking that these are verses of the Qur'aan) His wife said, "I believe in the Book of Allaah and reject what the eyes have seen." When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha went early to Rasulullaah with the next morning and informed him about what had transpired, Rasulullaah smiled so broadly that his molars became visible. (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and Rasulullaah at Hudaybiyyah

Hadhrat Habeeb bin Abu Thaabit narrates that when he went to pose some questions to Hadhrat Abu Waa'il (1996), the Sahabi related to them that when they were fighting at Siffeen, someone asked, "Have you not seen those who are called towards the Book of Allaah (to settle their disputes)?" "Yes, we have," replied Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (1996). It was then that Hadhrat Sahl bin Hunayi (1996) said, "You have only yourselves to blame! I have seen us at Hudayblyyah when Nabi (1996) entered into a peace treaty with the Mushrikeen. Had we deemed fighting to be the solution, we would have fought (but it was in (1) Ahmad, as quoted in Takeer of the Katheer (Vol.2 Pp. 494).

⁽²⁾ Daar Qutni (Pg.44,45). The author of Talleequi Mughni (Pg.46) has commented on the chain of narrators.

the best interest to enter into the treaty)," He then continued to narrate that at the time Hadhrat Umar saked, "Are we not on the truth and the Mushrikeen on falsehood? Will not our martyrs go to Jannah while their dead will go to Jahannam?" "Certainly," Rasulullaah fig replied. "Then why should we compromise our Deen?" Umar saked, "Whyshouldwereturnwhen Allaah has not yet decided between us and the Mushrikeen?" Rasulullaah fig reassured him saying, "O son of Khattaab! I am the Rasul of Allaah and Allaah shall never ever lead me to destruction."

Hadhrat Umar was still upset when he went away. He proceeded straight to Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and asked, "O Abu Bakr! Are we not on the truth and the Mushrikeen on falsehood?" "O son of Khattaab!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr was aid. "He is the Rasul of Allaah and Allaah shall never ever lead him to destruction." It was after this that Allaah revealed Surah Fatah. (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Sahl bin Hunayf said, "O peoplet You have only your own opinions to blame! I have seen myself on the day of Abu Jandal (when Rasulullaah see was forced to hand him over to the Mushrikeen according to the demands of the treaty). Had I the ability to reverse this decision of Rasulullaah see, I would have certainly done so (but no one's Imaan would allow him to oppose a decision coming from Rasulullaah see). Yet another narration adds that when Surah Fatah was revealed, Rasulullaah sent for Hadhrat Umar sent and recited it to him. (2)

In the chapter concerning Da'wah towards Allaah and His Rasool (Chapter one) and under the discussion of the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah, the narration of Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah (Shaws) has already been quoted. The narration states that Hadhrat Abu Jandal (Chapter) addressed the Muslims saying, "O gathering of Muslim! Why should I be returned to the Mushrikeen when I have come as a Muslim? Have you not seen how I have suffered?" Hadhrat Abu Jandal (Chapter) had endured severe torture at the hands of the Mushrikeen.

Hadhrat Umar "Is then approached Rasulullaah "Is and said, "Are you not the true Nabi of Allaah?" "I am indeed," replied Rasulullaah "Is Hadhrat Umar Sais asked further, "Are we not on the truth and our enemies on falsehood?" "Certainly," said Rasulullaah "In Then," asked Hadhrat Umar "Is "why do we have to submit?" Rasulullaah "Is said to him, "I am certainly the Rasool of Allaah. I cannot disobey Him and He is my Helper." Hadhrat Umar "Is asked, "Did you not tell us that we shall arrive at the Kabah and perform Tawaaf around it?" Rasulullaah "Indeed I did but did I tell you that it would be this year?" "No," said Hadhrat Umar "Is "Then you shall certainly arrive there and perform Tawaaf around it." Rasulullaah "Is assured him.

Hadhrat Umar Sizes then approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sizes and asked him, "Is he not the true Nabi of Allaah?" "He is indeed," replied Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sizes Hadhrat Umar Sizes asked further, "Are we not on the truth and our enemies on falsehood?" "Certainly," said Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sizes. "Then," asked

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim,

⁽²⁾ Nasa'ee, as quoted in Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.200).

Hadhrat Umar Wee, "why do we have to submit?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr Said to him, "O person! He is certainly the Rasool of Allaah. He cannot disobey Allaah and Allaah is his Helper." Hadhrat Umar Said asked, "Did Rasulullaah Rei not tell us that we shall arrive at the Kabah and perform Tawaaf around it?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr Rei replied, "He did indeed, but did he tell you that it would be this year?" "No," said Hadhrat Umar Rei "Then you shall certainly arrive there and perform Tawaaf around it," Hadhrat Abu Bakr Rei assured him. After narrating this incident, Hadhrat Umar Rei says that he later carried out numerous good deeds to make amends for this behaviour.

The Happiness of Rasulullaah when Revelation About Forgiveness and Victory Arrived as they were Returning from Hudaybiyyah

Hadhrat Anas (1986) narrates that as Rasulullaah (1986) was returning from Hudaybiyyah, Allaah revealed the verse:

So that Allaah may forgive you (O Rasulullaah) for your past shortcomings and those that may occur in the future. (Surah Fatah, verse 2) Rasulullaah (Surah

So that Allaah may admit the Mu'mineen men and women into Jannaat beneath which rivers flow. They will live there forever and He shall (also) pardon them for their sins. This is the great success in Allaah's sight. (Surah Fatah, verse 5)⁽¹⁾

Hadhrat Anas Times reports that after Rasulullaah (Times had been prevented from performing Umrah, he was returning from Hudaybiyyah when the following verse was revealed:

Indeed, We have granted you (O Rasulullaah 機能) a clear victory⁽²⁾. {Surah Fatah, verse !}

When Rasulullaah & and the Sahabah & slaughtered their sacrificial animals at Hudaybiyyah, they were filled with grief and sorrow. Rasulullaah &

Ahmad, Bukhaari and Muslim have reported a similar natration, as quoted in Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 4 Pg. 183).

⁽²⁾ Allaah granted the victory through the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah because after this treaty large numbers of people accepted Islaam and II led to the conquest of Makkah.

then said, "Such a verse was revealed to me that I love more than all the world."

He then recited to them the verse:

(سورة فتح: آيت (تا ٢)

Indeed, We have granted you (O Rasulullaah (SE)) a clear victory (through the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah). (Allaah granted this victory to Rasulullaah (SE) so that he may be greatly rewarded for the many people entering the fold of Islaam and together with this.) So that Allaah may forgive you (O Rasulullaah (SE)) for your past shortcomings and those that may occur in the future; and so that He may complete His favour on you, guide you on the straight path and (so that) Allaah may grant you assistance that is most powerful (with which you can never be defeated). (Surah Fatah verses 1-3)

When Rasulullaah  recited the verse to the Sahabah , they said, "Congratulations to you, O Nabi of Allaah ..." The rest if the narration is the same as the one above. (1)

Hadhrat Mujammi bin Jaariya Ansaari www who was one of those Sahabah who were proficient in the knowledge of the Qur'aan reports that he was also present at Hudaybiyyah. After they had left, they saw people racing their camels, "What is the matter with them?" they asked each other. When they were informed that revelation had come to Rasulullaah who they were informed that revelation had come to Rasulullaah who was then sitting on his camel at a place called Kuraa'ul Ghameem. When the Sahabah who had gathered around, Rasulullaah we recited to them:

Indeed, We have granted you (O Rasulullaah 響麗) a clear victory. {Surah Fatah, verse 1}

Someone asked, "O Rasulullaah  Is this a victory?" "Yes," Rasulullaah  replied, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad that this is certainly a victory." The Hadith continues further. (2)

Hadhrat Baraa (Ties) once said, "You people regard the conquest of Makkah as the 'victory' (referred to in the first verse of Surah Fatah). Although that certainly was a great victory, we (the Sahabah (1996)) regard the 'victory' to be the pledge of Ridwaan taken at Hudaybiyyah." The narration still continues further. (3)

Hadhrat Jaabir (1998) says, "We regard the 'victory' to be nothing other than the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah." (4)

^{(1) 1}bn Jareer (Vol.26 Pg.44).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Abu Dawood has reported a similar narration; as quoted in Talseer of thi Katheer (Vol.4 Po.173).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari, as quoted in Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg. 182).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Jareer (Vol.26 Pg.44).

The Incident of the River Nile during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Qais bin Hajjaaj reports from his teacher that after Egypt was conquered (by the Muslims), the people approached the governor Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas when the month of Bu'na⁽¹⁾ started. "O governort," they said, "There is a ritual (we carry out) for our Nile without which it will not flow." "What is the ritual?" Hadhrat Amr wellook for a virgin living with her parents. After satisfying her parents (with a vast sum of money), we adorn her with the best of jewels and clothing and then throw her into the Nile." "This cannot happen in Islaam," Hadhrat Amr will told them, "Islaam wipes out all (rituals) that takes place before it."

It so happened that the Nile did not flow and although the people stayed in Egypt all through the month of Bu'na, they eventually decided to leave Egypt. Hadhrat Amr Work wrote a letter to Hadhrat Umar Work and informed him about the situation. Hadhrat Umar Work wrote back to Hadhrat Amr Work saying, "Your course of action was correct. I have enclosed a note with this letter that you should throw into the Nile..." The narration continues further and will be narrated in the chapter discussing unseen assistance from Allaah. The end of the narration states that the note was thrown into the Nile and on the following morning which was a Saturday, the people found that the Nile was already flowing sixteen arm's length high in a single night. In this manner, Allaah cut out the Egyptian ritual to this day. (2)

Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami (1966) leads the Muslim Army into the Ocean

Hadhrat Sahm bin Minjaab reports, "We were on a military expedition with Alaa bin Hadhrami when we approached the island of Daarayn. The ocean however posed an obstacle for us to land on the island. Alaa with then prayed to Allaah saying, 'O Aleem! O Haleem! O Aliyy! O Adheem! Verily Your servants are in Your path fighting Your enemies. O Allaah! Create for us a way to reach them.' He then led us into the water and as deep as we went, the water did not even reach our saddle-cloths. In this manner, we reached the enemy," (3)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (and that when II n Muka'bir the Persian Emperor's governor saw the Muslims (travelling through the water), he said, "No! By Allaah! We can never fight such people!" He then boarded his ship and returned to Persia. (4)

Similar narrations have also been reported from Hadhrat Sahm bin Minjaab, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1966) and Hadhrat Anas (1966), as will soon appear in

⁽¹⁾ A month in their Egyptian calendar.

⁽²⁾ Laalkaa'ee in his Sunnah, as quoted in Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg 464).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.7).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.8). Tabraani, Ibn Abi Dunya and Bayhaqi.

the chapter detailing the control that Allaah gave Muslims over the oceans. There the narration will also appear showing how Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas crossed the Tigris River during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah. The narration cites the announcement Hadhrat Hujr bin Adi hade when he said, "What prevents you from crossing over these few droplets viz. the Tigris." He then recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

A person shall die only by the command of Allaah; (at a time that is) recorded (in the Lowhul Mahfoodh), fixed (and therefore can neither be postponed nor delayed). (Surah Aal Imraan, verse [45]

He then plunged his horse into the river and the other Muslims followed. When the enemy saw them, they took to their heels shouting, "Demons!"

Hadhrat Tameem Daari Drives a Fire Away

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Harmal reports a narration that mentions a fire emerging from Harra (a rocky terrain near Madinah). Hadhrat Umar then came to Hadhrat Tameem Daari Hadhrat Tameem Saying, "Go and see to that fire!" "Who am I and what am I?" Hadhrat Tameem went with him. The narrator reports that he followed them as they proceeded to the fire where Hadhrat Tameem rounded up the fire with his bare hands until it returned into the crevice it had come out from, with Hadhrat Tameem when he behind it. Hadhrat Umar then remarked, "The one who has witnessed this can never be like the one who has not (because it serves to boost one's Imaan)." (1) Bayhaqi and Baghawi have also reported a similar narration, as will be quoted in the chapter discussing unseen assistance from Allaah.

What Rasulullaah A saw when He struck A Boulder During Preparations for the Battle of Khandaq and the Glad Tidings he gave the Sahabah

A Sahabi see reports that when Rasulullaah see gave the command for the trench to be dug, a large boulder presented an obstacle to the digging. Rasulullaah see took up a spade, placed his shawl beside the trench and recited:

(سورة انعام:آيت ١١٥)

The words of your Rabb have been completed (perfected) in truth and justice. There is none to alter His words and He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing. (Surah An'aam, verse 115)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'il (Pg.212).

When Rasulullaah se struck it, a spark flashed and a third of the boulder crumbled as Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi susse watched. When Rasulullaah struck it a second time, he again recited the verse:

(سورة انعام: آيت ١١٥)

The words of your Rabb have been completed (perfected) in truth and justice. There is none to alter His words and He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing. (Surah An'aam, verse [15])

Again a spark flashed and another third of the boulder crumbled. Hadhrat Salmaan (1996) witnessed this as well. Rasulullaah (1996) then struck it a third time as he recited:

(سورة اتعام: آيت ١١٥)

The words of your Rabb have been completed (perfected) in truth and justice. There is none to alter His words and He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing. (Surah An'aam, verse 115)

This time, the last third of the boulder crumbled. Rasulullaah the got out from the trench, took his shawl and sat down. "O Rasulullaah the Hadhrat Salmaan the said, "I was watching as you struck the boulder and noticed that every time you struck it, a brilliant spark flashed." "O Sulaymaan!" Rasulullaah said, "Did you also see that?" "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I definitely did," Hadhrat Salmaan the replied.

Rasulullaah then explained, "When I struck it the first time, the cities of the Persian Emperor, their surroundings and numerous other cities were shown to me so vividly that I could see their every detail." The Sahabah who were present there said, "O Rasulullaah !! Pray to Allaah that He allows us to conquer those places, to have their progeny as our booty and to raze the place down with our hands." Rasulullaah made the du'aa and then continued, "When I struck it the second time, the cities of the Roman Emperor and their surroundings were shown to me so vividly that I could see their every detail." "O Rasulullaah !!" the Sahabah saked, "Pray to Allaah that He allows us to conquer those places, to have their progeny as our booty and to raze the place down with our hands." Rasulullaah again complied.

Thereafter, Rasulullaah continued, "When I struck it the third time, the cities of Abyssinia and the cities in their surroundings were shown to me so vividly that I could see their every detail. You should however leave the Abyssinians alone as long as they leave you alone and also leave the Turks alone as long as they leave you alone." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.102). Abu Dawood has reported the concluding portion which states: "You should however leave the Abyssinians alone as long as they leave you alone and also leave the Turks alone as long as they leave you alone."

Hadhrat Amr bin Auf Muzani reports a similar narration. This narration states that when Nabi arrived, he took a spade from Hadhrat Salmaan with He then struck the boulder so hard that the boulder was crushed and a spark so bright flashed that it lit up everything between the two mountains of Madinah. It actually appeared as if it was a lantern in the middle of a dark night. Rasulullaah cried out "Allaahu Akbar" as people cry out when they attain victory over an enemy. The Sahabah with echoes the cry of Rasulullaah when the same thing happened and on the third strike again.

When Hadhrat Salmaan and the other Sahabah spoke about this to Rasulullaah for they asked him what the meaning of the light was. Rasulullaah for explained, "On the first occasion, the palaces of Heera and the cities of the Persian Emperor were lit up for me, appearing (shining) like the canines of a hound. Jibra'eel then informed me that my Ummah shall conquer these places. On the second occasion, the red palaces of Rome were lit up for me, appearing like the canines of a hound. Jibra'eel then informed me that my Ummah shall conquer these places as well. Eventually, on the third occasion, the palaces of San'aa were lit up for me, appearing like the canines of a hound. Jibra'eel again informed me that my Ummah shall conquer these places. You should therefore rejoice about this."

The Sahabah (2006) became very happy and said, "Al Hamdu Lillaah! The promise is true indeed." When the Kuffaar armies arrived, the Mu'mineen said.

(سورة احزاب: آيت٢٢)

"This (trying occasion and Allaah's help that comes with it) is what Allaah and His Rasool have promised us. Allaah and His Rasool have spoken the truth." They then increase in Imaan and submission (to Allaah, instead of faltering in these). (Surah Ahzaab, verse 22)

In the meantime, the Munaafiqeen quipped, "He tells you that from Yathrib he can see the palaces of Heera, Madaa'in and the Persian Emperor and that you people will be conquering these places when you are digging a trench and are unable to even contest the enemy on the battlefield." It was with reference to this that Allaah revealed the verse:

(سورة احزاب: آبت ۱۲)

When the hypocrites and those with a disease (doubts) in their hearts said, "Allaah and His Rasool 機器 have made only deceptive promises to us (they promise victory when all we can see is imminent defeat)." (Surah Ahzaab, verse 2

A lengthy narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1) will soon appear (1) ibn iarcer, as quoted in Al Bidaavah wan Nihaavah (vol.4 pg.100).

in the chapter discussing the unseen assistance from Allaah with regard to the blessings in food. The narration states that (when called for the boulder) Rasulullaah said, "Let me be the first to strike it." Rasulullaah from the recited "Bismillaah" and struck the boulder, causing a third of it to be crushed. He then exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar! The palaces of Rome, by the Rabb of the Kabah!" Rasulullaah sit then struck the boulder a second time and another portion was crushed. This time, he cried out, "Allaahu Akbar! The palaces of Persia, by the Rabb of the Kabah!" It was then that the Munaafiqeen jibed, "We are busy digging a trench to save our lives and he is promising us the palaces of Rome and Persia?!" (1)

Hadhrat Khaalid Drinks Poison and the Statement of a Christian about the Sahabah

Also coming shortly in the chapter discussing the unseen assistance from Allaah is the incident of poison having no effect on Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed with and his statement that no soul can die until its time is up." Also to appear are the words of (the Christian) Amr who said, "O assembly of Arabs! I swear by Allaah that you will always have sovereignty over any region you want as long as there is a single member of this generation (of Sahabah (1)) with you." Addressing the people of Heera, he also said, "To this day, I have never seen anything as viable as this."

Statements of the Sahabah Attesting that Large Numbers Does not Bring Assistance

Soon to appear in the chapter discussing the sources of assistance is the statement of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Agram ("O Abu Hurayrah! Do you perhaps see a large concentration of forces?" "O yes," replied Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ("You did not witness the Battle of Badr with us for (then you would have seen that) it was not large numbers that assisted us."

There it will also be narrated that when someone remarked, "The Romans are so many while the Muslims so few!" Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Fig. 1) responded by saying, "The Romans are so few while the Muslims so many! Armies are increased only by Allaah's assistance and reduced only by Allaah withdrawing His assistance, and not by their numbers. By Allaah! I wish that (my horse) Ashqar was well and that the enemy was doubled in number."

Also to appear there is the letter Hadhrat Abu Bakr wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas which he said, "You letter has just reached me detailing the massive build-up of Roman forces. Verily it was neither with large numbers nor with large armies that Allaah assisted us during the time of His Nabi . When we were with Rasulullaah . we sometimes fought battles with only two horses and at times we even had to take turns riding our camels. When we fought the Battle of Uhud with Rasulullaah see, we had only one horse which Rasulullaah see rode. It was always Allaah Who backed us and assisted us against those who opposed us."

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.132) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The narration has already passed(1) discussing how Hadhrat Abu Bakr dispatched the army of Hadhrat Usaamah 5556. This was during a time when the Arabs were revolting on all fronts, when (apart from a few tribes) all the Arab tribes started turning away from Islaam, when hypocrisy started surfacing and the Jews and Christians started rearing their ugly heads. At the time, the Muslims were like a lone goat caught in a stormy night because they were still reeling from the loss of their Nabi Will and their numbers were very few compared to the large numbers of the enemy. However, when the Sahabah Experience proposed to Hadhrat Abu Bakr & that he detain the army of Hadhrat Usaamah & that he detain the army of Hadhrat & that he detain the headhrat & that he said, "How can I hold back an army that Rasulullaah WE had dispatched? I would then be doing something very bold! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I would prefer having all the Arabs attack me rather than restraining an army that Rasulullaah Will had dispatched! O Usaama! Proceed with your army whence Rasulullaah had commanded you and fight in the area of Palestine where Rasulullaah We had commanded. Fight the people of Mu'ta for Allaah shall be sufficient for those whom you are leaving behind (in Madinah)." The narration has also passed(2) discussing the Battle of Mu'ta when Hadhrat

The narration has also passed⁽²⁾ discussing the Battle of Mu'ta when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (addressed the Muslims as the enemy amassed a force of two hundred thousand troops. He said to them, "O people! By Allaah! The thing that you seem to dislike is the very thing for which you have left; martyrdom. We have never fought with reliance in our numbers and our strength. We have always fought on the strength of this Deen that Allaah had blessed us with. March ahead! You will have either one of two excellent things, victory or martyrdom." The others echoed, "By Allaah! Ibn Rawaaha has spoken the truth!"

There are so many more such incidents of the Sahabah scattered throughout this book and many other books discussing Ahadeeth, battles and biographies of Rasulullaah See. We shall not lengthen this book with mentioning them all and repeating them.

The Reality and Perfection of Imaan Rasulullaah asks Hadhrat Haarith Bin Maalik book how he Felt and his Reply

Hadhrat Anas Sie reports that Rasulullaah fif entered the Masjid one day

(1) In the chapter concerning Ilhaad, under the heading "Rasulullaah fif is Particular about Dispatching the Army of Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid Sies even on his Deathbed, after which Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sies also Gives the Same Importance to the Matter When he Becomes the Khalifah" and the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sies Rejects the Request of the Muhaajireen and Ansaar to hold back the Army of Hadhrat Usaama Sies."

(2) Under the heading "The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah 經濟論 to Die and Give their Lives in the path of Allash" and the subheading "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha 吳麗德 Encourages the Sahabah 吳麗德 towards Martyrdom".

where he found Hadhrat Haarith bin Maalik asleep. Nudging him with his foot, Rasulullaah said, "Raise you head." As he raised his head, Hadhrat Haarith sees exclaimed, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah saked. Hadhrat Haarith sees replied, "I feel like a true Mu'min this morning, O Rasulullaah said, "Every fact requires substantiation, so how do you substantiate your statement?" Hadhrat Haarith sees replied, "I have turned my eyes away from this world, I keep myself thirsty during the days (because I am fasting) and I stay awake (in Ibaadah) during the nights. In addition to that, it is as if I can actually see the Arsh of my Rabb and as if I can actually see the people of Jananh visiting each other and the people of Jananam barking at each other." Rasulullaah remarked, "You are a man whose heart Allaah has illuminated. You have understood (the reality of Imaan) so now remain steadfast." (1)

Another narration names the Sahabi as Hadhrat Haaritha bin Nu'maan and states that Rasulullaah sissaid to him, "You have seen (the reality of Imaan), so remain steadfast. He is a man in whose heart Allaah has illuminated Imaan." "O Rasulullaah sissi"! Hadhrat Haaritha sissaid then asked, "Pray to Allaah that I become a martyr." Rasulullaah sissaid then made the du'aa for him. One day the announcement was made, "O horsemen of Allaah! Mount your horses (and ride out in Jihaad)." Hadhrat Haaritha sissiid was the first to take to his horse and also became the first to be martyred. (2)

Hadhrat Anas somewhere when he met a young man from the Ansaar. "How do you feel this morning, O Haarith?" Rasulullaah somewhere when he met a young man from the Ansaar. "How do you feel this morning, O Haarith?" Rasulullaah some asked. He replied, "This morning I feel like a true believer in Allaah." "Consider well what you say," Rasulullaah some advised, "because every statement requires substantiation." He replied, "O Rasulullaah some I have turned my eyes away from this world..." The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one quoted above. (3)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah sa said, "Every statement requires substantiation, so how do you substantiate your Imaan?" (4)

Rasulullaah : asks Hadhrat Mu'aadh : how he Felt and his Reply

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik (Singles) narrates that when Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Singles) arrived one day, Rasulullaah (Singles) asked him, "How do you feel this morning, O Mu'aadh?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh (Singles) replied, "I feel like a true believer in Allaah." "Every statement requires substantiation," Rasulullaah (Singles) told him,

^{(1) (}bn Asaakir.

⁽²⁾ Askan, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.160).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.161).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Mubaarak in his Zuhd. Haafidh has commented on the chain of narrators, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.289). Abdur Razzaaq has reported a similar narration, as have Tabraani, Ibn Mandah, Bayhaqi, Bazzaar and Tabraani, but Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.57) has commented on Bazzaar's and Tabraani's chains of narrators.

"so how do you substantiate your statement?" "O Nabi of Allaah "I Hadhrat Mu'aadh "Every explained, "Every morning I feel that I will not see the evening and every evening I feel that I will never see the morning. Every time I take a step, I feel like I shall not be following it up with another and it is as if I can actually see every nation kneeling (on the Day of Qiyaamah), being called to their records of deeds with their Ambiyaa and the idols they worshipped. It is also as if I can actually see the punishment of the people of Jahannam and the rewards of the people of Jannah." Rasulullaah "Fe commended him saying, "You have understood (the reality of Imaan) so now remain steadfast." (1)

Rasulullaah saks Hadhrat Suwayd bin Haaritha saks and his Companions

In the chapter discussing giving Da'wah towards Allaah and His Rasool (2) the narration of Hadhrat Suwayd bin Haarith (2) has passed. In the narration he states that he was one of seven persons who met Rasulullaah (2) as a delegation. When they arrived in his presence and spoke to him, he was impressed by their mannerisms and appearance. Rasulullaah (2) asked them, "What are you?" They replied, "Mu'mineen." Rasulullaah (3) said, "Every statement has a reality (to substantiate it). What is the reality of your Imaan?" They replied, "Fifteen attributes (prove the existence of our Imaan). Five are those that your messengers have commanded us to believe in, five are those that your messengers have commanded us to carry out and five are those that we have adopted from the Period of Ignorance and are still practising until now unless you dislike them (in which case we are prepared to forsake them)..." The narration continues to mention belief in Allaah, in His angels, in His Books, in His prophets, in predestination - whether good or bad, in Islaam and in good character.

The Incident of a Munaafiq who Approached Rasulullaah & to Seek Forgiveness on his behalf Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Sie narrates that they were sitting with Rasulullaah (Sie when Hadhrat Harmalah bin Zaid Ansaari (Sie of the Banu Haaritha tribe came and sat in front of Rasulullaah (Sie Pointing to his tongue, he said "O Rasulullaah (Sie Imaan is here." He then pointed to his chest saying, "But in here is only hypocrisy. This heart remembers Allaah very little." Rasululiaah (Sie remained silent, but Hadhrat Harmalah (Sie repeated himself, Rasulullaah (Sie then held the tip of Hadhrat Harmalah (Sie stongue and prayed, "O Allaah! grant him a truthful tongue, a grateful heart, love for me, love for those who love me and point him in the right direction."

Hadhrat Harmalah 包括 then said, "O Rasulullaah 母語! I have many brothers who are Munaafiqeen and I had been their leader. Should I not point them out to you?" Rasulullaah  replied, "If they come to us as you have come, we shall seek forgiveness on their behalf as we have done for you. However, it is best that Allaah deals with those of them who are obstinate in their ways." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.242).

⁽²⁾ Under the heading "Rasulullaah 經濟 Calls people towards Fulfilling the Faraa'idh of Islaam" and the subheading "The Hadith of Hadhrat Alqama 多项器 Concerning the Reality of Imaan, Giving Da'wah towards Imaan and the Faraa'idh".

Imaan (Belief) In the Being of Allaah and His Attributes

A Sahabi Recites Surah Ikhlaas in Abundance

Hadhrat Aa'isha المنافقة narrates that a Sahabi المنافقة whom Rasulullaah المنافقة dispatched as commander of an expedition used to lead his companions in salaah but would always conclude (the Rakaah) by reciting المنافقة (Surah Ikhlaas). When they returned and reported this to Rasulullaah على he told them to ask him why he did this. When they asked him, he replied, "(I recite it so often) Because it discusses the attributes of Ar Rahmaan. I therefore love to recite it." Rasulullaah على then told the Sahabah المنافقة (I') "Inform him that Allaah loves him as well."

Rasulullaah EE Corroborates what a Jewish Scholar had to say about Allaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood some reports that a (jewish) scholar once came to Rasulullaah will using the address of "O Muhammad" or "O Rasulullaah will," he said, "Verily Allaah shall place the heavens on one finger, the worlds on another finger, the mountains and trees on another finger, water and clay on another finger and the rest of creation on another finger. He will then shake them saying, "I am the King." In confirmation of the scholar's statement, Rasulullaah will smiled so broadly that his molars became visible. He then recited the verse:

They have not revered (appreciated or comprehended) Allaah as He deserves to be revered (they do not realise His power and greatness as they ought to). On the Day of Qiyaamah, the entire earth will be in His grasp, and the skies will be folded in His right hand⁽³⁾. He is Pure and Exalted above all that they ascribe as partners to Him. (Surah Zumar, verse 67)⁽⁴⁾

Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.250). Tabraani and ibn Mandah have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.320).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.208), as quoted by Bukhaari and Muslim as well.

⁽³⁾ The meaning of this is best known to Allaah. Allaah says about such verses, "None knows their interpretation except Allaah" [Surah 3, verse 7].

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.245), as quoted by Bukhaari and Muslim as well.

The Narrations of Hadhrat Anas (Massill and Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Massill about how Allaah will Resurrect People)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik (1996) narrates that someone once asked Rasulullaah (1996), "How will the Kaafir be resurrected on his face (1) on the Day of Qiyaamah?" Rasulullaah (1996) replied, "Indeed the One who makes him walk with his legs can certainly make him walk on his face on the Day of Qiyaamah." (2)

Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Usayd reports that Hadhrat Abu Dharr concessed, "O tribe of Ghifaar! Talk (to each other) without taking oaths because the truthful one to whom the truth was always brought (viz. Rasulullaah (25)) told me that people will be resurrected in three groups (on the Day of Qiyaamah). One group will be riding, eating and well dressed. Another will be walking and running, while the third will be dragged by the angels on their faces and driven towards Jahannam." Someone from the audience said, "Two of the groups we are aware of, but what about those who will be walking and running?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr replied, "Allaah shall send a calamity on all riding animals (causing them all to die) so that there shall be not a single one left. In fact, a person will want to give away his magnificent orchard in exchange for an old camel with a carriage. However, he will be unable to do this (because no animal will be available)." (3)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Instructs the Sahabah ﷺ to say, "مَاشَاءَ النُّهُ وَحْدَةً لَا شَرِيْكَ لَنَّهُ"

Hadhrat Tuíayl bin Abdullaah المنافعة who was Hadhrat Aa'isha المنافعة suterine brother relates that he once saw a group of Christians in a dream. He said to them, "You people are excellent people, had it not been for your belief that Maseeh (Isa) المنافعة الله وَمَا يُحَمَّدُ الله وَمَا يُحَمَّدُ أَنْ الله وَمَا يُحَمَّدُ الله وَمَا يُحَمَّدُ الله وَمَا يُحَمَّدُ الله وَمَا يُحَمَّدُ الله وَمَا يُحَمَّدُ الله وَمَا يُحَمَّدُ الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمَلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُونُ الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يَحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُونُ الله وَمَا يُحْمُونُ الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُونُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمَا يُحْمُلُوا الله وَمُعْمُولُوا الله وَالله وَالله وَمُعْمُولُوا الله وَالله وَمُعْمُولُوا الله وَمُعْمُولُوا الله وَالله وَلِمُ وَالله Hadhrat Tuíayl then went to Rasulullaah and related the dream to him. "Did you relate this to anyone else afterwards?" Rasulullaah see asked. When he declared that he did, Rasulullaah praised Allaah and then addressed the Sahabah saying, "The dream that your brother has seen has already reached you. You should therefore not say those words but should rather say: '

⁽¹⁾ As referred to in verse 97 of Surah Bani Israa'eel and verse 34 of Surah Furqaan.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.256). Bukhaari, Muslim, Ahmad, Nasa'ee, Ibn Abi Haatim, Haakim and others have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Vinmaal (Vol.7 Pg.28).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.65). Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.564) has also reported the narration from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

الم كَانَا اللهُ وَحُدَا لا كُونَا لَهُ وَكُولِكَ لا كُونَا لَهُ وَكُولُكَ لا اللهُ وَحُدَا لا اللهُ وَحُدَا لا اللهُ وَحَدَا لا اللهُ اللهُ وَحَدَا لا اللهُ اللهُ وَحَدَا لا اللهُ اللهُ وَحَدَا لا اللهُ اللهُ وَحَدَا لا اللهُ اللهُ وَحَدَا لا اللهُ اللهُ وَحَدَا لا اللهُ وَمَا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمَا لا اللهُ وَمِنْ اللهُ وَمِنْ اللهُ وَمِنْ اللهُ وَمِنْ اللهُ وَمِنْ اللهُ وَمِنْ اللهُ وَمِنْ اللهُ وَمِيْمُ اللهُ اللهُ وَمِنْ اللهُ وَاللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللهُ Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ("What Allaah wills and what you will." Rasulullaah ("Febuked him saying, "Are you equating me with Allaah!" It is only what the One Allaah wills (that will happen)." (3)

A Jew Questions Rasulullaah about Volition

Imaam Awzaa'ee reports that a Jew once approached Rasulullaah see asking about volition. Rasulullaah see replied, "Everything occurs by the will of Allaah." "What if I decide to stand up?" the man asked. "Then it is by Allaah's will that you will stand," Rasulullaah see replied. The man asked further, "And if I decide to sit?" "Then it is by Allaah's will that you will sit," Rasulullaah see replied. Again the Jew asked, "And what if I decide to cut down this date palm?" Again Rasulullaah see replied, "Then it is by Allaah's will that you will cut it." "And if I then decide to leave it alone?" he asked. "Then," Rasulullaah see replied, "it is by Allaah's will that you will leave it."

Hadhrat Jibra'cel ("Then came and said to Rasulullaah ("You have been inspired to present the correct facts just as Ibraheem (was inspired." It is in the same meaning that Allaah says in the Qur'aan:

Every date palm that you (Muslims) cut (and burnt) or left standing on its roots⁽⁴⁾ was by Allaah's permission and to humiliate the sinners (it was done by Allaah's command and not merely to destroy property). {Surah Hashar, verse 5}⁽⁵⁾

Rasulullaah A and the Sahabah Oversleep by the Will of Allaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Shies) reports that when Rasulullaah (Shies) returning (with the Sahabah (Shies)) from Hudaybiyyah, he set up camp at a particular place in the last portion of the night. "Who will stand guard over us?"

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.110).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg. 110).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.110).

⁽⁴⁾ This verse refers to the date plantations of the Banu Nadheer tribe that the Muslims destroyed to break the morale of the Jews so that they surrender.

⁽⁵⁾ Bayhagi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.111).

Rasulullaah asked, "I will," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "I will." "You?" Rasulullaah said, "You? (You will fall asleep)" Rasulullaah sir repeated this twice or thrice but eventually appointed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said for the task. (He then stood guard as the others slept.) As dawn was beginning to rise, Rasulullaah sir swords held true and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said fell asleep. None of the Sahabah said woke up until the sun started beating down on their backs. Rasulullaah sir stood up and did as he usually did. He then led the Fajr salaah, after which he said, "Had Allaah willed, you would have not slept through Fajr. However, Allaah willed that this should be a lesson for those after you who (would now know what to do in such a situation if they) oversleep (through the time of salaah) or forget (to perform their salaah)." (1)

In his narration about the wudhu utensil, Hadhrat Abu Qataadah Freports that Rasulullaah Freports said, "Verily Allaah seizes your souls when He wills (as you sleep) and releases them when He wills." The Sahabah Freports then proceeded to relieve themselves and perform wudhu. By the time they had finished, the sun was already white. Rasulullaah Freports then stood up and led them in salaah. (2)

A Jew Questions Hadhrat Umar (about the verse "Jannah has the vastness of the heavens and the earth"

Hadhrat Taariq bin Shihaab narrates that a Jew once asked Hadhrat Umar Sisse. "Tell me where is Jahannam when Allaah says:

Jannah has the vastness of the heavens and the earth. (Surah Aai Imraan, verse 133)

Addressing the Sahabah ("Give him an answer." When no one could give a reply, Hadhrat Umar ("Give him an answer." When no one could give a reply, Hadhrat Umar ("Fell me where the day goes when the night appears and fills the earth?" "It is where Allaah wills," the man replied. "Then," said Hadhrat Umar ("Jahannam is also where Allaah wills." The Jew then remarked, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that what you have mentioned is exactly what appears in Allaah revealed Book (the Torah)." (3)

Hadhrat Ali Debates with a man about Volition

Hadhrat Muhammad narrates that Hadhrat Ali was once introduced to a man debating the issue of volition. "O servant of Allaah!" Hadhrat Ali was said, "Has Allaah created you as He willed or as you will?" "As He willed," the man replied. "Does He make you ill when He wills or when you will?" "When He wills," the man admitted. Hadhrat Ali (questioned him further, "Does He then cure you when He wills or when you will?" Again the man replied, "When He wills," "Does Allaah take you where He wills or where you will?" "Where He wills," came the reply. "By Allaah!" Hadhrat Ali (alia) said, "Had you replied differently, I would have used my sword to severe the part of your body that hosts your eyes." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.109).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg. 109). Bukhaari has reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Abd bin Humayd, Ibn Jareer, Ibn Mundhir and Ibn Khusru, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.277).

Rasulullaah E tells the Sahabah What Hypocrisy is not Hadhrat Anas (I) narrates that the Sahabah (I) once said, "O Rasulullaah (II) We experience a wonderful frame of mind when we are with you, but no sooner we leave your company, our frame of mind changes (we therefore fear being hypocrites)." "How is your relationship with your Rabb?" Rasulullaah (III) asked. "Allaah is our Rabb in private and in public," they replied. "Then," replied Rasulullaah (III). "Ithat is not hypocrisy." (2)

The Incident of Rasulullaah with a Bedouin asking about Reckoning

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Passi reports that a Bedouin once approached Rasulullaah (Passi with a question. "O Rasulullaah (Passi he asked, "Who will ask the creation to render their accounts on the Day of Qiyaamah?" "Allaah (Passi Rasulullaah (Passi replied." "By the Rabb of the Kabah!" the Bedouin cried out, "We are then saved." "What do you mean, O Bedouin?" Rasulullaah (Passi asked. The Bedouin explained. "When Someone Magnanimous is in authority, He always foreives." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Mu'aadh when Hadhrat Umar See Sent him to Collect zakaah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that Hadhrat Umar some sent Hadhrat Mu'aadh some to collect zakaah from the Banu Kilaab tribe. Hadhrat Mu'aadh some distributed everything amongst the (poor) people of the tribe until nothing was left over. All he returned with was the sack he had left with, carrying it around his neck. His wife asked, "Where is the gift that collectors usually bring back for their families?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh some replied, "I had an inspector with me (and therefore could not bring anything back)." She exclaimed, "You were trusted by Rasulullaah some and Abu Bakr some but Umar some sent an inspector with you?" She then made a furore about it amongst the women of her tribe as she complained about Hadhrat Umar some.

When the news reached Hadhrat Umar 基礎節, he sent for Hadhrat Mu'aadh 基礎節 and asked, "Did I send an inspector with you?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh 基礎節

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in the Talseer of ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg. 211).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, as quoted in the Taiscer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.397).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.270).

replied, "I had no other excuse but this to give my wife." Hadhrat Umar special laughed and gave Hadhrat Mu'aadh special something saying, "Give her this to make her happy." ibn Jareer has mentioned that Hadhrat Mu'aadh special was referring to Allaah when he mentioned the inspector. (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha concerning the Lady who Debated

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Chaise said, "All praise belongs to Allaah Who hears everything, The Mujaadalah (the lady who debated) came to speak with Rasulullaah (Chaise and although I was in the corner of the room, I heard nothing. Allaah then revealed the verse:

Allaah had certainly heard the speech of the lady (Hadhrat Khowla bint Tha'laba (Pash) who debated with you (O Rasulullaah (Pash) concerning her husband and who complained to Allaah. Allaah was listening to your discussion. Verily Allaah is All Hearing, All Seeing. (Surah Mujaadalah, verse 1) (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "Blessed is that Allaah Whose hearing captures everything, As I was listening to Khowla bint Tha'laba complain to Rasulullaah about her husband, there were words that I could not hear. 'O Rasulullaah she is he said, 'He has consumed my wealth, finished my youth and my womb has even borne him children. Eventually, when I have grown old and I can no longer bear children, he has practiced Zihaah' with me.' She then prayed, 'O Allaah! To You do I place my complaint.' She had not yet stood up when Hadhrat libra'eel

Allaah had certainly heard the speech of the lady who debated with you (O Rasulullaah (2005)) concerning her husband and who complained to Allaah. Allaah was listening to your discussion. Verily Allaah is All Hearing, All Seeing. (Surah Mujaadalah, verse 1)

Her husband was Aws bin Saamit (4)

The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Concerning Belief in Allaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Fig. 16) reports that when Rasulullaah (Fig. 16) passed away, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Fig. 16) addressed the people saying, "O people! If

- (1) Abdur Razzaag and Muhaamili in his Amaali, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.87).
- (2) Ahmad and Bukhaari, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 4 Pg.318).
- (3) A form of divorce during the time.
- (4) Ibn Abi Haalim, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.318). Bayhaqi has reported a similar narration in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.36).

Muhammad W was your deity whom you worshipped, then you should know that he has passed away. However, if your deity was the One in the heavens, then you should remember that He will never die." He then recited the verse:

Muhammad is is but a messenger (of Allaah). Indeed many messengers have passed before him. If he passes away or is martyred, would you (Muslims) then turn back on your heels (and forsake Islaam)? He who turns back on his heels can never harm Allaah in the least (because he will be harming only himself). Allaah shall soon reward the grateful ones. (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 144) (1)

The sermon that Hadhrat Abu Bakr & delivered has already been quoted in the chapter(2) discussing how the Sahabah (2006) rallied around Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Allaah had given a lifetime to Rasulullaah and kept him alive until he established the Deen of Allaah, made the commands of Allaah explicit, passed on the message of Allaah and exerted himself in the path of Allaah. In this condition, Allaah then took him away after he had left you on a path. Now whoever dies will die after being exposed to the clear proofs (of Imaan) and the great cure (to kufr, which is the Qur'aan). Therefore, whoever took Allaah as his Rabb should know that Allaah is Alive and shall never die. On the other hand, whoever worshipped Muhammad and took him as a god should know that their god is no more. Fear Allaah. O people! Hold fast to your Deen and rely on your Rabb because the Deen of Allaah has been established and the word of Allaah is complete. Allaah will assist whoever assists the Deen of Allaah and it is Allaah Who will strengthen His Deen. Indeed, the Book of Allaah that is amongst you is a light and a source of healing. It is through this Book that Allaah had guided Muhammad & and it contains the details of the things that Allaah has made Halaal and what He has made Haraam, By Allaah! We have no concern for any of Allaah's creation that wishes to attack us because the swords of Allaah are drawn and we shall never put them down. We shall continue fighting those who oppose us just as we did with Rasubillaah 學等"

The Statement of Hadhrat Aa'isha when a Woman Passed Away while in Sajdah

Hadhrat Algamah narrates from his mother that a woman once entered the room

Bukhaari in his Taareekh, Uthmaan Daarmi in his Radd alal Jahamiyyah and Islahaani in his Hujjah, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Ibn Katheer and quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.51).

⁽²⁾ In the chapter entitled "The Standpoint of the Sahabah (Sahabah Concerning the Khilaafah after the demise of Rasulullaah (Sahabah and under the subheading "The Sahabah (Sahabah Unanimously Accept Hadhrat Abu Bakt (Sahabah)."

of Hadhrat Aa'isha (to visit the tomb of Rasulullaah (Fig.)). She was perfectly healthy when she started performing salaah near the grave of Rasulullaah (Fig.) but she passed away without lifting her head from Sajdah. To this, Hadhrat Aa'isha (Fig.) said, "All praise to Allaah who gives life and death! There is certainly a lesson in this for me with regard to the death of (my brother). Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Bakr (Fig.) Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Bakr (Fig.) had been sleeping one afternoon in the place where he always slept and when some people went to wake him up, they found that he had passed away. This caused Hadhrat Aa'isha (Fig.) to doubt whether something foul had been done or whether the people had been too hasty (to declare him dead) and had buried him alive. Hadhrat Aa'isha (Fig.) therefore took a lesson from (the sudden death of) this woman and the doubts she had (surrounding the death of her brother) vanished from her heart. (1)

Imaan (Belief) in the Angels

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali Concerning the Turbulence of the Water and Wind when the Nation of Hadhrat Nooh and the Nation of Aad were Destroyed

Hadhrat Ali () once said, "Every drop of water passes through a measure in the hand of an angel (referred to as the Khazzaan whom Allaah has appointed to the task). However, on the day of Nooh () (when his nation was punished), Allaah commanded the water directly without commanding the Khazzaan. The water therefore went out of the Khazzaan's control and burst forth. It is for this reason that Allaah says:

﴿إِنَّا لَمَّا طَغَي الْمَآءُ ﴾ (سورة حافه:آيت ١١)

When the waters burst out of control,... (Surah Haaqa, verse i1) Similarly, Every gust of wind passes through a measure in the hand of an angel (whom Allaah has appointed to the task). However, on the day of Aad (when they were punished), Allaah commanded the wind directly without commanding the Khazzaan. The wind therefore went out of his control. Allaah refers to this when He says:

A freezing wind that was out of (the Khazzaan's) control... {Surah Haaqa, verse 6}(2)

Hadhrat Salmaan says at the Time of his Death, "I have a few Visitors who have entered"

Hadhrat Buqayrah who was the wife of Hadhrat Salmaan was says,

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.476).

^{(2) (}bn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.273).

"When Salmaan (was on his deathbed, he called for me to his upper story room that had four doors, He said, 'O Buqayrah! Open all the doors because I shall have a few visitors today and I know not from which of these doors they will enter. He then asked for some musk and said, 'Dilute it in small container.' When I did this, he said, 'Sprinkle it all around my bed and then go and wait downstairs. When you come to look soon, you shall see something on my bed.' (I did as he bid and) When I came to see, I saw him lying on his bed with his soul having already departed. He appeared as if he was sleeping." (1)

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that when Hadhrat Salmaan was on his deathbed, he called for his wife and said, "Bring me the bag I asked you to keep away." When she brought the bag of musk, he asked for a cup of water. He then put some musk into the water and dissolved it by hand. Thereafter, he said, "Sprinkle this around me because such creations of Allaah (angels) are coming to me who can smell fragrances but do not eat food. You may then lock the doors behind you and go downstairs." His wife did as he bade and sat for only a short while when she heard a faint sound. When she went upstairs, Hadhrat Salmaan had already passed away.

A brief narration from Hadhrat Ataa bin Saa'ib states that Hadhrat Salmaan Saa'ib said, "Because tonight some angels will be coming to me who can smell fragrances but do not eat food," (2)

Some more narrations will soon be quoted in the chapter discussing Allaah's unseen help in the form of assistance from the angels.

Imaan (Belief) in Predestination

Rasulullaah sessions was to Hadhrat Aa'isha

Hadhrat Aa'isha reports that when Rasulullaah was called to the funeral of a child from the Ansaar, she remarked, "O Rasulullaah left Glad tiding for him! a sparrow from amongst the sparrows of Jannah! Neither did he do any evil, nor did he reach the age to do any." Rasulullaah said, "It is not like that, O Aa'isha! Verliy Allaah has created Jannah and created some people whom He has destined shall be its inhabitants even while they are in the backs of their fathers. Similarly, Allaah has created Jahannam and created some people whom He has destined shall be its inhabitants even while they are in the backs of their fathers." (3)

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit (See enjoins his Son to believe in the Predestination of Good and Evil Hadhrat Waleed bin Ubaadah narrates, "I once went to see (my father) Ubaadah

^{(1) 1}bn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.92)

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.92).

⁽³⁾ Muslim, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 2 Pg. 268).

bin Saamit when he was so ill that I anticipated he would soon pass away. 'Dear father,' I said, 'Do take the pains of advising me.' 'Help me to sit,' he said. When we helped him to sit, he said, 'Dear son! You shall never taste Imaan and shall never reach the true reality of knowledge about Allaah until you believe in the predestination of all good and evil.' 'Dear father!' I asked, 'How am I to know what predestination is good and what is evil?' He replied, 'You should know that whatever (fortune or Ill-fortune) passes you by man ever intended to strike you and whatever strikes you was never intended to pass you by. Dear son! I have heard Rasulullaah say that the first thing that Allaah crated was the pen. He then instructed it to start writing and from that time onwards, it started writing everything that is to happen until the Day of Qiyaamah. Dear son! Should you die without subscribing to this belief, you shall be entering Jahannam." (1)

A Sahabi Weeps on his Deathbed because He knew Not What Allaah had Destined for him

Hadhrat Abu Nadhrah narrates that a companion of Rasulullaah known as Abu Abdullaah was weeping when his companions came to visit him. "Why are you weeping?" they asked, "Did Rasulullaah was not say to you, 'Trim your moustache and then remain like this until you meet me' (you will therefore be in the company of Rasulullaah was in the Aakhirah)." "Rasulullaah was did say this," he confirmed, "however, I have also heard Rasulullaah was say, 'Allaah grabbed a handful (of souls) with his right hand and said, 'These are for that (Jannah) and I care not any more.' Allaah grabbed another handful (of souls) with his other hand and said, 'These are for that (Jahannam) and I care not any more.' (I am weeping because) I know not in which handful I was." (2)

Hadhrat Muaa'dh Weeps on his Deathbed because He knew Not What Allaah had Destined for him

When death came to Hadhrat Muaa'dh bin Jabal (William), he started weeping. "What makes you weep?" someone asked. Hadhrat Muaa'dh (William) replied, "By Allaah! It is neither fear for death nor an unsettled debt that makes me weep. However, I heard Rasulullaah (William) say. There were only two handfuls (of souls that Allaah took). While one handful will go to Jahannam, the other will go to Jahannam, the other will go to Jahannam, I am weeping because) I know not in which handful I shall be." (3)

What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said about People who Contested Belief in Predestination

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ubayd Makki reports that someone once said to

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Tirmidhi, as quoted in the Talscor of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.278).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.186).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.187) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas , "A man who denies predestination has come to us." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas whad gone blind by then, so he told the people to lead him to the person. "What will you do with the man?" the people asked. He replied, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if I get my hands on him, I will bite his nose until I sever it from his face and should his neck fall in my hands, I shall break it. This is because I heard Rasulullaah say, 'It is as if I can actually see the Mushrik women of the Banu Fihr shaking their buttocks as they circle the Khazraj. This (denying predestination) is the first Shirk to take place amongst this Ummah. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that this evil belief will lead them to deny that Allaah predestines good just as they will deny that He predestines evil." (1)

Hadhrat Ataa bin Abu Rabaah relates, "I came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas at a time when he was drawing water from the Zamzam well and the bottom of his clothing had already become wet. 'People have started objecting to predestination,' I said, 'Are they really doing that?' he asked. When I confirmed that they were indeed, he said, 'By Allaah! It was with reference to them alone that the verse was revealed:

﴿ ذُوْقُوا مَسَّ سَقَرَ ٢ إِنَّا كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَاهُ بِقَدِّرِ ١٨٥ ﴾ (سورة قسر: آيت ١٤٨، ٤٩)

(It will be said to them) "Taste the touch of the Blaze!" We have certainly created everything by (finely calculated) measure (so that everything meets the requirements for its task and so that everything happens when it is destined to happen). (Surah Qamar, verses 48.49)

Such people are the worst of this Ummah! You should neither visit their ill nor perform the Janaazah salaah for their dead. If I should ever see any of them, I shall pierce his eye with these very fingers of mine." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas works once said, "I wish that there was a person who denied predestination with me so that I could trample his head." "Why would you do that?" someone asked. He replied, "Because Allaah has created the Lowhul Mahfoodh from a pearl. Its two covers are made of rubies, its pen and wiring are of celestial light and its width spans the distance between the heavens and the earth. Every day Allaah glances at it three hundred and sixty times and with every glance He creates, gives life, gives death, gives honour, gives disgrace and does as He pleases." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sissis severs Relations with a Friend who Objected to Predestination

Hadhrat Naafi reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wish had a friend in Shaam with whom he corresponded regularly. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wrote to him one day saying, "The news has reached me that you have raised some objections to the belief in predestination. I warn you never to write to me again because I have heard Rasululiaah and say, There shall be people in my Ummah who will deny predestination."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 4 Pg.267).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg,267).

(1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali concerning predestination and Those who Object to it Hadhrat Nazzaal bin Sabrah narrates that someone once said to Hadhrat Ali Similer, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! There are people here who believe that Allaah does not know about something until it actually takes place." "Their mothers ought to have lost them!" Hadhrat Ali Similer exclaimed, "From where did they deduce this?" The person replied, "It is their interpretation of the verse:

(سورة محمد:آیت ۲۱)

We shall certainly test you (Muslims) until We come to know those of you who (sincerely) strive (to uplift Allaah's Deen) and those who are steadfast and until We examine your condition. (Surah Muhammad  verse.31)

Hadhrat Ali (Those without knowledge are destroyed." He then mounted the pulpit, duly praised Allaah and said, "O people! Acquire knowledge, practise it and teach it. Whoever finds it difficult to understand any part of the Qur'aan should ask me. The news has reached me that some people believe that Allaah does not know about something until it actually takes place. They says this because of the (misunderstanding they have about the) verse:

We shall certainly test you (Muslims) until We come to know those of you who (sincerely) strive (to uplift Allaah's Deen). (Surah Muhammad & verse 31)

The words "until we come to know" mean "until we see whether those upon whom striving (for Deen) and steadfastness have been enjoined actually strive and actually remain steadfast through the hardships that have been destined for them", (2)

In the chapter discussing Tawakkul⁽³⁾, the narration has passed in which Hadhrat Ali said, "Nothing happens on earth until it is decided in the heavens. There are two angels assigned to every person who protect and guard him. However, when a predestined matter arrives, they leave him to it. I therefore have a fortified shield from Allaah which will leave me only when death arrives. No person can taste the sweetness of Imaan until he is convinced that whatever (difficulty) afflicts him would never have passed him by and whatever (good)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Abu Dawood, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.268).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abdul Birr in his Ilm, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.265).

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "The Tawakkul of the Sahabah "Subbe" and the subheading "The Tawakkul of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali Subbe".

passes him by would never have come to him in the first place."

The Couplets Hadhrat Umar (would Recite on the pulpit Concerning predestination

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood sees reports that very often when delivering a sermon on the pulpit, Hadhrat Umar sees would recite the following couplets (which mean):

"Go easy on yourself because the destinies of all matters are in Allaah's hand Those that He has thwarted can never come to you just as those that He has commanded can never be thwarted (1).

Imaan (Belief) in the Signs of Qiyaamah

The Words of Rasulullaah W When Allaah Revealed the verse "When the trumpet is blown"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 墨崎崎 narrates that when the verse:

When the trumpet is blown (to signal the arrival of Qiyaamah)... {Surah Muddathir, verse 8} was revealed, Rasulullaah said, "How can I live in luxury when the blower of the horn already has the horn in his mouth and is waiting with his forehead bowed for the command to blow." The Sahabah saids then asked, "What du'aa should we make?" Rasulullaah saids then told them to recite:

"Allaah is Sufficient for us and He is the Best of Guardians. In Allaah do we trust." $^{(2)}$

Another narration states that when the Sahabah was heard this from Rasulullaah see, they were troubled and asked, "O Rasulullaah see! What should we do," Rasulullaah see then told them to recite:

"Allaah is Sufficient for us and He is the Best of Guardians." (3)

The Fear of Hadhrat Sauda Yamaaniyyah for the Appearance of Dajjaal

The narration has already passed in the chapter discussing the relationships of women⁽⁴⁾ in which Hadhrat Hafsah said to Hadhrat Sauda Yamaaniyyah women, "The one-eyed (Dajjaal) has appeared!" "Really!?" Hadhrat Sauda

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.243).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Tabraani and Ibn Mardway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 270).

⁽³⁾ Baawardi, as quoted in Kanzul Umniaal (Vol.7 Pg.270).

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "Relationships between Men, Women and Children" and the subheading "The Relationship Between Hadhrat Aa'isha @356 and Hadhrat Hafsah @356 with Hadhrat Sauda Yamaaniyyah @356 ".

cried out. She was extremely shocked and started to shiver. "Where shall I hide?" she asked. "You will have to go to the tent," Hadhrat Hafsah told her. The tent was made of palm leaves and was a hiding place for the people. It was however filled with dirt and spider webs. Hadhrat Sauda went to hide there as Rasulullaah arrived. Seeing the two women laughing so much that they were unable to talk, Rasulullaah saked, "What is all the laughter about?" Rasulullaah had to repeat the question thrice before they pointed towards the tent. Rasulullaah went to the tent where he found Hadhrat Sauda solvering (with fear). "What is the matter, O Sauda?" Rasulullaah saked. "O Rasulullaah see clarified, "but he is still to appeared." "He has not appeared," Rasulullaah see clarified, "but he is still to appear. He has not appeared but is still to appear." Rasulullaah see then helped her out and dusted the dirt and spider webs off her.

The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 學師 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 學師 Concerning Dajjaal

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) once asked, "Is there a place in Iraq called Khurasaan?" When he was informed that there was, he said, "Verily Dajjaal will emerge from there." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq Sisses stated that Dajjaal would be from the Jews of a place called Marw, (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Mulaykah marrates, "When I went to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas mee early one morning, he said, 'I have not had a wink of sleep all night.' Why is that?' I asked. He replied, 'The tailed star has appeared and I now fear that the smoke shall appear (which is a sign of Qiyaamah). It is for this reason that I have not slept all night. "(3) Another similar narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas mee said, "I now fear that Dajjaal shall appear." (4)

Imaan (Belief) in What is to Happen in the Grave and the Existence of Barzakh

The Words of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq on his Deathbed

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Nasi reports that when death came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Shaw, he said to (his daughter) Hadhrat Aa'isha Shaw. "Wash these two garments of mine and bury me in them because (in the grave) your father shall be one of two types of men; either one who will be dressed in the best of clothing

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah.

⁽²⁾ Nu'aym bin Hammaad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.263).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 4 Pg. 139).

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim (Vol.4 Pg. 459), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

or one whose garments will be most brutally torn off." (1) Hadhrat Aa'isha (Gases reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Gases was about to pass away, she recited a couplet (which means):

"By your life! An abundance of wealth are useless to a youth when his breath heaves one day and his chest tightens (as he dies)"

"Do not say that, dear daughter," Hadhrat Abu Bakr & said, "Rather say:

The pangs (agony) of death will bring the truth (of Imaan to every person). (It will then be said to the dying person,) 'This (death) is what you used to avoid (However, now you have no option).' {Surah Qaaf, verse 19}

He then continued, "Take these two garments of mine, wash them and bury me in them. The living need new clothing more than the dead because the clothing of the dead are intended to be destroyed." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Chiese) narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Chiese) became extremely ill, she started weeping and when he fell unconscious, she recited a couplet (which means):

"When tears are forever veiled

They must burst forth (at some time)"

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Single) then regained consciousness and said, "Do not say that, dear daughter. Rather say:

The pangs (agony) of death will bring the truth (of Imaan to every person). (It will then be said to the dying person,) 'This (death) is what you used to avoid (However, now you have no option).' (Surah Qaal, verse 19)

He then asked, "On what day did Rasulullaah per pass away?" "On a Monday," Hadhrat Aa'lsha per replied. "And what is today?" he asked further. When she informed him that it was a Monday, he said, "I hope in Allaah (that he will take my soul) between now and tonight." He then passed away on Monday night (the night between Monday and Tuesday).

Thereafter, Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sasked, "In how many sheets was Rasulullaah shrouded." Hadhrat Aa'isha sheets replied, "We shrouded him in three new white sheets made in Sahool that neither included a Qamees nor a turban." He then said, "Wash this cloth of mine that has traces of Saffron and add two new sheets with it (to complete a shroud of three)." "But it is old," Hadhrat Aa'isha showever said, "The living need new clothing more than the dead because the clothing of the dead are intended to be destroyed." (3) Another narration states that he said, "...because it

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.363).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Ibn Sa'd and Daghooli.

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la, Abu Nu'aym, Daghooli and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.362).

(the clothing of the dead) will only be given over to body fluids and decay." (1)

The Words of Hadhrat Umar on his Deathbed

Hadhrat Yahya bin Abu Raashid Nasri narrates that when death approached Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (he said to his son, "Dear son! When death is approaching (when I am in the throes of death), turn me (on my right side), place your knees against my back, your right hand on my forehead and your left hand beneath my chin. Then when I pass away, close my eyes and shroud me in a shroud of average quality because if there is good in store for me with Allaah. He will exchange it for something much better. However, if things are otherwise, He will quickly remove it. You should also give me an average grave because if there is good in store for me with Allaah. He will extend it for me as far as the eyes can see. However, if things are otherwise, He will narrow it so much that my ribs will interlock. Do not take any women along with you (for my funeral) and do not expound any virtues that were never mine because Aliaah knows me best. When you are carrying me (to the grave) then walk swiftly because if there is good in store for me with Allaah, you are taking me to something much better. However, if things are otherwise, then you will need to quickly throw off your shoulders a most terrible thing that you are carrying." (2)

In the chapter discussing the fear that the Khulafaa had for Allaah, the narration⁽³⁾ has already passed in which Hadhrat Umar (3) said when he was about to die, "I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship that if I owned the world and all its contents, I would have offered it as ransom to be saved from the frightening scene that lies ahead of me."

The narration has also passed there⁽⁴⁾ in which Hadhrat Umar (his son Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (his to place his head on the ground. When Hadhrat Abdullaah (his moved his head from his lap to the ground, Hadhrat Umar (his said, "My mother and I are destroyed if my Rabb does not have mercy on me!"

The Weeping of Hadhrat Uthmaan whenever he Stood by a Grave

In the chapter discussing the weeping of the Sahabah (Sies), the narration of Hadhrat Haani has already passed stating that whenever Hadhrat Uthmaan stopped at a graveyard, he would weep so much that his beard would get wet. Someone once asked him, "You do not weep when you think of Jannah and Jahannam but weep when you think of the grave?" He replied, "I have heard

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.197).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.58), Ibn Abi Dunya has reported a similar narration in his Quboor, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.427).

⁽³⁾ Under the subheading "The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 些遊話 Concerning the Fear Hadhrat Umar 空路器 had for Allaah".

⁽⁴⁾ Under the subheading "The Natration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Spess and Hadhrat Miswar Concerning the Fear Hadhrat Umar Spess had for Allaah."

Rasulullaah ses say, 'The grave is the first stage from amongst the many stages of the Aakhirah. If one is successful there, the later stages are easier. However, if one is unsuccessful there, the later stages will be extremely difficult." Hadhrat Uthmaan siss also added, "I have also heard Rasulullaah ses say that he had never seen a sight more frightening than that of the grave."

The Words of Hadhrat Hudhayfah (1996) on his Deathbed

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Rabee narrates that when his tribe and the Ansaar heard that Hadhrat Hudhayfah was gravely ill, they went to him sometime during the middle of the night or at dawn. "What time is it?" he asked them. When they informed himthatitwassometimeduringthemiddle of the night or dawn, he remarked, "I seek Allaah's protection from the morning of Jahannam." He then asked, "Have you brought something to enshroud me with?" When they told him that they had, he said, "Do not use an expensive shroud because if there is good in store for me by Allaah, it will be exchanged for something much better. However, if things are otherwise, it will be quickly removed." (1)

Hadhrat Sila bin Zufar narrates, "Hudhayfah sent Abu Mas'ood sand me to purchase a burial shroud for him, we bought a striped and decorated sheet for him for three hundred Dirhams. 'Show me what you have bought for me,' Hudhayfah saked. When we showed it to him, he remarked, 'This shroud is not for me. All I need are two plain white sheets without a Qamees because it will be only a short while before it is exchanged for something either much better or worse.' We then proceeded to purchase two plain white sheets for him." (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Similer said to them, "What will you do with that? If your companion (myself) is a righteous person, Allaah will exchange it for something else (much better) and if your companion is otherwise, it will be thrown from one end of the grave to the other until the Day of Qiyaamah." (3) Yet another narration states that he said, "...and if your companion is otherwise, Allaah will smite his face with it on Day of Qiyaamah." (4)

The Words of Hadhrat Abu Moosa (at the Approach of Death

Hadhrat Dahhaak bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that when death drew close to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (See), he called his attendants and instructed them, "Go and dig me a wide and deep grave." They complied and returned saying, "We have dug your grave wide and deep." Hadhrat Abu Moosa (See) then said, "By Allaah! The grave is one of two places. It may either be broadened so much that

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.72). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Fg.282) from Hadhrat Abu Waa'll. In his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Fg.380), Haakim has also reported a similar narration in brief from Hadhrat Abu Mas'ood Ansard 智能能力

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hthya (Vol.1 Pg.282).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.282).

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.380).

each corner is forty arm's length wide. Then a door to Jannah will be opened for me so that I can look at my wives and my palaces and every other token of hospitality that Allaah has prepared for me. I will then know my way to that home better than I know my home (in this world) today. Thereafter the breeze and comforts of Jannah shall reach me until the Day of Qiyaamah. However, if things are otherwise - may Allaah protect us from II - my grave shall narrow around me until it is narrower than the end of a spear where it meets the head. Then a door to Jahannam will be opened for me from which I can look at my chains, yokes and fellow inmates. I will then know my way to that home better than I know my home (in this world) today. Thereafter the smoke and fire of Jahannam shall reach me until the day I am resurrected."

Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr Longs to be in One of three Conditions

Hadhrat Aa'isha was narrates that Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr was amongst the best of people. He would always say, "I have no doubts about being amongst the inhabitants of Jannah if I could remain in one of three conditions. (Firstly) The condition when I am reciting Qur'aan or listening to it being recited, (secondly) the condition when I am listening to Rasulullaah ws sermon and (thirdly) the condition when I am present at a funeral. At every funeral I have been, I have thought about nothing other than what will become of the deceased or where it is heading." (1)

Imaan (Belief) in the Aakhirah

Rasulullaah ses Description of Jannah

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Sussi narrates that the Sahabah sussi once said, "O Rasulullaah sussi Whenever we see you, out hearts are softened and we think only of the Aakhirah. However, when we separate from you, the world appeals to us and we start smelling (enjoying) our wives and children." Rasulullaah suscensoled them saying, "Should you remain at all times in the state you are when with me, the angels will actually shake your hands with theirs and visit you in your homes (this is however impossible). If you do not sin, Allaah will replace you with a nation that does sin merely so that He may forgive them (when they repent because He loves to forgive)."

The Sahabah then asked further, "O Rasulullaah !! Tell us about Jannah and its buildings." Rasulullaah described, "One brick (of the buildings) will be gold and the next silver with cement made of fragrant musk. The pebbles will be pearls and rubies while the grass will be saffron. Whoever enters Jannah shall only enjoy luxuries and never experience any difficulty. He will live forever without ever dying. Neither will his clothing fade nor will his youth ever wane. There are three persons whose du'aas are never rejected; the just ruler, the fasting person until he terminates his fast and oppressed person.

(1) Abu Nu'aym, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg. 138).

Their du'aa is lifted above the clouds where the doors of the heavens are opened for it and Aliaah says, 'I swear by My honour that I shall definitely assist you even though it may be after some time." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Faatima when she Went to her Father for something of benefit in this World and Returned with Something of Benefit in the Aakhirah Hadhrat Suwayd bin Ghafalah was narrates that when Hadhrat Ali was suffering extreme hunger one day, he suggested to (his wife) Hadhrat Faatima to approach (her father) Rasulullaah (for some food. When she went Hearing Hadhrat Faatima Kinocked on the door, Rasulullaah King said, "That is the knock of Faatima. She has come at a time that we are not accustomed to having her come to us." "O Rasulullaah "Hadhrat Faatima said, "The food of the angels is to recite 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah', 'Subhaanallaah' and 'Al Hamdu Lillaah'. What is our food?" Rasulullaah (### replied, "I swear by the Being Who has sent me with the truth! For the last thirty days, no fire (to cook) has been lit in the house of the family of Muhammad . However, a few goats have come to us. If you please, I shall have five given to you. Alternatively, if you so please, I shall teach you five words (of supplication) that Jibra'eel has taught me," Hadhrat Faatima www. immediately said, "Do rather teach me the five words that Jibra'eel with has taught you," Rasulullaah we then told her to say the following words:

Hadhrat Faatima with then left and when she came back to Hadhrat Ali with he asked, "What happened?" She replied, "While I left you to get something of benefit in this world, I returned with something of benefit in the Aakhirah." "This is the best of all your days." Hadhrat Ali with remarked. (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Concerning the Reason for People being Oblivious of the Aakhirah

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik when he heard people talking and having eloquent discussions. "O Anas," he said, "what benefit is there for me in that. Come, let us engage in the Dhikr of our Rabb because it seems like those people can even skin a person with their tongues." He then asked, "O Anas! What has made the people delay in matters of the Aakhirah and what has made them oblivious of it?" "Their desires and Shaytaan," Hadhrat Anas ("No, by Allaah!" Hadhrat Abu Moosa ("It is because the world is before them and the Aakhirah is still to come. Had they witnessed the Aakhirah, they would never turn away from it and never incline towards the world." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.49).

⁽²⁾ Abu Sheikh, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.302).

Imaan (Belief) in What is to Happen on the Day of Qiyaamah

Rasulullaah se's Desire for his Ummah to Comprise of Half the people of Jannah

Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn 医蹄蹄 narrates that Rasulullaah 愛護 was on a journey when the verse was revealed:

﴿ لِنَائِهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوْا رَبَّكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ زَلْزِكَةَ السَّاعَةِ شَىٰ ۚ عَظِيْمٌ ۞ يَوْمَ تَرَوْنَهَا تَذْهَلُ كُلُّ مُوْضِعَةٍ عَمَّاۤ ٱرْضَعَتُ وَتَضَعُ كُلُّ ذَاتِ حَمْلٍ حَمْلَهَا وَتَرَى النَّاسَ سُكارِى وَمَا هُمُ بِسُكْرِى وَلَكِنَّ عَذَابَ اللَّهِ شَدِيْدٌ ۞ ﴿ (سورة حج: آيت: ٢٠)

O people! Fear (the punishment of) your Rabb (by obeying His commands). The earthquake of (the Day of) Qiyaamah is a tremendous thing indeed. When you will witness the day (of Qiyaamah), (you will see that people will be so frightened and worried that) every nursing mother will forget her suckling infant and every pregnant woman will abort (her unborn child). You will also see people in a drunken stupor although they will not be drunk, but (they will be in this condition because they will realise that) Allaah's punishment is severe (Worried that they should not have to face His punishment, people will be oblivious of everything else). (Surah Haji, verses 1,2)

Rasulullaah then asked the Sahabah "To you know what day is that?" "Allaah and His Rasool know best," the Sahabah submitted. Rasulullaah then explained, "That will be the day when Allaah shall say to Aadam "To bispatch the people of Jahannam." 'O my Rabb! 'Aadam will will say, 'Who are those to be dispatched to Jahannam?' Allaah will reply, '(From every thousand) Nine hundred and ninety nine shall go to Jahannam and one will go to Jahannam."

This made the Sahabah (See weep, Rasulullaah (See then said to them, "Adopt moderation and continue treading the straight path, Remember that before the coming of every Nabi is a period of ignorance. The quota (for Jahannam) will first be completed from these people, Otherwise (if they are not sufficient), it will be completed from the Munaafiqeen. Your example and that of other nations like a little lump on the foreleg of an animal or like a mole on the side of a camel. I however have great hope that you people (members of my

(1) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.259).

Ummah) will comprise a quarter of the people of Jannah." "Allaahu Akbar!" the Sahabah exclaimed. Rasulullaah fit then added, "in fact, I have great hope that you people will comprise a third of the people of Jannah." Again the Sahabah exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar!" Thereafter, Rasulullaah fit said, "I also have great hope that you people will comprise half the people of Jannah." This time again the Sahabah fit cried out, "Allaahu Akbar!" The narrator says that he is not sure whether or not Rasulullaah fit later said that he had hopes of them being as much as two-thirds of the people of Jannah. (1)

A narration from Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (also discussing the explanation of the above verse states that Nabi (said. "On the Day of Qiyaamah, Allaah will call for Aadam (He will respond by saying, 'At your service, our Rabb! It is an honour to serve You.' A voice will then tell him, 'Allaah commands you remove from your progeny those to be dispatched to Jahannam.' 'O my Rabb!' Aadam (will say, 'Who are those to be dispatched to Jahannam?' Allaah will reply, '(From every thousand) Nine hundred and ninety nine shall go to Jahannam (and one will go to Jannah).' It is on this occasion that expectant mothers will abort their foetuses and youngsters will turn white.

﴿ وَتَرَى النَّاسَ سُكُولِي وَمَاهُمُ بِسُكُولِي وَلَكِنَّ عَذَابَ اللَّهِ شَدِيْدٌ ١٠ (سورة حج آيت ٢)

You will also see people in a drunken stupor although they will not be drunk, but (they will be in this condition because they will realise that) Allaah's punishment is severe." (Surah Hajj, yerse 2)

This had a great impact on the Sahabah was and their faces actually turned pale. Rasulullaah then said, "(From every thousand) Nine hundred and ninety nine will be from the Ya'jooj Ma'jooj and only one shall be from amongst you. Compared to the rest of people, you resemble only a single black hair on the side of a white bull or only a single white hair on the side of a black bull. I have great hope that you people (members of my Ummah) will comprise a quarter of the people of Jannah." The Sahabah see exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar!". Rasulullaah then added, "In fact, (I have great hope that you people will comprise) a third of the people of Jannah." Again the Sahabah see exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar!" Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "(I also have great hope that you people will comprise) Half the people of Jannah." This time again the Sahabah

Another narration states that what Rasulullaah see said (about nine hundred and ninety nine going to Jahannam), the impact was heavy on the Sahabah sees and they became very grieved and worried. (3)

Hadhrat Zubayr Asks Rasulullaah Asks Rasulullaah Asks Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr Feports that when the verse:

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidh!, Ahmad and Ibn Abi Haatim.

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.204).

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.568).

Then, on the Day of Qiyaamah, you will all bring cases (against each other) in the presence of your Rabb. (Surah Zumar, verse 31) was revealed, Hadhrat Zubayr saked, "O Rasulullaah sa revealed brought against us?" When Rasulullaah sa replied in the affirmative, Hadhrat Zubayr sa remarked, "In that case, the matter will be a serious one indeed." (1)

Another narration adds that when the verse:

Thereafter, on that day (of Qiyaamah) you will definitely be questioned about the bounties. {Surah Takaathur, yerse 8} was revealed, Hadhrat Zubayr (1986) also asked, "O Rasulullaah (1986) What types of bounties will we questioned about when all that we have are the two black things, dates and water?" (2)

Yet another narration states that when the verse:

(سوزة زمر: آيت،٣٠ ٣١)

Verily you (O Rasulullaah () will soon pass away and they will also pass away. Then, on the Day of Qiyaamah, you will all bring cases (against each other) in the presence of your Rabb. (Surah Zumar, verse 30-31) was revealed, Hadhrat Zubayr ("O Rasulullaah ("E! Together with having to account for specific sins, will cases be repeatedly brought against us regarding the dealings we have between each other?" "Certainly," Rasulullaah ("E" replied, "cases will be brought repeatedly until everyone to whom a right is due receives his right." "By Allaah!" Hadhrat Zubayr ("S) remarked, "In that case, the matter will be a serious one indeed." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Weeps at the Thought of a Verse Concerning Jahannam

Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha was once lying down in his wife's lap when he started to weep. His wife then also started to weep. "What makes you weep?" he asked. "Seeing you weep has made me weep as well," she replied. He then said, "I thought of the verse:

Every one of you shall pass by it (everyone shall pass over Jahannam as they cross the bridge of Siraat that spans Jahannam). This is a decreed

⁽I) Ibn Abi Haatim.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Tirmidhi and Ibn Maajah.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Tirmidhi, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.52). Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.572) has reported a similar narration from reliable sources.

command of your Rabb. (Surah Maryam, verse 71)

(I am weeping because) I know not whether I shall be rescued from it or not," A narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (I) was ill at the time. (1)

Hadhrat Ubaadah Asks his Family and Neighbours to Take Retribution from him When Death Approached

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Muhammad bin Ubaadah bin Saamit narrates that when death approached Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit Sies, he requested that his slaves, servants, neighbours and everyone associated with him should be gathered. When they had all gathered, he said, "I expect that this will be my last day in this world and my first night in the Aakhirah. I know not whether my hands or tongue may have caused you any harm which - I swear by the Being Who controls my life - will be a cause for retribution to be taken from me on the Day of Qiyaamah. It is with great emphasis that I stress to each one of you in whose heart is something about this that he must take retribution from me before my soul departs."

Because Hadhrat Ubaadah with had never spoken ill eyen to his servants, everyone said, "You were a father and a mentor to us (we therefore have no grievance against you)." Hadhrat Ubaadah with then asked, "Do you then forgive anything of the sort that may have happened?" When they said that they did, Hadhrat Ubaadah with said, "O Allaah! You be witness!" He then continued, "Since there is nothing of the sort, then remember this parting advice of mine. It is with great emphasis that I stress to each one of you not to weep for me. When my soul departs, each of you should perform wudhu properly, go to the Masjid, perform salaah and then seek Allaah's forgiveness for Ubaadah and his soul because Allaah says:

Seek assistance with patience and salaah. (Surah Baqarah, verse 46 and verse (53)

You should hasten with my corpse to the my grave without following me with any fire and without placing a purple cloth beneath me." (2)

Hadhrat Umar (Signals)'s Fear for Reckoning on the Day of Qiyaamah

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaag, as guoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg. 132).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg.79).

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "Abstention from using Public Funds for Personal use and for Close Relatives and the subheading "The Incident of Hadhrat Umar STAGE and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf STAGE."

sent a message back with the messenger that Hadhrat Umar will should take the loan from the public treasury and pay it back later. When the message reached him, Hadhrat Umar will sell it most difficult to do so. When Hadhrat Umar will sell it most difficult to do so. When Hadhrat Umar will sell it most difficult to do so. When Hadhrat Umar will sell will sell will sell will sell will sell will sell will sell will will sell
The Weeping of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah was and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya when they Heard a Hadith about the Aakhirah

In the chapter discussing being influenced by the knowledge of Allaah and of Rasulullaah (the narration will inshaa Allaah be narrated in which Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (some gave a heavy sigh and collapsed upon his face when he mentioned the Hadith concerning Allaah's taking accountability from a man with knowledge about the Qur'aan, a wealthy person and a man martyred in the path of Allaah.

It will also Inshaa Allaah be narrated that how Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Exess wept so much when he heard this Hadith that the people thought he would die.

Imaan (Belief) in Intercession

Rasulullaah says, "My Intercession shall be for those members of my Ummah who never commit Shirk"

Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik reports, "We were once with Rasulullaah when we set up camp towards the end of the night. Laying down our heads by the foot of our carriages, we all went to sleep. I awoke sometime during the night and was alarmed when I did not see Rasulullaah by by his carriage. When I then started to search for Rasulullaah for I found Abu Moosa Ash'ari and Mu'aadh bin Jabal was also alarmed by the same thing that alarmed me. As we stood in that condition, we heard a sound from the top of the valley that resembled the sound of a grindstone grinding. (When we headed in that direction, we found Rasulullaah and) We then informed him what our concern was. Rasulullaah see explained, 'An angel came to me from my Rabb giving me a choice between intercession and having half my Ummah admitted into Jannah. I chose intercession (because in this way there was hope of even more being admitted into Jannah).'

'O Nabi of Allaah (35): I pleaded, 'I ask you in the name of Allaah and in consideration of our relationship with you to include us amongst those you will be interceding for.' 'You people shall certainly be amongst those I will be interceding for,' Rasulullaah confirmed. We then accompanied Rasulullaah back to the camp where we found all the others also alarmed by Rasulullaah sees absence. Rasulullaah sees then explained to them saying, 'An angel came to me from my Rabb sees giving me a choice between intercession and having half my Ummah admitted into Jannah. I chose intercession.' 'O Nabi of Allaah sees!' they pleaded, 'We ask you in the name of Allaah and in consideration of our relationship with you to include us amongst those you will be interceding for.' When they had all gathered around Rasulullaah sees, he said, 'I make everyone present here witness to the fact that my intercession shall be for those members of my Ummah who never commit Shirk."

The Du'aa Rasulullaah will Make for his Ummah Before Allaah shall be his Intercession on their Behalf

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Aqeel Reports, "I went to Rasulullaah with a delegation from the Thaqeef tribe. When we made our animals sit at the door, there was not a person we hated more than the man we had come to see. However, by the time we left, there was no one more beloved to us than the man we had been to see. One of us said, 'O Rasulullaah Re Why don't you ask Allaah for a kingdom like the kingdom of Sulaymaan Re Rasulullaah Re laughed and said, 'Your companion here (myself) shall perhaps receive something better from Allaah than the kingdom of Sulaymaan Re Allaah has granted every Nabi that He sent a special prayer (that is sure to be accepted). There were those who used the prayer for this world while others used it to curse their nations when they disobeyed them. It was then because of it that these nations were destroyed. Allaah also granted me one such prayer that I have kept in store with my Rabb and shall use it to intercede for my Ummah on the Day of Qiyaamah." (2)

Rasulullaah says, "I am an Excellent man for the Sinners of my Ummah"

Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ("I am an excellent man for the sinners of my Ummah." "O Rasulullaah ("I am an excellent man for the sinners of my Ummah." "O Rasulullaah ("I am an from the Muzaynah tribe asked, "If you are such for the sinful ones, then what about the righteous ones?" Rasulullaah ("Freplied," While the righteous ones of my Ummah shall enter Jannah because of their good deeds, the sinners shall await my intercession. Although my intercession shall be available to every member of my Ummah, it will not be for a person diminishing the rank of my Sahabah ("I").

⁽¹⁾ Baghawi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.271).

⁽²⁾ Baghawi, Ibn Mandah and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.272). Bukhaari and Haarith bin Abu Usaamah have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.411).

⁽³⁾ Shiraazi in his Alqaab and Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.272).

The verse of the Qur'aan that kindles the Most Hope According to Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (Sies) narrates that Rasulullaah (Sies) once said, "I shall continue interceding on behalf of my Ummah until my Rabb asks, 'Are you now satisfied, O Muhammad?' I shall then say, 'Yes. I am satisfied.' Turning to the people, Hadhrat Ali (Sies) said, 'O people of Iraq! Don't you people believe that the verse of the Qur'aan that kindles the most hope is the verse:

Say, "O My bondsmen who have wronged their souls (by committing kufr or other sins)! Never lose hope of Allaah's mercy (so do not abstain from seeking forgiveness thinking that you will not be forgiven). Verily, Allaah forgives all sins (that are free of kufr and Shirk). Undoubtedly, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." (Surah Zumar, verse 53)

When the people admitted that they believed so, Hadhrat Ali be said, "However, we who are members of Rasulullaah be said, said the verse of the Qur'aan that kindles the most hope is the verse:

Your Rabb shall soon grant you and you shall be pleased. {Surah Duha, verse 5}

What Allaah will grant Rasulullaah see shall be the privilege of intercession." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Buraydah (in front of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Concerning Intercession Hadhrat Ihn Buraydah narrates that (his father) Hadhrat Buraydah (in praise of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (in praise of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (in praise of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (in praise of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (in praise of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (in praise of Hadhrat Buraydah (in praise asked Thinking that he will also speak as the previous person was doing, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (in praise of prai

The Reply Hadhrat Jaabir (1986) gave a person who Denied Intercession

Hadhrat Talq bin Habeeb says, "I was a person who most vehemently denied intercession until I met Hadhrat Jaabir 5000. After I recited to him all the verses of the Our'aan I could recite that spoke of the people of Jahannam remaining there forever, he said, 'O Talq! Do you think that you have more knowledge of the Qur'aan and the Sunnah than 1? The verses you have recited refer to those who belong in Jahannam. They are the Mushrikeen. However, those (for whom intercession will take place) are people (Mu'mineen) who have sinned, who will be punished for their sins and then be removed from Jahannam.' He then held both his ears and said. 'May these become deaf if I have not heard Rasulullaah say that they will leave Jahannam after having entered it (because of Rasulullaah (1) s intercession). We also recite the Qur'aan as you recite." (1) Hadhrat Yazeed Fageer reports, "I was once sitting with Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah was busy narrating Ahadeeth. When he narrated that some people would leave Jahannam, I became very angry because during those days I was one who rejected such a belief. I therefore said, 'I am not as astonished with common people (making such statements) as I am astonished with you companions of Rasulullaah (25)! You believe that people will leave the fire of Jahannam when Aliah says:

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mardway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Fg.273).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.56).

(سورة مائده: آيت٢٧)

They will try to escape from the Fire (of Jahannam) but they will not be able to escape. They will have a permanent punishment. (Surah Maa'ldah, verse 37)

His companions started rebuking me, but he was the most tolerant of them all. 'Leave the man alone!' he said. He then explained, "That verse refers to the Kuffaar.' He then recited the verse:

Without doubt (even) if the Kuffaar possessed all (the wealth) within the earth and as much more in addition to ransom themselves from the punishment of the Day of Qiyaamah, it will not be accepted from them. They shall have (to suffer) a painful punishment. They will try to escape from the Fire (of Jahannam) but they will not be able to escape. They will have a permanent punishment. (Surah Maa'idah, verses 36,37)

He then asked, 'Do you recite the Qur'aan?' 'I certainly do,' I replied, 'in fact, I have memorised it.' He then said, 'Does Allaah not say:

In a portion of the night perform the Tahajjud salaah that is an extra (salaah) for you. Soon your Rabh will accord to you (O Muhammad (###)) the "Maqaam Mahmood" ("The Praised Position"). (Surah Bani Israaee), verse 79)

That (Maqaam Mahmood) is the position (of intercession). Allaah will detain some people (Mu'mineen) in Jahannam for a while because of their sins without speaking to them. Then when Allaah wills, He will remove them from Jahannam."

Hadhrat Yazeed says, "After this, I never repeated my mistake of denying this belief." (1)

Imaan (Belief) in Jannah and Jahannam

The Sahabah Picture the Scene of Jannah in a Gathering with Rasulullaah as if they can Actually see it before their Eyes

Hadhrat Handhala Kaatib Usaydi who was one of Rasulullaah scribes narrates, "We were once with Rasulullaah when we spoke of Jannah and Jahannam (with) so much (conviction) that it seemed to appear before our very eyes. I then went to my wife and children with whom I started laughing and playing. However, when I thought of the state of mind I had been in (with Rasulullaah who, I left the house. I then met Abu Bakr who, to whom I said, 'O Abu Bakr! I have become a Munaafiq.' 'Why do you say that?' he asked. I explained, 'When we are with Nabi was and he speaks to us about Jannah and Jahannam, it seems as if it is before our very eyes. However, when we leave his presence and become engrossed with our wives, children and occupations, we forget.' Abu Bakr who mentioned this to him. Rasulullaah was said, 'O Handhala! If you can be with your families as you are when you are with me, the angels will actually shake hands with you or your beds and on the street. O Handhala! There are times for this and times for that." (2)

Rasulullaah Fells the Sahabah Bout the Last Day

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (West) marrates that one night they spent a long time speaking to Rasulullaah (West). When they went to him early the following morning, Rasulullaah (West) said, "I was shown the Ambiyaa and their Ummahs (nations). As the Ambiyaa passed by me, I would see a Nabi with a group of followers, another with three persons and another with no followers at all." At this juncture Hadhrat Qataadah recited the verse:

﴿ ٱلَّيْسَ مِنْكُمْ رَجُلٌ رَّضِيلًا ١٠٥ ﴿ (سورة هود: آيت١٧١)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.54).

⁽²⁾ Hasan bin Sufyaan and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg. 100).

Is there not a righteous man among you? {Surah Hood, verse 78} Rasulullaah continued, "Eventually Moosa bin Imraan passed by me with a large group of the Bani Israa'eel. I asked, 'O Rabbi Who is this?' 'This,' I was told, 'is your brother Moosa and those of the Bani Israa'eel who followed him.' I then asked, 'Dear Rabb! And where is my 'Ummah?' 'Look to your right amongst the hills,' Allaah said. When I looked, I saw the faces of scores of people.' 'Are you satisfied?' Allaah asked. 'I am satisfied, my Rabb,' I replied. Allaah then said, 'Now look to the horizon on your left.' When I looked, I again saw the faces of scores of people.' 'Are you satisfied?' Allaah asked again and again I replied by saying, 'I am satisfied, my Rabb.' Allaah then said further, 'Verily with these there are also seventy thousand who will enter Jannah without reckoning."'

At that moment, Hadhrat Ukaasha bin Mihsin who was a veteran of the Battle of Badr said, "O Nabi of Allaah will Pray to Allaah to include me amongst them." "O Allaah!" Rasulullaah will prayed, "Include him amongst them." Another man then stood up with the request, "O Nabi of Allaah will Pray to Allaah to include me amongst them as well." Rasulullaah will however, said, "Ukaasha has beat you to it."

Rasulullaah then said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! If you are able to include yourselves amongst the seventy thousand, you should certainly do so. Otherwise, you must include yourselves amid the men amongst the hills or amongst the men on the horizon because I have seen a great many whose conditions were unlike these. I however have great hope that you people (members of my Ummah) will comprise a third of the people of Jannah," "Allaahu Akbar!" the Sahabah see exclaimed. Rasulullaah then added, "In fact, I have great hope that you people will comprise half of the people of Jannah." Again the Sahabah

﴿ ثُلَّةً مِّنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۞ وَثُلَّةً مِّنَ الْأَحِرِينَ ۞ ﴿ (سورة واقعه: آب،٢٩)

A large group from among the early ones and a large group from among the later ones. (Surah Waaqi'ah, verses 39,40)

When the Sahabah later started discussing amongst themselves about who the seventy thousand would be, some opined, "They must be those who were born to Muslims and then never committed Shirk." When this reached Rasulullaah la, he clarified the matter saying, "They will be those who never brand themselves (with something hot as a form of treatment), who never use amulets, never divine with birds and who have trust only in their Rabb." (1)

A Bedouin asks Rasulullaah about a Tree in Jannah

Hadhrat Sulaym bin Aamir reports that the Sahabah was always used to say, ⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, Ibn Jareer and several other reliable sources, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.293). In his Mustadrak (Vol.4 Pg.578), Haakim has reported a similar narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

"Verily Allaah gave us tremendous benefit from the Bedouins and their questions." A Bedouin came one day and said, "O Rasulullaah : Allaah has mentioned a tree in Jannah that is harmful to its owner." "What tree is that?" Rasulullaah : asked. "It is the lotus tree that has thorns which can hurt a person." Rasulullaah : replied, "Does Allah not say:

They will be (enjoying themselves) in (gardens of) thornless lotus trees... (Surah Waaqi'ah, verse 28)

Allaah will remove the thorns from the trees and replace each of them with a fruit. The tree will actually grow fruit and each fruit will have seventy two different flavours, with no two flavours being alike." (1)

Hadhrat Utba bin Abdus Sulami Preports that he was sitting with Rasulullaah when a Bedouin arrived and said, "O Rasulullaah III hear you speak about a tree in Jannah that has more thorns than any other tree I know, the acacia tree." Rasulullaah replied, "Allaah will remove the thorns from the trees and replace each of them with a fruit resembling the testes of a large goat. Each fruit will have seventy two different flavours with no two flavours being alike." (2)

A Bedouin asks Rasulullaah about the Fruit of Jannah

Hadhrat Utba bin Abdus Sulami preports that a Bedouin once came to Rasulullaah for to enquire about the pond (Kowthar) and to speak about Jannah. He asked, "Are there fruit there?" "Of course," Rasulullaah for replied, "And there is also a tree there called Tooba." The narrator says that Rasulullaah then mentioned a few other things that he cannot recall. However, the Bedouin then asked, "Which tree in our region resembles the trees of Jannah?" Rasulullaah for replied, "There is nothing there resembling the trees in your region, but have you been to Shaam?" When the Bedouin said that he had not, Rasulullaah for said, "There is a tree in Shaam that bears a resemblance. The tree is the walnut tree, which grows on a single trunk with the upper branches spreading out." The Bedouin asked further, "What is the size of its clusters?" Rasulullaah for replied, "The distance a spotted crow flies in a month." "And what is the size of its roots?" he asked. Rasulullaah said, "Should one of your young camels start travelling, it will be unable to cover the distance of its roots even after its ribs break because of old age."

The Bedouin asked further, "Are there grapes in Jannah?" "There are," Rasulullaah Felice. "Then," the Bedouin asked, "what is the size of a grape?" "Has your father ever slaughtered a large goat?" Rasulullaah Felice asked. When he replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah Felice asked further, "And then did he skin the goat and give your mother the skin saying, 'Make this into a bucket for us?" "Oh yes,"

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Najjaar.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abu Dawood, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 288).

the Bedouin replied. (Each grape will be the size of such a bucket). The Bedouin then asked, "Then will such a grape be able to fill my family and I?" "Certainly," Rasulullaah (## replied, "and (it will) also (fill) most of your tribe." (1)

An Abyssinian Man Dies in Rasulullaah (see's Gathering after Hearing the Description of Jannah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Abdullaah an Abyssinian man once came to Rasulullaah . "Ask what you wish," Rasulullaah said to him. The man said, "O Rasulullaah . You people have been favoured above us in terms of looks, complexion and (now) Nabuwaat. Tell me. If I believe in all that you believe in and do as you do, will I be with you in Jannah?" "Of course," Rasulullaah replied. Rasulullaah then added, "In fact, I swear by the Being Who controls my life that the brilliant complexion of a black person will be seen in Jannah from a distance of a thousand years. Whoever recites 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' has entered into a pledge with Allaah and whoever recites 'Subhaanallaah wa Bihamdihi' shall earn the reward of one hundred and twenty four thousand good deeds."

The man asked further, "How will we be destroyed after this, O Rasulullaah said, "A person will come on the Day of Qiyaamah with so many good deeds that they will be even to heavy for a mountain to bear. Thereafter, Allaah's bounties (to the person) will be brought (to be paid for by the good deeds) and if it were not for Allaah's mercy enshrouding the person, the bounties would surely exhaust all the deeds.

Thereafter Allaah revealed the verses:

Undoubtedly, a moment in time has passed by man when he was not even something worth mentioning (he was still a drop of semen)...If you look (around) there (in Jannah), you will see (tremendous) bounties and an enormous kingdom (vastly superior to anything in this world). (Surah Dahar, verses 1-20)

The Abyssinian then asked, "Will my eyes be able to see whatever your eyes will see in Jannah?" "Most assuredly," Rasulullaah fir replied. The man then started weeping until he passed away. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar first says, "I saw Rasulullaah first personally lowering the man's body into the grave." (2) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Wahab reports from Hadhrat Ibn Zaid first that an Abyssinian man was with Rasulullaah first when Allaah revealed the Surah:

Undoubtedly, a moment in time has passed by man when he was not even something worth mentioning (he was still a drop of semen)... (Surah Dahar verses 1)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Fg.290).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in the Taiseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.457).

Rasulullaah & recited the Surah to the Sahabah & and when he reached the verses describing Jannah, he gave a deep sigh and passed away. Rasulullaah remarked, "It was the longing for Jannah that snuffed out the soul of your brother "(1)

Hadhrat Ali ﷺ Gives Hadhrat Umar Glad Tidings of Jannah on his Deathbed

Hadhrat Abu Matar reports that he heard Hadhrat Ali Straigs say, "When Umar 遊遊遊 was stabbed by Abu Lu'lu, I went to him and found him weeping, 'What makes you weep, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?' I asked. He replied, 'It is the news from the heavens that makes me weep. I know not whether I shall be taken to Jannah or to Jahannam.' I then said to him, 'Rejoice with the glad tidings of Jannah because more times than I can count I have heard Rasulullaah & say, 'The two leaders of the middle-aged people of Jannah shall be Abu Bakr and Umar, What excellent men are they both?! Umar Sizes asked, 'Will you testify to my entering Jannah, O Ali?' I said, 'I certainly will. O Hasan! You also be witness for your father that Rasulullaah Es said, Verily Umar shall be amongst the inhabitants of Jannah."(2)

Hadhrat Umar Weeps at the Mention of Jannah

In the chapter discussing the abstinence of Hadhrat Umar (3), the narration has already passed which mentions that when served a good meal, Hadhrat Umar (While we eat this, what will the poor Muslims have who die without filling themselves with even barley bread?" Hadhrat Umar bin Waleed replied, "They shall have Jannah." Tears then started to flow from the eyes of Hadhrat Umar 医障碍 as he said, "If this (food) is our share while they have made off with Jannah, then they have certainly excelled us with a tremendous virtue."

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Signey Is Hopeful of Jannah on his Deathbed

Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Sa'd (the son of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waggaas (1986)) relates, "My father's head was in my lap as he was surrendering his soul (to death). When he saw my eyes filling with tears, he asked, 'What makes you weep, dear son?" I replied, 'Your position and the condition I see you in.' 'Don't cry for me," he said, 'because Allaah will never punish me and I shall be amongst the inhabitants of Jannah (as Rasulullaah (2005) clearly stated). As long as Mu'mineen do things to please Allaah, Allaah will reward them for their deeds. As for the

⁽¹⁾ Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.453).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.438).

⁽³⁾ Under the subheading, "His Abstinence in Eating".

Kuffaar, their good deeds (done for Allaah) will serve to lighten their punishment. When their good deeds are finished, it will be said, 'Everyone who did anything should claim the reward of their deeds from those they did it for."(1)

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Fears the Life after Death at the time of his Death

Hadhrat Ibn Shamaasa Mahri reports that they went to see Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas when he was on his deathbed. Turning his face towards the wall, he wept for a long while as his son recounted to him the glad tidings that Rasulullaah & had given him. He kept weeping all the while with his face towards the wall until he finally turned his face towards the people and said. "Verily the best deed that I have to my account is my recitation of the Shahaadah 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah Muhammadur Rasulullaah & . I have however passed through three stages. The first stage I found myself in was the time when there was none I hated more than Rasulullaah (25%. At that time there was nothing I would have liked more than to grab hold of him and kill him. Had I died during that period, I would have surely been from amongst the inmates of Jahannam. Allaah then placed Islaam in my heart and I approached Rasulullaah to pledge my allegiance to him saying, 'Do give me your right hand so that I may pledge allegiance to you, O Rasulullaah 22. However, when he gave me his hand. I withdrew mine. 'What is the matter. O Amr?' he asked. 'I wish to make a condition,' I replied. What is the condition?' he gueried. I said, 'The condition is that I should be forgiven.' Rasulullaah & explained, 'O Amr! Don't you know that Islaam wipes out everything (every sin) that took place before it, that Hijrah wipes out everything that took place before it and that Hajj wipes out everything that took place before it?"

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas continued, "At that time I saw myself in a state that none was more beloved to me nor more respected in my sight than Rasulullaah ..." If I was asked to describe Rasulullaah ..., I would be unable to do so because I was never able to look at him directly out of respect for him. Had I died during that stage of my life, I would have expected to be amongst the inhabitants of Jannah. Thereafter (came the third stage when) we became governors and I know not what is my condition after this. When I die, let not any wailing woman or fire accompany my bler. Throw the sand into a heap when you bury me and when you have completed the burial, I want you to stand by my graveside for as long as it takes to slaughter a camel and distribute its meat. In this way, I will have company for awhile until I can prepare the answers I will have to give to the messengers from my Rabb." (2) Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Shamaasa narrates that when death approached Hadhrat Amr bin Al Ass (See Section), he started to weep. His son Abdullaah (See See Seed, "What makes you weep? Is it for fear of death?" "Not at all," Hadhrat Amr

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.147).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.258). Muslim (Vol.1 Pg.76) has reported a similar narration.

"But you have lived in a most excellent period." He then started reminding his father about his association with Rasulullaah and about his conquests in Shaam. Hadhrat Amr saids said, "You have omitted to mention the best of all; the Shahaadah "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah"..." The narration continues briefly like the one above. The narration however ends with Hadhrat Amr saying, "When I die, no woman should wail over me, neither should any such person follow me who praises me or carries a fire. Tie my loincloth firmly because I shall be in a struggle (when the angels wrestle my soul from me, in which condition my body should not become exposed). Heap the sand upon my grave because my right side is by no means more deserving of sand than the left. You should also not place any wood or stones in my grave." (1)

Another narration adds that afterwards Hadhrat Amr (again) turned his face to the wall and said, "O Allaah! You issued commands but we disobeyed. You forbade us but we did not abstain. We now need nothing else but Your forgiveness." Yet another narration adds Hadhrat Amr (he had the placed his hand around his neck like a yoke, raised his head to the sky and said, "O Allaah! I am not powerful enough to take revenge and not innocent enough to offer excuses. I do not deny any of my sins but am seeking pardon. There is none worthy of worship but You." He continued repeating this until he passed away. May Allaah be pleased with him. (2)

According to another narration, Hadhrat Amr said the following after advising his son: "O Allaah! You issued commands that we did not fulfil and You forbade us from things but we destroyed ourselves (by doing them). I am not innocent enough to offer excuses and not powerful enough to take revenge. There is none worthy of worship but You." He continued repeating this until he passed away. (3)

The Previously Quoted Statements of the Sahabah Concerning Belief in Jannah and Jahannam

In the chapter discussing the assistance rendered to Rasulullaah (4), the words of the Ansaar have been quoted when Khaybar was conquered, Rasulullaah (5) said to the Ansaar, "You have fulfilled your duty towards us. Now, if you please, you may hand over your shares (of plantations) in Khaybar (to the Muhaajireen) and have your date crops (in Madinah all for yourselves without sharing it with the Muhaajireen, who will now receive from Khaybar)." The Ansaar (accepted the proposal and) said, "You have placed several responsibilities on us while you have taken the responsibly that (in exchange for this) we shall have Jannah. We have now fulfilled what you had asked of us and require your

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 8 Pg. 26).

⁽²⁾ Muslim.

⁽³⁾ Jbn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.260).

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "The Financial Assistance that the Ansaar gave to the Muhaajireen" and the subheading "Sharing Dates and an Ansaar! $\frac{1}{2}\textit{\textit{Back}}\text{Refuses to be Paid Back"}.

condition to be met." Rasulullaah said, "You have it."

In the chapter discussing Jihaad^(I), the words of Hadhrat Umayr bin Humaam have passed. When Rasulullaah es encouraged them on to fight during the Battle of Badr, he exclaimed, "Wow! All that stands between me and my entry into Jannah is the Mushrikeen killing me." He then threw down the dates in his hand, grabbed his sword and fought until he was killed.

Another narration states that when he exclaimed, "Wow!", Rasulullaah asked him why he said this. He replied, "O Rasulullaah By Allaah! There is no reason other than that I should be among its inhabitants." Rasulullaah asked him, "You are certainly from amongst its inhabitants." Hadhrat Umayr took out some dates from his quiver and started eating them. However, he then said, "If I live until I have eaten these dates, it would take too much time." He then threw down the dates he had left and jumped into the thick of battle until he was martyred. May Allaah shower His mercy on him.

In the chapter discussing injuries sustained in Jihaad, the words of Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhr (2) when he said, "How wonderful is the fragrance of Jannah that I smell coming from behind Mount Uhud!" He then fought until he was martyred.

In the chapter discussing the desire the Sahabah (1) had for fighting in the path of Allaah (3), the words of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama (3) have passed who said, "Had it not been to attain Jannah, I would have certainly given you (0 father) preference (to have it your way). However, I really do aspire for martyrdom on this trip." This he said after his father stated that only one of them will be able to participate in the expedition (to Badn).

The words of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee (4) have also passed (4) who said during the Battle of Uhud, "Salaams to Rasulullaah (2) and to you. Tell Rasulullaah (3) that I can smell the fragrance of Jannah." This he said to Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit (3) who brought him the message that Rasulullaah (3) had sent Salaams for him and wished to know how he was feeling.

Also quoted were the words of Hadhrat Haraam bin Milhaan in the chapter discussing the battle at Bir Ma'oona (5). When he was martyred, he cried out, "By the Rabb of the Kabah, I am successful!" he was referring to his successful entry into Jannah.

In the chapter discussing the valour of Hadhrat Ammaar (6), his words are

- (2) Under the heading "Enduring Injuries while in Jihaad in the path of Allaah" and the subheading "The Injury of Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhr $1750".
- (3) Under the heading "The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah (Exists to Die and Give their Lives in the path of Allaah" and the subheading "The Incident of Hadhrat Khaythama (2006) and his son".
- (4) Also under the heading "The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah 經濟區 to Die and Give their Lives in the path of Allaah" but under the subheading "The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee 經濟區。
- (5) Also under the heading "The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah 經過過 to Die and Give their Lives in the path of Allaah" but under the subheading "The Last Words of Hadhrat Haraam 经减少的 Because of which his Killer Accepted Islaam".
- (6) Under the subheading "His Desire for Januah as he Fought".

quoted as follows: "O Haashim! Advance! Jannah lies beneath the shadow of swords and death lies at the points of spears. The doors of Jannah have been flung wide open and the damsels of Jannah have been beautified. Today I shall meet those I love, Muhammad Abb and his group. He then launched an attack with Haashim Bab and they were both martyred.

Again in the chapter⁽¹⁾ are his words when he said, "O Assembly of Muslims! Are you running away from Jannah? I am Ammaar bin Yaasir! Are you running away from Jannah? I am Ammaar bin Yaasir! Come to me!"

In the chapter discussing refusal to be an Ameer⁽²⁾, the words of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (which are quoted when he said, "Never before had my heart ever aspired for worldly things and I almost said, 'That person (myself) desires the Khilaafah who had hit your neck and the neck of your father to accept Islaam until he made you two enter its fold! However, I thought of Jannah and its bounties and refrained from saying it." This he said when Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (who is desirous of the Khilaafah?"

The words of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir (Sa'ee) has also passed. When after spending in Sadaqah, he was told that his wife and in-laws also have a right, he said, "Just as I would not give preference to anything else over their rights, I would also not forsake my desire for the wide-eyed damsels of Jannah in exchange for pleasing some people. Should a damsel of Jannah peep into this world, the world will be illuminated just as the sun illuminates it."

Another narration⁽³⁾ states that he once told his wife, "Take it easy. I had some companions who have recently left me, Even in exchange for the world and all its contents, I would not like to leave the path they tread. If a single damsel of Jannah has to even peep into this world from the sky, everything on earth would be illuminated and the radiance of her face would outshine the sun and the moon. The scarf that she is given to wear is more precious than the world and all that it contains. It is therefore more appropriate that I leave you for them rather than leaving them for you." His wife then accepted what had happened and was satisfied.

Also quoted in the chapter discussing perseverance through illness are the words of a woman from the Ansaar who thrice repeated, "No! By Allaah! I would rather exercise patience, O Rasulullaah see instead of jeopardising (my entry into) Jannah." This she said when Rasulullaah see said to her, "Which would you prefer; that I pray to Allaah to cure you (of your fever) or that you exercise patience and be assured of Jannah?"

Also quoted were the words of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (4) when he said, "I (1) Under the subheading "He Lends Courage to the Muslims and Fights Bravely During the Battle of ⁽²⁾ Under the subheading "The Incident that Occurred Between Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 對議論 and Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Hafsah 母認為 Concerning Downatul Jandal".

⁽³⁾ In the chapter discussing how the Sahabah (2006) spent in the path of Allaah, under the heading "The Spending of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Judhaym Jumhi (2006)" and the subheading "His Spending as the Governor of Shaam".

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "The Sahabah ($2000) Exercise Patience with Illness" and the subheading "The Patience of Hadhrat Abu Bakr $1000) and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa $20000" wish for Jannah" when his friends asked him what he wished for.

Also quoted in the chapter discussing patience upon the death of children were the words of Hadhrat Ummu Haaritha upon the martyrdom of her son. She said, "O Rasulullaah !!! Tell me what has become of Haaritha. If he is in Jannah, I shall exercise patience. If not, I shall show Allaah what I will do." She was referring to wailing, which had not yet been forbidden at the time. Another narration states that she said, "O Rasulullaah !!! If he is in Jannah, I shall not weep and will not be grieved. However, if he is in Jahannam, I shall continue weeping as long as I live." "O Ummu Haarith!" Rasulullaah !! consoled her, "There is not only one Jannah. There are many levels of Jannah and Haarith is in Firdous which is the highest of them all." She then returned laughing as she said. "Well done, Haarith! Well done!"

Hadhrat Aa'isha Weeps at the Thought of Jahannam and the Words of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha harrates that she once started to weep at the thought of Jahannam. "What is the matter, O Aa'isha?" Rasulullaah asked. She replied, "I thought of Jahannam and started to weep. Will you think of your family on the Day of Qiyaamah?" Rasulullaah said, "There are three places where none shall think of another. (I) At the scales until a person knows whether his scale (of good deeds) is heavy or light. (2) When the books of actions will be handed out until a person will call out (out of jubilation) 'Come and see my bookt' or until he knows whether his book will be given in his right hand (a sign of success) or in his left hand from behind his back (a sign of failure). (3) At the bridge of Siraat when it is spanned across Jahannam. There shall be hooks on either side and plenty of thorns. Allaah shall detain whoever He wills with these until they find out whether they have attained salvation or not." (1)

An Old Man and a Youngster Pass Away at the Mention of Jahannam

Amongst the Sahabah 地區區 was a very old man when Rasulullaah 認能 recited to them the verse:

(سورة تحريم: آيت)

O you who have Imaan! Save yourselves and your families from the Fire (of Jahannam), the fuel of which is people and stones. (Surah Tahreem, verse 6)

"O Rasulullaah [35]" the old man asked, "Are the stones of Jahannam like the stones of this world?" Rasulullaah [35] replied, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that a single boulder of Jahannam is larger than all the (1) Haakim (Vol.4 Pg. 578). Dhahabi has commented on the chain of narrators.

mountains of this world." The old man then fell unconscious. Placing his hand on the old man's heart, Rasulullaah of discovered that he was still alive, Rasulullaah in the fell unconscious. Placing his hand on the old man's heart, Rasulullaah in the was still alive, Rasulullaah in the was still alive, Rasulullaah in the was still alive, Rasulullaah in the was still alive, Rasulullaah in the was still alive, Rasulullaah in the was still alive, Rasulullaah in the was still alive, Was gave him the glad tidings of Jannah. The Sahabah in the was still alive, Rasulullaah This is for him who fears standing before Me (on the Day of Qiyaamah) and who fears My warning (of punishment). (Surah Ibraaheem, verse 4

In the chapter discussing the fear the Sahabah (2), a similar incident as occurred to the old man is reported about a youngster. It is also related there that when the fear for Allaah gripped a young Ansaari, he wept so much every time he heard mention of Jahannam that this kept him indoors. When this was mentioned to Rasulullaah , he went to the house. As Rasulullaah entered, he embraced the Ansaari (in Rasulullaah (in Enshroud your companion because fear of Jahannam has ruptured his liver." (3)

The Previously Quoted Statements of the Sahabah Concerning Fear for Jahannam

The restlessness of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws (in his bed has already been quoted (4) with his words, "O Allaah! The fire of Jahannam has dispelled my sleep." Thereafter, he would stand up and perform salaah until the morning. Several incidents have also reported in the chapter discussing the weeping of the Sahabah (2006).

In the chapter discussing the Battle of Mu'ta, the weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha has been reported together with his words: "I swear by Allaah that it is neither love for this world nor my attachment to you that makes me weep. However, I have heard Rasulullaah Fecite a verse from the Qur'aan that speaks of the fire of Jahannam:

Every one of you shall pass by it (everyone shall pass over Jahannam as they cross the bridge of Siraat that spans Jahannam). This is a decreed command of your Rabb. (Surah Maryam, verse 71)

I have no idea how am I to return after this crossing."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 4 Pg. 391).

⁽²⁾ Under the subheading "The incident of a young Ansaari".

⁽³⁾ Haakim has reported the narration from reliable sources from Hadhrat Sahl Sizes while Ibn Abi Dunya has reported a it from Hadhrat Hudhaylah Sizes.

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "The Fear of the Sahabah (Classes" and the subheading "The Fear of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws Ansaari (Sizes)".

Conviction in the Promises of Allaah

The Conviction of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) in the Battle between the Romans and the Persians as Promised by Allaah

Hadhrat Nayyaar bin Mukram Aslami (#) reports that the Persians were prevailing over the Romans at the time when Allaah revealed the verses:

Alif Laam Meem (The people of) Rome will be defeated (by the Persians) in the (land that is) nearer (to the Arabs than the) land (of the Persians) and, after their defeat, (the Romans) will again be victorious within a few years. (Surah Room, verses 1-4)

The Muslims liked the Romans to be victorious because they were people with a divine scripture just like the Muslims. It is for this reason that Allaah says:

(سورة روم: آيت؛ ٥)

And on that day (when Rome defeats Persia) the Mu'mineen will rejoice about Allaah's assistance. Allaah assists whoever He wills, and He is the Mighty (none can defeat Him), the Most Merciful. (Surah Room, verses 4-5)

On the other hand, the Quraysh liked the Persians to be victorious because neither of them had a divine scripture nor believed in resurrection. When Allaah revealed these verses, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($100) went out of his house shouting:

Alif Laam Meem (The people of) Rome will be defeated (by the Persians) in the (land that is) nearer (to the Arabs than the) land (of the Persians) and, after their defeat, (the Romans) will again be victorious within a few years. (Surah Room, verses 1-4)

Some members of the Quraysh then said to him, "This will decide the affair between us and you (it will prove whether your religion is true or not). Since your guide assumes that Rome will defeat Persia in a few years time, let us place a bet on it. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sagreed because betting had not yet been forbidden at the time. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sand the Mushrikeen therefore took a bet and agreed on the sum. They then said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr sagreed, "How would you specify 'a few' which can be anything between three to nine years(1)? Specify a time in between so that we may have a time frame between us (1) The Arabic word 'and used in the verse denotes any number between 3 and 9.

(when we will determine who has won and who has lost). The time period they then set was six years.

When six years passed without the Romans attaining victory, the Mushrikeen took the payment from Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986). However, it was when the seventh year entered that the Romans defeated the Persians. Some Muslims therefore criticised Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) for stipulating six years because Allaah had only mentioned "a few years" (without specifying). Nevertheless, (seeing that the Qur'aanic prediction was true) many people accepted Islaam on this occasion. (1)

Hadhrat Baraa States narrates that when the verses:

(سورة روم: آيت ا تا ٢)

Alif Laam Meem (The people of) Rome will be defeated (by the Persians) in the (land that is) nearer (to the Arabs than the) land (of the Persians) and, after their defeat, (the Romans) will again be victorious. (Surah Room, verses 1-3)

were revealed, the Mushrikeen said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr "Don't you see what your master believes? He assumes that Rome will defeat Persia." Hadhrat Abu Bakr immediately replied, "My master is true." They then challenged Hadhrat Abu Bakr to a bet and specified a time period. When the time expired before Rome could defeat Persia and the news reached Rasulullaah "F, he was displeased and asked Hadhrat Abu Bakr "What made you do this?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr "To prove the veracity of Allaah and His Rasool "Rasulullaah" advised him saying, "Now approach them to increase the bet and set the time for " (a period anywhere between three and nine years)."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Would you like to renew the bet? The renewal is a better deal." They agreed. It was before the expiry of the (specified) years that Rome defeated Persia, set up a stronghold in Madaa'in and built the city of Roomiyya. (After collecting the payment) Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Came to Rasulullaah (With it saying, "This is unlawful (what should I do with it)." Rasulullaah (With the told him to give it away as Sadaqah. (2)

The Conviction of Hadhrat Ka'b bin Adi

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Adi salas says, "I came with a delegation from Heera to Nabi salas. When Rasulullaah salas presented Islaam to us, we accepted and then returned to Heera. It was not long thereafter that the news of Rasulullaah salas demise reached us. My companions started having doubts and said, 'Had he been a true Nabi, he would not have died.' I said to them, 'But the Ambiyaa before him all passed away as well.' I therefore remained steadfast and left for Madinah. On the way I happened to pass by a monk without whom we usually made no decisions. I said to him, 'Tell me about the purpose I am heading for because some uncertainty has cropped up in my heart. 'Bring something with your name,' he said. I then brought an anklebone (because an anklebone is also called Ka'b in Arabic). He took out some hairs and told me to throw the anklebone into them. When I did so, I saw Rasulullaah & as I had seen him and saw his demise taking place at the exact time he passed away. My sights on my Imaan were therefore bolstered (and I continued to Madinah).

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Nasa'ee and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg. 423).

(Upon my arrival in Madinah) I went to see Hadhrat Abu Bakr and after reporting everything to him, I stayed on with him. He dispatched me to Maqoqis (the king of Alexandria) and when I returned (after he had passed away), Hadhrat Umar seems sent me back. I therefore returned to Maqoqis with Hadhrat Umar seems sent me back. I therefore returned to Maqoqis with Hadhrat Umar seems seems and least may be after the Battle of Yarmook about which I had no idea. Maqoqis said to me, 'Do you know that the Romans fought a battle with the Arabs and defeated them?' 'That is not possible.' I said. 'Why not?' he asked. I said, 'Because Allaah promised His Nabi seems that he would make his Deen dominate over all religions. And Allaah never breaks a promise.' Maqoqis then said, 'By Allaah! The Arabs massacred the Romans just as the nation of Aad were massacred. Your Nabi seems had spoken the truth.' Maqoqis then asked me about all the prominent Sahabah seems and sent gifts for them. I also said to him, 'Abbaas seems who is the uncle of Rasulullaah seems is still alive. You should maintain good relations with him as well."

Hadhrat Ka'b (Continues, "I had been Hadhrat Umar (Companies) business partner and when he formed a registry to distribute allowances, he included me amongst (his tribe) the Banu Adi bin Ka'b." (1)

The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996), Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Sa'd (1996) about Conviction in the Allaah's Promise to Assist the Mu'mineen

In the chapter discussing the Jihaad against the Murtaddeen⁽²⁾, the following words of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) are quoted: He said, "I swear by Allaah that I shall remain devoted to the laws of Allaah and continue fighting in Jihaad until Allaah fulfils His promise to us. Those of us who are killed shall be martyrs bound for Jannah while those who survive shall remain as Allaah's deputies on His earth and successors of His bondsmen. Allaah has spoken the truth and there Baghawi, Ibn Shaaheen, Abu Nu'aym, Ibn Sakan and Ibn Yunus in his history of Egypt, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 3 Pg. 298).

⁽²⁾ Under the heading "Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2006) Ensures that Jihaad is Waged Against the Murtaddeen and Those Who Refused to Pay Zakaah" and the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2006) Consults with the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar about Waging Jihaad and Delivers a Sermon in this Regard".

can be no going back on His word. Allaah has declared:

﴿ وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَ عَمِلُوا الصَّلِحْتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا اسْتَخُلَفَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ صَ وَلَيُمَكِّنَ لَهُمْ دِيْنَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَصَٰى لَهُمُ وَلَهْرَلِنَّهُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِ خَوْفِهِمْ آمَنًا مُ يَعْبُدُوْنَتِيْ لَا يُشْرِكُوْنَ بِيْ شَيْنًا مُ وَمَنْ كَفَرَ يَعْدَ دَٰلِكَ فَأُولَٰهِكَ هُمُ الْفَلِيقُوْنَ ۞ (سورة نور: آيت ٥٠)

Allaah has promised those of you who have Imaan and who do good actions that He will definitely make them successors (of the rulers) on earth just as He had made those before them successors. {Surah Noor, verse 55}

The words of Hadhrat Umar Sizes have also passed (1) when he encouraged the Muslims to wage Jihaad saying, "Where are those Muhaajireen who were always leaping towards the promises of Allaah? March to the lands that Allaah has promised in His Book that He would make you inherit. Allaah has declared:

To make it (Islaam) dominate over all other religions. (Surah Taubah, verse 33, Surah Fatah, verse 28 and Surah Saff, verse 9)

Also quoted⁽²⁾ are the words of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (Simes) when he encouraged the Muslims to wage Jihaad saying, "Allaah is definitely True. He has no partner in His kingdom and never goes back on His word. Allaah The Majestic declares:

Without doubt, We have already written in the Zaboor after the reminder (the Torah) that My pious bondsmen shall inherit the land. (Surah Ambiyaa, verse 105)

This earth is your legacy and the promise of your Rabb. For the past three years, Allaah has give you use of this land. You are feeding others from it and yourselves eating from it. To this day, you have killed its people (in the wars that took place), collected their wealth and taken prisoners from amongst them. In the previous battles, those before you have caused much harm to them. Now their army has come to you (the army of Yazdgird, numbering approximately two hundred thousand). You are amongst the pride of the Arabs, their nobles, the cream of every tribe and the most honourable of those you have left behind you. If you are detached from the world and aspirant to the Aakhirah, Allaah shall grant you both worlds. This battle cannot take you any closer to your deaths

⁽¹⁾ Under the heading "Hadhrat Umar Bin Khattaab (1996) Encourages Jihaad in the Path of Allaah and Consults with the Sahabah (1996) in Matters Arising Before him and the subheading "Hadhrat Umar (1996) Encourages People Towards Jihaad".

⁽²⁾ Under the heading "Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas 學師師 Encourages the Muslims to Wage Jihaad" and the subheading "The Speech of Hadhrat Sa'd 學師師 during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah".

(because death is predestined). However, if you lose courage, become cowardly and weak, your strength will leave you and you will be destroying your Aakhirah."

Conviction in the Words of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Khuzaymah bin Thaabit (See) Corroborates the Words of Rasulullaah (See in a) Dispute with a Bedouin

Hadhrat Umaarah bin Khuzaymah bin Thaabit narrates from his uncle who was a Sahabi that Rasulullaah once purchased a horse from a Bedouin. Rasulullaah asked the Bedouin to follow him (home) so that he could give him themoney. The Bedouin however fell behind because Rasulullaah walked very briskly. Not knowing that Rasulullaah had already purchased the horse, two men entered into negotiations with the Bedouin to buy the horse. When one of them offered him a price higher than that which Rasulullaah agreed to pay, the Bedouin called to Rasulullaah saying, "If you wish to buy the horse, buy it now. Otherwise, I am going to sell it." Rasulullaah stood still when he heard this and, returning to the Bedouin, he said, "Did I not already buy it from you." The Bedouin denied it saying, "No! I swear by Allaah that I did not sell it to you!" "But I did buy it from you," Rasulullaah insisted.

As the two contested the issue, people started gathering around them. The Bedouin finally said, "Then present a witness to attest that you did buy it from me." Every Muslim who came by reprimanded the Bedouin saying, "Shame on you! Rasulullaah speaks nothing but the truth!" In the meantime, Hadhrat Khuzaymah bin Thaabit had also come along and heard the exchange of words between Rasulullaah for and the Bedouin. When the Bedouin demanded a witness from Rasulullaah for Hadhrat Khuzaymah said, "I testify that you sold it to Rasulullaah for Turning to Hadhrat Khuzaymah saked, "On what basis do you testify?" Hadhrat Khuzaymah replied, "On the basis that I believe in you, O Rasulullaah for regarded the testimony of Hadhrat Khuzaymah as equal to the testimony of two men. (1)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah see asked, "O Khuzaymah! On what basis do you testify when you were not with us?" "O Rasulullaah see!" he replied, "When I believe the news you give from the heavens, how can I not believe what you say?" Rasulullaah see then always considered the testimony of Hadhrat Khuzaymah sees to be equal to the testimony of two men. Another narration states that Hadhrat Khuzaymah sees said, "I am convinced that you speak only the truth and we have believed you in matters of our Deen that are much more important." Rasulullaah sees then permitted his testimony. (2)

⁽I) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.378), Anu Dawood (Pg.508) has reported a similar narration:

^{(2) 1}bn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.379).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Werifies Rasulullaah S Account of his Night Journey (to the heavens)

Hadhrat Aa'isha was inarrates that after Rasulullaah was taken on the historic night journey to Masjidul Aqsa (and then to the heavens), he narrated it to the people the following morning. On that occasion (by disbelieving it), some people who had previously professed imaan left the fold of Islaam. The people then rushed to Hadhrat Abu Bakr saying, "What have you now to say about your friend who claims that he was taken on a night journey to Baytul Maqdas?" "Did he say that?" asked Hadhrat Abu Bakr said. "If he said it, then he is speaking the truth." The people exclaimed, "Do you believe that he could have gone to Baytul Maqdas at night and then returned before dawn?" "Of course," Hadhrat Abu Bakr said. "In fact, I believe him regarding matters that seem much more unbelievable than that. I believe in the news from the heavens that he brings day and night." It was because of this that Hadhrat Abu Bakr received the title of Siddeeq. (1)

Another narration states that on this occasion, some people who had previously professed Imaan left the fold of Islaam, while others believed (without question). The incident was in essence a great test for the people. (2) Yet another narration states that after hearing Rasulullaah (2) account, they went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2) saying, "What have you now to say about your friend who says that he travelled a distance of a month's journey last night and returned before dawn?" "Did he say that?" asked Hadhrat Abu Bakr (3)... The rest of the narration is the same as above. (3)

Hadhrat Umar (See Section in the Words of Rasulullaah (See Concerning the Extinction of Species

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah (February) reports that during the year in which Hadhrat Umar (February) became the Khalifah, the numbers of locusts declined drastically. When Hadhrat Umar (February) made enquiries and received no response, he sent riders to many areas including Shaam and Iraq to enquire whether locusts had been seen or not. A rider eventually retuned from Yemen with a handful of locusts that he placed before Hadhrat Umar (February). When he saw them, Hadhrat Umar (February) thrice exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar!" He then said, "I heard Rasulullaah (February) has created a thousand species; six hundred in the oceans and four hundred on land. The first of these to become extinct is the species of locusts. As soon as they become extinct, the others will follow like (the beads of) a necklace when the string is cut. m(1)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in the Talseer of thn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.21).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.353).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.7).

Hadhrat Ali significant solution in the Words of Rasulullaah significant concerning his Assassination

Hadhrat Fudhaala bin Abu Fudhaala Ansaari relates, "I accompanied my father (Hadhrat Abu Fudhaala $100) to Yamba to visit Hadhrat Ali $1000 who had become extremely ill there. My father who was also a veteran of the Battle of Badr said to him, 'What keeps you camping at this place? If you die here, there are none here but the Bedouins of the Banu Juhaynah tribe. Persevere until you reach Madinah and should you die there, your companions will be nearby and they will perform the (Janaazah) salaah for you.' Hadhrat Ali $1000 however said, 'I shall not die from this illness because Rasulullaah $1000 me that I shall not die until I become the Khalifah and then this (his beard) becomes dyed with the blood of this (his forehead)."(2)

Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam one day came to him as he placed his foot in the stirrup (of his animal, ready to ride off). "Where do you intend going?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam saked. When Hadhrat Ali saked informed him that he was headed for Iraq, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam saked remarked, "Remember that if you go there, it will be the sharp edge of a sword that is sure to strike you." Hadhrat Ali sakes says, "I swear by Allaah that I had heard this from Rasulullaah sake even before he (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam sakes) said it." (3)

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Jareer narrates that Hadhrat Ali was once inspecting the cavalrywhen Ibn Muljim passed by. When Hadhrat Ali was asked him his name, he gave a name other than that of his father. "You are lying," Hadhrat Ali was told him. When he eventually gave his father's name, Hadhrat Ali was said, "Now you have spoken the truth. (Turning to the others, Hadhrat Ali was said) Rasulullaah informed me that my assassin will be a man from amongst the Jews and this man is from them. Nevertheless, let him go." (4)

Hadhrat Ubaydah narrates that whenever Hadhrat Ali saws saw Ibn Muljim, he would recite the following couplet (which means):

"While I wish him life, he wishes to kill me

Bring me an excuse from a friend from the Muraad (5) clan*(6)

Hadhrat Abu Tufayi narrates that he was with Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib sussess when Abdur Rahmaan bin Muljim came. After issuing instructions for his allowance to be given to him, Hadhrat Ali susses pointed towards his beard and

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg. 131).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad in his Zawaa'id, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Bazzaar, Haarith, Abu Nu'aym, Bayhaqi in his Dalaa'il and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.59).

⁽³⁾ Humaydi, Bazzaar, Abu Ya'la, Ibn Hibbaan, Haakim and others, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.59).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Adi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.62).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Muljim belonged to the Muraad clan.

⁽⁶⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, Ibn Sa'd and Wakee, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.61).

said, "None can stop this wretch from dying, from the top with this (the blood of my forehead)." Hadhrat Ali 過滤器 then recited the following couplets (which mean):

"Bolster your heart for death because death shall come your way And never fear being murdered when murder arrives at your valley"(1)

Hadhrat Ammaar (See Section in the Words of Rasulullaah (See Concerning his Death

Hadhrat Ummu Ammaar who brought Hadhrat Ammaar up reports that when Hadhrat Ammaar became very ill one day, he said, "I am not going to die from this illness because my beloved friend Rasulullaah informed me that I will be killed in a battle between two warring armies of Mu'mineen." (2)

Already quoted in the chapter discussing the enthusiasm of the Sahabah (1) to die in the path of Allaah (3) are his words when he said, "I am to meet Al Jabbaar (Allaah) and marry the damsels of Jannah! Today I shall meet my beloved friends, Muhammad (2) and his companions because Rasulullaah (3) informed me that the last provision of my worldly life shall be the curds of milk."

Also in the same chapter the narration has passed stating that Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir was fighting in the Battle of Siffeen but was not martyred. He then approached Hadhrat Ali was and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is that very day (about which Rasululianh was said that I would be martyred. How come I am still alive?)." Hadhrat Ali was replied, "Do not worry about that." This occurred three times until Hadhrat Ammaar was given some milk. He drank it and said, "Indeed, Rasulullaah was said that this (milk) will be the last drink that I shall drink in this world." He then stood up and fought until he was martyred.

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Sies reports from the daughter of Hishaam bin Waleed bin Mughiera Waleed who nursed Hadhrat Ammaar Sies that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Sies once visited Hadhrat Ammaar Sies when he was ill. When he left, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Sies said, "O Allaah! Do not let his death be on our hands because I have heard Rasulullaah Sies say that it will be a rebellious group that will kill Ammaar." (4)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Woods of Rasulullaah Concerning his Death

Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Ashtar narrates from his father that when death approached Hadhrat Abu Dharr (See), his wife started to weep. "What makes you weep?" he asked. "I am weeping," she said. "because I do not have the

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.59).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.247).

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "Miscellaneous Stories about the Enthusiasm of the Sahabah 經濟節 to Fightin the path of Allaah" and the subheading "The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir 智能等 to Fight In the Path of Allaah".

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Ya'la and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg 247).

strength to bury you or a cloth large enough to shroud you." "Do not weep," he consoled her, "because I was part of a group of persons to whom Rasulullaah said, 'One of you shall certainly die in a wilderness in the presence of a party of Mu'mineen.' Since every person from that group has passed away in a city amongst large numbers of people, It will definitely be I who will die in a wilderness. By Allaah! Neither am I lying nor did Rasulullaah tell me a lie. Go watch the road." She said, "But the people performing Hajj have long stopped travelling and the road is closed."

She however still ran to a hillock, stood upon it and looked (to the road). (When she saw no one,) She then returned to nurse Hadhrat Abu Dharr (When She saw no one,) She then returned to nurse Hadhrat Abu Dharr (When She suddenly noticed some travellers whose animals were carrying them along swiftly, appearing like vultures perched on their carriages. When she waved to them with her sheet, they turned towards her. As they reached her and asked her what the matter was, she replied, "There is a man from amongst the Muslims who is about to pass away. Will you please shroud him (and bury him)?" "Who is this man?" they enquired. As soon as she informed them that he was Hadhrat Abu Dharr (When whipped their animals and raced towards him.

When they reached him, Hadhrat Abu Dharr Said, "Congratulations to you (because Rasulullaah in had referred to you as Mu'mineen)!" He then related the Hadith to them and said, "I have heard Rasulullaah is say that when two or three children of a couple pass away and they exercise patience and anticipate rewards from Allaah, they will not even see Jahannam. Do listen well. Had I a sheet large enough to be my burial shroud, I would have not want to be shrouded in anything else but that which is my own. Similarly, if my wife had a sheet large enough to be my burial shroud, I would have not want to be shrouded in anything else but that which is hers. (However, we have nothing of the sort, so we appeal to one of you to give something). I however plead to you in the name of Allaah and Islaam that no such person should provide the shroud who has been a governor, a chief, a leader or an envoy."

Every member of the group had assumed one of these posts at some stage besides a young man from the Ansaar, who said, "I shall provide the shroud because I have not assumed any of the positions you have mentioned. I shall shroud you in the shawl I am wearing and two more sheets in my bag that my mother had woven for me." Hadhral Abu Dharr said, "You should then be the one to shroud me." The young Ansaari then shrouded Hadhral Abu Dharr in the presence of the group. Amongst the group was Hujr bin Adbar and Maalik Ashtar and all of them hailed from Yemen. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Suss) narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan (Suss) had sent Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Suss) to a place called Rabdha, where his death came to him. At the time, there was none with him besides his wife and slave. His

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.233).

It was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood with a group of people from Iraq who happened to pass by on their way to performing Umrah. It was the sight of a corpse on the road that startled the party just as their camels were about to trample upon it. Hadhrat Abu Dharr with slave then approached them saying, "This is Abu Dharr a companion of Rasulullaah with Do assist us in burying him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood with burst out crying loudly as he said, "Rasulullaah with spoke the truth when he said (to Hadhrat Abu Dharr with the then dismounted along with his companions and they buried Hadhrat Abu Dharr with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood with then informed the people about Hadhrat Abu Dharr with and what Rasulullaah with had mentioned to him on the journey to Tabook. (1)

Hadhrat Khuraym bin Aws (See Section in the Words of Rasulullaah) (See Concerning Shaymaa bint Buqaylah)

Hadhrat Khuraym bin Aws relates, "I migrated to Rasulullaah and met him upon his return from Tabook, when I accepted Islaam. I heard Rasulullaah say, 'I have been shown the city of Heera together with Shaymaa bint Buqaylah from the Azd tribe riding a white mule and wearing a black scarf.' 'O Rasulullaah say," I said, "When we conquer Heera and find her as you have described, may I have her (as my slave)?" 'She is yours,' Rasulullaah say replied.

(After the demise of Rasulullaah (After the demise of Rasulullaah (After the demise of Rasulullaah (After the demise of Rasulullaah (After the Banu Tay left Islaam. We then marched to Heera with Khaalid bin Waleed (After the first sight that met us as we entered the city was Shaymaa bint Buqaylah just as Rasulullaah (After the described her. She was riding a white mule and wearing a black scarf. I immediately seized her saying, 'She is the one whom Rasulullaah (After the described to me,' When Khaalid bin Waleed (After the one whom Rasulullaah (After the described to me,' When Khaalid bin Waleed (After the one whom Rasulullaah (After the described to me,' When Khaalid bin Waleed (After the one whom Rasulullaah (After the described to me,' When Khaalid bin Waleed (After the one whom Rasulullaah (After the After the One witnesses, Muhammad bin Maslama (After the After the One witnesses, Muhammad bin Maslama (After the Muslims) Shaymaa's brother Abdul Maseeh bin Buqaylah offered to buy her from me. 'I shall accept nothing less than ten hundreds for her,' I told him. He readily gave me a thousand Dirhams and I handed her over to him. When the other Muslims told me that he would have easily paid me a hundred thousand had I asked for it (because he was extremely wealthy), I submitted, 'I never knew that there existed a number greater than ten hundreds."(1) Hadhrat Mugheirah bin Shu'ba (is Convinced by the Words of Rasulullaah (is Promising assistance and Victory)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.234).

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Hayya reports, "When the Kaafir leader Bandaarfaan sent a message that the Muslims send someone to him for negotiations, Hadhrat Mugheirah bin Shu'ba was selected for the task. I can actually picture him with his long hair and one eye. Hadhrat Mugheirah proceeded to see the leader and when he returned, we asked him what he said. He said, 'I praised Allaah and then said, 'We lived in a most remote place, were the hungriest of people, the most ill-fortuned of them and furthest from prosperity until Allaah sent a Nabi to us. He promised us assistance (Allaah's) in this world and Jannah in the Aakhirah. We have then continued to know only victory and assistance from our Rabb was every since Rasulullaah came to us. We have now come to you where we see a vast kingdom and prosperous lives. By Allaah! (After seeing all of this,) We shall now never return to our ill-fortuned times. We shall now either take control over everything in your hands or be killed in your land."(2)

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Hayya also narrates a lengthy Hadith in which an army under the command of Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin was sent to the people of Ahwaaz. When they requested for someone to be sent to them, Hadhrat Mugheirah bin Shu'ba was sent. When the interpreter asked, "What kind of people are you?" Hadhrat Mugheirah was replied, "We are Arabs who had suffered immense misfortune and hardship for a very long time. Out of hunger, we were forced to suck on leather and date stones. Our clothing was made of animals hair and wool and we worshipped trees and rocks. Suffering in this condition, the Rabb of the heavens and the earth sent to us a Nabi from our own people, whose parents we knew well. Our Nabi Rasulullaah instructed us to fight you people until you either worship the One Allaah or pay the Jizyah. Our Nabi Rasulullaah was also conveyed to us the message of our Rabb that any of us who die (while fighting) shall go to Jannah where he will enjoy bounties that have never been seen before. As for those of us who survive, they will have you people as slaves." (3)

The Conviction of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa in the Words Rasulullaah Taught him for Protection

Hadhrat Talq narrates that a man once came to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (1966) saying

Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'il (Pg.196) and Tabraani, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.1 Pg.224). Bukhaari has reported a similar narration in brief and Ibn Mandah in detail, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.371).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'ii (Pg.198).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg.148), as narrated by Bukhaari. Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Dalaa'it (Pg.199)

"O Abu Dardaa! Your house has burnt down!" "It could not have burnt," Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Another person then came with the same news and again Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Another person then came with the same news and again Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (The person came to him saying, "O Abu Dardaa! A fire raged (through your street) but went off as soon as it reached your house." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (The Knew that Allaah would never do that (never allow my house to burn down)." "O Abu Dardaa (The people said, "We do not know which of your words are more astonishing; whether it is 'It could not have burnt' or 'I knew that Allaah would never do that."

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (The explained, "That is because of some words that I heard from Rasulullaah (F). Whoever recites them in the morning will not suffer any calamity until the evening. (The words are:)

"اَللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ رَبِّيُ لَآ اِللَّهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ عَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَأَنْتَ رَبُّ الْعَوْشِ الْكَوِيْم مَاشَاءَ اللَّهُ كَانَ وَمَالَمُ يَشَالُمُ يَكُنُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةً إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْعَظِيْمِ أَعْلَمُ أَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ أَحَاطَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمُا اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّى أَعُوْدُيِكَ مِنُ شَرِّ نَفْسِيهُ وَمَنْ شَرِّكُلُ وَآبَةً أَنْتَ آخِذً بِنَاصِيَتِهَا إِنَّ رَبِّي عَلَى صِوَاطٍ مُّسْتَقِيْمٍ"

"O Allaah! You are my Rabb, There is none worthy of worship but You. In You do I place my trust and You are the Rabb of the Glorious Throne. Whatever Allaah wills shall happen and what He does not will can never happen. There is no power or might but with the High and Majestic Allaah. I know that Allaah has power over all things and that He has knowledge of all things. O Allaah! I seek Your protection from the evil within me and from the evil of every creature over which You have control, Indeed my Rabb is (the One Who guides people) on the straight path." (1)

Statements of the Sahabah (Conviction in the Words of Rasulullaah)

In the chapter of Da'wah⁽²⁾, the words of Hadhrat Adi 宏观感 have been quoted who said, "I swear by the Being in whose control is my life, the third prophesy shall also come true because Rasululiaah 愛麗 said it."

Also quoted⁽³⁾ were the words Hadhrat Hishaam bin Al Aas was and other Sahabah who said to Jabala bin Ayham, "By Allaah! We shall soon be taking from you this place where you sit and we shall also be taking the kingdom of your high emperor (Heraclius), inshaa Allaah! Our prophet Muhammad was

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi in his Asmaa was Sifaat (Pg. 125).

⁽²⁾ Under the heading "Rasulullaah Freaches to Individuals" and the subheading "Rasulullaah Freaches to Islaam".

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "The Sahabah 的知識 Dispatch Individuals and Groups to Give Da'wah" and the subheading "Hadhrat Hishaam bin Al Aas 的知識 and others are sent to Heraclius".

has informed us of this."

In the chapter discussing the importance Hadhrat Abu Bakr (a) gave to dispatching armies to Shaam(1) were the words of Hadhrat Ali (a) to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (a). He said, "I feel that whether you march against them yourself or whether you send others against them, you will have Allaah's assistance, Inshaa Allaah." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (a) said, "May Allaah always give you good news! How do you know this?" Hadhrat Ali (a) replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah (a) say that this Deen will always dominate those who oppose it until the Deen and its adherents are victorious." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (a) exclaimed, "Subhaanallaah! What a beautiful Hadith! You have made me very happy with this, May Allaah always keep you happy."

Soon to be narrated in the chapter discussing the unseen assistance that Allaah gave the Muslims shall be the narration in which Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar grabbed hold of a lion's ear, pinched it and removed it from the road saying, "Rasulullaah has not spoken an untruth about you. I heard Rasulullaah say, 'Only that which man fears shall gain the upper hand over him."

Conviction in the Recompense for Actions The Conviction of Hadhrat Abu Bakr in the Recompense for Actions

Hadhrat Abu Asmaa narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Singles) was once having lunch with Rasulullaah (Singles) when the verse was revealed:

Whoever (sincerely) does an atom's weight of good will see it (its consequences when he is rewarded for it) and whoever does an atom's weight of evil (without securing Allaah's forgiveness for it) will see it (its consequences when he is punished for it). (Surah Zilzaal, verses 7,8)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr stopped eating and said, "O Rasulullaah see! Will we see (be punished for) each and every evil that we perpetrate?" Rasulullaah see replied, "Everything that happens to you (in this world) which you dislike is retribution (for your sins), while the rewards for good deeds will be given to those who deserve them in the Aakhirah." (2)

Another narration states that Rasuluilaah see replied, "O Abu Bakr! Do you see everything that happens which you dislike? Well, these are from (the punishment for) the weight of sins while the (rewards for the) weight of good deeds will be kept in store for you and be given in full on the Day of Qiyaamah. Confirmation for this appears in Allaah's Book where He says:

⁽¹⁾ Under the heading "Hadhrat Abu Bakt (1996) Ensures that Armies are Dispatched in the Path of Allaah. He Encourages the Muslims to March in Jihaad and Consults with the Sahaban (1996) About Fighting the Romans' and the subheading 'Hadhrat All (1996) Gives Glad Tidings to Hadhrat Abu Bakt (1996), Who is Pleased by this and then Delivers a Lecture to Motivate the Sahabah (1996) to March in Jihaad".

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ibn Rahway, Abd bin Humayd, Haakim and others.

﴿ وَمَا آصَابَكُمْ مِنْ مُّصِيبَةٍ فَيِمَا كَسَبَتْ آلِدِيكُمْ وَيَعْفُوا عَنْ كَثِيْرٍ ١٠٠٠ (سورة هورى: آيت٢٠٠)

(O mankind!) The misfortunes that afflict you (in this world) are a result of the (evil) actions you earn, and (because of your many sins, you deserve to suffer even more adversities, but) Allaah pardons a great deal (of your sins, because of which you are spared many more hardships). (Surah Shura, verse 30) [1]

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Singles) reports that he was once with Rasulullaah (Singles) when the verse was revealed:

Whoever commits an evil act will meet (receive) its punishment and will not find for himself any friend nor any assistant besides Allaah. (Surah Nisaa, verse 123)

Rasulullaah then said. "O Abu Bakr! Should I not recite to you a verse that was just revealed to me?" When Hadhrat Abu Bakr saked to hear it, Rasulullaah for recited it for him. Hadhrat Abu Bakr says, "All I know is that it seemed my back was about to break, causing me to yawn. 'What is the matter with you, O Abu Bakr?' Rasulullaah as asked.' I said, 'O Rasulullaah sail which of us do not sin? Will we be punished for everything we do wrong?' Rasulullaah as replied, 'As for you and the Mumineen, you will suffer retribution (for your sins) in this world so that you have no sins to your account when you meet Allaah. However, the others (the Kuffaar) shall have their accounts accrued until they are punished for it on the Day of Olyaamah." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr 医障害 once asked, 'O Rasulullaah 慶壽! When we will be punished for every sin, who can keep himself in good stead after the verse:

Whoever commits an evil act will meet (receive) its punishment... (Surah Nisaa, verse 123)

Rasulullaah ses said, "May Allaah forgive you, O Abu Bakr! Do you not fall ill? Do you not get tired? Do you never feel depressed? Do you never suffer hardship? Do calamities never befall you?" "These things do happen," Hadhrat Abu Bakr ses replied. Rasulullaah ses then said, "This is the retribution (for your sins) in this world." (3)

The Conviction of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab in the Recompense for Actions

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Muntashir narrates that a man once came to Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Jbn Mardway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.) Pg.275).

⁽²⁾ Abd bin Humayd, Tirmidhi and Ibn Mundhir. Tirmidhi has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Ibn Mundhir, Abu Ya'la, Ibn Hibbaan, Haakim, Bayhaqi and others, as quoted in Kanzul Dminaal (Vol.1 Pg.239).

Umar saying, "I know which is the harshest verse in Allaah's Book." (Because referring to a verse of the Qur'aan as being harsh is disrespectful) Hadhrat Umar size got down and struck the man with his lash saying, "Have you studied the verse so deeply that you know all about it?" The man then went away. The following morning Hadhrat Umar said to the man, "Which verse were you referring to yesterday?" The man said that it was the verse:

Whoever commits an evil act will meet (receive) its punishment_ {Surah Nisaa, verse 123}

He then said, "(This means that) Since every one of us commits sins, we will be punished for it." Hadhrat Umar saids said, "When this verse was revealed, neither did we enjoy food nor drink until Allaah relieved us by revealing the verse:

(سورة تساء: آيت١١٠)

Whoever commits a (minor) sin or wrongs himself (by committing a major sin) and then seeks Allaah's forgiveness, he will surely find that Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (Surah Nisaa, verse 110)⁽¹⁾

The Conviction of Hadhrat Amr bin Samurah and Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn

Hadhrat Tha'laba harrates that Hadhrat Amr bin Samurah bin Habeeb bin Abdush Shams honce came to Rasulullaah had and said, "O Rasulullaah had and said, "O Rasulullaah had and said, "O Rasulullaah had and said, "O Rasulullaah had and said, "O Rasulullaah had and said, "O Rasulullaah had and said, "O Rasulullaah had and said seen a message to the people of the tribe, they confirmed that one of their camels were missing. Rasulullaah had then gave instructions for his hand to be amputated, upon which he said (to his hand), "All praise belongs to Allaah Who has cleansed me of you who wanted to admit my entire body into Jahannam." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that some friends went to visit Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn when he was suffering from a disease. One of them said, "We are extremely distressed by what we see of your ailing body." "Do not be distressed by what you see," he said, "What you see is because of my sins and those that Allaah has forgiven (without punishing me) are even more." He then recited the verse:

The misfortunes that afflict you (in this world) are a result of the (evil) actions you earn, and (because of your many sins, you deserve to suffer

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Raahway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 Pg 239).

^{(2) 1}bn Maajah, as quoted in the Talseer of ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.56)

even more adversities, but) Allaah pardons a great deal (of your sins, because of which you are spared many more hardships). (Surah Shura, verse 30)⁽¹⁾

The Belief of Hadhrat Abu Bakr sign and another Sahabi sign Concerning Recompense

The narration has already been quoted⁽²⁾ that when death came to one of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Singles)'s sons, the youngster kept looking at the pillow. After he has passed away, the people informed Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Singles) that they noticed his son looking towards the pillow. When they lifted the corpse off the pillow, they noticed five or six Dinaars beneath it. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Singles) hit one hand on to the other saying, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! I do not think that your skin will be able to withstand (the punishment for not spending in Sadaqah) those Dinaars." (3)

Also previously quoted in the chapter discussing swearing at a Muslim⁽⁴⁾ are the words of Rasulullaah to a man who came to enquire about his slaves. Rasulullaah said, "On the Day of Qiyaamah, their cheating, disobedience and lies will be calculated together with the punishment you gave them, if your punishment is equal to their wrongs, the slate will be clean and you will neither have anything for you or against you. However, if your punishment exceeds their wrongs, they will be allowed to have revenge for the excess." The man then stepped aside and started crying loudly. Rasulullaah then said, "Did you not read (in the Qur'aan) that Allaah says:

On the Day of Qiyaamah. We will erect the scales of justice (to weigh the good and bad actions of people) and no soul will be oppressed (wronged) in the least. Even if a deed (good or bad) is equal to the weight of a mustard seed, We shall bring it (to be weighed on the scales). We suffice as Reckoners (and need no one else for the task).

{Surah Ambiyaa, verse 47}

The man then said, "O Rasulullaah *! I see nothing for them and myself better than being separated from each other. I make you witness that they are all free *(5)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 4 Pg. 116).

⁽²⁾ Under the heading "Rebuking and Advising Caution to those who Do Not Abstain from Worldly Luxuries and Who Indulge themselves" and the subheading "The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr @D388 and a Son of his who was About to Pass Away".

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Abu Nu'aym as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 145).

⁽⁴⁾ Under the subheading "A Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@ Concerning a man who Swore his Slave".

⁽⁵⁾ Tirmidhi, reporting from reliable sources.

The Strength of the Imaan of the Sahabah @@@@

The Sahabah Abide by the verse "Whether you make known what is in your hearts or hide it..."

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Sies) narrates that the Sahabah (Sies) felt a hard blow when Allah revealed the verse:

(سورة بقره: آيت ۲۸۱)

(To Allaah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth. Whether you make known what is in your hearts or hide it, Allaah will bring you to account for it (will remind you of it on the Day of Qiyaamah). He forgives whoever He wills and punishes whoever He wills. Allaah has control over all things (ownership, knowledge and control of everything are in Allaah's hands). (Surah Bagarah, verse 284)

They approached Rasulullaah [35], knelt down and said, "O Rasulullaah [35]. We have been instructed to do something that is beyond our capabilities." Rasulullaah [35] said, "Do you wish to say what the people given the two previous books⁽¹⁾ before you said when they stated, 'We hear and we disobey! Rather say, "We hear and we obey, (We ask) Your forgiveness, (O) our Rabb. To You is our return." When the Sahabah [35] started to say the same words and their tongues grew accustomed to it, Allaah followed the verses up with the following:

The Rasool (Muhammad (Sig.) believed in that which has been revealed to him from his Rabb and (so do) the Mu'mineen. Each one believes in Allaah, His angels, His Books and His Rusul. (They say) "We make no distinction between one and another messenger (we believe in every one of them. unlike others like the Jews and the Christians who reject some prophets)," and they say, "We hear (Allaah's commands) and we obey. (We ask) Your forgiveness, (O) our Rabb. To You is our return." (Surah Bagarah, verse 285)

When this happened, Allaah abrogated the initial decree by revealing:

إِنْ تَسِيْنَا ٱوْ ٱلْحُطَّانَا ۚ رَبَّنَا وَلَا تُحَيِّلْنَا مَالَا طَاقَةَ لَنَا بِهٖ ۚ وَاغْفُ عَنَّا وَقَفَ وَارْحَمْنَا وَقَفَهُ آتُكَ مَوْلِنَا فَانْصُرُونَا عَلَى الْقُوْمِ الْكَغِرِيْنَ ۞﴾ (سورة بغره: آب٢٦٠٣)

Allaah does not place on a soul a responsibility (duty) except what is within its capability (Allaah shall therefore not take one to task for involuntary thoughts that enter one's mind). It (every soul) shall receive to its favour that (good acts) which it had earned and to its harm shall be what (sins) it had carried out. (Say,) "O our Rabb, do not take us to task if we forget or make mistakes (do not punish us if we do wrong through forgetfulness or by mistake). Our Rabb, do not place such responsibilities (duties) on us as You had placed on those before us. Our Rabb, do not enforce on us that which we do not have the strength to bear. Overlook (our sins), forgive us and have mercy on us. You are our Protector so assist us against the nation of Kaafiroon." (Surah Bagarah, verse 286)⁽¹⁾

Hadhrat Mujaahid says that he once approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and said, "I was with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he recited a verse and started weeping," "What is the verse?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says enquired. Hadhrat Mujaahid replied that it was the verse:

Whether you make known what is in your hearts or hide it, Allaah will bring you to account for it (will remind you of it on the Day of Qiyaamah). He forgives whoever He wills and punishes whoever He wills. Allaah has control over all things (ownership, knowledge and control of everything are in Allaah's hands). (Surah Baqarah, verse 284)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas wexplained, "When this verse was revealed, it filled the Sahabah with worry and extreme anxiety. 'O Rasulullaah with they said, 'We are destroyed! While we may be taken to task for what we say and do, our hearts are beyond our control (we cannot control our thoughts).' Rasulullaah said, 'Say, 'We hear and we obey.' When they said 'We hear and we obey,' the decree was abrogated by the verse:

(سورة بقرة: آيت ١٢٨٥ (٢٨٦)

The Rasool (Muhammad (SE)) believed in that which has been revealed to him from his Rabb and (so do) the Mu'mineen. Each one believes in Allaah, His angels, His Books and His Rusul, (They say) "We make no distinction between one and another messenger (we believe in every one of them, unlike others like the Jews and the Christians who reject some prophets)," and they say, "We hear (Allaah's commands) and we obey. (We ask) Your forgiveness, (O) our Rabb. To You is our return." Allaah does not place on a soul a responsibility (duty) except what is within its capability (Allaah shall therefore not take one to task for involuntary thoughts that enter one's mind). It (every soul) shall receive to its favour that (good acts) which it had earned and to its harm shall be what (sins) it had carried out. (Surah Bagarah, verses 285, 286)

People are therefore excused for their thoughts and will be taken to task only for what they actually do." (1)

A brief narration states that Rasulullaah (advised the Sahabah (to say, "We hear, we obey and we accept". Allaah then entrenched Imaan into their hearts (2)

The Response of the Sahabah to the verse "Those who do not mix their Imaan with wrong-doing"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was narrates that it was a hard blow to the Sahabah www. when Allaah revealed the verse:

(مورة انعام: آيت) ﴿ وَكُمْ يَلْيُسُوًّا إِيْمَانَهُمْ بِظُلُم ﴾ (سورة انعام: آيت) Those who do not mix their Imaan with Dhulm (wrong-doing)... (Surah An'aam, verse 821

They repaired to Rasulullaah the thus, "Which of us does not commit Dhulm (wrongs)?" Rasulullaah (Clarified the matter saying, "It is not as you think. (Dhu)m in this context does not refer to mere wrong-doing). Luqmaan said to his son:

"O my beloved son! Do not commit Shirk Allaah. Without doubt, Shirk is the worst Dhulm. (Surah Lugmaan, verse 13)

(The word Dhulm in the verse therefore refers to Shirk and not just any sin) (3) Another narration states that when the verse:

(مرودة انعام: آيت)) (مودة انعام: آيت)) (مودة انعام: آيت)) Those who do not mix their Imaan with Dhulm (wrong-doing)... {Surah An'aam, verse 82) was revealed, Rasulullaah said, "I was told (by Allaah) that I am amongst such people." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Muslim and Ibn Jareer have reported a similar narration, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.1 Pg.338)

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim and Bukhaari.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Mardway, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.153).

The Response of the Ladies of the Sahabah when Allaah revaled the verse: "And they should wear their scarves over their Chests"

Hadhrat Safiyya bint Shaybah reports that they were once with Hadhrat Aa'isha discussing the women of the Quraysh and their virtues. Hadhrat Aa'isha remarked, "No doubt the women of the Quraysh have great virtues, but I swear by Allaah that I have not seen women better than the women of the Ansaar. They were the strongest believers in the Qur'aan and in revelation. When Allaah revealed the verse of Surah Noor:

And they should wear their scarves over their chests. {Surah Noor, verse 31} their men went to the them to recite the verse to them. Every man recited the verse to his wife, his daughter, his sister and to every Mahram of his. Every one of these women took their decorated shawls and wrapped it around themselves because of their strong faith in what Allaah has revealed in His Book. The following morning they all performed salaah behind Rasulullaah with their shawls wrapped (and protruding above their heads because of its large size) and looking as if there were crows perched on their heads." (1)

The Incident of an Old Man who had Committed many Sins and the Incident of Hadhrat Abu Farwah

Hadhrat Makhool narrates that an extremely old man whose eyebrows had actually fallen over his eyes once came and said, "O Rasulullaah (2011). There is a man who had been treacherous and sinful. There was not a passion tright or wrong) that he did not grab at with his right hand and should his sins be distributed amongst the inhabitants of the earth, they would all be destroyed. Is there any repentance for him?" "Have you accepted Islaam?" Rasulullaah asked. The old man said, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah. and I testify that Muhammad & is the servant and Rasul of Allaah." Rasulullaah W then said, "As long as you remain like this (as a Muslim), Allaah shall forgive all your treachery and sins and convert all your evils into good deeds." "O Rasulullaah : "The man said, "All my treachery and sins?" "Yes," Rasulullaah EE assured him, "all your treachery and sins." The man then left reciting "Allaahu Akbar" and "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah Muhammadur Rasulullaah" (2) Hadhrat Abu Farwah 劉德 narrates that a man once came to Rasulullaah 是是 saving, "O Rasulullaah :: Tell me about a man who had committed every type of sin and has not left any passion unfulfilled. Can he repent?" "Have you accepted Islaam?" Rasulullaah & asked. When the confirmed that he did,

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim and Abu Dawood, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.284).

Rasulullaah said, "Do good deeds and abstain from evil. Allaah will then convert them all (your past sins) into good deeds." The man said, "Even all my treachery and sins?" "Certainly," Rasulullaah sasured him. The man then continued calling out "Allaahu Akbar" until he disappeared from sight. (1)

The Incident of a Sinful Woman and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah relates, "A woman once came to me and asked, "Is there any repentance for me when I have committed adultery, given birth to a child and then killed it?" 'Not at all!' I cried out, 'Neither can you expect and goodness or honour.' She then got up (and left) with deep remorse. After performing the Fajr salaah behind Rasulullaah . I related to him what the lady had said and what reply I gave her. Rasulullaah said, 'Your reply was a terrible one indeed! Do you not recite the verse:

﴿ وَالَّذِيْنَ لَا يَدْعُونَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهَا احْرَوَلَا يَفْتُلُونَ النَّفْسَ الَّتِي حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا يَزُنُونَ * وَمَنْ يَقْعَلُ ذَلِكَ يَلْقَ آثَامًا ۞ يَّطْعَفْ لَهُ الْعَدَابُ يَوْمَ الْفِيئَةِ وَيَخُلُدُ فِنْهِ مُهَانًا ۞ إِلَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَامَنَ وَعَمِلَ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا فَأُولَبَكَ يُبَدِّلَ اللَّهُ سَيِّاتِهِمْ حَسَنْتٍ * وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَمُوزًا رَّحِيْمًا ۞ (سورة الفرنان: آبده تا ٧٠)

(Ar Rahmaan's bondsmen are) Those who do not call to (do not worship) another Ilaah with Allaah, who only kill a soul forbidden by Allaah with a warrant (when required to execute a person whom a court of Shari'ah sentences to death), and (they are those) who do not fornicate. Whoever commits these (sins of Shirk, murder, adultery or fornication) shall meet with a grave punishment. (In fact,) Punishment will be multiplied for him on the Day of Qiyaamah and he shall remain disgraced in it (punishment) forever. Except for those who (sincerely) repent, accept Imaan and perform good actions. For such people Allaah will convert their sins into good deeds. Allaah is Ever Most Forgiving, Most Merciful, {Surah Furqaan, verses 68-70}

When I then recited these verses to the woman, she fell down in Sajdah saying, "All praise belongs to Allaah Who has created an escape for me," (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.328).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim

child and proceeded to repent sincerely to Allaah. (1)

The Response of Rasulullaah  s Poets when Allaah Revealed the verse: "Only deviant people follow the poets"

Hadhrat Abul Hasan the freed slave of Hadhrat Tameem Daari (1996) narrates that when the verse:

Only deviant people follow the poets. (Surah Shu'araa, verse 224) was revealed, Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thaabit (1986), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (1986) and Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik (1986) all came weeping to Rasulullaah (1986). They said, "Allaah knew well that we are all poets when he revealed this verse (the verse therefore refers to us)." Rasulullaah (1986) then recited the verse:

Except those who have Imaan, who do good acts...

"That is you," Rasulullaah 🕮 said.

...who remember Allaah abundantly ...

"That is also you," Rasulullaah 1994 said.

...and who avenge themselves after being oppressed (by counteracting the satirical poetry that the Kuffaar direct at Islaam with poetry of their own). (Surah Shu'araa, verse 227)

"And that is also you," Rasulullaah (said (you men are therefore excluded from the deviant poets). (2)

The Longing to Meet Allaah and Dislike to Meet Him

Hadhrat Ataa bin Saa'ib narrates that the first time he saw Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla was when he saw an old man with white hair and a white beard following a funeral procession on his donkey. He was narrating from someone else that Rasulullaah was said, "Whoever loves Allaah, Allaah loves to meet him and whoever dislikes meeting Allaah, Allaah dislikes meeting him." When the people present there started to weep, he asked, "What makes you all weep?" They replied, "We dislike death." "That is not what is meant," he explained, "what is meant is that when a person is about to die, he will like to meet Allaah when (by the angels) he is given the good news of:

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 3 Pg. 328).

⁽²⁾ the is'haaq, Ibn Abi Haatim and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in the Taiseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.354). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.488) has reported a similar narration.

﴿ فَأَمَّا إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُقَرِّينَ ۞ فَرَوحٌ وَّرَيْحَانٌ أَهْ وَّجَنَّتُ نَعِيْمٍ ﴾ (سورة واقعه: آيت ٨٨٠ ٨٨٠)

Therefore, if someone was from among those brought close (to Allaah) he shall have comfort, sustenance and the Jannaat of bliss. (Surah Waaqi'ah, verses 88.89)

At the same time, Allaah loves to meet him even more. On the other hand, he dislikes meeting Allaah and Allaah dislikes meeting him even more when he is told:

However, if he was among the rejecters and deviated ones, he will be served boiling water and shall enter the blazing fire. (Surah Waaqi'ah, verses 92-94)(1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Weeps when Allaah reveals the verse: "When the earth shall quake most violently"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas 劉德德 narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq 劉德德 was sitting somewhere and started weeping excessively when Allaah revealed the verse:

When the earth shall quake most violently. {Surah Zilzaal, verse 1}
"What makes you weep so, O Abu Bakr?" Rasulullaah as asked. "It is this Surah that makes me weep," Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied. Rasulullaah si then said, "If you people were such that you neither erred nor sinned so that Allaah could forgive you, Allaah would create a nation that errs and sins just so that He could forgive them." (2)

Rasulullaah About what would Happen in the Grave

Hadhrat Umar reports that Rasulullaah once said to him, "O Umar! What would be your condition when you are in a piece of ground measuring four arm's lengths by two arm's lengths and when you see Munkar and Nakeer?" "O Rasulullaah replied, "They are the two examiners in the grave. They will dig the grave open with their canines and approach treading on their (extremely long) hairs. Their voices will be like devastating thunderclaps and their eyes like blinding lightning. They will both be carrying hammers so large that all the people of Mina are unable to even lift, yet for them it will be as easy as carrying this staff." Rasulullaah then shook a little staff that he had in his hand. They will then examine you. Should you fail to answer or delay, they will strike you with their hammers and reduce you to dust." Hadhrat Umar then asked, "O Rasulullaah will be in the condition I am in now (in control of my senses)?" When Rasulullaah replied in the affirmative, Hadhrat Umar the said, "In that case, I shall be able to handle them." (1) Another narration adds that Rasulullaah then said to Hadhrat Umar that swear by the Being Who has sent me with the truth that Jibra'eel has just informed me that when the two of them come to you and pose the questions, you will say to them, 'Allaah is my Rabb, who is yours? Muhammad is my Nabi, who is yours? Islaam is my Deen, what is yours? They will then both exclaim, "How strange! We do not know whether we have been sent to you (question) or whether you have been sent to (question) us!"(2)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.301).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.540).

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar Concerning the Strength of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Abul Bahriyya Kindi narrates that Hadhrat Umar Wass once came out of his home and found a gathering in which Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan Was present. Referring to Hadhrat Uthmaan Wass, he said to the people, "You have amongst you a man whose Imaan is such that if it is distributed amongst an entire army, it would suffice for them all." (3)

Words of the Sahabah (Sahabah that have Already Been Quoted about the Strength of Imaan

In the chapter discussing the attributes of the Sahabah (14), the narration has already passed in which it is stated that when someone once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (15) if the Sahabah (15) ever laughed, he replied, "Yes. However, the Imaan in their hearts still remained firmer than mountains."

Already quoted in the chapter discussing how the Sahabah will bore hardships (5), is the statement of Hadhrat Ammaar will who said, "I find that my heart is content with Imaan." This he said after the Mushrikeen forced him to praise their gods and Rasulullaah will asked him, "How is the condition of your heart?" (6)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood in his Ba'th, Abu Sheikh in his Sunnah, Haakim in his Kuna, Bayhaqi in his Kitaabu Adhaabil Qabr. Isfahaani in his Hujjah and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.121). Sa'eed bin Mansoor has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Abdul Waahid Maqdasi in his book At-Tabseer, as quoted in Riyaadhun Nudhrah (Vol.2 Pg.34).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.8), ⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "Statements of the Sahabah (Concerning Their Qualities".

⁽⁵⁾ Under the heading "Hadhral Ammaar bin Yaasir Sales and his Family Members Endures Hardships and Difficulties" and the subheading "Hadhrat Ammaar Sales is Tortured Until he is Forced to Utter Words of Kufr While his Heart was Content with Imaan".

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Jareer and Bayhaqi, as quoted in the Taiseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.587).

In the chapter discussing the appointment of a Khalifah, the words of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Simon have passed, who said, "Are you scaring me with my Rabb? My prayer is, 'O Allaah! I have appointed the best of them to be my successor:" In another narration he said, "I know Allaah and Umar better than you."

Also passed⁽¹⁾ were the words of Hadhrat Umar when he decided to distribute all the funds in the state treasury and someone advised him to keep some behind in case an enemy attacks or for any other emergency. He said, "It is Shaytaan speaking with your tongue. Allaah has inspired me with the response and I swear by Allaah that I shall never disobey Him today for the emergencies of tomorrow. I shall not (do as you say) but shall rather prepare for the Muslims that which Rasulullaah what had prepared for them (obedience to Allaah and Rasulullaah "Another narration states that he said, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never disobey Him today for the emergencies of tomorrow."

Yet another narration quotes him as follows: "I have prepared Taqwa as a defence for the Muslim." Allaah mentions:

Allaah shall create an escape (from difficulties) for the one who fears (disobeying) Allaah (one who has Tagwa) and shall provide for him (what he requires) from sources that he never expected (to receive provisions from). (Surah Talaaq, verses 2,3)

In the chapter discussing the fervour of the Sahabah (1996) to spend in the path of Allaah, the words of Hadhrat Ali (1996) are quoted thus: "The Imaan of a person cannot be true until he has more trust in that which is in Allaah's hands than that which is in his hands." This he said when he wanted to spend on a beggar and Hadhrat Faatima (1996) said, "You had left the six Dirhams to purchase flour." (2)

Also quoted were the word of Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah $3566 who said, "I have no need for your land because today a Surah has been revealed that makes us oblivious of this world:

Peoples' reckoning (the Day of Ojyaamah) has drawn near, yet (failing to take heed) they are turning away in negligence. (Surah Ambiyaa, verse $\S^{(3)}$

The words of Hadhrat Aa'isha was have also been quoted (4) when she said, "Usayd bin Hudhayr was amongst the best of people. He would always say, 'I have no doubts about being amongst the inhabitants of Jannah if I could

⁽¹⁾ Under the heading "Hadhrat Umar $2556 and Hadhrat Ali $2566 Distribute Everything in the Baytul Maal".

⁽²⁾ Under the heading "The fervour that Rasulullaah (2) and the Sahabah (2) and to Spend in the Path of Allaah" and the subheading "The Incident of Hadhrat All (2) and a Beggar".

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah SDESS Refuses Land" and the subheading "The Incident with another Arab".

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "Imaan (Belief) in What is to Happen in the Grave and the Existence of Barzakh" and the subheading "Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr $1200 Longs to be in One of three Conditions".

remain in one of three conditions. (Firstly) The condition when I am reciting Qur'aan or listening to it being recited, (secondly) the condition when I am listening to Rasulullaah (SE's sermon and (thirdly) the condition when I am present at a funeral. At every funeral I have been, I have thought about nothing other than what will become of the deceased or where it is heading. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

Chapter Twelve

The Chapter Concerning the Sahabah Getting Together for salaah

This chapter highlights how Nabi and the Sahabah gathered together in the Masjid for salaah, how great was their fervour for this, how they encouraged others to do the same and how they understood that as they proceeded from salaah to salaah, they were required to allow their lives to progress from one command of Allaah to another. It also highlights how they forsook their occupations to do the acts Allaah had commanded, which contributed to the strength of their imaan and the features of their Imaan. The chapter also tells us how they spread their knowledge together with the deeds linked to knowledge, how they added life to Dhikr and made du'aa with all its requirements for acceptance. They therefore never turned their attention towards the apparent means and took no benefit except from the Creator of these means and the One Who controls them.

The Encouragement Nabi gave for Salaah

The Narrations of Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Salmaan

Hadhrat Haarith who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Uthmaan when the Mu'adhin arrived (to call out the Adhaan). Hadhrat Uthmaan when the Mu'adhin arrived (to call out the Adhaan). Hadhrat Uthmaan when asked for a utensil which the narrator estimates contained approximately a Mudd of water. After performing wudhu, he said, "I saw Rasulullaah performing wudhu just as I have performed it and then say, 'Whoever performs a wudhu like this and then stands up to perform the Zuhr salaah, all his sins between the Fajr salaah and Zuhr salaah are forgiven. When he then performs the Asr salaah, all his sins between the Zuhr salaah and Asr salaah are forgiven. Thereafter, when he performs the Maghrib salaah, all his sins between the Asr salaah, all his sins between the Maghrib salaah and Isha salaah are also forgiven. He may then pass the night in sin, but if he wakes up, performs wudhu and then the Fajr salaah, all his sins between the Isha salaah and Fajr salaah are forgiven. These salaahs are the good that wipe out sins(1) "

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan reports that he was once with Hadhrat Salmaan beneath a tree when Hadhrat Salmaan caught hold of a dry branch and shook it until its leaves all fell off. "O Abu Uthmaan!" he said, "Will you not ask me why I did that?" "Why did you do that?" Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan asked. Hadhrat Salmaan show replied, "This is exactly what Rasulullaah at did when I was once standing with him beneath a tree. He took hold of a dry branch and shook it until its leaves all fell off. 'O Salmaan!' he said, "Will you not ask me why I did that?" Why did you do that?" I asked. Rasulullaah explained, "When a Muslim performs wudhu properly and performs his five salaahs, his sins fall off him just as these leaves have fallen.' Rasulullaah explained the verse:

Establish salaah at the two ends of the day (with Fajr salaah and Zuhr salaah at the one end and Asr salaah and Maghrib salaah at the other) and during portions of the night (the Isha salaah). Verily good deeds (such as the five Fardh salaah) wipe out evil acts. This is advice to those who will take heed. (Surah Hood, verse 114) (4)

The Incident of Two Brothers who Passed away, One as a Martyr and the Other some time Later

Hadhrat Aamir the son of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas narrates that he heard his father and other Sahabah for narrate that two brothers lived during the time of Rasulullaah for the one who was the better of the two died a martyr while the other lived some after him before also passing away (forty days later (5)). When someone mentioned to Rasulullaah for that the one was a better person (who carried out more good deeds), Rasulullaah for asked, "Was he not performing salaah?" When the Sahabah for confirmed that the person was performing salaah, Rasulullaah for remarked, "You have no idea where his salaahs (after the demise of his brother) may have taken him." It was on this occasion that Rasulullaah for salaah is like a deep and pure river running by the door of a person. When he bathes in it five times a

⁽I) As referred to in verse 114 of Surah Hood where Allaah says, "Verily good deeds wipe out evil acts." (2) As referred to in verse 46 of Surah Kahaf.

⁽a) Ahimad, Abu Ya'la and Bazzaar, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tatheeb (Vol.1 Pg.203), Haythaml (Vol.1 Pg.297) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, Nasa'ee and Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.201).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat.

day, do you think that any dirt can remain on his body?" (1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah rarrates that two men from the Baliy branch of the Qudhaa'a tribe accepted Islaam at the hands of Rasulullaah will while the one was martyred, the other lived another year (after which he passed away naturally). It was Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah will who saw in a dream that the one who passed away later entered Jannah before the martyr. Surprised at this, he or someone else reported it to Rasulullaah will the next morning. Rasulullaah we explained, "Did he not fast a Ramadhaan after the other and perform six thousand odd more Rakaahs of salaah in the year afterwards?" (2) Another narration adds that the difference in their stages was as large as the distance between the heavens and the earth. (3)

Rasulullaah ÆÆ tells a Sahabi that his Salaah is Compensation for his Sin

Hadhrat Ali was narrates that they were once with Rasulullaah in the Masjid when a man stood up and said, "O Rasulullaah is i I have committed a sin." Rasulullaah is ignored him and after the salaah was complete, the man again stood up and repeated himself. Rasulullaah is asked him, "Did you not perform the salaah with us after making a proper wudhu?" When the man replied that he had, Rasulullaah is said, "That is then compensation for your sin." (4)

Rasulullaah ses Reply to a man who asked Him about the Best of all Deeds

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr in arrates that a man once asked Rasulullaah what the best of all deeds was. "Salaah," Rasulullaah in replied. "What then?" the man asked. Again Rasulullaah is said that it was salaah. For the third time the man repeated the question and again Rasulullaah is told him that it was salaah. When he repeated the question too often, Rasulullaah is said, "Jihaad in the path of Allaah." "But I have parents," the man said. "Then," Rasulullaah is said, "I instruct you to treat your parents well." Thereafter the man said, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you as a Nabi with the truth that I shall fight in Jihaad and leave them." To this, Rasulullaah is said, "You know best (that they have someone else to serve them while you are away)." (5)

Rasulullaah tells a man who has Fulfilled the Pillars of Islaam that he is From Amongst the Siddeeqeen and the Martyrs

Hadhrat Amr bin Murra Juhani narrates that a man once said, "O Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 1 Pg.297). Maalik, Nasa'ee and Ibn Khuzaymah have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Targheeb wet Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.206).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.208).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Maajah and Ibn Hibbaan.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.301) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.301) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Hibbaan has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.211).

E! Tell me in which category of people I will belong if I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, that you are the Rasul of Allaah and if I perform my five salaahs, pay my zakaah, fast in Ramadhaan and perform (Nafl) salaah during Ramadhaan?" Rasulullaah E replied, "You shall be amongst the Siddeeqeen and the martyrs." (1)

Rasulullaah Emphasises the Performing of Salaah Even on his Deathbed

Hadhrat Anas saws, "What Rasulullaah are emphasised most on his deathbed was, '(Take good care of your) Salaah and your slaves.' In fact, he was saying these words even when his soul had reached his throat and he was unable to say them clearly." (2)

Another narration states that what Rasulullaah (### emphasised most on his deathbed was, "(Take good care of your) Salaah and your slaves" until his breath was caught in his chest and he was unable to bring the words to his tongue." (3) Hadhrat Ali (### relates, "Rasulullaah (### instructed me to bring him a slate to write down something that his Ummah should never forget after his demise. Fearing that he would pass away (before I could bring it), I said, "(Tell it to me and) I shall memorise it well." He said, "I wish to emphasise (that my Ummah take good care of their) salaah, zakaah and their slaves." (4)

Another similar narration adds that Hadhrat Ali sizes said, "Rasulullaah setthen emphasised the performing of salaah, the paying of zakaah and kind treatment of slaves until his soul departed. It was also right up to the departure of his soul that he also emphasised the reciting of the Shahaadah that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad set is the servant and Rasul of Allaah. He also mentioned that the fire of Jahannam is forbidden for the person who testifies to these two beliefs (contained in the Shahaadah." (5)

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Ali (Sais) states that the last words of Rasulullaah (Guard your) Salaah! (Guard your) Salaah! Fear Allaah with regard to your slaves." (6)

The Encouragement the Sahabah @@@@ gave for Salaah

The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar Concerning Salaah

Hadhrat Abu Bakr www once said, "It is by performing salaah that a person

- (i) Ibn Khuzaymah and Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.200).
- (2) Bayhaql, Nasa'ce and Ibn Maajah.
- (3) Ahmad.
- (4) Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.238).
- (5) Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 2 Pg. 243).
- (6) Ahmad, Bukhaari in his Adah, Abu Dawood, Ibn Maajah, Ibn Jareer. Abu Ya'la and Bayhaqli, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 180).

secures Allaah's protection on earth," (1)

Hadhrat Abu Maleeh reports that he heard Hadhrat Umar Exists say from the pulpit. "There can be no Islaam in the person who does not perform salaah."(2)

The Statements of Hadhrat Zaid (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (Concerning Salaah) Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit (for the house). As a person stands in salaah, his sins stand suspended above his head and they are erased each time he prostrates." (3) Hadhrat Hudhayfah (When a person performs wudhu properly and then stands for salaah, Allaah turns towards him and converses with him. Allaah then does not turn away from him until the person himself turns away or turns towards the right or left." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (5) said, "Salaah is an extremely virtuous deed and I care not who joins me in it." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr Six said, "Whenever a Muslim goes to an elevated location or to a Masjid built of stone and performs salaah there, the ground says, 'Salaah has been performed for Allaah on His ground. (O person!) I shall testify on your behalf the day you meet Allaah." (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr salas narrates that when a cyst developed on Hadhrat Aadam salas neck, he performed salaah. This made the cyst fall to his chest. When he again performed salaah, the cyst dropped to his hip and then to his ankle when he performed salaah yet again. After performing salaah again, the cyst moved to his toe and then finally left his body when he performed salaah once more. (7)

Some Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (See), Hadhrat Salmaan (See) and Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (See) Concerning Salaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood sies said, "You are knocking at the King's (Allaah's) door as long as you are performing salaah and the door of the King opens to whoever knocks." (8)

Another narration states that he said, "Stack your needs on the Fardh salaahs

¹⁾ Hakeem

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 180).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq.

⁽⁴⁾ Abdur Razzaaq

⁽⁵⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.181).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Asaakir

⁽⁷⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.181).

⁽⁸⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (vol.1 Pg.130).

(pray after these salaahs for them to be fulfilled)."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Singles) also said, "The salaahs compensate for all sins committed between them as long as major sins are avoided," (1)

He also said, "Salaah compensates for the sins committed after them. Hadhrat Aadam with once developed a cyst on his toe that went up to his foot and then further to his knee. Thereafter, it travelled further to the base of his hips and then to the base of his neck. He then performed salaah, causing it to fall to his shoulders. When he again performed salaah, the cyst dropped to his hip and then to his knee when he performed salaah yet again. After performing salaah again, the cyst moved to his foot and then finally left his body when he performed salaah once more." (2)

Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi (Si) said, "When a person stands up to perform salaah, his sins are raised above his head and by the time he completes his salaah, they fall away from him just as the fronds of a palm fall to the right and left " (3)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Salmaan (Mission once said, "As a person stands in salaah, his sins are all gathered above his head. They then fall off each time he prostrates just as leaves fall off a tree." (4)

Hadhrat Taarig bin Shihaab narrates that he once spent the night with Hadhrat Salmaan to observe how he exerted himself (in Ibaadah). Hadhrat Salmaan was however woke up only in the last portion of the night (to perform Tahajjud) and Hadhrat Taariq therefore did not see what he had expected the expected that Hadhrat Salmaan would spend the entire night in (baadah). When this was mentioned to Hadhrat Salmaan 劉輝德, he remarked. "Guard the five (Fardh) salaahs well because they compensate for all one's sins as long as major sins were not perpetrated (which are forgiven only after Taubah). At night people are divided into three categories. There are those who have good to their credit and no sin to their detriment. Then there are those who have no good to their credit and only sin to their detriment. Finally, there are those who have neither good to their credit nor sin to their detriment. The person who exploits the negligence of the people and the darkness of the night to stand in salaah until the morning is the one with good to his credit and no sin to his detriment. As for the person who exploits the negligence of the people and the darkness of the night to immerse his head in sin is the one with no good to his credit but only sin to his detriment. Then there is the person who goes to sleep immediately after performing his Isha salaah (without getting up to perform the Tahajjud salaah). This is the person with neither good to his credit nor sin to his detriment. Beware of exerting yourself so much (in Ibaadah) that you are unable to cope (and continue). Ensure that you always adopt moderation and

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaau.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.181).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Zanjway.

constancy." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari said, "(By committing sins) We are constantly burning ourselves up but when we perform the Fardh salaah, our sins are compensated for. When we again burn ourselves up, the salaah we perform again compensates for the sins committed before it." (2)

Rasulullaah si s Fervour for Salaah and the Extreme Importance he Gave to it

Rasulullaah says that The Coolness of his Eyes is in Salaah and the Remark of Hadhrat Jibra'eel

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik (1986) narrates that Rasulullaah (1986) once said, "Perfume and women have been made beloved to me and the coolness of my eyes (my source of comfort and joy) has been kept in salaah." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sizes narrates that Hadhrat Jibra'eel (1984) once said to Rasulullaah (1984), "Salaah has been made beloved to you, so take from it as much as you please." (4)

Rasulullaah says, "My Passion is for Standing in salaah at Night"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates Nabi was once sitting with the Sahabah in around him when he said, "Allaah has given every Nabi was a yearning for something and my yearning is for standing in (Tahajjud) salaah at night. Therefore, when I stand up for salaah (at night), none of you should ever follow me. Allaah has also created a means of income for every Nabi was and my source of income is the Khums (a fifth of the spoils of war). When I pass away, it will go to the leaders (of the Muslims) after me." (5)

Statements of the Sahabah (Concerning Rasulullaah (See's salaah at Night Hadhrat Anas (The narrates that Rasulullah) (Fig. used to stand so long in (Tahajjud) salaah that his feet would swell. Another narration states that his calves would swell. Someone asked him, "Has Allaah not forgiven all your past and future mistakes (then why do you exert yourself so)?" Rasulullaah (Fig. 18) replied, "Should I then not be a grateful servant?" (6)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 劉晓影 also narrates that Rasulullaah 認識 used to stand

Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.181). Tabraani has reported a similar narration in his Kabeer from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.300).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.182).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Nasalee.

⁽⁴⁾ Altmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.58). Tabraani has reported a similar narration in his Kabeer but Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.270) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.271) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.36). Abu Ya'ia, Bazzaar and Tabraani have all reported a similar narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.271).

so long in (Tahajjud) salaah that his feet would swell. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sies) also reports that Rasulullaah (Sies) used to stand so long in (Tahajjud) salaah at night that his feet would swell. The rest of the narration is as quoted above. (2)

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer (Sie in arrates that Rasulullaah (Sie used to stand so long in (Tahajjud) salaah that his feet would cut (after becoming extremely chapped). The rest of the narration is as quoted above. (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Rasulullaah wu used to stand so long in (Tahajjud) salaah at night that his feet would rupture. I said to him, 'O Rasulullaah wu Why do you do this when Allaah has forgiven all your past and future mistakes?' He replied, 'Should I then not be a grateful servant?''(4) The same has been reported from Hadhrat Mughiera (5) and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (6)

Hadhrat Anas Sass says, "Rasulullaah sass used to exert himself so much in Ibaadah that he became like an old water bag. 'O Rasulullaah sast the Sahabah said, 'What makes you do this? Has Allaah not forgiven all your past and future mistakes?' He replied, 'Of course! Should I then not be a grateful servant?"(7)

Hadhrat Humayd narrates that when Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik was once questioned about the salaah Rasulullaah we performed at night, he replied, "The times we wanted to see Rasulullaah we performing salaah at night, we would see him and the times we wanted to see him asleep, we also saw him (he would spend part of the night in salaah and also sleep). There were times when he fasted so often during the month that we would think he will now not stop fasting. Then there were also times when he would not fast for so long that we would think he would now not fast at all (that month)," (8)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sies) relates, "I followed Rasululiaah (Sies) in salaah one night and he remained standing so long that I contemplated doing something terrible." "What was it that you contemplated?" the people asked. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sies) replied, "I actually contemplated sitting down and leaving." (9)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Sies) narrates that Rasulullaah (Sies) once stood the entire night until dawn (in salaah) reciting the verse:

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.271). Tabraani has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah (1996).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Sagheer and Awsat.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.271).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽⁵⁾ Riyaadh (Pg.429).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Najjaar.

⁽⁷⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.36).

⁽⁸⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim.

⁽⁹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vo).6 Pg.58).

If You punish them, then verily they are Your slaves (and You are at liberty to treat them as You please), and if You forgive them, then surely You are the Mighty, the Wise (and Your reason for doing so is filled with wisdom). (Surah Maa'idah, verse 118)⁽¹⁾

Hadhrat Anas (See narrates that Rasulullaah (See was injured one day. The following morning, someone remarked, "O Rasulullaah (See I The effect of the injury is still clearly noticeable on you." Rasulullaah (See Said, "Despite that, I recited seven lengthy Surahs last night." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Hudhayfah with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Hudhayfah Saws, "I performed salaah behind Rasulullaah one night and when he commenced with Surah Bagarah, I said to myself that he would proceed into Ruku after completing a hundred verses. When he carried on (after a hundred), I told myself that he would complete the Surah in two Rakaahs. However, when he still continued, I anticipated that he would complete the Surah and then proceed into Ruku. (After competing Surah Bagarah) Rasulullaah will however then started reciting Surah Nisaa and after completing it, he commenced Surah Aal Imraan. Rasulullaah 愛麗 recited unhurriedly. Whenever he recited a verse mentioning Tasbeeh, he recited Tasbeeh, when he passed a verse speaking of asking from Allaah, he asked from Allaah and when he passed a verse speaking of seeking Allaah's protection, he sought Allaah's protection. Thereafter, Rasulullaah المُنْحَانُ رَبِي proceeded into Ruku, in which he recited, المُنْحَانُ رَبِي (Subhaana Rabbiyal Adheem'). The time he took for Ruku was almost as long as the time he spent standing. Thereafter, he said, (سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمُنْ حَمِدُهُ) (Sami Allaahu Liman Hamidah') and stood up (from Ruku). The time he remained standing was almost as long as the time he spent in Ruku, after which he proceeded into Sajdah. In Sajdah, he recited (سُبْحَانَ رَبِي الْأَعْلَى) Subhaana Rabbiyal A'laa) and the time he took in Sajdah was almost as long as the time he spent standing." (3)

Hadhrat Hudhayfah relates, "I once came to Rasulullaah as he was busy performing salaah and I joined him in salaah at the back without him knowing. When he started Surah Baqarah, I thought that he would soon proceed into Ruku, but he continued (reciting even after completing the Surah). Rasulullaah went on to perform four Rakaahs with the Ruku being as long as the standing posture. When I mentioned this to Rasulullaah he he said, "Why did you not let me know (that you were behind me)?" I said, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you as a Nabi we with the truth that even now I can feel the strain in my back." Rasulullaah remarked, "Had I known that you were behind me, I would have shortened the salaah."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.6 Pg.58).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.274).

⁽³⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.1 Pg.75).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.275) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning Rasulullaah 'S Recitation of Our'aan in Salaah

When it was reported to Hadhrat Aa'isha (25%) that some people completed a recitation of the Qur'aan once or twice in a single night, she remarked, "Although those people have recited the Qur'aan, they have actually not done so. I used to stand in salaah with Rasulullaah (25%) the entire night and he would recite (only) Surah Baqarah, Surah Al Imraan and Surah Nisaa. Whenever he passed a verse containing a warning, he would pray to Allaah and seek protection, Similarly, whenever he passed a verse giving glad tidings, he would pray to Allaah and look forward to it." (1)

Rasulullaah Kasa Issues the Command during his Illness that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Kasa should Lead the people in Salaah

Hadhrat Aswad reports that they were once with Hadhrat Aa'isha when they spoke about the importance of salaah and constancy in performing it. Hadhrat Aa'isha was then said, "When Rasulullaah was suffering the illness that claimed his life, the time for salaah arrived and Bilaal was called out the Adhaan. Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in salaah, Rasulullaah was instructed. One of Rasulullaah was swives remarked, 'Abu Bakr is a soft man who will be unable lead the salaah when he stands in your place.' Rasulullaah was however repeated the instruction, but again met with the same response. When this happened a third time, Rasulullaah was said, 'You women are just like the women around Yusuf was.' Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in salaah.'

Abu Bakr when stepped forward (to lead the salaah) and, feeling a bit better, Rasulullaah we came out of his room with the support of two men. I can still picture his feet leaving lines on the ground (as he was dragging them, too weak to lift them) because of the severity of his illness. (Seeing Rasulullaah we indicated to him to remain where he was. Rasulullaah was then brought to sit beside Abu Bakr was."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "I continuously repeated myself to Rasulullaah (Krying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to convince him not to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to someone else." I said (trying to appoint Abu Bakr to appoint Abu Bakr

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha was states that she said, "O

⁽i) Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.272) has commented on the chain of narrators. (2) Bukhaari.

Rasulullaah Assi Abu Bakr is extremely soft-hearted and cannot control his tears when he recites the Qur'aan. Why don't you command someone else (to lead the salaah in your place)?" Hadhrat Aa'isha Assi Says, "By Allaah! The only thing that made me say this was my dislike that people should regard the first person to stand in Rasulullaah Assi splace as a bad omen. I therefore repeated myself to Rasulullaah two or three times, but he insisted saying, 'Abu Bakr should lead the people in salaah. You women are just like the women around Yusuf Assi "(1)

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Abdullaah narrates that he once went to Hadhrat Aa'isha with the request, "Will you not tell me about the (final) illness of Rasulullaah 震笑?" "Certainly," she obliged, "When Rasulullaah 震響 illness became severe, he asked, 'Have the people performed their salaah?' 'No, we replied, 'they are waiting for you, O Rasulullaah :: He then asked us to pour water for him in a basin and when we did so, he took a bath. However, as he tried to stand up, he fell unconscious. When he recovered, he again asked, 'Have the people performed their salaah?' 'No,' we replied, 'they are waiting for you, O Rasulullaah (26). He again asked us to pour water for him in a basin and when we did so, he took another bath. As he tried to stand up, he again fell unconscious. After recovering, Rasulullaah see asked yet again whether the people had performed their salaah? 'No,' we replied, 'they are still waiting for you, O Rasulullaah (He then asked us to pour water for him in a basin and when we did so, he took a bath. However, as he tried to stand up, he fell unconscious. When he recovered, he asked once more, 'Have the people performed their salaah?' 'No,' we replied, 'they are waiting for you, O Rasulullaah 356. The people were patiently seated in the Masjid awaiting Rasulullaah (## s arrival for the Isah salaah. Rasulullaah 認識 then sent a message to Abu Bakr 温暖鏡 to lead the salaah. Abu Bakr www was a soft person so he said to Umar was, 'You lead the salaah, O Umar!' Umar was however said, 'You are more worthy of the privilege.' Abu Bakr with then led the salaah during those days." The narration goes on to speak about how Rasulullaah E came out of his room afterwards, as mentioned in the narration above. (2)

The Happiness of the Muslims when they Saw Rasulullaah Looking at them as Hadhrat Abu Bakr Led the Salaah

Hadhrat Anas (Abu Bakr (Ab

⁽¹⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg. 232).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.233), Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.151) and Ibn Abi Shaybah have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.59), as has Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.218).

fulfilling Allaah's command as a united Ummah). We were on the verge of breaking our salaah out of our sheer joy at seeing Rasulullaah . Thinking that Rasulullaah . Thinking was coming out for salaah, Abu Bakr . See stepped back into the (first) row but Rasulullaah . Indicated to us that we should complete the salaah. Rasulullaah . Then dropped the curtain. It was on that very day that Rasulullaah . Passed away."

In another narration, Hadhrat Anas Says, "Rasulullaah Add did not come out of his room for three days. (On Monday) When the Iqaamah was called out and Abu Bakr Says, stepped forward to lead the salaah, Rasulullaah age gave the instruction for the curtain (between his room and the Masjid) to be lifted. When the curtain was lifted and Rasulullaah age's face became visible to us, there was nothing that pleased us so much as to look at his face. Rasulullaah and indicated to Abu Bakr Says to step forward (to lead the salaah) and the curtain was then dropped. Until he passed away (that day), Rasulullaah age was unable to this again." (2)

The Fervour the Sahabah His had for Salaah and the Extreme Importance They Gave to it

Hadhrat Umar is Roused from his Coma with the Announcement of Salaah

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhramah Freports, "I went to see Umar When he was covered in a sheet (and still in a coma after he had been attacked). 'How is he?' I asked. 'Just as you see him (he has not yet roused from his coma),' the others replied. I then said, 'Rouse him with salaah because there is nothing as effective in rousing him as salaah.' The others then called out, 'Salaah, O Ameerul Mu'mineen!' 'What!' Hadhrat Umar Said with a start, 'By Allaah! I will then have to perform it. There is no part in Islaam for the person who does not perform his salaah.' He then performed his salaah even though blood was flowing from his wound." (3)

Another narration from Hadhrat Miswar states that after Hadhrat Umar was stabbed, he fell into a coma. Someone said, "If he is still alive, you will not be able to rouse him with anything more effective in jolting him than with salaah." Someone then said, "Salaah, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! The time for salaah has already set in!" Hadhrat Umar regained consciousness and said, "What! Salaah!? By Allaah! I will then have to perform it. There is no part in Islaam for the person who does not perform his salaah." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari.

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.235). Abu Ya'la, Ibn Asaakir, Ibn Khuzaymah and Ahmad have reported similar narrations, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.57) and Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.5 Pg.181). Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.152) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.216) have also reported similar narrations.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.) Pg.295).

^{(4) 1}bn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.350)

Hadhrat Uthmaan Spends the whole night reciting the entire Qur'aan in a single Rakaah of salaah

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Miskeen narrates that when the rebels surrounded the house of Hadhrat Uthmaan (1986), his wife said to them, "You wish to assassinate him?! Whether you kill him or leave him, he spends the whole night reciting the entire Our aan in a single Rakaah of salaah."

Another narration states that when the rebels assassinated Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (1996), his wife said, "You have killed him when he was a man who spent the whole night reciting the entire Qur'aan in a single Rakaah of salaah!" (2)

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abdur Rahmaan Taymi reports that his father said, "I once told myself that: would ensure that I was the only one to stand in Ibaadah by the Maqaam Ibraheem one night. Therefore, after performing the Isha salaah, I had the Maqaam to myself as I stood there. As I was standing there, someone placed their hand on my shoulder. It was Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Surah Faatiha) and continued reciting until he had completed the entire Qur'aan. Thereafter, he performed Ruku and Sajdah (completed the second Rakaah) and then took his shoes (and left). I cannot however recall whether he had performed any other salaah before that or not." (3) Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abdur Rahmaan Taymi relates, "I saw Hadhrat Uthmaan Step forward to the Maqaam Ibraheem one night where he recited the entire Qur'aan in a single Rakaah before leaving." (4)

Hadhrat Ataa bin Abi Rabaah reports that after leading the people in salaah, Hadhrat Uthmaan would stand behind the Maqaam Ibraheem where he would recite the entire Qur'aan in a single Rakaah of his Witrsalaah. (5)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen would stand in salaah all night in which he would complete the entire Qur'aan in a single Rakaah. (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Refuses to Forego standing in salaah for Treating his Blindness

Hadhrat Musayyib bin Raafi narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas became blind, a man came to him saying, "If you are able to restrain yourself from (standing and) performing salaah for seven days, I shall be able to treat you and Insha Allaah cure you. You may however perform salaah while lying down and making gestures." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas sent for Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.94). Abu Nu'aym has reported a similar narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.57).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.57).
(3) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.56).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Mubaarak in his Zund, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ibn Munee, Tahaawi, Daar Qutni and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.9).

⁽⁵⁾

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.75), as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.9).

opinions from various Sahabah (2) of Rasulullaah (2) including Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966) and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1966). The message from all of them was: "What will you do with your salaah if you happen to die during the seven days?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1) therefore forsook the treatment. Another narration states that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas will lost his evesight, someone offered to treat him on condition that he does not perform salaah for few days. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was said, "Never (I cannot forsake salaah). Rasulullaah sa said that the person who does not perform salaah will meet Allaah in a condition that Allaah will be angry with him." (2) Hadhrat Ali bin Abu Jameelah reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas made Sajdah a thousand times every day. (3)

The Fervour Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood had for Salaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood would not fast (optional fasts) very often because he would say, "I become too weak to perform salaah when I fast and I love salaah more than fasting." When he did observe (optional) fasts, he fast only three days a month. (4) Another narration states that it was only the midmorning (Duhaa) salaah that he was not very regular with.

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Yazeed narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was questioned about why he did not fast very often, he replied, "I become too weak to perform salaah when I fast and I love salaah more than fasting," (5)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Yazeed says, "I have not seen a Fageeh(6) who fasted less (Nafi fasts) than Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 望遠遠。 When someone asked him why he did not fast (Nafl fasts very often), he replied, "I have given preference to salaah over fasts because I become too weak to perform salaah when I fast." (7)

The Fervour Hadhrat Saalim Will the Freed Slave of Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah William had for Salaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha 回题题 reports, "I was late in coming to Rasulullaah 證疑 one night after Isha. When I came to him and he asked where I had been, I replied, We were listening to one of your Sahabah will reciting the Our'aan in the Masjid. I have never heard a voice like his nor such recitation from any of your other Sahabah (Casalullaah (Casalullaah got up and I got up with him as he listened attentively to the man. He then turned to me saying, 'That is Saalim the freed slave of Abu Hudhayfah (All praise belongs to Allaah

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.546).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.295) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.258) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.257).

⁽⁵⁾ ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.181).

⁽⁶⁾ A jurist with a very deep and fully-fledged understanding of the injunctions of the Shari'an.

⁽⁷⁾ Ibn 5a'd (Vol.3 Pg.155).

Who has made such people amongst my Ummah!"(1)

The Fervour Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (1996) and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1996) had for Salaah

Hadhrat Masrooq reports, "We were with Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari wo on a journey when the night gave us sanctuary in a plantation. When we set up camp there, Hadhrat Abu Moosa with stood up in a part of the night to perform salaah." Hadhrat Masrooq then went on to describe the beautiful voice of Hadhrat Abu Moosa with and his melodious recitation of the Qur'aan. Whenever he passed a verse invoking a supplication, he made the supplication and then prayed, "O Allaahi You are the Giver of peace and You love peace. You are the giver of safety and You love the Mu'min. You are the Giver of protection and You love those who give protection. You are The Truthful and You love the truthful ones." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi says, "I was the guest of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Green for seven days. His servant, his wife and he would take turns to each spend a third of the night in Ibaadah." (3)

The Fervour Hadhrat Abu Talha Ansaari

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr size narrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha Ansaari was once performing salaah in his orchard when a little bird flew by and, unable to find an opening (through the thick growth), it started to flutter about. The sight captivated Hadhrat Abu Talha sizes's attention and his eyes followed the bird for an instant. When he refocused his attention to his salaah, he had forgotten how many Rakaahs he had performed. He said, "A great test has afflicted me in this property of mine." He then went to Rasulullaah size and recounting the loss he suffered in his salaah, he said, "O Rasulullaah size! I give over this orchard in Sadaqah. Dispose of it as you please." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr (See also narrates that an Ansaari (See was once performing salaah in his orchard in the vicinity of Quf, which was one of the valleys of Madinah. The season for dates was at its peak with the branches of the date palms hanging low with the weight of the dates. When his glance happened to fall on the laden palms, the sight of the dates captivated his attention and when he turned his attention back to his salaah, he had forgotten how many Rakaahs he had performed. "A great test has afflicted me in this property of mine," he sighed. He then went to Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (See and When the Khalifah and related the incident to him, saying. "I am donating it as Sadaqah, so use it for some good cause." Hadhrat Uthmaan (See Sold the orchard for fifty thousand Dirhams, because of which the property was then

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.225), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.259).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. i Pg.383).

⁽⁴⁾ Maalik, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.316).

named the 'Khamseen' ('the fifty'). (1)

The Fervour Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was and Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim had for Salaah

Hadhrat Asmaa (Page reports that (her son) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (Page passed the nights in salaah and the days fasting. He was therefore called the pigeon of the Masjid (because he was always there). (2) Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim (Siege Says, "When the time for any salaah arrives, I have already prepared for it and am brimming with fervour for it." (3)

The Construction of Masaajid

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah and Hadhrat Talq bin Ali Concerning The Construction of Masjidun Nabawi

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports, "Rasulullaah was was with us as we carried the bricks to the construction site of the Masjid (Nabawi. This incident took place after the Battle of Khaybar when the Masjid was rebuilt). When I met Rasulullaah carrying a brick lengthways across his abdomen, I felt that this would be difficult for him. I therefore said, 'Give it to me, O Rasulullaah was said, 'Take another, O Abu Hurayrah! There is (true) no life other the life of the Aakhirah."

Hadhrat Talq bin Ali (See Says, "When I assisted in the construction of the Masjid together with Rasulullaah (Fig. he said (to the others), 'Let this Yamaami (Hadhrat Talq (See S)) handle the mortar because he mixes it best and has the strongest shoulders." (5)

Hadhrat Talq bin Ali were busy constructing the Masjid. It appeared to me that Rasulullaah was not too pleased with the manner in which the work was being done, so I took a spade and started mixing the mortar. Rasulullaah seemed to like the manner in which I handled the spade and the work I was doing, so he said (to the others), "Leave the Hanafi to the mortar because he is most proficient with it." (6)

The Effort that the Wife of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa Put into the Construction of the Masjidun NAbawi

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa was narrates that when his wife passed

⁽¹⁾ Maalik, as quoted in Awjaz (Vol.1 Pg.315).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.335).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kansul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.80). Ibn Mubaatak has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.468).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.9).

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.9).

⁽⁶⁾ Ahmad, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.9) has commented on the chain of narrators.

away, he said to the people, "Carry her (bier) with great fervour because she and her slaves would carry rocks for (the construction of) the Masjid that was founded on Taqwa (the Masjidun Nabawi) during the night while we would manage carrying only two rocks at a time during the day." (1)

Rasulullaah sessire to have His Masjid like the Shelter of Hadhrat Moosa Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit in arrates that the Ansaar once said to him, "For how long will Rasulullaah perform salaah beneath (a roof made of) these palm branches?" They then collected many gold coins which they presented to Rasulullaah saying, "We wish to renovate and beautify this Masjid." Rasulullaah (however replied, "I do not wish to veer from the example of my brother Moosa (how had a shelter made of palm branches). The ceiling (of the Masjid) should remain like the shelter of Moosa (how had a shelter made of palm branches).

Another narration states that the Ansaar once collected a sum of money which they presented to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah Rebuild this Masjid and beautify it. How long will we perform salaah beneath these branches?" Rasulullaah which however replied, "I do not wish to veer from the example of my brother Moosa says. The ceiling (of this Masjid) should remain like the shelter of Moosa says.

Describing the shelter of Hadhrat Moosa (Hadhrat Hasan explains that when Hadhrat Moosa (Hadhrat Hasan explains that when Hadhrat Moosa (Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab reports, "The pillars of the Masjidun Nabawi during the time of Rasulullaah (Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab reports, "The pillars of the Masjidun Nabawi during the time of Rasulullaah (Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab reports, "The pillars of the Masjid was made of palm branches and leaves without any plaster. The Masjid would therefore be full of mud whenever it rained. The Masjid was in effect just like a shading," (5)

Rasulullaah 🕮 Prostrates in Mud in the Masjid

In the chapter discussing Laylatul Qadr, Imaam Bukhaari reports a narration (from Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (Imaa) that states: "Rasulullaah (Imaa) said, '(Inaa vision informing me when Laylatul Qadr will be) I saw myself prostrating in mud. Therefore, all those who had been observing I'tikaaf with Rasulullaah (Imaa) should come back.' We then returned although we saw not a trace of clouds in the sky. A cloud however appeared and when it rained, the water flowed through the roof, which was made of palm branches. When salaah started, I saw Rasulullaah (Imaa) prostrate in mud. Traces of the mud were later visible on his forehead." (6)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.10) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.16) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi in his Dalaa'il.

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhagi.

⁽⁵⁾ Bayhaqi,

⁽⁶⁾ Wafaa'ul Wafaa (Vol.1 Pg.242).

Rasulullaah Refuses to Build the Masjid Like the Buildings in Shaam

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Ma'daan narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa were once measuring the Masjid with a stick. Coming out of his room, Rasulullaah was asked, "What are you two doing?" They replied, "We wish to construct the Masjid of Rasulullaah was like the buildings of Shaam are built. The expenses shall be borne by the Ansaar." "Bring me that stick," Rasulullaah was instructed. He then took the stick from them and walked away with it. When he reached his door, Rasulullaah threw the stick away and said, "Never! (The Masjid should never be built like that!) It should be made of grass, sticks and roof like the shelter of Moosa was Death is much nearer at hand." When someone asked what the shelter of Hadhrat Moosa was like, Rasulullaah was replied, "When he stood up, his head touched the roof."

The Masjid is Extended during the Periods of Hadhrat Umar (1986) and Hadhrat Uthmaan (1986)

Hadhrat Naafi narrates, "Hadhrat Umar to the Masjid from the pillars to the Magsoorah (the room built for the Imaam). He said, 'Had I not heard Rasulullaah say, 'We ought to extend our Masjid', I would never have extended it." (2)

Hadhrat Naafi reports from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar the time of Rasulullaah & , the Masjid was built with unbaked bricks, the roof was made of palm branches and the pillars were palm trunks. While Hadhrat Abu Bakr was made no extensions to the Masjid, Hadhrat Umar was did. He however built the Masjid as it was during the time of Rasulullaah , using unbaked bricks, palm branches and replacing the pillars of palm trunks. Hadhrat Uthmaan was changed the building and made a large extension. He used decorative stones and plaster for the walls with decorative stones for the pillars and teakwood for the roof. (3)

Hadhrat Atiyya narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sais said, "During the time of Rasulullaah said, the pillars of the Masjid consisted of palm trunks with the top shaded with palm branches. When this deteriorated during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, he rebuilt it also using palm trunks and branches. When it again deteriorated during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Uthmaan said, he had it rebuilt with baked bricks and it has remained standing to this day." (4)

Hadhrat Mahmood bin Labeed reports that when Hadhrat Uthmaan works expressed

⁽I) ibn Zabaalah, as quoted in Wafaa'ul Wafaa (Vol.1 Pg.241)

⁽²⁾ Ahmad.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Abu Dawood.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood.

the intention to rebuild the Masjid, the people disliked the idea because they wanted him to leave it as it was. He however said, "I heard Rasulullaah see say that whoever builds a Masjid for (the pleasure of) Allaah, Allaah will build him one Just like it in Jannah." (1)

Hadhrat Muttalib bin Abdullaah bin Ibn Hantab narrates that when Hadhrat Uthmaan became the Khalifah in the year 24 A.H., the people requested him to extend the Masjid, complaining that it was too congested on Fridays, because of which they were forced to perform salaah on the adjoining ground. Hadhrat Uthmaan because then consulted with the senior Sahabah and they unanimously decided that the building be demolished and extended. After leading the Zuhr salaah, Hadhrat Uthmaan mounted the pulpit and after praising Allaah, he said, "O people! I have decided to demolish the Masjid of Rasulullaah and to extend it. I testify that I have heard Rasulullaah say, "Whoever builds a Masjid for Allaah, Allaah shall build him a home in Jannah." I have also a precedent and leader who has passed before me and paved the way for me. He was Umar bin Khattaab who also extended and rebuilt the Masjid. In addition to this, I have consulted with the senior Sahabah of Rasulullaah. Who are unanimous that the Masjid be demolished, rebuilt and extended."

The people liked the idea and made du'aa for him. The following morning, Hadhrat Uthmaan summoned the builders and himself participated in the construction even though he was person who always fasted by day and performed salaah during the night. In fact, he was a person who seldom left the Masjid. His instructions were that filtered plaster be made in Batn Nakhl. Construction work commenced in the month of Rabee'ul Awwal in the year 29 A.H. and was completed when the new year entered with the arrival of the crescent of Muharram of the year 30 A.H. The construction therefore took ten months. (2)

Rasulullaah Demarcates A Location in Madinah for a Masjid for the Juhaynah Tribe

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Usaamah Juhani sines says, "When I once happened to run into Rasulullaah sines and some of his companions in the marketplace, I asked them where Rasulullaah sines was headed. They replied, 'He is going to demarcate a Masjid for your people.' By the time I got there, Rasulullaah had already demarcated an area and stuck a stick into the ground to fix the direction of the Qibla." (3)

(2) Muslim, as quoted in Wafaa'ui Wafaa (Vol. 1 Pg.355,356).

⁽¹⁾ Muslim.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat and Kabeer. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg. 15) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has reported a similar narration in his Hilya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.262) and Baawardi as well, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.263).

The Letter of Hadhrat Umar (1996) to the Governors of the Various Districts Concerning the Construction of Masaajid

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Ataa narrates that when Hadhrat Umar who started conquering cities, he wrote to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari who was the governor of Basrah. He instructed him to build a (large and central) Masjid for salaah to take place in congregation and also several (small) Masaajid for the various tribes (in their localities). The people were all to gather in the central Masjid on Fridays to perform the Jumu'ah salaah. He then wrote a letter with the same instructions to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas who was the governor of Kufa and another to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas who was the governor of Egypt. He then wrote to the commanders of the various armies not to base themselves in rural areas but to set up bases in the cities and to build only one Masjid and not several Masaajid for every tribe as was being done in Basrah, Kufa and Egypt. The people abided strictly by this instruction of Hadhrat Umar

Maintenance and Cleanliness of the Masaajid

Rasulullaah 's Instruction for Places of Salaah to be made inside Houses and that they Be kept Clean

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr Freports that one of the Sahabah Said, "Rasulullaah Susud to instruct us to make places of salaah within our homes, to build them well and to keep them clean." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (See reports that Rasulullaah (See gave instructions for places of salaah to be made within homes and that they be kept clean and fragranced. (3)

Rasulullaah Sees in Jannah a Woman who Used to Keep the Masjid Clean

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was narrates that when a woman who used to remove dirt from the Masjid passed away, the Sahabah was did not inform Rasulullaah was about her funeral (and they proceeded to bury her). (When he found out,) Rasulullaah was said to them, "You must inform me when any of you passes away." Rasulullaah was performed the Janaazah salaah and then said, "I saw her in Jannah picking up dirt from the Masjid." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.259).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 2 Pg.11).

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi and Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Mishkaalul Masaabeeh (Pg.61).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.10) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Umar Burns Incense in the Masjidun Nabawi

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sies reports that Hadhrat Umar Sies used to burn incense in the Masjid of Rasulullaah (2) every Friday, (1)

Walking to the Masaajid

The Incident of an Ansaari who Walked to the Masjid from his Distant home

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b says, "There was a person who in my knowledge lived furthest from the Masjid. He however never missed a single salaah. Someone once suggested to him, "Why do you not buy a donkey that you could ride in the dark and through the blistering sands?" The man replied, "(Let alone doing that,) I would not even be happy with a house right next to the Masjid because I want my walking to the Masjid and my retuning to my family to be recorded for me (in my record of good deeds)." Rasulullaah & remarked, "Allaah has accumulated it all for you." (2)

In another narration, Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b says, "There was a person from the Ansaar whose house was the furthest (from the Masjid) in Madinah. He however never missed a single salaah with Rasulullaah say. Taking pity on him, I suggested, Whydoyou not buy a donkey that could protect you from the blistering sands and creatures on the ground?" The man replied, 'Listen well! By Allaah! (Let alone doing that,) I would not even be happy with a house right next to that of Muhammad say.' This statement weighed heavily on me and I reported it to Rasulullaah say. When Rasulullaah says summoned the man (and questioned him), he repeated himself, explaining that he hoped for rewards in every step. Rasulullaah said, 'You shall have what you hope for." Another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "His stages (in Jannah) are elevated with every step that he takes." (4)

Rasulullaah Shortens his Steps to the Masjid

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit in arrates that when he used to walk with Rasulullaah when they went for salaah, Rasulullaah took short steps. "Do you know why I shorten my steps?" Rasulullaah was asked. "Allaah and His Rasool was know best," Hadhrat Zaid replied. Rasulullaah was explained, "A person remains in salaah (receives the rewards of salaah) as long as he is engaged in the effort of salaah (doing anything contributing towards salaah)," (5) Another narration states that Rasulullaah was explanation was: "I am doing this only so that my steps in the effort of (going for) salaah are increased." (6)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.11) has commented on the chain of parrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Muslim. Daarmi, Abu Awaana, Ibn Khuzaymah and Ibn Hibbaan.

⁽³⁾ Tayaalisi, Ibn Maajah and Muslim.

⁽⁴⁾ Humaydi and Abu Dawood, as guoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.244).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani

⁽⁶⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.32) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik Shortens his Steps when Walking to the Masjid

Hadhrat Thaabit says, "I was once walking with Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik says in Zaawiyah (a district of Basrah) when he heard the Adhaan. He then started to shorten his steps until he entered the Masjid. 'O Thaabit!' he asked, 'Do you know why I have walked with you in this manner?' 'Allaah and His Rasool know best,' I replied. He said, 'So that my steps in the effort of salaah are increased."(1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Hurries for Salaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("Why are you doing this when you prevent others from it?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ("Iwish to attain the frontier of salaah, which is the first Takbeer." (2)

Hadhrat Salamah bin Kuhayi narrates that when someone objected to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (1986) hurrying for salaah, he replied, "Of the things that you hurry towards, is salaah not the most deserving of them all?" (3)

Rasulullaah Prohibits Running for Salaah

Hadhrat Abu Qataadah narrates that as they were once performing salaah behind Rasulullaah . he heard some clamouring from the people at the back. After completing the salaah, Rasulullaah . saked what the matter was. When the Sahabah . informed him that it was them running for the salaah. Rasulullaah . To not do that. You should (not hurry and then) perform the Rakaahs you manage to join and complete afterwards the ones you could not join."

What Masaajid are Built for and what the Sahabah

The Sahabah Condemn a Bedouin who Urinated in the Masjid and the Stance Rasulullaah took in the matter

Hadhrat anas sees narrates that they were once in a Masjid with Rasulullaah will when a Bedouin stood in the Masjid and started urinating there. "Stop! Stop!" the Sahabah will see it outed. Rasulullaah will however said to them, "Do not stop him from urinating. Leave him alone!" The Sahaban will then allowed him to finish urinating. "asulullaah will then called him and said, ⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer: Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.32) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.32) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol 7 Pg.31).

"These Masaajid are not intended for the purpose of urinating and any other filth. They are there for the remembrance of Allaah, for salaah and for the recitation of the Qur'aan." Rasulullaah the then instructed someone to bring a bucket of water, which was poured over the (contaminated) area. (1)

The Incident of Rasulullaah We with Some Sahabah Who were sitting in the Masjid to Engage in Dhikr

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 🕾 narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 🖼 once approached a group of people in the Masjid. "What makes you people sit here?" he asked. "We are sitting here to make the Dhikr of Allaah," they replied. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya saked further, "Do you swear by Allaah that there is no other reason for your sitting here?" When they confirmed that there was no other motive, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya & said, "I have not asked you to swear by Allaah because I am suspicious (that you may lie to me). There is none who despite being as close to Rasulullaah (as I was, narrated fewer Ahadeeth than I have (out of cautiousness, I narrate very few Ahadeeth, However, I shall now narrate one to you people). Rasulullaah (once came out of his room where he found a group of his Sahabah 過度節 (sitting in the Masjid). What makes you people sit here?' Rasulullaah & asked. They said, 'We are sitting here to engage in the Dhikr of Allaah and to praise Him for guiding us to Islaam and for blessing us with the bounty of Islaam.' Rasulullaah E asked further, 'Do you swear by Allaah that there is no other reason for your sitting here?' 'We swear by Allaah that there is no other reason for us sitting here? they replied. Rasulullaah then said to them, 'I have not asked you to swear by Allaah because I am suspicious (that you may lie to me). However, Jibra'eel & has come to inform me that Allaah is boasting about you before the angels."(2)

The Incident of Rasulullaah with Three Persons and the Incident when he Sat with those Busy with the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Abu Waaqid Haarith bin Auf see narrates that they were once sitting with Rasulullaah when three persons arrived. While two of them came towards Rasulullaah see, the other turned and left. From the two that came to Rasulullaah see, one saw a space in the gathering and occupied it while the other sat behind the people. When Rasulullaah had finished, he said, "should I not tell you about three persons? As for one of them, he sought a place with Allaah and Allaah granted it to him. The second was shy, so Allaah treated him accordingly (without depriving him of His mercy). However, the third turned away from Allaah, so Allaah turned away from him as well." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Muslim (Vol.1 Pg.138) and Tahaawi (Vol.1 Pg.8).

⁽²⁾ Muslims, as quoted in Riyaadhus Saaliheen (Pg.156). Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.249).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Riyaadhus Saaliheen (Pg.515). Maalik and Tirmidhi have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.21).

Hadhrat Abul Qamraa (We're relates, "We we.e once sitting in several gatherings in Rasulullaah (We's Masjid, discussing Ahadeeth when Rasulullaah (We's came out from one of his rooms, Looking at the various gatherings, Rasulullaah (We's sat down with those busy with (learning and teaching) the Qur'aan. He then said, 'I have been commanded to sit with this gathering."

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali (See Concerning the Qurraa of the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Kulayb bin Shihaab narrates that Hadhrat Ali sees once heard a lot of sound from the Masjid as people were busy reciting the Qur'aan and teaching others to do so, ite remarked, "Glad tidings for these people! These are the people whom Rasulullaah sees loved the most." (2)

It is also Hadhrat Kulayb who narrates that Hadhrat Ali (1986) was once in the Masjid of Kufa when he heard a lot of sound, "Who is that?" he asked. When he was informed that the sound was coming from some people who were busy reciting or learning the Qur'aan, he commented, "Take note that it was such people whom Rasulullaah (1986) loved most." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah with the People in the Market place

Hadhrat Hasan reports that Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah conce passed through the market place of Madinah when he stood there and called out, "O traders! What makes you so helpless?" "What are you talking about, O Abu Hurayrah concern; they asked. He said, "There you have the inheritance of Rasulullaah being distributed whereas you people are still here! Are you not going to claim your shares?" "Where is it?" they all asked. "In the Masjid," he replied. They all rushed to the Masjid as Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah compared there waiting for them. When they returned (and he noted the despondency on their faces), he asked, "What is the matter?" "O Abu Hurayrah concern;" they replied, "We went to the Masjid but found nothing being distributed there." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah caked, "Did you see absolutely no one there?" "O yes we did," they replied, "we saw some people performing salaah, others reciting the Qur'aan and others discussing what was Halaal and what was Haraam." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah cremarked, "Shame on you! That is the inheritance if Rasulullaah controlled."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mandalı, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.160). Ibn Abdul Birr has also reported the narration in his Isa'aab (Vol.4 Pg.164), as has Abu Amr Daani in his Tabaqaattul Qurraa, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.219).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, as quoted in Majna'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.7 Pg. (66). Haythami has however commented on the chain of natrators. Ibn Munee has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.218).

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'ld (Vol.7 Pg.162).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.66).

Hadhrat Umar Praises the Gatherings in the Masaajid

Hadhrat Ibn Mu'aawiya Kindi reports that when he once went to see Hadhrat Umar with in Shaam, Hadhrat Umar with asked him about the condition of the people and said further, "Does it not happen that when a man enters the Masjid like an escaped camel and then sits with a group only if they belong to his tribe or if they are people whom he knows?" "Not at all," Hadhrat Ibn Mu'aawiya, replied, "In fact, there are several gatherings (in our Masjid) in which the people participate to learn and to rehearse good to each other." To this Hadhrat Umar with remarked, "You people will always remain in good stead as long as you remain like this." (1)

Rasulullaah Www Walks from the Masjid with the Sahabah Www to Address the Jews

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah are narrates that they were sitting in the Masjid one day when Rasulullaah are came out of his room and said, "Let us go to the Jews." (When he reached them) Rasulullaah said, "Accept Islaam and you will live in peace." But you have already conveyed this message to us," they replied. "But that is still what I want (that you people accept Islaam). So (I repeat) do accept Islaam and you will live in peace." Again the Jews responded by saying. "But you have already conveyed this message to us." "But that is still what I want," Rasulullaah reiterated. When Rasulullaah repeated himself for the third time (and they again refused to accept), he added, "You ought to know that the earth belongs to Allaah and His Rasool . I now wish to banish you from this land. Whoever wishes to sell any of his belongings may do so, otherwise you should bear in mind that the earth belongs to Allaah and His Rasool.

Rasulullaah A has Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh placed in the Masjid when the latter was Injured during the Battle of Khandaq Hadhrat Aa'isha arrates that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was injured during the Battle of Khandaq when a person by the name of Hibbaan bin Ariqah shot an arrow that struck Hadhrat Sa'd Sis's brachial artery. Rasulullaah had a tent pitched for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh sis in the Masjid so that he could be close by to visit him. When Nabi sis returned from the Battle of Khandaq, he removed his armour and took a bath. It was then that Hadhrat Jibra'eel sis came to Rasulullaah sis, wiping dust off his head. "By Allaah!" Hadhrat Jibra'eel sis said, "You have already removed your armour whereas we (the angels) have not yet removed ours. March to them." "Where should we march?" Rasulullaah sis asked. Hadhrat Jibra'eel sis pointed (I) Marwazi and Ibn Abi Shaybah, as guoted in Kanzul Ummai (Vol.5 Pe. 229).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.44).

towards the Banu Qurayzah tribe.

Rasulullaah then marched (with the Sahabah to the Banu Qurayzah and (after a siege) they surrendered themselves with the agreement that Rasulullaah the decides their fate. Rasulullaah to however handed over to Hadhrat Sa'd the decision (to decide what to do with them). Hadhrat Sa'd the pronounced his decision stating. "I pronounce that all their able-bodied fighters be executed, that their women and children be taken as slaves and that their wealth be distributed (as booty)."

A narrator by the name of Hadhrat Hishaam reports from his father who reports from Hadhrat Aa'isha that Hadhrat Sa'd was prayed, "O Allaah! You know well that I do not love to fight anyone more than the people who rejected your Rasool and banished him. O Allaah! I have a feeling that You have ended the fighting between them and us but if there are any more wars to take place between us and the Quraysh, do allow me to live on to fight them for your pleasure. However, if You have ended the fighting (between us and the Quraysh), then allow this wound to open so that I may die because of it." The wound then erupted close to his chest and a group of people from the Banu Ghifaar who were in the Masjid were not alerted except by the blood that came running towards them. "O people of the tent!" they called out, "What is this we see coming from your direction?" They then discovered that it was the bleeding wound of Hadhrat Sa'd 's wound, from which he passed away. (1)

The Men of Suffa, Hadhrat Abu Dharr was and other Sahabah size Sleep in the Masjid

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abdullaah bin Qusayt says that the men of the Suffa were men during the time of Rasulullaah who had no homes. They slept and took shelter in the Masjid for they had no other shelter. Rasulullaah would call them at night when he ate supper and after distributing them amongst the Sahabah would still be a group of them who ate with Rasulullaah work. This took place until Allaah made them independent. (2)

Hadhrat Asmaa bint Yazeed will narrates that Hadhrat Abu Dharr will used to be in the service of Rasulullaah and whenever he had finished, he took shelter in the Masjid, which was his home where he lay down to rest. When Rasulullaah entered the Masjid one night, he found Hadhrat Abu Dharr lying on the ground. When Rasulullaah nudged him with his foot, Hadhrat Abu Dharr sate sat up straight. "Did I see you sleeping?" Rasulullaah saked. "O Rasulullaah see!" Hadhrat Abu Dharr said, "Where can I sleep? Which other home do I have?" The rest of the Hadith has been reported in the chapter dealing with the Khilaafah. (3)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Singles) himself reports that after serving Rasulullaah (Singles), he used to lie down in the Masjid. (4)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.52).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.20).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.22) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani.

Several incidents describing how the Sahabah (Sales) slept in the Masjid has passed in the chapter discussing hospitality towards guests.

When Hadhrat Hasan was asked about people taking their siesta in the Masjid, he replied, "I have seen Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan was taking his siesta in the Masjid during the period when he was Khalifah." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ("When we were still youngsters during the time of Rasulullaah ("As we used to spend the night at the Masjid." He also said, "After gathering for the Jumu'ah salaah, we would return to the Masjid to have our siesta." (2)

Hadhrat Umar (1986) once said, "When any of you has been sitting too long in the Masjid, there is no harm in him lying down on his side because this is the most appropriate manner to prevent his sitting from tiring him." (3)

Hadhrat Khaleed bin Abu Is'haaq narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin. Abbaas Sisses about sleeping in the Masjid. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sisses replied, "There is no harm in it if you are sleeping (to gain strength) for performing salaah or Tawaaf." (4)

Rasulullaah Hastens to the Masjid when the Wind Blows Fiercely and During an Eclipse

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "Whenever the wind blew fiercely at night, Rasulullaah si hastened towards the Masjid and would remain there until the wind subsided. He would also hasten to the place of salaah whenever the sun or the moon eclipsed." (5)

Hadhrat Ataa reports that a Sahabi by the name of Hadhrat Ya'la bin Umayyah used to sit for even a moment in the Masjid with the intention of performing l'tikaaf. (6)

Rasulullaah A Makes a Delegation from the Thageef stay in the Masjid Hadhrat Atiyya bin Sufyaan bin Abdullaah ("We narrates, "When a delegation from the Thaqeef came to Rasulullaah ("Form one Ramadhaan, Rasulullaah ("Form in the Masjid. When they accepted Islaam, they started to fast with Rasulullaah ("Form").

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abil Aas Sies narrates that when the Thaqeef delegation came to Rasulullaah (24), he accommodated them in the Masjid so that it would soften their hearts. The rest of the narration has aiready passed in the chapter concerning Dawah towards Allah and His Rasool (25)(8)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 261).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.261).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.294).

⁽⁴⁾ Abdur Razzaag, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.261).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.289).

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.3 Pg.312).

⁽⁷⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.28) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁸⁾ Under the heading "The Banu Thaqeef tribe of Taa'if Accept Islaam" and the subheading "The

What the Sahabah (Sie did in the Masjid Apart from Ibaadah and Dhikr

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (Siles) says, "We once ate roasted meat with Rasulullaah (Siles) in the Masjid. When the Iqaamah was called out for salaah, all we did was wipe our hands with some pebbles." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar preports that the Masjidul Fadeekh got its name from the fact that it was in this Masjid that some Fadeekh (2) was served to Rasulullaah and he drank it." (3) Another narration states that Rasulullaah was in the Masjidul Fadeekh when he was brought a jug of Fadeekh made from half-ripe dates. Because Rasulullaah are drank the Fadeekh there, the Masjid was named Masjidul Fadeekh." (4)

In the chapter discussing spending of wealth, narrations have already been quoted stating that food and wealth were distributed in the Masjid. Narrations have also passed mentioning that the people pledged allegiance to Hadhrat Uthmaan Sings and Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sings in the Masjid. The incident describing the Da'wah given to Hadhrat Dimaam & in the Masjid has also passed, which also states that it was in the Masjid that he accepted Islaam. The chapter discussing Da'wah towards Allaah and His Rasool & also states the narration in which Hadhrat Ka'b bin Zuhayr Will accepted Islaam and then recited a famous poem in the Masjid. The chapter discussing unity also contains a Hadith in which it is stated that the consultative assembly also gathered in the Masjid. Another narration (in the chapter of spending) makes it evident that it was in the Masjid that the Sahabah was sat with Rasulullaah we in the mornings. The chapter discussing how the Sahabah expess feared having too much of wealth also states that Hadhrat Umar wie used to sit in the Masjid after salaah to tend to the needs of people. It is also established that it was also in the Masjid that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经联场 and the other Sahabah 经联场 sat and wept when Rasulullaah Dassed away. This was quoted in the love that the Sahabah 過過過 had for Rasulullaah 過過.

Things that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah Disliked Happening in the Masjid

Rasulullaah Disapproves of Interlacing the Fingers when in the Masjidx

A freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Sawas that he was once with Thaqeef Tribe Sends Abd Yaaleel bin Amr with a Delegation to Rasulullaah (1986), who is informed of their Arrival.*

⁽¹⁾ Tahraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.21) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ A sweet drink made from crushed dates.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Ya'la, Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri was and Rasulullaah when they entered the Masjid, There they saw a person sitting in the Idtibaa posture⁽¹⁾ with his fingers interlaced. When Rasulullaah was gestured to him (not to do what he was doing), he failed to understand the gesture. Rasulullaah then turned to Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri was and said, "When any of you are in the Masjid, he should never interlace his fingers because interlacing the fingers is prompted by Shaytaan. As long as any of you remains in the Masjid, he remains in salaah (continues receiving the rewards of salaah) until he leaves." (2)

Rasulullaah Disapproves of a person entering the Masjid after Eating Garlic or Onions

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sies) narrates that after Rasulullaah (Sies) conquered Khaybar, the Sahabah (Sies) became infatuated with garlic and started eating it often. It was then that Rasulullaah (Sies) said, "The person who eats this pungent vegetable should never come near our Masaajid." (3)

In his Jumu'ah lecture, Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (The next thing, O people, is that there are two plants you people eat from, which I regard as being too pungent; namely onions and garlic. I have noticed that whenever Rasulullaah (Fig. 8) smelt these on a person in the Masjid, he would give instructions that the person be removed from the Masjid and taken to Baqee. Therefore, whoever wishes to eat them should first kill the odour by cooking them." (4)

Rasulullaah Disapproves of Spitting in the Masjid

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) narrates that as Rasulullaah (1996) was once delivering a lecture, he noticed some phlegm on the wall in the direction of the Qibla. Rasulullaah (1996) became very angry with the people and then scraped it off. He then sent for some saffron, which he applied to the area and then said, "Allaah is in front of a person's face when he performs salaah, so he should never spit in front of him." (5)

A narration from Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri sisted states that Rasulullaah then turned to the people in anger saying, "Does someone amongst you like to spit in the face of a person facing him? When any of you is performing salaah, His Rabb is in front of him and an angel is on his right. He should therefore never spit in front of him nor on his right." (6)

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1995) states that Rasulullaah (1995) said, "Verily the Masjid shrivels with phlegm just as a piece of flesh or skin.

⁽t) Where a person sits with his legs folded in an upright position and thighs against the chest, held by the arms or by a cloth tied around them and around the back.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.25) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.17) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Muslim, Nasa'ee and Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.88).

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim and Abu Dawood,

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Khuzaymah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Fg.163).

shrivels with fire." (1)

Rasulullaah : and the Sahabah : Disapprove of Drawing a Sword in the Masjid

Hadhrat Jaabir size reports that Hadhrat Banna Juhani size informed him that Rasulullaah size once saw or passed by some people who were exchanging naked swords amongst themselves in the Masjid. Rasulullaah size remarked, "Allaah curses the people who do this. Have I not forbidden you from this? When a person draws his sword and then intends giving it to another, he should sheathe it before handing it over." (2)

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Moosa narrates that when Hadhrat Jaabir was asked about drawing swords in the Masjid, he said, "We have always disapproved of it. In fact, when a person was giving an arrow away as Sadaqah in the Masjid, Rasulullaah is instructed him not to pass through the Masjid with arrows unless he held their heads firmly." (3)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abdullaah narrates that they were once in the Masjid with Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 多時 when a person turned an arrow around. Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 多時 said, "Does he not know that Rasulullaah 原子 forbade the turning around of weapons in the Masjid?" (4)

Rasulullaah : and his Sahabah : Disapprove of Announcing Lost Items in the Masjid

Hadhrat Buraydah (Size) narrates that a man once made an announcement in the Masjid saying, "Who has called for (the owner of) a red camel (that he has found)?" Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) remarked, "May you not find it! The Masaajid were built for their specific purposes (and not for announcing lost items)." (5)

When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood () heard a person announcing a lost item in the Masjid, he told him to be silent and reprimanded him. "We have been forbidden from doing this," he added. (6)

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen reports that when Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (See heard a person asking after his lost item in the Masjid, he became angry (and rebuked the man). "O Abul Mundhir!" the man said, "You were never one to be so harsh." Hadhrat Ubay (See replied, "We have been commanded to do this (to rebuke people who announce lost items in the Masjid)."

Hadhrat Umar Disapproves of Raising the Voice, Making a Noise and Reciting Poetry in the Masjid

Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed The narrates that he was once sleeping in the

- (1) Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.260).
- (2) Baghawi, Ibnus Sakan, Tabraani and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 262).
- (3) Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.262).
- (4) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.26) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (5) Muslim, Nasa'ee and Ihn Maajah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.167)
- (6) Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.167).
- (7) Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.260).

Masjid when someone threw a pebble at him. When he looked up, he saw that it was Hadhrat Umar was said to him, "Go and bring those two men to me." When Hadhrat Saa'ib was brought them, Hadhrat Umar was asked them who they were. "We are from Taa'if," they replied. Hadhrat Umar was then said, "Had you been from this town (Madinah), I would have certainly punished you. How can you raise your voices in the Masjid of Rasulullaah was "(1)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Ibraheem reports from his father that when Hadhrat Umar 题题 heard someone speaking in the Masjid, he asked, "Do you know where you are? Do you know where you are?" Hadhrat Umar 题题 dislikes hearing people speak (loudly) in the Masjid. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Wiss narrates that whenever Hadhrat Umar went to the Masjid, he announced in the Masjid, "Do refrain from making a noise." Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar would announce at the top of his voice, "Refrain from futilities in the Masjid!" (3)

It is reported that Hadhrat Umar (1986) forbade noise in the Masjid saying, "Voices should never be raised in our Masaajid." (4)

Hadhrat Saalim narrates that Hadhrat Umar Simes had a platform built next to the Masjid, which he called Butayhaa. He would then say, "Whoever wishes to make a noise, to recite a poem or to raise his voice should go to the platform." (5)

Hadhrat Taariq bin Shihaab narrates that it was in the Masjid that a person was brought before Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 6) for some crime. Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 6) gave instructions that the man be taken out of the Masjid before being given a beating.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Consumer of Section of Against the Wall of the Masjid in the Direction of the Qibla

It was between the Adhaan and Iqaamah of Fajr that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sie once saw some people reclining against the wall of the Masjid in the direction of the Qibla. He said to them, "Do not be an obstacle between the angels and their salaah," (7)

Hadhrat Haabis Taa'ee Sign Disapproves of People Performing Salaah at the Front of the Masjid before Dawn

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Aamir Alhaani narrates that a Sahabi by the name of

- (1) Bukhaari and Bayhagi.
- (2) Ibraheem bin Sa'd and Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.258,260).
- (3) Abdur Razzaaq, Ibn Abi Shaybah and Bayhaqi.
- (4) Abdur Razzaaq and Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.259).
- (5) Maalik and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.259).
- (6) Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.260).
- (7) Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 2 Pg 23).

Hadhrat Haabis bin Sa'd Taa'ee once entered the Masjid before dawn and saw some people performing salaah at the front of the Masjid. "By the Rabb of the Kabah!" He exclaimed, "They are showing off! Scare them off because whoever will scare them off has obeyed Allaah and His Rasool Some people then approached them and saw them off. Hadhrat Haabis then said, "Verily the angels perform salaah at the front of the Masjid before dawn."(1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood William Disapproves of Performing Salaah behind Every Pillar in the Masjid

Hadhrat Murrah Hamdaani says, "I told myself that I would perform two Rakaahs salaah behind every pillar of the Masjid in Kufa. As I was busy performing salaah, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was appeared there and as I was about to inform him about my resolve, someone else beat me to it. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was then said, "If he knew that Allaah is at the closest pillar, he would not pass it without completing all the salaahs (he had undertaken to perform because the reward is the same at all the pillars)." (2)

The Importance Rasulullaah and the Sahabah Gave to the Adhaan

Before the Direction to Call out the Adhaan, Rasulullaah Fejects the Proposals to Ring a Bell or to Blow a Trumpet to Announce the Salaah

Hadhrat Abu Umayr bin Anas narrates that from his uncles who belonged to the Ansaar that when Rasulullaah someone suggested that a flag should be flown when the time for salaah, someone suggested that a flag should be flown when the time for salaah arrived and when they saw it, people would inform each other. When this idea did not appeal to Rasulullaah someone else suggested the trumpet. This also held little appeal for Rasulullaah someone else suggested the idea saying, "It is a practice of the Jews." When someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone is also dismissed it saying, "It is the practice of the Christians." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid someone else suggested ringing also bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested ringing a bell, Rasulullaah someone else suggested the trumpet. The practice of the Christians."

Hadhrat Abu Sheikh narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid 學識多 said, "Announcing the salaah was a great concern for Rasulullaah 學寶 (during the early days). Whenever the time for salaah arrived, he would have a person climb high and wave his hands, Whoever saw the man came for salaah and whoever Ahmad and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.16) has commented on the chain of narrators, Ibn Asaakir and Abu Nu'aym have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.262). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.431) has reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol. 2 Pg. 16) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood

did not see him did not know about the salaah. This made Rasulullaah very worried. 'Rasulullaah ell' someone said, 'Why don't you have a bell rung.' 'No,' Rasulullaah replied, 'That is the practice of the Christians.' Others suggested, 'Then why don't you have a trumpet blown?' 'No,' Rasulullaah replied, 'That is the practice of the Jews.' I then returned home, overcome with the worry that I saw Rasulullaah so troubled. It was just before dawn when slumber eventually overcame me and as I lay there halfway between consciousness and sleep, I saw a man wearing two green garments. He stood on the roof of the Masjid, placed his fingers in his ears and called out the Adhaan."

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Anas (Signes) states that when the time for salaah arrived during the (early) period of Rasulullaah (Signes), someone would run through the streets calling out, "Salaah! Salaah!" This was difficult for the people and some of them suggested ringing a bell...". The Hadith continues further, (2)

Before the Directive to Call out the Adhaan, the Call "As salaatu Jaami'ah" was Made during the Time of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Naafi bin Jubayr, Hadhrat Urwa bin Zaid bin Aslam and Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib all relate that before receiving the directive to call out the Adhaan, Nabi se's caller would call out, "As salaatu jaami'ah". This was how the people gathered for salaah and it was only once the Qibla was changed to the Kabah that the command for Adhaan was given. Since one of Rasulullaah se's greatest worries was how to inform people about the times of salaah, the Sahabah some of them suggested the trumpet, others suggested the bell. The Hadith continues further to the point where it states that when the Adhaan was being called out (to call people for salaah), the announcement of "As salaatu jaami'ah" was made only when important matters arose so that the people could present themselves and be informed. In this manner they were informed about conquests or about commands that they were to fulfil. At such times, "As salaatu jaami'ah" was called out (to gather the people) even though it was not the time for salaah. (3)

Hadhrat Sa'd Qaradh Calls out The Adhaan for Rasulullaah at Ouba

Hadhrat Sa'd Qaradh (Fig. 7) reports that whenever Rasulullaah (Fig. 7) arrived in Quba, Hadhrat Bilaal (Fig. 7) would call out the Adhaan to inform the people that Rasulullaah (Fig. 7) had arrived so that they could gather before him. However, when Rasulullaah (Fig. 7) arrived one day without Hadhrat Bilaal (Fig. 7), the (non-Muslim) slaves started looking at each other. Hadhrat Sa'd Qaradh (Fig. 7)

⁽¹⁾ Abush Sheikh, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 263)

⁽²⁾ Abush Sheikh, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 265).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.1 Pg.246).

immediately climbed upadatepalmand called out the Adhaan. "What made you call out the Adhaan, O Sa'd?" Rasulullaah saked. Hadhrat Sa'd saked replied, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! I saw you with only a handful of people and did not see Bilaal saked with you. When I then noticed the slaves looking at each other and then at you, I feared that they would harm you, so I called out the Adhaan (so that other Muslims would come quickly)." "You did the right thing, O Sa'd," Rasulullaah said, "Whenever you see Bilaal not with me, you should call out the Adhaan." Thereafter, Hadhrat Sa'd said called out the Adhaan thrice during Rasulullaah sais lifetime. (1)

Statements of the Sahabah Concerning the Adhaan and the People who Call out the Adhaan

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas said, "The share (of rewards) of those who call out the Adhaan on the Day of Qiyaamah will be like the share of those who wage Jihaad. During the time between the Adhaan and the Iqaamah, the Mu'adhin is like the martyr tossing and turning in his blood in the path of Allaah. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "If I were a Mu'adhin, I care not whether I perform Hajj or Umrah or wage Jihaad."

Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab Sasaid, "If I were a Mu'adhin, my affairs would have been perfected and I care not whether I woke up for (Nafl) salaah during the night or whether I fasted (Nafl fasts) during the day because I heard Rasulullaah pray, 'O Allaah! Forgive those who call out the Adhaan. O Allaah! Forgive those who call out the Adhaan. O Allaah! Forgive those who call out the Adhaan.' 'O Rasulullaah I I said, 'But (why do you emphasise calling out the Adhaan so much when) you have left us in a condition that we would draw swords to call out the Adhaan?' Rasulullaah I replied. That is not the case, O Umar because there will soon come a time when people will leave the Adhaan to the weak ones amongst them. The flesh that is forbidden for Jahannam is the flesh of those who call out the Adhaan."

Hadhrat Aa'isha @ mentioned that it is the Mu'adhin to whom Allaah refers in the verse:

Whose speech can be better than the one who calls (others) towards Allaah, who performs righteous deeds, and (humbly) says, "I am from the Muslims (from those who submit to Allaah)." (Surah HaaMeen Sajdah, verse 33)

She says further, "The Mu'adhin calls towards Allaah when he says 'حَى َّمَنِي الصَّادِية' ('Come to salaah'), he performs a righteous deed when he performs the salaah and he is certainly amongst the Muslims when he says, 'لَّهُ اللَّهُ' ('There is none worthy of worship but Allaah')." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.336) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi in his Shu'abul Imaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.265). Abush Shelkh has reported similar narratlons from Rasaati in his Kitaabul Adhaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.266).

Hadhrat Umar Sission once said, "Had I been a Mu'adhin, I care not if I neither perform Hajj or Umrah except for the Fardh Hajj. Had the angels descended on earth, none would be able to beat them to calling out the Adhaan (they would allow no one else to do it because they know its tremendous virtue)." (1)

Hadhrat Qais bin Abu Haazim narrates that when they went to Hadhrat Umar support with the Adhaan amongst you people?" When they informed him that it was their slaves who did it, Hadhrat Umar support in You, Had I the choice of being a Mu'adhin instead of the Khalifah, I would have chosen to be a Mu'adhin." (2)

Hadhrat Ali (1966) said, "I regret not requesting Rasulullaah (1966) to assign the duty of calling out the Adhaan to (my sons) Hasan and Husayn." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood www said, "I do not approve of you appointing blind people to call out the Adhaan (because they are unable to determine the correct times of salaah) and I also do not approve of you appointing learned scholars of the Qur'aan to call out the Adhaan (because this would affect their teaching)." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Sies)'s Words to a man who Adopted a Singing Tone when Calling out the Adhaan and took Payment for it Hadhrat Yahya Bakkaa narrates that a man once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (I love you for the sake of Allaah." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (I love you for the sake of Allaah." When the man asked why this was, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (I love) replied, "Because you adopt a singing tone when calling out the Adhaan and you take payment for it "15".

Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr Instruct that Jihaad be Waged Against Tribes amongst whom the Adhaan is not called out

When Rasulullaah (dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas (dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas (dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas (dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid (dispassed by the Banu Zubayd tribe and did not hear them call out the Adhaan, he took them all as prisoners. However, when Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib (dispassed by the Banu Zubayd tribe and did not hear them call out the Adhaan, he took them all as prisoners. However, when Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib (dispassed beloased them into his custody. (6)

Hadhrat Talha bin Abdullaah bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Bakr 空降時 reports

⁽¹⁾ Ibnuz Zanjway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.265).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, Ibn Abi Shaybah and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.265).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol. 1 Pg.326) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.2).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.3) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.298).

that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr dispatched his armies against the Murtaddeen, he instructed the commanders saying, "When you hear the Adhaan in a town that you surround, take no action until you question them about their grievances. However, if you do not hear the Adhaan, you should launch your attack, fight them, burn their property and be inexhaustible in inflicting casualties so that they see that the demise of your Nabi has brought no weakness in you." (1)

Hadhrat Zuhri narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) dispatched his armies against the Murtaddeen, he instructed them saying, "Monitor them overnight and take no action if you hear the Adhaan because the Adhaan is a sign of Imaan." (2)

Rasulullaah Amad the Sahabah Mait for Salaah

Rasulullaah Ess's Directive in this Matter

Hadhrat Ali was narrates that when the time for salaah arrived and Rasulullaah was saw that the people were few in number, he remain sitting and did not lead the salaah. He would then lead the salaah only when he saw a substantial gathering. (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa (1986) reports that Rasulullaah (1986) would wait until he heard the sounds of people's shoes. (4)

The Sahabah Wiss Wait for Salaah until Half the Night had Passed

Hadhrat Umar wife reports that Rasulullaah wife was busy dispatching an army until half the night had already passed or was about to. He then came out for salaah and said (to those waiting), "While other people have performed their salaah and left, you people are still waiting for salaah. Take note that you have remained in salaah (kept earning its rewards) as long as you have been waiting for it." (5)

Rasulullaah 's Words to those who Waited for the Next Salaah after Maghrib and After Zuhr

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr American narrates that after Rasulullaah American had performed the Maghrib salaah, some people left while others remained seated. Rasulullaah American had to them (those still sitting) and said, "Your Rabb has opened a door to the heavens and is boasting before the angels saying, 'My servants have completed a Fardh and are now waiting for the next." (6)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaoi

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.141).

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.246).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.247).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 193):

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.245). Ibn Maajah has also reported the narration from Hadbrat Abdullaah bin Umar $2500, as Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.246).

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Thaqafi Freports that after leading the Zuhr salaah, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Good toold the people to remain where they were until he returned. He then left and put on his shawl. After leading the Asr salaah, he said, "Should I not inform you of something that Rasulullaah Good did?" When the people asked to be informed, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Good said, "The Sahabah Good once performed the Zuhr salaah behind Rasulullaah Good and then remained sitting. When Rasulullaah Good came out again (for the Asr salaah), he asked, 'Have you people not left after the last salaah?' 'No,' came the reply. Rasulullaah Good hen said, 'If only you could have seen your Rabb open a door from the heavens to show you to the angels and boast about you sitting in wait for salaah "(1).

Rasulullaah ses s Address to those who waited until Midnight for the Isha Salaah

Hadhrat Anas sais narrates that Rasulullaah sa once delayed the Isha salaah until midnight. After leading the salaah, he turned to face the Sahabah saying, "Whereas other people have already performed their salaah and gone to sleep, you people have remained in salaah for as long as you have been waiting for it." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports that Rasool said, "A person is in salaah for as long as it is salaah that keeps him waiting and (all the while) the angels keep praying, 'O Allaah! Forgive him. O Allaah! Shower Your mercy on him.' This continues for as long as he does not stand up from his place of salaah or does not break his wudhu," (3)

Another narration states that a person remains in salaah for as long as he remains on his place of salaah or as long as he does not break his wudhu." (4) Yet another narration states that a person remains in salaah for as long as he remains on his place of salaah, waiting for the next salaah. And all this while the angels keep praying, 'O Allaah! Forgive him. O Allaah! Shower Your mercy on him.' This continues for as long as he does not leave or does not break his wudhu." "How will his wudhu break?" one of the narrators asked. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (5) "When he passes wind either audibly or silently." (5)

Rasulullaah Encourages Waiting for Salaah

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah (See reports that Rasulullaah (See said, "Shall I not point you towards something that wipes out sins and is expiation for misdeeds?" "Why not, O Rasulullaah (See ?" the Sahabah (See said, Rasulullaah (Making a proper wudhu in adverse conditions, taking many steps towards the Masjid and waiting for one salaah after another. This is

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, as guoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.38).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari.

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari.

⁽⁴⁾ Muslim and Abu Dawood.

⁽⁵⁾ Muslim and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.245).

(an act that will earn the reward of) guarding the borders." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Willis Interpretation of Guarding the Borders during the Time of Rasulullaah 經濟

Hadhrat Dawood bin Saalih narrates that Hadhrat Abu Salamah once asked him if he knew why Allaah revealed the verse:

Exercise patience, compete in patience, guard the borders... (Surah Aai Imraan, verse 200)

When Hadhrat Dawood admitted that he did not know, Hadhrat Abu Salamah said, "I heard Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah was say that during the time of Rasulullaah (there was no war because of which the borders had to be guarded, but waiting for one salaah after another was their form of guarding the borders " (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Anas Good Concerning the verse "Their sides part from their beds"

Hadhrat Anas said that it is waiting for the Isha salaah that is referred to in the verse:

Their sides part from their beds... (Surah Sajdah, verse 16) (3)

Emphasis and Importance shown to Performing Salaah in Congregation

The Importance Rasulullaah Showed to Salaah in Congregation and His Unwillingness to Allow a Blind Man to Forego it

Hadhrat Amr bin Ummu Maktoom (Sales once said, "O Rasulullaah (See I am a blind man who lives far (from the Masjid). While I have a guide, he is a person with whom I cannot get along. Are you able to grant me permission to perform salaah at home?" "Can you hear the Adhaan?" Rasulullaah @ asked. When Hadhrat Amr 劉寧德 said that he could, Rasulullaah 經路 said, "I am then unable to grant you permission." (4)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah & once came to the Masjid and found only a few people there. He then said, "I have a good mind to appoint an Imaam to lead the people (in salaah) and to then go out and burn down the

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.247).

⁽²⁾ Haakim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.251).

⁽³⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.246).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, Abu Dawood, Ibn Maajah, Ibn Khuzaymah and Haakim.

house of every person I find who does not come for salaah." Hadhrat Ibn Ummu Maktoom then said, "O Rasulullaah (##]! There are many palms and trees between my house and the Masjid and I cannot find a guide at all times. Is it possible for me to perform salaah at home?" Rasulullaah (### asked, "Can you hear the Iqaamah?" When he replied that he could, Rasulullaah (### said, "Then you should come (to the Masjid) for salaah."

The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood and Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal About Salaah in Congregation

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood some said, "Whoever wishes to meet Allaah tomorrow as a Muslim should regularly perform these (Fardh) salaahs in the place where the Adhaan is called out because Allaah has selected for His Nabi certain practices that give guidance and amongst these practices are the salaahs (in congregation). Should you ever perform your salaah at your homes as those staying behind at home do, you will be forsaking the Sunnah of your Nabi salaah as soon as you do this, you will go astray. Whenever a person purifies himself properly and then heads for one of the Masaajid, Allaah records for him the reward of a good deed for every step he takes, Allaah elevates his rank by a stage and erases a sin from his record. I saw (a time when) none of us would dare miss a salaah (in congregation) except for an open hypocrite. In fact, a man (who was very ill) would be brought with the support of two men and placed in the row."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "I saw (a time when) none of us would dare miss a salaah (in congregation) except for a person whom everyone recognised as a hypocrite or a very sick person. If a (sick) man was capable of walking with the support of two men, he would come for the salaah." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said also added, "Verily our Nabi said has taught us certain practices that give guidance and amongst these practices is to perform salaah in the Masiid where Adhaan was called out." (2)

A narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (And now I cannot find who does not have a place of salaah inside his house where he performs salaah. If you perform salaah in your homes and forsake the Masaajid, you will be forsaking the Sunnah of your Nabi (MS). (3)

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal Sassaid, "Whoever would like to go peacefully to Allaah should perform these five (Fardh) salaahs at a place where the Adhaan is called out because these are amongst the practices that give guidance and what your Nabi sassaid practically showed you. You should never say that you have reserved a place in your house where you perform salaah because if you do that you will be forsaking the Sunnah of your Nabi 總羅 and as soon as you forsake his Sunnah, you will go astray."(1)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.238).

⁽²⁾ Muslim, Abu Dawood, Nasa'ee and Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.224). Abdur Razzaaq and Diyaa in his Mukhtaarah have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzuli Pumpaal (Vol. 4 Pe.181).

⁽³⁾ Tayaalisi (Pg.40).

The Sahabah (Sees)'s Suspicion about the Person who did not Perform the Fajr and Isha Salaahs in Congregation

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was says, "When we did not see a person for the Fajr and Isha salaahs, we became suspicious of him (because it is the Munaafigeen who do not perform these salaahs)." (2)

Hadhrat Umar sse s Statement concerning a Person Who missed the Fajr Salaah in congregation because he had Stayed awake at Night In Ibaadah Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma narrates that Hadhrat Umar Sizes once did not see Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma Sizes for the Fair salaah. Hadhrat Umar was on his way to the marketplace that morning and because Hadhrat Sulaymaan & house happened to be between the Masjid and the marketplace, Hadhrat Umar (passed by Hadhrat Sulaymaan) Sissis mother Hadhrat Shifaa (2006). "I did not see Sulaymaan for the Fair salaah," Hadhrat Umar (1966) said. She explained, "He spent the night in salaah and sleep overpowered him." To this, Hadhrat Umar with remarked, "I prefer attending the Fair salaah in congregation to standing in salaah all night." (3) Hadhrat Ibn Abu Mulaykah was narrates that Hadhrat Shifaa who belonged to the Banu Adi bin Ka'b tribe once came to Hadhrat Umar Susses during Ramadhaan, Enquiring about her husband, Hadhrat Umar 竖顶弯 asked, "Why did I not see Abu Hathma for the Fajr salaah?" "O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" she explained, "He exerted himself (in Ibaadah) throughout the night and was too tired to go out to perform the Fajr salaah, so he (performed salaah at home and) slept." Hadhrat Umar (See remarked, "By Allaah! Had he been present for the Fajr salagh, it would have been more beloved to me than his exertion throughout

In another narration, Hadhrat Shifaa bint Abdullaah (2006) says, "Hadhrat Umar (2006) once came to my house where he found two men (my husband and son) fast asleep. What is the matter with these two that they were not present with us for salaah?' he asked. 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen!' t explained, 'They fell asleep after performing their Fajr salaah (at home).' To this Hadhrat Umar (2006) remarked, 'I prefer performing Fajr salaah in congregation to performing (Nafl) salaah throughout the night and until dawn," (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg. 235).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and (bn Khuzaymah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.232). Sa'eed bin Mansoor has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar $1256, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.244), as has Bazzaar, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'd (Vol.2 Pg.40).

⁽³⁾ Maalik, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.235).

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Concerning Salaah in congregation and the Action Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar took when he Missed Isha Salaah in congregation

Hadhrat Ummu Dardaa says that when (her husband) Hadhrat Abu Dardaa says once came home angry, she asked him what the matter was. He replied, "By Allaah! I know nothing else about the affairs of Muhammad except that the Muslims performed salaah only in congregation (and now people are starting to do otherwise)." (2)

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sizes missed the Isha salaah in congregation, he would remain in Ibaadah for the rest of the night. (3) Another narration states that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar missed any salaah in congregation, he would remain engaged in salaah until the next salaah. (4)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Hassaan leaves home for the Fajr Salaah the night he got Married and the Taunting he Received

Hadhrat Ambasah bin Azhar narrates that it was customary for a newly married man to remain indoors for a few days after getting married and not to leave for the Fajr salaah. However, when a Sahabi by the name of Hadhrat Haarith bin Hassaan was was married, he was leaving for Fajr when someone taunted, "You are leaving when you have just married this night?" Hadhrat Haarith was said, "By Allaah! The woman who prevents me from performing the Fajr salaah in congregation is a terrible woman indeed." (5)

Straightening and Arranging the Rows of Salaah

The Importance Rasulullaah Attached to Straightening the Rows of the Sahabah in Salaah

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib Mass narrates that Rasulullaah Mass used to go to the ends of the rows and straighten the chests and shoulders of the people saying, "Do not be in disarray otherwise your hearts will be in disarray (will be disunited). Verily Allaah bestows His special mercy on the people standing in the

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaag, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 243).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.303).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.349).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'ld (Vol.2 Pg.41).

first row and the angels pray for their forgiveness." (1)

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib (1986) says, "Rasulullaah (1986) used to weave between the rows from one end to the other, touching our chests and shoulders (when straightening the rows) and saying, 'Do not stand in disarray,'"(2)

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah (1996) narrates that Rasulullaah (1996) once came out to them and said, "Will you not form your rows as the angels form theirs in front of their Rabb?" When the Sahabah (1996) enquired how it was that the angels formed their rows, Rasulullaah (1996) replied, "They first complete the front rows and stand close to each other."

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samurah (1966) also narrates that they were once performing salaah with Rasulullaah (1966) when he motioned them to sit down. When they sat down, Rasulullaah (1966) said, "What prevents you from forming your rows as the angels form theirs?" The rest of the narration is similar to the one above. (4)

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer (Says), "Rasulullaah (Says) used to straighten our rows as meticulously as he would straighten an arrow. This he did until we had understood him perfectly. On one occasion when Rasulullaah (Says) came out for salaah, he stood there and was about to say 'Allaahu Akbar' when he noticed someone's chest standing out from the row. He then said, 'O servants of Allaah! You will have to straighten your rows otherwise Allaah will cast disunity between you." (5) Another narration states that Hadhrat Nu'maan (Says) added, "I then saw a man touching his shoulders with those of the person beside him, touching his knees with those of the other man and also touching his ankles with those of the other man."

Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat the Straightening of Rows before the Takbeer

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that Hadhrat Umar wieed to instruct the people to straighten their rows and it was only when they reported to him that the rows were straightened did he call out the Takbeer (to commence the salaah). (7)

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi (Fig. reports that Hadhrat Uthmaan (Fig.) used to instruct the people to straighten their rows and would actually call people by their names to tell them to move forward. He also said, "When people keep staying back, Allaah will eventually keep them back." (8)

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan was also reports that he noticed that whenever Hadhrat Umar sizes stepped forward (to lead the salaah), he would look at the

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Khuzaymah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg. 282).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg. 289).

⁽³⁾ Muslim, Abu Dawood, Nasa'ee and Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.283).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood and Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.255).

⁽⁵⁾ Maalik, Muslim, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah and Nasa'ee.

⁽⁶⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.289).

⁽⁷⁾ Maalik, Abdur Razzaag and Bayhagi.

⁽⁸⁾ Abdur Razzaaq.

shoulders and feet of the followers (to see if they were in line)." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Nadhar narrates that when salaah was about to begin, Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab would tell people to straighten their rows and would take people's names as he told them to either move forward or backward. He would also add, "Keep your rows straight because Allaah wishes you to adopt the method of the angels (when they form their rows)." He would then recited the verse:

"Indeed, we (the angels) are standing in rows (worshipping Allaah). Indeed, we are glorifying Allaah (all the time)." (Surah Saafaat, verses 165,166).

Hadhrat Maalik says, "I was with Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan when the people stood up for salaah. I was busy requesting him to grant me an allowance and continued doing so as he straightened some pebbles with his shoe. Eventually some men whom he had appointed to straighten the rows reported to him that the rows had been straightened. He then told me to stand straight in one of the rows and called out the Takbeer." (3)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Ali (1988) used to say (to the people standing in rows for salaah), "Stand straight and your hearts will be straight, stand close to each other and you will have compassion for each other." (4)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Concerning the Straightening of Rows

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ($356) said, "I saw a time when salaah would not begin until we had completed the rows of salaah." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sies) also said, "Verily Allaah bestows His special mercy on the people who advance through the rows to the first row of salaah and the angels pray for their forgiveness." (6)

Statements of Rasulullaah Abdullaah bin Abbaas Abdullaah bin Abbaas Abdullaah bin Abbaas Abdullaah bin Abbaas Abdullaah bin Abbaas Abdullaah Birst Row

Hadhrat Abdul Azeez bin Rufay reports, "It was during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr that Hadhrat Aamir bin Mas'ood Qurashi was trying to get ahead of the to the first row at the Maqaam Ibraheem in Makkah. 'Is there much good mentioned about the first row?' I asked. 'By Allaah! There certainly is,' he replied, 'Rasulullaah was said that if people realised the value of the first row, the only way in which the rows would be formed would be

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.254-255).

⁽²⁾ Abd bin Humayd, Ibn Jareer and Ibn Abi Haatim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 255).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 255).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.255).

⁽⁶⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.90).

⁽⁶⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.92) has commented on the chain of narrators.

by drawing lots." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Ensure that you always stand in the first row and ensure that it is on the right of the first row. You should also refrain from forming rows between pillars." (2)

Rasulullaah E Instructs that the Muhaajireen and Ansaar should Occupy the First Row

Hadhrat Qais bin Ubaadah says, "I was present in Madinah when the people stood up for salaah. I then forged ahead and stood in the first row, Hadhrat Umar arrived and made his way through the rows to get to the front (to lead the salaah). With him was a tanned man with a sparse beard. Looking at the faces of the people there, his eyes fell on me and he pushed me aside to stand in my place. This hurt me very deeply. However, when the salaah was over, he turned to me and said, 'Let not what had happened upset you or cause you grief because I am sure that it hurt you. However, I have heard Rasulullaah We say that none save the Muhaajireen and Ansaar should occupy the first row.' When I asked the people who the man was, they informed me that he was Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b ··(3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Oais says, "As I was performing salaah in the first row of the Masjid of Madinah, someone came from behind, pulled me back and stood in my place. After the salaah was over, he turned to me and I realised that he was Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (Spiece). He then said to me, "May Allaah never make you upset, dear youngster. This was something that Rasulullaah emigined upon us..." The narration then continues like the one above. (4)

Involvement of the Imaam with the Needs of the People after the Igaamah has Been Called out

Rasulullaah si Involvement With Such Matters

Hadhrat Usaamah bin Umayr says, "People would have already stood up for salaah when a person would stand between Rasulullaah & and the Oibla. presenting his need to Rasulullaah WE. He would remain standing there and talking with Rasulullaah for such a long time that I sometimes saw some people nodding off to sleep because of the long while Rasulullaah 2 had to remain standing there." (5)

Hadhrat Anas (marrates that the people would be ready to perform the Isha salaah when Rasulullaah & needed to speak to a person. A few of the Sahabah

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.92) has commented on the chain of narrators. (2) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.92) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Haakim In his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.303), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi. (4) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilva (Vol.1 Pg.352).

⁽⁵⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.234). Abdur Razzaaq and Abush Sheikh have reported a similar parration from Hadhrat Anas $20056, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.273):

would actually fall asleep (during the wait) and would then wake up when the salaah began. (1)

Hadhrat Urwa size narrates that people would discuss their needs with Rasulullaah size after the Mu'adhin had called out the Iqaamah and the people had already hushed. Rasulullaah size would then see that the need was fulfilled, Hadhrat Anas sizes mentions that Rasulullaah size had a staff on which he would lean (when the dialogue became too long). (2)

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah was the most compassionate of people and whenever someone came to him (with a request), he would promise it to him (if he did not have then) and then give it to him when he had it. People had already stood up for salaah one day when a Bedouin arrived and, grabbing on to Rasulullaah we clothing, he demanded, 'A small portion of what I need is still due and I fear that I may forget about it (so I want it now).' Rasulullaah then stood up with him and only returned to lead the salaah after he had finished with the man." (3)

Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan sizes Involvement With Such Matters

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi says, "Salaah would be about to commence when a person would come before Hadhrat Umar (1996) to discuss something. In fact, some of us would actually sit down because we would be standing so long." (4) Hadhrat Moosa bin Talha says, "As he sat on the pulpit and the Mu'adhin was busy calling out the Iqaamah, I heard Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (1996) asking people about their conditions and market prices." (5)

The narration has already passed in the chapter discussing the straightening of rows in which Hadhrat Maalik says, "I was with Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan when the people stood up for salaah. I was busy requesting him to grant me an allowance and continued doing so as he straightened some pebbles with his shoe..."

Leading the Salaah and Following the Imaam During the Time of Rasulullaah

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan Sussession Concerning the Discipline of the Sahabah When he saw them Performing Salaah

Detailed narrations have already appeared in the chapter discussing the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah and the Conquest of Madinah in which it is stated that Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol A Pg. 273).

⁽²⁾ Abush Shelkh in his Adhaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.234).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari in his Adab (Pg.43).

⁽⁴⁾ Abur Rabee Zahraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.230).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Habbaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.234). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.59) has reported a similar narration.

题题 said to Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan 题题题。"O Abu Sufyaan! Accept Islaam and live in peace." After Hadhrat Abu Sufvaan Sales accepted Islaam, he proceeded with Hadhrat Abbaas was to his camp. The next morning when the Sahabah 图题 rushed to perform wudhu. Hadhrat Abu Sufvaan 知識 asked. "What is the matter with the people, O Abul Fadhl? Have they received an order?" "No." replied Hadhrat Abbaas ("they are preparing for salaah." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan with then performed wudhu on the instructions of Hadhrat Abbaas 题题, who then took him to Rasulullaah 题题. Rasulullaah 题题 started the salaah and when he called out the Takbeer, the Sahabah (1966) followed suit. They all then made Ruku when Rasulullaah & made Ruku and got up again when Rasulullaah get up. To this, Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan green remarked, "To this day have I never seen such discipline from a nation who have been gathered together from such varying backgrounds! Neither are the nobles of Persia nor the long-established Romans as well disciplined as this!" Addressing Hadhrat Abbaas (he said further, "O Abul Fadhl! Your nephew has certainly founded a great kingdom," "It is not a kingdom," Hadhrat Abbaas replied, "This is Nubuwwah," (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Maymoona quoted in the chapter discussing the Conquest of Makkah states that when Rasulullaah gos got up to perform wudhu, the Muslims would compete to get the wudhu water and rub it on their faces. To this, Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan remarked, "O Abul Fadhli Your nephew has certainly founded a great kingdom," "It is not a kingdom," Hadhrat Abbaas replied, "This is Nubuwwah and it is this that the people are so zealous about." (2)

A narration from Hadhrat Urwa states that when Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan awoke the morning after he had spent the night with Hadhrat Abbaas spent to purify themselves. Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan became alarmed at this sight and asked Hadhrat Abbaas what the matter was. Hadhrat Abbaas replied, "They have heard the Adhaan and are now scattering about to prepare for salaah." When salaah commenced and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan sweet he Sahabah when salaah commenced and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan sweet he Sahabah when salaah commenced and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan when the Sahabah when salaah commenced and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan when saw the Sahabah when salaah commenced and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan when saw the Sahabah when salaah commenced and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan when salaah sweet he salaah when salaah s

The Sahabah Perform Salaah behind Hadhrat Abu Bakr I upon the Instruction of Rasulullaah

In the chapter discussing the enthusiasm Rasulullaah (had for salaah, a narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha (has already passed stating that (when he was critically ill) Rasulullaah sees sent a message to Abu Bakr sees to lead the salaah. Abu Bakr sees was a soft person so he said to Umar sees, "You lead the salaah, O Umar!" Umar sees however said, "You are more worthy of the privilege." Abu Bakr sees then led the salaah during those days.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.300).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.164) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.291).

A narration of Bukhaari also quoted in the chapter states that Rasulullaah said, "Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in salaah," Rasulullaah instructed. One of Rasulullaah saids wives remarked, "Abu Bakr is a soft man who will be unable lead the salaah when he stands in your place." Rasulullaah however repeated the instruction, but again met with the same response. When this happened a third time, Rasulullaah said, "You women are just like the women around Yusuf said." Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in salaah."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zam'ah (1966) reports, "A few Muslims and I happened to be with Rasulullaah We when his illness had become critical. When Bilaal said, 'Appoint someone to lead, 'Appoint someone to lead, the salaah.' I left and found Umar was amongst the people. Abu Bakr was not there. I therefore told Umar was to lead the salaah. Umar was then stood up and when he said 'Allaahu Akbar' Rasulullaah 🕮 heard his voice because his voice was very loud. Rasulullaah then asked. Then where is Abu Bakr? Neither Allaah nor the Muslims can accept this! Neither Allaah nor the Muslims can accept this!' Rasulullaah @ then sent for Abu Bakr som and when he arrived, Umar with had already completed the salaah. Abu Bakr then lead the people in salaah. Umar the then said to me, 'O dear! What have you done, O Ibn Zam'ah? I swear by Allaah that when you told me to lead the salaah, I thought that it was an instruction from Rasululiaah (## . Had I known better, I would have never led the salaah.' I explained, 'By Allaah! Rasulullaah Es certainly did not instruct me to appoint you but when I did not see Abu Bakr was and only saw you, I regarded you as being most worthy of leading the salaah."(1)

Another narration states that when Rasulullaah A heard Hadhrat Umar Sees voice, he came out and with his head out of the room, he said angrily, "No! No! None but the son of Abu Quhaafah (i.e. Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sees) should lead the salaah." (2)

In the chapter discussing how the Sahabah least elected Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sules to the post of Khilaafah (3), a narration has passed in which Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Sules said, "I am not likely to step head of a person whom Rasulullaah (4) had commanded to lead us in salaah and who then led us in salaah until Rasulullaah (4) passed away."

(2) Abu Dawood, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg.323).

Ahmad and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.5 Pg 232). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.641) has reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "The Sahabah Place Hadhrat Abu Bakr 1996 Ahead for Khilaafah, Are Pleased to Select him and Condemn Anyone who desires to Divide their Unity" and the subheading "A Hadith of Ahmad and the statements of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 1996 and Hadirat Uhmaan 1996 Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 1996".

Also quoted in the same chapter⁽¹⁾ is the statement that Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Zubayr Male when they said, "However, we are also of the opinion that Abu Bakr Male is most worthy of the post after Rasulullaah Male He was the companion of Rasulullaah Male in the cave and the 'second of the two'. We definitely acknowledge his status and his seniority. After all, Rasulullaah Male did instruct him to lead the Muslims in salaah while Rasulullaah Male was alive."

The Statements of Hadhrat Umar was and Hadhrat Ali was Concerning Hadhrat Abu Bakr Leading the Salaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood since narrates that when Rasulullaah since passed away, the Ansaar said, "There should be an Ameer from us and one from you (Muhaajireen)." Hadhrat Umar since then went to them and said, "Did you not know that Rasulullaah since had placed Abu Bakr since forward (to lead the salaah)?" The Ansaar then said, "Allaah forbid that we should ever place ourselves ahead of Abu Bakr since part (2)

Hadhrat Ali sees said, "Rasulullaah see certainly instructed Abu Bakr sees to lead the salaah when I was present, neither unavailable nor ill. Therefore, to take charge of our matters of this world (as Khalifah) we are pleased to have the person whom Nabi see selected to take charge of our matters of Deen (our salaah)." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi Concerning the Leadership of Arabs

The Sahabah Files follow Slaves in Salaah

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed was a slave of the Banu Usayd tribe. He prepared a meal one

⁽I) Under the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) declines to Accept the post of Khalifah and the statements of Hadhrat Ali (1996) and Hadhrat Zubayr (1996) he is most Worthy of the Position".

⁽²⁾ Nasa'ee, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.206).

⁽³⁾ Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.354).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.189). Tabraani and Abu Ya'la have reported a similar narration. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.156) has commented on the chain of narrators.

day and invited Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Wee). When the time arrived for salaah, Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed says, "They then put me forward (to lead the salaah) whereas I was just a slave. Nevertheless, I led them in the salaah." (1)

Hadhrat Naafi reports, "People had stood up for salaah in a Masjid in a district of Madinah where Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar who had a property. The Imaam of the Masjid was a slave and when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar came for the salaah, the Imaam requested him to lead the salaah. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar declined saying, 'You have a greater right to lead the salaah in your Masjid.' The Imaam then proceeded to lead the salaah." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Handhala (Wiss narrates, "We were in the house of Qais bin Sa'd bin Ubaadah (Wiss with a group of Sahabah (Wiss when we told him to lead the salaah. 'I cannot do so (in the presence of men better than I),' he submitted. I said, 'Rasulullaah (Wiss said that a man has a greater right to the front of his bed, to the front of his animal and to lead the salaah in his house.' He then instructed one of his slaves who went forward and led the salaah." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Ferforms Salaah Behind Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari in his house

Hadhrat Alqama narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wood once visited Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari at his house. When the time for salaah arrived, Hadhrat Abu Moosa said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wood, "Go forward (to lead the salaah), O Abu Abdur Rahmaan because you are elder and more knowledgeable than I." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood replied, "You rather go forward because I have come your house and your Masjid. You therefore have a greater right." Hadhrat Abu Moosa forward and removed his shoes (and led the salaah). After he had completed, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood wood saked, "What was your reason for removing your shoes? Are you on the Waadi Muqaddas (where Hadhrat Moosa was when he had to remove his shoes)?" (4)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari saids, "O Abu Moosa! You know well that the Sunnah practice is for the owner of the house to go forward (to lead the salaah)." However, Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari saids refused to do so until one of their

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.246).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaag, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.247).

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.65) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.66) has commented on the chain of narrators.

slaves went forward. (1)

Hadhrat Furaat bin Hayyaan Ferforms Salaah in his Masjid behind Hadhrat Handhala bin Rabee Forms on the Instruction of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Qais bin Zuhayr was says, "I once walked with Handhala bin Rabee to the Masjid of Furaat bin Hayyaan was. When the time for salaah arrived, Hadhrat Furaat was told Hadhrat Handhala to go forward (to lead the salaah). Hadhrat Handhala was refused saying, "I cannot lead you in salaah when you are elder than me and have migrated before me. In addition to this, it is your Masjid, Hadhrat Furaat was however said, "I have heard Rasulullaah says something about you because of which I can never lead you in salaah." "So were you also present during the Battle of Taa'if when Rasulullaah sent me as a spy?" Hadhrat Handhala saked. When Hadhrat Furaat confirmed that he was present, Hadhrat Handhala stepped forward and led the salaah.

(When the salaah was over) Hadhrat Furaat (turned to the people and) said, "O tribe of Ijal! I have made him lead the salaah because Rasulullaah (see once sent him to Taa'if as a spy and when he reported back, Rasulullaah (see said to him, 'Your information is correct. You may return to your camp because you have been awake all night.' As he turned and left, Rasulullaah (see said to us, 'Always follow him and the likes of him." (2).

The Ameer of Makkah Appoints Hadhrat Ibn Abzah as his Deputy to Lead the salaah To the Approval of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla sign narrates that when he once accompanied Hadhrat Umar sign to Makkah, they were received by the Hadhrat Naafi bin Algama sign who was the Ameer of Makkah. "Who have you appointed as your deputy over the people?" Hadhrat Umar sign asked. "Abdur Rahmaan bin Abzah sign," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar sign said, "You chose a man from amongst the slaves over members of the Quraysh and the Sahabah sign of Rasulullaah sign." "That I have done," Hadhrat Naafi sign replied, "because I found him to be the most proficient reciter of the Qur'aan and because Makkah is a place where people from all parts gather, I wanted them to listen to Allaah's Book from a person who recited well." "Your judgement is excellent," Hadhrat Umar sign commended, "Abdur Rahmaan bin Abzah sign sertainly amongst the people whom Allaah has elevated through the

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.65). Abu Ya'la, Baghawi and Ibn Asaakir have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.28).

Our'aan." (1)

Hadhrat Miswar pulls back an Imaam Whose Recitation was not Clear and Hadhrat Umar Sanctions his Act

Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr Amarates that it was during the Hajj season when a large gathering of people amassed around a spring in Makkah. When the time for salaah arrived, a person who was not Arabic speaking and who belonged to the family of Hadhrat Abu Saa'ib Makhzoomi Seeaking and who belonged to the family of Hadhrat Abu Saa'ib Makhzoomi Seeaking and who belonged to the family of Hadhrat Abu Saa'ib Makhzoomi Seeaking pulled the man back and put another man forward. When the news reached Hadhrat Umar Sees arrived in Madinah. It was only when Hadhrat Miswar Came to Madinah that Hadhrat Umar Sees questioned him about it. "Give me a chance, O Ameerul Mu'mineen!" Hadhrat Miswar Sees entreated. He then explained, "The man was not Arabic-speaking (whose recitation was unclear) and because it was during Hajj, I feared that some people who were there for Hajj would hear his recitation and adopt its non-Arabic mode of recitation." "Was that the express reason for what you did?" Hadhrat Umar Sees asked. When Hadhrat Miswar Sees confirmed that it was, Hadhrat Umar Sees said, "You did the right thing." (2)

Hadhrat Talha saks a Congregation he had Led in salaah whether they were Pleased with his Salaah Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah (Talha bin Ubaydullaah), he said, "I had forgotten to consult with you before going ahead and leading the salaah. Are you pleased with my salaah?" "Of course," the congregation replied, "who will be displeased with it, O selected companion of Rasulullaah (Talha (Ta

Hadhrat Anas 's Differences with Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez and Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob 's Differences with MArwaan Concerning salaah

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez once asked Hadhrat Anas (William) why he did not perform salaah behind him (4). Hadhrat Anas (1) replied, "I had seen

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.216).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.246).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.68) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Before he became the Khalifah, Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez used to prolong the salaah until the Rasulullaah @ perform salaah and I shall perform salaah with you only when your salaah is consistent with Rasulullaah @ salaah. However, when your salaah differs from Rasulullaah @ salaah, I shall perform salaah (by myself) and then return to my family," (1)

Marwaan bin Hakam once asked Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob why he did not perform salaah behind him. Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob replied, "I have seen Rasulullaah perform salaah in a certain manner and will follow you only when your salaah conforms to his salaah. However, when your salaah differs from Rasulullaah sis salaah, I shall perform salaah (by myself) and then return to my family." (2)

The statements of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1996), Hadhrat Anas (1996) and Hadhrat Adi (1996) About the Salaah of the Sahabah (1996) Behind Rasulullaah (1996)

Hadhrat Abu Jaabir Waalidi says, "I once asked Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (after he had led the salaah), 'Was the salaah of Rasulullaah (is like this?' 'What did you not like about the way I performed salaah?' he asked. '(There is nothing I do not like but) I only wanted to know,' I replied. He said, 'Yes, it was like this, only shorter.' His Qiyaam was as long as it takes a Mu'adhin to descend from the Minaret and reach the row of salaah." 'Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Jaabir added, "I once saw Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (3) performing a very short salaah." (3)

Hadhrat Anas (1966) once said, "The salaah we performed with Rasulullaah (1968) was such that you people will criticise if anyone had to perform the same (because of its brevity)." (4)

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim work once attended a gathering and when the time for salaah arrived, the Imaam went forward and led the salaah. However, because he prolonged the sitting posture, Hadhrat Adi salaah said after the salaah was completed, "The person leading the salaah should complete the Ruku and Sajdah properly (but not prolong the Qiyaam and sitting postures) because behind him are young children, old people, sick people, travellers and people with urgent needs." When the time arrived for the next salaah, Hadhrat Adi salaah himself went forward and while completing the Ruku and Sajdah properly, he made the salaah brief. After completing the salaah, he turned to the people and said, "That was how we performed salaah behind Rasuluilaah (%).

time expired, just as the Uniayyad rulers used to do. This was why Hadhrat Anas (2006) refused to follow him in salaah. However, when Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez became the Khalilah, he stopped doing this.

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.68).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.68).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.71).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahrnad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.71).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani and Ahmad, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 2 Pg. 73).

Rasulullaah and the Sahabah Weep in Salaah

Rasulullaah Weeps in Salaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha & says, "After spending the night, Rasulullaah www would be summoned (to salaah) by Bilaal was calling out the Adhaan. He would then get up and take a bath. I would then see the water dripping on his cheek and beard as he left for salaah, after which I would hear him weep in salaah." (1) Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr 医畸形 once asked Hadhrat Aa'isha 医畸形, "Tell me what the most remarkable incident that you saw with Rasulullaah (## " Hadhrat Aa'isha was silent for awhile and then she said, "One night Rasulullaah said to me, 'Do excuse me to worship my Rabb tonight.' 'By Allaah!' I replied, 'While I love to be near you. I also love anything that pleases you,' Rasulullaah then stood up, performed wudhy and started performing salaah. He went so much as he was sitting that his lap became wet (with tears). He then continued weeping until his beard was drenched. He had then eventually wept so much more that the ground around him became soaked. When Bilaal came to inform him that the time for salaah had arrived, he saw Rasulullaah weeping and asked, 'O Rasulullaah : Why do you weep so much when Allaah has forgiven all your previous and future errors?' Rasulullaah (replied, 'Should I then not be a grateful slave? A tremendous verse has been revealed to me tonight. Woe be to the person who recites it without pondering over it: (The verse is)

﴿ إِنَّ فِيْ خَلْقِ السَّمَوٰكِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافِ النَّهِلِ وَالنَّهَارِ لَالْتِ لِأَوْلِي الْأَلْبَاكِ ۞ الَّذِيْنَ يَذُكُرُونَ اللَّهَ قِيَامًا وَقَعُودًا وَعَلَى جُنُوبِهِمْ وَيَتَفَكَّرُونَ فِي خَلْقِ السَّمَوٰكِ وَالْأَرْضِ * رَبَّنَا مَا خَلَقَتَ هَذَا بَاطِلًا * سُبُخِنَكَ فَفَنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ ۞ (آل عبران ١٩٠)

Verily in the (perfect and wonderful) creation of the heavens and the earth (and whatever is within these) and in the alternation (changing) of the night and day are signs (that show Allaah's great power) for those who have intelligence (who care to ponder). (Those who have intelligence are) They who remember Allaah while standing, sitting and lying down (they do not forget Allaah at any time), and they think about the creation of the heavens and earth (so that they may be able to see Allaah's greatness in this). (Then, amazed by Allaah's creation, they say) "Our Rabb You have not created all this without a purpose! (These things certainly display Your power and greatness and have not been created in vain) We glorify Your purity (none can ever be equal to You) so save us from the punishment of the Fire (of Jahannam)..." (Surah Aal Imraan, verses 190+) (2)

Hadhrat Mutarraf reports from his father (1) Abu Ya'la, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.89).

(2) Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.32).

performing salaah while there came from his chest a sound resembling the sound of a grindstone because of his weeping." (1) Another narration states that the sound from Rasulullaah (2)'s chest resembled the sound of a (boiling) pot. (2)

Hadhrat Umar Weeps in salaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Shaddaad bin Al Haad says, "I was standing in one of the last rows during the Fair salaah and I could hear Hadhrat Umar (Six) cry aloud as he recited Surah Yusuf and reached the verse:

﴿ انَّمَا اَشْكُوا بَنِّي وَحُزُني إلى الله ﴾ (سورة يوسف: آيت٨١)

"I complain of my sorrow and my grief only to Allaah." (Surah Yusuf, verse 86) (3)
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (3) says, "When performing salaah behind Hadhrat Umar (3), I could hear his weeping from three rows back." (4)

Devotion and Concentration in Salaah

The Devotion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd (Singles says that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Singles could not be distracted when performing salaah. (5)

Hadhrat Mujaahid says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (1996) would stand (still) like a stick in salaah, which was exactly as Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) used to do. That is what devotion in salaah means."

Hadhrat Mujaahid says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (7) like a stick in salaah. It is said that this was due to his devotion in salaah." (7) Hadhrat Ibnul Munkadir says, "Had you seen Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr performing salaah, you would surely say that he is a branch of a tree that the wind laps over. In fact, missiles fired from catapults would be falling all about (around him as he performed salaah) but he would pay no attention to them." Another narration from Hadhrat Ataa states that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr performed salaah, he was like a cane fixed in the ground. (8)

The Devotion of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood in salaah Hadhrat Zaid bin Abdullaah Shaybaani says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 🖽 😘

- (I) Abu Dawood,
- (2) Nasa'ee, as quoted in Targheeh wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.32).
- (3) Abdur Razzaaq, Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ibn Sa'd and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.387).
- (4) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.52).
- (5) Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.347).
- (6) Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.360).
- (7) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.335), as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.310).
- (8) Abu Nu'aym in his Hillya (Vol.1 Pg.335), Tabraani has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.136).

walked so slowly for salaah that if an ant were walking beside him, you would say that he will not beat the ant." (1)

Hadhrat Waasi bin Hibbaan says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William liked everything of his to face the Qibla when he performed salaah and would even face his thumbs towards the Qibla." (2)

Hadhrat Tawoos says, "I have never seen anyone perform salaah like Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986). He was so particular about facing the Qibla that even his face, palms and feet faced Qibla." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Burdah narrates, "I once performed salaah next to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Sie When he was in Sajdah, I heard him say, 'O Allaah! Make Yourself the most beloved entity to me and the one I fear most.' I also heard him recite in salaah:

'O my Rabb! On account of the favours (forgiveness, knowledge and wisdom) you have given me, I shall never be among those who are accomplices to criminals.' (Surah Qasas, verse 17)

He also said, "Whenever I perform salaah, I hope that it will be a means of atonement (for my sins)." $^{(4)}$

Hadhrat A'mash stated that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ($$\square\sigma\sigma\) performed salaah, he (was so still that he) appeared to be a discarded piece of cloth. (5)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Reprimands his wife Hadhrat Ummu Roomaan for Leaning in her Salaah

Hadhrat Ummu Roomaan Says, "When Abu Bakr Says once saw me leaning while performing salaah, he reprimanded me so sternly that I almost terminated my salaah. He then said, 'I heard Rasulullaah Says say, 'When any of you stand in salaah, his limbs should be at ease and he should never lean to any side as the Jews do. Being at ease during salaah serves to complete the salaah." (6)

The Importance Rasulullaah Attached to the Emphasised Sunnah Salaahs

The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha Regarding the Sunnah Salaahs Rasulullaah Performed

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Shaqeeq reports that he once enquired from Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.154).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.157).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.304).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. I Pg.304).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg. 136) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Adi and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 9 Pg. 304), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 230)

Aa'isha about the optional salaahs that Rasulullaah performed. She replied, "Rasulullaah would perform four Rakaahs at home before the Zuhr salaah. He would then leave for the Masjid to lead the people in salaah. Thereafter, he would return to my room and perform two Rakaahs. After leading the people in Maghrib salaah, he would return to my room and perform two Rakaahs. Afterwards, he would lead the people in Isha and then return to perform two Rakaahs in my room. At night, he would perform nine Rakaahs salaah including the Witr. At times he would perform salaah for long time standing while at other times, he would perform salaah for a long time sitting. When performing salaah standing, he would perform Ruku and Sajdah from a standing position and when performing salaah sitting, he would perform Ruku and Sajdah from a sitting position. Then when dawn broke, he would perform two Rakaahs before leaving for the Masjid to lead the people in the Fajr salaah "(1)"

The Extreme Importance Rasulullaah gave to the Two Rakaahs Before the Fajr Salaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha 🕮 says, "Rasulullaah 🕮 did not attach as much importance to any optional salaahs as much as he attached to the two Rakaahs of Fair." (2) In another narration, Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) states, "I have not seen Rasulullaah (so eager to do any good deed as much as he was to perform the two Rakaahs before Fajr. In fact, he was not even that eager for booty." (3) Hadhrat Aa'isha also mentioned that Rasulullaah we would never omit the four Rakaahs before Zuhr salaah and the two Rakaahs before Fair. (4) Hadhrat Bilaal 經過過 reports that he once went to inform Rasulullaah 認識 that the time for Fajr had arrived. Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) occupied Hadhrat Bilaal by asking him about something until the sky had started to get very bright, Hadhrat Bilaal Susses then started to call Rasulullaah & several times, but Rasulullaah & did not come out. After a while, Rasulullaah & came out and after leading the salaah, Hadhrat Bilaal wife informed him that Hadhrat Aa'isha was had occupied him by asking him about something and that (despite him calling) Rasulullaah 🕮 had delayed in coming out, Rasulullaah said, "(I was delayed because) I had been performing the two Rakaahs of Fair." "O Rasulullaah 微麗!" Hadhrat Bilaal 经隐藏 asked, "(Why did you not leave it out because) The sky had already become very bright?" Rasulullaah 🕮 replied. "Even if the sky had become brighter than that, I would have still performed it and performed it well and properly." (5) Muslim, as quoted in Safwatus Safwah (Vol.) Pg.75). Abu Dawood and Tirmidhi have also reported the narration, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'ld (Vol.) Pg.110).

⁽²⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim and others.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Khuzaymah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg. 361).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhaari.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Dawood (Vol.2 Pg.259), reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Nawawi in Riyaadhus Saaltheen (Pg.416)

The Extreme Importance Rasulullaah @ gave to the Four Rakaahs Before the Fardh of Zuhr Salaah

Hadhrat Oaaboos reports that his father once sent someone to ask Hadhrat Aa'isha which salaah (apart from the Faraa'idh) Rasulullaah was most loved to perform with consistency. Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) replied, "It was the four Rakaahs before Zuhr in which Rasulullaah 優麗 prolonged the Qiyaam and meticulously performed the Ruku and Sajdah." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Saa'ib 经验验 narrates that Rasulullaah 经验 used to perform four Rakaahs salaah after the sun had crossed the meridian but before (the Fardh of) Zuhr. To this Rasulullaah www would say, "This is the hour when the doors to the skies are opened and I would love to have my good deeds ascend through them. (2)

Hadhrat Ali Sigo reports that Rasulullaah & used to perform four Rakaahs before (the Fardh of) Zuhr and two Rakaahs after. (3)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (1998) narrates that if Rasulullaah (1998) was unable to perform the four Rakaahs before (the Fardhof) Zuhr, he would perform them afterwards. (4) Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob 到端 says that from the time Rasulullaah 器 started staving with him, he noticed that Rasulullaah are regularly performed four Rakaahs before Zuhr and said, "The doors of the skies are opened when the sun crosses the meridian and no door closes until the Zuhr salaah has been performed. Ithereforeloye to have a good deed of mine raised during this time."(5)

Rasulullaah Wis Salaah before Asr and After Maghrib

Hadhrat Ali www said, "Before the Asr salaah Rasulullaah www would perform four Rakaahs salaah, separating them with Salaam to the high-ranking angels and the Muslims and Mu'mineen who follow them." (6) Another narration from Hadhrat Ali Sisses states that Rasulullaah Be performed two Rakaahs before Asr. (7)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was narrates that after the Maghrib salaah Rasulullaah was used to perform two Rakaahs salaah in which he prolonged the recitation of the Qur'aan so long that the people in the Masjid had already dispersed (by the time he completed). (8)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.364).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg. 364).

⁽³⁾ Tirmidhi (Pg.57).

⁽⁴⁾ Tirmidhi (Pg.57).

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.364) and Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg.189).

⁽⁶⁾ Tirmidhi (Pg.58).

⁽⁷⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Riyaadhus Saaliheen (Pg.419). Abu Ya'la and Tabraani have reported similar parrations from Hadhrat Maymoona was as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol. 2

⁽⁸⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.230) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Importance the Sahabah Attached to the Emphasised Sunnah Salaahs

The Importance Hadhrat Umar sizes gave to the Sunnah Salaahs Before the Fajr and Zuhr Salaahs

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that Hadhrat Umar (1) said about the two Rakaahs before Fajr, "They are more beloved to me than red camels." (1) Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abdullaah reports that he once went to Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (1) when the latterwas performing salaah before Zuhr. "What salaah is this?" Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan asked. Hadhrat Umar (1) replied, "It is counted from amongst the salaah of the night (i.e. it carries the reward of the Tahajjud salaah)." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Utba says, "I performed four Rakaahs salaah with Hadhrat. Umar ﷺ in his house before the Zuhr salaah:" ⁽³⁾

The Importance Hadhrat Ali was and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was gave to the Sunnah Salaahs Before the Zuhr Salaah

Hadhrat Hudhayla bin Usayd reports that he noticed Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib performing four long Rakaahs of salaah after the sun has crossed its meridian and asked about it. Hadhrat Ali replied, "I saw Rasulullaah performing this salaah..." The rest of the Hadith is similar to the narration of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (14)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Yazeed says, "Someone closest to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood informed me that after the sun had crossed its meridian, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood would stand up and perform four Rakaahs salaah in which he would recite two Surahs from the Mi'een (Surahs that have more than a hundred verses). Thereafter, when the Mu'adhin called out the Adhaan, he would dress fully and then leave (for the Masjid) for the salaah." (5) Hadhrat Aswad, Hadhrat Murra and Hadhrat Masrooq all narrate that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "No salaah of the day equals the salaah of the night except for the four Rakaahs before Zuhr. The virtue of this salaah over the other (optional) salaahs of the day is like the virtue of the congregational salaah over the salaah performed individually. (6)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Ties Said, "No salaah of the day equals the salaah of the night except for the four Rakaahs before Zuhr because they have always been regarded as being on par with the Tahajjud salaah." (7)

⁽¹⁾ ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.201).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 189).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shavbah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.189)

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.221) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.221) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁷⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.189).

The Importance Hadhrat Baraa and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar as gave to the Sunnah Salaahs Before the Zuhr Salaah

It is reported that both Hadhrat Baraa ($100) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ($100) performed the four Rakaahs of Sunnah salaah.

It is also narrated that whenever the sun passes its meridian, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would proceed to the Masjid where he would perform twelve Rakaahs salaah before the (Fardh of) Zuhr. Only then would he sit down. (2) Hadhrat Naafi narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar would perform eight Rakaahs salaah before the Zuhr salaah and then four Rakaahs afterwards.(3)

The Importance Hadhrat Ali and gave to the Sunnah Salaah Before the Asr Salaah and The Importance Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Attached to the Sunnah Salaahs Between the Maghrib and Isha Salaahs

Hadhrat Ali said, "Rasulullaah se emphatically advised me never to forsake three acts throughout my life. One of them is to perform four Rakaahs before Asr. I shall therefore never leave them out for as long as I live." (4) Hadhrat Abu Faakhtah narrates that when Hadhrat Ali said once mentioned that the salaahs between the Maghrib and Isha salaahs are called Salaatu! Ghaflah ('salaah of negligence'), he added, "Now you people have fallen into negligence (because you neglect these salaahs)." (5) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Said once said, "The person who performs four Rakaahs salaah after Maghrib is like the person fighting battle after battle (in the path of Allaah)."

The Importance Rasulullaah and the Sahabah Attached to the Tahajjud Salaah

A Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning The Importance that Rasulullaah Attached to Qiyaamul Layl

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abul Qais narrates that Hadhrat Aa'isha was said.

- (1) Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.A Pg.189).
- (2) Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 189).
- (3) Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 189).
- (4) Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 191).
- (5) Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.192).
- (6) Ibn Zanjway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg. 193).

"Never omit the Qiyaamul Layl because Rasulullaah (2006) never left it out. Even when he was ill or very tired, he would perform it sitting down rather that leaving it out." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir About the Tahajjud Salaah Being Compulsory Before Concession was Granted

Hadhrat Jaabir 委認等 says, "Qiyaamul Layl became compulsory for us with the revelation of the verse:

﴿ يَأَيُّهَا الْمُزَّمِّلُ ﴾ قُم اللَّيْلَ إِلَّا قَلِيْلًا ﴾ (سورة مزمل: آيت ٢٠٠١)

O you wrapped in a cloth! Stand up all night (in Tahajjud salaah) except for a little while (in which to take a rest)..." (Surah Muzammii, verses 1,2) We therefore stood so long in salaah that our feet would swell. Allaah then revealed the verses granting concession when He said:

﴿ عَلِمَ أَنْ سَيَكُونَ مِنْكُمْ مَّرْضَى لا وَاخَرُونَ يَضْوِيُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ يَبْتَغُونَ مِنْ فَصْلِ الله الله لا وَاخْرُونَ يَفَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيْلِ اللهِ لَ قَافْرَهُ وَا مَا تَيْسَّرَ مِنْهُ لا وَلَقِيْمُوا الصَّلُوةَ وَاتُوا الزَّكُوةَ وَأَقْرِضُو اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا * وَمَا تَقَيِّمُوا لِأَنْفُسِكُمْ مِّنْ خَيْرٍ تَجِدُوهُ عِنْدَاللهِ هُوَ خَيْرٌ وَاغْظَمَ اَجْرًا * وَاسْتَغْفَرُو اللَّهَ * انَّ اللَّهُ عَفُوزٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ۞ * (سورة مزمل: آیت: ۲)

Allaah knows that some of you may fall ill, others will travel in the world in search of Allaah's bounty (to earn a living) and others will fight in Allaah's path (in each of these cases, they will be unable to perform Tahajjud as they do at home). Therefore, recite (only) that of the Qur'aan (in Tahajjud) which is easy. (Although Tahajjud is not obligatory, do not neglect to) Establish (the Fardh) salaah, pay 2akaah and give to Allaah a good loan (spend in charity for Allaah's pleasure). Whatever good you send ahead for yourselves (as reward to the Aakhirah), you will find it with Allaah in a better and more rewarding state. Seek forgiveness from Allaah. Verily Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (Surah Muzammil, verse 20)⁽²⁾

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Hishaam asks Hadhrat Aa'isha About Rasulullaah ss's Witr Salaah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Hishaam divorced his wife and then journeyed to Madinah to sell the property he had there. He intended to invest the money from the sale in horses and weapons to use in the Jihaad against the Romans until he died. En route, he met a group of people from his tribe who narrated to him that when six persons of his tribe also wanted to do the same thing during the time of Rasulullaah . Rasulullaah . Routellaah . Rou example in me?" Hadhral Sa'eed then took his wife back in marriage and made the group witness to this.

⁽I) Abu Dawood and Ibn Khuzaymah, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg. 401):

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.251) has commented on the chain of narrators.

He later returned to his people and informed them that he had been to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas to ask about Rasulullaah (25's Witr salaah. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said, "Should I not tell you which person has more knowledge than anyone else about the Rasulullaah (25's Witr?" When Hadhrat Sa'eed asked to know, Hadhrat Abbaas said, "Go to Aa'isha and ask her. Thereafter, I want you to return and inform me what she told you."

Hadhrat Sa'eed narrates further, "I then approached Hadhrat Hakeem bin Aflah shall not go near her because when I forbade her from speaking out against the two factions (the group of Hadhrat Ali shall and that of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya shall not go, she still did so.' However, when I begged him in the name of Allaah, he accompanied me. When we went to her house, she recognised Hakeem shall asked, "Is that Hakeem?" When he confirmed that it was he, she asked, "Who is that with you?" 'He is Sa'eed bin Hishaam,' Hadhrat Hakeem replied. 'Which Hishaam?' she enquired further. 'The son of Aamir,' came the reply. Hadhrat Aa'isha she she hen made du'aa for Aamir she forgiveness and remarked, 'What an excellent man Aamir was!'

Hadhrat Sa'eed continues, "I was again about to leave when it occurred to me to ask about the Witr salaah. Therefore, I said, 'O Ummul Mu'mineen! Do inform me about Rasulullaah ses Witr salaah. She replied, 'We would keep Rasulullaah ses Miswaak and wudhu water ready and when Allaah wished him to awake, he would get up, brush his teeth with the Miswaak and then perform wudhu. Rasulullaah would then perform eight Rakaahs salaah without sitting in between (for the final sitting preceding the Salaam) except in the eighth Rakaah. He would engage in Dhikr of Allaah and making du'aa to Him while he sat, after which he got up for the ninth Rakaah without making Salaam. He would then perform the ninth Rakaah and then sit down. As he sat, he would again engage in Dhikr and du'aa before making Salaam audibly. After the Salaam, he would perform two Rakaahs salaah in a sitting posture. That, dear son, was eleven Rakaahs. However, as Rasulullaah grew older and heavier, he would make the seventh Rakaah the Witr and then perform the other two Rakaahs. That, dear son, was nine Rakaahs. Whenever Rasulullaah performed a salaah, he liked to be consistent with it and if sleep, pain or illness ever prevented him from Qiyaamul Layl, he would perform twelve Rakaahs the next day. I do not know of Rasulullaah completing the entire Qur'aan in one night until dawn and I am also unaware of him fasting an entire month except for the month of Ramadhaan.

I then returned to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Siese and when I informed him about what Hadhrat Aa'isha (Siese had told me, he said, 'She is right. Had I been one to go to her, I would have reported the narration directly from her."(1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Simo Concerning the Witr of the Sahabah after Surah Muzammil was Revealed

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (February) reports, "When the beginning of Surah Muzammil was revealed, the Sahabah (February) stood in salaah as long as they did during Ramadhaan. A year had passed between the revelation of the first part of the Surah and the last part." (2)

The Tahajjud Salaah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Susses used to perform his Witr salaah at the beginning of the night and when he stood for (Tahajjud) salaah, he would perform it in units of two Rakaahs. (3)

Hadhrat Aslam says, "Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (Sisses) used to perform salaah for a long while at night and when half the night had passed, he would awaken his family for salaah, saying, 'Salaah!' He would then recite the verse:

Instruct (encourage) your family to perform salaah and (you) yourself (must) remain sleadfast on it. We do not ask provision (sustenance) from you, but We provide for you. The best result (reward in the Aakhirah) is for (adopting) Tagwa. (Surah TaaHaa, verse 132)⁽⁴⁾

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas (See married one of Hadhrat Umar (See) widows, he said, "By Allaah! I did not marry her simply for wealth or children. I however wanted her to inform me about Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Muslim, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.435).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.281).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.278).

⁽⁴⁾ Maalik and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.380).

Umar Wee's nights (in Ibaadah)." When he asked her how it was that Hadhrat Umar would perform salaah at night, she explained, "After performing the Isha salaah, he would instruct us to place a dish of water at his headside and to keep it covered. When he then woke up at night, he would dip his hand into the water, wipe his face and hands and then engage in Dhikr for a while. (He would then doze off and) It would occur several times that he would awaken (engage in Dhikr and doze off) until the time for him to get up for the Tahajjud salaah arrived." (One of the narrators called) Ibn Buraydah asked (Hadhrat Hasan), "Who narrated this to you?" When Hadhrat Hasan replied that it was the daughter of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas week. Hadhrat Ibn Buraydah conformed that she was a reliable source. (1)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib reports that Hadhrat Umar (Sie loved to perform salaah in the middle of the night. (2)

The Tahajjud of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Susses used to perform salaah for a long while at night and then ask, "Naafi! Has the last portion of the night arrived?" If Hadhrat Naafi replied in the negative, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Susses would continue performing salaah. He would then ask later on, "Naafi! Has the last portion of the night arrived?" When Hadhrat Naafi would eventually reply that the time had arrived, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Susses would sit down and engage in Istighfaar and du'aa until dawn broke. (3)

Hadhrat Muhammad says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Siess would start performing salaah whenever he awoke during the night."

Hadhrat Abu Ghaalib says, "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar نعاض used to stay with us in Makkah and always performed the Tahajjud salaah. One night just before dawn he said to me, 'O Abu Ghaalib! Why don't you get up and perform salaah, even if you recite only a third of the Qur'aan?' I said, 'But how will I recite a third of the Qur'aan when dawn is so close by?' He replied, 'Verily Surah Ikhlaas (الله الله أحدًا) is equal to a third of the Qur'aan." (4)

The Tahajjud salaah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood and Hadhrat Salmaan

Hadhrat Alqama bin Qais relates, "I once spent the night with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sies). He got up during the early part of the night and started performing salaah. He recited as an Imaam in the local Masjid would recite, steadily and without adopting a singing tune. He recited audibly enough for the people around him to hear and he would not regurgitate his voice. Eventually when only that part of the night was left equal to the time it takes between the Maghrib Adhaan and the end of the Maghrib salaah, he would perform his Witr

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.380).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.289).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.303), as quoted in Isaahah (Vol.1 Pg.349). Tabraani has reported a similar narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.304).

salaah."(1)

Hadhrat Taarig bin Shihaab reports that he once spend a night with Hadhrat Salmaan was to see how he exerted himself in Ibaadah at night. When Hadhrat Salmaan got up to perform salaah during the last portion of the night, Hadhrat Taariq did not get to see what he expected. When he mentioned this to Hadhrat Salmaan www. the Sahabi week explained, "Guard your five (Fardh) salaahs closely because they atone for the sins you commit, except for the major sins. After people have performed the Isha salaah, they are divided into three groups. One of the groups has nothing for them but plenty against them. The other group has something for them but nothing against them, while the last group has neither anything for them nor against. The person with nothing for him but plenty against him is the one who takes advantage of the darkness of the night and obliviousness of people to outdo himself in sinning, because of which he has plenty of sin to his detriment and no good to his name. The person with something for him and nothing against him is the one who also takes advantage of the darkness of the night and obliviousness of people, but uses it to engage in salaah. It is for this reason that he has much to his credit but nothing to his detriment. As for the person with neither anything for him nor against, he is the one who goes to bed immediately after performing the Isha salaah. He will therefore have no sin to his account, nor any good. Beware of being hasty and always adopt moderation and constancy." (2)

The Importance Rasulullaah and the Sahabah Attached to the Nawaafil Salaahs between Sunrise and Midday

The Narrations of Hadhrat Ummu Haani and Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning the Salaatud Duhaa that Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ummu Haani who whose name was Faakhtah and who was the daughter of Abu Taalib, reports that when Makkah was conquered, she went to see Rasulullaah . When she got to him, Rasulullaah for was busy taking a bath. After completing the bath, Rasulullaah performed eight Rakaahs salaah, which is referred to as Salaatud Duhaa (the midmorning salaah). Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "While Rasulullaah for usually performed four Rakaahs of Salaatud Duhaa, he also sometimes increased the number of Rakaahs (4)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.266).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.401).

⁽³⁾ Bukhaari and Muslim, as quoted in Riyaadh (Pg.424).

⁽⁴⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Riyaadh.

Narrations of Hadhrat Anas and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa Concerning the Salaatud Duhaa that Rasulullaah Performed

Hadhrat Anas (1) narrates, "I saw Rasulullaah (2) perform six Rakaahs of Salaatud Duhaa and I have never forsaken them thereafter." (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Ummu Haani states that when Rasulullaah ss went to her house the day Makkah was conquered, he performed six Rakaahs Salaatud Duhaa. (2)

When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa (William) performed only two Rakaahs Salaatud Duhaa, his wife asked, "You have performed only two Rakaahs?" He replied, "Rasulullaah (William) also performed two Rakaahs of this salaah when he was given the good news of a victory and also when the head of Abu Jahal was brought to him." (3)

The narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas from Hadhrat Ummu Haani Concerning the Salaatud Duhaa that Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1986) once said, "There is a verse of the Qur'aan that I used to recite without understanding what it referred to. The verse is:

﴿ بِالْعَشِيِّ وَالْإِشْرَاقِ ﴾ (سورة ص: آبت١٨)

...by evening and at Ishraaq (daybreak)... {Surah Saad, verse 18}
This was until Ummu Haani marrated to me that Rasulullaah for once came to her and asked for a dish of water to make wudhu. She said, 'I could still see traces of dough in the dish (because I had just used it for making dough). Rasulullaah for however made wudhu and performed the Salaatud Duhaa saying, 'O Ummu Haani! This is the 'Ishraaq' salaah ('the daybreak salaah')." (4)

Rasulullaah Encourages the Performing of Salaatud Duhaa and explains its Virtues

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Sies) reports that when Rasulullaah (Sies) once dispatched an army, they returned very quickly with a large booty. Someone remarked, "O Rasulullaah (Sies) I have never before seen an army returning so quickly with such a large booty." Rasulullaah (Sies) said, "Shall I not inform you of an army that returns even quicker with an even larger booty? It is the person who

(2) Tabraani in his Awsat and Kabeer, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.238).

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.337) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.238) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Maajah has reported a similar narration, stating that Rasulullaah (performed the Salaatud Duhaa in this manner when the head of Abu Jahal was brought to him. This narration does not state that Rasulullaah (see) do so when receiving news of a victory.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.238) has commented on the chain of narrators.

performs wudhu properly, proceeds to the Masjid to perform the Fajr salaah and then follows this up with performing the Salaatud Duhaa. Such a person returns even quicker with an even larger booty." (1)

Hadhrat Ali (1996), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1996) and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (1996) Perform Salaatud Duhaa

Hadhrat Ataa Abu Muhammad says that he saw Hadhrat Ali (20) performing the Salaatud Duhaa in the Masjid, (2)

Hadhrat Ikramah reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas would perform the Salaatud Duhaa once every ten days. (3)

The daughter of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (Machine), Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that (her father) Hadhrat Sa'd (Machine) used to perform eight Rakaahs of Salaatud Duhaa.

The Importance Attached to the Nawaafil Between Zuhr and Asr

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that although Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (1986) did not perform the Salaatud Duhaa, he performed Nawaafil salaahs between Zuhr and Asr together with the long shift he took at night. (5)

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Singles) engaged himself in salaah between Zuhr and Asr. (6)

The Importance Attached to the Nawaafil Between Maghrib and Isha

The Salaah Rasulullaah Performs salaah between Maghrib and Isha and the Salaah of Hadhrat Ammaar

Hadhrat Hudhayfah ﷺ says, "I went to Rasulullaah ﷺ and performed the Maghrib salaah with him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah ﷺ continued performing salaah until Isha, (7)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ammaar bin Yaasir reports that he saw (his father) Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir perform six Rakaahs salaah after the Maghrib salaah. Hadhrat Ammaar salaah after the Maghrib salaah. Rasulullaah salaah after the Maghrib salaah. Rasulullaah

- (1) Abu Ya'la, Bazzaar, Ibn Hibaan and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.428). the narration of Bazzaar adds that the person referred to was Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1886). Ahmad and Tabraani have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.427).
- (2) Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.281).
 (3) Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.282).
- (4) Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.283).
- (5) Tabraani in his Kabeer. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg. 258) has commented on the chain of narrators
- (6) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.304).
- (7) Nasa'ee, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.369).

'Whoever performs six Rakaahs salaah after the Maghrib salaah will have all his sins forgiven even though they may be as much as the foam on the oceans."

(1)

The Salaah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood sissi and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas between Maghrib and Isha

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Yazeed says, "There was a time when I would always find Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Congress) engaged in salaah. The time was between Maghrib and Isha. I once said to him, Whenever I come to you during this time, I always find you engaged in salaah (Why is this?)' He replied, 'This is a time of negligence (when people are generally negligent of Allaah)." (2)

Hadhrat Aswad bin Yazeed reports that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "How excellent is the time of negligence i.e. the time between Maghrib and Isha." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Fig. 3) said, "Verily the angels surround the people who perform salaah between Maghrib and Isha, which is the Salaatul Awaabeen (4)

Giving Importance to salaah when Entering and Leaving the House

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla (1996) narrates that when someone married the widow of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (1996) and asked her about some special deed that he carried out, she replied, "He would perform two Rakaahs salaah whenever he left the house and whenever he entered."

The Taraweeh Salaah

Rasulullaah Emcourages the Taraweeh salaah

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah says, "Rasulullaah sa encouraged standing in (Taraweeh) salaah during Ramadhaan without emphatically commanding it (so that it should not be regarded as Fardh). He would say, "Whoever stands in (Taraweeh) salaah during Ramadhaan with Imaan and hope in being rewarded shall have all his previous sins forgiven." (6) Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah sais also said, "After Rasulullaah says passed away, matters remained the same during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr says and during the beginning of Hadhrat Umar says Khilaafah." (7)

Tabraani in his Thalaatha, Tabraani and Mundhiri (Vol.1 Pg.368) have commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.230) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.2 Pg.230) has commented on the chain of narrators

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Zanjway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.193).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.2 Pg.306)

⁽⁶⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Riyaadh.

⁽⁷⁾ Bukhaari, Muslim, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Nasa'ee and Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id.

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b Maleads the people in Taraweeh and the Taraweeh salaah during the Time of Rasulullaah Maleads and the time of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports that it was during Ramadhaan that Rasulullaah se once saw some Sahabah performing salaah (in congregation) in the corner of the Masjid. "Who are they?" Rasulullaah se asked. Someone said, "They are people who do not know the entire Qur'aan (by memory) and are following Ubay bin Ka'b seed as he leads them in salaah." Rasulullaah se remarked, "What they are doing is correct and an excellent deed." (1)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abdul Qaari says, "I entered the Masjid with Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab one night in Ramadhaan where we found people in various groups. Everywhere there were individual people performing salaah, each with a group following them. Hadhrat Umar (1986) remarked, 'It would be much better if all these people were collected behind one Qaari.' Therefore, according to his resolve. Hadhrat Umar William got everyone to perform salaah collectively behind Hadhral Ubay bin Ka'b (1986). When I again entered the Masjid with Hadhrat Umar was another night, the people were all performing the (Taraweeh) salaah behind their Qaari (Hadhrat Ubay (1986)). To this, Hadhrat Umar Sisse remarked, 'This is an excellent innovation! However, the part of the night in which you are asleep (the latter part) is much better than the part in which you stand in salaah.' This Hadhrat Umar was said because the people used to perform the Taraweeh salaah during the early part of the night."(2) Hadhrat Naufal bin iyaas Hudhali says, "In Ramadhaan during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab 劉國德, we used to stand in various groups everywhere in the Masjid (while performing the Taraweeh salaah) because people would be inclined to follow the person whom they felt had the best voice. To this Hadhrat Umar 對極感 remarked, 'In my opinion, people have made the Qur'aan a song. By Allaah! I shall definitely change this if I have the ability.' Barely three days had passed when Hadhrat Umar 5000 instructed Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b sto lead the people in salaah. Then standing in last of the rows. Hadhrat Umar was said, 'If this is regarded to be an innovation, it is truly an excellent innovation."(3)

Hadhrat Umar has has the Masjid lit up for the Taraweeh Salaah to be Performed and the Du'aa Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Abu Is'haaq Hamdaani reports that Hadhrat Ali 🛎 once entered the

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Jam'ul Pawaa'id.

⁽²⁾ Maalik, Bukhaari, Ibn Khuzaymah and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal and Jam'ul Fawaa'id.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.5 Pg.59).

Masjid on the first night of Ramadhaan to find lanterns burning and the Book of Allaah being recited. To this he said (to Hadhrat Umar (1)), "O Ibn Khattaab! May Allaah illuminate your grave as you have illuminated the Masaajid of Allaah with the Our'aan."

Hadhrat Ubay (Hadhrat Tameem Daari) (Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma) (Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma) (Hadhrat Tameeh) (Hadhrat Tameem Daari) (Hadhrat Tamee

Hadhrat Urwa (Taraweeh) salaah of Ramadhaan collectively, he gathered the men behind Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (12) and the women behind Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma (12)

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdulaah Ansi reports that it was Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b and Hadhrat Tameem Daari who stood in the place of Rasulullaah to lead the men in Taraweeh salaah inside the Masjid while Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma was led the women in Taraweeh salaah in the courtyard of the Masjid. (This was during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar was) However, when Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan who became the Khalifah, he had both men and women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow one Qaari, who happened to be Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Abu Hathma women follow on Hadhrat Arjafa says, "Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib ﷺ used to instruct the people to perform the (Taraweeh) salaah of Ramadhaan and would appoint an Imaam forthemen and another for the women. I was the Imaam of the women." (4)

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (1986) Leads the Women of his Household in Taraweeh Salaah

Hadhrat Jaabir Siess reports, "Ubay bin Ka'b Siess came to Rasulullaah Report one night of Ramadhaan saying, 'O Rasulullaah Ref! I have done something tonight (and wish to know if it was correct).' 'What is it, O Ubay?' Rasulullaah Ref enquired. Hadhrat Ubay Siess explained, 'The women of my household said to me, 'Since we cannot recite the (entire) Qur'aan (from memory), we shall follow you in salaah.' I therefore led them in eight Rakaans of salaah and then performed the Witr.' Rasulullaah Ref (approved and) did not condemn what Ubay Siess did. The act is therefore established as a Sunnah because of Rasulullaah Ref (5)

Ibn Shaaheen, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.284). Khateeb in his Amaalin and Ibn Asaakir have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.387).

⁽²⁾ Piryaabi and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.283).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.5 Pg.26).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg 284).

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Ya'la and Tabraani, reporting from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.2 Fg.74).

Salaatut Taubah

Hadhrat Buraydah (Salaan narrates that Rasulullaah (Salaan summoned Hadhrat Bilaal (Salaan one morning and said, "O Bilaal! How did you beat me to Jannah? When I entered Jannah last night, I heard your footsteps ahead of me." Hadhrat Bilaal (Salaaid). "O Rasulullaah (Salaaid). Whenever I commit a sin, I perform two Rakaahs salaah (Salaatut Taubah) and whenever my wudhu breaks, I make wudhu immediately and then perform two Rakaahs salaah (Tahiyyatul wudhu)."

Salaatul Haajah

Hadhrat Anas (See performs salaah at the Time of Need and His Need is Fulfilled

Hadhrat Thumaamah bin Abdullaah narrates that during the summer months, the caretaker of Hadhrat Anas series's orchard came to him complaining about the drought. Hadhrat Anas series sent for some water, made wudhu and started performing salaah. Hethenasked themantoseeifhe could see anything (any clouds). When the man reported that he saw nothing, Hadhrat Anas series returned indoors and again performed salaah. It was after the third or fourth time of asking the man to look that the man reported back to say that he saw a cloud the size of a bird's wing. Hadhrat Anas series then continued performing salaah and making du'au until the caretaker came to him and said, "The sky had become overcast and rain has fallen." Hadhrat Anas series said to him. "Take the horse that Bishr bin Shighaaf had sent and see up to where the rain had reached." When the man went to have a look, he discovered that the rain had not fallen further than the Musayyireen and Ghadbaan areas (i.e. it had fallen precisely on the land belonging to Hadhrat Anas series)." (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Performs Salaah for Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Ali  relates, "I was once suffering intense pain, so I went to Rasulullaah . He put me where he was standing, covered me with the end of his shawl and started performing salaah. He then said, "You will be alright now, O son of Abu Taalib? There is nothing to worry about. Whenever I ask anything from Allaah, I always ask the same for you. Allaah has granted me everything I have asked, but I have been informed that there shall be no Nabi after me.' When I then stood up, it seemed as if I had never had any pain at all." (3)

The Du'aa of a Sahabi Hadhrat Abu Mu'liq is is Answered when a Robber Wanted to Kill him

Hadhrat Anas (1866) narrates that there was a companion of Rasulullaah (1867) ibn Khuzaymah, as quoted in Tarpheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg. 437).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.7 Pg.21)

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Aasim, Ibn Jareer, Tabraani in his Awsat and Ibn Shaaheen in his Sunnah, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.43).

called Hadhrat Abu Mu'liq See. He was a trader who traded both his own goods as well as those of others. He was a person who was always engaged in Ibaadah and was extremely abstinent. He was out on business one day when an armed robber confronted him. "Put down your goods," the robber demanded, "because I am going to kill you," "You may have all the goods," Hadhrat Abu Mu'liq Sees told him. "It is only your life that I want," the robber barked. "Then permit me to perform salaah," Hadhrat Abu Mu'liq Requested. The robber laughed, "You may perform as much salaah as you please."

Hadhrat Abu Mu'liq made wudhu and started performing salaah. he made this duaa:

"O The Most Loving! O Master of the Glorious Throne! O the One Who does as He pleases! By Your Honour that none can hope to have, by Your kingdom that none can harm and by Your light that fills the foundations of Your throne do I implore You to protect me from the evil of this robber. O Helper, do help me."

When he had made this du'aa thrice, a rider suddenly appeared with a spear held high above his head. The rider thrust the spear at the robber and killed him. He then went up to the trader and asked, "Who are you?" Hadhrat Abu Mu'liq states replied, "I am the one whom Allaah has rescued through you." The rider then explained, "I am an angel of the fourth heaven. When you first made the du'aa, I heard the doors of the heavens rattle. When you made the du'aa the second time, I heard the inhabitants of the heavens cry out. When you again made the du'aa for the third time and it was announced that this was the du'aa of a person in distress, I sought permission from Allaah to grant me the ability of killing the robber. You ought to know that good news that whoever makes wudhu, performs four Rakaahs salaah and then makes that du'aa, his du'aa will be answered whether he is in distress or not." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya in his Mujaabad Da'wah, as quoted in Isaabah (Vol.4 Pg.182).

Chapter Thirteen

The Chapter Concerning Knowledge and The Fervour the Sahabah (1996) had for Knowledge

This chapter highlights the tremendous fervour that Nabl and the Sahabah had for divine knowledge and how they encouraged it. It further discusses how they taught and learnt knowledge pertaining to Imaan and good deeds and also how they preoccupied themselves with it whether they were on journey or at home, undergoing hardship or enjoying prosperity. Also highlighted is how they dedicated themselves to teaching guests who arrived in Madinah Munawwarah (may millions of salutations and greetings go to the master of the place). Furthermore, the chapter illustrates how they blended the dissemination of divine knowledge with Jihaad and earning a living. In addition to this, it describes how they dispatched individuals to cities to disseminate divine knowledge and how they also gave importance to inculcating within themselves qualities that promote the absorption of this knowledge.

The Encouragement Rasulullaah Gave towards Knowledge

Rasulullaah Welcomes Hadhrat Safwaan bin Assaal Wes who had come to Seek Knowledge

Hadhrat Safwaan bin Assaal Muraadi (Saisse says, "I once came to Rasulullaah (Saisse in the Masjid as he was reclining on his red shawl. 'O Rasulullaah (Sais) I said, 'I have come to seek knowledge.' Rasulullaah (Saisse exclaimed, 'Welcome to the seeker of knowledge! Verily out of the love for what the person seeking knowledge is out to seek, the angels encircle him with their wings and then mount each other until they reach the sky above the earth."

Rasulullaah se's Words to Hadhrat Qabeesah when he Came to Seek knowledge

Hadhrat Qabeesah bin Mukhaariq Sissis says, "When I once went to Rasulullaah Sissi, he asked me what brought me there. I replied, 'I have grown old and my (1) Alimad, Tabraani, Ibn Hibbaan and Haakim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (vol.1 Pg.59).

bones have weakened. I have come to you to teach me something by which Allaah will grant me great benefit.' Rasulullaah عنا said, 'Every stone, tree and mound of sand that you passed (on your way here) prayed for your forgiveness. O Qabeesah! You will be saved from blindness, leprosy and paralysis if after performing your Fajr salaah, you thrice recite the du'aa ' المُنْفِانِ وَ المُعْلِيْنِ وَ اللهِ المُعْلِيْنِ وَاللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ المُعْلِيْنِ وَاللّهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ المُعْلِيْنِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ المُعْلِيْنِ اللهِ ا

O Allaah! I implore You for that which is with You. Pour Your grace upon me, shower Your mercy upon me and send down Your blessings to me. (1)

Rasulullaah E Tells Two of the Sahabah that Seeking Knowledge Atones for Sins

Hadhrat Sakhbarah was narrates that two men were passing by when Rasulullaah was busy giving a talk. Rasulullaah said to them, "Sit down because you two are upon great goodness." When Rasulullaah (had completed and) got up, the Sahabah was dispersed. The two men then also got up and asked, "O Rasulullaah was You had mentioned that the two of us were upon great goodness. Is this for us exclusively or for the general public as well?" Rasulullaah was replied, "Whenever a servant of Allaah seeks knowledge, it atones for all his past sins." (2)

The Superiority of an Aalim over an Ordinary Worshipper in the Words of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Baahili says says that someone once spoke to Rasulullaah says about two men, one being an Aalim and the other an ordinary worshipper. Rasulullaah says remarked, "The superiority of an Aalim over an ordinary worshipper is like my superiority over the lowest amongst you." Rasulullaah says then proceeded to say, "Verily Allaah showers His mercy on the person who teaches people to do good. In addition to this, the angels, the inhabitants of the heavens and even the ants in their anthills and the fish in the oceans pray for his forgiveness." (3)

Another narration does not mention the incident of the two men but continues to state that Rasulullaah see said, "The superiority of an Aalim over an ordinary worshipper is like my superiority over the lowest amongst you." Thereafter, Rasulullaah see recited the verse:

Ahmad, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.21). Mundhiri and Haythami have commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tirmidhi and Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 1 Pg.60).

⁽³⁾ Tirmidhi.

From Allaah's bondsmen, it is only the Ulema who truly fear Him. (Surah Faatir, verse 28)

The rest of this narration ends off just like the one quoted above, (1) Hadhrat Hasan-narrates that Rasulullaah was once questioned about two men who were from amongst the Bani Israa'eel. While one was an Aalim who performed only the compulsory salaahs and then sat to teach the people good, the other fasted throughout the day and performed salaah all night. The Sahabah wanted to know which of the two were better. Rasulullaah was reply was: "The superiority of the Aalim who performed only the compulsory salaahs and then sat to teach the people good over the one who fasted throughout the day and performed salaah all night is like my superiority over the lowest amongst you." (2)

The Encouragement Rasulullaah gave for Seeking Knowledge

Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir says that they were on the Suffa platform when Rasulullaah says came out of his room and said, "Which of you would like to every day to go to the marketplaces of Buthaan or Aqeeq and return with two excellent camels with large humps without committing any sin or severing any family ties?" "O Rasulullaah says "the Sahabah said, "Each one of us would love to do that," Rasulullaah says then said, "If you go to the Masjid and teach or learn two verses of the Qur'aan, it will be better for you than the two camels. Similarly, three verses are better than three camels, four verses better than four camels and any number of verses better than an equal number of camels." (3)

Rasulullaah Ses Words to a Working Man who Complained of his Brother who was Busy Acquiring Knowledge

Hadhrat Anas (The reports that during the time of Rasulullaah (The three were two brothers, one of whom worked while the other was always with Rasulullaah (The to learn from him (The When the working brother complained about his brother to Rasulullaah (The three work), Rasulullaah (The Said to him, "It is perhaps because of him that you are granted sustenance." (4)

The Encouragement the Sahabah @ Gave towards Seeking Knowledge

Hadhrat Ali Encourages Acquiring Knowledge and the Narration of Hadhrat Kumayl from him

Hadhrat Abu Tufayl narrates that Hadhrat Ali substituted to say, "Indeed the

⁽¹⁾ Daarmi.

⁽²⁾ Daarmi, as quoted in Mishkaatul Masaabeeh (Pg.26,28).

⁽³⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Mishkaatul Masaabeeh (Pg. 175). Abu Nu'aym has reported a similar narration in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.341).

⁽⁴⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg,20). Ibn Abdul Birr has reported a similar people closest to the Ambiyaa are those who practise most on what they brought." He would then recite the verse:

﴿ إِنَّ أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِابْرَاهِيْمَ لَلَّذِيْنَ اتَّبَعُوْهُ وَهَذَا النَّبِيُّ وَالَّذِيْنَ امَنُوا ﴾ (سورة آل عمران: آيت ٦٨٠)

Verily those closest to Ibraheem (Surah are the ones who followed him and this Nabi and those who have Imaan... (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 68)

He would then explain, "The verse (the words 'this Nabi and those who have Imaan ') refers to Muhammad and those who follow him. You people should therefore never change because those close to Muhammad are those who obey Allaah. On the other hand, the enemies of Muhammad are those who disobey Allaah even though they may be close relatives of Muhammad are: "(1)

